Es el cuento de nunca acabar, el terror cotidiano e inhumano que recorre la espina dorsal de una América que nos debería seguir doliendo en el alma colectiva a los españoles si tuviéramos eso.
Allí no hay democracia, allí no hay cauces de participación ciudadana más o menos articulados de prisa y corriendo pero que medianamente se sostengan en pie. Por tanto, allí no es trasladable la teoría del terrorismo (a no ser para calificar las políticas antisociales de los estados corruptos). Allí, las revueltas sociales (incluso las obligadamente violentas) adquieren una legitimidad indiscutible, aunque macabra.
Adelante, hermanos, lo siento, pero creo que no hay otro camino, por eso es tan cruel y doloroso.
Abrazos.

ALBERT CAMUS. EL MITO DE SÍSIFO

Autor: Albert Camus. La libertad absurda

(...) También la muerte tiene manos patricias que aplastan pero liberan. Abismarse en esta certidumbre sin fondo, sentirse en adelante lo bastante extraño a la propia vida para aumentarla y recorrerla sin la miopía del amante es el principio de una liberación. Esta independencia nueva tiene un plazo, como toda libertad de acción. No extiende un cheque sobre la eternidad. Pero reemplaza a las ilusiones de la libertad, todas las cuales terminaban con la muerte. La divina disponibilidad del condenado a muerte ante el que se abren las puertas de la prisión cierta madrugada, ese increíble desinterés por todo, salvo por la llama pura de la vida, ponen de manifiesto que la muerte y lo absurdo son los principios de la única libertad razonable: la que un corazón humano puede sentir y vivir. Esta es una segunda consecuencia. El hombre absurdo entrevé así un universo ardiente y helado, transparente y limitado en el que nada es posible pero donde todo está dado, y más allá del cual sólo están el hundimiento y la nada. Entonces puede decidirse a aceptar la vida en semejante universo y sacar de él sus fuerzas, su negación a esperar y el testimonio obstinado de una vida sin consuelo. ¿Pero qué significa la vida en semejante universo? Por el momento nada más que la indiferencia por el porvenir y el ansia de agotar todo lo dado. La creencia en el sentido de la vida supone siempre una escala de valores, una elección, nuestras preferencias. La creencia en lo absurdo, según nuestras definiciones, enseña lo contrario. Pero merece la pena que nos detengamos en esto.

Saber si se puede vivir sin apelación es todo lo que me interesa. No quiero salir de este terreno. Se me ha dado este rostro de la vida; ¿puedo acomodarme a él? Ahora bien, frente a esta preocupación particular, la creencia en lo absurdo equivale a reemplazar la calidad de las experiencias por la cantidad. Si me convenzo de que esta vida no tiene otra faz que la de lo absurdo, si siento que todo su equilibrio se debe a la perpetua oposición entre mi rebelión consciente y la oscuridad en que forcejeo, si admito que mi libertad no tiene sentido sino con relación a su destino limitado, entonces debo decir que lo que cuenta no es vivir lo mejor posible, sino vivir lo más posible. No tengo por qué preguntarme si esto es vulgar o repugnante, elegante o lamentable. De una vez por todas, los juicios de valor quedan descartados aquí en beneficio de los juicios de hecho. Sólo tengo que sacar las conclusiones de lo que puedo ver y no aventurar nada que sea una hipótesis. Si supusiera que vivir así no sería honesto, la verdadera honestidad me ordenaría que fuese deshonesto. Vivir lo más posible, en su sentido amplio, es una regla de vida que nada significa. Hay que precisarla. Parece, ante todo, que no se ha ahondado suficientemente esta noción de cantidad, pues puede dar cuenta de una gran parte de la experiencia humana. La moral de un nombre, su escala de valores no tienen sentido sino por la cantidad y variedad de experiencias que ha podido acumular.

Ahora bien, las condiciones de la vida moderna imponen a la mayoría de los hombres la misma cantidad de experiencias y, por lo tanto, la misma experiencia profunda. Ciertamente, hay que tener en cuenta también la aportación espontánea del individuo, lo que en él está "dado". Pero no puedo juzgar esto y una vez más mi regla consiste en arreglarme con la evidencia inmediata. Veo entonces que la característica propia de una moral común reside menos en la importancia ideal de los principios que la animan que en la norma de una experiencia que es posible calibrar. Forzando un poco las cosas, los griegos tenían la moral de sus ocios como nosotros tenemos la de nuestras jornadas de ocho horas. Pero ya muchos hombres, y entre ellos los más trágicos, nos hacen presentir que una experiencia más larga cambia este cuadro de valores. Nos hacen imaginar a ese aventurero de lo cotidiano que mediante la simple cantidad de las experiencias batiese todos los récords (empleo a propósito esta expresión deportiva) y ganara así su propia moral.

Alejémonos, no obstante, del romanticismo y preguntémonos solamente qué puede significar esta actitud para un hombre decidido a mantener su apuesta y a observar estrictamente lo que él cree que es la regla del juego. Batir todos los récords es, ante todo y únicamente, estar frente al mundo con la mayor frecuencia posible. ¿Cómo se puede hacer esto sin contradicciones y sin juegos de palabras? Pues, por una parte, lo absurdo enseña que todas las experiencias son indiferentes y, por la otra, impulsa a la mayor cantidad de experiencias. ¿Cómo no hacer entonces lo que han hecho tantos de esos hombres de los que hablaba más arriba: elegir la forma de vida que nos aporte la mayor cantidad posible de esa materia humana, introducir con ello una escala de valores que por otro lado se pretende rechazar?

Pero sigue siendo lo absurdo y su vida contradictoria lo que nos enseña. Pues el error consiste en pensar que esta cantidad de experiencias depende de las circunstancias de nuestra vida, cuando sólo depende de nosotros. A este respecto hay que ser simplista. A dos hombres que viven el mismo número de años, el mundo les proporciona siempre la misma cantidad de experiencias. A nosotros nos corresponde tener conciencia de ellas. Sentir la propia vida, su rebelión, su libertad, y lo más posible, es vivir lo más posible. Donde reina la lucidez se hace inútil la escala de valores. Seamos todavía más simplistas. Digamos que el único obstáculo, la única pérdida "por falta de ganancia" lo constituye la muerte prematura. El universo aquí sugerido no vive sino por oposición a esa excepción constante que es la muerte. Por eso ninguna profundidad, ninguna emoción, ninguna pasión ni ningún sacrificio podrían hacer iguales a los ojos del nombre absurdo (aunque lo desease) una vida consciente de cuarenta años y una lucidez que abarca sesenta años. La locura y la muerte son sus elementos irremediables. El hombre no elige. Lo absurdo y el aumento de vida que implica no dependen, por lo tanto, de la voluntad del hombre, sino de su contrario, que es la

Si se pesan bien las palabras, se trata únicamente de una cuestión de suerte. Hay que saber consentir en ella. Veinte años de vida y de experiencias no se reemplazarán ya nunca. Por una extraña inconsecuencia, en una raza tan avisada, los griegos pretendían que los hombres que morían jóvenes fueran amados por los dioses. Y esto no es cierto, salvo si se quiere creer que entrar en el mundo irrisorio de los dioses es perder para siempre el más puro de los goces, que es el de sentir, y sentir en esta tierra. El presente y la sucesión de los presentes ante un alma sin cesar consciente, tal es el ideal del hombre absurdo. Pero aquí la palabra ideal tiene un sonido falso. No es ni siquiera su vocación, sino sólo la tercera consecuencia de su razonamiento. Habiendo partido de una conciencia angustiada de lo inhumano, la meditación sobre lo absurdo vuelve al final de su itinerario al seno mismo de las llamas apasionadas de la rebelión humana.

Así saco de lo absurdo tres consecuencias, que son mi rebelión, mi libertad y mi pasión. Con el solo juego de la conciencia transformo en regla de vida lo que era invitación a la muerte, y rechazo el suicidio. Conozco, sin duda, la sorda resonancia que corre a lo largo de estas jornadas. Pero sólo tengo que decir que es necesaria. Cuando Nietzsche escribe: "Parece claramente que lo principal en el cielo y en la tierra es obedecer largo tiempo y en una misma dirección: a la larga resulta de ello algo por lo que vale la pena vivir en esta tierra, como por ejemplo la virtud, el arte, la música, la danza, la razón, el espíritu, algo que transfigura, algo refinado, loco o divino", ilustra la regla de una moral de gran porte. Pero muestra también el camino del hombre absurdo. Obedecer a la llama es a la vez lo más fácil y más difícil. Es bueno, sin embargo, que el hombre, al medirse con la dificultad, se juzgue de vez en cuando. Es el único que puede hacerlo.

"La plegaria —dice Alain— se hace cuando la noche desciende sobre el pensamiento". "Pero es necesario que el espíritu se encuentre con la noche", contestan los místicos y los existencialistas. Ciertamente, pero no esa noche que nace bajo los ojos cerrados y por la sola voluntad del hombre, noche sombría y cerrada que el espíritu suscita para perderse en ella. Si debe encontrarse con una noche, ésta debe ser más bien la de la desesperación, que sigue siendo lúcida, noche polar, vigilia del espíritu, de la que surgirá, quizás, esa claridad blanca e intacta que dibuja cada objeto a la luz de la inteligencia. A esta altura, la equivalencia coincide con la comprensión apasionada. Entonces ni siquiera se trata de juzgar el salto existencial. Vuelve a ocupar su fila en medio del fresco secular de las actitudes humanas. Para el espectador, si es consciente, ese salto sigue siendo absurdo. En la medida en que cree resolver la paradoja, la restituye por completo. A este título, es conmovedor. A este título, todo vuelve a ocupar su lugar y el mundo absurdo renace con su esplendor y su diversidad.

Pero es malo detenerse, difícil contentarse con una sola manera de ver, privarse de la contradicción, la más sutil, quizá, de todas las formas espirituales. Lo que precede define solamente una manera de pensar. Ahora se trata de vivir."

...A Camus no le gustaba mucho que le metieran en el mismo saco que a los existencialistas, pero este texto da muestra de su capacidad de ideologizar con criterio. Creía en el hombre con una fe sobrehumana y lo defendía a capa y espada, pero aquí, en vida, en este instante y lugar. La realidad puede ser cruda, pero no por ello desdeñable...

De acuerdo con Lee. A pesar de sus constantes declaraciones para distinguirse de los existencialistas (sobre todo de Sartre), su individualismo y su exaltación de la libertad le convierten, en mi opinión y con todas las prevenciones contra el encasillamiento, en un existencialista algo atípico y no declaradamente ateo (quizás en eso más cercano a Heidegger), que resalta la contradicción humana como fuente de la angustia que salvará al hombre.
Gracias, Gata por recordarnoslo.

¿Bandas de Una? ¡Socorro, Gata! ¿Eso qué es?...

Pues yo, más allá del deleite –cuasi masoquista, ya que iba unido a la angustia- que me produjo en su momento –un momento muy temprano- leer a Camus, diré que paso de las etiquetas, y, si me apuran, también de Sísifo; pero citaré algo que leí hace algún tiempo en La Insignia, escrito por Roger Genier(1): "[…] …Sartre ha explicado que Camus no es un existencialista y que sus verdaderos maestros son los moralistas franceses del siglo XVII. Y explica que la palabra absurdo no tiene el mismo significado para Camus que para él: «El absurdo nace para él de la relación entre el hombre y el mundo, de las exigencias razonables del hombre y de la irracionalidad del mundo», mientras «lo que yo llamo absurdo es una cosa muy diferente: es la contingencia universal del ser, que es, pero que no es el fundamento de su ser; es lo que hay en el ser de dado, de injustificable, de siempre elemental.»
Para el existencialismo el hombre no es su propio fin, ya que no existe más que proyectándose fuera de sí mismo, a lo que llamamos la trascendencia. En cambio, para Camus el hombre es su propio fin. De esta manera precisa su posición respecto al existencialismo, o más bien respecto a los existencialistas:
A pesar de las aclaraciones, el público encontraba algunas excusas para incluir a Camus entre los existencialistas, y no se trataba solamente del Bardu Pont Royal y de los sótanos de Saint Germain des Prés, su territorio común. En 1945 Camus publicó Observaciones sobre la sublevación (Rémarque sur la révolte) como parte de una obra colectiva que lleva un título elocuente: La existencia. Los otros autores eran Benjamín Fondane, Maurice de Gandillac, Etienne Gilson, Jean Grenier, Louis Lavelle, René La Senne, Brice Parain y A. de Waehlens. En efecto, había con qué equivocarse. Camus subraya, de manera humorística, lo difícil que resulta dar a cada uno la etiqueta que le conviene, y constata lo que hay en común entre Sartre y él: que ninguno de los dos cree en Dios y, de entrada, no creen en el racionalismo absoluto. Y agrega:

(1) http://www.lainsignia.org/2000/octubre/cul_016.htm

…y bien, pues yo tampoco creo ni en Dios, ni en el racionalismo absoluto, ni en las etiquetas; y suscribo lo que se dice en la cita reseñada.
¡Un post excelente, mis felicitaciones, Gatopardo!

Un beso muy fuerte.

Tanto albert Camus como Jean Paul Sartres fueron ambos de pensamientos existencialistas. No estan muy lejos de los criterios del libro de Job; aunque en Job habìa una esperanza. Sin embargo, tanto en Camus como Sartres las esperanzas estan liquidadas. Alli en ellos lo que hay es un absurdo sobree la existencia del ser humano visto desde la vida biologica.

Felicitaciones, hoy postear una reflección de Albert Camus, ya es un hecho absurdo, en Camus jamás las esperanzas están liquidadas, es vivir hasta agotar la última llama de vida, como el mismo lo dice literalmente, y el absurdo simplemente es un concepto liberador de todas las fuerzas que niegan la vida, la rebelión el derecho a amar a la justicia y la rebelión, los errores de interpretación de la obra de Camus son innumerables, el hecho de ver a Mersault, como un hombre insensible, es la mirada común de la crítica mediocre de nuestros días, pero volviendo al tema, muchas gracias

A raíz de un artículo que titulé: "Lo siento, hijos míos, pero de esto se tienen que enterar mis nietos" , iniciando así el estilo intimista y confesional que mis lectores me habían pedido como alternativa a la matraca crítica y reivindicativa, los padres de mis nietos iniciaron una soterrada campaña de desprestigio, sellaron la cerradura de mi caja fuerte con pegamento super-glue para que no pudiera sacar el pick-up y los discos, y arguyeron que la carátula de José Ángel fue un montaje que hice yo con ayuda del photo shop. Y, por último, me dejaron olvidada en una gasolinera, sin el bolso, cuando se fueron a la playa de vacaciones.

Aquí está la prueba: podéis escuchar, en todo su esplendor, "Madre, soy cristiano homosexual", cantado y grabado por mi José Ángel cuando aún no se había hecho budista metrosexual, y acérrimo del feng shui.

Y cuando queráis, nenes, volvéis por más.

Pues sí, amigos. Como suena. José Ángel es cristiano. Y homosexual. Y quiere que su madre lo sepa. Y se lo canta. Coño, si se lo canta. Y la pobre mujer aguantando mecha, claro. Porque... ¿le han echado una mirada al ínclito José Ángel? ¿Sí? ¿Y qué se piensa el bueno de José Ángel? ¿Qué eso es lo peor? Yo creo que su madre, si no lo sabía ya, lo sospechaba. Pero... ¿Y esa camisa, qué? ¿Y ese moreno albañil y esa expresión de fallo neuronal masivo? ¿Eso no le importa a tu madre José Ángel? ¿No? Yo que quieren que les diga. Si fuese madre de eso, que se me confesase ser cristiano y homosexual sería la menor de mis preocupaciones. Total. Ya que más da. ¿Ustedes piensan que un hijo así tendría arreglo? Quiero decir si el asesinato siguiese figurando en el Código Penal. ¿No verdad? Fíjense, fíjense en esa papada imperial que vale para hacer siete pucheros de familia numerosa, esos zapatitos pintureros tres números mas pequeños con esos calcetincitos de punto, que en vez de pies parece que tiene dos alfajores, ese pantalón blanco con esas piernas embutidas como mortadelas, ese reloj Casio para ligar en las discotecas de Fuengirola con sudorosos y bigotudos señores, cristianos también, claro.

A mi José Ángel me inquieta. Esa determinación cerril en su mirada. Ese afeitado Filomatic Gay y esa postura como del que espera en la consulta del urólogo... Podría si quisiera destruir la realidad que conocemos, por muy idiota que esta sea. Podría convertirnos en sus esbirros repolleros. Ahí sentado, tan ricamente en ese sofá tita Encarna con esa planta de plástico como único atrezzo, podría anular a la civilización con un simple gesto de sus pobladas cejas o una señal de esas manos de zampabollos

Y si ya han visto al artista, esperen a oír su producto. Una introducción y arreglos tipo canción electoral del partido 'Vecinos por la independencia de la pedanía de Fuente Pasiego, León', dan paso a una voz atiplanada y sentimental de eunuco borracho. Con un falsetto melodiosamente amariconado, José Ángel desgrana pormenorizadamente a su pobre y santa madre, sus inquietudes derivadas del gusto por los placeres sodomíticos. Con un estribillo más que pegadizo, repugnantemente pegajoso, el tema nos subyuga con un desastroso in crescendo que nos conduce al plato fuerte del tema. Al tour de force de un artista emocionado... un pequeño discurso hablado, donde con la emotividad a flor de piel y la musiqueta electoral de fondo, José Ángel balbucea con voz sentida unas líneas inmortales. Frases como '...No somos animales ni hijos del infierno...', '...Que piensen en un momento en la posibilidad de tener un hijo homosesuá...', y otras joyas poéticas van llevando al tema hacia su conclusión que recibimos emocionados, con los ojos llenos de lágrimas, un pulmón estallado y los tímpanos sangrando.

Una última recomendación. En la esquina inferior izquierda encontrarán el sello acreditativo de que esta grabación se trata de una grabación en Stereo. Por lo tanto, no olviden reproducir preferentemente el tema usando la novedosa técnica estereofónica, que conseguirá una increíble separación de sonidos por ambos canales en caso de que su aparato reproductor disponga de esta función. Con todos ustedes, José Ángel: Cristiano y Homosesuá.

Pues a mí me parece que nos hemos cebado demasiado con el envoltorio (ese vestir, ese posar, ese mirar, ese atrezzo...) y no estamos viendo lo esencial del fenómeno. Y el caso es que el conjunto ofrece una estampa ibérica de lo más genuino. Igualitos que José Angel había cientos de españoles acechando las playas del levante patrio. Queridos y queridas: este señor no era raro en la España de los años sesenta o setenta (no sé de cuándo es el disco, pero, a juzgar por el carbono catorce estético...) Es más, ¿pensáis que Ikea ofrece REALMENTE otra cosa que un simple sentido del gusto coyuntural masificable como el que vemos en esta estampa? ¿En qué se diferencia una mesita Bürglünd de un práctico mueble de Formica? (no sé si sabréis de qué va eso de la Formica) ¿Acaso no son dos maneras de hacer una misma cosa: negar la madera? ¿Es mejor un juego de margaritas de contrachapado pintadas con colores fundamentales, que una bailarina sevillana sobre un televisor, con su tapetito y su de tó?

En la solución estética de esa portada de disco, quien se estaba expresando no era José Ángel, era una buena parte de las industrias gráfica y discográfica españolas, que eran así. Si no, véanse otras producciones. Y con la composición musical, ocurre otro tanto: expresa el estado de la cuestión musical en el páramo franquista. Así estaba la cosa en la industria audiovisual (cine y discos) de aquella España que era como un cuartel cerrado que olía a pies y a orín.

El pobre José Ángel, sin duda, tuvo que pactar con la sucia realidad de la especulación industrial para poder expresar su contenido heroico. Porque, él, lo que quería decir, era "madre soy cristiano homosexual". Ese es el contenido. Y no os riáis, ese contenido era un bombazo. En los años sesenta, o en los setenta, había que echarle huevos al asunto para hacer en público semejante declaración. Tipos así eran héroes ultrajados y utilizados por una industria cutre y ramplona, una industria que producía (y produce), como rosquillas, auténtica basura destinada a ocupar el nicho que debería ocupar la cultura popular. Menudo morbazo y menudo filón debieron ver los astutos industriales de la subcultura en un ingenuo mariquilla que se prestaba a hacer pública su "desviación". Y luego... luego había de venir la crucifixión, claro. Qué no tendría que oír, y sufrir, el pobre José Ángel después de andar cantando por ahí que era maricón, en aquella España tan viril, tan Una, tan Grande y tan Descerebrada (recordemos que lo mejor de nuestros cerebros había sido asesinado, estaba en el exilio o se ocultaba en silencio).

A mí me da la impresión de que toda la morralla que hizo posible este disco sigue vigente, simplemente se ha reciclado y se ha lavado la cara. En las modernísimas productoras de hoy, se despacha la misma mercancía: subproductos del corazón y el intelecto humanos. Salvo honrosas excepciones, la cultura popular no emerge del pueblo, llueve desde esa industria que fabrica "trastos seudoculturales normalizados" como podría fabricar alpargatas o traficar con armas.

Y, llegados aquí, ¿acaso nuestros abuelos, tan dóciles a la hora de poner casa, eran tan manguis como los industriales que dictaban el sentido del gusto del momento?

Queridos y queridas, salvemos a nuestros abuelos y a nuestros padres, culpables, si acaso, del pecadillo de seguir una moda que no sabían de dónde venía, porque llovía por encima de los altos muros de un país cerrado a cal y canto; salvemos a José Ángel, ese héroe melancólico que se apresta a recibir todas las saetas de San Sebastián en su cuerpecillo orondo. Y que, junto al inventor del metacrilato (Woody Allen dixit) arda en el infierno la ramplona industria discográfica española que dio forma a este horror. Y, ya puestos, que ardan en el infierno también todos los ramplones rampantes que envilecen la industria cinematográfica española. ¡Ah! y el compositor, que arda el compositor que hizo los arreglos!!

HACIENDO AMIGOS

"El sufrimiento no da derechos"* Albert Camus

Las mujeres de la generación de mi madre y de mi abuela solían exclamar dramáticamente cuando nacía una niña:
-¡Ay, otra mujer para sufrir y soportar a los hombres!
Y cuando la niña tenía la primera regla, era aleccionada para rehuir la proximidad de cualquier varón, porque se podría quedar preñada.
El varón era malo como la tiña, egoísta, falso, peligroso, enemigo natural y depredador de las mujeres, sus víctimas propiciatorias. Del hombre llegaban todos los males: el calvario que imponían en el lecho conyugal, que sólo podía inspirar repulsión, daba como resultado el embarazo y la maternidad, sufrimientos que arrostraban por su culpa, para parir futuros enemigos de las mujeres o futuras víctimas de ellos.

Las mujeres decentes de mi generación tomaron buena nota. Desde niñas aprendieron a no correr, a no hacer gestos bruscos, a mantener las piernecitas juntas, a jugar entre ellas, con sus muñecas, sus cocinitas, y a reproducir con gran verismo las consejas que escuchaban:
-¡Eres mala! ¡Te has manchado el vestido!- reconvenían a aquella muñeca rígida- ¡Te voy a dar un azote como me mires así! ¡Ay, qué cruz!
Luego, de mayoricitas, seguían yendo juntas, pero el objeto de su atención eran los muchachos azorados y desmañados que se cruzaban.
-Nos ha mirado -decía una.
-¡Pues que mire, el muy idiota!
-¡Será fresco!
-Su hermana dice que no es buen estudiante.
-¡Ya, sin oficio ni beneficio no sé que pretenderá mirándonos!
Si el pobre desgraciado osaba saludar recibía un insultante silencio por respuesta.
La mujer y la virtud iban enfundadas con fajas con ballenas que las convertían en una fortaleza amurallada, con el puente levadizo alzado, que sólo habría de rendirse ante un buen partido, un futuro económico resuelto, y la posibilidad de mantener a su futura familia. Eso significaba, de hecho, que los pobres hombres erraban hasta muy avanzada la vida sin tener otro conocimiento de las mujeres que el que le dejaran entrever las de su familia, poco dadas a contemplaciones ni confidencias con el varón, por muy hijo o hermano que fuera. Las mujeres aprendían a defender su buena reputación con una reserva digna de un agente secreto en zona enemiga, y medían sus gestos, sus palabras, sus miradas, sus andares, sus intereses, la ortodoxia de sus pensamientos y sus actos con la convicción absoluta de estar rodeadas de peligros y de asechanzas.
Las mujeres poco recomendables decidimos desentendernos de aquellos nefastos augurios, no actuamos a la defensiva, exploramos sin reservas y sin miedo a nuestros semejantes, los tratamos sin beligerancia , y tomamos la vida al asalto, solas, sin cultivar nuestras debilidades. Sí: viajar, tener opiniones propias, mantener una actitud libre, defender nuestras ideas y nuestras convicciones, no ir en rebaño, era arriesgado ; pero era el mismo riesgo que corrían los hombres que merecían nuestro respeto. Por eso pudimos descubrir su fraternidad y su amistad, y por eso supimos que ellos no eran nuestros enemigos. Y que los que son nuestros enemigos, también eran enemigos de nuestros amigos y aliados.
Tuvimos campañas de desprestigio delirantes de aquellos reaccionarios que defendían el modelo de mujer pasiva, basado en el victimismo, que produce mujeres cobardes, quejosas, que jamás tomarán sobre sí la responsabilidad de vivir plenamente, por cochino miedo a quitarse la faja.
Y todas esas ideas de mujeres victimas y de hombres culpables, que rechazamos nosotras , que eran la base ideológica que producían y defendían aquellos alienados, son las ideas que defienden las feministas que podrían ser mis nietas, que se las dan de concienciadas y progresistas, y lo peor es que tratan de hacernos interiorizar ese inmenso fraude, envalentonadas con el miedo reverencial de los hombres a ser tachados de machistas.
La misoginia hacia ese tipo de mujeres que enarbolan como único mérito frente a los hombres su condición de víctimas, aunque nadie les haya dado una bofetada en su vida, es una obligación moral que no rehuyo.

En esto pasa, como cuando en un accidente muere un trabajador, los sindicatos se echan las manos a la cabeza, se rasgan las vestiduras,amenazan a los empresarios(de palabra) y por sobre todo, ocupan los primeros planos de las cámaras y la prensa; pero se da sepultura al desgraciado que se mató en la obra, y se guardan las pancartas y se acallan las protestas y todo sigue igual, hasta que caiga el próximo...
Pues en esto de la violencia de género, mucha pancarta, mucha feminista poniendo a parir a los probados culpables y de paso, en muchos casos, a los hombres en general, y nadie pone pies en pared y busca una solución real al problema. O al menos así lo veo yo, es mi parecer.
En fin…

Me parece que no estamos muy de acuerdo, Gatopardo.
¿Estás diciendo que las feministas lo único que hacen es victimismo?
Las más de 50 mujeres muertas a manos de sus compañeros no te parece suficiente muestra para decir que sois víctimas?
¿el machismo imperante en todos los ámbitos de la sociedad española no te parece suficiente para decir que las mujeres estáis oprimidas?
En cualquier caso, si una supuesta feminista sólo hace victimismo, tal vez es que más que feminista sea hembrista.
Y yo, doy un paso al frente y sigo hablando por la igualdad de la mujer (que aún está muy lejana) y por el fin del machismo.

Trini: vivir es una enfermedad con resultado de muerte. Y nadie tiene la solución para que la vida no tenga riesgos, lo único que sirve para evitarlos es no vivir.
Pepe: por ser mujer me intentarán pelar al cero, pero como abuela heavy me queda bien la cabeza rapada, no hay problema. Tú también me caes bien, pero como sigas sin llevarme la contraria, tarifamos.
Juan Cosaco: las mujeres asesinadas por sus compañeros representan el 5% de las estadísticas de muertes violentas en España. Digo que se extrapola una realidad ínfima para considerar presuntos culpables a todos los hombres, y crear leyes de excepción demenciales, como por ejemplo el hecho de que se hayan saturado los juzgados con denuncias de malos tratos indemostrables, sin un hematoma, sin un arañazo, sin un chichón; es decir, sin poder aportar pruebas de que haya existido el delito, se le aplica al posible culpable todo el rigor de la Ley.
La discriminación que se achaca en la vida real al machismo está tan sobredimensionada como el riesgo de ser asesinadas por nuestros compañeros.
Estoy diciendo que quienes hemos querido ser respetadas como mujer nos ganamos el respeto compitiendo en igualdad de condiciones, sin cuotas, sin pamemas victimistas, sin culpabilizar a los hombres, sin llevar la suspicacia por delante como baremo de lo liberadas y feministas que somos.
Y cuando te quieras indignar de verdad, mira la cifra de las víctimas del gremio de la construcción. Y que yo sepa no se monta una pajarraca día sí y día también hablando de eso.
Da todos los pasos al frente que quieras por la igualdad de las mujeres que sean iguales; pero procura ser sincero y reflexiona en la cantidad de señoras que no valen ni para tacos de escopeta, y que para no ser tachado de machista tendrás que considerar como si fueran Marie Curie.

Gata, en mi opinión el victimismo funcionó como una especie de arma en los tiempos oscuros en manos de mujeres y hombres débiles.
Ahora tiene menos sentido todavía, pero tu excesiva crudeza revolucionaria sin retocar, incisiva, directa y muy dura te va a acarrear muchas incomprensiones.
Creo que sabes bien lo que dices porque has vivido lo tuyo con un par. Pero eso, ahora y siempre, resulta incómodo para algunos.

Para mí, siempre existirán diferencias entre hombres y mujeres, entre unas mujeres y otras, entre un chaval y su vecino. Pero no acepto reconocer que unos ocupen una posición superior a otros, no hay víctimas y verdugos en mi mente, que observa a una mujer y a un hombre y los coloca a ambos en el mismo escalafón. Quien teniendo a los dos presentes decida colocar por encima a uno de ellos, lleva el "problema" con él y lo perpetúa.

Un abrazo Gato.

Hola, Gatopardo:

He intentado comprender tu punto de vista, Gatopardo, pero si bien comparto parte de lo que dices, sobre todo cuanto se refiere a la necesidad de que la mujer se respete a si misma, se forme, se haga independiente y se haga respetar, cómo cualquier ser humano, hay otras partes que no puedo compartir.

En primer lugar, comparar asesinatos de mujeres con accidentes acaecidos en el ámbito laboral con resultado de muerte (en la construcción) me parece sesgar mucho el tema además de hacerlo de una manera falaz, ya que una muerte es una muerte, y la misma indignación produce un obrero o una obrera muertos por causa de las precarias condiciones laborales, que una mujer asesinada en manos de su pareja.

Por otro lado, ¿son acaso las muertes acaecidas en el ámbito laboral asesinatos? En mi opinión, indirectamente si lo son, pero judicialmente no lo son, aunque implique negligencias que rayan lo delictivo; mientras que los asesinatos de mujeres en manos de sus parejas masculinas si son directamente y de todas, todas, asesinatos sin paliativos.

Comparar estadísticas de asesinatos de mujeres con accidentes laborales me parece una falta de rigor. Si tenemos que utilizar estadísticas para comparaciones, entonces tendremos que comparar hechos similares, y en el caso de las mujeres asesinadas en manos de sus parejas o de sus ex-parejas, deberemos compararlas con el número de asesinatos habidos en un determinado lugar, y en el mismo periodo de tiempo, por otras causas. Y no sé de donde te has sacado ese 5%. Llevo toda la mañana buscando estadísticas que sí puedan ser comparables y no me cuadra el dato usado por ti.

Por otro lado, pensar que todas las víctimas de asesinato –en el caso de las mujeres asesinadas por sus parejas masculinas- eran memas, presa de un victimismo y pasividad tan machista como el machismo que denuncian, me parece muy exagerado, además de frivolizar la cuestión y posibilitar el malentendido que será utilizado por esos machos que aguardan cualquier resquicio para seguir machacando. Creo que los patrones del machismo –cómo tu bien los ilustras en tu post- están perfectamente definidos y tanto mujeres cómo hombres forman parte integrante de él, tanto en su ejecución cómo en su perpetuación. En esto no puedo más que felicitarte por lo bien que lo has expuesto. Pero tildar así, sin más, de "victimista y machista" al feminismo actual, por más que puedan ser nuestras nietas, no me parece de recibo.

Menos de una década me separa a mí de ti, en edad; así que esas situaciones con las que tuvimos que bregar las mujeres feministas de entonces, me atrevo a señalar que fueron las mismas. Y, lamentablemente, en muchos aspectos siguen siendo las mismas entonces cómo hoy. Nunca me he considerado una "víctima", ni he considerado a los hombres mis enemigos ni los culpables de nada. Me he hecho respetar, he sido respetada y he luchado y lucho contra un sistema machista –verdadero culpable- que nos ha desnaturalizado en nuestra esencia a todos: varones y mujeres, y que aún lo sigue haciendo. No obstante, ello no me ha impedido reconocer que el esfuerzo que he tenido que poner yo –mujer- para llegar alcanzar los mismos objetivos sociales y laborales que un varón, ha sido significativamente mucho más alto, y qué el salario ha sido y es diferente para un mismo puesto y desempeño, si lo recibe un varón o una mujer…

En fin, esto sería muy largo para un comentario. Perdona.

Un abrazo muy tierno y entrañable.

Querida Hannah: no he modificado el artículo, no he tocado ni una coma.
Cuando hablo de muertes violentas sólo incluyo las que se tipifican en el Código Penal como "asesinato", y "homicidio": y me gustaría que pensaras por qué el bombardeo mediático pasa de puntillas sobre el 95% de los asesinatos, la mayoría relacionados con el crímen organizado, una multinacional que considera España un paraiso de impunidad, al no legislarse y aplicarse la Ley que rige en otros paises de nuestro entorno.
No borraré tu comentario, porque explica perfectamente tu posición, que es muy interesante y enriquece el debate. Pero sí me gustaría que reflexionaras en la cantidad de mujeres que ante cualquier dificultad, cualquier fracaso o desacuerdo personal reivindican ser víctimas del machismo.
Hace diez minutos que he vuelto de tomar un café con unos amigos: he escuchado explicar a una excelente mujer que tendrá muchos defectos pero no el de ser una preclara inteligencia, a la que conozco desde que hizo el tercero año consecutivo para obtener el Graduado Escolar, que si no hizo Empresariales, que es su vocación, fue por el machismo que había en su época que vetaba la universidad a las mujeres: tiene 41 años.

Hay gente mejor y gente peor bajo muchos conceptos.
Hannah: eso lo has leído en mi respusta a Cosaco, al que le he mencionado la siniestralidad en el gremio de la construcción (casi exclusivamente masculino) y que respecto a los casi 12 millones de mujeres emparejas, el peligro de morir a manos de tu compañero es mínima, comparado con el riesgo de ser albañil. Admirada Gatopardo, empiezo a preocuparme. Cómo es posible que desde que degusto su abigarrada bitácora no he encontrado motivos de discrepancia (adjetivos y adverbios aparte) entre sus pensamientos y los míos? Seré yo un clon de su felina persona? Será usted fruto de mi imaginación? Exite realmente esta bitácora? Existo yo? Existen las mujeres? Y los agudos comentaristas de sus artículos, existen? Es Hannah real? Y Trini, y Tautina? Y todos los demás? Existe el mundo, el universo? ...

Por favor, para liberarme de este mar de dudas, de esta angustia existencial, intente, por una vez, tener una opinión diferente de la mía (tómelo como un ruego. No, mejor, una súplica). Aquí le dejo unas pistas, lo más definitoria de mi compleja personalidad, para que pueda usted llevarme la contraria: me gustan las sardinas y las avellanas, las mujeres con el pelo corto, no soporto la palabra bitácora, y me chifla el vino del Priorat. Victimismos y demás... en la sociedad actual, después de toda la "revolución sexual", se sigue hablando de las mujeres "como mujeres", con connotaciones distintas a las de antaño, pero todavía "como mujeres". Todavía falta para que se hable de las mujeres "como personas" y no se les cuelgue la etiqueta de "mujer", sea lo que sea que esa etiqueta denote en cada momento de la historia de nuestra cultura.

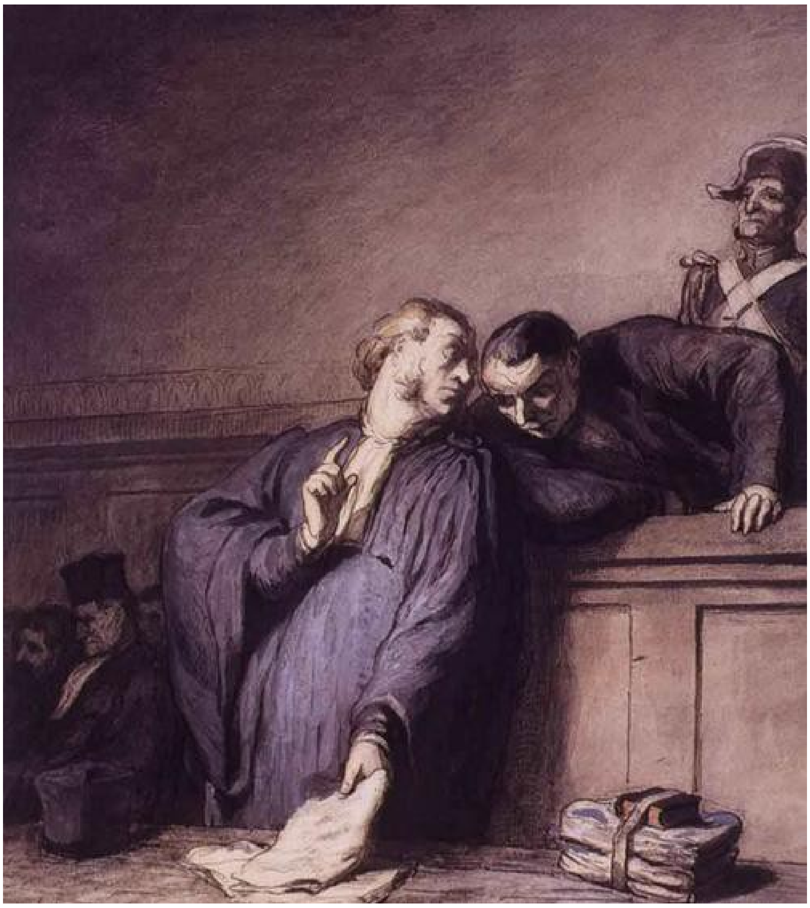
POR FAVOR, NO TOQUEN EL GÉNERO



Autor: Ramón Corominas

- Se abre la sesión. La fiscal tiene la palabra.
Con aire educador:
- Con la venia. Señoría, antes de empezar... Soy mujer, preferiría que nombre mi profesión en femenino. Fiscala, si no le importa.
Algo fastidiado:
- Está bien, abogada. Prosiga.
Triunfanta:
- Llamaré a declarar a mi primera testigo...
Con sorna
- Si es "primera" será testiga, ¿no cree?.
Dubitativa:
- Eeeh... sí... claro, disculpe. Llamaré a mi primera testiga.
Sube la testiga y hace el juramento
- Cuéntenos lo sucedido, por favor.
- Yo estaba asomada al balcón... (duda) ... la terraza. Y entonces vi un coche avanzar por la carretera generala...
- Querrá decir "general"...
- Bueno, es que era carretera, no camino...
La fiscala enrojece, murmullos en la sala.
- De acuerdo, siga.
- El caso es que se le cruzó un motociclisto y el coche giró bruscamente para evitarlo...
Confundida:
- ¿Un motociclisto?
- Era un chico.
Más murmullos y algunas risas

- ¿Reconoce a esa persona?
- Era un persono... es ese de ahí (señalando al acusado).
Ya algo molesta:
- Bien... ¿y qué pasó entonces?
- Pues el piloto... o pilota, no sabría decir... quien conducía el coche giró para esquivar al de la moto y se dio de lleno contra el edificio de enfrente.
La abogada defensora se pone en pie:
- ¡Protesto!
La fiscala, sorprendida:
- ¿Por qué protesta?
- No era un edificio, era una casa.
Irritada:
- ¡¿Y qué importa eso?!
- Bueno... es que no es lo mismo...
Los murmullos se elevan, más risas
- ¡Orden! ¡Orden en la sala! Ruego a los asistentes que guarden silencio.
Grito desde el público:
- ¡¡Y a las asistentas!!
(Carcajados y vocerías)
- ¡Orden! ¡Orden!
El juez golpea con el mazo... la maza... golpea. El ruido desciende.
- No haré más preguntas, Señoría.
- Señorío, si no le importa.
Suspiro, se levanta la abogada defensora:
- Dice usted que vio a mi defendido cruzarse en una moto...
- Sí, era él, sin duda, lo vi muy bien.
- ¿Y dice que iba en una motocicleta?
- Sí, eso es.
- ¿No sería más bien un ciclomotor?
Dudando:
- Eehm, pues... podría ser, no sé...
- Así que no lo vio todo tan bien como decía... si no era capaza de distinguir.
- Pero...
Cortanta:
- ¡No hay más preguntas!
- La testiga puede retirarse.
...Una hora... 60 minutos después... conclusiones de la fiscala
- Miembros del Jurado, Como han podido escuchar durante el juicio, el acusado irrumpió en la vía pública sin mirar y no señalizó la maniobra, lo que provocó las graves consecuencias que conocemos, con dos víctimas en estado grave. Por eso les pido el veredicto de culpabilidad. He terminado.
Alegato/a de la/el defensa/o:
- Miembros y miembras del Jurado/a. Han oído las declaraciones y relatos de varios testigos y varias testigas, afirmando que vieron a una persona o persono cruzarse por delante del coche. Pero todas y todos han sido vagas y vagos -declaraciones y relatos, quiero decir-.
Los declarantes y las declarantas no han sido capaces ni capazas de asegurar si conducía mota o ciclo, si fue casa o edificio; ni han recordado bien si los gritos de mi defendido pedían ayuda o socorro. También han declarado que vieron llegar a la policía y a la guardia civil, y hoy sabemos que no había ninguna mujer destinada en la zona. Incluso aquellos y aquellas que ayudaron a socorrer a los accidentados los calificaron como "víctimas", en vez de víctimos, cuando ambos son varones.
En definitiva, considero probado que en el momento de suceder los hechos reinaban la confusión y el caos en el lugar, y nadie vio con claridad lo ocurrido, y por tanto sus testimonios no deberían ser tenido en cuenta, sino más bien en cuento. Les pido, pues, el único veredicto posible: inocento.

Epílogo:

El juicio fue muy seguido por el pueblo/la gente, por personas e individuos; por bebés y bebesas, niños y niñas, adolescentes y adolescentas, jóvenes y jóvenas, adultos y adultas, mayores y mayoras. Tuvo gran repercusión en los medios y las medias; corrió de boca en boca, de oído en oído.

Los lingüistos explicaron los aspectos poco claros de los testimonios; las lingüistas se centraron más en las facetas oscuras de las declaraciones. Nadie sabía decir si lo que había generado la discusión sobre el género había sido regeneración del idioma o degeneración de la lengua. Faltaban respuestas. Sobraban criterios. Era un juicio de faltas y de sobras.

Y pese a todos los esfuerzos de la abogada defensora, Pablo, el chico que se cruzó en la carretera, perdió el juicio y enloqueció. Su psiquiatro lo ayudó con lo segundo, era un gran terapeuto; pero Pablo no se libró de su culpa, el veredicto fue claro: ¡CULPABLO!

Como apunta Fabrizio arriba, el lenguaje no tiene sexo, pero sí ideología. En nuestro malhadado caso, la jerigonza proviene de la tropa feminista, sindicalista y progre que ha culpabilizado a la lengua de todos nuestros males, incluidos los amenos casos de maltratos que cada día nos sirven los periódicos con el despreciable e importado título de violencia de género. Zapatero, que según leí el otro día, no sabe hablar, se asesoró por la feministas antes que por la academia, y luego, para no pasar por tonto, compró la academia. De modo que a esta jerga le queda un largo rato de vida, pues la respalda un elevado número de estúpidos y estúpidas -sobre todo estúpidas, que dicen lo que oyen. La cordura linguística solo nos la puede devolver la derecha, porque estos modernosos de izquierdas, en su próposito de renovarlo todo, le han aplicado el correctivo a la lengua y se la quieren hacer suya, enmendado al latín y a la madre que lo parió. Pero la lengua es de todos. No de todas. De todos. Y en el todos no se incluyen los políticos.

Comparto hasta cierto punto que esto es una estulticia monumental, y, digo hasta cierto punto, porque sí es cierto que la lengua discrimina. Baste simplemente observar la invisibilidad de la mujer en los genéricos "el hombre o los hombres" cuando se pretende hablar del ser humano o de la humanidad en general. O ver la diferente acepción que tienen vocablos cómo "zorro" y "zorra" sin ir más lejos... Que la lengua discrimina es un hecho innegable y que absurdeces cómo la del artículo también existen, tampoco se puede negar. Con el artículo me he reído a mandíbula batiente.

Los malabarismos que usted propone le llevan a un callejón sin salida. Sepa que tanto "humano" como "humanidad" se emparejan con "hombre", y todas vienen de "Humus" (tierra en latín), de ahí que se hayan utilizado como genéricos. Si las feministas y feministos quieren desterrar el vocablo "Hombre" como genérico también tendrán que renunciar a humano/humanidad, ya que es lo mismo. Y yo quiero creer que es usted humana, aunque sea mujer ¿no?.

Estimado Don Antonio, repórtese vuesa merced y mida sus palabras. No “ladre su resentimiento por las esquinas”. ¿Acaso una sindicalista feminista le incomoda obligando a su empresa, de toda la vida, a atenerse a los preceptos de la ley? Sepa su excelencia que, sindicalista y feminista, se es sin necesidad de tocar el género. Y no veo yo por dónde trae usted el sindicalismo a este pleito, tan por los pelos. Le escribo desde una izquierda "desgenerada" y expropiada por la derecha a la que usted tan digna y lucidamente (observe que no he puesto acento en la u) representa. Como español republicano expropiado por la derecha golpista, dudo de que la derecha nos vaya a devolver nada, después de tanta muerte irreversible como ha sembrado en este país que considera tan de su propiedad. Si alguien se ha apropiado indebidamente del patrimonio colectivo, incluida esa lengua que no es ni de la Academia, esa es la derecha. No espero yo que la derecha nos devuelva ninguna clase de cordura. Y, a la vista de los acontecimientos, antes espero que nos traigan cuerdas para atar, "y bien atar", a los mismísimos pájaros a su "destino en lo universal", que cordura de ninguna especie. Kilómetros de cuerda para amarrar. Con eso sueña la derecha en sus delirios sin cordura. ¿Qué cordura podemos esperar de quien utiliza la palabra "todos" para referirse sólo a "algunos"? ¿Qué cordura podemos esperar de quien levanta acta de la realidad con un lenguaje falseado? Si la lengua es de todos, como la Nación, es de todos sin más. Si usted, o ustedes, creen que la lengua, como la Nación, sólo es de algunos, no se embosquen, no se disfracen ustedes, señores lobos, con pieles de corderillos demócratas. Seamos precisos. Aunque sólo sea por respeto a la Academia. Y recurro a la Academia porque ya sabemos que la derecha no respeta a las personas que no forman parte de su noción de "todos", ese "todos" que, en realidad, significa "algunos"; un "algunos" que, en realidad, pretende definir a quienes se consideran a sí mismos como los mejores, los aristós. Ya sabemos que, fuera de su "todos", su visión cavernícola del mundo sólo puede ver la despreciable barbarie de "algunos". Barbarie sin alma, para más señas, y susceptible de ser exterminada, por tanto, en esa lógica perversa con la que la derecha retuerce el lenguaje. Así pues, Don Antonio, desde el otro lado del espejo, llámelo izquierda o barbarie, le ruego: seamos precisos. Pasito a pasito, por el camino de la precisión, podrían ustedes llegar a la justicia e, incluso, a la bondad. Su Dios, y media humanidad, se lo agradecerán. Sin ningún "género" de dudas.

Por alusiones: yo me autodenomino zorra vieja, y que yo sepa la acepción de zorra como pendón verbenero, mujer de vida alegre, suripanta, zamarra,odalisca de esquina, etc. tiene las connotaciones negativas que se le quieran dar: yo no considero que haya ninguna digna de reseñar. Claro que yo estoy de acuerdo con algunas de mis amigas putas, que dicen que ejercen una profesión, y que quieren cotizar a Hacienda, a la Seguridad Social y tener las garantías jurídicas, sindicales y profesionales que les niegan. Y que quien no quiera usar sus servicios, como quien no quiera ir al podólogo, es muy libre de no hacerlo.
Y en mi pueblo, y en el viejo castellano que nos están mutilando los mendas de la RAE, ser zorro también es ser tonto circunstanciado, de remate, con balcón a la calle y sin remedio.
Así es que, don Antonio, no sea zorro y no se me ponga trágico, envuelto en la bandera de don Pelayo en defensa de las esencias eternas, porque usted se pone muy valiente aquí, pero eso no me lo dice usted a mí en la cama.
La riqueza y la diversidad del lenguaje, filtrada por idiotas con sillón en la RAE, aboca a cosas como ignorar todas las acepciones en palabras usadas a lo largo de siglos con la excusa del sexismo. Y para colmo de la ornamentación y del absurdo, se habla de violencia de género, cuando, si esa panda de epicenos tuviera zorra idea de lo que dicen, sabrían que género es específicamente aplicable a lo gramatical, y no al sexo masculino y femenino.

El error gramatical viene desde atrás... "género" proviene de "gender" en inglés, término propuesto por la ONU para referirnos a un fenómeno sociocultural; donde si no mal recuerdo "gender" significa género, pero también sexo. Por lo que adoptaron ese término para abarcar también a transexuales... al traducirlo al español quedó "violencia de género" que también hubiera quedado bien como "violencia de sexo"; en inglés está bien dicho, en castellano no, la culpable ha sido la mala traducción gramatical. Pero también acuerda que hay género literario, género neutro, (obras) de género... y género humano, además de otros tantos géneros hasta llegar a 50 y, solo una de ellas se refiere a "género gramatical". Ojalá los señores en sus sillones y nosotros los usuarios recordáramos que el género humano es la misma humanidad; una humanidad que se mueve por factores socioculturales; dónde género humano se refiere a todos, hombres y mujeres (porque también hay violencia de género de mujeres contra los hombres). Hay quienes defienden ó rechazan la expresión "violencia de género" ó lo ven desde un punto de vista emocional, pasional ó lo ven desde un punto de vista gramatical, intelectual. Y se olvidan de que "violencia de género" "gender theory" "genderlect", están todos englobados en un contexto sociocultural cuyo único origen en inglés ó castellano es el latín...genus, generis, derivado de "gignere" que significa "engendrar" y

"violentia" como violencia... "engendrar violencia".

Petite Diablessa: una puntualización: género no proviene del inglés gender, sino del latín, genus-generis que significa pueblo, estirpe y género, clase.
Don Antonio: respecto a lo de que hombre viene de humus,(tierra) ya me gustaría a mí, con lo primitiva que soy; pero viene de homo-hominis, y el término en latín incluye al hombre y a la mujer; pero para especificar, y diferenciar, está vir-viri y mulier-mulieris y femina-feminae.

La expresión "violencia de género" es la traducción del inglés gender-based violence o gender violence, expresión difundida a raíz del Congreso sobre la Mujer celebrado en Pekín en 1995 bajo los auspicios de la ONU. Con ella se identifica la violencia, tanto física, laboral como psicológica, que se ejerce contra mujeres y hombres por razón de su sexo dentro del género humano. Por lo tanto el término "violencia de género" proviene del inglés... (así completo y rectifico lo dicho :P) gender con el sentido de ser sinónimo "sexo del género humano" desde el punto de vista específico de las diferencias sociales y culturales, en oposición a las lingüisticas y biológicas, que dividen a hombres de mujeres. Genus, generis como he mencionado antes que deriva de "gignere" que significa "engendrar" de ese modo se entiende el término como "engendrar violencia en el género humano". Y es una verdadera pena que los tios de la RAE y otros cuantos hagan a un lado todos los significados de la palabra "género" para dar prioridad a su significado gramatical y no social; además que tampoco tomen en cuenta su origen latin, el mismo origen para castellano e inglés, siendo quienes son...

Petite Diablessa: "la violencia, tanto física, laboral como psicológica, que se ejerce contra mujeres y hombres por razón de su sexo dentro del género humano" se llama violencia. Punto. Lo que sobra justifica que cobren un sueldo sustancioso las damas feministas que van a esos congresos y que deben de tener un notable empacho de sustancias estupefaccientes, les ha dado una coz en la cabeza la mula o se han leído entre ellas y se han quedado tocadas de logorrea confutatis.

Lo de violencia de género, como sexismo, bullying y otras sandeces no son sino una bajada de pantalones -otra de muchas- ante la lengua del imperio. En español, por mucho que se le justifique con explicaciones historicistas, no deja de ser una aberración. Y terminará por admitirse, sin duda, ante la presión de los media, no por necesidad sino por snobismo. Lázaro Carreter reconvino a Zapatero sobre el mal uso de la expresión y Zapatero prometió hacer caso a la voz de la Academia, que ofrecía alternativas como violencia doméstica -otra estupidez- pero luego se reunió con las feministas y dio marcha atrás, pues le resultaba más rentable atender a ese colectivo a fin de ganar votos. Como dice con lucidez Gatopardo, adjetivar la violencia o el asesinato, es una memez. Un asesinato es un asesinato, lo cometa usted o su madre. Cuando se leen esos titulares de "otra víctima de la violencia de género" le queda a uno la idea de que esa señora violencia es un ente abstracto, como el hombre del saco, que se dedica a matar señoras. Y no, los hombres no matan a sus mujeres -o viceversa- por "razones de sexo": las matan porque las odian, o porque las quieren, o por cuestiones de celos, o por vaya usted a saber. Son asesinatos y no son de hoy. "El caso" ya daba cuenta de ellos antes de que las feministas americanas decidieran ponerle un nombre que aquí hemos imitado como monitos de repetición.

Está de moda el tema ese de la "violencia de género", veo que siempre se llega hasta él, como los caminos que llegan a Roma. Yo propongo el término "violencia entre convivientes" que es un rato feo pero que explica mejor el asunto, que no es que el hombre sea malo y mate a la mujer, sino que la convivencia en un espacio cerrado es mala y la gente no lo soporta, es que la gente tiende a no soportarse entre sí. Vivir separado de la pareja debería ser un derecho.

Las causas de la “violencia de género”
Hemos perdido ya la sensibilidad al oír o leer noticias como ésta:
“Una mujer de 20 años ha muerto a causa de las heridas que le produjo ayer por la tarde su ex novio con un cuchillo mientras ella paseaba por el paseo marítimo de Gandía (Valencia). La joven fue hospitalizada con puñaladas en el cuello, tórax y nalgas y ha fallecido de madrugada. El presunto agresor, que ha sido detenido, tenía una orden de alejamiento tras ser denunciado por la mujer por malos tratos.”
Pero ¿cuáles son las causas reales de estos crímenes?
La igualdad ante la ley de hombres y mujeres, en caso de proceso de separación (y cuándo hay hijos peor) es ya inexistente. El hombre se encuentra en la calle y pierde la posibilidad de ver frecuentemente a sus hijos (son raros los casos, lamentablemente, de separaciones civilizadas).
Un hombre en esta situación o ante esta perspectiva, pierde fácilmente el raciocinio y comete estas barbaridades.
La familia y la igualdad de derechos y deberes entre hombres y mujeres son pilares a trabajar en profundidad para evitar una de las causas de estos crímenes.

Procure acometer el problema con datos reales, no moleste pensar y reflexionar y, sobre todo, trate de no circunscribirse a España, porque no es una casualidad que donde más mujeres son asesinadas por sus parejas en Europa no sea aquí, sino en los países nórdicos. Que no han descubierto la igualdad y los derechos de la mujer hace dos días....

MARCIAL MACIEL. LOS LEGIONARIOS DE CRISTO: TESTIMONIOS Y DOCUMENTOS INÉDITOS

Como siempre que escucho la voz de las víctimas de abusos, me pregunto cual es el perfil común, qué características hacen que elijan como objeto de su amor y de su veneración a quien las destruye psicológicamente, y las degrada.
El adepto y el adicto comparten la misma necesidad de anularse individualmente, de entregarse ciegamente, y de pertenecer al grupo: su sed de aprobación les incapacita para enfrentarse al rechazo, y encuentran delirantes motivos para justificar las decisiones de sus líderes espirituales, sus secuestradores emocionales, sus chantajistas morales, porque están dotados del don de la devoción; pero no han desarrollado jamás el espíritu crítico que les permitiría comprender que no existe causa justa en el mundo por la que dejarse aniquilar y matar. Y que no hay causa en el universo que justifique el sufrimiento de los inocentes.
A quienes son maltratados por sus parejas, a quienes profesan creencias que los anulan, a quienes aman hasta la abyección a un lider, a quienes están provistos de un instinto gregario que aplasta su instinto de supervivencia, potenciales víctimas de sectas destructivas, no les recomiendo leer el libro de Fernando M.González, "Marcial Maciel. Los Legionarios de Cristo: testimonios y documentos inéditos", inspirado y escrito gracias a seres dignos, íntegros, que han tenido el coraje de reconocer que no hay razón que justifique a quien los sometió, torturó psiquicamente, les estafó la confianza y abusó sexualmente de ellos en su infancia y adolescencia. Aun sabiendo que se arriesgan al linchamiento moral de los sectarios, cuya empatía está monopolizada en identificarse con sus líderes y no con quienes son sus víctimas, y siempre acudirán en ayuda del vencedor.
No he equivocado la foto de portada: Hitler despertó ese tipo de lealtad ciega, no en vano es uno de los ídolos de juventud de Marcial Maciel para configurar ideológicamente la mística de grupo de Los Legionarios de Cristo y de Regnum Christie.

Sinopsis facilitado por la Editorial Tusquets:
Desde sus inciertos orígenes en las catacumbas, la Iglesia católica ha vivido una parte de su historia en la penumbra. Adicta a la oscuridad y al secreto, ha sido blanco de numerosas acusaciones: corrupción política, negocios ilegales, abusos sexuales. Estos y otros elementos se combinan, casi a la manera de una novela gótica, en la historia de una pequeña y poderosa congregación mexicana: la mesiánica y conservadora Legión de Cristo. Nacida en 1941, esta agrupación católica ha corrido con la dispareja suerte de su fundador, Marcial Maciel, favorito del Vaticano, santo intachable para algunos y maniático sexual para otros. Tendido entre la historia, la sociología y el psicoanálisis, este libro es lo que debe ser: un estudio tan fluido como detallado, una rigurosa investigación documental sostenida en archivos hasta ahora inéditos. Es, además, un relato a varias voces en el que las víctimas encaran por fin, con justicia, a sus verdugos. Es todo eso y es, también, un fascinante retrato doble: el de un carismático líder religioso, desgarrado entre la morfina y sus demonios sexuales, y el de una Iglesia sombría y hermética que aún hoy se resiste a echar luz sobre el caso.

Gracias por la visita, Gata. Me he quedado un poco turulata, porque no tengo pretensión, salvo la de ir soltando lastre.

Hablando de todo un poco. No creo que las víctimas de malos tratos sean equiparables a los domesticables por religiones.
No creo que la cosa sea producto de una especie de capacidad de sumisión, hay muchos casos distintos, muchos perfiles como para aglutinar también las creencias.

No sé por qué se llega a soportar las ofensas del objeto de tu amor, pareja, padre, o hijos, pero dudo que sea por abducción. Los pertenecientes a sectas o partidos de líderes demenciados, se sienten orgullosos, se disfrazan, desfilan, se muestran ufanos de su ridícula opción.
Las maltratadas se ocultan, se averguenzan, bajan las ventanas, tapan y esconden sus miserias y las de los que las humillan.

Es un asunto tan complejo que temo frivolizarlo, o equivocarme.
Me gusta tu blog y lo que dices, gracias por el mapa para venir.

Sabrosón: hasta que la credulidad deje de ser un negocio rentable, ni un día más.
Don José: se ha editado en Tusquets de México, pero me imagino que retirarán pronto la edición, como suelen.
Miranda y Trini: no me baso en el retrato periodístico y bien pensante, políticamente correcto de las víctimas de malos tratos en la pareja (hombres y mujeres, si), sino en casos reales: de la misma manera que existe el perfil del maltratador existe el perfil de la víctima; y por mucho que no sea popular decirlo, la mayoría encuentra parejas dominantes, violentas y conflictivas, calco de la primera que les ha puesto en peligro.
No le preguntéis a los políticos que han diseñado en su despacho los protocolos sexistas sobre el maltrato y las victimas, preguntádle a quienes hayan trabajado diez años en casas de acogida de mujeres maltratadas, y que os cuenten la verdad.
Un porcentaje muy alto de la sociedad española siente fascinación por la chulería, el energumenismo, el autoritarismo, y podemos verlo en los diferentes personajes mediáticos que eligen como populares.

Y, curiosamente,los líderes de sectas como el Opus y los Legionarios fueron autoritarios, irascibles, exigieron acatamiento sin fisuras, y establecieron un sistema de control, basado en neurotizar al adepto mediante exigencias de sumisión extremas y sospechas y culpabilización por no entregarse sin reservas, y exactamente igual que los maltratadores, fueron capaces de desplegar para seducir una emotividad teatral.
Desear enamorar y seducir a quien domina y manda es excitante para una gran parte de la gente, y tiene poco "morbo" una buena persona, dialogante e inteligente.
Quien tenga televisión que analice cuantos personajes "populares" de los que despiertan un morboso interés son trabajadores sociales, investigadores científicos, héroes filantrópicos, amantes del diálogo y de los valores humanos más civilizados.

Los niños maltratados, envían señales que no sabemos o no queremos ver los mayores.
Un adulto posesivo, celoso, dominante, es un maltratador en potencia y no un exceso de amor, como se suele ver.

Si, Dinosaurio, el peligro es que sus tácticas son las de una secta destructiva, pero hasta ahora las denuncias han quedado en el limbo jurídico de la Iglesia Católica, que eterniza las investigaciones y ofrece inmunidad de hecho a los culpables, mientras margina a las víctimas: ha ocurrido también en los cientos de casos de monjas violadas por sacerdotes.
Luna: ya sé que a los periodistas y a los políticos les encanta hacer parejitas con las palabras; pero lo de "potencial maltratador" es lo mismo que "potencial asesino" y "potencial cadáver": en puridad todos somos potenciales de todo; pero de hecho sería bueno que fuéramos realistas y llamáramos a las cosas por su nombre: los padres sobreprotectores de sus hijos pueden ser unos pelmazos o unos neuróticos, aterrorizados con que les pueda pasar algo malo a sus hijos, pero no unos maltratadores. De la misma manera que los papás que opinan que sus hijos han de tener bula para hacer maldades los están criando para ser carne de presidio, pero eso no les convierte en cómplices por inducción, sino en mentecatos.

La indefensión hace milagros, uno de ellos que la víctima justifique los actos del agresor. Generalmente, cuando una persona se siente indefensa, tiende a desarrollar cariño. Es la reacción habitual en los niños, que al estar indefensos lo único que pueden hacer es querer para intentar que las cosas mejoren. Si un adulto pierde el control de su vida, vuelve a esa estrategia, es lo que les pasa a las mujeres maltratadas y etc.

Mejor sería tener coraje y tratar de salir de la situación, pero ese tipo de espíritu luchador no lo aprende todo el mundo.

1ºLos niño maltratados, no aman a sus maltratadores como dicen,se suelen sentir culpables, que es diferente y además piensa que eso es lo normal, que sucede a todos, eso no evitan que sufran.
2º Los niños maltratados, emiten pequeñas señales que no vemos, o que no queremos ver y es tan fácil a veces.
3º Los niños maltratados, nunca hablan de sus maltratadores, si son los familiares o de entornos muy cercanos, amigos de los padres, por ejemplo, nunca se les pregunta a esos niños tan callados, cómo es su vida, que les gusta, que no les gusta. Los ojos de esos niños hablan y pasamos en silencio.
4º Cuando escribí"sómos potenciales en todo"quise decir, que desde niño sómos potenciales; fontanero, comerciante, peluquera....todo es en potencia y por supuesto potenciales maltratadores.
¿Que evita que lo seamos? quizás y sólo digo quizás, las pequeñas diferencias que no marque la vida.
Gracias.

MI ADMIRADO ANTONIO MAGÁN

Entre los escritores outsider que admiro, hubo uno que me hizo saltar los sesos en el craneo con sus artículos vitriólicos. Yo creí habérmelas con un viejo periodista de colmillo retorcido, curtido en todas las malicias y de vuelta de todas las insidias, viejo zorro y taimado.

Pero no, Antonio Magán apenas tenía veinte años. Y hablo de la época en que tenía en jaque a los mandamases de la Junta de Comunidades de Castilla-La Mancha, a los caciques de viejo y nuevo cuño, a los mafiosos, y a los corruptos, con una revista perfectamente editada, autogestionada por un Consejo de Administración compuesto por estudiantes, que la hizo rentable, y en el que el más viejo debía de tener la provecta edad de veinticinco años. Cada número era un bombazo informativo, con reportajes de denuncia documentados y escritos con un estilo insuperable, llenos de talento.

Luego vino Albacete Confidencial, el primer confidencial on-line de Castilla-La Mancha, que tanto echamos de menos, donde publicó, en la sección "El retrato", el artículo que hoy rescato y presento.

¡Viva el Comando Pelagra!

EL MEDIO POLLO DE LA FERIA

Por Antonio Magán

No hay Feria sin ración de medio pollo. Sí, amigos, me refiero a ese medio pollo tristón, salido del sombrero de Carpanta, y que ha sido el asidero culinario de los gañanes que nos visitan desde que se acabó la posguerra en 1975. Esa media ración de pollo que miramos con indiferencia como el enterrador de Hamlet contempla a sus calaveras.
La ración de medio pollo es una comida alternativa, no porque sea jipi, o porque no lleve clembuterol. No. Es porque el medio pollo se come cuando no queda más remedio. La oferta del medio pollo en Feria está escrita de forma huidiza y con faltas de ortografía en una pizarra no muy grande que cuelga de un palo del chiringuito. Su brevedad la hace inexplicable, indescrifable, un misterio que sólo se resuelve a golpe de cartera.
La ración de medio pollo es una comida venida a menos. De momento, los pollos actuales son del tamaño de la codorniz (algunos parecen pajaritos fritos). El capitalismo no les dejan crecer, los crían en dos meses y los matan antes de que tomen la primera comunión. La consecuencia es que la carne del medio pollo es sólo una fina capa de no se sabe qué, que tiene la misión de separar los huesos de la piel. La pechuga del medio pollo se deshace en la boca como si mascaras gazpachos dando la sensación de que el pollo más que asado está desenterrado.

Y qué me dicen del caldo. Algún día sabremos la procedencia del caldo parecido al gasóleo que le echan a los pollos mientras los asan en la máquina inquisitorial de tortura a la vista morbosa de la plebe que los huele y queda hipnotizada. La piel adquiere con tan anónimo brebaje una dureza tal, que más que crujiente, el pollo está petrificado y es imposible penetrar por esa capa de laca Nelly con la mierda de cuchillos con mango de plástico que colocan en los chiringuitos y que se doblan como floretes.
La ración de medio pollo, en el paseo de la Feria, se come mirando hacia abajo por culpa de la ristra de banderas que ondean en el techo del chiringuito. Son todas del tercer mundo, no las han podido elegir mejor. Países del Africa muy negra, desconocidos y presas de la más terrible hambruna, por eso hay que esconder el pollo con la cabeza, para no humillar al personal.
La ración de medio pollo es una comida poco romántica, nadie se sentaría con la novia a comerse un pollo a medias con las moscas para decirle que la amas. Sin embargo, sí con toda la familia para vengarte del cabrito del suegro que te lleva mártir.
Y el pan. El pan con el que se acompaña al medio pollo parece que acaba de llegar de tres días de viaje. Seco, duro, escaso, con poca molla y soso hasta la más aguda tristeza.
Como el medio pollo no tiene casi chicha acabas cogiéndolo con las manos y cuando le vas a hincar un bocado, un amigo de toda la perra vida te da un manotazo en la espalda, saludo sincero donde los haya, y acabas derramando la salsa y con un lamparón en la chaqueta a modo de medalla al mérito incivil (chaqueta que no te has quitado porque no hay sillas). Pero sabido es que un buen día de Feria sin manchurrones de mugre no es algo completo.
Al levantar la media ración, adviertes que hay seis patatas fritas debajo, entrelazadas como en un cuadro de Tapies, delgadas, blandas, aceitosas. Las inundas de ketchup para perderlas de vista en la boca. Junto a las patatas, tísica y grasienta también agoniza una tira de color negro que despide más aceite todavía. Está carbonizada pero deja entrever un ligero tono verdoso ¡Coño, son los restos de un pimiento! Pues p ´dentro y te los tragas con un largo coletazo de vino cabezón mezclado con gaseosa caliente.
Los niños se tiran los huesos de aceitunas, las sirenas de los cachivaches hacen que todo el mundo grite, te duele la cabeza y el pollo está tan frío que es imposible arrancarle una tira de carne más sin tener que quebrar los frágiles huesos que se te pueden atravesar en la garganta. No sabes si encender un cigarro o cortarte las venas.
Acabas de comer y tienes las manos manchadas de grasa pero no te puedes limpiar porque las servilletas están contadas, diez por cabeza y ni una más. Levantas la vista en busca de un servilletero pero los que están a tu alrededor conocen esa mirada y cogen el que tienen con la mano igual de guarra que la tuya y te enseñan los dientes mientras degluten.
La broma te ha costado mil duros porque las cervezas no iban en la oferta, ni el pan, ni los restos del pimiento y acabas cagándote en los muertos de la ración de medio pollo y prometes firmemente, mientras orinas en los váteres sin luz de los Jardinillos, que jamás volverás a sentarte a comer una ración de medio pollo en Feria.
Pero vuelves y vuelves cada año, porque el medio pollo es una maldición, un potro de tortura gástrica que nos recuerda cada Feria a dónde vamos y lo peor de todo, de dónde venimos.

La cochina verdad es que nunca antes ni después hemos tenido ese tipo de periodismo de alto contenido crítico, con calidad literaria, humor y coraje, y cada vez que me acuerdo, me pregunto qué putadas no les habrán hecho, qué represalias habrán tenido, y la sensación es de desolación, porque no hicimos lo necesario para defender ese tipo de periodismo, y no supimos estar a su altura. SOBRE GÜNTHER GRASS Y OTROS ARREPENTIMIENTOS

Autor: Antonio García Muñoz

No he seguido exhaustivamente el caso Grass, que ha sido la burbuja de un verano sin noticias culturales. Pero simpatizo con su actitud de confesar antes de que otro lo haga por él. Todos los escritores tienen un fantasma en el armario, y cuando no es político pertenece a su más estricta intimidad. Aquí sabemos de eso, porque un número considerable de famosos -no sólo escritores- han tenido un pasado borrascoso. Para nosotros el estigma no es el de nazi -como Grass- sino el de facha. A Eduardo Haro Tecglen, tan republicanote, le descubrieron unos textos comprometidos de loa al franquismo que le amargaron los últimos años de vida. A Cela lo delataron como inquisidor. Torrente Ballester, Laín Entralgo o Tovar expurgaron su pasado falangista.

El ajuste de cuentas es un asunto muy nuestro y se recicla periódicamente cuando queremos bajar al alguien de su pedestal. Pero los que pasan por moralistas y se ensañan ahora con Grass seguro que están afeados por alguna mancha. No sé cuál ni me importa, pero seguro que tienen alguna. Si no es política es sexual. Hay una voluntad de negar a la persona entera por un error -que a lo mejor ni es error- del pasado. Pero la vida humana es una pura evolución y ya tiene que ser uno de piedra -o sea inhumano- para mantener de por vida los mismos ideales.

Yo presumo de ateo, pero si algún día me hago famoso, no faltará el marisabidillo compañero de Escolapios que recuerde que yo rezaba con gran devoción. Si yo critico con saña a los socialistas actuales, siempre habrá alguien que dirá que los voté en el 82. Si le declaro a mi novia actual amor eterno, saltará la novia antigua alegando que a ella le dije lo mismo. Si despotrico contra el tabaco, que no es el caso, cualquiera me recriminará mis años de fumeteo. Todos cambiamos y todos tenemos una vida oculta que tarde o temprano saldrá a la luz. Salvo Julián Marías, que siempre presumía de no cambiar una coma a sus escritos pasados. Yo las cambio todos los días e incluso me arrepiento de lo que escribí ayer.

Si hay algo que reprocharle a Günther Grass no son sus errores juveniles, sino su estatura inmensa de escritor pelmazo. Aunque hay que reconocerle que dibuja muy bien.

Don Antonio: me pregunto qué tiene que ver que un escritor sea un bendito o un malvado con su obra literaria. De los que he conocido doy fe que muy pocos valían ni para taco de escopeta, y eso no les resta mérito, ni tiene por qué interferir en nuestro juicio.
Efectivamente, aunque Grass hubiera pasado toda su vida en argangélicas actividades no dejaría de ser un tio lata, más pesado que la prosa de don Pedro Corominas.
Gracias por su artículo, y perdóneme que le dé un consejo: jamás confiese sus secretos, niegue si los descubren, y diga que no se acuerda si insisten, y si aportan documentos y pruebas, hable con contundente indignación del linchamiento moral: confesar es una vulgaridad de judeo-cristianos.

Un abrazo lúbrico

No creo que tengamos que perdonar a Grass su pasado más lejano; la juventud es impetuosa y se deja arrastrar con facilidad. Y como dice el sr. García, quien esté libre de culpa que lance la primera piedra. Que haríamos, sino, con Celine, Jünger, y tantos otros.

Ahora bien, lo que yo no le perdono al señor Grass, es que de los dogmas del nazismo se pasase a los dogmas marxistas(que tienen mejor prensa, eso si, pero menudos son), y a sus años siga felizmente instalado en ellos, dando lecciones a diestro y siniestro.

dErsu, los dogmas nazis no dan Nobel, los marxistas son condición.
Y así Dña Gata, confesar es una vulgaridad más cristiana que judia. El judio,lo sabemos, se lamenta, se flagela, se golpea en el muro de las lamentaciones; el cristiano se confiesa de manera, por lo demás, impúdica. Un abrazote judeo- cristiano para ti, Y, dígame, amigo d'Ersu, qué le parece si aprobamos de una vez ese manual de buenas maneras que vengo proponiendo: matemos y muramos por nuestra ideología; pero con nonchalance, con despego, sin énfasis ni estridencias. Y sobre todo, no caigamos en la tentación de rebajar nuestra inteligencia hasta el punto de creer lo que defendemos.

Ah, querido Felipe, los judíos ya no somos lo que éramos, y la juventud de ahora, ya ves, no portan por el muro de las lamentaciones, engolfados en las peleas con las bandas rivales, a ver quién es más bestia.
Qué razón tiene mi Trini, que hay tanto fantasma suelto como encerrado, y quien quiera saber que vaya a estudiar, y cada alma en su almario.
Martín Bolivar: como mi admirado don Antonio estará en pecaminosos excesos de fin de semana, permítame que pegue yo la hebra con usted, y le recuerde que esos dichos que usted trae a colación son del Nuevo Testamento, un añadido bastante discutible a la Biblia, con melonadas como las que cita, que debieron de extraer del refranero arameo.
Cuánto más jugoso y repleto de sabiduría literaria es aquello que dice:
"A yegua de los carros de Faraón te he comparado, amiga mía.
10 Hermosas son tus mejillas entre los pendientes, Tu cuello entre los collares.
11 Zarcillos de oro te haremos, con clavos de plata.
12 Mientras que el rey estaba en su reclinatorio, mi nardo dió su olor.
13 Mi amado es para mí un manojito de mirra, que reposa entre mis pechos.
14 Racimo de copher en las viñas de Engadi es para mí mi amado.
15 He aquí que tú eres hermosa, amiga mía; he aquí que eres bella: tus ojos de paloma torcaz.
16 He aquí que tú eres hermoso, amado mío, y suave: nuestro lecho también florido.
17 Las vigas de nuestra casa son de cedro, Y de ciprés los artesonados."

Por no hablar de la contundencia del exordio que se manda Dios:
10 Príncipes de Sodoma, oid la palabra de Jehová; escuchad la ley de nuestro Dios, pueblo de Gomorra.
11 ¿Para qué á mí, dice Jehová, la multitud de vuestros sacrificios? Harto estoy de holocaustos de carneros, y de sebo de animales gruesos: no quiero sangre de bueyes, ni de ovejas, ni de machos cabríos.
12 ¿Quién demandó esto de vuestras manos, cuando vinieseis á presentaros delante de mí, para hollar mis atrios?
13 No me traigáis más vano presente: el perfume me es abominación: luna nueva y sábado, el convocar asambleas, no las puedo sufrir: son iniquidad vuestras solemnidades.
14 Vuestras lunas nuevas y vuestras solemnidades tiene aborrecidas mi alma: me son gravosas; cansado estoy de llevarlas."
Se lo recomiendo, lea la Biblia, no se quede con la parte de reciente edificación si quiere disfrutar de su literatura, pero verá que hay motivo para ser ateos.
Hannah, bienvenida.

Siempre he dicho que no es bueno conocer la vida de los grandes artistas, sean escritores, pintores....pero es casi imposible separar su obra con la persona y con lo que hacen o dicen. Yo me hice una promesa, no leería más a Muñoz Molina, cuando mi comarca se quedaba sin empleo, (cierre de las minas de Alquife) hicimos una manifestación en la capital y el caballero nos comparó con ETA en un periódico, porque le molestaron los ruidos de los petardos.
En este caso me importa un pimiento perderme su literatura, que lo hagan mis nietos si para entonces se me ha olvidado y no se lo cuento ;).

Marujica, es que Muñoz Molina fue guardia civil, y eso imprime caracter, pero es que además, si leyeras alguna de sus "novelas", comprenderías que su hirsuto entendimiento no establezca graduación entre un petardo y una bomba, porque al pobrecico mío Dios no le dio con qué.

¿De dónde sacas, querida Gato, que mi tocayo y casi homónimo Antonio Muñoz Molina haya sido guardia civil? No voy a entrar en el juicio de su obra -o sí, voy a entrar: me parece muy meritoria- pero me solidarizo con su sensatez. Todos los pirómanos -y en esto incluyo falleros y petardistas- deberían estar a la sombra. Y la maruja de arriba que siga con sus prejuicios y manifestaciones. Ya que renuncia a la literatura, a lo mejor se queda con algún ripio.

Pero hablando del tema, estoy seguro que sabes muy bien la cantidad de tipejos "ex"fascistas que un día se convirtieron al comunismo y viceversa. Lo de viceversa, curiosamente, más abundante.
También es cierto que dichos tipejos eran muy, pero que muy extremistas. Siempre la misma canción: Los extremos se tocan y el que nace con el gen totalitario, totalitario se queda.

Vaya, don Antonio, usted por aquí: en su extenso estudio semiótico,titulado "Antonio Muñoz Molina, sie sich einen ersten Eindruck von unserem Unternehmen verschaffen", traducido al español por César Vidal, el profesor Hangla Mangla Handlebar dice: "De la misma forma que Stendhal confesaba haber aprendido a redactar leyendo el Código Civil, don Antonio Muñoz Molina aprendió haciendo atestados para la Guardia Civil" (fin de la cita)
A mí también me parece muy meritorio que Antonio Muñoz Molina se haya dedicado a escribir. Demuestra mucho valor.
Soy enemiga acérrima de los petardos, pero si son gordos y están bien cargados, reconozco su idoneidad en las manifestaciones, en las asonadas, y para acompañar a la guillotina a los que hablan de Literatura refiriéndose a Muñoz Molina (alta Justicia poética: rima)

Querido Pau: me has vuelto de vacaciones con la misma tendencia a utilizar frases de almanaque de taco como si fueran el colmo de la sabiduría y mire usted, como diría el ex-presidente, eso de "no hay nada escrito" no me lo dices tú a mí en la biblioteca de tu barrio, y lo de "los extremos se tocan" es otra melonada que no tiene demostración lógica alguna: el Polo Sur y el Polo Norte no es que no se toquen, es que ni se miran.

No me parece correcto condenar a nadie por su pasado (incluido por supuesto a Grass) pero creo que no se puede desligar al autor de su obra actual, sobre todo al actual autor, osea, el hombre de hoy (o la mujer).
Al menos a mi me resulta imposibel; quizás por eso no he leído nada de Pérez Reverte, Cela o Umbral... bueno, seguro que en algunos pierdo y en otros gano (tiempo);

Gato,
Haro Tecglen publicó esos artículos cuando su padre estaba preso en las cárceles franquistas. Lo hizo para que a su padre no le hicieran nada. EHT jamás se ha identificado con esa ideología sanguinolenta de la dictadura. Los neo fachas utilizaban esos artículos como arma arrojadiza contra un republicano de pies a cabeza, por eso él nunca les hizo caso.

FALTAN O SOBRAN EN EL CENSO 5.803.105 CIUDADANOS MEXICANOS EN EDAD DE VOTAR

Sigamos hablando de México: duele, pero no hay más remedio, porque en estos momentos es el laboratorio donde se está probando el tratamiento que se va a utilizar con el resto de América Latina. La guerra sucia no es un episodio negro de la historia del Cono Sur que forme parte del pasado, se ha reactualizado en México sin disimulos, y con la total indiferencia de los intelectuales, ocupados hoy en dirimir otros problemas más próximos a su ombligo y su bolsillo.
Según el Banco Mundial, la pobreza en México se mantiene en niveles inaceptablemente altos , y alrededor del 53 por ciento de los 104 millones de habitantes están en un nivel de consumo por debajo de las necesidades mínimas de alimentos y de otras necesidades consideradas básicas.
-La décima parte de la población gana mas de 40 por ciento de los ingresos totales
-La décima parte de la población solo obtiene 1.1 por ciento.
-Cerca del 24 por ciento de la población es considerada "extremadamente pobre", es decir, con un ingreso insuficiente incluso para una nutrición adecuada.
A ese 24% pertenecen los que arriesgan su vida para llegar a otro país en el habrán de sobrevivir en los trabajos más penosos, sin derechos laborales ni sociales. En el desierto y en la frontera, miles de cadáveres atestiguan las dificultades que habrán de arrostrar, nadie sabe cuántos mueren en el intento cada año. Y sin embargo:
- las divisas que provienen de sus envíos de dinero a México es superior a la inversión extranjera directa.
-Aumentaron 23.1% con respecto a 2005, para llegar a 11.425 millones de dólares
-La inversión extranjera directa cayó 10.32%, para situarse en apenas 8.692 millones de dólares.
Pero el Presidente Fox firma un acuerdo con EEUU en el que acepta que los emigrantes mexicanos ilegales sean considerados como terroristas, invasores de un país extranjero, y tratados como tal. Y antes de abandonar la presidencia, exime del pago del IVA a las grandes empresas embotelladoras de bebidas y refrescos, como Coca Cola, Pepsi Cola, etc.
La secretaría de Desarrollo Social (equivalente al Ministerio de Asuntos Sociales) gastó en cinco años más de 500 millones de pesos para pagar diagnósticos sobre la pobreza:

esos estudios consistían, por ejemplo, en consultas a los empresarios sobre su opinión sobre la labor de la Secretaría de Desarrollo Social e incluso encuestas al personal de la propia Secretaría para "conocer el grado de información que se tiene sobre su misión"
Y enmedio de tales injusticias, con miles de altos cargos oficiales en contubernio con narcos, pederastas, esclavistas, corruptos, y sicarios, surge la melodiosa voz de la dignidad ofendida que reconviene a quienes desconfian de los que contaron los votos y custodiaron las urnas, de los organismos oficiales, como el Instituto Federal de Estadística,(IFE) del Tribunal Electoral del Poder Judicial de la Federación, porque eso no vale, se pisa la raya de lo intolerable en democracia.
Pero, según cifras oficiales del Instituto Nacional de Estadística, Geografía e Informática, INEGI, que preside Gilberto Calvillo Vives, el censo correspondiente, la población total en México al final del año 2005, era de 103 millones 263 mil 388 habitantes, de los cuales 65 millones 547 mil 871 ciudadanos tenían más de 18 años.
Según los datos que dio a conocer el Instituto Federal de Estadística, IFE, dirigido por Luis Carlos Ugalde, el padrón electoral para el proceso cívico del 2 de julio del presente año era de 71 millones 350 mil 976 personas las que tenían derecho a votar y credencial de elector para elegir al próximo Presidente de la República, a los 500 diputados y 128 senadores que integrarán la Sexagésima Legislatura Federal.
Siendo los dos organismos oficiales, y por lo tanto totalmente fiables: ¿es mucho preguntar de dónde sacó Luis Carlos Ugalde un padrón de 71. 350.976 potenciales votantes, si sólo había 65.547.871 ciudadanos mayores de 18 años? No por nada, sólo es curiosidad, porque si ha logrado resucitar a 5.803.105 difuntos hay que gritar imilagro!.
Hay quien cree que es un asunto entre Felipe Calderón, el ganador, y Andrés Manuel López Obrador, que ha denunciado el fraude, y no acata el veredicto del Tribunal. Y hay muchos energúmenos que dicen que hay que darle una ensalada de tiros para solucionar el problema. No sería el primer candidato de la oposición que asesinan.
Pero lo que aquí está en juego no es el fraude a un candidato, sino la estafa a la buena fe de 41 millones de mexicanos que fueron a votar, creyeron en la democracia. Y muchos de ellos no aceptan el pucherazo.
Y lo más grave de todo, lo más incomprensible es que habiendo tan pocos espacios de la vida pública a salvo de la corrupción, haya almas nobles que crean posible unas elecciones limpias. Y que aún crean que los redomados canallas que mandan pueden respetar la legalidad y la legitimidad del plebiscito popular. Es como para darles el diploma, la banda y la orla a la ingenuidad.

NOTA: esto que escribo es un derecho de réplica que no busca sino aburrir y dar información real sobre lo que aquí se publica, lamento mucho importunar a tus demás lectores (que espero no me confundan con un troll) pero ya son muchas las insitencias que tienes con este tema y parece que no has comprendido cada uno de los argumentos que te he dado una y otra vez, así que aquí va:

No sé porqué azares del destino, estás empeñada en afirmar que hubo fraude en la elecciones en México, al menos con esos argumentos.

Afirmarlo así como lo haces, es igual que asegurar que la virgen concibió de milagro, que AMLO ahora es santo y que un ovni nos domina (mera cuestión de fe ciega, con argumentos que siembran duda sin pruebas).

De acuerdo al Censo de Población del INEGI, en el año 2000 en México éramos 97, 483, 412, siendo mayores de edad 54 904 304. Sin embargo, en el año 2000 el IFE reportó un padrón electoral de 70, 599, 883 ciudadanos.

¿Viene desde el año 2000 la conspiración judeo-masónica-yunkista-illuminati-verberena y cancerbera mundial?

No.

Y lo mismo sucede en España, Alemania, Italia y blah, blah, blah.

¡Porque ambos estudios son completa y absolutamente diferentes! ¡Las metodologías son completamente distintas!... Y seguramente te habrán enseñado que, ¡NO se DEBEN juntar peras con manzanas en las matemáticas! O dicho de otra forma: el conocer aritmética no asegura dominar el arte de saber contar.

Siendo más explícito:

Si tienes un costal de manzanas, para contarlas no hace falta más que sacarlas del costal e ir metiendo una a una hasta que tengas el número total. Ese número es comprobable y repetible cuantas veces sea necesario; cuantas veces la necedad lo requiera recontar. Eso, es un padrón al que asisten uno por uno de los empadronados y donde se les toman datos, huellas digitales, firmas y fotografía.

Un censo, es completamente distinto. Para comenzar, es una muestra de una población.
Si esa razón no fuera suficiente, te enumero más:
La medición no es uno a uno sino conceptual.
Es por método de encuestas en domicilio (se llama por algo censo de población y vivienda) así que la información NO es confiable (mas que para valores estadísticos) porque depende de muchas variables: si la persona tenía diarrea y no quiso abrir, si le dio la gana mentir, si simplemente estaba en el cine y nadie respondió.
El tipo de levantamiento es con la población que se logra captar en su lugar de “residencia habitual”.
El periodo censal, de levantamiento, fue del 4 al 29 de octubre de 2005, pero el conteo del censo dura varias semanas y el INEGI como siempre lo hace, definió el 17 de octubre de 2005 como la fecha a la que se refiere la información, que corresponde a la mitad del periodo del levantamiento. Eso aún a pesar de que cada semana la gente se muere, nace, cambia de residencia y un largo etcétera.

Todo ello en medio de la intensidad de los huracanes Stan y Wilma, que afectaron diversas zonas del país con fuertes lluvias e inundaciones, donde fue IMPOSIBLE realizar censo alguno.

En pocas palabras, el censo NO es replicable. Salvo que tú, Gatopardo tengas una máquina del tiempo escondida, pasado el periodo censal con todas sus eventualidades, no podemos regresar a repetir la operación. Con el IFE y su padrón, sí.

¿Tiene el padrón electoral problemas?
Sí.
No se han dado de baja a gran cantidad de personas que murieron.
Muchos no han reportado cambios de domicilio.
Están en el padrón gran cantidad de inmigrantes que no residen en México.

¿Eso pudo haber constituido el fraude?
NO.
Es IMPOSIBLE que un muerto vote salvo que se presente en una casilla caminando, portando su credencial para votar, esta sea verificada en el padrón impreso por funcionarios de casilla ajenos a partidos (ciudadanos comunes y corrientes) , sus datos cotejados, incluyendo fotografía, su credencial sellada y su dedo pintado con tinta indeleble, para luego depositar el voto en la urna. Por ende, es IMPOSIBLE eso afecte el resultado de las elecciones.
Lo mismo sucede con quienes han cambiado de domicilio, pues salvo que visiten casillas especiales (donde se encuentra TODO el padrón impreso y donde se les sella la credencial y se les pone tinta indeleble para que solo voten una vez, además de que se marca el padrón), no podrán votar en las casillas de su nuevo domicilio. Por ende, es IMPOSIBLE eso afecte el resultado de las elecciones.

Resulta además, que el padrón del IFE fue revisado y valorado –no una sino varias veces- por partidos políticos, ONG’s y hasta la Organización de Naciones Unidas, quienes no creo hayan participado en este “fraude” y “conspiración” que seguidores de AMLO siguen queriendo inventarse y darle la magnitud de mundial.

Sí, la elección tuvo fallas y errores (siempre los habrá), pero no fraude. Al menos no he visto NINGUNA prueba real (no que sea solicitud prístina de prueba de fe como la que pides aquí) de lo que afirmas con tanta ligereza; excusa que muchos ignorantes toman como bandera sin tener conocimiento ni de causa ni de fondo.

Y no meto las manos al fuego por nadie más que por mí mismo, pero por lo que puedo discernir NO HUBO FRAUDE NI como dices tampoco encuentro PRUEBA ALGUNA DE “la estafa a la buena fe de 41 millones de mexicanos que fueron a votar, creyeron en la democracia.” (y por favor, no contra argumentes esto con críticas hacia mi ortografía o si pongo letras mayúsculas para demostrar énfasis; dame pruebas reales y me uno a la protesta)

Así que, o das pruebas contundentes REALES, COMPROBABLES y OBJETIVAS, o sólo colaboras a enrarecer el clima en México. O dicho de otra forma: está “a todo dar” soplarle al fuego mientras vives en España.

Y antes de que retomen su teoría complotista que no se les olvide que la jornada electoral fue vigilada en las casillas por un total de 1, 241, 094 representantes de partidos y coaliciones registrados (intuyendo a miembros del PRD), más 25, 311 observadores nacionales y 693 visitantes extranjeros de 60 países.

Saludos!

Por la Virgen de Guadalupe, don José, nadie lo podría confundir a usted con un troll, y siempre será un placer contar aquí con sus comentarios, aportando argumentos y enlaces con la más estricta ortodoxia, y que ciertamente tengo tendencia a olvidar, cosa que espero que se me perdone por la edad.
Me suele ocurrir cuando hablo de Italia, jamás me apoyo en los argumentos que defiende el Vaticano, la Democrazia Cristiana, Berlusconi y la Cosa Nostra; cuando hablo de España no suelo hacerme eco ni basar mis argumentos en el NODO, el periódico ABC ni en Tele-5; y me ha ocurrido siempre con México:no baso mis datos y argumentos en los noticieros Televisa,y Azteca, Reforma, la ONU, ONGs como Vamos México, ni la filantrópica Yunque.
Por esto, su contribución al debate sólo puede enriquecerlo y le ruego que se sienta en absoluta libertad para darle voz a la postura oficial de los que mandan, que sólo cuentan con el 99% de los medios de comunicación para hacerles eco.
Sólo me permitiría subrayar que Dios y todos los santos no le han adornado con el don de la brevedad, la síntesis y la claridad expositiva, por lo que sus mayúsculas para dar énfasis (el énfasis es natural a los enfáticos como la sífilis a los sifilíticos) créame, es la menor de mis preocupaciones cuando lo leo.

Usted dice que el padrón puede no haber dado de baja a los muertos y a los emigrantes, denominados con el eufemismo "quienes han cambiado de domicilio", por lo que lo normal sería que hubiera más ciudadanos censados en el INEGI, y no menos; pero no en el IFE que sólo recoge los que tienen credencial de votante,y que "verificada en el padrón impreso por funcionarios de casilla ajenos a partidos (ciudadanos comunes y corrientes) , sus datos cotejados, incluyendo fotografía, su credencial sellada y su dedo pintado con tinta indeleble, para luego depositar el voto en la urna"
Respecto a las pruebas del fraude, me temo que el hecho de que se haya constatado más votos que votantes en algunas de las urnas que se han denunciado, y que el Tribunal haya tenido que anular un porcentaje significativo induciría a hacer sospechar que puede haber ocurrido en el resto de las casillas, y la petición de volver a contar voto por voto y casilla por casilla está fundada.
No pedimos otra cosa que volver a contar los votos.
¿Por qué están tan interesados en que no se haga? ¿Respeto a las normas democráticas? ¿A estas alturas cree usted que la escrupulosidad de nuestros gobernantes en la observancia de la Ley puede ser un motivo creíble?

Autor: financiaciónde la campaña del PAN

"Hay un personaje que se llama Arnulfo Montes Cuen, ex priísta sonorense caído en desgracia con el actual gobernador Eduardo Bours Castelo (PRI) y después contratado por legisladores panistas para servirles de asesor en materia de organización campesina, ya que estaba al frente de la FENPA (Federación de Productores Agropecuarios, Forestales y Pesqueros, AC) y tenía experiencia para gestionar y conseguir apoyos económicos de las diversas dependencias del gobierno federal. Lo contrataron los panistas porque ellos no tienen y no han tenido arraigo en organizaciones campesinas o agropecuarias (monopolizadas antes por el PRI, y últimamente penetradas por el PRD) y les hacía falta captarlas para fines electoreros.

José Reveles, colega y excelente amigo, publicó este año el valiente libro “Las manos sucias del PAN”, del cual entresacamos la mayor parte de los datos que indican el carácter corrupto y delictuoso de la acción de la Chepina panista. El dirigente Montes Cuen sirvió a los trafiques de los panistas, pensando en su muy personal beneficio y en que aquellos realmente querían crear un sistema de organizaciones agrario-agrícolas y pecuarias de corte panista. Pero en cierto momento las cosas se definieron como eran en realidad. Quisieron los panistas que los dineros conseguidos se distribuyeran no a los supuestos beneficiarios --los pobres del campo-- sino que se otorgara una parte sustancial para los mismos legisladores-gestores, otra para la campaña electoral de Felipe Calderón y el resto (que quedaba en una bicoca) para los beneficiarios pobres, a cambio de su voto por Calderón. Y Montes Cuen en cierto momento se negó a seguirles el juego, arrepentido tardíamente pues ya estaba metido hasta las ingles en ese pantano de concupiscencias. Montes Cuen se había dedicado a repletar los actos públicos de Calderón con los campesinos supuestamente beneficiados de los programas de vivienda y otros, usando las estrategias que antaño había utilizado el PRI, del cual provenía él.

La FENPA de Montes Cuen, según consta en denuncias hechas por este ante la Procuraduría General de la República (PGR), que hasta hoy no han sido investigadas o resueltas, había conseguido de la Secretaría de Desarrollo Social (Sedesol) --ahora ya encabezada por Ana Teresa Aranda, sucesora en el puesto de Josefina Vázquez Mota-- la pingüe cantidad de 55 millones de pesos (5 millones de US dólares) “como ayuda para vivienda rural a 5 mil 437 familias paupérrimas en 21 estados de la República”. Pero, para abreviar, los legisladores panistas encabezados por Jorge Luis Preciado, diputado panista, que habían servido de “puente” entre la FENPA y la Sedesol, le exigieron a Montes Cuen les desviara a ellos, en una cuenta bancaria especial, 27.5 millones de pesos (o sea, la mitad del total) a efecto de usarlos “para el financiamiento de la campaña presidencial del Partido Acción Nacional, según el dicho del propio diputado federal” Preciado, y según consta en la denuncia formal que ante la PGR formuló Montes Cuen, arrepentido de haberles dado ese concurso “organizativo” a los panistas.

El libro de Reveles relata la larga lista de dimes y diretes, acusaciones y ocultamientos panistas, de la PGR y la Secretaría de la Función Pública (ex Contraloría) de estas transacciones, pero hace notar siempre que este es sólo un caso, muy escandaloso por cierto, de los trafiques del PAN destinados a comprar votos a cambio de supuestos beneficios sociales en materia de vivienda, sin que ello siquiera llevase el beneficio prometido a los afiliados a esos programas oficiales. Antes de las elecciones del 2 de julio, los diputados panistas y la Sedesol arreciaron “la derrama de dineros y nuevos padrones de receptores” de condición pobre del campo y las ciudades, con el definido objetivo de captar votos a favor de Calderón Hinojosa. Estudios de diversos organismos, como el Consejo Consultivo de Desarrollo Social, órgano de consulta de la Sedesol, integrado por académicos, especialistas e instituciones de signo plural, pusieron en claro estas realidades, en informes que la nueva titular de la Sedesol, Ana Teresa Aranda, se negó a publicar en este 2006, debido a las incriminaciones ciertas y fulminantes que traerían aparejadas.

Y hubo muchos más “operadores” de este tipo, en favor de Calderón. Si sólo para 5 mil 437 familias pobres se manejaron 55 millones de pesos, multiplíquense estas cifras por los numerosísimos empadronados en las listas del Programa Oportunidades y se verá de qué tamaño fue el acarreo electoral de pobres a favor del candidato de la derecha, con dineros oficiales. A ello agréguense los mil cien millones de pesos del Fondo Nacional para Desastres Naturales (FONDEN) que ya habían sido utilizados en la campaña interna del PAN a favor Santiago Creel, precandidato que perdió ante Calderón, además de muchísimas otras desviaciones de recursos (como en Chiapas, por 76 millones de pesos) que ya se ejercieron a favor de la campaña de Calderón.

Piénsese que sólo tres programas “miserabilistas” del gobierno foxista de los 51 que maneja esta administración (o sea, Oportunidades, Seguro Popular y Procampo) suman inversiones por más de 67 mil millones de pesos en este 2006. ¿Cuántos de esos recursos habrán ido a dar a la campaña de Calderón mediante la compra anticipada de votos de familias indigentes de todo el país? Son datos que corren, imprecisos aún, entre los ciudadanos y grupos de todo el país. La compra anticipada de los votos, explotando necesidades de los pobres, le permite al PAN lavarse ahora las manos de irregularidad comicial, pero ahí está, para que el Tribunal Electoral del Poder Ejecutivo Federal (TEPJF), ahora en el análisis del proceso eleccionario, lo tome en debida cuenta. El gobierno federal intervino hamponescamente en las elecciones del 2006, de eso no cabe duda ante testimonios como el de José Reveles. Y la Chepina Vázquez Mota jugó un papel central en todo ese trafique, ya que ella lo preparó y lo “operó” al final de cuentas, como coordinadora de la campaña de Calderón, con la complicidad de su sucesora en la Sedesol, Ana Teresa Aranda."

No podría decirte más que tienes toda la boca llena de RAZÓN. El fraude electoral es un hecho, se gestó desde hace mucho tiempo atrás con el complot hacia López Obrador, persona que ¡gracias a Dios! no es un santo como afirma otro de tus lectores, y lo digo porque los Santos no aportron más a la humanidad que tener que ver sus caras en los retablos con los ojos mirando hacia el cielo. Luego viene el recuento de algunas casillas y resulta que por arte de magia en México nadie sabe sumar y dos más dos son igual a seis.El padrón electoral que fue manipulado por una empresa de informática casualmente propiedad del hermano del candidato ganador. Creo que lo mejor hubiera sido la anulación de la elección y vovler a convocarla.

Ademas la cifra de casi 6 millones de Mexicanos aparecidos por arte de magia en el padron electoral seria en el caso de que absolutamente todos los mayores de 18 años estuvieramos empadronados y que ni una sola persona murio o emigro entre que fue hecho el censo y se empadrono. Se dice que Ugalde tiene por hobbie la Magia, pero en verdad deberia pensar en hacerse profesional pues ni david coperdfield ha logrado aparecer 6 millones de personas de la nada.

Ademas la facilidad con la que descalifica J sanchez el censo (sic-por que le dio diarrea a la gente), es casi tan absurda como aquel argumento dado por el IFE al cuestionamiento de que faltaban o sobraban boletas cuando menos en el 70% de las casillas,segun esto por que la gente se llevaba dichas boletas de recuerdo!!!!!, por que es simplemente imposible que el PAN haya realizado practicas fraudulentas de antaño como taqueo que explicaria perfectamente este inusual fenomeno que tantos truinfos le brindo al PRI. Entonces no se para que se hacen los censos, mejor deberiamos simplemente inventar los datos de modo que cuadren con el padron electoral y no vayan a levantar sospechas!!!!!. jajaja en verdad que por gente como usted J sanchez es que tenemos el remedo de pseudo-democracia que tenemos.

LA MUCAMA DE BORGES

"De las agonías y luces de la guerra no curé nada: mi propósito es referir la historia de esta cicatriz que me afrenta."
Jorge Luis Borges, La muerte y la brújula.

-Estoy vieja, ya voy a cumplir 80 años, sabe. Dentro de poco me voy a morir. No sé por qué, pero últimamente pienso mucho en la muerte. Y me pone contenta, porque me voy a encontrar con el señor. Me acuerdo siempre del señor, sabe. Cuarenta años que estuve en esa casa, toda mi vida. Cuando yo llegué no había nada: ni aspiradora, ni radio, ni televisión. Nada, era tan triste y oscura... Todavía sueño con el señor. Lo veo en el sillón del living, sentado con su gato Beppo, y entonces yo le digo: "Señor, ¿vio lo que me hicieron? ¿Vio qué pobre estoy? Me dejaron sin nada... ni siquiera tengo mis plantas, sabe..." Y él me mira y me dice: "Fanny, no se haga problemas, vaya a la casa, que allí la esperan sus plantas".
Afuera llueve torrencialmente y adentro Epifanía Uveda de Robledo, la mujer que compartió cuarenta años con Jorge Luis Borges, juguetea con la punta de su delantal de cocina. Tiene la mirada dulce y el cabello encanecido, recogido en la nuca. Ya no hay plantas que la esperen y tampoco departamento. De la casa del escritor, Fanny -como la conocen todos y como la llamaba su patrón- fue expulsada violentamente por indicación de María Kodama, la viuda. Hace exactamente quince años.

Entrevisté a Fanny hace cinco años y quedé prendada de su ternura y su candor. Mientras la escuchaba hablar, me hacía recordar a Ángela, mi abuela materna. Había nacido en la misma provincia del norte argentino, de donde era oriunda mi abuela. Al principio se mostró reacia a conversar de sus años junto al "Señor Borges", como todavía lo llama, y fueron necesarias varias visitas para que entrara en confianza y, despacito, comenzara a desovillar la madeja de sus recuerdos. Su hija Stella fue de gran ayuda para mí. Nos acompañó durante las entrevistas, impulsó a su madre, con anécdotas pequeñas, a soltar los recuerdos. Inmediatamente advertí el gran amor que las une, son mujeres sencillas, buenas y fuertes. Stella vivía a veces con Fanny, en la casa de la familia Borges. Ella fue la que un día llevó el gato blanco a la casa del escritor, que al principio lo rechazó y luego le tomó un enorme cariño. Es curioso: Fanny nunca leyó nada de lo que escribió su patrón, ni un cuento o un poema. Pero lo conoció tanto como su madre y muchísimo más que María Kodama, la mujer que lo arrastró muy enfermo a Suiza, lo separó de sus amigos, se casó con él y se quedó con todos sus bienes. La misma que luego de morir Borges regresó a Argentina y en el invierno de 1986 echó a Fanny del departamento y la dejó en la calle, sin nada. Todo lo contrario a lo que había dispuesto Borges en un testamento que Kodama hizo desaparecer.
Hablamos mucho de la viuda de Borges. Y me quedó grabada una frase que ella me dijo la última tarde que la vi: "Doña Leonor, pobrecita, desde que vio a María en el departamento no le gustó. Y a ella no se le escapaba nada. Un día le preguntó a María si estaba enamorada de su hijo. Ella le dijo. "Yo estoy enamorada de su literatura". Cuando se fue, la madre del señor dijo en voz alta: "Esa piel amarilla se va a quedar con todo".
Hoy, la ex mucama del célebre escritor vive pobremente en una casa antigua y húmeda que le presta un amigo, frente a la cancha del club de fútbol Boca Juniors, en Buenos Aires. En un rincón de la sala hay un pequeño altar: fotos amarillentas del escritor recortadas de revistas, flores de plástico, velas y vírgenes. Fanny sonríe y, a veces, se queda suspendida en el aire, con cierta tristeza. Recuerda todo con lujo de detalles. Fue la mujer que le cocinó al escritor sus platos preferidos, la que lo vistió, la que lo cuidó cuando estaba enfermo. La que revisaba su correspondencia y sus compromisos; depositaba los cheques; manejaba la agenda y hasta le cobraba la jubilación a través de un poder que Borges había hecho para ella.
Y más que ninguna, la que miró la vida por él: "Borges nunca vio a María (Kodama). Ya era ciego cuando la conoció. Un día me preguntó: 'Dígame Fanny, ¿cómo es María?'. 'Bueno, no es linda, tampoco es fea. Ahí...' le dije yo". Y acompaña la última palabra con un gesto inequívoco de sus manos. La vida de Fanny es extraña. Llegó a la casa de la familia Borges cuando tenía 31 años. Su marido la había abandonado y tenía una hija de meses.
-"Primero trabajaba por horas. Hasta que un día la señora Leonor (la madre de Borges) me pidió que me quedara, porque se había muerto la cocinera. Y me quedé. En ese entonces, el señor todavía veía, usaba anteojos de marcos anchos, esos que le dicen de 'culo de botella' (se ríe). Y me decía que veía puntitos amarillos. Qué raro, ¿no? Todas las cortinas de la casa y la colcha de su cama eran amarillas. En el último tiempo, pobrecito, ya no veía ni siquiera los puntitos."
Después de la muerte de Leonor Acevedo, la madre de Borges, la confianza que le otorgó el escritor a Fanny fue infinita. Cada vez que llegaba de alguna conferencia en el exterior, le entregaba un fajo de dólares y ella los guardaba entre las páginas de los libros de la biblioteca, que él reconocía con sólo olerlos. Después que Borges murió en Suiza, el abogado de María Kodama apareció en el departamento y le pidió a Fanny toda la plata que el escritor guardaba entre los libros.

-"Le dije: Mire, ahí esta toda la plata del señor, en esa biblioteca. En el estante de arriba están los billetes de 50 dólares, allá los de 20, en aquel otro los de 10. Tenía tanta bronca, me sentía tan humillada. Bajé todos los libros, puse la plata en una bolsa de residuos y se la di. Pero me dejaron encerrada con llave quince días. Ella, la Kodama, pensaba que yo me había quedado con algo del señor. Nunca tuve nada y vivo en una casa prestada..."
-¿Cómo era vivir con Borges?
-Era un hombre muy especial, muy pegado a la madre. Ay, cuando vivía doña Leonor, él no hacía nada sin pedirle permiso. Ella era una autoritaria, pero él la adoraba. El señor tenía sentido del humor, pero no como cualquiera, sabe. Era muy especial y muchas veces se ponía triste. Cuando estaba con Adolfito (Bioy Casares), se reía todo el tiempo. O con la señora Silvina (Ocampo) también. Después se separaron porque María le tenía prohibido que los visitara.
-Borges era ateo y veo que usted lo tiene en un altar con imágenes religiosas. ¿Por qué?
-(Se ríe) Bueno, eso decía él. Pero cada vez que se iba a dormir se arrodillaba al costado de la cama y rezaba un Padrenuestro. Y cada vez que íbamos a visitar la tumba de su madre, en la Recoleta, se persignaba. En público él decía que no sabía rezar, pero ahí en el cementerio rezaba siempre. Le hablaba a doña Leonor como si estuviera viva. Y lloraba abrazado al cajón... ¡Pobre Borges, cómo lloraba! Él odiaba a Perón, pero un día, en 1974, lo encontré rezando en un rincón de la casa, parecía triste. "¿Qué hace señor?", le pregunté. "Rezo por Perón. ¿No sabe que se está muriendo?"
-La relación con su madre era muy fuerte...
-No hacía nada que a ella le pudiera molestar. Pero había que aguantarla, tenía un carácter espantoso. Yo la cuidé a doña Leonor hasta que se murió. Tenía 99 años y yo nunca había visto muertos, imagínese el susto que tenía. La noche que ella se murió estaban sus amigas; yo le serví la sopa, le di de comer en la boca y la acosté. Entonces ella empezó a roncar. La hija, Norah, dijo: "Vamos porque mamá ya está durmiendo". A la una yo me fui a dormir y ella seguía con el ronquido. Pensé que dormía. A las cuatro me desperté y dije: "Ay, me olvidé de la señora". Fui corriendo y seguía con los ronquidos, pero más bajos. La senté en la cama porque pensé que se estaba ahogando, y entonces su cuerpo, adentro, hizo un ruido terrible. Después el médico me explicó que cuando una persona se muere, las visceras, adentro, se desprenden. Y ése era el ruido que yo escuché. Le avisé al señor que dormía en su cuarto que su madre se había muerto. Vino corriendo, desesperado y la agarró de los pies y comenzó a sacudirla. Pero ella estaba muerta. Fue el día de mayor sufrimiento de su vida. Lloraba agarrado a los barrotes de la cama y decía: "Madre, acá estoy, ya volví". Entre los dos le preparamos la mortaja, le pusimos monedas en los ojos para que no los abriera y un pañuelito atado a la cara. Los primeros que vinieron fueron el señor Adolfito y la señora Silvina...
-¿Bíoy Casares lo acompañó mucho en ese tiempo?
-Eran como hermanos. Casi todas las noches lo venía a buscar para comer y hablar de literatura. Cuando volvía, él se iba al dormitorio de la madre, se sentaba en la cama y hablaba con ella. "Madre, hoy comí arroz...", le decía. Como si ella estuviera viva, pobre... Antes de irse a Ginebra definitivamente, me acuerdo que entré en el cuarto y lo encontré acostado en la cama, con la mirada perdida en el techo. Era muy triste verlo así. Bueno, ahora deben estar juntos en el cielo...
En su casa, Fanny revuelve recortes amarillentos de diarios y revistas. En la pared, sobresale un cuadro con marco de plástico, sin vidrios. La imagen está prendida con cinta adhesiva. Ahí esta Borges y se anuncia un seminario que se dictó en Estados Unidos, en 1983- Fanny dice que ese cuadro es lo único que conserva de Borges:
-"Durante años estuvo secuestrado en tribunales, por pedido de María. Ella decía que valía mucha plata y que era de ella. Finalmente el juzgado me lo devolvió".
Fanny se enteró de la muerte de Borges por la radio. Dice que lloró mucho y que rezó por su patrón.

-"Él siempre me decía que quería ser enterrado junto a su madre y que tenía pánico a que le saquen fotos a su cadáver. Y mire dónde se fue a morir. El día que se fue estaba tan enfermo que apenas podía caminar. Cuando volvió de comer, lo desvestí y se acostó. Lo desperté a las cinco. Se levantó, se agarró a la cama de hierro y me dijo: 'Fanny, yo no quiero ir. Si voy, me voy a morir lejos'. Y lloraba desconsolado, el pobrecíllo. Y ahí llegó María y empezó a gritarle, le amenazó que ella se iba sola..."
-¿Cómo era la relación con Kodama?
-Ella primero venía y se quedaba dos horas, en las clases de anglosajón. Después, empezó a tener más poder sobre él. Sobre todo después de la muerte de doña Leonor, cuando ella empezó a acompañarlo por el mundo. Borges era muy vulnerable y tenía las defensas bajas, debido a su ceguera. Y ella lo amenazaba con que lo abandonaba. Le hablaba mal de sus amigos, de su familia, de mí: le decía que eran todos unos delincuentes que le querían sacar plata. El señor siempre me contaba lo que María le decía: 'Fanny, ¿usted que piensa?', me preguntaba mientras yo lo vestía. María usaba una cadenita con una calavera colgada del cuello; Borges me contaba que a ella le gustaban las brujerías. '¡Ay Fanny, si supiera los lugares a donde me lleva María! Hay gente tan rara, animales muertos, sapos'..."
-María Kodama dice que ella y Borges vivieron un gran amor...
-¿Amor? Eso nunca fue amor, lo que pasa es que él estaba muy solo. María maltrataba al señor, yo fui testigo. Le gritaba y un día lo empujó en la puerta del ascensor. El señor estuvo muy enamorado de Estela Canto. La adoraba y guardaba su fotografía entre sus libros. Ella fue su novia desde los 17 años, pero nunca tuvieron relaciones sexuales. Bueno, pobrecillo, no las tuvo con ninguna de sus mujeres. Y menos con María. No era algo que le interesara, le tenía pánico. Yo siempre digo que el pobre señor se murió virgen.
-Pero Borges estuvo casado con Elsa Astete Millán, durante dos años y medio...
-Ella vive y tiene más de 90 años. Está internada en un geriátrico. Yo hablaba mucho con Elsa y ella me contó que un día la rodilla de ella rozó con la de él y el señor se puso a temblar. Raro, ¿no? Me acuerdo cuando se casaron. 'Georgie, ¿por qué no te casas? Así • no te quedas solo cuando yo me muera', le dijo la madre. Y así, decidió casarse por Iglesia y por civil. Antes de la ceremonia, doña Leonor le dijo a Elsa: 'Mira que Georgie no quiere compartir la cama'. Y ella aceptó igual. 'Yo sé cómo llevar un hombre a mi cama', me dijo Elsa. Pero Borges no estaba enamorado. La noche de bodas, cuando ya se habían ido los invitados, Borges se preparó para ir a dormir. '¿Por qué no van al hotel Dora?', dijo la madre. '¡No, no y no! Yo me quedo acá en mi casa, en mi cama y con mi madre'. Y la pobre Elsa se fue sola esa noche hasta su casa, en ómnibus. Vivieron juntos, pero en camas separadas.
-¿Borges era depresivo? ¿A qué le tenía miedo?
-A veces se deprimía. Y le tenía terror a la soledad. Una vez en un viaje a Madrid, se quemó el pie derecho. Estuvo veinte días sin salir del hotel, en reposo, sin poder ponerse medias ni zapatos. Lo cuidó un amigo. Cuando volvió le pregunté qué había pasado. 'María me dejó solo. Estaba tan solo, Fanny, que lo único que quería era suicidarme.' '¿Y qué pensaba hacer?', le pregunté. 'Llené la bañera con agua bien caliente para meterme y ahogarme, pero soy un cobarde y no aguanté.' Otra vez me dijo que una vez fue a las vías del tren para matarse porque una novia lo había abandonado. El tren venía y le tocaba bocina. De repente vio que su perrito lo había seguido y estaba acostado en las vías. 'Me dio tanta lástima, lo recogí y me fui. Soy un cobarde, Fanny.'
-¿Dormía bien o tenía pesadillas?
-Sufría de insomnio. Pero también era caprichoso, como un niño. Cuando llegaba la noche, yo abría la cama y empapaba un pañuelo con colonia que le colocaba en la almohada. Él se sentaba y me extendía la mano abierta. Yo le ponía dos caramelos y le daba la pastilla para dormir. Un día el señor estaba ansioso para que le llevara el Rohipnol (somnífero) y me di cuenta de que se había terminado. Entonces agarré una aspirina y se la di. Al otro día, me dijo que había sido su mejor noche. Tenía capricho con la pastilla. Tenía miedo a la noche. Decía que debajo de su cama había unos enanitos malignos de color plateado, que se lo querían llevar. Otro día me dijo llorando que en su cama había dos mujeres que lo querían ahorcar.

-¿Qué hay de cierto en su rechazo a la gente negra?

-Un día me acuerdo que llegaron unas chicas brasileñas; hablaron mucho con él y se quedaron toda la tarde. Cuando ellas se fueron, él vino a la cocina y me preguntó cómo eran físicamente. Le dije que eran negras. "¡¿Cómo negras?! ¿Por qué no me lo dijo antes? ¡Que horror, las hubiera echado! Salga usted también de acá. ¡Salga!." Y después se le pasaba...

-¿Qué decía sobre los desaparecidos?

-Algunos familiares venían a la casa y le contaban las cosas que le hacían los militares. Me acuerdo de una chica, muy linda, que habían agarrado los militares y la habían torturado con la picana. La chica lloraba en el living y él se angustiaba muchísimo. Me decía que guardara bien todas las carpetas con los nombres y las fotos de los desaparecidos. "¿Qué puedo hacer Fanny? Soy ciego... Pobre gente, las cosas que le han hecho estos militares", me dijo cuando la chica se fue.

-¿Cómo es su vida, Fanny?

-¿Sabe una cosa? No me gusta nada quedarme sola, como el señor Georgie. Y vivo de recuerdos. Era tan bueno, si estuviera vivo no hubiera permitido nada de lo que me hicieron. En su testamento él me había dejado la casa, pero después María lo cambió en Suiza. No me importa, total: pronto me voy a morir. Acá no pago alquiler y vivo tranquila con mi hija. Todo está tan caro, ¿vio? Me acuerdo que un día le dije a doña Leonor que la plata no me alcanzaba. Me había dado veinte centavos. "¿No te alcanza esto que te doy? Lo que va a venir va a ser peor." Qué razón tenía, ¿no?

Pensar que no tenía ni idea de la vida de Borges, si, dos o tres cosas. Pero al leer este texto me pregunto: ¿Ficción o realidad?... O las dos? Lo que más me cuesta creer no son los intentos de suicidio, ni que se los comentara a su empleada, ni siquiera el racismo, el capricho, la hipocondria, o la virginidad, pero que su ex-esposa se fuera la noche de bodas "sola en ómnibus". Esa no me la creo. ¿alguien ha tomado ya el bus en Buenos Aires? y de noche! No me la creo...

Habra testigos todo lo que querais, pero a Maria Kodama la eligio Borges,dejo atras todo y a todos, para irse con ella,olvido, abandono... Me gusta su escritura, pero me horroriza como persona. Yo no demonizaria a Maria Kodama, mas bien lo buscaria a el detras de todo esto que contais, Borges era un escritor de talla mundial no me lo imagino ni por un momento tan maleable. Simplemente podria ser que no valiera un apice como ser humano eso no esta mezclado con la genialidad de su obra, ha pasado muchas veces

No es posible unir a este hombre con el escritor.El escritor es un hombre que sueña y desarrolla ese sueño sobre el papel, su pluma se desliza y crea imágenes, personas , situaciones, nos hace pensar, tiene profundidad, el EL MEMORIOSO FUNES no explica, años antes de los medios tecnológicos de comunicación como internet, televisión y teléfonos digitales, que la información, los datos, nos dan información, pero no sabiduria.
El hombre, no se desarrolló en él. Se quedó en un joven apocado, enojado, que no supo vivir, que no gozó de una mujer, que no vivió el amor, pero que sabía que el amor existía, aunque no era para él, un hombre que se quedó en niño, sin poder crecer. Debemos saber apreciar lo bueno que hay en él, que es su escritura, gocemos de ella.

No sabía que Borges era un idiota, además de un gran escritor. Esa forma como disoció su vida, por un lado el escritor y por otro el hombre, me parece de lo más dañino para la literatura, que pasa a ser un juego intelectual ocioso. Estas facetas de Borges que ahora salen a la luz ilustran muy bien la falta de vitalidad en su obra.

MIRIAM Y EL ENAMORADO DE LA OSA MAYOR

Para don Antonio García Muñoz, con mi irreverente respeto.

Miriam tenía dieciséis años, era hija de un preboste del Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores, de vieja estirpe aristocrática,   y Simón era un zangolotino de veintidós años que estudiaba Derecho, a trancas y barrancas, porque su padre, cacique de un pueblo de los montes de Toledo, creía que si su hijo supiera leyes podría ganar todos los pleitos que tenía planteados. Cinco palmos en las lindes de la Ribera del Cojo significaban cobrar o pagar por el agua de la poza donde se abrevaba el ganado; que fuera o no cañada real el camino de su finca La Molinera, restaría o multiplicaría su valor y, sobre todo, un hijo abogado le parecía el colmo para sus aspiraciones, porque aún no sabía que hay tantos licenciados en Derecho como filólogos, y que se precisa la misma falta de inteligencia para memorizar el Código Penal que para hacerle la autopsia semiótica a un texto.
El día que conoció a Miriam, Simón quedó paralizado y trémulo ante aquella diosa de ojos verdes y mirada vertiginosa que sonreía dulcemente.
-Luis, ¿la conoces? ¡Preséntamela!- dijo en éxtasis.
-Oye, que no tenemos nada que hacer con ella... ¿Tú sabes quienes son los que la acompañan? Son todos millonarios, aristócratas... no seas ridículo...
Una vaharada de vergüenza, de humillación, le nubló la vista; pero tuvo la suficiente lucidez como para marcharse sin decir nada.
Desde ese día, Luis perdió a su compañero de correrías, y observó estupefacto que Simón sólo tenía tiempo para estudiar, estudiar y estudiar. Aprobó el curso con las mejores notas y durante el verano se matriculó en una academia de idiomas. Parecía transfigurado por algún secreto designio que le hacía desentenderse de todos, con una sed irrefrenable de saber.
Simón entró en la Escuela Diplomática, y durante diez años fue destinado a todos los países cuyos recursos no esquilmábamos y que, por lo tanto, no tenían importancia alguna.
En sus noches solitarias, buscaba la Osa Mayor o la Estrella del Sur, según qué constelación tuviera en aquel rincón del mundo, y pensaba en Miriam que era su guía. Su labor fue tan notable que, a pesar de su juventud, lo llamaron para que se hiciera cargo de un destino de primera importancia.
-Dentro de tres meses tendrá que estar en su puesto –le dijo el Ministro.
-Necesito tomar vacaciones hasta que me incorpore. Quiero ir casado.
-Me alegra saberlo: un embajador soltero siempre es un engorro. ¿Quién es la elegida?

-Se llama Miriam, y su padre es un diplomático y aristócrata muy conocido. Pero aún no he pedido su mano, no le dicho nada a ella y…

-Entiendo su discreción y la alabo. ¡Que tenga suerte!
Simón buscó un hotel en Madrid digno de su categoría social, y se dejó caer por los lugares donde podría coincidir con Miriam, que milagrosamente era más bella que en su recuerdo. La vio llegar con su grupo de amigos aristócratas al club de la Casa de Campo; la vio en las conferencias y en las exposiciones, en las fiestas privadas y en las recepciones oficiales, siempre perfecta, sonriente, escuchando atentamente a sus interlocutores, y su hermosa mirada de ojos verdes se posó con frecuencia en los ojos de Luis, emboscados en sus gafas. Los presentaron, claro, y ella sonrió cómplice cuando dijo la fórmula consabida:
-Encantada.
Nunca antes había reparado en su voz, un punto gutural, y le produjo un extraño escalofrío erótico. Simón se sorprendió como un desinhibido parlanchín, le contó sus aventuras como diplomático en diferentes países exóticos, mezclando referencias de gente que ella conocía, y Miriam lo escuchaba embelesada. Poco a poco sus acompañantes se fueron retirando, y quedaron solos en un salón lleno de gente, en una isla de complicidades y sobreentendidos. Con toda naturalidad se ofreció para acompañarla a su casa, y ella aceptó. Quedaron para el día siguiente. Al cabo de un mes era habitual verlos juntos. Miriam subrayaba las confidencias de Simón con síes, por favor, sigue, cuéntame que pasó después, qué interesante, y él volcaba sus pensamientos más secretos en ella, confiado y enternecido.
Aquella última noche Miriam le dijo al despedirse, como siempre:
-Gracias por la velada, espero no haberte aburrido.
Simón le habló de su amor, de todos los años que había luchado por llegar a merecerla, y comparó a Miriam con la Estrella del Sur y con la Osa Mayor que guían a los navegantes.
Y ella preguntó con el entrecejo fruncido:
-¿Cuála osa dices?
Y ese "cuala" llegó como un chorro de hielo al alma de Simón, que se quedó mudo, rígido, boqueante. Y al cabo de unos segundos, acertó a decir:
-Perdona, Miriam, creo que es muy tarde, me tengo que marchar.
Simón llegó a su pueblo, abrazó a su padre, que acababa de pagarle a los jornaleros y comentaba con un vecino las vicisitudes de la cosecha. Le ofrecieron la bota de vino peleón, lo embromaron llamándole señorito y cabrón con suerte, y al rato apareció su madre limpiándose las manos en el delantal, y ya nadie pudo colocar una sola palabra entre su verborrea.
Durante unos días paseó solo, y pareció ausente. Luego empezó a levantarse al alba para acompañar a su padre, y trabajó duro, como uno más, y al cabo de un mes volvió a ser aquel muchacho jovial, lleno de energía, que no escatimaba su ayuda y sus risas, pero rehuía los libros.
Le llegó la carta del Ministerio para que tomara posesión de su nuevo destino, y sus padres esperaron a terminar la comida para preguntarle:
-¿Cuándo te tienes que ir?
-No me voy. Prefiero quedarme aquí, y trabajar las tierras.
Al cabo de un año supo que Miriam se había casado con un aristócrata riquísimo con el que no desentonaba.
Simón se ha convertido en un campesino como sus ancestros, lleno de sorna y sentencioso, casado con una mujer parlanchina que tiene ese jugoso castellano, lleno de arcaísmos, que se habla en su pueblo, y él repite para embromarla lo que siempre ha escuchado decir a los hombres de la familia:
-"No hay que fiarse de las mujeres calladas, porque su silencio es engañoso y cuando abren la boca, la pifian, como todas."
La única diferencia con su padre y con su abuelo es que él sabe de lo que habla.

LAS GENTES DEL CAMPO

Apenas se filtraban los primeros rayos del sol por la ventana, la sonora voz de nuestro padre, invariablemente, daba la orden fatídica del inicio de la jornada, y nos urgía para que trabajáramos con la fresca. Lo malo era que cuando llegaban las horas de máximo calor, también seguíamos en nuestra tarea.
Nuestro contacto con la naturaleza siempre fue total, privilegio que, a fuerza de vivirlo, decae en esa monotonía que la obligación impone, por lo que pierde su cautivador encanto y, en vez de disfrutarlo, lo padecemos. El trabajo absorbe, ocupa y preocupa, y quien ha de madrugar o trasnochar para desarrollar faenas agrícolas se despoja de toda sensibilidad poética.
El gorjear de los pajaritos, el croar de las ranas, la apertura de mil clases de hermosas flores, cuya fragancia invade nuestro pequeño entorno, el rocío de la mañana que los primeros rayos del sol transforma en grandes rosarios de multicolores perlas, el titilar de las estrellas que, como luciérnagas escapadas del ribazo, han ido a posarse en el firmamento, el arco iris apoyado en los cerros mas próximos… Esas y otras mil maravillas más las advertimos, pero no las disfrutamos.
Nuestro rudo trabajo se desarrolla sin otra protección que la ambiental: terrible es el frío del gélido invierno y no mejores las canículas del verano, pero en ese ambiente nos curtimos y nos forjamos para una vida pródiga en sacrificios y escasa en satisfacciones.
Así se moldean nuestras vidas y forma de ser. Se nos achaca ser excesivamente conservadores, rayando en la tacañería, y yo os diré que, aunque así sea, nadie lo es por vocación, procuramos ser fieles a la sabia enseñanza de la experiencia, adquirida en la Universidad de nuestras propias vidas. Es esa experiencia la que nos dice que la incertidumbre es una constante, que ni siquiera el tiempo será capaz de aclararnos definitivamente. Sabemos por una regla muy generalizada que los años buenos son vísperas de los años malos, y que no es frecuente juntar dos años de los denominados buenos; pero si es corriente juntar varios de los malos.
Con facilidad se nos cuelga el San Benito de ser desconfiados, y hay que reconocer que sobran motivos para que ese defecto humano se desarrolle y prospere en nosotros, pero la desconfianza superficialmente entendida es cobardía, y el agricultor nunca fue cobarde.
De nuestro conservadurismo basado en la desconfianza de futuro, se deriva nuevo defecto, y ése si que resulta grave tenerlo que reconocer, no siendo otro que el individualismo, que siendo el menos visible es el que más perjuicios nos produce y origina. No somos capaces de observar que las entidades bancarias, aún siendo grandes, se fusionan para hacerse más grandes, que las industrias multinacionales para ahorrar gastos de toda índole, mejorar la investigación, dominar mejor la competencia y otras muchas ventajas, no dudan en fusionarse o asociarse y, sin embargo, nosotros los agricultores dudamos en asociarnos, aun siendo los que más lo necesitamos.

Estas consecuencias que yo intento razonar son las que nos hacen sumamente vulnerables a toda clase de adversidades y es por lo que el agricultor, al pretender resolver en solitario problemas que son comunes, redoblara su esfuerzo en todas las direcciones: trabajar y economizar serán sus principales armas para un mal entendido éxito, a un precio desorbitado.
También somos enemigos de la burocracia y de los números. Podríamos decir que nuestra contabilidad la basamos en que si al finalizar el año tenemos algo más es que hemos ganado, y si tenemos menos habremos perdido. Pero en todo ese tiempo nos habremos contado a nosotros mismos, una y mil veces, el cuento de la lechera y la ilusión que derrochamos nos hace olvidar la fragilidad del cántaro, que, aunque lo veamos roto, amasamos nueva arcilla para remplazarlo.
Nos creemos dueños y señores de nuestras propias personas, no habrá reloj que fiscalice nuestra entrada al trabajo, ni sirenas que anuncien el final de nuestras jornadas, solamente el sol nos marca esas pautas. A todo eso lo llamaremos independencia y así seria, si no fuera porque el mandato de las obligaciones que nos hemos marcado es mas imperioso que ordenanza laboral alguna pueda decretar.
Los pájaros, las hormigas, los intermediarios, La Hacienda Publica, cada uno de ellos reclamará su parte y se la llevará por mucho que la defendamos. Sabemos que ellos también han de vivir del campo, pero aun hay más: quedan los imponderables, la sequía las inundaciones y otros. Contra esos, únicamente queda echar mano de la resignación y del espíritu de sacrificio acumulados, si queremos seguir viviendo del campo, ya que no es lo mismo, vivir con el campo que vivir del campo. Del campo vivimos o pervivimos los que de él dependemos de forma directa, los que sentimos la impaciencia por ver germinar y crecer las semillas, los que llevamos la tez curtida por el sol y las manos encallecidas, los que nuestros mejores conciertos nos los brindan las lluvias, al tamborilear las canaleras en una noche de abril, los que a pesar de todo, lo amamos como amante infiel que nos seduce y nos induce a seguir. Ya lo dijo el papa Juan XXIII que había tres formas de arruinarse: el juego, las mujeres, y dedicarse a la agricultura. Y reconocía ésta última como la más ingrata.
Pero, a pesar de todo, me pregunto qué es ese no sé qué que nos cautiva del campo y que, enmedio de tantas contrariedades, algunas veces, nos hace sentirnos felices y esperanzados.

Andrés: como agricultor jubilado que sigue trabajando su campo, tengo que envainármela cuando me cuenta que no tiene tiempo para escribir; pero qué rabia me da imaginar que pudiera desaparecer su testimonio, que nos habla de una parte de la humanidad imprescindible, que desconocemos, y de la que sólo tenemos referencias por chistes e historietas contadas por quienes no conocen el campo, no son campesinos, no son agricultores, y no entienden nada.
Gracias por permitirme publicar en Gatopardo sus escritos. Es un honor y un placer

Me encantó el relato de Andrés y estoy de acuerdo con él, yo que tambien nací campesino, que la agricultura es una de las formas de arruinarse. Desde hace mucho me indigna que a una modelo anorexica le pagen miles de dólares por llevar un trapo en una pasarela, o a un jugador de fut, o del deporte que quieras le paguen millones, mientras que los campesinos, que nos dan de comer a todos, son mal pagados, despreciados y humillados.
Mis abuelos eran campesinos gallegos que emigraron a Cuba y eran bastante tacaños, pero asi hicieron lo que hicieron en el nuevo mundo, ahora que leo lo que escribe Andrés acerca de la tacañaría del campesino me quedo más tranquilo, porque yo pensé que era congénita y hereditaria, al fin que yo la padezco.

LOS TESTIGOS PROTEGIDOS EN ESPAÑA

En España, como en cualquier país civilizado, se pide la colaboración de los ciudadanos para que denuncien a los delincuentes y testifiquen contra ellos. Si hubiera peligro de que el testigo pudiera ser presionado, amenazado, o corriera peligro su integridad, existe la Ley Orgánica 19/1994 de protección de testigos, y el juez puede establecer "el grado de riesgo o peligro y la aplicación de todas o algunas de las mediadas legales de protección que considere necesarias". El juez instructor oculta el nombre del testigo, su domicilio, y cualquier información que pueda identificarle, le asigna custodia policial y se le ofrecen todas las garantías que el Estado de derecho prevé, así como documentos para cambiar su identidad, otro trabajo y otro domicilio, y mientras, el Estado cubre sus necesidades, porque arriesga su vida y la de su familia, y sin su ayuda sería imposible llegar a condenar a muchos criminales.

Pues bien, ésa es la teoría: en la práctica ser testigo protegido es llevar dibujada una diana reflectante, porque la Ley 19/1994 está ideada por los padres de la patria con la misma falta de rigor con que los policías y los jueces garantizan su aplicación.

El testigo protegido 1964/S vio su verdadero nombre publicado en todos los periódicos, junto al alias otorgado para salvaguardar su identidad, justo al día siguiente de prestar declaración en el caso Lasa y Zabala, torturados, asesinados, y enterrados en cal viva por el GAL verde del Cuartel de Intxaurrondo, por lo que fueron finalmente condenados el general Galindo y el ex -gobernador Julen Elgorriaga.

Tres días después de realizar un careo con uno de los que acusaba, fue secuestrado, torturado y violado. Luego le hicieron comerse el auto del juez instructor del sumario, Javier Gómez de Liaño, en el que se le otorgaba la condición de testigo protegido. No tenía ninguna escolta, pese a que el juez ya lo había ordenado, no había ningún agente asignado para la protección del testigo.

El testigo protegido 1964/S volvió a ser seguido y amenazado unas semanas después, según fuentes del Ministerio del Interior, y varios vehículos desconocidos "controlaban" tanto la vivienda habitual del testigo, en San Fernando (Cádiz), como la de sus padres y la de sus suegros. Además, cuando el testigo abandonaba su domicilio y se desplazaba en el coche de escolta del Ministerio del Interior, era seguido por otros vehículos para intimidarlo.

Se pidió la comparecencia del responsable del Ministerio del Interior para dar explicaciones por la falta de efectividad para proteger al testigo, y con ese lenguaje de sintaxis retorcida de los políticos, dejó claro que el testigo tenia un pasado turbio, y ofreció datos sobre su origen, domicilio de sus padres, etc. ¿Para no responder a lo que se le preguntaba? ¿Por si sus enemigos no sabían donde buscar a su familia? ¿Por idiotez congénita? ¿Por incapacidad para valorar los datos y guardarlos con el sigilo imprescindible?

Francisco Javier Lavandera Villazón, fue el hombre que denunció, antes de que se cometiese el atentado de Atocha del 11 de marzo del 2004, la existencia de una trama asturiana dedicada a la venta ilegal de explosivos, que pretendía aprender a detonarlos con teléfonos móviles, y eran confidentes de la policía.

Las cintas grabadas con las denuncias de Lavandera fueron ocultadas. Unos meses después del atentado, apareció una de ellas en el cuartel de la Guardia Civil de Canciones, y un guardia civil la envió por si fuera pertinente investigarla. Ha tenido motivos para arrepentirse de su diligencia en el cumplimiento del deber.

Lavandera fue declarado testigo protegido, y todos sus datos personales fueron inmediatamente publicados por los periódicos, como suele ocurrir en estos casos.

Tuvo que permanecer separado de su mujer y de su hijo para no ponerlos en peligro. Ella recibió amenazas, y vivió en tal estado de terror que decidió suicidarse, y le hizo llegar un mensaje: lo quería mucho, pero no podía vivir así. Se había cortado las venas y se iba al mar para morir.

Lavandera avisó a la policía, y le aseguraron que su mujer no estaba en la playa, que lo sabían por las cámaras de vigilancia. La realidad es que los policías la miraron tranquilamente mientras se desangraba, hasta que se la tragó el mar. A los pocos días, Lavandera recibió un sobre anónimo con las fotografías de la autopsia de su mujer, recordándole que tenía un hijo de dos años.

Al poco, los policías de la Unidad Central de Protección le buscaron un trabajo como guarda jurado en una compañía de seguridad en Bilbao, donde era conocido y era más que probable que lo asesinaran sus enemigos. Se negó a aceptar ese trabajo, y el juez del Olmo, en consecuencia, le retiró la condición de testigo protegido, y lo dejó sin escolta, sin ayuda económica ni protección.

Siguió recibiendo amenazas, siguió denunciándolas, se encontró sin posibilidad de trabajar y sin ningún tipo de ingresos, y hasta se le dio la invalidez por "paranoia". Quizás el psiquiatra creyó observar síntomas de que se sentía perseguido.

Hace cosa de un mes fue tiroteado en Gijón, y la policía investiga el asunto como "ajuste de cuentas". Hace unos días entraron en su casa de campo, ahorcaron a su perro, y mataron a sus animales de compañía.

Siguen sin encontrar a los culpables, quizás porque no los buscan donde debieran, y Lavandera y su hijo de cuatro años siguen sin protección. Mientras, el juez del Olmo ha cerrado la instrucción del sumario y nos tenemos que creer que los chorizos de quinta categoría que fueron dinamitados en Leganés, y los delincuentes de poca monta que están en prisión son los únicos culpables del 11 M, porque él lo diga.

¿Quién tuvo acceso a las fotografías de la autopsia de su mujer y a su dirección para enviárselas? Quién puede paralizar a los equipos de salvamento cuando una mujer de 22 años permanece durante una hora mar adentro, con olas encrespadas, en el mes de diciembre, después de avisar Lavandera que ha amenazado con ahogarse en la playa? ¿Qué órdenes recibieron los policías que la observaron durante una hora sin intervenir? ¿Qué clase de profesional tiene la puntería requerida para disparar a un coche en movimiento y acertar todos los disparos en un radio de 50 centímetros de la cabeza del conductor, desde unos veinte metros de distancia? ¿Qué clase de comando puede hacer una matanza de animales, tomándose su tiempo, sin dejar huellas ni rastros biológicos? ¿Qué clase de investigación ha de hacer la policía para que nunca encuentren pistas que los conduzcan a quien amenaza y ataca a un testigo clave para desentrañar la trama de confidentes, policías y explosivos en Asturias ? El Juez y el Ministerio del Interior que han de asegurar la protección de este testigo, ¿esperarán hasta que lo maten? ¿O sólo esperan que con este tratamiento no se le ocurra testificar sobre el contubernio de delincuentes y Fuerzas de Seguridad del Estado que prepararon el 11-M?

Hay muchas formas de sabotear la democracia, y una de ellas es aniquilar las garantías jurídicas y dejar en la indefensión a quienes colaboren con la Justicia, para asegurar la impunidad de quienes puedan comprarla y corromperla.

Mi querida Gata, la foto para ilustrar tu post es elocuente, como dicen en México si te empinas te cogen y desnudos más fácil. Lo terrible es que a veces nos sentimos empinados, con las nalgas a merced de cualquiera y esto podría se metáfora o no porque ya sabemos que en México se dan violaciones a prisioneros. Es una situación terrible y aterradora.
Un abrazo.

Verdaderamente vivimos rodeados de mafiosos sin escrúpulos y despiadados. Resulta aterrador pensar que estamos en manos de desalmados de mentes retorcidas y sádicas, cuyo único interés es el poder, poder y poder, al precio que sea y a costa de quien sea.
Un beso, Gata.

"¿O sólo esperan que con este tratamiento no se le ocurra testificar sobre el contubernio de delincuentes y Fuerzas de Seguridad del Estado que prepararon el 11-M?"
A veces pienso que eres una portavoz de "El Mundo" ¿Tan segura estás de lo que escribes?
Cierto que vivimos rodeados de lo que dice Moisés. Hace poco murió el Sindic de Greuges catalán sr. Canyellas. ¿Lo conocías? De sr. tenía menos que yo, ya ves. En su funeral estában todos, incluído su cuñado, (creo) Miquel Roca, tal para cual.
Sí, estamos rodeados de mafias, las unas intoxicadoras y las otras tóxicas.
En la foto del funeral no salen todos los que estában ni los que deberían estar. Unos por vergüenza (que de eso aun queda) y otros por desvergüenza.
México es un mundo aparte, un mundo que en cuarenta años ha triplicado su población.

No puede esperarse nada bueno de una cosa así.
Lo peor son las docenas de Méxicos que aun existen y pasan desapercibidas con miles de millones de habitantes. A México, por lo menos, no le ocurre eso.

Pau: la posibilidad de que tú percibas de qué y de quién soy portavoz está en proporción directa con que percibas lo que lees y no un confuso puré de ideas, que te remite y recuerda por asociación libre de ideas anecdoticos retazos de información. Y tus comentarios, que quieren ser los de un oráculo, se convierten en la quintaesencia de esa confusión.
¿Desmientes los atentados y vicisitudes que pasan los testigos protegidos en España, sin que nadie de los que deberían ser responsables de su seguridad sea detenido y procesado?
¿Desmientes alguno de los hechos que cuento?
Sí, estoy segura de lo que digo, y lo explico claramente, y te ruego que, si sabes y puedes, digas claramente lo que quieres decir, y no me preguntes si conozco al difunto Canyellas porque esto no es un acto social en el que intercambiemos nombres de nuestra agenda de conocidos.
Estoy hablando de una sistemática persecución contra quien se atreve a testificar.
Saludos

Para más información sobre la mafia asturiana de los explosivos, los policías, los constructores y los políticos, recomiendo la web asturiana: http://www.elcomentario.tv/, que tengo en en la zona de vídeos, podéis encontrar varios sobre Lavandera, y los atentados y percances que ha tenido.
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uOlVxp6O6xI&eurl=
Y las implicaciones y relaciones de los que no actuan e investigan "un ajuste de cuentas", que todos los asturianos que no son absolutamente idiotas conocen, también se pueden encontrar en esta web, en la que se la juegan varios periodistas y ciudadanos empeñados en denunciar lo que está ocurriendo en Asturias.
Manolón no es un caso aislado.

Evidentemente la cosa no iba por aquí.
Cuando hablaba de Canyellas era en relación a la mafia catalana.

Cuando te leía estaba pensando en él, y una relación de ideas hizo que hablara del tema.
Me sabe mal que pienses que deseo confundirte. Igual me expreso mal y... ya ves.
En cuanto a lo demás, no discuto los hechos ni la persecución a esos testigos "protegidos", pero lo del contubernio del 11 M sí.

Para empezar a discutirme eso, deberías de tener la honestidad intelectual de leer el Sumario íntegro que ha instruído el Juez del Olmo, como he hecho yo, y cotejar las investigaciones publicadas que desmientes.
Y como no creo que lo hagas, mejor no pierdo el tiempo discutiendo "creencias" y "ocurrencias" cuando yo me baso en hipótesis, en razonamientos y en datos verificables.

Me dirijo a ustedes con el fin de que nos ayuden por el mal trago que estamos pasando la familia Portabales.

La familia Portabales somos una de las más protegidas y amenazadas de muerte de este país, por este motivo me dirijo a ustedes para que tomen cartas en el asunto y no se haga más montaña de un grano que quieren hacer tanto periodistas como chupópteros de toda clase.
Solo les pido por favor que nos ayuden por favor ya que vinimos a Madrid escoltados con uñas y dientes por las fuerzas de seguridad del estado, cuatro niños pequeños que éramos mi padre y mi madre, estuvimos conviviendo todos estos años escoltados y amenazados como les decía, y ahora de buenas a primeras nos echan a la calle sin ninguna explicación, bueno solo nos dicen que como las arcas del estado se han resentido tenemos que abandonar nuestro domicilio y el poco dinero que nos daban nos lo quitaban.
¿Como comemos? ¿Donde vivimos? ¿Que hacemos? estamos muy preocupados queremos coger un abogado y ni dinero nos han dejado queremos ir a la corte suprema a donde sea por que no es justo lo que han echo con nosotros, con mi familia.

El ministerio del Interior nos trajo para Madrid por orden de Baltasar Garzón ya sabemos que tiene muchos problemas y nosotros no queremos añadir mas leña al fuego pero tienen que hacer las cosas bien, aunque sea un piso de protección oficial y algún dinero para empezar nuestras vidas por que callo en nuestras manos una cinta sin quererlo, por que aun tenemos amigos periodistas, y escoltas que nos apoyan y en esa cinta se decía que un dinero destinado a la familia Portabales para rehacer sus vidas fue cobrado al portador en la cuenta de un Juez. Eso no es justo perdimos nuestra casa de Galicia nuestros trabajos tras la Operación Necora Mago Pinton y muchas mas que se produjeron en España, y ahora nos pagan con esta moneda de echarnos así a la calle cuando otros se llenan los bolsillos, nos es justo se que hay gente que lo esta pasando muy mal, pero ese muy mal también lo estamos pasando nosotros, encima de quitarnos todo tenemos que ir a pedir. Nos dieron todo nos trajeron para Madrid y nos trataban como a marqueses mientras les interesó, ahora nos dejan desamparados y en la calle. ¿Es que no hay Justicia? por favor ayúdennos yo perdí toda mi infancia y mis hermanos también siendo muy pequeños en vez de jugar con otros niños no nos dejaban salir del chalet de donde nos tenían escondidos y jugábamos con los escoltas aprendíamos a desmontar metralletas pistolas ha utilizar la radio a conducir y muchas cosas mas todos estos años nadie se preocupo de las secuelas que nos podrían acarrear todo aquello en vez de ir a colegios venían profesores particulares a casa pero del miedo que tenían ya no volvían claro al ver a los hombres escoltados en la puerta del chalet y con las metralletas al hombro y cuando sobrevolaba un helicóptero los escoltas nos decían meteros dentro de la casa y acurrucaros y cerrar todas las ventanas mientras ellos apuntaban con sus metralletas hacia el cielo al final detenían al helicóptero y se trataba de periodistas, parece de película lo se pero es mi vida y es muy dura.
Con el paso de los años yo no aguantaba mas y me fui y los escoltas me decían ten cuidado aun me lo dicen por que de los muchos que han pasado por mi familia muchos aun son buenos amigos y nos llaman para preocuparse y nos dicen que no es justo lo que han echo con nosotros. Esto les salpicara en la cara, pero aun pueden arreglar las cosas.

Por favor ayúdennos. echan a la calle a mi madre con 60 años sin trabajo todos estos años escoltados nos prepararon el DNI falso a todos nosotros, pero nada mas y encima muchos de los inspectores de policía que venían a casa incluso algún político que otro bueno muchos han venido, ahora tienen cargos muy importantes en ministerios y ni siquiera nos ayudan tenemos que ir a caritas después de los servicios prestados a España y dar la vida por España por algunos señores del Gobierno .¿así nos pagan...? les daré mas detalles cuando me llamen.

Atentamente y perdonen las molestias:

Quiero decirles a través de esta página tan ilustre y si me lo permite el señor juez decir que hay familias que se le han vetado en los medios de comunicación, será cierto lo del señor Portabales? Pero quiero que sepan todos que ahí un muchacho, hijo de un personaje que en su momento cubrió a España y a infinidad de otros países, la mas grande de las operaciones, lo mismo le sucede al señor Manuel Fernández Padin, con uno de los temas de la época no muy lejana y que a todos ustedes en aquel ínstate, se peleaban por tenerlo en sus medios, será cierto que ahora ni bola quieren darle,, el hijo del arrepentido Ricardo Portabales, esta intentando que se le escuche, le vetan en los medios , es que en verdad no es noticia, porque el arrepentido Ricardo Portabales no se a presentado aun ante los medios para defender la que pasa en su entorno, será que no se lo permiten, será que esta preparando la verdadera verdad, que es mas interesante el beso negro que citranita o citratito, se dan a escondías,,,, me da vergüenza que en este País, solo interesa hablar de ciertas personas, que de lo único que se habla tan ilustrativo, o histórico, sea solo es de divorcios de cama o quien pone a quien los cuerno, que vergüenza, y de una verdadera historia de nivel no solo nacional sino internacional, le hagan tabú, que ocurre, será cierto que ahí una mano negra que les están paran los pies , será cierto que el querer descubrir ciertas cosas tan delicadas le hagan daño a ese que esta detrás del biombo , será cierto todo ello que la dictadura esta a las puertas de estos medios de comunicación, que vergüenza y que sinvergüenzas, aquellos que se dicen llamar periodistas y que ante se llaman periodistas de investigación.

Verán les quiero hablar de este muchacho, que seguro alguno de ustedes le pueda conocer, este muchacho hijo de uno de los mas famoso personajes arrepentido que en nuestro país a dado, me a escrito, no mejor dicho a respondido a mis quejas y denuncias en Internet, sobre este caso , como vengo escribiendo y diciendo, les diré para recordar, yo pertenecía a la protección de esta familia, les puedo asegurar, que loan pasado muy mal, pero que muy mal, no pueden imaginarse como nos hacían putear a esa familia, aun que la mayoría de veces, algunos de nosotros no teníamos cuajo de hacerlo, las mentiras que teníamos que poner en los informes diarios para la comisaría de seguridad ciudadana siempre por orden de nuestros mandos, para que se les retirase la escolta o cualquier privilegio que ellos tuviesen, las quejas que ellos pudiesen hacer ni se les hacia caso, cuando les iba el inspector a cargo de la unidad les escuchaba y el hacia de poli bueno, tomaba notas y cuando salía de allí, rompía el informe que ellos denunciaban, nos decía a continuación, muy bien muchachos seguir así.

En aquella ocasión el comisario general era el comisario Tuesta, luego le siguieron algunos mas, pero el que mas a puteado a esa familia protegida, el que mas ponía su empeño era el comisario Fernández Chico, que mas tarde ocupo el cargo de Subdirector como regalo del actual Gobierno, no regalo por este tema si no por otros temas adecuados al partido, menudo enano de mierda, como jefe un nazi, como persona un sinvergüenza, como profesional, un chupa culos del S.O.E el que le pasaba toda la información que podía al partido, así se lo agradecieron a el y algunos mas dándole cargos impensables para ellos y mas tarde cuando los retiren de sus cargos, ya saben ustedes, asesores o directores de seguridad de grandes empresas, compañías o bancos, pero si algún día alguien le interesa como funciona ese tema de regalos de cargos en grandes empresas o bancos y con que favores se consiguen tales puestos, con contratos blindados o retiros millonarios, es un tema interesante, temas como el de la ONCE. AZUCARERA ESPAÑOLA, ENDESA, ETEC, ETEC. ETEC.. otro día se podrá contar con mas detalle, al igual que ahí periodistas que juegan en doble paño, ahí corruptos en todos niveles, dar y tomar, ,,,,, estos señores se creen inmunes por que se creen los verdaderos dioses del poder, y cuando les estalla los temas ocultos en la cara , solo saben decir que no sabían que todo es una fabula, les pasa lo mismo que les pasaba a los narcotraficantes , cuando dejaban tirado a sus empleados en las cárceles, con familias sin nada que poder hacer , los tontos los últimos del eslabón negociaban con la ley, hoy en día muy pocos hacen eso por que si caen ellos les ayudan, ,, estos señores no han aprendido nada de los niños malos se creen intocables, si no a cobijas a tu gente a la que te da los beneficios de que si estáis haciendo algo por el País que pasa mas tarde, os salta la mierda en la cara, pues es lo que el señor Portabales debe hacer, contar la verdad, que diga lo que pasaba , que cuente lo que muchos de nosotros queremos saber, la verdadera verdad.

Pero eso no es el caso que nos trae a este punto, el caso es el tema familia Portabales, ustedes tienen la fuerza y casi obligación que los televidentes, el pueblo de nuestra querida España sepa lo que pasa, no quieran enterrar el tema, ustedes son los oídos la voz del pueblo, de todos aquellos que en verdad tienen algo que contar y cuando estos no pueden hablar, son ustedes los que deben hacerlo por ellos, por todos aquellos que en el silencio del miedo, quieren denunciar algo, han dado algo a nuestro País, yo si soy testigo, el señor Portabales como muchos otros, si han dado mucho, incluyendo la seguridad y el futuro de sus familias, señores eso es un precio muy alto y ese precio tiene que ser escuchado, tiene que ser adecuadamente tratado, ustedes tienen el deber de informar,,,,, de verdad que ya no quedaran periodista de los de antes, de los de verdad, de los que si, de los que solo les interesa la verdadera verdad y no solo lo que les puedan contar en una rueda de prensa, preparada con anterioridad y alevosía, patrocinada por aquellos que intentan darle carpetazo a un tema tan delicado, aun que con eso conlleve sacar a personajes tan distinguidos y renombrados, el periodismo no es silencio, el periodismo no distingue los cargos ni el poder de aquellos que están manipulando, estafando, extorsionando, prevaricando, falsificando, el primer mandamiento del periodismo debería ser sobre todas la cosas, la libertad de expresión y con todo mi respecto, muchos de ustedes la están vetando.

tendrían mucho que aprender de la familia Portabales y ante todo, el cabeza de familia, unos señores.

Atentamente XABIER Deberíamos saber

1º Borramos los comentarios con faltas de ortografía. A usted se lo voy a dejar porque es policía, para que se vea la formación que tienen las fuerzas del orden.

Pero ni se le ocurra seguir engorrinándome esta sección antes de hacerse un curso elemental de ortografía, gramática, y lógica.

Por mucho que nos lo intenten explicar, no nos va a conmover, en absoluto, que el testigo protegido Portabales y su familia no hayan conseguido a lo largo de treinta años buscarse un trabajo, y un modo de vida que no sea olerle el sobaco a los guripas del Ministerio del Interior, hacer trabajos sucios para ellos, pagado con el dinero de todos los españoles.

Y, al cabo de tantos años de complicidad con los fascinerosos que mandan, ¿Cómo acuerdan ahora contar las canalladas en las que han estado pringados ustedes como sicarios, cumpliendo órdenes de arriba?

dictado de los que mandan?

PS.

Y lo de ser unos señores, es posible que sí, porque los que yo conozco tampoco han trabajado honradamente en su puñetera vida.

Como puede, decir eso? no sabe lo que nosotros hemos pasado señor... no oliamos ningun sobaco sinoque nos tenian manejados al antojo de ellos, nunca hemos delinquido nuca hemos robado nunca hemos traficado con drogas, nunca hemos echo nada malo, mis hermanos y yo lo hemos pasado muy mal, pero que muy mal señor, perdi mis amigos perdi mi infancia todo porque una noche nos vinieron a buscar y nos metieron en unos coches con destino a Madrid, perdone las faltas de ortografia pero tengo los unicos estudios quellos me dieron ya que nunca sali del zulo de donde nos tenian escondidos 30 años podiamos haber buscado trabajo dice usted, ojala hubiera tenia un padre albañil fontanero o peon de la construccion si me dirijo enj su pagina con mis denuncias le pido perdon no volvera a pasar, ni quiero dar pena a nadie, solo que sepan todos lo mal que lo hemos pasado y despues de estar amenazados de muerte y sin poder jugar con otros niños que no fueran estos policias, digamelo usted, perdone otra vez mi ignorancia y mi incultura, pero sepa usted bien que lo que han echo con mi familia no es de justicia siempre protegidos y cuando cumpli los 18 años quise irme de aquel sitio donde nos tenian buscar trabajo y hacer mi vida y no me dejaron, me decian que era muy peligroso y que no podia salir de donde nos tenian bajo ningun concepto, bufff perdone por todo. le repito que no quiero darle pena, sino que es una forma tambien al escribir de desahogarme gracias al menos usted lee lo que pongo aqui y con eso me vale uno son muchos gracias.

Ricardo Portabales hijo mi verdadero apellido ya que lo perdi el de mis abuelos imaginese todo, mire una persona de mi pagina donde lucho asiduamente me preguntaba tambien algo parecido que si tuvimos tiempo a buscar trabajo y que si podriamos haber ahorrado cosas asi hay que saber la verdad y aqui le pego lo que le dije por no volver a escribirlo si quiere despues borrelo, por que es muy largo pero como le digo me sirve de desahogo gracias y perdone las molestias.

Escrito mandado a un buen amigo que queria saber la verdad creo que a ustedes tambien les dira algo:

Agustín presta atención esto no lo sabe mucha gente ahora se sabrá, ya que las pocas entrevistas que he concedido y concederé si me lo permiten claro... en televisión o en prensa, antes que nada te lo diré a ti:

La familia Portabales nunca, nunca presta atención y gracias por tu apoyo de antemano, nunca hemos traficado con drogas nunca hemos matado a nadie, nunca hemos delinquido de ningún tipo por dios nunca!!, somos una familia normal y corriente que el gobierno cogió manipuló en aquellos años para tapar los trapos sucios que se llevaban a cabo con los GAL y prepararon la Operación Nécora ya que la gente se estaba preguntando demasiadas cosas de lo que pasaba en aquellos años en España como el caso de los fondos reservados, el secuestro de Marey y muchas mas cosas... Se que es difícil de creer, pero es la verdad, y la tienes de primera mano yo no digo supuestamente, como se debería de decir, sino que afirmo amigo Agustín, pero la gente no sabe la verdad de la familia Portabales, nos cogieron a cuatro niños pequeños que éramos a mi madre a mi padre y nos metieron en varios coches y escoltados con uñas y dientes, los escoltas con metralletas en el hombro nos trajeron para Madrid, y fuimos escoltados de por vida por la Gran Operación Nécora celebrada en España y que todos conocéis, o algunos conocen, mi padre si es verdad que lo detuvieron en aquellos años por posesión tanto de droga que llevaba en el coche, como por tenencia ilícita de armas que también se la encontraron en el coche y fue juzgado por todo aquello, le echaron 5 años yo tenia 14 años cuando de aquello, entonces ahora que tengo 35 le pedí explicaciones a mi padre de que me dijera que si en verdad el había sido narcotraficante yo quería saber la verdad quería saber quien era mi padre, como conocia a tanta gente si eramos de un pueblo si el era de un pueblo, me sentó y me dijo lo siguiente esto es la primera vez que lo cuento y por eso lucho y sigo contándote perdona.

-No hijo tu padre no es el hombre que el gobierno puso como el gran narcotraficante arrepentido, el que desmantelo los carteles de la droga en Galicia, y produjo varias investigaciones en Sudamérica y Europa, así como la inculpación del caso Guerra el hermanisimo, no hijo tu padre no conocía a nadie de esa gente fui totalmente instruido y manipulado por el Ministerio del Interior y los grandes jefes en la policía, y me infiltraron en diversas operaciones llevadas a cabo en España, tu padre cumplía condena como uno mas, vinieron, llegaron de Madrid 2 hombres identificándose como policías y querían que colaborase con ellos para fraguar lo que ellos iban hacer, o lo que se estaba cociendo en Madrid,,, Yo hijo, les dije que no, que bajo ningun concepto me prestaria a tal menester,y menos hablar de gente que ni conocia, y me amenazaron diciendo que me darían mas condena y que le dirían a los presos que yo estaba colaborando con ellos, y eso en la cárcel es la muerte hijo, no tuve mas remedio y acepte, y empecé a codearme con los grandes en la cárcel y ha pasarles información cuando ya tenían suficientes datos les dije que por favor me dejaran tranquilo pero ellos me dijeron que tendrían mas trabajitos que hacer para ellos, no podía más y entre como infiltrado y colaborador en diversas operaciones como te he dicho sin quererlo, me dieron el indulto, y me llevaron con ellos a una base militar en Madrid, allí me instruyeron en otras operaciones como la operación plutonio, la operación Merlín, la operación Portabales que nunca salio a la luz, y muchas mas, me daban papeles para que los estudiara para el juicio yo no conocía a esa gente, como por ejemplo al hermano de Alfonso Guerra, que si Celso Barreiros traficaba con Armas, que si Carlos Goyanes el Ex marido de Marisol era traficante que si los Charlines, que si los Ochoa de Colombia, que si los del cartel de Cali y muchas mas operaciones que querian llevar a cabo, esto y muchos nombres mas como el caso Palomino, o la trama de las torres kio y me metieron en todos esos fregados.
yo conteste rapido, pero papa? le dije Agustín,,, no había abogados con los que hablar y denunciar lo que te estaban haciendo eso era extorsión o yo que sé no entiendo, pero podrías decírselo a algún abogado el me contesto, hijo no me hagas reír, en aquellos años era tu palabra contra la de ellos y los que mandaban eran ellos y no se podía hacer nada,,, Agustín no quiero aburrirte mas creo que me he extendido demasiado pero esa es la verdad la verdad que no sabe la gente, solo que Ricardo Portabales es un Narcotraficante arrepentido que metió en la cárcel a capos gallegos y muchos mas, y pagaron las consecuencias una familia 4 niños pequeños y una madre una familia como podría ser la tuya y esto mismo cuando me dejen ir a un plato de televisión lo diré igualmente como ahora te lo cuento a ti y como te dije si me dejan...

Perdona las molestias y lo extenso de mi escrito pero si quieres estoy a tu disposición y a la de todos los españoles que quieran oír la verdad de lo que han echo con una familia española que nunca delinquió de ningún tipo, un abrazo.

Me dirijo a ustedes para que por dignidad, una vez mas escuchen mi grito de súplica;

Le llamo de súplica, porque por derecho no entienden la advertencia que les hago y el mal que están ponderando con la familia Portabales.

Una de las familias mas protegidas de la historia de España por la operación nécora y mas.......... Ahora tratándonos como perros y habiendo perdido nuestras vidas, nuestra tierra, nuestro hogar y nuestra dignidad....

....Dignidad, porque silencian mi grito de lucha ante los medios de comunicación, nuestro derecho de defensa y súplica ante la justicia, haciéndonos ver una vez mas, la calaña, carroñera de la clase política que manipula, sí, manipula a los españoles y a mi querida España... Ay España..!!!!, si tu entera supieras tan solo un poquito de las injusticias que cometen algunos de tus gobernantes... con una humilde familia que ha dado todo por ti, por los españoles y por muchas personas que han muerto........

Es tremendo pensar como todos somos engañados con buenas caras, como de personas serias, respetuosas, inteligentes, importantes...DIRIGENTES POLÍTICOS DE NUESTRO PAIS!!!!! ..Por Dios...!!!

Nos trajeron a Madrid escoltados con uñas y dientes por las fuerzas y miembros de seguridad del estado..

Cuatro niños pequeños mi madre y mi padre, destronados de una vida como la de cualquier español, de una tierra que nos vió nacer, de unas ilusiones,de una educación elemental que con el tiempo desapareció....viviendo amenazados,un sin vivir de lo que iba a acontecer al dia siguiente, ...y ahora, de buenas a primeras nos echan a la calle sin ninguna explicación!!!!

Así es como pagan el servicio, el magnífico servicio que dimos jugándonos la vida de toda una familia, de mi familia, de LA FAMILIA PORTABALES????

Qué impotencia y rabia me entró cuando ustedes dijeron que debíamos abandonar nuestro domicilio y que el poco dinero que nos estaban dando, nos lo quitaban!!,.. porque las arcas del Estado estaban resentidas...Y LO QUE ROBAN USTEDES NO SE RESIENTEN LAS ARCAS??????...

No les importa nada, ¿Cómo comemos?, ¿Dónde vivimos?, ¿Que hacemos? estamos muy preocupados queremos coger un abogado y ni dinero nos han dejado...que sinvergüenzas!!!..

Al menos hay una cosa que jamás nos quitarán...la diginidad de lucha por sacar la verdad y reclamar lo que verdaderamente hemos ganado con creces!!, mas la suma de la inteligencia y de amigos que cada dia se unen a nuestra verdad y que sumando nuestros esfuerzos, juro pagarán!!!

Fué el famoso y egocéntrico juez, Baltasar Garzón, el que ordenó nuestro traslado a Madrid...ya sabemos todas las tramas, prevaricaciones (Delito que consiste en que una autoridad, juez u otro funcionario público dicte una resolución arbitraria en un asunto administrativo o judicial, a sabiendas de que dicha resolución es injusta. Creerse con tanta autoridad como para estar por encima de la ley sin ser así.

Dicha actuación es una manifestación de un abuso de autoridad. Está sancionada por el Derecho penal, que busca la protección tanto del ciudadano como de la propia Administración).....

¿ y que me dicen de la ley de memoria histórica...?.......situaciones que me han llevado a pensar y cada dia sentirme mas convencido, de que ésta última no deja de ser un montaje para el entretenimiento y distración ,de ésta nuestra sociedad, para que no vean cosas mas gordas como el abandono a la suerte de la familia Portabales......y mas...mas gordo aún...

También el procesador de mi mente con el paso del tiempo y analizando toda la información que me transmitió y me transmite mi padre, los escoltas, los medios de comunicación y las fuerzas y miembros de seguridad del estado, deja entreveer en mi humilde e ingenua inteligencia, el kit de la cuestión, que durante años me he estado preguntando..!!

....ahora ya se que con mi padre utilizaron uno de sus métodos mas usados a lo largo de la historia... Y me mojo!!!!, porque se que cuando alguien sabe ya demasiado...se le quitan de en medio,metiendo en su coche drogas y/o armas, siendo seguidamente detenido...así les mandan actuar a los que ellos llaman sus números!!!!...

Pero que narices!!!!, tenemos pleno derecho a una vivienda, aunque sea de protección oficial y a un dinero o pensión para que podamos comenzar nuestras vidas.............!!!!.

Perdimos nuestra casa en Galicia , nuestra vida, nuestros amigos después de las operaciones Nécora, Pintón, Mago...digo mas..?...por el trabajo que realizó mi padre para ustedes!!!!!!!

Curiosamente llegó a mis manos una cinta sin quererlo, en la cual se ve perfectamente como se dice que el dinero en un talón destinado a la familia Portabales para rehacer nuestras vidas, fué cobrado al portador en la cuenta de un juez...!!!! MAS PREVARICACIÓN..!!!!.que vergüenza..., mientras les éramos útiles, nos trataban como marqueses, nos protegían y vigilaban por nuestra seguridad....¿Es que no hay justicia....? lo estamos pasando muy mal, encima de quitarnos todo, tenemos que ir a pedir, mientras ustedes se llenan los bolsillos a costa de la debididad de la confianza y buen hacer de personas como mi padre y de miembros de nuestros cuerpos de seguridad......

Que impotencia!!!....Recuerdo que perdí toda mi infancia y mis hermanos también. Siendo muy pequeños ,en vez de jugar con otros niños, no nos dejaban salir del chalet donde nos tenían escondidos y jugábamos con los escoltas; aprendíamos a desmontar metralletas, pistolas, a utilizar la radio, a conducir y muchas cosas mas... todos estos años nadie se preocupo de las secuelas que nos podrían acarrear!!!!

En vez de ir a colegios, venían profesores particulares a casa, pero del miedo que tenían al ver a los hombres escoltando la puerta del chalet, las metralletas al hombro y cuando sobrevolaba un helicóptero los escoltas nos decían:

- Metéros dentro de la casa y acurrucaros!!! y cerrar todas las ventanas!!!, mientras ellos apuntaban con sus metralletas hacia el cielo, al final detenían al helicóptero y se trataba de periodistas...uffff, parece una película, lo sé, pero es mi vida, y es muy dura.... Por ello los profesores salían escopetados y no volvían......y mis ansias de saber se sesgaban también sumándose a todo lo demás...

Con el paso de los años yo no aguantaba mas y me fui. Los escoltas me decían que tubiera cuidado, aun me lo dicen ,por que de los muchos que han pasado por mi familia, muchos aun, son buenos amigos y nos llaman para preocuparse, sabiendo que no es justo lo que han hecho con nosotros!!... Esto les salpicara en la cara!!!!,no dejan de ser testigos a nuestro favor....

En mi ingénua benevolencia aún queda el resquicios de: !!aun pueden arreglar las cosas....!!!

Por favor ayúdennos. No es normal que echen a la calle a mi madre con 60 años, sin trabajo todos estos años, escoltados.... Nos prepararon el DNI falso a todos nosotros, pero nada mas y encima muchos de los inspectores de policía que venían a casa, incluso algún político que otro,(bueno… muchos han venido) y que ahora tienen cargos muy importantes en ministerios , ni siquiera nos ayudan después de los servicios prestados a España... y algunos señores del Gobierno ¿así nos pagan...?.... les daré mas detalles cuando me llamen...

Agradezco el tiempo que me han dedicado,gracias de corazón!

LA VIDA SECRETA DE WALTER MITTY

Por James Thurber

-¡Estamos pasando! -La voz del comandante se oía como cuando se quiebra una capa delgada de hielo. Llevaba el uniforme de gala, con la gorra blanca cubierta de bordados de oro, inclinada con cierta malicia sobre uno de sus fríos ojos grises.
- No lo lograremos, señor. Según mi opinión está por desencadenarse un huracán.
- No le estoy pidiendo su opinión, teniente Berg -dijo el comandante-. ¡Ponga en marcha el generador a 8.500 revoluciones! ¡Vamos a pasar!
El golpeteo de los cilindros aumentó: tá-poquetá-poquetá-poquetá-poquetá-poquetá. El comandante observó la formación del hielo en la ventanilla del piloto. Dio unos pasos y manipuló una fila de complicados cuadrantes.
-¡Conéctese el motor auxiliar número 8! –gritó.
-¡Conéctese el motor auxiliar número 8! -repitió el teniente Berg.
-¡Dotación completa en la torrecilla número 3 -gritó el comandante- ¡Dotación completa en la torrecilla número 3!
Los tripulantes atareados en sus respectivos trabajos, dentro del gigantesco hidroplano de ocho motores de la Armada, con sonrisa aprobatoria se decían entre sí:

-¡El viejo nos hará pasar! ¡Ese viejo no le tiene miedo ni al diablo ...!
-¡No tan aprisa! ¡Estás conduciendo demasiado aprisa! -dijo la señora Mitty-. ¿Por qué vamos tan aprisa?
-¿Qué? - dijo Walter Mitty. Con un extraño asombro miró a su mujer que estaba sentada al lado de él. Le hizo el efecto de ser una mujer desconocida que le hubiera gritado en medio de una multitud.
-Íbamos a cien kilómetros por hora -dijo-. Sabes bien que no me gusta correr a más de sesenta. Sí, ¡llegaste a cien!
Walter Mitty siguió conduciendo el coche hacia Waterbury, en silencio, alejándose del rugido del SN202 a través de la peor tormenta que había experimentado durante sus veinte años de vuelos al servicio de la Armada en las íntimas y remotas rutas aéreas de su imaginación.
-Te encuentras de nuevo sufriendo una tensión -dijo la señora Mitty- Es uno de tus días. Quisiera que el doctor Renshaw te hiciera un examen.
Walter Mitty detuvo el coche frente al edificio adonde su esposa iba para que le arreglaran el pelo.
-No te olvides de comprar los zapatos de goma, mientras me peinan - dijo ella.
-No necesito zapatos de goma -dijo Mitty.Ella colocó el espejito de nuevo en su bolso.
-Ya hemos discutido eso -dijo apeándose del coche - Ya no eres joven.
Él aceleró el motor unos instantes.
-¿Por qué no llevás puestos los guantes? ¿Acaso los perdiste?
Walter Mitty se llevó la mano a un bolsillo y sacó los guantes. Se Ios puso, pero tan pronto como ella volvió la espalda y entró al edificio, en cuanto llegó al semáforo, se los quitó.
-¡Dése prisa!- le gritó un policía cuando cambió la luz, y entonces Mitty se puso de nuevo los guantes y reanudó la marcha. Anduvo recorriendo calles sin rumbo fijo, y luego se encaminó hacia el parque, cruzando de paso frente al hospital.
-... es el banquero millonario, WeIlington McMillan -dijo la linda enfermera.
-¿Sí? -preguntó Mitty, mientras se quitaba lentamente los guantes. -¿A cargo de quién está el caso?
- Del doctor Renshaw y del doctor Bendow, pero hay también dos especialistas aquí, el doctor Remington de Nueva York, y el doctor Pritchard-Mitford de Londres, que hizo el viaje en avión.
Se abrió una puerta que daba acceso a un corredor largo y frío, en el que apareció el doctor Renshaw. Parecía aturdido y trasnochado.
-¡Hola, Mitty! -le dijo- Estamos pasando las de Caín con McMillan, el banquero millonario que es un íntimo amigo de Roosevelt. Obstreosis del área conductiva. Una operación terciaria. Ojalá que usted quisiera verlo
-Con mucho gusto -dijo Mitty.
En la sala de operaciones se hicieron las presentaciones en voz baja:
-El doctor Remington, el doctor Mitty. El doctor Pritchard-Mitford, el doctor Walter Mitty
-He leído su libro sobre estreptotricosis -dijo Pitchard-Mitford, estrechándole la mano- Un trabajo magnífico.
-Gracias - dijo Walter Mitty
- No sabía que estuviere usted aquí, Mitty -murmuró Remington- Llevar bonetes a Roma; eso fue lo que hicieron al traernos a Mitford y a mí para esta operación terciaria. Es usted muy amable -dijo Mitty.
En aquel momento, una máquina enorme y complicada conectada con la mesa de operaciones, con muchos tubos y alambres, comenzó a hacer un ruido: poquetá poquetá -poquetá. -¡El nuevo anestesiador está fallando! .exclamó un interno del hospital. -¡No hay aquí quién sepa componer este aparato!
-¡Calma, hombre! -dijo Mitty, en voz baja y serena, y en un momento se colocó frente a la máquina, que seguía haciendo en forma irregular poquetá-poquetá -cuip. Comenzó a mover con suavidad una serie de llaves brillantes.

-¡Dénme una estilográfica! - dijo secamente. Alguien le entregó una pluma estilográfica. Sacó entonces un émbolo defectuoso, y en su lugar insertó la pluma
-Esto resistirá unos diez minutos –dijo- Prosigan la operación.
Una enfermera se acercó y dijo algo al oído de Renshaw, y Mitty pudo ver que el hombre palidecía.
-Ha aparecido la coreapsis -dijo Renshaw, muy nervioso -¿Quisiera usted intervenir, Mitty?
Mitty se les quedó mirando a él y al atemorizado Bendow, y fijó luego la vista en los rostros austeros y llenos de incertidumbre de los dos grandes especialistas.
-Si ustedes lo desean -dijo. Le pusieron una bata blanca y él mismo se ajustó una máscara y se puso los guantes de cirugía que le presentaban las enfermeras.
-¡Atrás, Mac, atrás! -dijo el encargado del parque - ¡Cuidado con ese Buick! -Walter Mitty aplicó los frenos. -No, por ahí -continuó el encargado. Mitty murmuró algo ininteligible. -Déjelo donde está. Yo lo colocaré debidamente -dijo el aparcacoches. Mitty se apeó del coche -¡Pero déjeme la llave!
-Sí, sí -dijo Mitty y entregó la llave del motor. El aparcacoches entró, lo hizo retroceder con insolente habilidad y lo colocó luego en el lugar debido.
Son gente demasiado orgullosa, pensó Walter Mitty mientras caminaba por la calle Main; creen que lo saben todo. Una vez, a la salida de New Milford, había tratado de quitar las cadenas antideslizantes de las ruedas y las enredó en los ejes. Hubo necesidad de llamar a una grúa para que el mecánico desenredara las cadenas. Desde entonces, cuando se trataba de quitar las cadenas, la señora Mitty le obligaba a llevar el coche a un taller para que efectuaran esa sencillísima operación. La próxima vez, pensó Mitty, me pondré un brazo en cabestrillo y entonces no se reirán de mí, pues verán así que me era imposible quitar yo mismo las cadenas. Pisó con disgusto la nieve fangosa en la acera. "Zapatos de goma", se dijo, y se puso a buscar una zapatería.
Cuando salió de nuevo a la calle ya con los zapatos de goma dentro de una caja que llevaba debajo del brazo, Walter Mitty comenzó a preguntarse qué otra cosa le había encargado su mujer. Le había dicho algo dos veces, antes de que salieran de su casa rumbo a Waterbury. En cierto modo, odiaba esas visitas semanales a la ciudad; siempre le salía algo mal. ¿Kleenex, pasta dentífrica, hojas de afeitar?, pensó. No. ¿Cepillo de dientes, bicarbonato, carborundo iniciativa o plebiscito? Se dio por vencido. Pero ella seguramente se acordaría. -¿Dónde está la cosa esa que te encargué? -le preguntaría-. No me digas que te olvidaste de la cosa esa - En aquel momento pasó un muchacho voceando algo acerca del juicio de Waterbury.
-... tal vez ésta le refrescará la memoria. El fiscal, súbitamente presentó una pesada pistola automática al ocupante del banquillo de los testigos -¿Ha visto usted esto antes, alguna vez?
Walter Mitty tomó la pistola y la examinó con aire de conocedor.
-Esta es mi Webley-Vickers 50.80 -dijo con calma.
Un murmullo que denotaba agitación general se dejó oír en la sala de la audiencia. El juez impuso el silencio dando golpes con el mazo.
-Es usted un magnífico tirador con toda clase de armas de fuego, ¿verdad? -dijo el fiscal con tono insinuante.
-¡Protesto la pregunta! -gritó el defensor de Mitty- Hemos probado que el acusado no pudo haber hecho el disparo. Hemos probado que la noche del 14 de julio llevaba el brazo derecho en cabestrillo. Walter Mitty levantó la mano como para imponer silencio y los abogados de una y otra parte se quedaron perplejos.
-Con cualquier marca de pistola pude haber matado a Gregory Fitzhurst a cien metros de distancia, usando mi mano izquierda.
Se desencadenó un pandemónium en la sala del tribunal. El alarido de una mujer se impuso sobre todas las voces y, de pronto, una joven y bonita se arrojó en los brazos de Walter Mitty. El fiscal la golpeó de una manera brutal. Sin levantarse siquiera de su asiento, Mitty descargó un puñetazo en la barbilla del hombre.

-¡Miserable perro!
-Bizcocho para cachorro -dijo Walter Mitty. Detuvo el paso, y los edificios de Waterbury parecieron surgir de entre la niebla de la sala de audiencias, y lo rodearon nuevamente. Una mujer que pasaba por ahí se echó a reír.
-Dijo bizcocho para cachorro -explicó a su acompañante-. Ese hombre iba diciendo bizcocho para cachorro, hablando solo.
Walter Mitty siguió su camino de prisa. Fue a una tienda de la cadena de A and P, pero no entró en la primera por donde pasó, sino en otra más pequeña que estaba calle arriba.
-Quiero bizcocho para perritos muy chicos- dijo al dependiente.
-¿De alguna marca especial, señor?
El mejor tirador de pistola de todo el mundo pensó durante un momento.
-Dice en la caja bizcocho para cachorro -dijo Walter Mitty.
Su mujer ya debía haber terminado en la peluquería, o tardaría tal vez otros quince minutos, pensó Mitty consultando su reloj, a menos que hubiera tenido dificultades para teñirse como le había ocurrido algunas veces.
No le agradaba llegar al hotel antes que él; deseaba que le aguardara allí como de costumbre. Encontró un gran sillón de cuero en el vestíbulo, frente a una ventana, y puso los zapatos de goma y el bizcocho para cachorro en el suelo, a su lado. Tomó un ejemplar atrasado de la revista Liberty y se acomodó en el sillón. "¿Puede Alemania conquistar el mundo por el aire?". Walter Mitty vio las ilustraciones del artículo, que eran de aviones de bombardeo y de calles arruinadas.
-... El cañoneo le ha quitado el conocimiento al joven Raleigh, señor -dijo el sargento.
El capitán Mitty alzó la vista, apartándose de los ojos el pelo alborotado.
-Llévenlo a la cama con los otros -dijo con tono de fatiga-. Yo volaré solo.
-Pero no puede usted hacerlo, señor -dijo el sargento con ansiedad- Se necesitan dos hombres para manejar ese bombardero y los hunos están sembrando el espacio con proyectiles. La escuadrilla de Von Richtman se encuentra entre este lugar y Saulier.
-Alguien tiene que llegar a esos depósitos de municiones -dijo Mitty-.Voy a ir yo. ¿Un trago de coñac?- Sirvió una copa para el sargento y otra para él. La guerra tronaba y aullaba en torno de la cueva protectora, y golpeaba la puerta. La madera estaba desbaratándose y las astillas volaban por todas partes dentro del cuarto
-Una migajita del final -dijo el capitán Mitty negligentemente.
-El fuego se está aproximando -dijo el sargento.
-*Sólo vivimos una vez, sargen*to -dijo Mitty con su sonrisa lánguida y fugaz- ¿O acaso no es así? Se sirvió otra copa, que apuró de un trago.
-Nunca había visto a nadie que tomara su coñac como usted, señor -dijo el sargento- Perdone que lo diga, señor. -El capitán Mitty se puso de pie y fijó la correa de su automática Webley-Vickers.
-Son cuarenta kilómetros a través de un verdadero infierno, señor -dijo el sargento.
Mitty tomó su último coñac.
-Después de todo –dijo- ¿dónde no hay infierno?
El rugido de los cañones aumentó; se oía también el rat-tat-tat de las ametralladoras, y desde un lugar distante llegaba ya el paquetá-paquetá-paquetá de los nuevos lanzallamas. Walter Mitty llegó a la puerta del refugio protector tarareando Au prés de Ma Blonde. Se volvió para despedirse del sargento con un ademán, diciéndole:
-¡Animo, sargento ... !
Sintió que le tocaban un hombro.
-Te he estado buscando por todo el hotel -dijo la señora Mitty- ¿Por qué se te ocurrió esconderte en este viejo sillón? ¿Cómo esperabas que pudiera dar contigo?

-Las cosas empeoran -dijo Mitty con voz vaga.
-¿Qué? -exclamó la señora Mitty -¿Conseguiste lo que te encargué? ¿Los bizcochos para el cachorro? ¿Qué hay en esa caja?
-Los zapatos de goma -dijo Mitty.
-¿No pudiste habértelos puesto en la zapatería?
- Estaba pensando -dijo Walter Mitty. -¿No se te ha llegado a ocurrir que yo también pienso a veces?- Ella se le quedó mirando.
-Lo que voy a hacer es tomarte la temperatura tan pronto como lleguemos a casa- dijo.
Salieron por la puerta giratoria, que produce un chirrido débilmente burlón cuando se la empuja. Había que caminar dos calles hasta el parque. En la droguería de la esquina le dijo ella:
-Espérame aquí. Olvidé algo. Tardaré apenas un minuto. -Pero tardó más de un minuto. Walter Mitty encendió un cigarrillo. Comenzó a llover y el agua estaba mezclada con granizo. Se apoyó en la pared de la droguería, fumando. Apoyó los hombros y juntó los talones.
-¡Al diablo con el pañuelo! -dijo Walter Mitty con tono desdeñoso. Dio una última fumada y arrojó lejos el cigarrillo. Entonces, con esa sonrisa leve y fugaz jugueteando en sus labios, se enfrentó al pelotón de fusilamiento; erguido e inmóvil, altivo y desdeñoso, Walter Mitty, el Invencible, inescrutable hasta el fin.

Afortunadamente, existen los sueños que permiten a un ser anodino, o dominado, volar de vez en cuando con sus ensueños y salir de la monotonía de su vida real, ésa, que más que vivir, soporta a duras penas...

Me ha gustado mucho este relato Gata.

...Me hiciste recordar a algunos escritores cuando deambulan entre lo cotidiano con su mundo -o mundos- particular a cuestas. Se vivirá una vez, pero se puede soñar mil, un millón o más veces al tiempo. Se trata de pequeñas alegrías o grandes sueños (según se mire) que la literatura nos rescata. Tu inspirado relato lo demuestra...

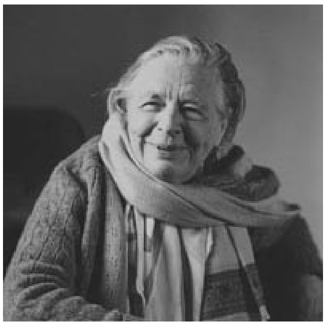
CUANDO SONRÍES



Cuando sonríes,
los goces furtivos,
las noches de insomnio,
los leves silencios y la risa loca, se adhieren al labio como un beso que huye.
Desde tus ojos resbala tu infancia como un día de lluvia, y esa impertinente voluntad de ser, que no parpadea.
Luego, muerdes la tristeza como una manzana,
y apenas la acabas,
te llenas la boca con una sonrisa, que es todo un tratado de melancolía.

Y es que la ausencia de sonrisa debe de ser leve, pues es imperdonable salir a la calle escatimando la risa. Es cierto que, de vez en cuando, un poco de melancolía es necesaria; pero eso si, un tiempo pequeño y a volver a las andadas. Quiero decir, a sonreir con la boca, los ojos, el cuerpo y el alma...

Besos querida Gata. Ha sido un placer para mi leer este poema.

Quizás, para que una sonrisa se convierta de pronto en los versos de un poema, sea necesaria una dosis de negra melancolía.
Los pueblos felices no tienen historia.
Gracias Gata por tu poema en este jueves lluvioso y gris.

TELEFÓNICA DE ESPAÑA DEJA EL ADSL Y NOS PASA AL LSD

Telefónica de España ha conseguido diseñar y construir un modem de ADSL(1) de forma y manera que se estropea antes de un año, aunque tiene garantía para dos. Ninguna compañía extranjera lo ha conseguido. Para que luego, los vendepatrias, antiespañoles, acomplejados, derrotistas, digan que aquí no tenemos tecnología punta.
No contenta con este prodigio, esta semana ha dejado a sus usuarios sin conexión ADSL ni conexión televisiva, con un par, sin pedir ayuda a la NASA, ni a la Agencia Espacial Rusa, ni a nadie.
Este redactor-jefe, fiel al lema de Alimaña News: "la noticia antes de que ocurra", avisa a los lectores que , en breve, Telefónica va a proporcionar a sus abonados tambores, cursos de tam-tam y un cilicio, patentados como tecnología LSD.
Los carroñeros de la prensa escrita dirán que hay que reclamar y pedir indemnizaciones, y negarán, como siempre, el mérito innovador de nuestra Telefónica, a la que se empeñan en llamar Timofónica.
Pero este redactor-jefe ofrece sus parabienes a los técnicos y al Consejo de Administración, cuyos beneficios han crecido 40% en el primer semestre de 2006.
¡Que se enteren y que rabien los de la competencia y los extranjeros!

MÉXICO: LA CORRUPCIÓN, EL SECUESTRO, Y EL ASESINATO, COMO SISTEMA (2)

Primera parte: México: la corrupción, el secuestro y el asesinato como sistema

Posdata del 13 de agosto:

Otros casos:
6 de febrero de 2006: Herido en atentado periodista Jaime Orozco Tey Gerardo Reyes en El Nuevo Herald
Un periodista del diario El Mañana de Nuevo Laredo, ciudad del norte de México fronteriza con Estados Unidos, quedó gravemente herido después de que dos hombres encapuchados irrumpieron en la sala de redacción, dispararon indiscriminadamente varias ráfagas de ametralladora e hicieron explotar una granada. (...)

"Estábamos trabajando normal, pegados a las computadoras. De repente escuché el impacto de vidrio quebrándose. También sentí cómo astillas me caían en la cara. Oí ráfagas y mi reacción fue tirarme al suelo. Me escondí bajo el mueble de la computadora y seguí oyendo balazos'', relató un reportero.
En medio de la balacera cayó herido el reportero Jaime Orozco Tey, quien se encuentra en condición grave en un hospital de la ciudad con lesiones en la columna, el tórax y el intestino. Orozco, de 33 años, recibió cinco impactos de bala.
(...) Nuevo Laredo es el escenario de una sangrienta guerra entre organizaciones del narcotráfico que se disputan el paso de la droga por la frontera. A través de amenazas y asesinatos, los líderes de las bandas han dejado en claro que no están dispuestos a que los detalles de la confrontación sean ventilados por los medios de comunicación.
En marzo del 2004, el director editorial de El Mañana, Roberto Mora García, fue asesinado cuando se disponía a entrar a su casa.
Hace dos semanas, en un esfuerzo por buscar solidaridad de otros medios, El Mañana patrocinó un seminario de la Sociedad Interamericana de Prensa (SIP) sobre cobertura de narcotráfico a la que asistieron más de cien reporteros de ambos lados de la frontera, Colombia y Venezuela. Bajo el título ''Batalla contra el silencio'', el octogenario diario desplegó los testimonios de los colegas que animaban a los periodistas de la ciudad a "cerrar filas".
Al final del seminario los periodistas aprobaron una declaración conjunta en la que expresaron su preocupación por "la incapacidad de las autoridades, en sus diversos niveles de gobierno, ante el avance del crimen organizado en el país en su conjunto, en la zona fronteriza en general y en el área de Nuevo Laredo en particular''.
Ayer la SIP repudió el ataque y solicitó la intervención directa del gobierno federal, así como "la adopción de medidas urgentes y enérgicas para enfrentar la espiral de violencia y la impunidad''.
Una fuente cercana al diario no descarta que la conferencia habría sido uno de los motivos del ataque , pues durante el evento el periódico recibió mensajes electrónicos que advertían que "Nuevo Laredo es de nosotros y no de los extranjeros''.

9 de marzo de 2006: asesinato de Jaime Arturo Olvera Bravo, fotógrafo freelance y ex corresponsal del diario La Voz de Michoacán, en La Piedad (Michoacán) y 10 de marzo de 2006: Asesinado Ramiro Téllez Contreras, periodista de la radio local Exa 95.7 FM, en Nuevo Laredo (Tamaulipas).
"Según la prensa local el 9 de marzo, en torno a las 8 de la mañana, Jaime Arturo Olvera Bravo salió de su domicilio situado en La Piedad, para llevar a su hijo a la guardería. Mientras esperaba en la parada del autobús se acercó a ellos un hombre armado que disparó al periodista a bocajarro, alcanzándole mortalmente en el cuello. Jaime Arturo Olvera Bravo se despidió en abril de 2002 del diario La Voz de Michoacán, para trabajar como vendedor. Desde entonces trabajaba como freelance, principalmente sobre los ataques cometidos contra la prensa local. El fiscal encargado de la fiscalía especial dedicada a la lucha contra los crímenes y delitos cometidos con periodistas, David Vega, ha entregado la investigación preliminar a un miembro delegado en el Estado de Michoacán. Se encargará del caso únicamente si las pruebas establecen alguna relación entre la actividad periodística de Jaime Arturo Olvera Bravo y su asesinato.
En cuanto a Ramiro Téllez, fue acribillado a balazos delante de su domicilio, situado en Nuevo Laredo, cuando acudía a su lugar de trabajo, hacia las 5,30 de la mañana del 10 de marzo. Resultó alcanzado por dos disparos en la rodilla izquierda y otros dos en el cuello. En estado considerado muy grave fue inmediatamente trasladado al hospital San José, donde falleció cuarenta y cinco minutos más tarde, a consecuencia de las heridas.

Nuevo Laredo está nuevamente atravesando por un clima de inseguridad y violencia desde el atentado con ametralladora al diario El Mañana, ocurrido el 6 de febrero, que estuvo a punto de costar la vida a uno de sus periodistas, Jaime Orozco Tey.
Ramiro Téllez Contreras había recibido amenazas en los últimos días. En el lugar del atentado aparecieron casquillos de calibres 9,40 y 45 milímetros, frecuentemente utilizados por los narcotraficantes. El fiscal general del Estado de Tamaulipas ha abierto una investigación sobre el homicidio, que eleva a siete el número de periodistas muertos, desde 2000, en el Estado de Tamaulipas. En ese Estado han matado a la mitad de los periodistas asesinados en el mismo período."

21 de junio de 2006: atentado contra Manuel Acuña López, reportero del diario local Por Esto, en Mérida (Yucatán)

"El 21 de junio de 2006, hacia las dos de la madrugada, unos desconocidos lanzaron cócteles molotov al domicilio de Manuel Acuña López, provocando un incendio que destrozó completamente un vehículo, así como las paredes y las puertas del inmueble. La esposa y los hijos del periodista sufrieron crisis de angustia, y resultaron intoxicados con el humo. El siniestro fue dominado por los habitantes del barrio.
Manuel Acuña López ha acusado públicamente al gobernador del Estado de Yucatán, Patricio Patrón Laviada, de estar implicado en el atentado. Ya había recibido varias advertencias suyas, tras la publicación de artículos en los que hablaba de posibles casos de corrupción y nepotismo, en su administración. En uno de sus editoriales, el periodista denunció también las recomendaciones recibidas, pocos días antes, aconsejándole que "moderara" determinadas informaciones, susceptibles de perjudicar a algunos funcionarios del Estado."

"Según la Justicia del Estado de Coahuila, Rafael Ortiz Martínez, del diario local Zócalo, desaparecido el 8 de julio en Monclava (Norte), habría sido secuestrado por unos narcotraficantes, cuyas actividades había revelado. "Si se confirma esta versión, nos sentiremos muy preocupados por la vida de Rafael Ortiz Martínez. El narcotráfico se ha convertido en un asunto prácticamente tabú para los periodistas mexicanos, condenados a autocensurarse o a poner en peligro su seguridad. En vista de la gravedad de los hechos, reiteramos nuestra petición de que se efectúe una investigación a nivel federal", ha declarado Reporteros sin Fronteras. El periodista, quién también era presentador en una radio local, dedicó al menos cinco artículos al tráfico de droga en Monclava y sus alrededores. Según el gobernador del Estado, Humberto Moreira Valdés, el secuestro en un método utilizado frecuentemente por los narcotraficantes, para intimidar a los medios de comunicación."

9 de agosto de 2006: Dos individuos armados atacan y hieren a dos empleados de Noticias, voz e imagen de Oaxaca

El 9 de agosto, dos individuos encapuchados entraron en las oficinas del periódico Noticias, voz e imagen de Oaxaca, y dispararon contra el techo y las instalaciones de la redacción, hiriendo gravemente a dos empleados, Adrián Cortés e Isabel Cruz. Según el personal, los individuos, que no han podido ser identificados, entraron gritando que buscaban al director del periódico, Ericel Gómez Nucamendi. A Isabel Cruz le alcanzaron en el pecho, y se encuentra internada en el hospital civil de Oaxaca. Su vida no corre peligro, pero tendrá que sufrir una intervención quirúrgica.
Pocas horas antes, unos individuos encapuchados entraron en los estudios de Radio Universidad de Oaxaca y rociaron con ácido las consolas de radio, para bloquear la difusión de los programas.

"Enrique Perea Quintanilla fue asesinado en el norteño estado de Chihuahua, mientras en la entidad sureña de Oaxaca dos sujetos, uno armado con una metralleta tipo Uzi, irrumpieron con disparos en las instalaciones del diario “Noticias”, opositor al Gobierno estatal, y lesionaron a seis trabajadores. Con este nuevo crimen ya son 58 los periodistas asesinados de 1983 a la fecha, y 24 en lo que va de este ya feneciente supuesto régimen del cambio. Con este hecho lúgubre se pone de manifiesto que en la administración foxista nos han matado a cuatro periodistas por año."

Y estos son los casos en los que Impunidad.com pide ayuda ciudadana:

Gregorio Rodríguez Hernández:
"Todavía no se cuenta con una orden de aprehensión contra el presunto autor intelectual Frausto Ocampo, señalado por las autoridades como uno de los líderes del narcotráfico en la zona de Escuinapa, Sinaloa, donde ocurrió el crimen.
La procuraduría detuvo hace un año a Pedro Salas Franco, “El Cabezón”; Francisco Javier Pineda, “El Gordo” y Elías Álvarez González o Benjamín Contreras Hernández, quienes son originarios de Nayarit y que al parecer dispararon contra el reportero gráfico, de acuerdo a un testigo. Al ser capturados tenían entre sus ropas un croquis donde se ubicaba la casa de Ramón Eduardo Guevara, corresponsal de El Debate en Escuinapa.
En las mismas fechas, en julio de 2005 fueron detenidos el que fuera director de Seguridad Pública de ese municipio, Abel Enríquez Zavala y su pareja María Isela Machado Vélez, porque presionaron y sobornaron (con un ofrecimiento de cinco mil pesos, de los que sólo le pagaron mil), a un testigo para que acusara a los hermanos Sedano Ornelas. El primero también borró evidencias en el lugar del crimen, precisa el expediente, y la actuación de la policía a su cargo, el día del crimen, fue tardía.
Gregorio Rodríguez fue asesinado el 28 de noviembre de 2004, mientras cenaba con sus dos hijos. En el expediente integrado por la Procuraduría General de Justicia del estado de Sinaloa establece que el Rodríguez Hernández fue asesinado porque a fines de julio de 2004 logró fotografiar la detención de ocho hombres, realizada por tropas de la Tercera Región Militar, en un camino a Teacapan, en Escuinapa. Entre los detenidos estaban Antonio Frausto Ocampo y un hermano, del entonces jefe de la Policía Ministerial del Estado, Tamar Aguilar Iñiguez.
En octubre de 2004, el corresponsal de El Debate en una fiesta celebrada en la comunidad de Cristo Rey, volvió a captar con su cámara a Frausto Ocampo, quien convivía con varios personajes de la región, entre los que se encontraba presuntamente el entonces jefe de la policía municipal, Abel Enríquez."

Benjamin Flores
"Benjamín Flores fue asesinado el 15 de julio de 1997, cuando tenía 29 años y era director del diario La Prensa de San Luis Río Colorado. El motivo de su muerte se encontraría en la publicación de sus notas en las que exhibía a narcotraficantes y políticos.
Las autoridades nunca revisaron el material que publicó.
Tampoco se abordaron distintas líneas de investigación, sólo la que llevaba al “Jaimillo”.
En general el expediente se armó con rapidez, pero sin sustento y sí con muchas inconsistencias, por lo que algunos funcionarios podrían haber incurrido en faltas administrativas o hasta penales.
Los integrantes del diario La Prensa siguen interesados en el caso. Hasta ahora continúan publicando una página negra en donde aparecía la columna de Benjamín Flores."

Pablo Pineda Gaucín

"A pocos extrañó el asesinato del periodista Pablo Pineda. Policías, compañeros reporteros, directores de periódicos locales y su misma familia presumían que eso iba a suceder. "Cuídate, Pineda", escuchaba su esposa Rosi Solís, cuando salían juntos de paseo.
Algunos, porque miraban con espanto las imágenes crudas y desinhibidas que todos los días publicaba en el diario La Opinión. "No se medía; ese tipo no se tocaba el corazón", dice Carlos Gómez, que bolea zapatos en el mercado y tiene siempre el diario a la mano para sus clientes. Fotos de atropellados, suicidas, vendedores de droga, funcionarios a los que señalaba como corruptos, violadores, mujeres violadas.
(...)Pablo Pineda no es el primer periodista asesinado en Matamoros. En los años ochenta fueron victimados Ernesto Flores y Norma Moreno Figueroa. Su caso no fue esclarecido"

Héctor Félix Miranda

"La policía y los periodistas de Zeta habían iniciado la búsqueda de sospechosos leyendo las columnas más recientes de Félix, para ver quienes eran sus "blancos" preferidos. Hank Rhon se destacó como una de las personas que había sido atacada más frecuentemente y con el mayor sarcasmo. "El Gato" hacía vagas referencias a la cocaína y revelaba detalles embarazosos de las fiestas escandalosas de Hank Rhon. También se burlaba del mejor amigo del empresario, Alberto Murguía.
Pese a que Medina expresó que las columnas habían sido el motivo detrás del asesinato, a la única otra persona que implicó en su declaración fue a alguien que jamás había sido mencionado en "Un Poco de Algo": el jefe de seguridad del hipódromo, Antonio Vera Palestina. Este individuo había trabajado para el poderoso padre de Hank Rhon, Carlos Hank González, durante 12 años, antes de 1985. Hank González fue alcalde de la Ciudad de México y ministro de Agricultura al momento de la investigación."
(...) Como autores materiales del crimen fueron acusados y sentenciados Victoriano Medina Moreno, ex-policía judicial del estado de Baja California y guardia de seguridad en el hipódromo Agua Caliente de Tijuana, y su jefe, Antonio Vera Palestina, jefe de seguridad del hipódromo. Medina, quien asegura que la policía le sacó una confesión bajo torturas, fue condenado a 27 años de prisión y Vera a 25 años. Nadie fue acusado, procesado ni siquiera investigado como autor intelectual del crimen.
(...)Después del arresto y de la confesión de Medina, en la que también involucró a Vera, la Policía no continuó pistas para rastrear al autor intelectual y cerró repentinamente la investigación. El día del crimen Vera había recibido un pago equivalente a 10.000 dólares, hecho que no fue debidamente investigado. La procuraduría estatal dijo que se haría otra investigación sobre evidencias de un vínculo financiero entre el hipódromo y Vera, pero jamás se realizó. Luego de la captura de Vera declinó el interés del gobierno estatal de llegar al autor intelectual. El caso todavía hoy sigue abierto, pero la investigación está paralizada."

Víctor Manuel Oropeza:

"Sobre la autoría intelectual, algo que nunca fue señalado, las autoridades mexicanas desvirtuaron los conceptos de la SIP, cuestionando la posibilidad de que hayan sido policías quienes asesinaron a Oropeza por sus críticas y denuncias contra diversas autoridades de Chihuahua por la estrecha vinculación existente entre los cuerpos policíacos y los narcotraficantes.
Las autoridades también adujeron que el periodista nunca denunció las supuestas intimidaciones o amenazas, como que tampoco fue agredido en forma alguna. Algo que no tiene mucho valor,si se considera que Oropeza hubiera tenido que formular las denuncias ante las mismas autoridades que periodísticamente estaba denunciando o criticando, por su ineficacia y corrupción.
En su investigación, la SIP pudo auscultar que Oropeza fue blanco de una serie de amenazas telefónicas al denunciar la actuación de funcionarios de la Procuraduría General de la República que supuestamente estaban ligados al narcotráfico local. Cuando escribía sobre el subprocurador nacional de Lucha Contra las Drogas, Javier Coello Trejo, siempre lo amenazaban advertiéndole que no se metiera con el personaje. Oropeza comentó a su esposa unos 6 ó 7 meses antes del homicidio que lo seguían. El ex gobernador de Chihuahua Fernando Baeza, envió un recado con el periodista del Diario de Juárez, Fernando Molina, en el que advertía al Director del medio que le devolvería "golpe por golpe". En respuesta, Oropeza tituló su próxima columna "Golpe a golpe, verso a verso" en alusión a la letra de una canción y en la que denunciaba el hostigamiento. Además en esa columna, señaló que estaba recibiendo llamadas anónimas."

Francisco Ortiz Franco

"Agentes de la Policía Ministerial estatal en Tijuana y pistoleros de Los Zetas colaboraron para ejecutar el 22 de junio de 2004 al licenciado Francisco Javier Ortiz Franco, editor de ZETA" (...)
"Candidato sospechoso de un asesinato Hank Rohn, en una lista negra que dio el semanario "Zeta" MÉXICO . El semanario mexicano "Zeta" anunció ayer una lista de sospechosos del asesinato de su editor, Francisco Javier Ortiz Franco, ejecutado hace justamente un mes, entre los cuales se halla el candidato del PRI a la alcaldía de Tijuana, Jorge Hank Rhon.
Además de Hank Rhon, el semanario menciona como sospechosos a Arturo Villarreal "El Nalgón" y Eduardo Ronquillo "El niño", integrantes del cartel de los hermanos Arellano Félix.
Hank Rhon, dueño de un hipódromo y de varios negocios en Tijuana, ya era sospechoso en el asesinato de otro periodista de "Zeta", Héctor Félix Miranda."

Alfredo Jiménez Mota

"La desaparición del reportero Alfredo Jiménez Mota, ocurrida en esta ciudad justo hace un año, el 2 de abril de 2005, detonó una serie de ejecuciones y ajustes de cuenta entre miembros de una célula del narcotráfico asentada en Sonora, y puso al descubierto el florecimiento de los cárteles de la droga en la entidad.
La violencia desatada desde esa fecha en territorio sonorense ha cobrado la vida de 74 personas, 63 de ellas a manos de sicarios al servicio del crimen organizado, de acuerdo a los datos recabados por autoridades federales y estadísticas del diario "El Imparcial de Hermosillo", la casa editorial donde labora Jiménez Mota, quien al desaparecer contaba con 26 años de edad.
Algunas de las líneas de investigación de la Subprocuraduría de Investigación Especializada en Delincuencia Organizada (SIEDO), dependiente de la PGR, están orientadas hacia los trabajos hechos por Jiménez Mota sobre las familias que manejan el tráfico de drogas en Sonora; otras apuntan a presuntas actividades ilícitas de funcionarios locales y federales.
Las autoridades han establecido la hipótesis de que un narcotraficante ejecutado en noviembre pasado, y cuyo cuerpo torturado fue arrojado en un predio cercano adonde agentes policiacos realizaban una inspección, pudo haber sido el autor de la desaparición de Jiménez Mota. Y estiman como una versión sólida que en ello pudieron haber colaborado funcionarios policiacos que nutrían de información al joven reportero y en quienes se apoyaba como fuentes confiables."

Rafael Ortiz Martínez

Uno de los rumores que han circulado en Monclova sobre las razones de la desaparición del periodista, es que presenció, apenas días antes, un altercado entre taxistas y presuntos Zetas, el grupo de sicarios del cártel del Golfo.
"El zafarrancho se debió a que los supuestos Zetas amenazaron por un incidente automovilístico a un radio taxista, el chofer de la unidad de alquiler vía radio de banda corta alertó a sus compañeros del suceso, dio la ubicación y más de 15 autos del servicio público se apersonaron en el lugar al igual que policías y tránsitos. Los sujetos que viajaban a bordo de una unidad Expedition y una Avalanche (ambas sin placas) se identificaron como agentes de la AFI, esto sin dejar de amagar a todos con armas largas, incluso dos reporteros gráficos fueron despojados de sus cámaras, no sin ser advertidos de que si hacían algún comentario 'se los cargaría la chingada'", relató un reportero de Monclova.

El mismo reportero añadió que "un día después Rafael en su espacio como corresponsal de Radio Zócalo dio cuenta del suceso, para después de terminado su espacio en radio recibir una amenaza vía celular; sin embargo, no quedo ahí pues dos días después presentó una entrevista radiofónica con el chofer del taxi, quien narró al aire los hechos, ante lo cual también fue de nueva cuenta amenazado, versión que confesó a varios de nuestros compañeros".

Aqui en México nadie está seguro, lo unico seguro es lo inseguro ¡Aunque parezca broma! En Acapulco aparecen cabezas de policias como si fueran pelotas de playa, según que ajustes de cuentas. Los periodistas son de los más afectados, desaparecen sin dejar huellas. Los que tienen dinero son blancos seguros de secuetros y muchos han optado por sacar a su familia del pais. En fin , esto necesita un cambio radical y urgente.

Resulta de urgencia revisar la libertad de expresión en una región tan extensa en corrupción. Que lamentable que la labor de periodistas sea tan sumamente peligrosa en la zona. Tratados como si fueran mafiosos de la palabra. Se verá algún día el final a este tipo de agresiones? tal vez hubo una oportunidad en las últimas elecciones, pero fue vana esperanza, visto lo que pasó y la lucha que continua.

"El 15 de julio, Benjamín Flores González, joven periodista y director del periódico La Prensa de San Luis Río Colorado, estado de Sonora, México, fue abatido por fuego de ametralladora y luego rematado de un disparo a quemarropa en la cabeza ante las oficinas del periódico. El autor de estos disparos sigue en libertad. Amnistía Internacional siente profunda alarma por la ejecución extrajudicial de este hombre, el decimoctavo periodista asesinado en México durante los últimos ocho años.

Antes de ser asesinado, Benjamín Flores González había recibido varias amenazas de muerte a consecuencia de la publicación en su periódico de unos artículos relativos a la presunta implicación de miembros del gobierno local en poderosos carteles de la droga. También había recibido amenazas de muerte a causa de una investigación que estaba llevando a cabo recientemente sobre los presuntos vínculos que la policía y otras autoridades mantenían con el cartel de la droga de Sinaloa y otros carteles. El estado de Sonora, que hace frontera con los Estados Unidos, es una importante ruta para introducir droga en este último país.

INFORMACIÓN GENERAL

Desde 1989, los periodistas de México han sufrido más amenazas y ataques que los de cualquier otro país de Latinoamérica. Hasta el momento, Amnistía Internacional ha recibido informes sobre al menos 270 casos, que incluyen palizas, «desapariciones» breves y torturas. Los periodistas viven con el constante temor de sufrir represalias si publican información que acuse a las autoridades de violaciones de derechos humanos o que las relacione con otras actividades delictivas. Esto sucede especialmente con todo lo relativo al narcotráfico, en el que, según los informes, están implicados algunos importantes cargos del gobierno y miembros de las fuerzas de seguridad. La mayoría de los responsables de estas violaciones se benefician de una impunidad que sólo puede ser posible con la aquiescencia de las autoridades."

Aunque parezca mentira, éste es un texto de Amnistía Internacional, del año 1997, con Emilio Chuayffet Chemor en Gobernación y Jorge Madrazo Cuéllar como Procurador General de la República.

¿POR QUÉ ARDE GALICIA?

Mientra se luche contra la droga con campañas publicitarias dirigidas a los consumidores, una franja de población cada vez más sedienta de emociones fuertes que se aburre en este infierno de lo previsible que es la sociedad burguesa, no habrá resultado. Promulgar leyes que impididan que el dinero que genera la droga, revierta en la construcción y en el resto de los sectores que blanquean dinero, si sería efectivo; pero podría arder el país.

Ya está ardiendo Galicia.

Es hora de que los periodistas como Xulio Fariñas, que conocen el millar de nombres relacionados con el tráfico de drogas, y los expertos del Ministerio del Interior del honorable Rubalcaba nos cuenten por qué se ha desencadenado ahora, en Galicia, la política de tierra quemada que ya se había utilizado antes en Colombia, México, Italia, y que se callen los que están empeñados en hacernos creer que la piromanía es una enfermedad mental contagiosa y virica que, misteriosamente, cumple una función estratégica trasnacional.

No nos cuenten milongas, por favor: somos un pueblo idiotizado hasta un grado de profundidad vertiginosa, de acuerdo; pero mientan e inventen como si no lo fuéramos.

Y, por favor, que los testigos protegidos en nuestro país no sigan siendo marcados, mediante indiscrecciones calculadas, por los mismos que deberían de velar por su seguridad, para escarmiento de quienes cometan la ingenuidad de colaborar con la Justicia. Es una mala táctica, porque cuando el poderoso ya no disimula, no guarda las formas, se descara y actua con prepotencia, es el principio del fin. Recuerden la poderosa alianza de la Democrazia Cristiana, Toto Riina, y Servicios Secretos en Italia: los cegó la soberbia.

Intervención en la ignota Comisión sobre Narcotráfico del Parlamento Gallego.
Única nota publicada en castellano , en junio de 2004

El periodista especializado en asuntos de narcotráfico Xulio Fariñas indicó hoy que, a pesar del menor peso y de la lucha de los últimos años contra los principales clanes de narcos, en Galicia se puede hablar de "un millar de nombres" relacionados con el tráfico de drogas que mantienen a esta región como punto de entrada de gran parte de las sustancias ilícitas intervenidas en España.
Xulio Fariñas intervino hoy en la Comisión sobre Narcotráfico del Parlamento gallego para exponer, en representación del Colexio Profesional de Periodistas de Galicia, su experiencia de más de 20 años en la cobertura de información periodística sobre el narcotráfico.
Apuntó que la situación sobre las drogas en Galicia y en España es ahora "peor" y similar a la de hace 20 años en Colombia, pero que, sin embargo, tiene un menor interés social y periodístico.*
En su intevención, hizo un repaso sobre los clanes y personajes más conocidos en el narcotráfico en Galicia y España --Charlín, Oubiña, Vioque y otros--, al tiempo que señaló que a pesar de que los grandes nombres están o estuvieron en la cárcel no renunciaron a sus actividades delictivas. También precisó que en prisión "son todos los que están, pero no todos los que son".

INTERVENIDO SÓLO EL 25 POR CIENTO
Uno de los datos facilitados por este periodista especializado en narcotráfico es que en los últimos nueve años se intervinieron en España 9.000 toneladas de droga, de los que más de la mitad era hachís, aunque también se aprehendió cocaína, heroína y otras sustancias.
A pesar de este volumen intervenido, Fariñas precisó que estos datos significan "siendo muy generosos" el 25 por ciento del total de droga que se mueve. Así, estimó que en los últimos nueve años llegó al mercado 27 millones de kilos de las tres principales drogas prohibidas.
Xulio Fariñas también apuntó que gran parte de la droga que se mueve en España es introducida desde Galicia y movida en el mercado por narcotraficantes gallegos. Recordó que los expertos, a partir de sus investigaciones en curso en casos judicializados en Galicia, calculan que hay "un millar de nombres" relacionados con el narcotráfico.

INDIFERENCIA SOCIAL
A partir del nivel de vida de los presuntos narcotraficantes, este periodista especializado apuntó que "el volumen de negocio es más grande que nunca", pero alertó que hay una mayor indiferencia social y de los medios de comunicación hasta el punto de que sólo es noticia una importante aprehensión de un barco con droga.
Ante la falta de preocupación por el enriquecimiento ilícito de un conocido, advirtió que por donde pasa el gran tráfico de drogas se origina competencia ilícita, corrupción, violencia, desestructuración social y, en definitiva, subdesarrollo. Al respecto, apuntó que la situación actual es "similar" a la que hubo hace 20 años en Colombia.

También reiteró que el problema del narcotráfico es "más grave" ahora que hace diez años, a pesar de que los principales personajes de este ámbito delictivo están fuera de circulación.
Asimismo, aunque con matices, señaló que la dimension social del narcotráfico en Galicia puede "equipararse" con la que tuvo el terrorismo en el País Vasco. Otra cuestión sobre la que llamó la atención Fariñas fue que el tráfico de drogas se puede considerar como la "principal fuente" de financiación del terrorismo islámico.

ALGUNAS PROPUESTAS
Fariñas se mostró partidario de que los políticos arbitren medidas, si no para erradicar el narcotráfico, sí para "minimizarlo". Entre sus propuestas, este especialista consideró que mantener la ilegalización del cannabis "no resuelve el problema", sino que contribuye a incrementar las plusvalías de las mafias y, a su vez, a financiar el tráfico de otras sustancias.
Además, señaló que de apostar por mantener la penalización del narcotráfico hay que optar por "penas disuasorias". También defendió que hay que incrementar los medios humanos, materiales y legales para lcuhar contra el narcotráfico, al tiempo que reprochó que los poderes públicos opten por las nuevas tecnologías en otros ámbitos --como en el control de llegada de inmigrantes-- pero no para luchar contra el tráfico de drogas.
En cuanto al aspecto judicial, Fariñas dudó sobre si debe haber jurisdicciones especiales sobre narcotráfico en zonas como Galicia, aunque sí consideró que para atajar el problema debe haber "gente especializada e interesada" en las cuestiones del narcotráfico.

TOMA EN CONSIDERACIÓN
Tras oír las aportaciones de este periodista especializado, los respresentantes de los tres grupos con presencia en la Cámara gallega agradecieron su intervención y apuntaron que tomarían nota en su trabajo dentro de la Comisión.

El País- 6 de Agosto de 2006:
"Había sido una operación brillante y nos han traicionado desde dentro". Fue una de las afirmaciones que trasladó uno de los responsables de la lucha contra la droga al conocerse el robo de más de 20 kilos de cocaína de un alijo que permanecía bajo custodia del Cuerpo Nacional de Policía en dependencias de la Jefatura Superior de Policía de Valencia. Fue el pasado lunes cuando el hecho se puso en conocimiento de la autoridad judicial. Y se hizo con una sospecha clara: no había sido ni un despiste ni un error, sino un robo que sólo podían haber cometido agentes policiales.
Desde entonces, silencio de los responsables policiales al amparo del secreto de sumario, con Alejandro Valle, jefe superior, al frente. Valle afirmó a este periódico el día que se conoció el robo: "No tengo nada de que informar". En marcha está una investigación interna de la propia Jefatura Superior de Policía, a cargo de la comisaria María Pilar Allué, la segunda en la cadena de mando, con la brigada de Seguridad Ciudadana. Y paralelamente, aún con mayor discreción, una investigación de la Brigada de Régimen Interno, con sede en Madrid. Aún no se ha depurado responsabilidad alguna.

La Jefatura Superior de Policía de Valencia sólo habló para precisar que el robo no había sido de parte de un alijo de 427 kilos de cocaína incautado en el puerto el 13 de julio, sino de una operación más reciente (el decomiso de 513 kilos también en el puerto de Valencia realizado el 26 de julio). Era miércoles. ¿Qué pasó hasta el lunes, cuando se dio cuenta del robo al juzgado? Aún no se sabe. Fuentes de la investigación explican que el robo se conoció entre el jueves y el viernes, que el domingo se comunicó, aunque no oficialmente, a la fiscalía, y que el lunes, cuando ya se habían hechos diligencias internas que descartaban el robo desde fuera, el error o el despiste, se presentó denuncia. Oficialmente, la policía afirma que lo supo el lunes y lo comunicó el lunes.
El alijo estaba en el interior de una furgoneta aparcada en el patio interno de la sede de la Jefatura, en el centro de la ciudad. Es una dependencia descubierta, de escasos 200 metros, sin barreras arquitectónicas que dificulten la visión. Está habitualmente vigilado al menos por dos agentes, que impiden no sólo la entrada si no se es policía nacional o persona debidamente autorizada, sino también aparcar en las inmediaciones del acceso. Cámaras de vídeo vigilan la acera que conduce hacia la entrada, el acceso principal y las dependencias que conducen a ese patio. ¿Cómo pudieron esfumarse más de 20 kilos de cocaína? La Dirección General de la Policía espera que se levante el secreto para poder explicarlo.
Al menos cinco guardias civiles, un ex inspector de policía, un policía local y dos mossos d'esquadra (policías autonómicos de Cataluña) forman "parte activa" de la organización criminal de narcotráfico presunta autora del robo, en enero de 2005, de un contenedor que contenía 500 kilos de cocaína, en el puerto de Barcelona, según se asegura en el informe elaborado el pasado 4 de julio por el Área de Delincuencia Organizada de la Guardia Civil de Cataluña, y del que informó ayer la cadena SER. El contenedor se encontraba bajo vigilancia policial.

Absolutamente de acuerdo en que la población parece cada vez más subnormal. Creerse el cuento de que esto es obra de pirómanos obsesos es insultar nuestra inteligencia. Hay una clara estrategia de tapar y arrasar con fines ya sea de distracción, ya de tapadera para esos movimientos a gran escala de los narcotraficantes que se mueven en la zona. Galicia es un banco central de la droga, lleno de latifundistas de la cosa. La costa del sol no es nada más de una pauperrima sobrima de la costa galega.

Creo que la hipótesis "narco" para explicar los incendios gallegos es errada. Soy gallego, de Vigo. En mi opinión la razón de este terrible atentado contra la seguridad pública es política y económica, estrechamente relacionada con redes clientelares y con los beneficios derivados de los incendios forestales: un monte ardiendo produce más dinero que un monte que no arde. En Galicia el turno político genera un aumento de la actividad incendiaria. Si la teoría del narcotráfico fuera cierta, la costa gallega habría ardido hace mucho tiempo, por ejemplo, el año pasado. Pero ha ardido este año, el primer verano en el que, tras casi tres lustros, gobierna una bipartito no "conservador". Además de los habituales pirómanos e incendiarios, este añoo tenemos que enfrentarnos a un sector descontrolado de la derecha local y de los paniaguados de siempre.

Querido Eledu: siendo gallego, de Vigo, seguramente podrá informarnos sobre los submarinos que desde hace un tiempo descargan toneladas de mercancías en las costas de Galicia. Como el Italia, Portugal, Colombia, México... con la salvedad de que aquí, fue ayer la primera vez que la Guardia Civil "recibió un chivatazo"-dice la Benemérita- encontró uno, y ya estaba vacío.
Y dígame qué clase de derecha local y de paniaguados tiene una infraestructura capaz de pegar fuego de manera simultánea y perfectamente sincronizada en una superficie y extensión como la que ha ardido.
Ah, y por cierto, tengo amigos de Vigo y no por serlo han llegado a las mismas conclusiones que usted, y piensan que los radicales de derechas son tan raros en Galicia como en el resto del pais, por mucho que voten al PP.
Parece ser que en Galicia hay, incluso, menos energúmenos de derechas y de izquierdas que en cualquier otro sitio, por mucho que teorice la idiota esa con ministerio que no conoce Galicia.

La aparición del submarino es asombrosa, e inmediatamente me recordó a Colombia. Sin embargo creo que si por algo se caracteriza la bollante industria del narcotráfico es por su discrección, y no por atraer con sus desmanes a cientos de policías y guardias civiles y a todo un equipo de elite contra la delincuencia organizada, que fue finalmente lo que ocurrió estas fechas en mi tierra. Pienso que hubieran acabado antes untando a los guardianes y no plantando fuego a la celda.

En cuanto a los de derechas, tiene razón, llamar "derechistas" a los gallegos es una licencia poética, mejor sería "conservadores", aunque le puedo asegurar que ultras, lo que se dice ultras, por aquí hay bastantes. Saludos.

COSECHA DE MUJERES. SAFARI EN EL DESIERTO MEXICANO.

Fragmento del libro de Diana Washington Valdez: "Cosecha de mujeres"

EL FBI
La oficina del FBI en El Paso ha apoyado al gobierno en importantes investigaciones referentes a, por lo menos, tres categorías de crímenes masivos y desapariciones. En el primer caso, dio sustento a los únicos cargos por homicidio formulados contra el líder del cartel de los Carrillo Fuentes, Vicente Carrillo Fuentes, quien fue acusado de ordenar numerosas ejecuciones y detenciones en la década de los noventa. El FBI también aportó a México información sobre la participación del ejército en la guerra sucia, lo que ocasionó que varios generales del ejército fueran sometidos a juicio por su papel en esa oscura época. Asimismo, el FBI entregó pistas sobre los crímenes contra mujeres. Es muy sospechoso que ni las autoridades federales o estatales hayan actuado con base en estas pistas, además de mostrarse reacias a la directa participación del FBI en las investigaciones de los homicidios de mujeres. Sin duda, las semillas plantadas en México que dieron lugar a los feminicidios no fueron sembradas en los años noventa; fueron cultivadas décadas atrás durante la violenta represión gubernamental en contra de movimientos sociales y políticos.

Operación Plaza Sweep
Residentes en Estados Unidos pudieron observar dentro del cartel a través de la Operación Plaza Sweep (Limpieza de Plaza), efectuada por el FBI en 1999. Esta investigación binacional, sin precedente, trazo nuevas rutas en esta materia. David Alba, en ese tiempo agente especial a cargo de la agencia federal estadunidense en El paso entabló comunicación con altos funcionarios federales de México después de recibir información creíble, procedente de testigos que aseguraban que el cartel había sepultado los cadáveres de hombres y mujeres desaparecidas en varios inmuebles de su propiedad en Juárez. La mayoría de la gente recuerda estos operativos a raíz de que los primeros reportes señalaban que quizá más de cien cuerpos podrían ser exhumados en esos sitios. El FBI tenía especial interés en el destino de ciudadanos de Estados Unidos que fueron vistos por última vez en Ciudad Juárez antes de desaparecer. Como resultado de este esfuerzo, fueron recuperados los restos de cuatro paseños.

El FBI aseguró contar con un informante que aportó datos precisos sobre la ubicación de las tumbas clandestinas. Al principio, éste acudió ante la DEA en El Paso, "pero se le tomó a burla", según un alto oficial. Pero este sujeto, decidido a relatar su historia, se encaminó a la oficina del FBI. Aun cuando los investigadores del FBI se mostraron escépticos, éste insistió hasta que se le escuchó y pudo entablar comunicación con el agente federal del FBI Héctor CamariIlo, quien era residente experto en el cartel del narcotráfico y se percató de que realmente la historia de esta persona revestía credibilidad, así que consultó con sus superiores. Por lo menos treinta ciudadanos de Estados Unidos, incluyendo a Saúl Sánchez Jr. y su esposa Abigail Sánchez, continuaban desaparecidos en Juárez. (Casi nueve años después, una fuente de la PGR relató que elementos de la propia procuraduría y algunos sicarios, estuvieron involucrados en el secuestro de los Sánchez.) Los colaboradores de Alba, sin embargo, se enfrentaron a cierta resistencia por parte de la oficina de enlace del FBI en la embajada de Estados Unidos en el Distrito Federal. Alba requería tener la total certeza del interés del gobierno federal en llevar en conjunto este caso. Las opiniones estaban divididas dentro del FBI en El Paso, en el sentido de la conveniencia de proceder a una investigación en la frontera. Alba se quedó aún más desconcertado cuando Edmundo Guevara, un oficial del FBI asignado a la embajada de Estados Unidos en México, dio a entender al FBI de El Paso que sus homólogos mexicanos no tenían ningún interés en ese operativo. Tiempo después, Guevara sustituyó a Alba como jefe de la oficina en El Paso.
Alba resolvió no perder más tiempo por las vías diplomáticas y se dirigió al procurador, Jorge Madrazo. El caso traía complicaciones innegables, incluyendo la posibilidad de que agentes federales de Estados Unidos tuvieran que colaborar conjuntamente con policías que pudieran tener algunos compromisos con los cárteles. Alba se entrevistó con Madrazo, quien después de verificar los informes, aceptó participar. Madrazo pretendía iniciar los operativos en septiembre de 1999, pero el FBI argumentó que requería más tiempo para coordinar la logística en estos operativos. El FBI, quien recibió luz verde desde su cuartel general en Washington, convocó a numerosos agentes y expertos forenses para colaborar en estas acciones. Alba designó a Frank Evans, su asistente especial, para encabezar los operativos. Evans estaba preparado para este tipo de trabajo debido a su experiencia en estas investigaciones. También había investigado a la mafia italiana en Estados Unidos. "No podíamos trabajar con la policía local de Juárez debido al omertá [pacto de silencio] que guardaban", dijo Evans. "Por eso nos fuimos con la gente de confianza de Madrazo."
Para los operativos de campo, el FBI montó un anfiteatro temporal en El Paso, e instaló un sistema de comunicación por satélite, para que los altos funcionarios pudieran observar el curso de las excavaciones desde sus oficinas. (El ejército estadounidense empleó el mismo sistema de comunicaciones que utilizara durante la guerra contra Iraq en 2003.) México, por su parte, tuvo la encomienda de proveer seguridad extraordinaria al personal del FBI que trabajaría en Juárez. Madrazo desplegó a cientos de soldados y agentes federales, enviados desde la ciudad de México, para resguardar esta investigación sin precedentes.

Justo al ser lanzado este operativo, mi encomienda para el periódico de El Paso consistió en reportar las actividades del rancho en el sur de Juárez conocido como Rancho de la Campana, donde habían desenterrado cinco cuerpos. El primer día de nuestra cobertura, escribí cinco historias para el periódico y aparecí en el programa Nightline de Ted Koppel, de la cadena de televisión ABC, programa diseñado para responder a las preguntas sobre las desapariciones en Juárez. Para los estadunidenses que no viven en la frontera, era difícil imaginar cómo, literalmente, cientos de personas podían desaparecer sin dejar huella. Yo dije en Nightline que según nuestra información el modus operandi era el mismo en la mayoría de los casos: grupos de comandos armados portando uniformes de policía y blandiendo rifles de asalto, aparecían y huían con sus víctimas. Mientras es motivo de polémica que algunos de los hombres armados sean falsos agentes policíacos, numerosos testigos declararon que las unidades de la policía municipal en Juárez con frecuencia escoltaron o rodeaban el área durante las violentas detenciones. Para la mayoría de la gente, las redadas parecían arrestos verdaderos. Sin embargo, familiares que después preguntaban a los agentes federales y policías municipales sobre el paradero de sus familiares desaparecidos, eran informados por la policía que no sabían nada de estas víctimas.

Jaime Hervella, fundador de la Asociación de Familiares y Amigos de Desaparecidos, en El Paso, comentó que Arturo Chávez Chávez le dio una respuesta alarmante cuando le preguntó sobre uno de los desaparecidos. Chávez era el procurador general de Justicia estatal durante la administración de Francisco Barrio. Chávez nos dijo: "Debo admitir que [el procurador Antonio Lozano Gracia] no me notificó de las detenciones".
Asimismo, Hervella comentó que entre los desaparecidos se encontraban empresarios, abogados, mujeres, militares y comandantes de policía. Supuestamente, algunas víctimas eran arrojadas desde aviones sobrevolando las montañas de la sierra de Chihuahua. Las autoridades de Juárez se lavaron las manos en este asunto al culpar de estos misteriosos secuestros al cartel. Cuando se trataba de estos casos, oficiales federales y estatales se echaban la pelota unos y otros. Los oficiales de Chihuahua consideraban que funcionarios federales eran quienes debían investigar, mientras que los oficiales federales respondían que estos casos eran de la competencia de la policía estatal.
Las autoridades abordaron de la misma manera las ejecuciones del narcotráfico. A principios de 2004, Loren Magaña, codirectora, en Juárez, de la asociación, comentó que este grupo había documentado hasta 700 desapariciones (hombres en su mayoría) desde 1993. Como resultado de la etiqueta de narcotraficante que oficialmente le eran impuestas a las víctimas, muy poca gente de la comunidad estaba dispuesta a abogar por ellos. Era más fácil protestar por los asesinatos de mujeres. Pero no todos los desaparecidos estaban vinculados con el cartel. Algunos de ellos sólo estuvieron en el lugar equivocado, a la hora equivocada, o fueron desaparecidos por venganza o por motivos no relacionados con el tráfico de drogas. Por ejemplo, la paseña Claudia M. Rincón, de 27 años, desapareció el 14 de julio de 2000, cuando se dirigía a reunirse con Fernando Flores, el hijo de un alto funcionario policial de Juárez. El FBI revisó el caso, pero estaba limitado en la realización de su trabajo al lado estadunidense de la frontera, mientras el sospechoso principal se encontrara en territorio mexicano. Resulta que el sospechoso no pasó la prueba del detector de mentiras que le administró el FBI.

Judith Galarza, una antigua activista en Juárez, criticó el Operativo Plaza Sweep porque no estaba encaminado a la investigación de mujeres desaparecidas y asesinadas. Ella y otros activistas notaron que los cuerpos de varias mujeres habían sido encontrados en áreas cercanas a dos de las fosas clandestinas del operativo del FBI. Al inicio de mi investigación, no estuve de acuerdo con algunos activistas y académicos sobre el cartel en los asesinatos de mujeres. Ellos consideraron que los traficantes nada tuvieron que ver con los asesinatos. Pero siempre sospeché que el cartel y la corrupción policíaca eran las razones por las que las investigaciones de los asesinatos no progresaban. Lo que es más, el cartel proporcionaba el escaparate perfecto para encubrir asesinos en serie, imitadores, pandillas, traficantes y hombres de poder que tenían como blanco a mujeres jóvenes.

Hasta Plaza Sweep, la única respuesta que las familias de los desaparecidos recibieron del gobierno fue el silencio absoluto. Amenazas y hostigamientos también desalentaron a muchos de los familiares de las víctimas para presentar denuncias por desaparición de personas. Un detective de homicidios en Chihuahua había contabilizado a 1.100 homicidios de hombres en Juárez entre 1993 y 1999. Pero cientos de estos asesinatos se registraron después. La suma es espeluznante cuando le sumamos la cifra de hombres y mujeres asesinadas y de los desaparecidos. Teniendo en cuenta el contexto de violencia en Juárez, es lógico considerar que muchos de los hombres (y algunas mujeres) desaparecidos ya estén muertos. Mucho se desconoce de las demás mujeres desaparecidas como para concluir si están vivas o muertas. Juárez es un importante escenario para el tráfico humano, pero los funcionarios tienen que investigar si las mujeres fueron llevadas a otros lugares de México o hacia Estados Unidos. Por ejemplo, poco después del levantamiento de los zapatistas en Chiapas, en 1994, salió a relucir que el Ejército reclutaba mujeres como sexoservidoras para los soldados que vigilaban esa zona. ¿De dónde las traían? En 2004, una fuente del CISEN dijo que se sospechaba que el cartel de Ciudad Juárez había infiltrado y financiaba uno de los movimientos de rebelión en ese estado. En otro de los casos, funcionarios de la PGR habían declarado que el cartel de Tijuana tenía nexos con un grupo guerrillero en Colombia para intercambiar drogas y armas. Chiapas es un estado de tránsito importante para el tráfico de drogas, robo de autos, armas y personas. A Patricia Garibay, hermana de uno de los desaparecidos en los años noventa, le comentaron personas relacionadas con el narco que a algunos de los desaparecidos los mantenían laborando en plantíos en Chiapas, "y que a algunos afortunados los dejaban regresar a sus casas después de cierto tiempo".

Nueve ejecutados
Plaza Sweep también enfrentó críticas severas por parte de varios políticos, quienes la calificaron como una invasión a la soberanía de su país, a pesar de que los mismos funcionarios habían invitado al FBI a investigar. Uno de los críticos fue el senador Francisco Molina Ruiz, excomisionado del Instituto Nacional contra las Drogas y exprocurador de Chihuahua. Jaime Hervella y otros integrantes de su asociación dijeron que cuando Molina Ruiz era procurador, éste comentó públicamente que los desaparecidos tenían que ser "o adictos o homosexuales". Los investigadores de Estados Unidos y México se toparon con las críticas principalmente porque fracasaron en localizar todos los cadáveres que la gente se inclinaba a creer que serían recuperados mediante ese operativo. El FBI exhumó los restos de nueve hombres, quienes fueron severamente torturados antes de ser acribillados y sepultados, según los expertos. Los oficiales de Estados Unidos mencionaron que Vicente Carrillo Fuentes, acusado por las autoridades estadunidenses por la muerte de siete de estas víctimas, presenció algunos de estas ejecuciones. Además de los cinco cuerpos encontrados en el sur de Juárez, en un lugar conocido como Rancho de la Campana, otros dos fueron localizados en una finca a cinco kilómetros hacia el sur. Y otros dos se rescataron en un rancho en Santa Rosalía, controlado anteriormente por el líder del cartel de Juárez, Eduardo González Quirarte. (Este último es lugarteniente de Juan José Moreno Esparragoza, el Azul, un narcotraficante cuya hija, Nadia, al parecer mantuvo un romance con el gobernador panista de Morelos, Sergio Estrada Cajigal. El Azul fue elemento de la Dirección Federal de Seguridad antes de convertirse en traficante del cartel de Juárez.) El rancho de Santa Rosalía está cercano al Rancho de la Campana. Aun cuando los oficiales del FBI fueron notificados de que la mayoría de las víctimas -tal vez docenas- estaban sepultadas en el rancho de Santa Rosalía, ellos tenían información específica solamente para dos de las víctimas. Sin dar mayor detalle, Frank Evans comentó: "Era un terreno demasiado grande para estos operativos".

Federales a prueba

Para la investigación, el FBI sometió a pruebas de polígrafo a los principales oficiales federales asignados para trabajar con ellos. Los oficiales accedieron a someterse a cualquier prueba y a la investigación de sus antecedentes. Trini Larieta y el doctor Miguel Aragón fueron de los funcionarios de la Procuraduría General de la República que solicitaron y pasaron la prueba del polígrafo. Los agentes del FBI que habían cruzado la frontera el 29 de noviembre de 1999 en busca de víctimas, suspendieron las excavaciones y regresaron a El Paso a mediados de diciembre. En ambos lados de la frontera, la investigación, al final, se desvaneció. Antes de que terminara, Alba fue ascendido y transferido a Washington. Dejó en su lugar a Frank Evans para que continuara con los trabajos. La operación concluyó poco después de que Edmundo Guevara asumiera el cargo como agente especial del FBI en El Paso. Los oficiales del FBI comentaron que Guevara había insultado al doctor Aragón, a quien se le había dado espacio para trabajar en las oficinas de la agencia durante el operativo. Al sentirse persona non grata, Aragón se retiró después de su desagradable encuentro con el nuevo jefe del FBI. Los agentes mencionaron que Guevara cerró la investigación por la parte estadunidense y destinó a los agentes a otros casos. En México, Madrazo y sus colaboradores pagaron también un alto precio por su actuación en estos operativos. Larieta estuvo a punto de formar parte de una controversia, y al igual que el doctor Aragón, salió de la PGR. Después de que Fox asumiera la presidencia, Madrazo fue nombrado cónsul en Oregon, en tanto que el funcionario que fuera el cerebro del famoso maxiproceso, fue enviado a un consulado en Europa.

Siguen ajustes del cartel

El cartel Carrillo Fuentes continuó con su reinado en Juárez y un mayor número de mujeres fueron asesinadas. En 2001, el cuerpo de Jesús Sotelo, un narcotraficante, fue hallado a un lado del Rancho de la Campana, y dos años después, Daniel Sotelo, un familiar y también narcotraficante, fue asesinado en Chihuahua. Pero la aportación del FBI no concluyó con los nueve cuerpos encontrados o con la acusación formal del capo. La operación también dirigió al FBI hacia territorio no explorado, así como a significativas pistas respecto a las desapariciones de hombres y mujeres en México durante las décadas de los setenta y ochenta. Los oficiales dicen que la revelación de estos detalles hubiera ocasionado un terremoto político en México. Esta parte de la Operación Plaza Sweep se menciona por primera vez aquí.

El FBI y la guerra sucia

Rosario Ibarra de Piedra estuvo en Juárez, en 2002, para expresar su solidaridad a las madres de las víctimas asesinadas o desaparecidas. Me reuní brevemente con ella en un domicilio del centro de Juárez, en el cual se encontraban Marisela Ortiz, cofundadora de Nuestras Hijas de Regreso a Casa, la profesora Julia Monárrez, del Colegio de la Frontera Norte y el criminólogo Óscar Máynez. Ibarra, una mujer de 70 años y exlegisladora, activista ampliamente respetada por su labor pro los derechos humanos que ha luchado contra el gobierno durante décadas en su peregrinar para averiguar qué ocurrió con su hijo desaparecido Jesús Piedra, un estudiante de medicina señalado como líder de movimientos comunistas en México. Los fiscales mexicanos quienes acusan a Miguel Nazar Haro de la desaparición de éste, en 1975, en Monterrey, dijeron que el estudiante universitario fue detenido por la policía estatal y visto por última vez en 1976, en el Campo Militar Número Uno, en la ciudad de México.
Aun cuando Nazar insiste en negar su intervención en las torturas, admitió haber fundado la Brigada Blanca, un grupo paramilitar que detectaba a los sospechosos de disidencia en varios estados de la república, incluyendo Chihuahua. La Brigada Blanca estaba vinculada a la desaparecida Dirección Federal de Seguridad, encabezada por Nazar y Luis de la Barreda Moreno, y era integrada por policías y soldados que actuaban bajo las órdenes de esta agencia. Por más de treinta años, el gobierno negó la existencia de la brigada secreta. Las medidas represivas aplicadas contra los disidentes se registraron durante las administraciones de los expresidentes Gustavo Díaz Ordaz, Luis Echeverría y José López Portillo.

Los sobrevivientes de la guerra sucia en México sostuvieron que víctimas de torturas a manos de la policía y detenidos de manera ilegal fueron llevados a cárceles clandestinas y cuarteles militares. En vista de las reiteradas negativas oficiales, el mayor obstáculo que estas personas encontraron fue el que alguien les creyera. Rosario Ibarra estuvo ese día entre las mujeres de Juárez, a quienes alentó para que persistieran en su búsqueda de la verdad. A ella le había tomado toda una vida obtener algunas verdades, pero la justicia tan anhelada aún la evadía. Vicente Fox, el primer candidato de un partido de oposición electo presidente, no fue el primer funcionario federal de alto nivel en escuchar sus demandas. Ibarra no tenía la menor idea (ni nosotros tampoco) de que el FBI en El Paso contaba con la clave de los secretos más celosamente guardados en México sobre el destino de cientos de sus hijos.

Sin quererlo, la fuerza de elite estadunidense se ha convertido en el centro de convergencia para el candente tema de los derechos humanos. La Operación Plaza Sweep, llevada a cabo por la agencia en 1999, condujo al FBI hacia un nuevo territorio surgido del arranque de la investigación de las fosas clandestinas. El gobierno de Estados Unidos mantuvo oculto este operativo, pero el FBI proporcionó el resultado de las investigaciones al gobierno federal. Jorge Madrazo era procurador cuando su oficina y la agencia estadunidense iniciaron la Plaza Sweep. Madrazo, quien continuó en el gobierno como cónsul en Estados Unidos, no ha mencionado palabra alguna de este explosivo y voluminoso expediente del FBI. Obtuve la primera pista al recibir un mensaje que decía: "Pregunte sobre los generales". Pero habrían de transcurrir dos años antes de recibir una respuesta. Escribí sobre la detención de los generales Mario Acosta Chaparro y Francisco Quiroz Hermosillo en agosto de 2001, después de que la oficina de Madrazo anunciara que estaban acusados de proteger al cartel de los Carrillo Fuentes. En Estados Unidos, las autoridades federales consignaron a Vicente Carrillo Fuentes al haber ordenado supuestamente el asesinato de diez hombres en Juárez, incluyendo algunos cuyos cuerpos fueron descubiertos durante la excavación de fosas clandestinas en varios ranchos del cartel. Pero ni Madrazo ni su asistente Trini Larieta mencionaron, en esa ocasión, los cargos restantes que habrían de enfrentar los generales como resultado de una investigación del FBI. Ibarra y organismos internacionales como Human Rights Watch habían acusado al poder militar de México de serias violaciones a los derechos humanos, pero el gobierno respondía con silencio o negativas. Asimismo, los militares insistieron en refutar cualquier participación en la guerra sucia del país. Revelar lo que el FBI tenía hubiera provocado un escándalo político.
Para llevar a cabo esta minuciosa investigación sin precedente, esta agencia federal tenía a su disposición importantes herramientas, desde informantes hasta un arsenal de archivos de inteligencia. "No hay un investigador en México que sepa con lo que cuenta el FBI [...] las capacidades de éste van más allá de lo que la PGR siquiera imagina", mencionó la fuente de la agencia federal. Para esta parte de la investigación, el FBI estaba autorizado a hurgar en los bancos de inteligencia de Estados Unidos para desarrollar un archivo detallado del polémico papel desempeñado por el ejército en las décadas de los setenta y ochenta. "Como resultado de ello, fuimos capaces de documentar las muertes de 600 personas en México, en donde el ejército estaba involucrado", dijo la fuente del FBI. La agencia contaba con testigos de estos hechos, así como otros informes fidedignos. También proporcionó al procurador general de la República los nombres de los principales militares implicados y de los testigos presentes durante los secuestros militares, encarcelamientos y ejecuciones. El resto ya dependía del gobierno. "Entregamos a los funcionarios mexicanos suficiente información para que la utilizaran como base de su propia investigación", expresó la fuente de la agencia. El problema ahora era ubicar a los implicados en los expedientes y que también tenían conocimiento de los hechos. De cualquier modo, el FBI había resuelto uno de los más grandes misterios en México.

Conscientes de que el vecino país del norte estaba enterado de todo, el gobierno ya no pudo darse el lujo de hacer a un lado lo inevitable -juzgar a sus elites militares consideradas intocables. El reporte del FBI mencionó que los militares Acosta y Quiroz eran reclutas cuando ellos y otros miembros de las fuerzas castrenses participaron en esta crisis política. Otros elementos se han retirado del servicio. Pero aparentemente, la Procuraduría General de la República tardó en emprender acciones respecto a los informes emitidos por el FBI. Una fuente del FBI dio esta explicación: "Fue tan vergonzoso que Edmundo Guevara concluyera la Operación Plaza Sweep, que fue necesario demorar cualquier aspecto del caso que pudiera tener un fuerte impacto para el gobierno".
Posteriormente, México nombró a un civil como fiscal, quien fue presionado para investigar el papel del ejército en la desaparición política de hombres y mujeres. Según un informe de derechos humanos referente a México y elaborado por el Departamento de Estado de Estados Unidos, Quiroz y Acosta "estaban implicados en las muertes y desapariciones de 143 personas durante la década de los setenta". Sin embargo, un tribunal militar decidió que los acusados podrían ser juzgados sólo por 22 muertes (los juicios militares están cerrados al público). En noviembre de 2003, una persona cuyo nombre era Horacio Zacarías Barrientos Peralta fue asesinado a tiros en el estado de Guerrero. El hombre, de 55 años, mencionado en el expediente del FBI entregado anteriormente a México, había sido citado a declarar en contra de los principales implicados en la guerra sucia. Ignacio Carrillo Prieto, el fiscal asignado para dar seguimiento a los alegatos en contra de la milicia, sostuvo que el asesinato de Barrientos no perjudicaría este caso gubernamental al tener más pruebas a la mano.
Una cuestión delicada con activistas de derechos humanos fue que el general Acosta era graduado de la Escuela de las Américas de Estados Unidos, en donde, según sus detractores, lo adiestraron en la técnica de las torturas aplicadas a las víctimas de México. Amnistía Internacional y otras organizaciones cuestionaron si Rafael Macedo de la Concha, siendo militar, estaba dispuesto a impulsar la investigación hasta sus últimas consecuencias.

El ejército y el narco

En agosto de 2002, funcionarios judiciales dieron a conocer que un informante clave en el caso presentado en contra de los generales era el excapitán del ejército Gustavo Tarín. Según La jornada, las autoridades lo entrevistaron exhaustivamente en El Paso. Tarín sostuvo que Quiroz había autorizado el uso de aviones militares en la década de los setenta para el transporte de presos políticos y drogas. Tarín, uno de los informantes del FBI en El Paso con relación a la Operación Plaza Sweep, dijo también que durante algunos de esos viajes, los disidentes políticos al parecer fueron lanzados desde helicópteros. En los años noventa, al parecer el cartel también se deshizo de gente al arrojarla desde aviones o helicópteros del gobierno, justo durante el vuelo. Oficiales militares como Acosta, Quiroz y otros colegas habían utilizado lo practicado durante la guerra sucia, como apoyo al cartel. Kate Doyle, una analista experimentada para el Archivo de Seguridad Nacional (instituto de investigación privada en Washington), declaró a The Washington Post que documentos desclasificados demuestran que funcionarios de Estados Unidos estaban al tanto de cómo el gobierno mexicano "se había librado de sus opositores", pero resolvieron concentrarse en temas de "mayor interés por parte de Washington, como el comercio y el petróleo". El tiempo y las circunstancias dejaron entrever que las cosas no han cambiado cuando se trata de los crímenes contra mujeres. Por sus declaraciones a los medios de información en 2004, José Santiago Vasconcelos, brazo derecho de Macedo de la Concha, dejó en claro que no iba a haber nada, por parte del gobierno, en relación con gente importante que estuviera implicada en cualquiera de los dos asuntos -la guerra sucia o los asesinatos de las mujeres. "Qué decepción. Antes contábamos con Vasconcelos. En verdad, ya no hay nadie con quien trabajar", expresó un oficial estadunidense.

Durante la gestión del presidente Miguel de la Madrid, la CIA adiestró a un equipo elite de militares que formaron parte de una unidad de inteligencia, según Laurie Freeman y José Luis Sierra. El equipo recibió instrucciones de rastrear y localizar a los barones de la droga y diseñar estrategias para desmantelar los cárteles. Después, en 1996, el ejército estadunidense creó un programa para adiestrar y equipar "tropas de choque antinarcóticos" denominada Grupos Aeromóviles de Fuerzas Especiales (GAFES). Los nuevos comandos elite fueron comisionados en todo el territorio nacional para dar con su paradero y detener a los narcotraficantes, particularmente en el estado de Jalisco y en la frontera México-Estados Unidos, según Freeman y Sierra. El escritor Rafael Loret de Mola ha entrevistado al general Jesús Gutiérrez Rebollo en el penal de Almoloya de Juárez sobre los "rambos", como les dice él, y Gutiérrez dijo que "tienen carta blanca para realizar todo tipo de actividades secretas y por toda la geografía nacional [...] yo firmaba sus cheques y nunca les vi la cara".

Al igual que ha ocurrido con otros programas, algunos de los GAFES de elite desertaron de las filas militares para unirse al narcotráfico, además de que oficiales federales estadunidenses han confirmado que los desertores (los Zetas) han prestado sus servicios como sicarios. ¿Cómo es que estos equipos nunca dieron con los Carrillo Fuentes, el Azul Esparragoza o Eduardo González Quirarte, los barones del cartel de Juárez? En estos lugares de México, adonde despachaban los equipos antidrogas casi desde el Pentágono, también se ensayaba otra cosa. Una guerra contra el narco al estilo "Rambo". Las mafias tenían que responder con una contraguerra. Los lugares en disputa representaban plazas del contrabando, y los futuros sitios de una gran ola de feminicidios. En el año 2004 se llevó a cabo una táctica distinta, utilizando a bandas de comandos armados financiados al parecer por los sectores privados de México y Estados Unidos. Se les podía llamar paramilitares. La tarea de la Operación Dropkick de una banda era infiltrar y tumbar el cartel de drogas de los Arellano Félix. Según el equipo antidrogas privado, los carteles gastaron millones de dólares para rastrearlos. Así los narcotraficantes lograron asesinar a algunos de ellos, pero los "rambos" se infiltraron de tal manera que casi fue imposible identificarlos. Podían ser los grandes héroes del día, pero sin saber a quienes responden estos grupos encubiertos, también es difícil determinar si son respaldados por los gobiernos, por gente de un auténtico espíritu cívico, o por otros mafiosos que desean eliminar a sus rivales. Por casualidad, una de estas bandas privadas se topó con uno de los asesinos de las mujeres de Ciudad Juárez, y adquirió evidencia de este hombre por otros crímenes. No hay que olvidar que en los asesinatos de Digna Ochoa y Norma Corona, abogadas que se dedicaban a luchar por los derechos humanos, está implicado el ejército o los elementos antidrogas que trabajan con el ejército. La CIA debe saber muy bien quiénes fueron los autores intelectuales de sus muertes. He sospechado por mucho tiempo que la CIA también sabe la historia entera de los feminicidios de México, pero es un asunto que siguen tratando como secreto de Estado. Debemos preguntar aquí: ¿para el beneficio de quién? Durante una época, según la revista La Crisis, las agencias de inteligencia de Estados Unidos utilizaron un rancho del capo Rafael Caro Quintero para entrenar a los contras de Nicaragua, y al parecer, Manuel Bartlett estaba informado de esto. La periodista Dolia Estevez reveló esto en una de sus columnas, citando a Ralph McGehee, un supuesto desertor de la Agencia Central de Inteligencia. No por nada le advirtió un barón de las drogas a Ana que "nada se podía hacer en relación con los feminicidios".

Leticia Galarza, hermana de la activista de Juárez, Judith Galarza, fue una víctima de la Brigada Blanca. Judith explicó que su hermana era sospechosa de pertenecer a la Liga Comunista 23 de Septiembre, y fue desaparecida, en 1978, a manos de fuerzas de seguridad en la ciudad de México. Desde entonces, no se ha vuelto a saber nada de su paradero. Durante la búsqueda de Leticia, la familia de la desaparecida se dio cuenta de que había dado a luz, probablemente dentro de la prisión. La familia logró localizar y recuperar al infante, pero nada de Leticia. Julián Mata, un activista miembro de la Federación Latinoamericana de Asociaciones de Familiares de Detenidos-Desaparecidos (AFADEM), viajó a Ciudad juárez en el 2001 para reunirse con miembros de la Asociación de Familiares y Amigos de Personas Desaparecidas de Juárez y El Paso, Texas. El propósito de la visita fue lograr que canales internacionales pudieran presionar a las autoridades para saber qué les ocurrió a las personas que desaparecieron en la década de los noventa, y cuyas desapariciones son atribuidas al cartel por los funcionarios de México y Estados Unidos. Asistí a la reunión con Mata, la cual se llevó a cabo en el domicilio de Loren Magaña, cuñada del desaparecido comandante Alfonso Magaña.
Mata comentó después que algunas de las mujeres, encarceladas durante el combate contra los disidentes en México, fueron violadas como una forma de tortura. Algunas resultaron embarazadas, y sus verdugos acentuaron su tortura al amenazarlas con quitarles a sus criaturas. Mencionó que algunas mujeres fueron recluidas en la cárcel después de ser acusadas falsamente de ejercer la prostitución, e incluso que los niños a quienes dieron a luz dentro de la prisión eran "robados". Uno de los casos más sonados es el de Alicia de los Ríos Merino, quien fue detenida el 5 de enero de 1978, por elementos de la DFS y el ejército en México. Según el Centro de Derechos Humanos Miguel Agustín Pro Juárez, ella fue vista con otros en el Campo Militar Número Uno.

Alicia fue acusada de ser integrante de la Liga Comunista 23 de Septiembre pero hasta hoy sigue desaparecida. La Brigada Blanca también llevó a cabo redadas en Juárez, y varias personas de Chihuahua siguen desaparecidas. Algunos como Minerva Armendáriz Ponce lograron su libertad. Según la Agencia Reforma de noticias, ella tenía 16 años cuando fue secuestrada en 1973, y la llevaron a la Quinta Zona Militar de Chihuahua, de donde fue trasladada por elementos de la DFS a la ciudad de México y llevada a una cárcel clandestina para ser torturada. El hermano de Minerva, Carlos Armendáriz Ponce, miembro del Movimiento Armado Revolucionario (MAR), fue asesinado en la sierra tarahumara junto con otros estudiantes. En julio de 2004, la exintegrante del MAR, declaró a la prensa que "los caídos, los desaparecidos, todas esas familias destrozadas merecen justicia [...] se trata de crímenes de lesa humanidad". En caso de que el gobierno dé seguimiento a los informes otorgados por el FBI, Judith Galarza probablemente viva lo suficiente para presenciar una conclusión en el caso de su hermana.
La complicidad de funcionarios con el narcotráfico en ese tiempo, además de la tolerancia hacia toda clase de abusos, se combinaron para alimentar la corrupción oficial, sin precedente, que alcanzó su punto culminante con los crímenes contra mujeres. Los enlaces de complicidad se fueron tejiendo antes de la década de los noventa, y sirvieron después para sembrar el terror e inestabilidad en estados de ensayo, como Chihuahua, México y Morelos, donde se ha producido la industria del secuestro, la extensión del narcomenudeo y la violencia extrema. Esto se llama la "colombianización" de México, una aparente estrategia de los Carrillo Fuentes, que a su vez ha producido en ciertos lugares un gobierno "amafiado".

No voy a dejar que estos crímenes ni otros me amarguen el desayuno. Ahora mismo me voy a los enlaces de Amnistia Internacional a unirme a las acciones urgentes contra malnacidos. Hay demasiadas leyes que no se cumplen y la acción tiene que ser inmediata para que sea eficaz. Si queremos, entre todos podemos.

7 de agosto, El Universal Ciudad Juárez, Chihuahua. Un comandante de la Agencia Estatal de Investigación (AEI) fue ejecutado al estilo de la mafia en el centro de Ciudad Juárez el domingo por la noche, informaron hoy fuentes de la fiscalía de Chihuahua. La víctima fue Marcos Arturo Nazar Contreras, de 43 años, primer comandante de la AEI, quien llevaba tres meses en el cargo.

El vehículo oficial que conducía recibió varios impactos de bala, al parecer de rifle de asalto conocido como “ cuerno de chivo” (AK-47).
Con la presente administración estatal, desde septiembre del 2004, son cerca de una decena de servidores públicos, en su mayoría agentes y mandos de la policía, asesinados en circunstancias parecidas a la del crimen del domingo.

Si estas manifestaciones se repitieran en el mundo entero con la intensidad que se hacen en España, tal vez los responsables de la guerra detendrían su locura para escuchar las exigencias por la paz. En México, la selva no nos permite ver lo que hay más allá, ocupados como estamos en nuestra propia guerra electoral.

Pues no, no ha sido un exito. Pero como la convocatoria es para todos los DOMINGOS DEL MES DE AGOSTO nos volveremos a ver el 13, 20 y 27. Hasta que algún paranico deje de jugar con la escopeta y poner en ridiculo a toda la humanidad.

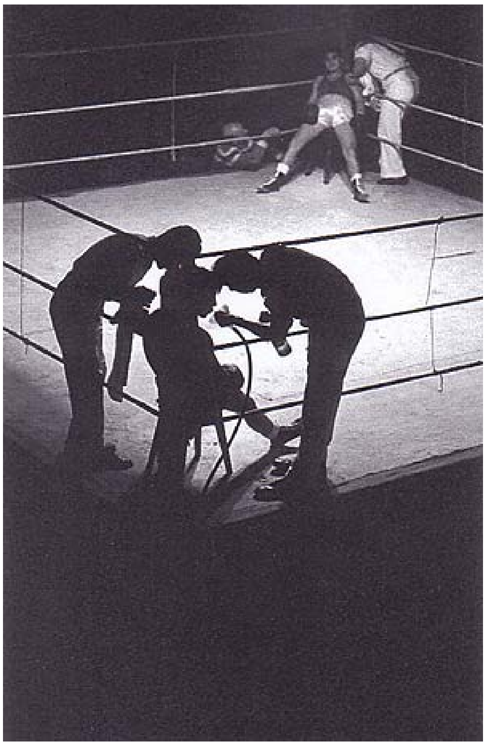
MI AMIGO JUAN JOSÉ GARCÍA CARBONELL



Hay seres humanos, como mi amigo Juan José, que te desbordan y te obligan a mirar a los demás sin esa banalidad con la que tratamos de igualar a la baja, dispuestos a reptar y arrastrarnos desde la cuna a la tumba sin salir del letargo.Yo tenía quince años, un estado de cabreo continuo, sabía todo y lo que no, me lo imaginaba, ya me había leído la mayor parte de la Biblioteca Pública cuando lo conocí, y escribía versos. Juan José era Delegado de Información y Turismo, Juez del Tribunal Tutelar de Menores, tenía un bufete prestigioso, y escribía versos. Yo era anarquista, atea, y lo que más tarde se ha descrito con el eufemismo "predelincuente". Mi amigo Juan José tenía cuarenta años, era falangista, cristiano y una especie de sacerdote laico de la Ley.
En nuestro primer encuentro creí ser radical y sincera y lo vapuleé con saña, y con todos los argumentos ideológicos que la rabia me inspiró. La discusión fue de órdago y a nuestro alrededor sus colaboradores guardaban silencio y me miraban con los ojos desorbitados de espanto. Estábamos en su despacho oficial. Cuando me iba, Juan José salió para acompañarme los cinco metros que me separaban de la salida, como si yo fuera una visita de respeto y con el rostro tenso me dijo:
-Es como si Dios hubiera puesto dos personas con un alma similar en un lugar antagónico. Pero tú y yo compartimos un rasgo común que es muy raro...
-Ya, el alma inmortal en la que usted cree y yo no. ¡no me haga reir!
Y su mirada no era un pozo de desesperación sino de dicha aguda:
-No, no te estoy hablando de creeencias: tú y yo somos de ese tipo de gente que no nos conformamos con encontrar respuestas, lo que nos constituye es que siempre nos preguntamos .
Y me dio un abrazo que fue como una descarga eléctrica de alto voltaje para mi lógica hirsuta.
A partir de entonces entre sus horarios de dieciocho horas de trabajo y mis viajes, encontramos momentos para intercambiar libros, escritos, puntos de vista. Éramos púgiles despiadados que no hacíamos concesiones. Yo arremetía contra la Iglesia Católica, pero tuve buen cuidado de ir durante años a clases de Exégesis Bíblica, y Teología para seglares, donde era la única atea. Mi amigo Juan José arremetía contra el materialismo pero tuvo la honestidad intelectual de leer a Marx, Engels, Bakunin, Proudhon, y todos los filósofos que los precedieron.

Cuando mi amigo Juan José era un abogado que empezaba, en esa posguerra nuestra llena de miedo y de silencio, fue elegido como abogado defensor para asistir a un guerrillero que formaba parte de la resistencia que aún luchaba, perseguida por las patrullas de la Guardia Civil y del Somatén. Lo encontró en el estado lastimoso que era habitual después de ser torturado en un interrogatorio. Y aquel abogadillo franquista, falangista, cristiano, armó la de Dios es Cristo, denunció y llevó a juicio a los torturadores, y consiguió la primera condena judicial por torturas a un detenido en Albacete.
Mi amigo Juan José, padre de ocho hijos, de una moral católica más próxima al integrismo que al Concilio Vaticano II tenía entre sus clientes gratuitos a prostitutas, a las que trataba con la misma deferencia que a la Superiora del Convento de las Clarisas, ladrones y rojos irredentos, a los que auxiliaba con dinero en efectivo cuando era preciso. Pero nunca banalizó su testimonio haciendo concesiones demagógicas para hacerse accesible.
Un día que tomába café con él, se acercó el secretario del recién nombrado Obispo para pedirle que fuera a saludarlo tres metros más allá, y Juan José con el ceño fruncido se negó:
-En otro momento: ahora estoy con esta amiga y me parece una grosería interrumpir nuestra charla para ir a saludar a Monseñor.
Sólo él entre toda la gente que conozco de derechas e izquierdas, creyentes y ateos, hubiera valorado la cortesía debida a los amigos por encima del honor de ser presentado a un obispo.
Cuando yo necesité un abogado, el único que se hizo cargo de mi defensa y de la de mis compañeros fue él. Los abogados que luego pasarían por izquierdistas y luchadores antifascistas rechazaron el caso horrorizados.
Años después, cuando volví del exilio en aquella incipiente democracia, que propició gente como Juan José mucho más que la gente como yo, fue de buen tono entre los demócratas de nuevo cuño despreciar su amistad y su trato, e incluso llegaron a amenazarlo de muerte los mismos que él había defendido gratis. El único orgullo que reivindico de aquellos tiempos, al parecer heroicos, de militancia antifascista es mi amistad con Juan José.
Mi amigo Juan José escribió un poema a la navaja que ya es parte del acervo común porque está escrito desde la autenticidad de su mundo referencial, y que es de buen gusto ningunear para ser un intelectual vanguardista. Yo la escribo ahora de memoria, y no sé si la recordaré bien, pero espero que sea de las últimas cosas que olvide.

Éramos como la mayoría una familia pobre, de artesanos.
Mi madre repartía la fuente del guisado por los platos.
El buen pan de La Roda mi padre hacía pedazos;
el pan grande en el pecho, la navaja en la mano.
Servía la navaja para todo:
Para sacarle punta al tranco, para afilar el lápiz, para el corcho rebelde, para el tocino magro,

para mondar las naranjas, para mojar la sopa en caldo, para pelar patatas,
arreglar el gazapo,
cortar el nudo, despegar la caja,
y poner un cartón a los zapatos.
Echar la sal al huevo,
y cortar a la vid el primer ramo.
Para pelar la vara del camino
y poner nuestros nombres en un árbol.
¡Navaja de mi padre, cuántas cosas hacías en su mano!
Cada Feria veníamos padre e hijo cogidos de la mano.
Comíamos en la "Cuerda", junto al carro con toldo de un paisano, la merienda que madre preparaba.
Y después de los toros padre compraba turrón blando.
Ahora ya se fueron los dos, mas compro la navaja y me la guardo.
¡Quizá esta Feria un hijo mío me compre una navaja de regalo!
Cuando mis amigos se extrañan de aquella apasionada amistad, confieso que para mí no es un misterio y no se me ocurre pensar en los designios divinos, sino en el Teorema de Bell, que dice que "cuando dos partículas interactuan, para a continuación perderse en direcciones opuestas, toda interferencia que afecta a una de las partículas incidirá sobre la otra, con independencia de la distancia que las separe." Relacionarse con el otro no es algo banal y sin consecuencias: no es cómodo, pero es lo único que nos convierte en seres humanos dignos.
Mi amigo Juan José García Carbonell me obligó a elevar el listón de mi exigencia personal porque no fue un hombre bueno, sino un hombre íntegro. "Ser es ser diferente".
Lo echo de menos.

Cuando joven, en la ciudad de México, solía deambular por las librerías de "viejo" en busca de volúmenes baratos para satisfacer mi ansia lectora. En una de ellas, situada en un pasaje habitado por tiendas de antigüedades, camiserías a la "medida" y tiendas de zapatos, despachaba un viejo algo hosco, pero siempre bien dispuesto con sus potenciales clientes. Era nada menos que el fundador de la Falange mexicana, un grupúsculo radical, por fortuna de escasos seguidores. El vetusto librero tenía la palabra fácil y era aficionado a jugar ajedrez; pronto me volví, pese a que mi izquierdismo maoísta me alejaba radicalmente de las posturas políticas de don Celerino -así se llamaba el comerciante- asiduo del minúsculo local y jugaba lentas partidas vespertinas entre tazas de café y cigarrillos sin filtro. Una respetuosa prudencia vedaba los temas políticos en torno de la mesa de juego, mas diversas coincidencias afloraban a cada paso: lecturas comunes, apreciaciones estéticas sobre los objetos de las tiendas vecinas y las muchachas que discurrían alegremente por el pasaje. Los rumbos de la vida me alejaron del centro, nunca volví a la librería que años después desapareció sin dejar huella, pero recuerdo al contrincante inteligente y más apto para el diálogo que muchos compañeros del camino (así deciamos los izquierdistas) que conocí y sufrí después en sus desplantes fanáticos y cerriles. Lástima que esas afinidades sean, en muchos casos, despreciadas frente a las diferencias que pudiesen ser, si aprendieramos a ser más civilizados, como una partida de ajedrez.

...Siempre nos sorprende lo que la relación y la palabra juntas pueden conseguir en el tú a tú, cuando se abandona el cliché de la generalización fácil. Es como ir de la teoría a la práctica: la implicación en la realidad nos une y, por fin, los intereses que dividen desaparecen. Toda una lección de vida, que es lo que importa y lo que debería ponerse más de moda...

Con tu permiso, querida Gato, voy a copiar un pequeño recuadro de don Juan José, que recorté en su día (La voz de Albaete 3/7/81) y conservo como oro en paño:

TODOS SOMOS MINUSVÁLIDOS

"Todos somos minusválidos. En primer lugar porque padecemos alguna o algunas faltas para el ser ideal que hubiéramos querido ser. De mí sé decir que soy diabético, daltónico respecto al verde y al azul, recio de oído, propenso a la obesidad y con un carro de años a la espalda. En segundo lugar, todos somos minusválidos porque nadie puede vivir sin los demás. La vida es posible para cada uno porque casi todos trabajamos y servimos desde nuestras capacidades y oficios. Mas al lado de esta debilildad personal, cada individuo es un verdadero milagro como ser que piensa y siente, como ser que tiene conciencia de sí mismo y sobre todo como persona capaz de amar y ser amado.
De ahí mi identificación con los minusválidos, porque yo también lo soy como persona, como individuo con defectos, por amor a los demás, y de los demás hacia mí, y porque en definitiva nadie es uno sin que exista el nosotros. Y en el nosotros estamos con derecho propio los minusválidos"

Me ha gustado mucho este texto porque resalta la amistad pura más allá de idealismos y creencias. es muy fácil ser amigo del que lleva tus mismos colores, pero por eso de tan fácil es menos honda la amistad.
Y es verdad que hay personas que parecen que nacieron para coincidir contigo, como si ese encuentro estuviera predestinado tiempo antes, escrito en algún pergamino...
Por eso cuando amigos así nos faltan dejan como un hueco irremplazable por muchos amigos más con los que se cuente.

Besos agüela y gracias por tus palabras, sinceramente hoy las necesitaba, y me han sentado como un apretado abrazo.

NUESTRA FIRMA CONTRA LA GUERRA

Somos millones los que no estamos de acuerdo con ese torbellino de violencia que nos puede tragar a todos.
Los amigos y familiares de las víctimas civiles, no combatientes, clamarán venganza.
Los países aliados de uno y otro bando, tendrán que tomar parte en el conflicto, mediante tropas y acuerdos bélicos.
Formamos parte de la OTAN, y eso significa que nuestros soldados tendrán que ir a morir adonde los envien.
Ni los civiles no combatientes, sean niños, hombres, mujeres o ancianos están a salvo; ni los "cascos azules" de la ONU, ni los Hospitales, ni los organismos humanitarios están a salvo.
Han destruido carreteras, puentes, y las vías de escape hacia Siria son blanco de los proyectiles.
Nadie está a salvo. Nadie. Matar cuanta más gente mejor es la táctica que se está adoptando, y nadie, en ningún sitio de la tierra estamos a salvo. Todos podemos servir como rehenes del terror. Es fácil darse cuenta de esto leyendo el testimonio de Riverbend, una joven irakí de 26 años, que cuenta como es la guerra, desde hace tres años, en su blog Bagdad en llamas, así como en los artículos sobre el día a día en Palestina, de Hernán Zin, en su blog "En guerra "
Podemos cooperar para que haya un llamamiento de millones de personas contra la sinrazón y la locura.
Amnistía internacional está recogiendo firmas para enviar cartas a los gobiernos israelí, libanés, palestino, a los grupos armados palestinos y a hezbola, para que haya un alto el fuego inmediato, y su voz, su opinión es influyente.
El texto de la carta es:

Al gobierno israelí, el gobierno libanés, la Autoridad Palestina, Hezbolá y los grupos armados palestinos:

Me pongo en contacto con todos ustedes para exigirles el fin inmediato de los ataques contra civiles. Tales ataques son una infracción flagrante del derecho internacional humanitario y constituyen crímenes de guerra.
El Gobierno israelí debe terminar inmediatamente con los ataques deliberados a población e infraestructuras civiles, así como poner fin al uso excesivo y desproporcionado de la fuerza contra palestinos y libaneses desarmados, incluidos niños.
El Gobierno israelí debe poner fin a los castigos colectivos, levantar el cierre a los pasos fronterizos de Gaza, y restaurar el acceso al agua y a la luz para el millón y medio de personas que allí viven.
El Gobierno del Líbano y la Autoridad Palestina deben impedir los ataques a los civiles de Israel por parte de Hezbolá y de los grupos armados palestinos.
Hezbolá y los grupos armados palestinos tienen que poner fin a los ataques deliberados a población civil de Israel.
Les insto a terminar con esta espiral de violencia en la que una vez mas la población civil es la gran víctima.

Atentamente,

Podéis firmar en el enlace de Amnistía Internacional
Además, cada uno puede dirigirse a su propio gobierno con el ruego de que hagan llegar a los organismos internacionales su petición en nuestro nombre.
Para España, dirigir las cartas a: secretaria.vicepresidenta@mpr.es
Para la Unión Europea, a Javier Solana presse.cabinet@consilium.europa.eu

Secundo aquí el llamamiento realizado por Hanna, de Ser Rizomático , para firmar el llamamiento de Amnistía Internacional, y os ruego lo difundáis a través de e.mail y en vuestras bitácoras.
Gracias en nombre de la paz.

Hannah: Gracias a tí, descansa, toma fuerzas, y hasta setiembre: te esperamos.
Detrás del reflejo: en ese caso, si prefieres apoyar con dinero para armas, como los que las venden a uno y otro bando son los mismos, por mediación de diferentes traficantes de armas, creo que puedes hacerlos muy felices con tu aportación. ¿O esta es la clásica respuesta de quien no va a dar dinero tampoco, pero va de listo y decidido hombre de acción?
Petitte diablessa: todos tenemos miedo, pero contagiar el pesimismo a los demás no es útil para nadie. Yo sí que creo que una sociedad civil fuerte, una opinión pública que se moviliza y dice no, puede ser decisiva. Y justamente es mediante el diálogo y los acuerdos diplomáticos como los países avanzados han de resolver los conflictos si no quieren condenarse a la miseria.
Dinosaurio, creo que lo que no es útil es la pasividad, no actuar, pero unidos podremos imponer nuestra opinión a los gobiernos que nos representan.

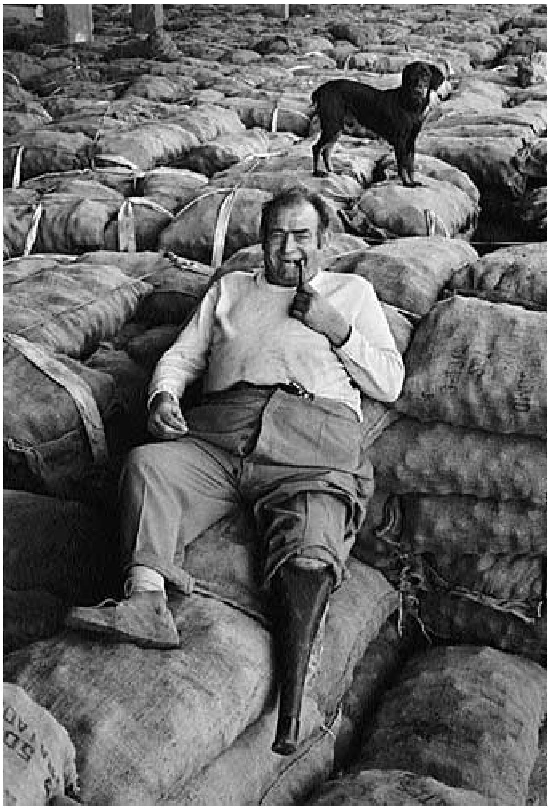
LOS ESPAÑOLES NO SOMOS RACISTAS NI XENÓFOBOS



Alguien tendrá que decir lo bueno de los españoles, porque llevados por una especie de masoquismo, nos dedicamos a sentirnos culpables y no reivindicamos nuestras virtudes, pero lo cierto es que:
-somos acogedores con los extranjeros y aceptamos sus peculiaridades, sus costumbres y su cultura de buen grado.

-no somos suspicaces con ellos, y nos negamos a aceptar habladurías que pongan su honorabilidad en entredicho.
-somos generosos, y les ofrecemos los mejores productos y las mejores casas.
-no hay pueblo de España que no reciba con alborozo la noticia de que llegan tres mil a pasar una temporada entre nosotros.
-nos parece natural tener preparados los mejores profesionales y todos los medios técnicos por si los necesitan
-cuando solicitan algo, lo tienen ipso facto. Y nos sentimos muy halagados de poderles ser útiles.
-no nos importa que no hablen nuestra lengua, y nos desvivimos por comprenderlos cuando nos dirigen la palabra.
-no hay español que rechace al pretendiente de su hija por ser árabe o latinoamericano.
-somos corteses, atentos y serviciales con ellos, seamos pobres o ricos.
La única condición que ponemos es que sean multimillonarios, gasten como locos, y vayan dejando propinas de cien dólares. Si los han ganado esclavizando a su pueblo, traficando con armas o con drogas nos da igual.
Hasta nuestro Rey se enorgullece siendo amigo de ellos y, siempre que tiene ocasión, los visita, y llora si se muere uno.

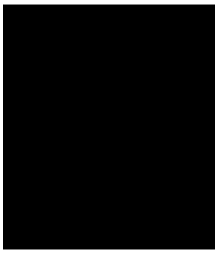
TERRORISMO ISRAELÍ: INVASIÓN, MASACRE Y DROGAS

Foto de portada de Adnan Hajj / Reuters: familia española residente en Líbano espera ser evacuada:

Durante dos semanas, personas acostumbradas a descifrar informaciones hemos escuchado la radio, leído la prensa española, mirado los informativos en TV. Nada. Todos hablan del secuestro de un soldado israelí como motivo para arrasar las infraestructuras del sur de Líbano, masacrar a la población civil, usar bombas de racimo y un misterioso componente que destruye los huesos y deja sin sangre los cadáveres. Para cualquiera que no sea completamente idiota es un ataque planificado cuidadosamente, cuyos preparativos son bastante anteriores al secuestro del joven soldado de 19 años, y es una patraña que sea una lucha contra Hezbolá, grupo integrista pro- iraní que, paradójicamente, cuenta con la benevolencia de los hombres de paja del Gobierno de Irak, puestos por EE UU .
Ningún medio ni periodista español cuenta el motivo real. Es evidente que la susceptibilidad del Embajador de Israel en España, que exige que le presenten excusas y aún no las dado, ha de contar con demasiados aliados poderosos, no todos presentables, no todos dedicados a las más honorables formas de hacer dinero. Y los periodistas españoles no van a ponernos al corriente de por qué, en vez de hacer como siempre que es herido o asesinado un israelí, no han arrasado el barrio donde ocurrió para detener arbitrariamente, golpear, y asesinar a los civiles no combatientes, según acostumbran, como venganza. Esta vez es un país entero el que están arrasando. Y lo que les interesa conquistar son las extensas plantaciones de amapola de opio del valle del Bekaa, el jardín del Líbano, como lo intentaron en el año 82.
Así es que por si alguien quiere saber donde informarse, les recomiendo que lean Tribuna de Periodistas, web argentina, y, especialmente, el artículo de Christian Sanz, que copio a continuación:



Terrorismo israelí: invasión, masacre y drogas

No es sencillo hablar de lo que sucede en Medio Oriente en estos momentos sin generar algún tipo de polémica. Los medios locales han tratado de analizar la invasión de Israel de manera cautelosa y tratando de no herir susceptibilidades de ningún tipo.
Esto los ha llevado a afirmar cosas infundadas y otras que no son reales, tales como que la embestida israelí en realidad está enmarcada en una "guerra" contra el Líbano. No es verdad, esto está lejos de ser una contienda, sólo es una masacre de un país contra otro.
Algunos otros periodistas han tomado posiciones extremas y unos pocos -por suerte- han asegurado reales disparates. En el medio de todo ello, ha vuelto a reinar la confusión y han renacido viejos prejuicios.
Para poder hablar de este tema con honestidad y objetividad hay que analizar todo despojándose de ciertos preconceptos. Para empezar, no está bien que las críticas hacia la actitud de Israel sean vistas como manifestaciones "antisemitas". Si el mismo ataque que hace este país hubiera sido hecho por cualquier otro, las críticas no cesarían en ningún lugar del mundo. Si el lugar de Israel en las primeras planas lo ocupara Irán, Estados Unidos ya estaría tomando cartas en el asunto contra ese país, no hay dudas de ello.
Pero como se trata de su "socio" en Medio Oriente -al que le son destinados varios miles de millones de dólares al año- George Bush avala -y hasta defiende- lo hecho por los israelíes. Todo sea en pos de hacernos creer que se ataca al terrorismo de Hezbollá.
Ahora, si esto fuera real ¿No es desproporcionado atacar a una hormiga con una bomba?
Nadie cuestiona que el grupo Hezbollá debe ser atacado y destruido por sus incesantes acciones terroristas, pero ¿Eso justifica que Israel destruya un país por completo para lograrlo, atacando inclusive blancos civiles?
A esta altura ya hay casi 350 libaneses muertos, la mayoría de ellos no combatientes. Nada justifica esto y menos aún cuando se miente a la población. El Gobierno israelí asegura que todos los ataques han sido contra guerrilleros y no se ha herido a ningún civil. Es una imperdonable mentira.
Lo mismo sucede con los supuestos objetivos que se persiguen. Si bien se asegura que se quiere destruir a los "enemigos de siempre", parte de la estrategia israelí tiene que ver con el dominio del sur libanés.
Recordemos que en el año 1982 Israel ya intentó avanzar sobre el Líbano y no pudo lograr el éxito esperado. En esa embestida ocasionó 18.000 muertos y 30.000 heridos, en su mayoría también civiles.
Aquella vez -el 6 de junio de 1982- Israel invadió el Líbano utilizando como excusa la tentativa de asesinato de su embajador en Londres dos días antes. En realidad, esta invasión, bautizada "Paz para Galilea", había sido preparada con mucha antelación por el gobierno israelí y buscaba -entre otras cosas- adueñarse del control del valle de Bekaa, zona ubicada en el sur del Líbano y tapizada de cultivos de amapola de opio.
Desde hace años, los investigadores han identificado este lugar como principal fuente, tanto de hashish como de la heroína que circula a través de Siria y Estambul para terminar en Europa Occidental.
El cultivo de drogas en el valle de Bekaa -que separa la cordillera del Antilíbano- ha sido una de las principales fuentes de ingreso para varias actividades como el terrorismo para países como Siria e Irán.

Hoy, más de 20 años más tarde, Israel busca nuevamente adueñarse de esa región del Líbano. Allí, de hecho, ha dirigido sus últimos ataques.
Según un cable de la agencia de noticias internacional Reuters emitido el 21 de julio pasado, "El sur del Líbano ha sufrido lo peor del bombardeo de Israel (y) está enfrentándose a una escasez energética que se extiende hasta el Valle de Bekaa, otra región que es blanco de los bombardeos israelíes".
No desconoce el Gobierno de Estados Unidos esta situación y no le preocupa en lo más mínimo a pesar de su contínua prédica contra las drogas. Hasta la fecha, el control del tráfico de estupefacientes en el sur libanés ha estado en manos de Siria y nadie hizo nada por detenerlo.
La situación es tan escandalosa que periodistas de la talla del extinto Jacobo Timerman denunciaron oportunamente que ese país sobrevivía económicamente sólo gracias a la venta de drogas.
Por eso, lo que se busca en estas horas es "escamotear" el dominio del Valle de Bekaa a Siria. Es la pura verdad.

Mentiras que matan.
Aunque todo parece estar claro respecto a quienes son enemigos o amigos de Israel (y eventualmente de EEUU), existen negocios en conjunto y sociedades transitorias que no permiten actuar de manera terminante a uno u otro bando.
Por caso, los sirios han sido "socios" de los israelíes en venta de armas y drogas, aún cuando Israel embista verbalmente contra Siria en las últimas horas. De la misma manera, Siria se ha asociado con Irán en otro tipo de negocios ilícitos. De esta manera, nadie se anima a avanzar de manera concluyente a sabiendas de que muchos secretos pueden salir a la luz en medio de una embestida de "carácter transitivo".
Es la hipocresía de este mundo, donde algunos países poseen privilegios que otros jamás soñarían y donde a ciertos Estados se les permite involucrarse en negocios incompatibles con la más mínima ética.
En ese mismo contexto, he visto esta semana los comentarios más imbéciles y las discusiones más infructuosas respecto a la responsabilidad de la "colectividad judía" en lo que sucede. De la misma manera, he podido leer con vergüenza ajena cómo se ha confundido la palabra "judío" con "israelí".
No puede culparse a una colectividad entera por la locura desatada por un grupo de delincuentes que eventualmente ocupan el poder de un país de Medio Oriente. Tampoco puede culparse a aquellos ciudadanos que viven en Israel y que condenan lo que su país hace contra el Líbano.
Pude ver hace unos días un debate en un programa de cable donde un ciudadano judío criticaba lo hecho por Israel y trataba de ponerse de acuerdo con sus interlocutores. Jamás lo logró y sólo consiguió que lo acusaran como si hubiera sido el responsable de dar la orden de invadir el Líbano. Obviamente, tenía el lamentable estigma de ser judío. Sus mismas palabras en boca de cualquier cristiano hubieran sido brillantes, no lo dudo. Su argumentación fue excelente y clarificó detalles de la locura asesina de quienes invaden ahora el Líbano. Pero no dejaba de ser judío.
Solemos generalizar en nuestros conceptos y eso nos llena de prejuicios. Creemos que los judíos son ventajeros, que los gallegos son idiotas y los gitanos son mentirosos. Lo más graciosos es que todo lo vemos desde un supuesto pedestal de excelencia humana. Eso no nos permite entender la real magnitud de las cosas y nos hace cometer errores al analizar situaciones como las que suceden hoy en Medio Oriente.
Condenemos con todas nuestras fuerzas al gobierno israelí y hagamos campaña contra el terrorismo que ellos ejercen contra sus vecinos. Critiquemos el apoyo de EEUU a esta locura y denunciemos la inacción de algunos poderosos países de nuestro planeta.

Pero no inventemos chivos expiatorios que son tan víctimas como nosotros de la locura de un grupo de delincuentes poderosos que ocupan temporalmente el gobierno de un país.

Cómo decías hace poco en "la verdad es la verdad la diga Agamenón o su porquero" la actuación de Israel en el Líbano es un acto de lesa humanidad condenable, como también lo es cualquier acto que se salte las leyes a la torera y acabe con vidas humanas, sea Israel, o Hezbola, o los mismísimos EEUU a los que, dicho sea de paso, les ha venido muy bien la actuación de Israel, absolutamente acorde con los planes de Bush y su eje del mal. Y no entro en más análisis, pero sí subrayo lo dicho por Felipe.

Hola Gatopardo.

Siento mucho que no sea pacifista, pues yo quiero serlo en todo aspecto, menos con mis palabras. Por eso, antes que mi silencio, que es mucho peor, prefiero escribir poemas malos que se me ocurran de un tirón, sin preocuparme de Elio Antonio de Nebrija, porque como dijo Bertolt Brecht: qué tiempos éstos en que hablar sobre árboles es casi un crimen pues supone callar sobre tantas alevosías. Cierto que se puede hablar sobre árboles de una manera gramaticalmente correcta, pero a veces conviene, en un mundo ilógico, irse por la tangente.
Gracias por sus comentarios, de los que aprenderé mucho, sin duda. Pero creo que ese poema malo puede hacer que corra un pequeño escalofrío sobre una sola persona (con eso ya me daré por satisfecho). Sí, ya sé que es malo, pero confío en que sabran leer lo que hay debajo del poema, la diana en Líbano, y no sólo la forma, la gramática o el análisis sintáctico.

Hezbollah ha dejado de ser una fuerza exclusivamente chiita.
La cultura, el desarrollo y el medio urbanita han conseguido que Hezbollah, el más importante movimiento islámico, deje de ser exclusivo de una facción religiosa.
Hezbollah dispone de armas y dinero pero nadie sabe de seguro que éste sea iraní, y en caso de serlo, dispondrían de armas mucho más poderosas.
Hoy día, los cohetes que dispara Hezbollah contra Israel se pueden fabricar en cualquier instituto español con los ingredientes apropiados. Y si hay necesidad y hambre, los ingredientes aparecen.
No es necesario el apoyo de un Estado rico y poderoso como el iraní para fabricar dichos cohetes, como tampoco es necesario demasiado dinero para adquirir el último modelo de Kalashnikov, muy eficaz, por cierto. Tanto que se le pueden añadir algunos componentes para convertirlo en un lanzador de pequeños misiles anti-tanque.
La guerra está servida y su final ya no es tan seguro.
O mejor, yo creo vislumbrar el final pero no me atrevo a expresarlo.

Los campos de cultivo de opio en el valle de La Bekaa han existido siempre y han dado alimento a sus cosecheros, campesinos a los que la guerra ni les va ni les viene, cuya clientela procede de Bosnia y aledaños, con el consentimiento de la Unión y la cobertura de valijas diplomáticas.
Siria e Irán tienen otros medios de subsistencia. Los más inteligentes han sido los iranís, que han utilizado el dinero del petróleo para crear una industria y una economía independiente de él.
Tal vez ahí reside el temor. Irán no es Iraq, ni Pakistán, ni Síria. Irán es algo mucho más grande, complejo e interesante.
Y ahora no me preguntes de donde saco alguna información.
Como puedes imaginar, me la quedo para mí.

Un fuerte abrazo.

EL ATAQUE

...Cuando estén secas las pilas de todos los timbres que vos apretás, buscando un pecho fraterno para morir abrazao...
Santos Discépolo: Yira

Algo se ha quedado atascado en su garganta, baja hasta el esternón, y se queda ahí como un puñetazo sostenido, mientras el corazón golpetea irregular. La sensación de estarse muriendo y la de quererse morir se entrelazan. La oscuridad dilata sus ojos despavoridos, cegados de terror. Tendrá que respirar hondo, pero aún no puede, se ha quedado encogida, tapada bajo las mantas, en silencio, y trata de volver al instante anterior al desastre, cuando ni siquiera sabía que era feliz, antes de lo irremediable.
Un suspiro hondo le devuelve la respiración sincopada, y acuden los sollozos, como estertores de agonía. Está sola. A oscuras. Nadie la escucha. Su congoja arranca lamentos como si arrancara esparadrapos adheridos a una quemadura en carne viva.
Encienden la luz de la mesita de noche: han acudido aún adormilados. Y susurran como un mantra:
-Tranquila, tranquila, tranquila...
Y no sabe si es alivio o es la tristeza de saberse escuchada, lo que rompe el dique de un llanto entrecortado.
-Tranquila, tranquila, tranquila...
El ritual de la esponja, los escalofríos, la ropa áspera, agotan poco a poco sus lágrimas.
Sus ojos cuajados de miedo se dirigen a su cama. Se debate para no quedar otra vez atrapada entre aquellos barrotes.
-¿Quieres dormir con nosotros?
-La pediatra dice que se tiene que acostumbrar a dormir sola.
-Bueno, tiene tres años, va a tener toda la vida para acostumbrarse...
-Eso es verdad...
Y se duerme en sus brazos, a salvo de los monstruos horribles que atacan y mojan a los niños dormidos. Y cuando sea vieja, sabrá que las veces que fue abrazada y protegida son los que le ha dado la fuerza para enfrentarse a todos los monstruos.

CUMPLEAÑOS

Una mujer antigua como la noche, en la noche dijo:
"Nadie te ha de salvar, nadie escuchará tu grito. El viento dispersará el rebaño de nubes y palabras, la frágil fortaleza que con esfuerzo alzaste en estos treinta años de tu vida.

Todavía no sabes lo que es quedarse solo, definitivamente solo, quebrados los espejos, olvidados los nombres con que llenaste el mundo.
La cárcel feliz de la costumbre, tardes de lluvia en la ciudad ausente, el muchacho imprevisto que recoge el cetro que otro, anónimo, le entrega, la música cautiva entre las páginas de algunos raros libros, las calles maternales... Qué poco le pediste a la vida. Y ese poco te ha de faltar un día. No lo has tenido nunca.
Sigues en una celda de castigo donde no llega el sol, con los ojos cerrados, perro que busca terco una rendija entre los lisos muros, ave que deja el arca y que no encuentra árbol en que posarse, solitaria mañana de diciembre...
Tú eres
la celda, eres el carcelero de un criminal sin rostro de un puñado de arena en las manos del sueño

Me gustaría saber qué crítica haría José Luis García Martín a un poema como este. Vamos a ver, ¿quién es la señora que dice esas cosas en la noche? La conciencia, seguro, pero si es la conciencia está muy mal enseñada por poner ese topicazo de "rebaño de nubes". Parece que el tipo, treinteañero, está en una cárcel, y se le advierte que no sabe lo que es estar solo. Yo creo que el que está en una cárcel sí lo sabe. Luego se añade que el pobre tipo le pidió poco a la vida, pero que aun ese poco no lo ha conseguido. Lo que se contradice con eso "de carcel feliz de la costumbre, las calles maternales, la música cautiva de los libros" Algo tuvo antes de entrar en chirona, pues con tanto empeño lo recuerda ¿no? Al final se aclara algo la cosa. El sujeto es su propia cárcel y su carcelero, o sea otra vez la conciencia. Y todo ha sido un sueño. ¡A la cárcel, José Luis, hasta que aprendas a escribir poemas!

Don Antonio García Muñoz: de mi ya larga experiencia he sacado pocas enseñanzas, que se pueden resumir en dos:
1) Algo tienen los García que les hacen repelerse.
2) Algo tienen los Antonios que los hace chinchorreros con quienes muestren no seguir la senda trazada por El Cultural.
Mi adorado Antonio: si quiere saber cómo hace una crítica el Señor García Martín, lea y aprenda: Copio:
"Forever Cuca"
Ni más ni menos ridícula y tan respetable como cualquier otra historia de amor es la vivida por Pere Gimferrer en los últimos años. Pero él no ha querido reducirla al ámbito privado. Con pormenorizada minucia nos la ha contado a todos, y no en los programas de cotilleo de la televisión, que es donde tendría su sitio, sino en las páginas de los suplementos literarios. Esas llamativas confidencias le servían para promocionar sus dos más recientes libros: Interludio azul y Amor en vilo, ambos publicados por Seix Barral. Amor en vilo -el título ya fue utilizado por Salinas y Alberti, como se señala en la nota final- es un conjunto de 151 poemas escritos en castellano con métrica clásica (se insiste especialmente en el soneto) y factura neomodernista. Cuarenta poemas, escritos entre 1963 y 1969, le bastaron a Gimferrer para hacerse un lugar en la historia de la poesía española. Era entonces un poeta joven de exigente autocrítica que no confundía el desahogo sentimental con la literatura, el mero ejercicio retórico con la poesía.

Empaña la notable muestra de virtuosismo que es Amor en vilo -sólo Alberti, Gerardo Diego o quizá García Nieto pueden hacerle competencia- una absoluta carencia de sentido del ridículo. Basten dos ejemplos. Así dice el primer serventesio del soneto alejandrino «Request»: «Quiero para mis labios esta piel de gladiolo, / quiero para mis brazos este cuerpo de luz, / si desnuda no vienes, que me llamen Pocholo, / si desnuda no vienes a mis labios en cruz».

Pocholo repitiendo una y otra vez el nombre de Cuca, su recuperada primera novia, es Gimferrer en este libro, un Pocholo académico que abusa tanto de las referencias culturales como de la trivialidad y el ripio: «Por Cuca yo he vivido y viviré, / es la cítara Cuca quien me pulsa; / las llamas petrolíferas de Tulsa / brillan igual que resplandeceré».

Con absoluta seriedad se escriben estos poemas de amor, aunque a veces nos cueste creerlo: «Como vivías en Nueva York / (o tal vez en Addis Abeba) / zarpó tu velero de Cork / y no arará en el mar tu esteva, / pues en tu túnica ya nieva / (sesenta y ocho en el Stork / Club de Tuset) la rubia breva / del tiempo de aquel sol de York». Toda exégesis en este caso eludo (¡esa breva que nieva sobre una túnica!), aunque quizás el soneto eneasílabo que comienza con tales versos se salve como ejemplo de nonsense.

Interludio azul -escrito en dos semanas- es la crónica del nuevo enamoramiento. Tras la muerte de María Rosa Caminals, con quien estuvo casado más de treinta años («luminoso sentido final de todo», la llama en la dedicatoria de su poesía completa en catalán), Gimferrer se reencuentra con una antigua novia, Cuca de Cominges, y la pasión reaparece. El poeta no nos ahorra ninguna minucia: «Llamo a C. a su casa por la noche; primero, comunica; luego, se pone al teléfono, resulta estar sola y hablamos durante una hora y cincuenta minutos». Ni siquiera elude referirse a los amores lésbicos de ella ni a su primer marido ni a su segundo marido, el actual. Tampoco evita las confidencias propias, hasta ahora cuidadosamente evitadas. «Dedícate a los señores, que también son una buena opción», le dice Cuca cuando aún no ha decidido ceder a sus requerimientos. Y Gimferrer responde: «Eso me interesó en mi adolescencia, estuvieron a punto de expulsarme del colegio, me queda demasiado lejos ya» (más adelante se definirá como «un gay al que le gustan las mujeres»).
La confesión autobiográfica de Interludio azul se lee con más gusto, quizá su brevedad ayuda a ello, que la inacabable reiteración retórica de Amor en vilo. «El arsenal poderosísimo de la memoria» no abandona a Gimferrer, como él mismo declara, «ni siquiera en este período de insomnio, de fatiga y de extremo decaimiento físico». Las referencias culturales son así continuas: sólo en el primer párrafo nos encontramos con Death in Venice, El año pasado en Marienbad, un verso de Rubén Darío («¡Y es cruel y eterna su risa de oro!»), el acorazado «Potemkin», la poesía Tang traducida al italiano por M. Benedikter, Macbeth de Verdi, las novelas de Ricardo León, dos cuadros de Tàpies y uno de Canaletto, un poema de Gil de Biedma, otro de Machado, la visión hitchcockiana del hueco de una escalera, the pursuit of happiness de Washington y Jefferson, palabra de Heráclito y de Nietzsche... Pero a pesar de toda esa «fermosa cobertura» enciclopédica (y de sugestivas metáforas de ambiente, muy característicamente suyas, como la inicial: «En la campana de luz dorada y blanca de esta tarde de invierno»), Gimferrer no consigue convertir la anécdota privada de su enamoramiento en una obra literaria de valor general. Por un lado van sus confidencias (cuenta cosas que no suelen contarse después de cumplidos los 16 años) y por otro sus prodigiosas dotes de escritor, que en estos dos libros quedan como flotando en el vacío, cuando no se convierten -es lo que ocurre con buena parte de los poemas de Amor en vilo- en involuntaria caricatura."

Doña Gato, que no se entera. ¿A estas alturas del partido voy a tener que decirle lo que es un culo y lo que son lás témporas? ¿Yo critico un poema que efectivamente me parece de poco fuste y usted me escupe una crítica sobre un libro que no viene al caso? ¿No hubiera sido mejor usar todo ese arsenal para defender el poema en cuestión, si es que merece defensa alguna? Usted lo que quiere es que le tire de los pelos pero no, esta vez no. Le diré que los juicios sobre poesía de su querido José Luis -quien por cierto escribió en El Cultural antes de pasarse al ABC- me parecen inapelables, pero no así los poemas suyos que he tenido ocasión de leer. De Pocholo mejor no hablar pues me produce tanta grima como a usted. Y ya me explicará lo que quiere decir chinchorrero,

Don Antonio, precisamente a mi edad, cuando tantas cosas se olvidan, sería útil que usted me demostrara lo que es un culo, en contraposición con las témporas, que esas ya las conozco.
Usted no ha criticado un poema, sino que ha hecho una interpretación muy imaginativa declarando que cuando el autor dice que es una mujer antigua la que habla, "seguro" que es la conciencia; dictamina usted, fiándose de la foto del condenado a muerte -todos lo somos- que la conciencia habla con un preso, y sigue usted haciendo unas interpretaciones que ni siquiera serían legítimas si usted tuviera delante un cuadro abstracto o escuchara un recital de música dodecafónica.
No le consiento que me atribuya como querido a Don José Luis, que tiene cara de estar casado con una señora poco amiga de chuflas, y si no, fíjese bien en su retrato.
Publicamente y en privado, vamos a silenciar la parte de mis afectos pecaminiosos, si no le importa, porque yo no lo declaro a usted Pocholo intonso de Javier Marías, me aguanto ganas.
Como usted se preguntaba qué crítica haría José Luis García Martín, he querido ponerle la muestra, que sé que ha disfrutado, aunque disimule, y vea que para eso hay que leer sin dejarse llevar por las asociaciones libres de ideas, y ceñirse a lo que dice el autor.
Y en vez de gastarse el dinero en pleitos contra mí, cómprese usted el diccionario de uso de María Moliner (no malgaste en el de la RAE) y yo le explicaré el significado de otras palabras que le den algo de color a sus mejillas.Y añadiría:

"Tu estudiada frialdad, tu cortesía son cortina de humo para tapar el humo.
sangras, deliras, ardes, e imaginas que nadie lo adivina, amigo mío.

El resplandor de un fuego tan secreto a las altas ventanas de tus ojos un instante se asoma, y es el sol apagado candil frente a esa llama.

Habla, pues, confiesa tu delito;
pide piedad, pide correspondencia, antes de que se incendie el universo.

Tu corazón es un peligro público:
declárate,
o avisa a los bomberos."

¡Viva García Martín!

LA VERDAD ES LA VERDAD, DÍGALA AGAMENÓN O SU PORQUERO

Juan de Mairena: La verdad es la verdad, dígala Agamenón o su porquero.
Agamenón:-Conforme.
El porquero: -No me convence.
Antonio Machado: Juan de Mairena.

La lucha contra el enemigo que ataque a mi patria y a mis compatriotas, civiles inocentes que no están en combate, es una obligación moral. Defenderlos, y exterminar al enemigo, sea civil o militar, está éticamente justificado.

Agamenón: Conforme con la primera parte. Pero asesinar civiles, aunque pertenezcan a un país enemigo, es un crimen de guerra, y deberá ser juzgado por el Tribunal de la Haya, como delito de lesa humanidad.

Hezbolá, Al Qaeda: Conforme con exterminarlos; pero cuando lo hacen mis enemigos contra nuestro pueblo es un crimen que clama venganza.

Israel: De acuerdo con que tenemos derecho a defendernos; pero cuando lo hacen mis enemigos es terrorismo.

EE UU: O.K. Cuando nosotros somos los invasores es una guerra de liberación, y si se defienden y nos atacan es terrorismo.

Inglaterra: No estoy de acuerdo con atacar civiles, pero por si acaso son terroristas y llevan bombas, hay que matarlos; cuando eso lo hacen mis enemigos es terrorismo.

A ver si podemos ponernos de acuerdo con una propuesta distinta: Nadie está legitimado para luchar contra el enemigo que ataque a mi patria y a mis compatriotas, cíviles inocentes que no están en combate, y no es una obligación moral defenderlos. Y exterminar al enemigo, sea civil o militar, no estará éticamente justificado.

Hezbolá, Al Qaeda, Israel, EE UU, Inglaterra: No nos convence. Cuando nos ataquen a nosotros, sí estará justificado defendernos, incluso matando civiles desarmados.

Ni sí ni no, sino todo lo contrario: O todos son terroristas o todos son patriotas o ninguno lo es. Lo diga Agamenón o su porquero...

La verdad sería la verdad, lo diga quien lo diga, si llegásemos a ponernos de acuerdo en qué es la verdad. Lo malo es que lo que para ti es la verdad, no suele ser lo mismo que para el de enfrente, o el de al lado. O hay muchas verdades relativas, que se solapan; ni siquiera el objetivo de la cámara es objetivo, Gatopardo. Lo malo de todo este asunto, por lo que nunca llegará a aclararse, es que la bestialidad que se vive ahí al lado en estos días nadie la vive desde el mismo mirador. Somos un poco necios y ponemos nuestos juicios priorísticos delante de nuestro corazón, nuestras opiniones previas precediendo a la razón. Esa tontería de "defiendo mis ideas aunque sean malas, porque son mías", que queda muy bien en las canciones, es una desgracia, en realidad, para el pensamiento.
Te juro que haré un esfuerzo por descubrir cuál es la verdad.

Un abrazo.

Cuando mi padre me contaba su infancia, su guerra, su posguerra, yo lo escuchaba aliviado, sabiendo que el mundo había mejorado muchísimo y que yo tenía la suerte de no haber vivido todo aquello.

Pero ahora veo a mis hijos ver la televisión y me doy cuenta de que nada ha cambiado en treinta o cuarenta años, la misma guerra, las mismas víctimas, los mismos agresores, la misma pasividad de la "comunidad internacional", los mismos intereses bastardos detrás de los agresores...

Y no sé cómo explicárselo a mis hijos. no sé qué excusa darles, cómo decirles, que en treinta años no hemos podido plantar cara al imperialismo yanqui y detener esa masacre lenta, pero imparable, del pueblo palestino.

Moisés: una de las premisas de la civilización es que el damnificado, la víctima, está deslegitimada para hacer justicia, y sólo los tribunales están legitimados para impartirla: es la única forma de que la justicia no se convierta en venganza, en el ojo por ojo, diente por diente, en el linchamiento.
Es comprensible el resentimiento, el odio de las víctimas, su deseo vindicativo, pero una sociedad civilizada no puede tomar su odio y su rencor como base ni premisa para impartir justicia.
Carlos: Líbano, hace treinta años era la Suiza de oriente medio, y nadie me puede convencer de que la revancha asesina de los paranoicos en el poder, al mando de los ejercitos, no puedan convertirnos en blanco de su venganza.
Wolffo: las leyes en tiempo de paz y en tiempo de guerra pueden gustarnos o no, pero hay que acatarlas, y hay países que se saltan el derecho internacional impunemente, y eso representa el fin de la civilización. Y esa es una verdad que deberíamos defender con cualquier ideología que profesemos. Si no estamos de acuerdo en eso, nos convertimos en tribus salvajes de genocidas, como se ha podido comprobar a lo largo de la historia.
Un abrazo a todos.

Detrás del reflejo: esa es la diferencia: nosotros escuchamos a personas concretas, y vimos en sus ojos el horror, y la tragedia no era una pantallita que retrataba durante unos instantes la muerte y la destrucción, para pasar sin solución de continuidad a un pase de modelos anoréxicas o los despropósitos de los "famosos", las aglomeraciones del tráfico... Mirar cara a cara, a los ojos, a quien ha sufrido la mutilación de su humanidad nos transforma y modifica profundamente: ver como parte de nuestro ocio, pasivamente, las escenas de crueldad nos inmuniza para sentir piedad. Y lo que es peor: para reflexionar.
Podrías haber empezado por no inmunizar a tus hijos con una televisión omnipresente y alienante.

Lo malo de que un conflicto se alargue es que siempre hay gente que necesita pocas excusas para sacar el demonio que llevan dentro. Tras el caracoleo incesante de escaramuzas, réplicas y contrarréplicas, llega un momento en que no está del todo claro quién es el bueno y quién es el malo.

A las víctimas es más fácil reconocerlas: suelen ser aquellos a los que, en realidad, no les importa por lo que se lucha y serían perfectamente felices viviendo tranquilos ¡tranquilos! sin más aspiraciones.

No creo alguien llore en la Casa Blanca (y, por extensión, demás foros de poder) por los niños que pierden los brazos, tras una detonación. De algún modo, están inmunizados y entrenados para ver sólo cifras, que pueen ser favorables o no. Desconozco si esto ocurre por necedad natural o por imperativo no escrito, para ejercer un cargo de poder.

Parece que la historia se repite en Líbano. En algunos momentos históricos que vivió el Imperio Romano. Beirut nos recuerda algo triste y similar que como cuentan los historiadores, mientras Roma estaba bajo sus ordenes en llamas, el famoso imperador Nerón... mientras, contemplaba el desastre desde su bacón emborrachando en euforia, cantaba y cantaba. De momento los grandes de este mundo hablan y ríen mientras Beirut está en llamas.Sin decir más.

ENRIQUE SANTOS DISCÉPOLO: ESTA NOCHE ME EMBORRACHO

Para escuchar cantado por Carlos Gardel, clicad aquí

Letra:

Sola, fané, descangayada, la vi esta madrugada
salir de un cabaret;
flaca, dos cuartas de cogote
y una percha en el escote bajo la nuez;
chueca, vestida de pebeta, teñida y coqueteando su desnudez...
Parecía un gallo desplumao, mostrando al compadrear
el cuero picoteao...
Yo que sé cuando no aguanto más al verla, así, rajé, pa' no yorar.

¡Y pensar que hace diez años,
fue mi locura!
¡Que llegué hasta la traición por su hermosura!...
Que esto que hoy es un cascajo fue la dulce metedura donde yo perdí el honor;
que chiflao por su belleza le quité el pan a la vieja, me hice ruin y pechador...

Que quedé sin un amigo, que viví de mala fe,
que me tuvo de rodillas, sin moral, hecho un mendigo, cuando se fue.

Nunca soñé que la vería en un "requiscat in pace" tan cruel como el de hoy.
¡Mire, si no es pa' suicidarse que por ese cachivache sea lo que soy!...
Fiera venganza la del tiempo, que le hace ver deshecho lo que uno amó...
Este encuentro me ha hecho tanto mal, que si lo pienso más termino envenenao.
Esta noche me emborracho bien, me mamo, ¡bien mamao!,
pa' no pensar.

LA REALIDAD NO EXISTE, PERO EL MAZO, EN CANTABRIA, SÍ, Y ES HORRIBLE.

Desde hace meses, leo La realidad no existe, la bitácora de Alfredo, un profesor que dosifica impresiones personales, humor, viajes, sucesos extraordinarios, como un eclipse de sol, narrado con la insólita perspectiva de un Equipo de Etapa, que preve las graves consecuencias de una explosión de reclamaciones de los padres y de las autoridades educativas.
Después de leer tantas bitácoras de gente que no dice nada, pero lo hace prolija y descuidadamente o sin salirse de su críptica egolatría, encontrar La realidad no existe es una lección de lo que tendría que ser una bitácora personal bien escrita, que enriquece a los lectores, y que os recomiendo.
De nada. Ya sabéis que me gusta ser útil.
Con permiso de Alfredo, reproduzco el relato de un viaje de fin de curso:

EL MAZO, UN TIMAZO

"Arbeit match frei" : el trabajo os hará libres. Así rezaba el rótulo que coronaba la entrada a Auschwitz.
Ya intuí algo raro cuando, al llegar al idílico paraje cántabro donde pensábamos solazarnos durante los cinco días que dura nuestro viaje de fin de curso, leí "Campo de vacaciones El Mazo". ¿Campo de...? Nunca se me hubiese ocurrido ese complemento del nombre para "campo".
Ese pálpito inicial se vio confirmado al poco de llegar. Los chicos fueron concentrados en un local sucio y destartalado para escuchar las normas que regían en el Campo. Bea, de Beatriz (bautizada enseguida como la sargento de hierro o la teniente O'Neil), fue la encargada de explicarles que se desayunaba a tal hora, se cenaba a tal otra, que si no salía agua de las duchas comprobasen los grifos, que no se fumaba en las cabañas, que tal y tal y tal, todo entre continuos "¿vale?". Vamos a ver, jefa de monitores, Bea, de Beatriz...los chicos se acaban de meter entre pecho y espalda 700 kilómetros de autocar, seguramente han dormido poco y mal, es lunes, es el viaje de fin de curso y vienen a divertirse, son 60, están sentados en el suelo, no te conocen de nada, tu manera de dirigirte a ellos oscila entre soy untenientedelaguardiacivilquetengomuymalaleche y miraquéingeniosamesientoamímisma... ¿qué quieres que pase? Pues nada, que de modo instantáneo les caíste fatal, te perdieron el respeto (no el miedo, que lo dabas) y ya empezaron a contrapelo. Y, lamentablemente, todo fue a peor.
De los comentarios iniciales de "¿a esta tía qué le pasa?" pasamos sin solución de continuidad a "¿¿¿qué es esto???". Copiaré textualmente lo que escribí en la hoja de reclamación que entregamos al director del Campo el último día:
"Habitabilidad de las cabañas muy limitada. Son habitáculos de unos 16 m2 en los que se encajan 4 literas dobles. El espacio que queda libre es de unos 6 m2, y aquí han de caber 8 chicos de 16/17 años, 8 maletas, bolsas... No hay armarios de ningún tipo. Sólo hay dos ventanucos como ventilación. Al no haber ningún tipo de servicio higiénico en los barracones, los chicos - con temperaturas de unos 5/6 grados - debían cruzar con una toalla como vestimenta la distancia que separaba las duchas de las cabañas. Las cabañas carecen de calefacción, necesaria para esta época del año, y se pasa frío: sólo cuentan con una manta muy delgadita y un cubrecama. La dirección del Campo nos negó mantas todas las veces que se las pedimos. El tercer día por la tarde nos proporcionaron calefactores que provocaban frecuentes sobrecargas. Las "veladas" que se prometían en la publicidad se limitaron a una hora de juegos el martes, con los 60 chicos encerrados en una sala de aforo insuficiente. El miércoles por la noche había un partido de fútbol de "interés general" y nos fue negada la TV, aduciendo que en la sala no cabían tantos alumnos. Nos vimos obligados a contratar un servicio de TV+cena en un bar. Luego resultó que acabaron poniendo la TV para otros grupos alojados allí."
Esa es la reclamación textual. Pero conviene matizar algunos puntos:

Los barracones (cabañas, habitáculos, chabolas, chozas, chamizos, barracas...) eran de una austeridad que convertían la columna de San Simeón el estilita en un palacete borbónico o un ático marbellí. Todos guardamos en la memoria la imagen de los judíos hacinados en sus literas asomándose para la foto...esa es la imagen. Y no exagero ni un ápice (famélicos y maltratados no están mis chicos, eso no).
Único "mobiliario": 8 cajones de plástico apilados, donde se suponía que los muchachos debían colocar sus pertenencias. ¡Pues sólo faltaban los cajones en medio! ¿Y cómo se extienden 8 cajones en el espacio que quedan entre las literas? ¿Apilados? ¿Y si tengo mis cosas en el 7º cajón, saco los otros? Ese es uno de los misterios físicos que quedarán sin resolver. Hay otros. Menos mal que el sentido común acabó por imponerse y los cajones permanecieron allí tal como estaban al llegar.
Los dos ventanucos impedían la entrada de la luz durante el día. Para vislumbrar alguna cosa se tenía que mantener la puerta abierta. Con el frío que hacía la elección resultaba dramática: o veo o me congelo. (Mi mente no alcanza a imaginar el cúmulo de dilemas que sin duda asaltan al turista aventurero durante el verano: ¿me ahogo de calor? ¿uso zotal como desodorante? ¿hago un reportaje de insectos varios para el National Geographic?)
Los servicios y las duchas ocupaban un recinto central. Para ducharse debían acudir provistos de sus enseres de baño y esperar que hubiese alguna ducha libre y que además brotase agua caliente y procurar que no se te deslizase la toalla, y todo eso corriendo: si te paras, amigo, te congelas.
Toda necesidad fisiológica iba precedida de colas. Éramos más de 200 en el campo. Espectáculo triste por lo tanto e inevitable plaga de restreñimientos.
¿He dicho que hacía frío? Más que eso. Los profesores acompañantes dormíamos en bungalows, pequeñas casitas pareadas, con una estufa y un calefactor y dos mantas cada uno y cubrecamas y yo tuve los pies congelados cada noche. A este respecto, el director del Campo, cuyo nombre ignoro pero que seguramente aparecerá cualquier día de estos galardonado por alguna academia sueca o por Mantas Paduana, se reveló como un físico-químico notable. Cuando le fuimos a pedir mantas nos espetó: "Se ha comprobado (¡¡¡atención, eh, se ha comprobado!!!) que 8 chicos durmiendo en una cabaña con una temperatura exterior que ronda los 0º generan el calor suficiente para dormir calentitos. Eso es que no hacen bien las camas". ¡Genial! ¡Qué espantosos experimentos se habrán llevado a cabo en ese Campo! ¿¿¿Cómo se ha comprobado??? ¿Sobreviven los niños-cobayas? Que se investigue. Quizás sean esos niños con caras de película de Joselito que "sonreían" (¡esas sonrisas forzadas del franquismo!) en unas fotos, coloreadas, de los años 60 con que se "adornaba" la entrada a los comedores (¡y en ellas ya se ven las mismas mantitas!).
Hay que decir en favor de la dirección del Campo que el tercer día se ablandaron - más que nada por las quejas de los profesores acompañantes de todos los colegios y por las llamadas de las agencias - y nos proporcionaron unos útiles calefactores. El director -científico incansable - les explicó, siempre didáctico él, que, si mantenían cerradas puerta y ventanas, conseguirían una temperatura idónea, incluso podría evitarse el vaho que se producía al hablar. ¡Lástima que los calefactores provocaran continuas sobrecargas y se quedaran sin luz! Menos mal - ¿lo veis? todo tiene su explicación - que casi no se notaba, porque la bombillita que por las noches alumbraba el habitáculo no se echaba en falta.
En la propaganda que hace El Mazo se anuncian "veladas". ¿Veladas? ¿Qué son veladas? Dice el diccionario de la RAE: "Concurrencia nocturna a una plaza o paseo público, iluminado con motivo de alguna festividad. Reunión nocturna de varias personas para solazarse de algún modo. Fiesta musical o literaria que se hace por la noche." También aquí la dirección del Campo abrió nuevas vías de investigación, ahora en el terreno de la filología (¡y es que el que sale inquieto no tiene límites y torea con el mismo descaro un teorema que una acepción!). Aportación de la dirección del Campo de vacaciones El Mazo a la semántica contemporánea: "Velada: tras la cena, un ratito en las cabañas y a las 12 a dormir. No más de una hora - en 4 noches - de juegos infantiles y humillantes en los que será obligatorio reírse" (aportación esta última de la monitora Bea, de Beatriz: ¡obligatorio reírse!).

Como la cosa está quedando larga, resumiré en pocas líneas algunas de las observaciones recogidas a vuela pluma:
- Las cabañas eran de madera, sólo de madera. Nadie vio ni un solo extintor en el campamento. (¿Tendría el director alguna teoría sobre esto? ¿Alguna purga planificada? ¿La solución final? Ay, ay, ay, como diría mi amigo Manero).
- Los campos de fútbol de hierba prometidos existían, sí, pero no podían usarse, porque estaban reservados para el verano.
- Se nos puso un chico enfermo y para llevarlo a Laredo (que está a 9 kilómetros) nos tuvieron que mandar un taxi desde Torrelavega (que está a 70). Si llega a ser algo grave....
- Los monitores estaban sojuzgados por la "teniente O'Neil" y la mayoría expresaban a los niños su desacuerdo con las normas y con el trato. Del trato de algunos monitores habría mucho que hablar, pero prefiero no hacerlo, porque nunca me han gustado los textos deprimentes en los que las bajezas humanas salen a flote de manera dolorosa.
- Las comidas darían para una colección de narraciones quevedescas: desde la cocinera rubia que lucía siempre una sonrisa de psicópata que producía pavor hasta la elaboración de las dietas (ejemplo: para cenar, pizza con patatas fritas). Han sido las jornadas gastronómicas de la patata frita.
¿Algo bueno? Claro. Gracias a las experiencias vividas algunos alumnos han propuesto ya títulos de trabajos de investigación para el próximo curso:
- De la cuevas de Altamira a las cabañas de El Mazo: un paso para la Humanidad (no se sabe si hacia delante o hacia atrás).
- De la pintura rupestre a la cabaña de El Mazo: historia de una regresión cultural.
- El trabajo os hará libres, Bea, de Beatriz, no.
- ¿El Mazo existe o es una alucinación? (Ser taxista en Cantabria).
- Centro superior de investigaciones científicas El Mazo: un reducto de saberes ocultos en los valles cántabros.
- El cambio climático ha empezado: glaciación en El Mazo.
- Mazohausen: un reducto del tardofranquismo irredento.
- A Dios rogando y con El Mazo dando.
- Desayunar en Cantabria: el mazopán.
- ¿Cuenta el Gobierno de Cantabria con una Dirección General de Turismo?
Hoy hablaba yo con el de la agencia y me decía que otros grupos también se habían quejado y, sin embargo, algún grupo había pedido volver. Esto último me lo comentaba seguramente para que reconsiderase las reclamaciones que voy a presentar. Pero no me vale. Le he dicho lo que dijo aquel torero: "Hay gente pa tó"

Personalmente yo y yo, además de mí, opinamos, en conjunto, que la egolatría está perfectamente justificada y legitimada, si hablamos de bitácoras personales, que no son otra cosa que diarios, genéricamente. Tú misma dejas, diseminadas, virutas de la tuya cuando, de antenamo, afirmas que te gusta ser útil, dando por hecho que lo estás siendo. Y cuando anticipas, lapidariamente, un "de nada", sentando la irrevocable premisa de que estaremos agradecidos. De que lo estaré.

Pues bien, lo estoy. Gracias por enriquecerme con tu frescura ególatra y gracias por recomendarme la de otros. Miau. :)

P.D.
Resumiendo el texto... no se lo pasaron bien en el campamento. Si es que... en las dificultades es donde se mide el ingenio. El ingenio para sobreponerse y disfrutar.

La vida es bella. Eso sí es una lección. Y aquello sí era Auschwitz.

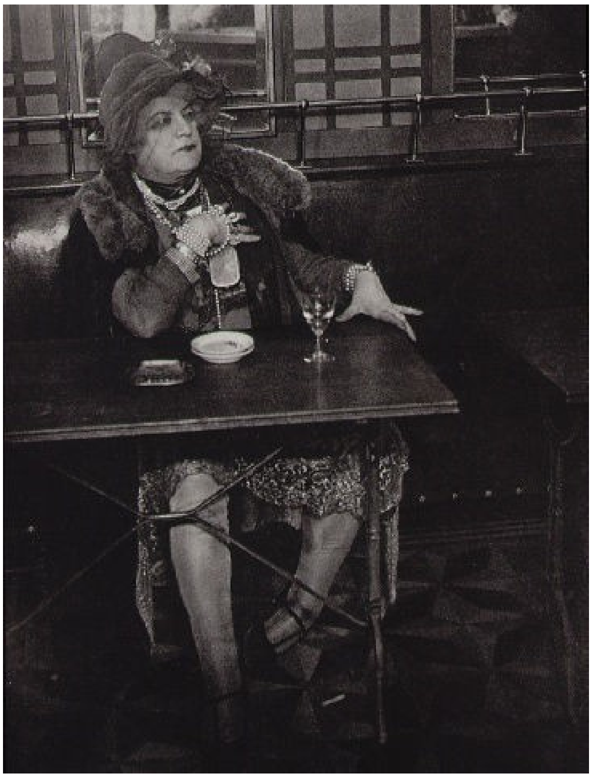
GATOPARDO SECUESTRADO POR UN CRACKER CELOSO



Mis lectores saben que no suelo hablar de cuestiones de mi estricta privacidad, y que jamás escribo sobre mi intimidad y mi vida afectiva; pero cuando Atlantis, al que yo considero un amigo del alma, especula y afirma que mantengo un tórrido idilio con el Papa, basándose en fotos hechas arteramente, y en capturas de pantalla sobre el incidente sufrido en esta bitácora, que ha sido secuestrada durante unas horas por un cracker , y redirigida a otra de dudosa estética, pero de indudable procedencia católica , he de puntualizar:

1- Mis relaciones con el Papa pertenecen a nuestra esfera íntima y no son de la incumbencia de nadie.
2- No ha sido el Papa quien secuestró el sistema informático de blogia.com para redireccionar Gatopardo al Encuentro Mundial de las Familias . El cracker ha sido algún amante del Papa, movido por los celos, quizás, porque creyó que por mi culpa lo habían dejado sin el puesto que ha desempeñado durante años.
3 -No he hablado nunca de los hombres que conozco biblicamente, porque ya se encargan ellos de airearlo. Cualquier información que quieran sobre mi relación con el Papa, ruego se dirijan a él directamente .
4 -No daré exclusivas ni haré ningún otro comunicado sobre esta cuestión.

GREENPEACE. URBANISMO SALVAJE (2) EL LITORAL VALENCIANO

En estos últimos años, la Comunidad Valenciana se ha convertido en el destino de un tipo de turismo masificado, de bajo presupuesto, mientras sigue disminuyendo el turismo de alto poder adquisitivo, por lo que los hoteles han tenido que rebajar precios y categoría hostelera para lograr la ocupación plena. La mayoría de los apartamentos sólo se alquilan durante los meses de verano, creando zonas fantasmáticas durante la mayor parte del año. Las infraestructuras y los servicios públicos están calculados por debajo de las necesidades de una población estable, a la que se suman los turistas en temporada alta.
El turismo de calidad, y los jubilados europeos que buscan un lugar de residencia habitual, hace muchos años que huyeron de las inclemencias de la mala gestión ambiental y la falta de planificación, a lo que se suma la inseguridad de una delincuencia organizada en auge, prácticamente impune, y la falta de recursos y de personal de las fuerzas de seguridad, desbordadas.
Sin embargo, en el litoral de la Comunidad de Valencia se está construyendo como si hubieran previsto que millones de ciudadanos estuvieran ansiosos por residir allí, entusiasmados con un paisaje de ladrillos, con un alcantarillado y un servicio de saneamiento decimonónicos, y con unos servicos públicos incalificables. O como si hubiera prisa por blanquear mucho dinero negro y tuvieramos los servicios de inspección de Hacienda más benévolos de Europa con los especuladores e inversores con fortunas de origen dudoso. El crimen organizado no parece encontrarse a disgusto en la zona, pese a la interesante iniciativa que consiste en enviar tandas de policías y de guardias civiles, recién salidos de la Academia, para que aprendan los rudimentos de la lucha contra el delito durante los meses de mayor afluencia de turistas, sin conocer el terreno ni permanecer el tiempo suficiente para llegar a hacerlo.
El informe de Transparencia Internacional sobre España dice:
"El 10 de marzo de 2005, se produjo en Marbella (Málaga) la mayor operación contra el blanqueo de capitales conocida en Europa, con ramificaciones en Estados Unidos y Canadá. La policía española desarticuló una red cuyo centro neurálgico residía en un despacho de abogados de Marbella, donde se canalizaban inversiones millonarias procedentes de grupos relacionados con el crimen organizado. En ese despacho, y con la colaboración de tres notarías, se tejía una maraña de más de mil sociedades cuyos tentáculos acababan en Gibraltar y que invertían preferentemente en el sector inmobiliario de la Costa del Sol, reconocido por los expertos policiales europeos como uno de los centros neurálgicos del crimen organizado.

Para entender esta noticia es preciso saber que, en términos globales, el ámbito donde la corrupción es más elevada en España es el del nivel local de gobierno. En estos gobiernos, sobre todo en los situados en la costa –el caso de Marbella es internacionalmente conocido- o en las inmediaciones de las grandes ciudades, la calificación del suelo urbano es el origen de los mayores casos de corrupción. España es el país de la OCDE donde el precio de la vivienda ha subido más en los últimos años. Diversos informes, entre ellos el del Defensor del Pueblo, advierten de este foco de corrupción permanente. En ese informe se indica que los convenios consisten "en que el titular de unos terrenos se compromete a llevar a cabo determinadas cesiones de los mismos, independientemente de aquellas a las que los propietarios de los terrenos están obligados por ley o, incluso pagos en metálico a favor de la Administración urbanística, para el caso de que se apruebe o modifique por parte de dicha administración un plan con unas determinaciones concretas (clasificaciones, usos, intensidades...) sobre terrenos especificados en el convenio". Estas posibilidades y prácticas están generando situaciones de corrupción muy numerosas." (Fin de la cita) hace un par de años pasé por la autopista al lado de Benidorm. Me quedé acojonado viendo cómo ese hotel que es un rascacielos enorme se ve desde tan lejos. Me pregunto: cuando se haya descongelado los polos, el nivel del mar haya subido un metro, no haya playas, ¿qué va a ser de aquello? Una preciosa ciudad fantasma... será el Belchite del desarrollismo español.

Hay especulación urbanística, la famosa burbuja inmobiaria. Los ayuntamientos viven de los aprovechamientos urbanísticos y entra mucho dinero a las arcas municipales. Conozco un ex concejal de un municipio asturiano que me confesó haber recibido una cierta cantidad de dinero por este motivo y que sus compañeros de partido depositaban lo que recibían en una cuenta bancaria para la financiación del partido. Creo que nadie lo explica pero tiene que haber gente que se está forrando con la construcción de tantas viviendas. Aquí en Asturias, concretamente en Llanes, se han destruido campings para construir miles de chalés y viviendas adosadas. Con seguridad que, al igual que en Valencia, tiene que haber grandes intereses económicos y políticos ocultos. Es una verdadera vergüenza.

Apreciado Gatopardo, ante todo darte las gracias por leerme y escribirme y pedirte disculpas por no haber contestado a tu pregunta en El Mazo. Por supuesto que sí a todo. Yo, por mi parte, te enlazo si no te molesta.
Sobre el urbanismo salvaje de las costas habría mucho de que hablar. Que se le llame "urbanismo" ya tiene gracia. Cuando yo era pequeñito se estudiaba en los colegios algo que a lo que llamaban "Urbanidad" y, a pesar de tener una raíz semejante, no recuerdo que tuviese nada que ver con eso, sino todo lo contrario, o sea que propongo el nombre de desurbanismo. Recuerdo - y es que ya me hago viejo, sí, aunque el fenómeno es de tal magnitud celérica que hasta los más jóvenes lo perciben - muchas playas maravillosas de nuestro Mediterráneo convertidas en un cúmulo de rascacielos entre los que pasean ingleses borrachos y jubilados alucinados (¿será el Nolotil, el Diazepan, el Tranxilium...o el cubata de garrafón que le han endilgado por un par de euros?), cuando no se ha optado por una colección de ostentosas edificaciones ("ostentóreas", decía Gil, el ideólogo) que se constituyen en monumentos de la horterez y la fatuidad. Qué espanto. Yo fui hace unos 25 años a la playa del Saler. El tío de mi ex era el párroco de allí. La playa tenía un encanto semi-rural, se podía ir de pueblo en pueblo comiendo raciones de allipebre (¿se escribe así?) en pequeños bares en los que los lugareños se protegían del sol bajo techados de caña, por las calles las gentes se detenían a hablar con el señor rector y le invitaban a una paella con naturalidad... Me temo que ese mundo se fue. Es la maldición de las playas. En el pueblo de mi madre, que es de la Galicia interior, aún se respira algo de esa aroma, aunque es cierto que ya han cambiado muchas cosas, de todos modos pienso que los rascacielos, los chiringuitos y los viajeros nórdicos y del imserso aún tardarán varias décadas en aparecer por aquellos lares. Y me alegro.
Lo dicho, un abrazo.

El nuevo monstruo mundial es la "especulación urbanística". Y los apostolitos de la progresía dan saltos de alegría cada vez que se demuestra que un constructor no tiene las cuentas demasiado claras. De verdad, Gatopardo, repasa este post y luego tú solita, mírate al espejo y dile a tu reflejo, sin que nadie te oiga, lo que, intelectualmente, te parece. Me hace mucha gracia esto de Greenpeace, de verdad, Gatopardo, no entiendo que una mente fresca como la tuya, tan poco dada a creerse las cosas porque sí, se crea esta falacia. Parece que un informe de Greenpeace es ley, cuando son mentirosos profesionales, un grupo de presión vulgar que tiene que seguir viviendo del cuento. ¿Te das cuenta de que más de la mitad de las cosas que has puesto ahí como "pruebas" de corrupción no lo son en absoluto? ¿Depuración insuficiente? ¿Golf? ¿Es que es malo? Seamos serios. Los informes de Greenpeace tienen el mismo rigor científico o estadístico, siendo generosos, que "El Código Da Vinci".

Vieja, se te están ablandando las neuronas.

"¿Te das cuenta de que más de la mitad de las cosas que has puesto ahí como "pruebas" de corrupción no lo son en absoluto? ¿Depuración insuficiente? ¿Golf? ¿Es que es malo?"
Wolffo de mis amores: Sí, es malo no depurar las aguas residuales, porque son vertidos infecciosos y tóxicos que van a los ríos, y de donde extraen el agua las potabilizadoras, y resulta que hay un estudio de la Asociación de Consumidores, que llevaron muestras del agua del grifo de unos cientos de municipios, y la mayoría tiene componentes tóxicos de alto riesgo para la salud. Tú no te acuerdas, porque eres muy joven, de que tanto los restos de metales pesados como la falta de depuración de las aguas residuales enfermaba a la mayoría de la población, y es cosa bien sabida que pasar de unas expectativas de vida de cincuenta años a los más de setenta actuales es gracias a estas medidas de salud pública, cariñete.
Respecto a poner tantos campos de golf como se quieran, y tantas piscinas particulares como nos pete, sin tener en cuenta prioridades en el consumo de agua para beber y regar los campos, no es que sea malo, es que es criminal.
Y si te crees que así te va a invitar Rajoy o Trillo a sus fincas con piscina y campo de golf, mientras los huertanos no pueden regar, estás equivocado: dirán que idiotas como tú hay muchos y a todos no los pueden mimar ¿y además para qué? A quien y le darían maletines con dinero sería a mi. Fastidiate.

Acercarse a la Cala Ferrís, en la playa de los Náufragos de Torrevieja, puede provocar picores, mucosidades, toses y hasta dermatitis. Los vecinos del barrio de San Roque sospechan que las aguas fecales que llegan al mar por la insuficiente capacidad de la depuradora son la causa de sus dolencias. Para enfermar no hace falta bañarse, basta con aproximarse a las aguas contaminadas. Por la noche cierran las ventanas porque prefieren el calor al hedor de los vertidos. "Es insoportable", se quejó ayer Otilia Hernández, una de las afectadas. El problema se repite desde hace seis veranos, "pero ahora es más alarmante" porque llevan "ocho días seguidos aguantándolo", advirtió Pedro Martínez. El pasado fin de semana, su hijo mayor lo visitó con su familia. Al cabo de unas horas, notaron picores en la garganta y los ojos. "No paraban de toser y de llorar. En cuanto salieron de vuelta a Murcia, se pusieron bien", dijo.

EU ya denunció el caso en 2002. El entonces consejero de Medio Ambiente, Fernando Modrego, situó el "presumible" origen del vertido en "una conexión sin autorización de la tubería de aguas residuales de Torrevieja a un colector de aguas de drenaje que desemboca en el Mediterráneo". Ayer, los Verdes denunciaron la "utilización ilegal y fraudulenta del emisario" utilizado por la Comunidad de Regantes de la margen derecha del Segura "para abocar" aguas sobrantes al mar. Verdes, EU y PSPV emplazaron al Ayuntamiento, del PP, a actuar.

Fuentes municipales culparon a la Confederación Hidrográfica del Segura (CHS), que construyó el colector a finales de los 90. El comisario de Aguas de la CHS, Manuel Aldeguer, replicó que la tubería es de los regantes, "pero no se les puede culpar de que alguien la haya conectado al alcantarillado o la depuradora". El empalme es "consentido" por el Consistorio y debe sancionarlo el Consell.

Un dia un pariente que vive en uno de esos lugares paradisiacos que quedan en España, en vista de que me deshacia en elogios y cientos de fotos, me dijo: Bueno sobrino tu ven y disfruta lo que quieras y haz fotos y estate lo que quieras, pero por favor; no lo digas en Madríd, por lo que más quieras, que si no esto se llena.

Entre todas estas cosas que dice el post y que no pongo en duda, lo que más me molesta, por vivir en una zona de sequía, es tanto campo de golf. No entiendo como en un país como España que si nadie lo remedia(que no lo remediaran) se irá desertizando poco a poco, a todos estos especuladores les haya dado por hacer un campo de golf cada, aunque exagerando, cien metros...
Y lo de las depuradoras, al leer el informe he pensado que ha de ser el mismo quien se embolse la pasta de las depuradoras inesistentes, porque es que en la mayoria de ciudades que citas, brillan por su ausencia. Pobre planeta, nos estamos luciendo, menuda herencia vamos a dejar...

GREENPEACE. URBANISMO SALVAJE (1) EL LITORAL ANDALUZ

Gracias a El Diario Impertinente, entro en una página de Greenpeace en la que se señalan los puntos negros de la costa española. Han hecho un resúmen de urgencia y solicitan a los lectores que informen de otros atentados contra la costa que no estén registrados.

Informe de Greenpeace sobre el estado del litoral español .
Principales cifras recopiladas este año en el informe sobre España:
1.479.000 nuevas viviendas;
303 nuevos campos de golf;
102 casos de corrupción urbanística investigados o sentencias contrarias a la urbanización;
116 nuevos puertos deportivos o ampliaciones de éstos, con capacidad para 42.337 embarcaciones;
99 localidades con vertidos contaminantes en su litoral.
Cooperar con Greenpeace , y ayudar a defender nuestro patrimonio natural, equivale a desmontar todas esas operaciones urbanísticas que llevan la degradación y la corrupción a los municipios afectados: porque no habrá mayor riqueza, salvo para los constructores, los especuladores, los prevaricadores, y los que blanquean dinero negro.
El informe Transparencia Internacional dice: "El problema de fondo no está en las actuaciones corruptas de actores individuales, sino en la corrupción institucionalizada vinculada a la obtención ilícita de fondos para los partidos. Éste es el principal cáncer y en el que el nuevo Gobierno deberá demostrar voluntad moralizadora", y añade:
1. Prácticamente todos los alcaldes están a favor de convenios urbanísticos como forma de conseguir ingresos.
2. La modificación de los planes es frecuente. En los últimos cuatro años, sólo en Mallorca, los distintos municipios han modificado en 227 ocasiones sus planes urbanísticos.
3. La vigilancia sobre construcciones ilegales y desviaciones del proyecto es poco intensa.

4. Las sanciones suelen consistir en multas y casi nunca en demoliciones.
5. En España hay una enorme cantidad de dinero negro que se refugia naturalmente en la construcción. Normalmente, un tercio del precio de la vivienda se paga con dinero opaco, con lo que las pérdidas para Hacienda son muy cuantiosas.
6. Se ha permitido el acaparamiento de suelo en manos privadas para generar una aparente escasez del mismo y la consiguiente subida de precios.
7. Se ha expropiado a particulares para ceder posteriormente a empresas con fines sociales, las cuales, con el suelo en su poder, lo han vendido después a precios astronómicos.
8. Se ha extendido la creación, por parte de constructores, de partidos ficticios que se presentan a elecciones locales para conseguir la concejalía de urbanismo y desde ella tomar decisiones que les favorezcan; en otras ocasiones se infiltran en los partidos tradicionales para conseguir esos mismos objetivos.
9. La corrupción urbanística se expande y no respeta institución alguna, así, donde dicha corrupción es muy importante, los juzgados han sufrido las consecuencias, siendo el caso de Marbella el más famoso.
El informe recuerda que, en España, no se ha regulado aún la financiación de los partidos políticos. Y por lo tanto, hasta que se solucione "será normal que sigan surgiendo escándalos sobre sobornos y extorsiones en las obras públicas".

Parece que enriquecerse a través del uso de información privilegiada, aún a costa de cargarse el entorno, se ha convertido en práctica habitual y consentida por el silencio de los ciudadanos.
En el levante ocurre lo mismo, donde vivo, hace meses que el alcalde anda en el ojo del huracán de la fiscalía anticorrupción. La prensa ha sido amenazada por el propio alcalde, y si eres ciudadano de a pie, más vale hablar de pollos y gallinas. Mientras tanto el ecosistema natural perece.

La foto inicial es una belleza.Mi querida Gata que te puedo decir de México, aqui está contaminado hasta el proceso electoral. En las costas la urbanización es indiscriminada con la variante de que se hacen desarrollos de lujo e inmediatamente se establecen cinturones de miseria alrrededor, en apariencia los desarrollos de lujo "cuidan el ambiente" no vertiendo aguas directamente al mar,etc.pero en los cinturones de miseria se vierten las aguas negras y jabonosas adonde pueden, tiran la basura directo al mar, etc. Acapulco tiene niveles de contaminación en sus aguas impresionantes y si a nadie le importa el planeta.

Un abrazo.

Nada que añadir a la excelente muestra de datos que corroboro y compruebo son más que ciertos, tal vez un poco por lo bajo están las cantidades. El olor nauseabundo de las aguas marinas (a las que no podemos lanzarnos) son la clara prueba de la toxicidad que desemboca en el mar. El polvo que respiro cada día, el que está suspendido en el aire, es la prueba veraz del trabajo infatigable y devorador de las excavadoras. Los baches eternamente desmembrados de las carreteras, y la falta de transporte público es la prueba patente de la falta de respeto de las autoridades corruptelarias con los trabajadores (que no los residentes millonarios) que tienen que sufrir estas y otras infraestructuras tercermundistas. La falta de cultura por doquier en la costa, exceptuando la cultura del saber mentir y engañar. La saliva que ves descender de los ávaros caseros que pretenden alquilar un cuchitril de papel y leche en polvo a precio de palacio arabesco...En fin ya estoy poniéndome roja de ira. Un abrazo.

LOS FANTASMAS DE FRIKER JIMÉNEZ EN EL CÍRCULO ESCÉPTICO

Ser escéptico es tan apasionante como ser espeleólogo, montañero, corresponsal del National Geographic, astrónomo, detective de novela negra o investigador científico.
A continuación, reproduzco un fragmento de la sección "Documentos" de Círculo Escéptico, que investiga las afirmaciones publicadas por Iker Jiménez, en "Camposanto", sobre las figuras de tres niñas fantasmales en una fotografía de un cementerio.

Las niñas gigantes

Como anécdota menor, desde que vi las fotos del camposanto jimenezero por primera vez, me pareció que las niñas eran, por así decirlo, gigantescas, cosa quizás paranormal, usted decida. Quizá estaba yo confiando demasiado en mis ojos y las muchas fotos que han visto.
Cuando vi las fotos de Carmen Porter situada en el lugar donde supuestamente estaban las niñas, la situación parecía aún más incorrecta. Si comparamos la estatura de Carmen Porter con la de las niñas (ajustando ambas fotos al mismo tamaño usando como base las tumbas), éstas eran, cuando menos, tan altas como ella, y al menos 50% más anchas. Vaya, no es que fueran niñas altas (por ejemplo, los fantasmas de un equipo de baloncesto femenil infantil), sino que eran gigantas. A ojo de buen cubero y sin pretensión científica alguna, cada niña pesaría cuando menos 120 kilos. A menos que las niñas estuvieran mucho más cerca de la cámara respecto de la tapia, claro, y se vieran grandes por cuestiones simples de perspectiva.
Lástima que, según la versión oficial, eso era imposible porque Jiménez destaca que las niñas se ven detrás de una cruz de hierro. O sea que más cerca no podían estar. Entonces eran gigantes.
Las fotos publicadas en el sitio de comercio electrónico de Íker Jiménez de su visita al pueblo misterioso no servían realmente para una comparación más o menos aceptable, porque la longitud focal era la incorrecta, el fotógrafo se puso donde le dio la gana y el encuadre no se parecía ni un poco al original.

Pasando frío en Ávila
Sin chaleco cruzamos así, Marta y yo, la provincia de Ávila, pasando por hermosos paisajes escarchados, entre dehesas de reses bravas y cotos de caza, hasta llegar al pueblo misterioso. Íbamos a Málaga, a otros menesteres, pero aprovechamos el viaje. Previamente habíamos hablado con el alcalde de la localidad, que nos dijo que nadie en el pueblo le daba ninguna importancia a este asunto, que no se hablaba de él y que el cementerio no tenía más historias que cualquier otro cementerio de pueblo pequeñísimo, pero que por supuesto podíamos ir a tomarle fotos al cementerio y a lo que nos diera la gana. Cuando le señalamos que su pueblo podría acabar siendo el Bélmez del siglo XXI para satisfacer las ansias de notoriedad y dinero de algunas personas, sí mostró alguna señal de alarma.
Llegamos tarde al pueblo misterioso. El ayuntamiento ya estaba cerrado, y el alcalde no era localizable hasta las 6 de la tarde, así que nos tomamos algunos cafés y hablamos de fantasmas alrededor de los locales, quienes no prestaron demasiada atención. El pueblo está casi desierto, así que fuimos a visitar el cementerio.

Como han observado otros, el cementerio está a unos 50 metros de la carretera, exactamente donde hay una gasolinera y, junto a ella, una casa habitada, como lo muestra esta foto. Al otro lado, pegado a la tapia del cementerio, hay un almacén de materiales de construcción cuyos trabajadores no parecían tampoco demasiado impresionados. El sitio está bastante poblado. La puerta del cementerio, que Íker nos muestra en tenebrosa foto nocturna, está atrancada con dos ramas. Entramos, encontramos el sitio de las apariciones etéreas, calculamos una focal que se acercara razonablemente a la usada en la foto original, ajustamos la posición en lo posible (evidentemente el fotógrafo original es más alto que Marta y que yo) y me fui hacia la tapia, donde dice Íker que estaba Carmen porque allí estaban las niñas recortadas de una foto antigua. Marta tomó la foto y era evidente que yo me veía demasiado pequeño y difuso pese a la alta resolución de la cámara Canon 10D, 6,2 megapíxeles), ni rastro de las expresiones faciales que se les ven a las niñas pese a la extrapolación, la compresión y demás operaciones para injertarlas en la foto.

Lo difícil ahora era comparar mi foto con la de las niñas sin usar ésta, con tantas amenazas sobre las cabezas de los "investigadores" como hay, al menos hasta que ikerjimenez.com no me mande los originales de cámara.
Mi solución fue dibujar un croquis de la foto de las etéreas y falsas fantasmas.

En rojo, las niñas.

El resto, lo pueden leer clicando en este enlace: Círculo Escéptico, que les recomiendo.
De nada, ya saben que me gusta ser útil.

Tengo que confesar, aún a riesgo de involuntariamente sugerir que mi profesión podría añadirse a tan atractivo listado, que me ha resultado absolutamente apasionante trabajar como funcionario.

Y añado que me congratula, en verdad me alegra saber que un espeleólogo desconocido o un detective cualquiera también pueden llegar a disfrutar de sus obligaciones.

¡Un olé os brindo! ¡Sois de los míos! (esto iría dirigido a ellos).

Siempre en contra de algo que es inexplicable.¿Y si el fotomontaje lo habeis hecho ustedes modificando las cosas?Mira yo puedo hablar perfectamente de fantasmas.Para empezar conozco gente que ha tenido apariciones y gente que me lo creo,por que es verdad.Y tambien que me lo digan ami que estes durmiendo en la cama y de repente tengas la presencia de alguien sabiendo que no hay nadie en la habitacion y notas que hay algo rondando por tu habitacion y sentir una sensacion desagradable y uno no estaba soñando,estaba despierto.Ami que dejen de cuentos los escepticos.Por que conoci a una persona muy esceptica y en su casa pasaban cosas muy extrañas.Como escuchar que alguien tiraba de la sisterna,escuchar la voz de una mujer decirle muchacho y ver una sobra de una mujer pasar por delante de su puerta del cuarto que tiene un cristal.Meter un gato en la habitacion y salir despavorido...¿Suficiente?

Que poco saben la gente de aqui,para empezar la gente le envian fotos,con supuestos fantasmas o figuras extrañas en las fotos.La mayoria son montajes o algun fallo en la camara que refleja la cara de la propia persona,difuminada.Solo he visto algunos casos en las que el investigador de fotografias tanto como iker y carmen porter analizan las fotos y ven si es fraude o no.Ademas ellos mismos sacan las conclusiones y con las tecnicas que hay hoy en dia entre que es facil de hacer fotos trucadas algunas son realmente espectaculares.Lo que pasa que como iker tiene tanto exito que me alegro,por que es un gran investigador y tiene un gran grupo de personas que hacen lo posible que tanto en la radio como en la television tenga exito.Bravo por iker

MI FAMILIA

Si en mi familia alguien hubiera tenido alguna responsabilidad en idear este atentado estético contra una rosa blanca, desohojándola para tirar los pétalos al paso de cualquiera, dejaríamos de hablarle, de mirarle, de escucharle y de considerarlo no solamente de la familia, sino de la raza humana, hasta la cuarta generación.

A cualquiera que, compartiendo nuestros genes, se le hubiera ocurrido componer, cantar o grabar esta especie de balidos de oveja agónica , ya sea inspirándose en los Salmos de David o en las coplas de Mingo Revulgo, lo habríamos borrado del libro de familia, y si, arrepentido, se hubiera cortado las orejas y la lengua, para llegar implorando perdón, le cerraríamos virtuosamente la puerta en las narices y negaríamos conocerlo.

Si alguno de los descendientes de mi tatarabuelo, en vez de cortarse las manos y echárselas a los cerdos, hubiera pintado arteramente esta atrocidad anatómica y pictórica, todas las mujeres de la familia negarían haberlo parido, y los hombres, negarían haberlo engendrado, y todos afirmaríamos no haberlo visto crecer entre nosotros. Y si, llegado el caso, dependiera de nuestro perdón su vida, lo dejaríamos morir sin una lágrima y sin luto en el corazón.

Cuadro de Kiko Argüello, del Camino Neocatecumenal

Si alguien que hubiera recibido en el seno de mi familia amor, sustento, caricias y sonrisas, dijera: "La familia es patrimonio de la humanidad ", o se le hubiera ocurrido idear:"15 minutos antes que aterrice el Papa saldrá desde ese mismo punto un pelotón ciclista con los colores del vaticano que irá recorriendo el camino que hará el Papa anunciando que Benedicto XVI ya ha llegado a Valencia. De esta manera, tod@s nos uniremos simbólicamente a la bienvenida del Papa en el aeropuerto ya que materialmente no cabremos todos allí. En el momento en que pasen los ciclistas por delante de ti es el momento en el que tienes que empezar a hacer la ola, sencillo ¿verdad?." o hubiera diseñado el cartel anunciador del V encuentro Mundial de la Familia, reproducido arriba, sin repajolera duda que habría sido recluído de por vida en un cotolengo o en un frenopático, y le haríamos visitas apresuradas para ver si sigue allí, sin dejarle que se mezclara con el resto, en un supremo acto de caridad hacia nuestros semejantes .

Y es que para transigir con tanto insulto a la belleza y a la inteligencia hay que ser católicos.

Por mi parte, he de decir que ni siquiera un adorno tan desafortunado como el que abofetea los pétalos de ese botón acierta a deslucir su compostura. No obstante, me hago eco (creo) de tu indignación: yo tampoco consentiría que nadie se atreviera, en mi presencia, a segar la vida de una rosa, cortándola.

El cartel de la Anunciación familiar me encanta, aunque esté mal reconocerlo: no han podido encontrar mejor manera de retratarse a sí mismos que vendiéndose, lastimeramente, en una especie de calendario. Y lo bien que quedaría colgadito, en la cocina. Lástima la grasa que se le iría añadiendo, con el paso del tiempo...

Con tu estricto permiso y anticipando mis disculpas por la extensión, dejaré un comentario encontrado en un foro de internet, en el que el autor realiza la siguiente e interesantísima "síntesis" informativa:

"EL SANTO Y LA LIMOSNA"

"Uno de los secretos de la pervivencia milenaria de la Iglesia católica tiene raíces lingüísticas: la Curia sabe latín, y con eso está dicho todo. Sin embargo, su sabiduría va más allá del quid quid latine dictum sit, altum videtur –cualquier cosa dicha en latín suena inteligente- y tiene que ver con el conocimiento íntimo de las cosas. Es lo que permite a monseñor Blázquez afirmar que la sociedad española está “apagada y moribunda” por haber reaccionado con indiferencia al matrimonio gay y al divorcio express, y lo que lleva al cardenal Rouco a pedir que se rece a destajo por España y por su unidad. En estas condiciones ha llegado Benedicto XVI, se supone que para evitar aquello de abyssus abyssum vocat in voce, porque es evidente que un pecado llama a otro pecado y porque ahora, al parecer, sobra público para justificar aquella frase atribuida a Jesús de “no he venido a llamar a los justos sino a los pecadores”, o si se prefiere el latinajo: Non enim veni vocare iustos sed peccatores.

Ha venido el Papa a encontrarse con las familias y, de paso, abroncar a Zapatero, que es un completo paganus, un peligrosísimo infiel capaz de poner patas arriba el orden establecido, incluido ese enojoso asunto de la autofinanciación de la Iglesia que sus eminencias llevan toreando desde 1982. Para tema tan prosaico como el de los fondos la Iglesia tiene siempre presente a Vespasiano, que tras imponer un tributo por el uso de las letrinas públicas pidió a su hijo que oliera el dinero. Pecunia non olet, cuentan que exclamó Tito, su vástago. “Pues es producto de la orina”, contestó el emperador. Dicho en cristiano, Zapatero es un demonio, pero sigue llenando el cepillo.

No es por tanto casualidad que, pese a haber destruido “toda la jurisprudencia natural sobre el matrimonio” y haber causado “un gran daño a la sociedad”, Blázquez crea que entre la Iglesia y el Gobierno la situación “ha mejorado” y emplace a que el diálogo se traduzca “en decisiones concretas”. Y que dicho emplazamiento haya coincidido con la actitud del PSOE de reabrir el debate sobre la financiación para denunciar que pagani somos todos y que no es posible mantener por más tiempo un trato de favor inconstitucional de 144 millones de euros al año. Lo decía Cicerón: Nihil tam munitum quod non expugnari pecunia possit. En definitiva, que no hay puerta que no se abra con dinero ni fortaleza que no se conquiste con metal tan vil.

Si se trata de aportar lux et veritatis, conviene explicar que la Iglesia ha incumplido sistemáticamente todos los plazos que tenían que conducir a su autofinanciación completa. Lo que debió haber sido un período transitorio de tres años de dotación presupuestaria directa a contar desde 1980 se prolongó durante nueve. En 1988 se empezó aplicar una fórmula mixta, que incluía dotación directa y asignación tributaria. Fue cuando se implantó la famosa cruz de la declaración de la renta, ese 0,5339%, que no sólo no alcanzó nunca las cantidades previstas sino que ha registrado una tendencia decreciente. Según lo previsto inicialmente, el Estado debía concluir sus desembolsos en 1992, pero ha seguido complementando año tras año las aportaciones directas de los fieles, triturando de paso principios constitucionales como la libertad religiosa, la neutralidad del Estado y la separación entre Iglesia y Estado, así como los de igualdad y no discriminación. De ser por los prelados el modelo continuaría ad calendas graecas, que era la manera chistosa que los romanos tenían de decir aquello de in saecula saeculorum.

Ni era ni es cuestión de molestar a Su Santidad con estas menudencias –Aquila non capit muscas-, pero los datos son testarudos. En un Estado aconfesional, laico según la doctrina imperante en el Tribunal Constitucional desde 2001, los españoles pagamos religiosamente los sueldos de más de 33.000 profesores de religión católica, frente a los 100 de religión evangélica y 20 de religión islámica que reciben un trato semejante. Ni un solo profesor de religión judía percibe su sueldo del Estado. Los sacerdotes católicos son los únicos autorizados a prestar sus servicios espirituales en las Fuerzas Armadas, en los hospitales y en las prisiones, y gozan del beneficio de estar acogidos al régimen de la Seguridad Social. Por lo visto, ventis secundis, tene cursu. El viento favorable se mantiene.

Conste que lo que está en discusión no es la obra social de la Iglesia, que tiene asegurados sus cauces financieros y que presta servicios impagables, sino la antigua retribución de culto y clero, que es aquella partida con la que se abona el sueldo de los obispos, se sufraga la acción pastoral, se sostiene la Universidad Pontificia y se arrima el hombro a los gastos de la COPE. En la secretaría de Política Municipal y Libertades Públicas del PSOE, dirigida por Álvaro Cuesta, han hecho los cálculos: bastaría con que al menos un 20% de los 35 millones de españoles que se declaran católicos aportara 16,36 euros al año. Peccata minuta.

La experiencia muestra que sus eminentísimas han conseguido alzarse siempre con el santo y la limosna. Diabole virtus in lumbas est. A nadie habría de extrañar pues que con esas grandes movilizaciones de los últimos meses contra los impíos socialistas, nuestro sabio Episcopado haya querido astutamente ponerse la venda antes que la herida, de forma que el Gobierno se lo pensara dos veces antes de cortar el grifo de los dineros públicos para evitar ser acusados de perseguir con saña a los católicos.

Sin embargo, los tiempos del Tratado de Tordesillas, aquellos en los que el Pontífice podía imponer su santa voluntad con un simple aserto –Roma locuta est, causa finita est- han pasado. Si Roma nunca ha pagado traidores, va siendo hora de que dejemos de pagar a Roma contraviniendo nuestras propias leyes. La Iglesia sabe latín, pero los gentiles vamos aprendiendo el idioma. Dura lex, sed lex. Pues eso."

Amigos: veo que la estética eclesial con dulzura de sacarina logra sacar el Robespierre que lleváis dentro.
Pues ahora me toca llevaros la contraria, gracias a Monocamy, que ha colocado un texto que está muy bien argumentado y bien desarrollado, (y sería justo que pusieras el enlace al Foro donde lo has leído, y al autor, que se ha trabajado la argumentación con tanta gracia)y ahí voy:
Si se estipulara la financiación de la Iglesia mediante el óbolo de sus fieles, y, a cambio, el clero y los miembros de las ordenes religiosas, y los de las organizaciones católicas dejaran de cumplir con el trabajo social no remunerado que hacen, si se tuviera que establecer una relación contractual equitativa por el trabajo que realizan, teniendo en cuenta lo que cobra un fontanero, se vería que subvencionar a la Iglesia es un buen negocio para el Estado. Y hay zonas marginales en las que los únicos servicios sociales son los de la iglesia.

Y, por supuesto, que quede claro que el trabajo y la función de la Jerarquía es meramente ornamental y suntuaria, y cumplen una función de meros intermediarios que se quedan con una parte importante del presupuesto sin contraprestación social.
Eso no quita para que opine que los católicos tienen un gusto estético y artístico como para mandarlos al destierro.

CARTA AL PAPA.
Querido hermano Benedicto XVI:

Ante tu próxima visita a nuestro país y más concretamente a Valencia, para presidir el Encuentro Mundial de la Familia, todo han sido conjeturas. Todos (porque tú no dejas indiferente a nadie por el puesto que ocupas) nos hemos preguntado cómo sería ese encuentro, qué nos iba a aportar y de qué forma.

El tiempo ha ido transcurriendo y las formas se han ido concretando. Todavía no conocemos qué nos vas a transmitir con respecto a la familia, pero sí nos han llegado a través de los medios de comunicación algunas noticias preocupantes sobre los gastos que va a ocasionar el acontecimiento.

Al parecer, vas a celebrar la Eucaristía sobre un "macro-altar" (con su microclima y todo) situado bajo una cruz luminosa de 35 metros, que van a costar 600.000 euros. A ello se sumará la edificación de un apartamento de 180 metros cuadrados en el Palacio Arzobispal y la construcción de un gran número de habitaciones en el antiguo seminario de Moncada para acoger a los numerosos obispos invitados. Son datos que han sembrado inquietud y desasosiego en buena parte de la Iglesia española.

Quizá tú no tengas información de todo esto, pero somos muchos los cristianos que creemos que, como Vicario de Cristo y máximo representante de la Iglesia Católica, deberías pedir a las autoridades españolas y valencianas más sencillez en todos estos preparativos.

En nuestro país hay muchas personas que no entienden cómo la Iglesia de Jesús se rodea de semejante pompa y boato, en lugar de imitar la humildad de Aquél que eligió vivir y morir entre los pobres y los débiles de este mundo. Esto provoca en muchas personas de buena voluntad sentimientos de incomprensión y rechazo que, sin ninguna duda, compartimos.

Creemos, con todo respeto, que la Iglesia Institucional necesita urgentemente dar un vuelco a los signos externos, desprenderse de esa imagen fastuosa que ha ido adoptando con los siglos y solidarizarse con un mundo que sangra por los cuatro costados. Sólo así podrá ofrecer un testimonio creíble a favor de una Humanidad que sufre bajo el peso del hambre, la miseria, el SIDA, la esclavitud, las guerras y tantas otras lacras que encarnan en nuestro tiempo la imagen viva de la Cruz de Cristo.

Vienes a un país que forma parte del llamado Primer Mundo, pero no por ello deja de haber en él muchos problemas acuciantes de inmigración, pobreza, precariedad laboral y conflictividad social. A estos males se añade una creciente indiferencia religiosa que va aumentando paulatinamente año tras año. De ello somos culpables, en buena medida, muchos de los que nos llamamos cristianos, por la escasa coherencia con que vivimos nuestra vocación evangélica.

Desearíamos que en tu visita nos ayudases a ser más sencillos y humildes (esto no creemos que sea posible con tanta parafernalia); que enviases mensajes liberadores (lo que más le gustaba a Jesús de Nazaret era "arrancar cruces" del tipo que fuesen) y, tratándose de un encuentro de familias, que dieses prioridad a todas aquellas que se encuentran destrozadas por la enfermedad, el vacío, la crispación, la violencia, la miseria y la desesperanza.

Nos gustaría que renunciases a veredictos moralizantes, que tanto separan a las personas, y elevases tu voz en defensa de la vida y la dignidad de los seres humanos, especialmente de los más débiles, de los últimos, de los excluidos.

También nos gustaría que enviases un mensaje alegre y esperanzado, que acoja a toda la gran familia humana, sin imponer un modelo excluyente y exclusivo de familia que no reconoce y deja fuera otras uniones familiares. Estamos convencidos de que el Espíritu también bendice a las familias formadas por divorciados y por parejas homosexuales, porque en ellas puede vivirse el Amor con la misma fuerza e intensidad que en las uniones canónicas.

En definitiva, quisiéramos que lo Evangélico estuviese por encima de lo "religioso" y lo "eclesiástico".

Tu mensaje es importante para el mundo y como cristianos desearíamos que con él impulsaras el espíritu del Concilio Vaticano II, que inundó la Iglesia de una luz nueva.

Afectuosamente,

María José Crende Corbeira

QUE SE SEPA:

1. Hace más de un año el Gobierno de España, para intentar disminuir la gran deuda de la Seguridad Social, repartió entre las Autonomías una enorme cantidad de millones de euros. La Comunidad Valenciana, una vez recibido esos fondos, decidió que con ellos podía hacer "lo que estimara más urgente", no dio ni un céntimo a la Sanidad y consideró prioritario los preparativos para la Visita del Papa a Valencia y la celebración de la Copa de América. El resultado es que en Valencia, si a uno le sacan sangre, no pueden entregarle después una tirita, porque no hay dinero para ese derroche, mientras que se han invertido millones en preparativos de celebraciones, la primera la del Papa.

2. Para que el Papa duerma una noche en Valencia se ha construido, dentro del Palacio Arzobispal, una suite de estancias lujosamente adornadas que han costado una fortuna y que sólo van a servir para una vez. Al mismo tiempo se han construido estancias para todos los obispos, dicen que en número de 85, que van a acompañar al Papa.

3. Como preparativos de seguridad se ha decidido que las líneas de metro que pasan justamente por debajo del itinerario del Santo Padre sean cerradas y vigiladas después de un profundo examen por colocación de hipotéticas bombas. Es mucha casualidad que al día siguiente de la primera inspección haya habido un accidente que ha causado 42 muertos.

4. Durante la estancia papal serán desactivadas las antenas repetidoras de los teléfonos móviles, para minimizar atentados, no colapsar las líneas y facilitar comunicaciones, dejando a medio millón de usuarios son cobertura.

5. En todo el Centro de Valencia, y en las cercanías del recorrido triunfal, la policía, copiando a la policía norteamericana de Bush, ha visitado casa por casa pidiendo a los vecinos que hagan de espías y que comuniquen inmediatamente si han observado a alguna persona desconocida que haya alquilado recientemente pisos, por la sospecha de que pudieran ser terroristas que preparasen un atentado.

6. Como se calculan para los días próximos unas temperaturas de 40 grados se han acondicionado, en todos los lugares en los que el Papa descienda de su papamóvil, sofisticados sistemas ocultos que crean miniclimas para rebajar la temperatura a unos 24 grados, con un coste aún no comunicado.

7. Dada la descomunal aglomeración de gente que está prevista, y la ingesta abundantísima de líquidos, se van a proporcionar al público gratuitamente las botellas de agua que precisen, como medida muy previsora. Curiosamente, en los hospitales de Valencia, si un enfermo desea beber ha de comprarse la botella de agua en los expendedores de los pasillos a precio de un euro.

8. Valencia se ha inundado de decenas de miles de urinarios-cagaderos que bordean las avenidas de mayor aglomeración de gente. El terrible calor, y la fealdad de dichas cabinas, dan una nota maloliente a la ciudad desde hace semanas, pero la pregunta es cuánto ha costado importar esos artilugios y qué va a hacerse después con ellos.

9. Para hacer una misa con 3.000 concelebrantes se ha levantado un gran túmulo con un altar de 2.500 metros cuadrados en el espacio del antiguo río, convertido desde la Democracia en lugar de esparcimiento y paseo, pero con la gravedad de que para realizar tal obra ha sido preciso talar árboles, algunos muy antiguos, que daban sombra a los que corrían practicando deporte o simplemente paseando. También se ha levantado una costosa cruz luminosa de 35 metros de alto que será desmontada en cuestión de horas después de la visita.

10. Los desgraciados vecinos que vivan en el centro, o en calles adyacentes al recorrido papal, tienen ya prohibido aparcar sus coches en dichas calles y han sido invitados a llevarlos a las afueras. Al mismo tiempo, los vecinos propietarios de garajes tendrán prohibido sacarlos al exterior, y no sólo eso, sino que tendrán que demostrar a la policía documentalmente que dichos vehículos les pertenecen.

11. El gasto en jardinería del Ayuntamiento de Valencia, que es famoso por lo costoso (sólo el largo Puente de las Flores, hecho de jardines que se cambian por completo con cada estación del año, ya se lleva cantidades de dinero capaces de hacer rico a los concesionarios) se ha incrementado enormemente al cambiar las flores perecederas de los jardines por compuestos de colores amarillo y blanco, los colores del Vaticano.

12. Como el servicio de taxis y autobuses quedará anulado, los enfermos crónicos que precisan atención ambulatoria en hospitales, por radioterapìa, quimioterapia y otras terapias, están padeciendo una angustia añadida para la que aún no se les ha dado solución.

13. Desde hace casi un mes importantísimos puentes que atraviesan el antiguo cauce del río están cortados al tráfico por exageradas medidas de seguridad, causando un tremendo trastorno a los ciudadanos.

14. El Ayuntamiento ha publicado un bando invitando a la población a que engalane sus balcones con banderas papales o el lema "Valencia te espera". A fecha del día 4 hay poquísimas, y un tercio de colgaduras indican "Jo no t'espere". Con seguridad, en la televisión no saldrá nada de esto.

15. Para mantener el orden durante la visita, o no se sabe para qué, se han retraído de otras ciudades españolas 5.000 policías de uniforme.

16. Como rechazo a toda esta serie de gastos fastuosos, impropios de una religión que en sus orígenes pregonaba la humildad y rechazaba la ostentación, se han producido algunos fenómenos de rebeldía. Por ejemplo, las largas colas, vigiladas por un ejército de municipales, por cierto, que se han formado en puntos donde los ciudadanos que lo deseaban firmaban un documento de apostasía, dirigido a la Iglesia y al Ministerio de Justicia, solicitando ser borrados de la lista de "católicos oficiales", pues por el simple hecho de haber sido bautizados sin su autorización cuando eran niños ahora multitud de españoles aparecen catalogados como católicos en las estadísticas, como por haber comprado una vez en El Corte Inglés aparecen como clientes permanentes y reciben publicidad. Al mismo tiempo, como acto muy pacíficamente agresivo, están proliferando los ciudadanos vestidos con camisetas negras en las que, en letras blancas, se lee la provocadora frase "Rita, ¿el Papa sabe lo tuyo?". Rita es la alcaldesa, conocida por determinadas y muy lícitas tendencias personales.

17. Muchos propietarios de pisos con vistas al recorrido del papamóvil o a los lugares de la misa sí van a ganar muy lícito dinero y todo lo anterior les preocupa muy poco. Son los que están alquilando para unas horas sus balcones o pisos a precio hasta de 18.000 euros, como puede verse en fotos o anuncios publicados ya por la prensa.

QUE SE SEPA. NADA DE ESTO SE VA A DECIR EN TELEVISIÓN NI EN PRENSA, PARA NO MOLESTAR O PARA NO PASAR EL QUE LO DICE POR PERSONA DE IZQUIERDAS, DESAGRADABLE, IMPÍA, MALVADA, ATEA, PERVERTIDORA Y DESAGRADECIDA.

PD. No, no se trataba de un experimento. Ni tampoco de un absurdo intento de falsa modernidad (a estas alturas). Sólo ha sido una debilidad. Y se que ha sido injusto para usted, quizás (seguro) para alguien más, pero ... no lo he podido evitar. Como dice el refrán, “preu per preu, sabates grosses”, o lo que es lo mismo, en este caso, “de perdidos al río”.

El cartel no me deja indiferente, es más, me quita el sueño. Así, al volapié: el talludito de la derecha, ¿es hijo de la pareja feliz?, ¿es hermano de los más pequeños? ¿Qué hizo la pareja feliz en el largo intervalo que medió entra la procreación y crianza del talludito y el resto de la prole?, ¿utilizó la goma que han quemado hace poco en Méjico?, ¿se abstuvo?, ¿votó que no?, ¿Ogino al canto? La niña morenita, ¿es adoptada o fruto de alguna relación extramarital que el esposo fiel supo perdonar? No sé, no sé, el cartel es todo un mundo...

Según mis investigaciones, los septuagenarios son la misma persona antes y después de someterse a una implantación de prótesis (dental, mamaria, etc) y a depilación por láser. El supuesto hijo talludito es el dentista. El trío de abajo está compuesto por la niñera (la de enmedio) y dos niñas que contrata el dentista para explicar ante el de la barba por qué duerme la au pair en su dormitorio.

LEALTADES SUPREMAS

Lo escucha llegar y acude a recibirlo. Pero él ha cerrado la puerta del dormitorio, y habla por teléfono.

— Ya te estoy echando de menos...

— Si me dices eso tendré que ir inmediatamente.

...

— Estás celosa...

...

— Si quieres te demuestro otra vez cuánto te quiero...

Ella permanece escuchando con la cabeza pegada a la puerta. Apenas puede reprimir un gemido.

— Tardo una hora, espérame...

— Pero, mujer, no puedo dejarla así...

...

— Venga, no sea tonta, estaré con ella una hora y...

...

—Son rituales, después de dar un paseo, le gusta cenar conmigo...

...

—Bueno, pues sí, también es un ritual volver a dormir a casa y no dejarla sola.

...

—Te lo he explicado. Es una cuestión de lealtad...

...

—Al cabo de quince años con ella, ¿me pides que la abandone?

...

—No, dímelo, es que no acabo de entenderte.

...

—La dejo tirada, ¿no?

...

—La abandono para que vivamos juntos tú y yo...

Ella llora con un gemido ahogado, pegada a la puerta.

—Pues ya hemos hablado todo lo que teníamos que hablar. Adiós.
...
—No, no te molestes, ya ha quedado claro, desde luego, y no me vuelvas a llamar.

Abre la puerta y la ve temblorosa, con su correa en la boca. La acaricia, y la abraza.

—Vamos, Princesa, vamos a dar un paseo largo, y, a la vuelta, tienes una invitación a cenar tu bote preferido por haberme salvado de otra tía borde. ¡Pues no dice la muy cafre que te abandone para quedarme con ella!
La vieja perra renqueante, lo precede y él la sigue con una sonrisa triste.
—Princesa, deberías adelgazar, y yo debería racionarte la comida... o hacer excursiones contigo, como antes...

Los dos irradian lo más parecido a la armonía que un ser humano es capaz de conocer.

¡Me resulta tan familiar este relato! No a todo el mundo tiene por qué gustarle los animales y lo acepto, pero nadie que me ponga en la disyuntiva de elegir entre mis perras y él/ella, puede llamrse mi amigo/a y menos mi amante.

A veces los malos entendidos producen distancia y la distancia se transforma en hielo, pero no hay hielo que resista el cariño. En mi corazón, siempre te lo he tenido, eso: cariño; y también yo te he deseado y deseo, siempre, lo mejor.

Pero nunca más volveré a escribirte un e-mail. ¡Qué lo sepas! ;-)

Pues fíjese qué diferencia. Pienso que: a cualquier amigo/amiga/amante,vecino, jefe de estación o lo que sea, por el mero hecho de ponerme "ante cualquier DISYUNTIVA" que concierna a mis perros, gatos, cabra, agapurnis, libros, cuadros, pipas, cigarros, loción de afeitado, color de mis corbatas, manías o gustos personales, otros amigos o amigas, etcétera, automáticamente lo inscribo en mi lista de pelmazos laureados que, con la máxima rapidez, mando a tomar horchata a Valencia. Ramiro III, no use la ironía para hacer sonreir a Hannah, porque mediando el humor que no sea el suyo, se suele mosquear, y ya ha visto que Tautina también se ha apuntado a la germánica literalidad: es posible decir lo mismo, pensar lo mismo, y manifestarlo para que los demás lo hayamos entendido perfectamente, y acabar discutiendo como si se estuvieran llevando la contraria y atacando. ¡Así empiezan las guerras!
Dinosaurio, Detrás del reflejo: la verdad es que no inventé, sólo transcribí la historia de uno de mis nietos, que ha tenido que romper con varias novias, como él dice, "a tiempo", y que antepone la lealtad a Princesa, no sólo a sus novias, sino también a la posibilidad de hacer vacaciones sin ella o conseguir un trabajo mejor que le cambiara a la perra sus costumbres.

Así mismo, le agradezco su indicación que pienso seguir atentamente pues, por lo visto, leo mal y escribo peor. Estoy seguro de que sabrá disculparme.

Para Tautina:
Me llama usted pedante y vanidoso. Ay, cuanta razón tiene. Pero se ha quedado corta. No soy vanidoso no, soy muy vanidoso y, sin embargo, también glotón y borrachuzo, menguado de seso y exagerado de panza.
Me pide que guarde para mi mi "pedantería y vanidad" eso...lo siento, no lo puedo hacer, es superior a mis fuerzas. Sería como hacerle caso a mi vecina que le molesta que a las tres de la mañana, mientras nos arreamos un carajillo, mi cabra y yo cantemos a dúo "fiero acero toledano...". Ya me ha denunciado tres veces porque dice que se le caen los cuadros de la pared. Pues qué quiere usted, hay que ser tolerantes, ella es muy guapa, educada y le gusta leer y, sin embargo, yo nunca he protestado ni la he denunciado por eso. Será que también soy un pedazo de pan.

(Yo, erre que erre)

- ¿Qué es el pecado?

- ¿Una quimera?

- Pero... pero la mayoría de las religiones hablan de la pureza del alma, sobre todo siguiendo el camino de la pureza del cuerpo...

- ¿La pureza del cuerpo? hum... ¿un cuerpo deja de ser puro al fornicar... pero no al deponer heces? ¿Un cuerpo deja de ser puro al eyacular aisladamente... y no deja de serlo al vomitar, expulsar gases o generar flema?

- Algunas actividades dejarían un rastro en el alma...

- El alma... Te refieres, supongo, a ese ENTE invisible, eterno e inmortal, intangible, luminoso y puro, inaudible, silencioso y sutil, indetectable, espiritual y divino... Y tratas de decirme, supongo, que tanto tú como yo, mortales, imperfectos, ignorantes, temerosos, primitivos, materiales, limitados, vulnerables, orgánicos... podemos acceder a ella y dañarla, por alguna suerte de superpoder, quizá...

- Pues... yo...

Por el bien de Calderón y del PAN espero que no intenten hacer un fraude...más les vale...porqué sino...bueno no me gusta la violencia y menos las guerras, solo que algunas veces no queda opción, nuestro país México esta al borde de un desastre, a nadie le importó que esto creciera y creciera, siguieron alimentando la hoguera con las campañas sucias en especial del PAN, si la sangre llega al río...dios quiera y no, pero sinceramente habemos muchos que no tenemos nada que perder...hay pueblos en la sierra que solamente estan habitados por ancianos, algunas mujeres y niños, estos últimos nacen solo para emigrar a E.U, por que no hay solución posible mientras existan los caciques, la mayoría de los jueces de la suprema corte son hijos de caciques, así que no hay posibilidad de que un campesino o indígena pueda ganar un juicio o conservar la vida cuando se denuncia las tropelías de estos criminales, vamos, son verdaderos feudos, en lo profundo de la sierra, las niñas son vendidas como esclavas, los traficantes lo hacen bajo el auspicio de los caciques, que generalmente protegen al narco, en las ciudades desde que llegó el PAn, se han disparado la discriminación en los trabajos, en el caso de algunas secretarías de gobierno no hay forma de que alguien no blanco o con apariencia más o menos europea o de otroa "civilizado" consiga un puesto aunque tenga exelentes aptitudes, la iglesia en México en especial en los pueblos, es un cancer que corrompe y doblega a la gente, abuasa de su poder y se alía con los caciques, hay gente que no sabe leer y ni siquiera sabe que forma tiene su país en un mapa, por que no conocen ni eso, los sueldo mínimos son sueldos de miseria, trabajas sin prestación alguna, sin posibilidad de progresar, aquí para hacer algo tienes que meterte a lo malo, a lo ilegal, al agandalle, a la corrupción, aquí no existe premio para los que realmente estudian, sino para los que tienen "palancas", influencias, del que le sirve a uno para robar, "roba que yo te robare", hay represión en muchos casos, los obreros en las fábricas son despedidos sin darles si quiera indemnización, saben que no hay tribunal que pueda con el dinero de un empresario, si te atreves a denunciar públicamente a uno de estos desgraciados, terminan imputandote delitos, te siembran armas drogas, lo que caiga para meterte un buen de años en la cárcel, si te va bien porqué aquí la policía mata antes de averiguar, o simplemente desapareses sin dejar rastro, los ancianos son arrojados a la calle a que se mueran como dicen algunos derechistas aquí: "el caballo viejo, el burro y el anciano al matadero", si las pensiones son de hambre, ahora ni eso tendrán, porqué las empresas te despiden cada cuatro o cinco meses para que no crees derechos, entre ellos la pensión, que futuro te espera si nisiquiera podrás vivir hasta la vejez, pues esperan que te mueras y rápido, nadien consigue aquí trabajo si tienes más de 35 años, terminan vendiendo "fayuca" y contrabando en sus puestos ambulantes, e visto ingenieros, doctores, abogados metidos en el negocio del ambulantaje, no hay trabajo para ellos por ser adultos, no queda otra que migrar aún sabiendo que quizás te maten, y el miedo es grande pero el hambre es más, y si hay una guerra civil...¡que la haya!, haber si ahora pueden vivir con la misma tranquilidad los que saquean y roban a placer.

Por mi parte espero que gané López Obrador, si le hacen fraude y me piden que haga resistencia pues adelante...no tengo nada que perder y por lo menos les haré la vida pesada a los que me la han hecho a mí.

Pues cuando fué usted a conocer a su editora bien que su puso de tiros largos con sombrero, cubiteras de Champagne en la mesa y "El Figaro" para disimular. Mejor dicho para que la recatada Srta. de los calcetines y aspecto intelectual,o sea, Tautina, pensase que usted era una peluquera buscando empleo en el periodico gremial.

Se vista usted como se vista, no le aconsejo aceptar la invitación. Si le dirije a cualquier jerifalte mejicano una mirada como la que empleó para diseccionar a Tautina, nos

PABLO SANTIAGO,

"Las víctimas y la ciudadanía reconocen y agradecen la labor de este reportero oculto, aunque temen, como dijo Luther King, no tanto por las acciones de la gente perversa, sino por los pasmosos silencios de la gente buena".
Esteban Ibarra, "Movimiento Contra la Intolerancia", 23/1/03.

Cualquiera que haya tenido que tratar, conocer y soportar periodistas, termina detestándolos sin contemplaciones. Y sin embargo, si hay una labor digna de admiración es la que desempeñan algunos periodistas, y gracias a ellos sabemos algo sobre la realidad que no buscan ni descubren los servicios de información ni la policía ni los jueces, hasta muchos años después, siguiendo el rastro que ellos descubrieron. Gracias a las investigaciones de Pablo Santiago y su libro "Alicia en el lado oscuro ", conocemos los nuevas sistemas de organización de los pederastas en internet. Su magnífico ensayo abarca y plantea la realidad históricamente, psiquiátricamente, y diferencia las características del pedófilo, que ama platónicamente la infancia, como cualquier tía solterona inocua e inofensiva, y del pederasta, que abusa sexualmente de los niños. Gracias a Gunter Wallraff y sus métodos para encarnar los papeles, que le permiten introducirse en el medio que investiga, sabemos como se explota en Alemania a los inmigrantes, la realidad del periodismo amarillista o la bazofia que suministran las cadenas de hamburgueserías. Gracias a los reportajes del que fue maestro de la crónica de sucesos, Juan Villarín, se pudo saber sobre los crímenes y los criminales del aceite de Redondela y de otros asuntos turbios de la época. Gracias a los reportajes sociales de Eliseo Bayo, en la revista Destino, pudimos saber cuál fue el costo humano del desarrollismo franquista. Gracias a Fernando Múgica sabemos que los servicios de información y sus confidentes, inexplicablemente implicados en la preparación de los atentados del 11-M, embrollaron las pistas, falsearon los datos, y trataron de desviar la investigación del juez instructor. Gracias a Melchor Miralles, Antonio Rubio y Manuel Cerdán, supimos que el grupo terrorista GAL fue creado y financiado por el Estado español. Gracias a Antonio Salas, seudónimo de un periodista de investigación, sabemos los métodos de organización, defensa y ataque de los skins y de los traficantes de mujeres destinadas a la prostitución.
Pablo Santiago fue acusado de liderar la red de pederastas que investigaba. La policía que lo detuvo y lo investigó, y el juez Vázquez Honrubia –el de las sentencias pedagógicas- que lo sentenció, no tuvieron en cuenta los artículos periodísticos por los que acababa de ser premiado, en los que ponía al descubierto la realidad pujante y creciente de la pederastia, ni tampoco su libro Alicia en el lado oscuro, y su abogado, casualmente, no creyó conveniente mencionarlos en su defensa. Casualmente, no creo en las casualidades cuando hay delincuencia internacional y millones de dólares por medio. Cualquiera que haya leído su libro y sus artículos sabe que Pablo Santiago no es un pederasta, sino un periodista riguroso y valiente. Y es obvio que en un sistema corrupto esto lo hace peligroso.

La acusación primera por la que se le detuvo, con gran despliegue mediático, fue la de que era el responsable de una red de pederastia: aquello no había manera de sostenerlo, y por lo que ha sido condenado es porque, para hacerse pasar por uno de ellos, facilitó a los que investigaba fotografías que estaban en Internet al alcance de cualquiera.
Sospecho que quizás estaba a punto de descubrir a algún intocable, y eso desencadenó la acusación infamante, con sentencia judicial y cárcel incluídas. Pablo Santiago tuvo el dudoso honor de ser el primer periodista español a quien se le demostró lo peligroso que es investigar las redes de pederastia, que mueven millones e influencias en muy altas esferas, y su caso tuvo tal efecto disuasorio que no hay ninguno que haya vuelto a investigar el tema. Curioso modo de luchar contra la pornografía infantil y la pederastia.
Ayer, Pablo Santiago ganó el premio a la creatividad "Liberarte", pero no ha podido recogerlo por estar en la cárcel en Galicia. La inepta Mercedes Gallizo, directora de Instituciones Penitenciarias, que estuvo en el jurado y en la entrega de premios en Córdoba, ha dicho en su ausencia que "La literatura da alas y eso es importante para quien se encuentra privado de libertad". Esta servidora del Estado no se ha enterado de que Pablo Santiago se jugó la libertad por buscar la verdad, que es lo que caracteriza a un escritor digno de ese nombre, y porque estuvo a punto de encontrarla.
Leer su bitácora y su libro es la única manera de que su labor de investigación, su búsqueda de la verdad no haya sido en balde.

Pablo Santiago.
(Comoxo, Boiro, 1971) es licenciado en periodismo por la Universidad de Santiago de Compostela. Compaginó sus estudios con colaboraciones en Radio Nacional, La Voz de Galicia, Europa Press y dos gabinetes de prensa de la Xunta de Galicia. En uno de ellos, su misión era atender el correo electrónico del presidente Manuel Fraga. Su pasión por la radio lo llevó a realizar programas variados y satíricos en emisoras alternativas como Radio Calimero y Radio Medellín. También fue "topo" de la revista universitaria 4 Gatos.Defensor a ultranza del periodismo de experimentación de Wallraff, trabaja desde 1999 en un diario de Lugo, en el que consiguió introducir por primera vez una sección estable sobre Internet. Mientras realizaba el presente trabajo de investigación obtuvo dos premios periodísticos. Este ensayo crítico y transgresor es su ópera prima como escritor. (De su curriculum)

Pues esta es una mala manera de acabar con la pederastia. Si a alguien que investiga y se juega su vida y su prestigio profesional por averiguar y dar con la cabeza oculta del entramado se le da este trato, y se le condena de esta manera, otros con menos agallas abandonaran al primer contratiempo y así jamás se acabará con esta infamia. Espero que pronto se clarifique todo, gane la verdad y Pablo pueda obtener la libertad. Porque por mucho que diga la directora de instituciones penitenciarias que “La literatura da alas y eso es importante para quien se encuentra privado de libertad” No se puede jugar con la libertad de un inocente, sea literato,o, el más humilde campesino.

Para realizar una investigación tan complicada acabas estando en el filo, y llega un momento que tienen que tragar con lo que intenta desvelar. Duro a más no poder, y por supuesto no creo que solo de laureles quiera vivir el periodista que realiza un trabajo de este tipo. Es buscar la verdad tan olvidada en los medios, tan maniquea. Sobre un artículo a mi favor Que alguien desde la admiración sincera o desde el simple cariño escriba algo positivo sobre uno es enternecedor. Pero las carnes no se ponen tiernas así como así cuando me meten en una ensalada, cuando menos, discutible. Una ya tiene una coraza lo suficientemente de rinoceronte como para pasar por alto tamaño atropello. El fallo puede que sea mío, pues bebo en otras fuentes.

Me explico: a mí Melchor Miralles me suena, no por el GAL (cuando diga lo que fue el GAL carcelario y quiénes lo formaban, me convencerá), sino por incitar al delito y engañar con una periodista de 21 años a un abogado madrileño. No le han abierto causa, aún hay categorías. Él tiene un grupo detrás, yo soy independiente, un francotirador, no me cubre nadie.

Y a Antonio Salas lo conozco personalmente. Tampoco es santo de mi devoción, aunque visitemos los mismo confesionarios y nos mueva el mismo objetivo.

Todo lo demás son intuiciones -¿intocables? ¿quizás un fiscal, alguien del Arny, un conocido del Duque de Feria, que estaba en mi colección de 200.000 imágenes-, topicazos –millones de dólares, ni uno, nada, cero, miren mi responsabilidad civil, mi sentencia misma- y divagaciones. En lo mío sólo hay esto: incompetencia extrema –de mis tres abogados-; necedad fanática absoluta –del opusdeista Jesús Santos Alonso, fiscal acostumbrado a pedir cientos de años a terroristas y narcos- e ignorancia cuasi senil de Vázquez Honrubia, que no sabe, ni quiere saber, lo que es Internet.

Otra aclaración: ¿qué sentencia pedagógica puso Vázquez Honrubia? En la Audiencia Nacional, antes Tribunal del Orden Público, sito en la antigua avenida de José Antonio, no hay sentencias de ese calibre, sino excepcionales, pues es un tribunal de excepción.
Gatopardo: no minusvalores a Gallizo. Sabe de sobra quién soy. Por eso se cuidó de no dejarme ir a la entrega de premios. La muy cobarde me envió una pluma y un tarjetón.
Si Kafka levantara la jeta…

Querido Pablo: no suelo escribir "desde" la admiración ni "desde" el cariño como García de la Concha, porque no desconozco el uso apropiado de las preposiciones.
Respecto a las fuentes en las que usted bebe, son las mismas que me hacen afirmar al principio que "Cualquiera que haya tenido que tratar, conocer y soportar periodistas, termina detestándolos sin contemplaciones". Y una de las más detestables características de los periodistas es su capacidad para creer cualquier infamia que se cuente contra un colega y propagarla.
Aunque hace usted una pregunta retórica, que no espera respuesta, le voy a contestar: Vázquez Honrubia es conocido por sus sentencias pedagógicas por condenar, por ejemplo, a jóvenes de la Kale Borroka acusados de lanzar cócteles Molotof, a cumplir horas de trabajo social en un centro de grandes quemados.
Por lo demás, le ofrezco reparación si se siente atropellado por este artículo, y dedicaría con mucho gusto quince segundos para borrarlo si usted así lo desea.
En el caso de que sea usted el autor de este pupurri de despropósitos confuso y mal hilvanado.

Que era culpable la primera vez era algo archiconocido, sin embargo, mucha gente superbienpensante cayó en el ardid de Pablo Santiago García, (P.S.G. de ahora en adelante). La gente puede llegar a ser muy crédula en cuanto empiezas a hablar de conspiraciones, de altos cargos implicados, de taparte la boca para que no tires de la manta. A PSG sólo le falto hablar de iluminatis para redondear el cuento.
En fin, PSG dió el Gran Salto y pasó de coleccionar pornografía e intercambiarla en la red a abusar sexualmente de sus hijas de 4 y 5 años respectivamente.Se debió de volver loco, no hay otra explicación, tarde o temprano terminarián contandolo todo y, sobre todo, teniendo en cuenta que su mujer es psicóloga.
Está claro, PSG es un redomado sinvergüenza, no sólo preparó el numerito de reportero tribulete de investigación para tratar se taparse las espaldas por si le cogian, no contento con eso vendió a todos sus compañeros de afición, mantuvo correspondecia "coleguil" con el abusador más tristemente famoso de España: Nanisex, y hasta escribió un librillo donde deja por los suelos a todos sus cofrades y, a la postre, a sí mismo.
Una joya el tal PSG, pero,aún así, no le deseo más mal ni más ruina que los que ya tiene, que no son pocos.

LA VOLUNTAD DE ESTILO (2)

Continuación de La voluntad de estilo (1)

El autor con voluntad de estilo logrará colmar su pulsión grafómana si, a propósito del beso, embriagado por su talento, nos endilga un tratado sobre esa cavidad limitada por los labios, los carrillos, la bóveda del paladar, el suelo de la boca, los pilares del paladar y la úvula o campanilla, la lengua, los dientes, las glándulas salivares, y acudirá a la histología, a la fisiología y a lo que sea menester con tal de no caer en la vulgaridad de exponer un hecho, de todos conocido, sin hacerlo con la prosopopeya de quien describe un continente inexplorado.

Lo que se corresponde con la traca ascendente de unos fuegos artificiales, viene a ser la adición enfática, la acumulación de adjetivos y recursos oratorios sobre gradatio para decir lo dicho anteriormente, y usará la metáfora, la metonimia, el sinécdoque, la anadiplosis, la alegoría, la antítesis, la dilogía, la hipálage, el hipérbaton, y escribirá algo así:

Sus labios como una patria perdida y encontrada, bocas en la que se refugian y se buscan. Alma tibia, húmeda y exacta. Labio donde se halla la verdad y la paz y la ternura. Oh, sexo facial , eros sin saña, sí, cabalgadura y freno, amor al límite, ilimitado. Noche yemal con sus vahos y sus dulces comas. Barrio Malesherbes. Gabinete oblongo. En la profundidad de las alfombras, de cicloides, abigarramientos en los frunces de las tapicerías, y, apiadándose, la inflexión de las voces. La muerte no es un himno sino un beso…

Pueden continuar hasta la extenuación, porque lo importante es que el lector descuidado llegue a la conclusión de que ha de tratarse de alguien que escribe muy bien, ya que dice cosas que no se le ocurren a cualquiera y, además, no tienen demasiado sentido. Ése es el truco.

Si a esto se añade el recurrido y socorrido truco de hablar alternativamente en primera o segunda o tercera persona, en masculino y en femenino, ora en plural ora en singular, para poder dar al crítico la ocasión de ensalzar la riqueza, la complejidad y la multiplicidad de registros, planos y lecturas, la estructura de bucle, y decir que esos universos semánticos suponen un auténtico reto para el lector, frases que suele utilizar de forma recurrente para otorgar el diploma de exquisitez a los autores y a los lectores, y, lo más interesante, tener contento al dueño del periódico y al de la editorial del fenómeno literario de turno.

Y por lo que más quiera, maestro dÈrsu, no identifique usted la sabia utilización del adjetivo, el uso de la elipsis narrativa, la idoneidad de los recursos estilísticos, y el homenaje que usted hace a la inteligencia del lector, con esa gárrula voluntad de estilo que me hace chirriar los dientes, y me hace desearle al autor tantos latigazos como palabras innecesarias haya usado con desconsiderada prolijidad.

Olvidas mencionar (acaso por no conveniente o no oportuno y siempre en aras de custodiar la línea crítica de tu reivindicación) que el autor con voluntad de estilo se desliga voluntariamente del chabacano (¿qué autor podría sintetizar, con menos recursos y mayor énfasis, la descripción de un beso que aquél que lo expresara con un sencillo "acercó sus morros y me plantó un besazo con lengua que me puso como una moto"?), renuncia al pseudolenguaje cuarteado (abreviaturas, uso del lenguaje SMS, expresiones telepopulares, modismos y otras "opás") e insiste en la recuperación de la elegancia literaria, en perjuicio de la de plástico, con independencia de que el resultado final convenza o, por el contrario, se quede en intento.

También eché de menos, dramáticamente (vive dios que, si mi comentario no sale en negrilla, es porque este teclado no acredita capacidad suficiente para reproducir mi coraje, de manera fidedigna), la ejemplarizante representación escrita de un beso, parido por tus propias yemas y/o materia gris, concentrado en cuatro o cinco renglones, de la anchura que el diseño de tu bitácora consienta y que colmen las aspiraciones adjetivas del autor con voluntad de lectura.

El autor con voluntad de estilo tal vez, en ocasiones, acuda al diccionario en busca de conceptos que (según él) añadan altitud literaria a su creación, aún habiendo ignorado su existencia con anterioridad y dejando un sabor de falsa erudición. Sin embargo, al mismo tiempo, produce el efecto secundario de invitar al lector a abrir ese diccionario para escudriñar el significado de aquéllos. Y fomentar el uso de éste, aún de manera involuntaria, nunca puede ser del todo negativo y, mucho menos, nefasto. Todo lo contrario.

Ahora, desmiénteme, si te atreves. :D

No sé a qué viene tanto jaleo con el estilo. Esto parece la guerra civil: a un bando los que prefieren el estilismo a la narración, al otro los que van al grano y no se andan con florilegios. O mejor, y ya que estamos en mundiales, un partido de futbol: el equipo rojo fucsia (Mallarmé, Góngora, Valle, Lezama, Cela, Umbral, Miró, García Márquez, Joyce, Muñoz Molina,Proust)contra el equipo blanco (Galdós, Baroja, Marsé, Balzac, Cervantes, Simenon, Dickens, Auster,Highsmith, Mallorquí, Chandler). A la hora de besar, puesto que se ha elegido el tema mórbido, cualquiera de ellos vale, creo yo, Mientras, maliciosamente (mas mostrándome meloso) me motivo manipulando multitudes, moldeando mentes modestas, muchas más me miran malinterpretando mis meticulosos movimientos.

" Maldito monocamy mentiroso..." murmuran, malévolos.

Milagrosamente, manteniendo mil márgenes milimétricos, miminizo molestas mancillas. Menudas, mis manos maquiavélicas (mariposas mediáticas momentáneamente magistrales) manejan mordaces metáforas, mitigando, meritoriamente, manifestaciones malintencionadas.

Además, la brevedad que reclamas es tan fácil de conseguir como hacer click con el botón central del ratón y desplazar la ventana hacia abajo (caso de que la barra lateral se te antoje lejana).

Pues, para mí, monocamy, el "estilo" sigue siendo lo más valioso del arte, pues ¿qué sería de la literatura sin estilo? TE felicito por tus comentarios. Eres lo máximo.
Además, ¿quién dijo que Galdós, Baroja, Marsé, Balzac, Cervantes, Simenon, Dickens, Auster,Highsmith, Mallorquí o Chandler no tenían estilo?

LA VOLUNTAD DE ESTILO (1)

En mis tiempos, había una norma de elegancia que se llamaba el método de los 21 botones: por ejemplo, un traje de chaqueta y falda, (2 botones) estampado en cuatro colores (+ 4) con frunces o tableado en la falda, (+1) cinco botones en la chaqueta, (+5) dos bolsillos (+2), con un bolso con cierre dorado (1+1) y un par de sandalias con cierre de hebillas(2+2), significaba que sólo admitiría una joya, un único adorno, ni siquiera un par de pendientes en las orejas, para no caer en la chabacanería.

Cuando leo a los autores con voluntad de estilo, esos que intentan deslumbrar con metáforas de osada factura, con una adjetivación excesiva, superlativa, y aliteración de ideas y sucesos heterogéneos, que enjaretan al hilo del relato, echo en falta el método de los 21 botones, aplicado a la literatura. Y tampoco estaría de más que a las virtudes cardinales de prudencia, justicia, fortaleza y templanza, se añadieran la sobriedad y la contención.

Ornato del texto mediante adición:

"María besó a Juan" —diría el clásico. El autor con voluntad de estilo jamás se atrevería a dejar que la acción del sujeto recaiga sobre Juan sin más aditivos, sin decir que su boca se entreabrió, y su lengua —que no olvidará de calificar de húmeda— acarició los labios y se introdujo como si fuera un viajero que llega a Itaca descalzo…

Los lectores somos buenos, somos pacientes, tenemos cierta propensión a la benevolencia con quien nos describe con premiosa precisión la mecánica del ósculo o la del sonajero, paso a paso, por si la hubiéramos olvidado o no la hubiéramos aprendido. No contento, el autor con voluntad de estilo adorna el beso con ojos entrecerrados, respiración agitada: y acaba con un crescendo donde se decline el verbo morir: ya sea muriéndose de deseo o de ganas o de amor, ya sea dejando morir el día tras los visillos o sintiéndose morir de felicidad. El autor suma y suma y suma adjetivos, adverbios y metáforas sin ton ni son, con la loca certeza de que nadie va a poner pies en pared y le va a preguntar a cuento de qué mete a un viajero sin zapatos y a Itaca en un vulgar beso, como todos los besos, y por qué no puede decir "María besó a Juan" y confiar en nuestra inteligencia.

Repetición

El autor con voluntad de estilo no acabaría ahí, sino que repetiría tantas veces como fuera preciso hasta convertir un beso en un ritornello ascendente y redundante: María lo besó con dulzura, dejando que su lengua y sus labios acariciaran como plumas de miraguano la boca de Juan; y lo besó con furia, aplastando sus labios y usando su lengua con determinación; lo besó mordisqueando sus labios… hasta que el lector, ahíto, baja la mirada y busca el siguiente punto y aparte.

Ampliación:

El autor con voluntad de estilo en este punto y aparte no ceja, sino que ofrece una ampliación discursiva: María, mientras besa, piensa, sí, en su infancia, a ser posible recordará sus incursiones eróticas con un primo afectuoso o brutal, sus recovecos mentales con disquisiciones sobre Bruckner o Wittgenstein, o la última vez que se cambió de casa y pintó las paredes de amarillo, y notó el sabor de un gotazo de pintura en sus labios… porque no hay autor con voluntad de estilo que ignore y no explote las posibilidades de la sinestesia. Y en su ayuda, para infatuar el texto, acude a la tradición descriptiva del paisaje, y describe el lunar en la espalda, las cortinas adamascadas, el tono de la piel y del cabello, de los ojos, del tipo de tristeza o de alegría, con referentes literarios, incisos entresacados de las enciclopedias sobre los utensilios, los oficios olvidados, las labores de aguja o el arte etrusco, incluidos con heterogénea impropiedad mientras María y Juan se besan, y el lector cae en la cuenta de que va por la página cuarenta, y ese beso, santo Dios, es un antídoto de la lujuria.

Mi querida y añeja gata:
Empiezo a sospechar que ha olvidado usted que no todos los besos son iguales, ni los besantes, ni los besados, se parecen entre ellos más que el ajo y la cebolla. Es, pues, el beso, un acto tan íntimo y personal que bien merece la descripción extensa y detallada.
Noto, además, a ciertas edades ancianas, un regusto por el beso fugaz, o inexistente, más derivado de la falta de uso, o de los problemas con la dentadura postiza, que de la inapetencia real hacia el tan traído ósculo.
Así pues, deseo fervientemente, y desde aquí lanzo mi petición a los cuatro vientos, que alguien (un hombre, imaginaré, pues la reconozco hetero) fornido y viril, la estreche entre sus fuertes brazos y le estampe en los morros un beso sonoro y húmedo, largo como el día de verano, cálido como la arena de agosto e intenso como el mar rugiente que rompe contra la costa… y luego usted nos lo cuenta en media frase, y cosiendo botones, a ver si puede!

Monocamy: viendo su amor por el inciso innecesario, sabía que las tres primeras palabras le iban a interesar.
Detrás del reflejo: en el Jinete polaco de Muñoz Molina la única ocupación amena que tuve fue analizar las metáforas con las que salpica la página, monumento al lector obtuso que traga sin masticar lo que lee.
Tautina: hay personas que cuando superan ustedes la fase en la que todo se percibe filtrado a través de las hormonas, tienen la suerte de toparse con la tumba sin haber desarrollado el raciocinio. Es una suerte que me ha sido negada por la naturaleza, y he de resignarme a que los hombres hayan hablado más de mi inteligencia que de la turgencia de mis senos, incluso cuando tenía dieciocho años.
No obstante, sepa usted, querida, que no me son desconocidos los besos, y puedo describir el beso español, el beso francés y el beso griego con menos palabras y más conocimientos empíricos que usted, que a buen seguro responde al axioma mafioso: quien habla no sabe, y quien sabe no habla.

Adorable Tautina: que su acosado Antonio García Muñoz no le haga caso a usted no quiere decir que descuide a esta parroquiana: sus pérdidas de conocimiento me preocupan, es un síntoma que se conoce como histeria de conversión, y aqueja a quienes tienen más hambre que alimento, y se suele acompañar de cierta verborrea monomaníaca, mística y orgiástica: cuídese, que es usted bella, muy joven, y no tiene por qué contentarse con soñar que es usted una heroina de un anuncio de perfumes. Tírese al butanero.

Tamargo, amigo, expresarse sin cortapisas a la hora de adornar emociones ha dado al folklore patrio el jipido, el estilo psicalíptico a lo Rafael Pérez y Pérez, la tempestad emotiva en un vaso de agua, lo de la-española- cuando-besa-es-que-besa-de-verdad- y esa falta de frivolidad y de ligereza que hace que la vida erótica de los españoles lleve faja mental, salpicada de obscenidades a lo Torrente.

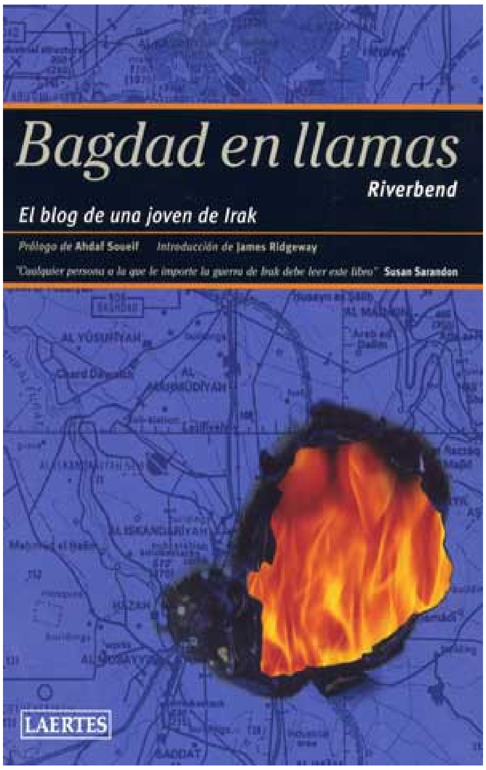
APUNTES DE UNA AVENTURA EDITORIAL



Hola, soy Subal, trabajo en la editorial que acaba de publicar un libro que, quizás, os pueda llegar a emocionar, quizás os pueda hacer comprender. El mejor libro que ha caído en mis manos desde que empecé en este oficio, que dicen que es de caballeros, aunque alguien, muy apropiadamente, puso los respectivos signos de interrogación, delante y detrás, de la palabra "caballeros". Soy aprendiz de caballero. Soy aprendiz de ¿caballero?

Hola, soy Subal, abrí un blog, soy blogger. Escribo como quién camina sin miedo a morir. Como Riverbend, yo también me pregunté quién diablos me podría leer. Que levante la mano quién se haya formulado esta misma pregunta al abrir su blog. Ofrezco mi testimonio, como todos nosotros, con más o menos gracia. Escribo para que no se me olviden las cosas.

Hola, soy Subal, salí a la calle contra la guerra de Irak, y contra la prepotencia y la injusticia y las bombas y, sin saberlo, salí a la calle para que Riverbend pudiera vivir tranquila y dignamente. No nos escucharon. Riverbend no vive tranquila. Un día agarré un megáfono de la Asociación de Vecinos y anduve por el barrio llamando a la movilización, cual vocero de pueblo. Los chavales me seguían y me tiraban pipas y me aplaudían.
El día 4 de enero de este año escribí un mensaje en mi blog comentando que, quizás, con suerte, compraríamos los derechos de un libro-y-hasta-aquí-puedo-leer. El post se tituló "Anónima" . Por aquel entonces, estaba en estado de shock post-traumático, debido a la lectura compulsiva de "Una mujer en Berlín", diario íntimo de una mujer anónima –que trabajaba en una editorial berlinesa- que tuvo que dar su cuerpo como botín de guerra a los soviéticos que liberaron Berlín. Me angustia la palabra "liberar": diez mil mujeres fueron violadas, en Berlín, en los días que siguieron a su liberación. Silencio en la sala. El libro tardó cincuenta años en poder ser publicado en su lengua original.
El día 2 de febrero, la simpática agente literaria me ha notificado que los derechos son nuestros. Inmensa alegría. Extraordinaria responsabilidad. Amo esta profesión. Ya puedo hablar claro: vamos a publicar el blog de una chica anónima irakí que escribe desde Bagdad, ciudad atribulada y humillada. Vamos a publicar uno de los mejores blogs que existen en este planeta preñado de miserias. Vamos a publicar en papel: Bagdad en llamas, para que llegue a los confines del mundo de habla hispana, para que sirva de aliento a las mujeres humilladas, y para que avergüence a tan bárbaro invasor. Ojalá, algún día, el libro llegue a manos de un soldado de origen latinoamericano, que aún crea que su sacrifico le valdrá la nacionalidad estadounidense. Ojalá llegue donde la opresión llega. Ojalá llegue donde no dispongan de conexión a Internet. Ojalá llegue donde nuestros distribuidores quieran hacerlo llegar.

Los días se suceden lentamente. Es como un embarazo, supongo. Cuanto más leo su blog más amigo me siento de Riverbend. Más la respeto y la admiro. Más aterrado me siento al escuchar los partes de guerra que los periodistas nos remiten desde Bagdad. Cuarenta muertos en coche-bomba, Tres secuestros en el oeste de Bagdad, Más casos de tortura en Abu Grhaib... Riverbend no publicó nada de nada durante el mes de mayo. En mil ocasiones trataba de ponerme en contacto con ella, en mil ocasiones obtuve su silencio. Aún no lo he conseguido. Pero ya ha actualizado su blog, ergo ¡está viva! ¡ Bien por ella! ¡Adelante! De pronto, como caídos del cielo, empiezo a conocer gente que acompañará al libro y sentirá lo mismo que yo he sentido en cada una de sus páginas: periodistas, escritores, amigos, que también luchan contra la estupidez y la falsa e interesada simplicidad de las cosas.
Descubro algo: el blog de Riverbend está siendo traducido al castellano en un blog que se llama Bagdad en llamas . Atónito, se me aparecen dos seres pequeñitos, uno en cada hombro. El primero se llama Competencia Directa y el segundo Ayuda Mutua. Debo escoger. Ayuda Mutua, qué carajo; no hay intereses comerciales que valgan cuando está en juego la verdad. Nos entendemos bien con M., la persona de contacto del grupo de traductores del blog. Hacen una presentación del libro y del blog en Bilbao. ¿Cómo les habrá ido? (Nota mental: he de escribirles un e.mail.)
En una de las pocas entrevistas que Riverbend ha concedido explicaba que no quería publicar su blog en formato papel, porque las editoriales querían obligarla a cerrar el blog. ¿Caballeros?
Caballeros, cerrar el blog de Riverbend sería peor que la muerte para Riverbend, estoy seguro. Me juego lo que usted quiera, querido Gatopardo... una sardina... que mantener el blog es una de las pocas razones que mantienen a Riverbend viva. Escribir para no volverse loco. ¿Cómo se puede ser tan mezquino? Cuando te lo han robado todo, cuando vierten mentiras y plomo contra tu pueblo, cuando tu conexión a internet es el único cordón umbilical que te une al mundo... ¿cómo se puede ser tan cretino?

Por fin, el libro está en la calle. Paseo como un loco por todas las librerías de Barcelona. Es de vital importancia que la gente sepa. Mica en mica, Subal, mica en mica. O sea; poco a poco, Subal, poco a poco.
Repaso Technorati todos los días. Alguien me comenta una clave para entenderlo todo; las mujeres tienen la capacidad de la sonrisa aún cuando todo parece estar perdido. Con Riverbend, el dolor y la indignación son mayúsculos. También lo son las risas. Alguien me decía -y Gatopardo puede corroborarlo-, que las mujeres internadas en los campos de concentración nazis sonreían a modo de acto subversivo. Sonreír. Supervivencia.
Un día, revisando Technorati, sonrío y llego incluso a emocionarme. Una lectora de Bagdad en llamas escribe. Unos días más tarde, recibo un e.mail emocionado que me da las gracias (¿?) y me pide que escriba una reseña para su blog.

Hola, soy Subal, trabajo en la editorial que acaba de publicar un libro que, quizás, os pueda llegar a emocionar, quizás, os pueda hacer comprender...

Seguro que nos emocionará y nos hará comprender lo que están pasando estas personas. Sufriendo una entupida guerra. Todas las guerras lo son, pero creo que esta, por la forma de haberse iniciado y conducirse, es de las más atroces.
Para muchos de nosotros que vivimos en paz, las Blogs son una ventana al mundo, un soplo de libertad y perderlas nos reportaría un gran desencanto. Así que para Riverbend sería mortal. Espero que siga con ella denunciando y haciéndose oír por todos. Y deseo que en poco, en su blog, pueda decir que esta maldita e injustificable invasión terminó...

Ah, vale, si es así... mire, Pendón, destrozó usted mi ego desigual con su comentario (el de Tautina, ni siquiera llegué a comprenderlo... piense en ello, señor/a). Corrí al lado de mi única y querida aliada y me reconfortó con la siguiente aseveración; "bueno, la verdad es que el principio de tu escrito es pura bazofia, pero la resta es aceptable". Luego me dijo; "pero tú no eras editor y no un artistilla sensiblero? ¿Entonces por qué te molesta tanto lo que un individuo que ni siquiera conoces te diga?... veeeerga, pana..." Y tiene razón; ella SIEMPRE tiene razón. Usted dice que es un anciano, no lo dudo, no lo dudo. Pero me pone en zafata de plata lo que sigue; "send me death flowers in my wedding, that I won't forget to put roses on your grave". Sólo lamento una cosa, que debido a su avanzada edad no podrá usted comprobar lo que ya debería haber aprendido en su día; que nadie nace aprendido. Apuesto a que sus escritos son la mar de cojonudos. Déjeme ver alguno de ellos y luego aprenda catalán para comprobar que este subalterno tiene un manejo más que aceptable con la navaja de destripar en La Segona Perifèria. Lo único que sufro en silencio son las almorranas.

Estimado doncel: Para apreciar sus beldades estilísticas, me temo que basta con entender el vocabulario de "Baixant de la font del gat". Ya me maliciaba yo que lo suyo era un problema de cambio de plumón. Así es que seré benevolente y le diré lo que escribió el poeta:
"More I could tell, but more I dare not say;
The text is old, the orator too green.
Therefore, in sadness I will away;
My face is full of shame, my heart of teen:
Mine ears, that your wanton talk attended, do burn themselves for having so offended"(1)
Aprenda esto de memoria y, la próxima vez que quiera lucir la cresta de políglota, ya tiene la cita a punto.
(1) Podría decir más, pero no me atrevo.
El texto es manido, el orador novato.
Por tanto, me marcho apesadumbrado
Con el rostro cubierto de vergüenza y el corazón encogido.

arden de sentirse así ofendidos"

EL HOLOCAUSTO ÁRABE: BAGDAD EN LLAMAS

Mi viejo maestro, escapado de dos campos de exterminio nazis, suele contar mentiras artísticas, elaboradas, con más cuidado por el detalle de lo que merecen sus interlocutores. Suele mentir en lo anecdótico, en lo que no le interesa, en lo que le resultaba indiferente. Cuando le hablan de un programa de TV que no ha visto, si le preguntan qué opina de la selección nacional, la boda de algún famoso, el bronceado integral con rayos UVA o una dieta milagro, miente con una sonrisa de buda feliz, responde lo que se espera, y da pie para que sus semejantes se sumerjan en una idiotez sin fisuras.
Dice que sin la mentira no habría civilización, ni sociedad democrática ni intercambiaría saludos con la mayoría de la gente, y andaríamos a palos. Pero añade que, a veces, es imprescindible defender la verdad : contra los enfermos con problemas glandulares de difícil solución, verborrea bélica, y paranoia monotemática y xenófoba. Dice que es inevitable mientras no se habiliten grandes pabellones psiquiátricos para recluirlos, porque su patología los hace peligrosos si no se les hace frente. Y como nunca estarán en primera línea de combate en el frente de batalla, que tanto les gusta, no hay ninguna posibilidad de que perezcan por el mal que predican. Justifican, ensalzan y alaban la guerra contra el terrorismo, pero a lo que se refieren es a asesinar civiles y arrasar un país lleno de gente que no se pueda defender. Y mentir o callar en estas cosas es infame –dice mi maestro.
Miquel Adam Rubiralta, de la editorial Laertes, ha logrado publicar el libro de Riverbend, basado en la bitácora “Baghdad Burning” (un grupo de admirables traductores la mantienen al día en español en “Bagdad en llamas”). Riverbend, es una muchacha irakí de 26 años, provista de la envidiable acuidad de quien vive cada día con el peligro de las bombas, de los atentados, de las ráfagas de soldados mal entrenados para soportar la tensión, de los asesinatos selectivos y de los indiferenciados. Esa acuidad que no tendrán nunca la mayoría de sus coetáneos occidentales, con la mirada saturada de marcas registradas y juguetitos tecnológicos, atascados en la descripción monomaniaca de emociones epidérmicas, vacuas, sin fuste ni raigambre, perfectamente deleznables desde la cuna hasta la sepultura.

Y hay que decirle la verdad a esos bestias paranoicos que secundan a Bush y a sus aliados, en memoria del holocausto. Cómo obsequiar con un silencio cortés a estos malnacidos, cuando se ha leído el impagable testimonio de Riverbend, con la verdad escueta que no nos podrán contar los periodistas que fueron asesinados, los que fueron silenciados y los que fueron expulsados de Irak para que no se sepa. Y aunque nuestros hermanos en Abraham nos expulsen de todas las sinagogas del planeta, no podemos justificar el holocausto cometido contra los palestinos, los irakíes, y todos los prisioneros torturados y secuestrados en prisiones USA, sin garantías jurídicas, sin otro horizonte que el suicidio. Por lealtad a la memoria de los que fueron exterminados por los nazis, hemos de decir la verdad: estos paranoicos que secundan la política de exterminio de Bush son los nuevos nazis, y las víctimas, esta vez, son árabes: ya lo advirtió Simon Wiesenthal:
"- Para beneficio de todos, aprendan de nuestra tragedia. No está escrito que las próximas víctimas deban ser judíos. Lo vimos comenzar en Alemania con los judíos, pero personas de más de veinte naciones, fueron asesinadas. Cuando comencé esta tarea me dije a mi mismo: Voy a buscar a los asesinos de todas las víctimas, no sólo las víctimas judías. Voy a luchar por la justicia'
"- La historia del hombre es la historia del crimen, y la historia puede repetirse. Por eso, la información es una defensa. Por lo tanto podemos construir, debemos construir, una defensa contra esa repetición".
"- Lo único importante de estos casi cincuenta años de mi trabajo es una advertencia para los asesinos de mañana, de que nunca lograrán descansar".
Amén. Que así sea.

Mal día...

Ha sido un día horrible. Nos hemos despertado por culpa de un calor insoportable. Nuestra área tiene una media de unas 4 horas de electricidad al día y el resto es suministrado por el generador, lo que significa que podemos utilizar los ventiladores de techo, pero no hay forma de que usemos los acondicionadores de aire.
Nos despertó ese silencio siniestro, indicador de que el generador no funcionaba. E. se dirigió a la puerta del vecino para comprobarlo, y obtuvo la confirmación. Quizá no fuese a funcionar en todo el día. El vecino responsable de esto iba a traer al “médico de los generadores” tan pronto como estuviese disponible.
El suministro eléctrico volvió sólo veinte minutos antes de las 6 de la tarde, como si se riese de nosotros. El momento en el que las luces destellaron, nos juntamos en la cocina y pudimos oír los aullidos y voceríos de alegría de los niños del vecindario.
Antes de eso nos enteramos de la noticia sobre el montón de secuestrados de la zona de Salhiya de Baghdad. Salhiya es una zona muy concurrida en la que muchas agencias de viajes tienen oficinas. Ha estado particularmente concurrida desde la guerra porque todo el que quiere salir a Jordania y a Siria hace su reserva desde una u otra oficina de la zona.

Según la gente que vive y trabaja en la zona, alrededor de 15 coches de policía se detuvieron en el área y hombres uniformados empezaron a atrapar civiles en las calles y en sus automóviles, echándoles una bolsa a la cabeza y empujándoles dentro de los coches policiales. A cualquiera que intentase oponerse, o le golpeaban o le empujaban dentro de un coche. Se estima que el número total de gente que se llevaron es de cerca de 50.
Esto ha estado pasando por todo Irak. Misteriosos hombres del Ministerio de Interior asaltan a civiles y se los llevan. Sólo que hasta ahora no había pasado con tanta gente a la vez. Lo inquietante es que el Ministerio Irakí de Interior ha negado tener nada que ver con las últimas detenciones masivas (lo que es su última pauta, ¡¿por qué implicarse con organizaciones de derechos humanos por detenciones masivas, tortura y asesinatos?! ¡Limítate a negarlo!). No es una buena señal, significa que esta gente probablemente será encontrada muerta en unos pocos días. Rezamos para que vuelvan vivos...
Otra parte de las noticias especialmente malas llegó durante el día, más tarde. Varios estudiantes que viajaban en un autobús escolar fueron asesinados en la zona de Dora. Nadie sabe porqué. No está claro. ¿Eran suníes? ¿Eran chiíes? Lo más probable es que estuvieran mezclados... Saliendo del examen final, después de haber estado levantados la noche anterior para estudiar con el calor. Cuando dejaron sus casas, probablemente sólo estaban preocupados por si aprobarían o suspenderían. Sus padres despidiéndoles con palabras de ánimo y rezando. Ahora no volverán nunca a casa.
Hay en curso una limpieza étnica y es imposible negarlo. Se está matando a la gente según su carné de identidad. Los extremistas de ambos lados hacen la vida imposible. Unos trabajan para "Zarqawi", y otros para el Ministerio de Interior de Irak. Oímos que matan a chiíes en el "Triángulo suní" y cadáveres de suníes que se llaman Omar (un nombre suní) llegan por docenas a la morgue de Bagdad. Nunca pensé que echaría de menos a los coches bomba. Al menos un coche bomba es indiscriminado. No te busca porque seas suní o chií.
Aún no tenemos ministros en los ministerios clave (defensa e interior). Irak se desmorona, y Maliki y su equipo siguen discutiendo quién tiene que conseguir más poder, ¿quién está más cualificado para oprimir a los irakíes con ayuda de los ocupantes extranjeros? Encima, está el rumor de que el parlamento irakí tendrá vacaciones durante Julio y Agosto. Están tan cansados de discutir y luchar por el poder, que necesitan tomarse un par de meses para descansar. Dejarán sus bien vigiladas casas durante dos meses, y pasarán algo de tiempo en el extranjero con sus familias (quienes ya no pueden vivir en Irak, ¡son demasiado preciosos para eso!)
¿A dónde va uno para evitar la muerte y la destrucción? ¿Están contentos los estadounidenses con este progreso? ¿Todavía insiste Bush en que progresamos?
Emily Dickinson escribió: "la esperanza es algo que tiene plumas". Si lo que escribió es cierto, entonces la esperanza ha volado lejos, muy lejos de Irak.

Este testimonio, escrito en una bitácora como diario personal, en la más absoluta clandestinidad, puede costarle la vida. Pues me temo que queda imperio americano para rato y, como las críticas a su "way of life" serían interpretadas como ataque, la única manera de callarlos sería declararles la guerra y ganarles.

Umbrío panorama, máxime cuando está acostumbrados a soportar la vergüenza de sus propios actos (recordemos Vietnam). Ni se inmutan. Sus errores son el precio a pagar, por el servicio que hacen al mundo, autoproclamándose Caballeros del Zodíaco.

El que esté un pobre deficiente al frente del país ese de América es malo en vista de los resultados; pero los que lo vuelven a votar para que siga haciendo el bestia me preocupan también.
Esque uno solo no puede con todo, otros votan, y otros contribuyen a que la bestia siga reinando. ¿Ó contribuimos? Porque a Busch lo tengo lejos y no se va a ocupar de mi, pero¿por que no me ocupo yo mas de los Bushecitos que tengo mas cerca?

En Europa resurgen los fantasmas del pasado. Por todas partes, los pequeños países que apoyaron y apoyan las guerras de Bush, el joven, tienen a partidos neonazis en las coaliciones de gobierno. Sus poblaciones viven dominadas por la xenófobia, por la histeria antiárabe. Se ocultan, como siempre se ha hecho, la complicidad y la participación de las clases adineradas, banqueros, industriales, rentistas, etc. en el apocalípsis hitleriano y al mismo tiempo se intensifica la campaña de descrédito, en el mejor de los casos se les ningunea, contra los que con más generosidad ofrecieron su pecho para aplastar al fascismo. La historia se reescribe para satisfacer las necesidades de los poderosos de cada momento.

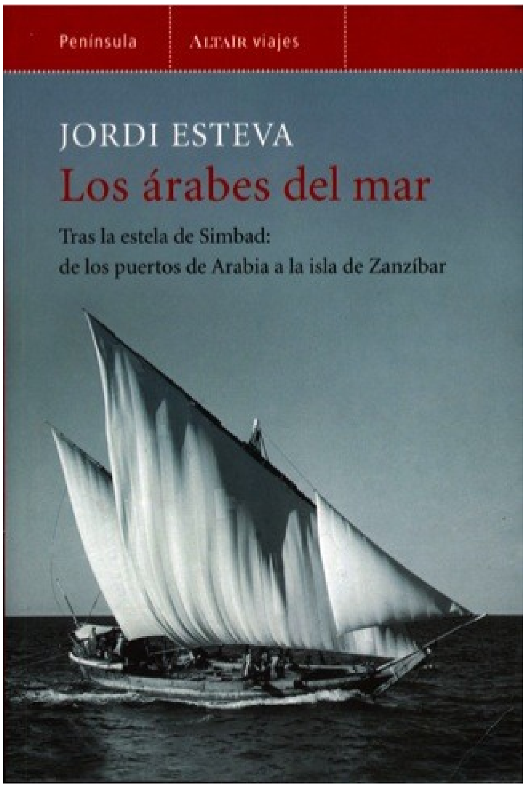
LOS ÁRABES DEL MAR, NUEVO LIBRO DE JORDI ESTEVA



"LOS ÁRABES DEL MAR" POR JORDI ESTEVA
(Fragmento inédito del libro del mismo título)

Por la tarde, Ustaz Salah me llevó a ver a Abdala Cherif, un viejo capitán que pertenecía a una de las grandes familias de mercaderes omaníes y que vivía en una antigua casona en el barrio antiguo de Sur, que había sido desvirtuada con añadidos de hormigón. Dejamos nuestro calzado en el umbral y entramos en un amplio majlis tapizado de linóleo violáceo con vetas blancas. Las paredes estaban pintadas de verde lima y las ventanas de aluminio, cubiertas por visillos acrílicos de color rosa. Un gran tapiz representaba la Kaaba y, entre las inevitables fotografías del sultán Qabus, destacaba esta vez una en la que se le veía ataviado con el uniforme del Ejército de Tierra. Tras saludar a varios invitados y familiares, nos acomodamos en unos cojines. No pasaron dos minutos cuando entró el anfitrión, un anciano de porte aristocrático con turbante rojo, barbas teñidas de alheña y ojos corroídos por los años. Todos se pusieron en pie, le besaron las manos y le desearon un feliz Eid el Fitr. Tras las bienvenidas de rigor, se presentó:
—Ustaz Salah me ha hablado de usted. Mi nombre es Abdala Cherif Bin Hamed, bin Nasser, al Rashid. Soy un antiguo najoda y procedo de una familia de grandes marineros y mercaderes. Me alegro de que usted haya venido de tan lejos para interesarse en nuestras costumbres, puesto que todo eso que usted busca se está perdiendo.
Todo el mundo le tenía tanto respeto que, cuando él hablaba, en el majlis callaban todas las conversaciones.
—Soy uno de esos árabes del mar que usted busca —exclamó—. Me embarqué a los siete años y recuerdo aquella época como un bello sueño. Conocí Mombasa, Pate, Lamu... Traíamos madera de los manglares de Tanga, clavo y otras especias de Pemba... ¡Cómo olvidar Zanzíbar! —suspiró—. Las travesías podían durar dos meses y solían ser duras. El capitán debía tener un carácter enérgico para dar las órdenes precisas con que enfrentarse a las adversidades. Uno de mis primeros recuerdos es la cara de terrible dolor de un hombre hecho y derecho que lloraba como un niño, herido por la picadura de una raya.

—¿Por qué les embarcaban a una edad tan temprana? —pregunté.
—A los hijos de los capitanes, de los navieros o de los mercaderes, nos enrolaban pronto en los veleros para que nos familiarizáramos con la navegación. ¡Había tanto que aprender! Teníamos que saber leer los mapas, manejar la brújula, conocer las estrellas, hacernos con el sextante... Pero hasta bien entrados en la veintena no se nos daba puestos de responsabilidad ya que un error en pleno océano podía significar el fin para todos. Había que confiar en el destino y tener la sangre fría y capacidad de mando para coordinar los esfuerzos de tus hombres. Y había que saber tomar decisiones difíciles, como tirar la mercancía por la borda, por valiosa que fuera, o dejarse arrastrar por el huracán sin intentar ofrecerle resistencia.
En ese momento entraron tres hombres que, tras descalzarse, besaron la mano del anfitrión y tras los saludos de rigor, se sentaron. Se les sirvió comida, de la que probaron unos bocados antes de disculparse y marcharse para cumplimentar a otros próceres. Abdala Cherif los trataba con la paternalista consideración de los líderes tribales de Arabia, bajo cuya magnánima protección podían sentirse seguros los hombres comunes.
—Mi familia poseía grandes veleros —continuó Abdala Cherif—, algunos salidos de los astilleros de Sur y otros de la India, como el Masaudi, un barco maravilloso y muy grande que hicimos construir en Calicut, en el Estado de Kerala, por carpinteros que trajimos desde Sur y que trabajaron allí en la India durante más de un año. El Masaudi podía cargar hasta cuatrocientas toneladas. Pero, ¡ay! —se lamentó—, se hundió en el primer viaje. Era precioso, llevaba maderas de la India de gran valor y su destino era el puerto de Al Maqalla, en el Yemen. El viento era favorable y el Masaudi zarpó gallardamente con las velas al viento, pero nada más avistar Cochín, giró el viento y partió el timón. Mi tío era el capitán y trató de enderezar el rumbo hacia las playas, pero el monzón se volvió cada vez más intenso y las olas crecieron tanto que parecían montañas. Se rompieron los cabos y las velas comenzaron a dar sacudidas hasta desgarrarse. El Masaudi se hundió tras partirse en dos en el año 1330 de la Hégira.
Cada vez que llegaba un nuevo visitante, todos los presentes, sentados a la manera árabe tradicional, nos incorporábamos para estrecharle la mano —¡costaba tanto levantarse del suelo cuando los músculos no se habían ejercitado desde pequeño!—. Algunos ofrecían la muñeca en vez de la mano derecha que tenían pringosa por estar comiendo con ella; la izquierda, ya lo dijimos, no se tendía jamás ya que estaba destinada a la higiene más íntima. Los saludos se hacían interminables pues, como era habitual, se preguntaba por la salud y la familia, deseando los mejores augurios. Tras ello los visitantes eran obsequiados con platillos de cordero del que hacían ademán de comer unos bocados antes de levantarse, momento en el que Abdala Cherif les apremiaba a quedarse, cosa que hacían sólo durante unos minutos, pues quedaban aún muchas casas por visitar y mucho cordero por probar.
—Años después —prosiguió Abdala Cherif, cuando el flujo de visitantes pareció entrar en una tregua—, mi familia construyó otro enorme dhow, que navegó por todo el Índico durante cincuenta años. Se llamaba Fat el Karim (Destino Generoso), y durante la segunda guerra mundial escapó de milagro de los torpedos de los alemanes, que creían que nuestros veleros transportaban a escondidas soldados británicos.
Uno de los nietos trajo un cuenco con dátiles y almendras, y un fuerte café árabe. Suspiró. Él mismo nos sirvió una ronda de aquel café tan cargado y bebió la tacita de un sorbo. Llegaron más visitas y parecía cansado, por lo que el nieto nos preguntó si deseábamos seguir conversando. Le hice una última pregunta:

—Y de todos los puertos que conoció, ¿cuál era su preferido?
—¡Zanzíbar! —exclamó con una determinación que por segundos le devolvió la juventud —. Zanzíbar era un lulu, una perla. Cada noche sueño con ese lugar, con sus árboles, con sus frutos. Zanzíbar era bellísimo. Era un país árabe al que llegábamos con alegría. Allí teníamos familiares; era como llegar a casa y cuando nos íbamos, partíamos siempre con gran pesar, algunos marineros cubrían su rostro para no ver cómo la isla desaparecía en el horizonte. Antes de divisar la costa de Zanzíbar, incluso antes de que nos sobrevolaran las gaviotas, ya sabíamos que estábamos cerca porque el viento nos traía la dulzura de sus especias.

Jordi Esteva con Fura

Jordi Esteva por Ana Briongos

Recuerdo perfectamente el día en que lo conocí. Nuestra común amiga, Mariví, me llevó a casa de Jordi Esteva. Hacía muchos años que oía hablar de él, pero nunca habíamos coincidido. Cuando él andaba por Egipto, yo andaba por Irán; cuando él dirigía las publicaciones de Ajoblanco, yo criaba a mis hijos; sin embargo, de vez en cuando, me llegaban noticias y comentarios sobre Jordi Esteva, que lo iban situando en mi imaginación como un personaje de cuento, casi un mito. Sabía, por lo que me contaban, de su buena planta y de su aspecto sumamente atractivo, pero no supe, hasta que lo conocí, de su carácter amable y bondadoso. Cuando llegué a su casa con mi amiga, yo acababa de publicar mi primer libro sobre Irán, "Negro sobre negro", y hacía pocos días que lo había presentado en Altaïr. En cuanto me vio me dijo que había asistido a la presentación, y que le interesaba mucho lo que escribía. Mi autoestima subió de golpe, viniendo de quien venía el comentario: un fotógrafo reconocido, un entrevistador inteligente que ya había publicado el libro "Mil y una voces", y era un viajero con una larga experiencia, al que yo admiraba.
Desde aquel primer día hemos cultivado una entrañable amistad. Tenemos una manera parecida de mirar el mundo, los dos hemos vivido en países musulmanes, cuya cultura y costumbres nos han influido profundamente. Durante los últimos años he seguido sus viajes para documentarse, y he vivido, como amiga y escritora, su inquietud a la hora de armar un libro de la envergadura de "Los árabes del mar".Todavía no lo he leído; pero me muero de ganas de leerlo.

Mi admirado Jordi Esteva es un ser humano fascinante, con una biografía digna de los héroes que describe y comprende. Viajero, de los que aprende la lengua y las costumbres de los pueblos donde vive, hombre de convicciones contrastadas con la realidad que conoce, no ha tenido la docilidad que los editores y los críticos premian con desaforadas campañas de marketing. Sin embargo, sus lectores lo reconocemos como uno de los grandes, junto a los mejores.
Y es un honor anunciar aquí su libro, que os recomiendo.
Ana Briongos ha hecho un retrato aproximado y cálido de su amigo Jordi Esteva, con la autoridad que le da conocer los países y la cultura árabe como una apasionada viajera inquisitiva.

Bien por Jordi Esteva sugerente y novedoso como siempre. Me impactó su Viaje al país de las almas. Ahora ha vuelto a dar en la diana. REGALO DE ANIVERSARIO

(A la manera de O´Henry)

Autor: Antonio García Muñoz

Faltaban sólo unos días para el aniversario. Veinticinco años de casados daban un saldo bastante positivo. Las alegrías prevalecían sobre las desdichas y seguían amándose a fuerza de hábito, encontrando aún espacio para la pasión de los fines de semana. Era un matrimonio bien avenido, atento a las fechas señaladas –cumpleaños, primera cita, primer encuentro amoroso-, si bien no eran muy amigos de las celebraciones, y ninguno de los dos mencionó esos días previos la cuestión del aniversario. Sin embargo, cada uno de ellos decidió a titulo individual sorprender al otro con un regalo, porque la fecha, esa fecha, lo merecía: era un modo de recordarse que había sobrevivido e iban a enfilar la vejez juntos. Tanto ella como él tenían algunos gustos comunes, unas fantasías muy parecidas y una particularidad que les había hecho reconocerse de inmediato. Los dos eran muy velludos. A él le proliferaba el vello por todo el cuerpo: no solo le cubría el tórax sino que se le rizaba en los hombros y en los omoplatos. Hasta la zona del pubis, todo era una continuidad de espesura que sólo se aclaraba en las costillas, y a ella le gustaba reposar en ese pecho alfombrado, rizar sus dedos en la selva de tonos castaños y bromear con el chiste del oso y la hermosura masculina. Ella acumulaba todo el vello en el pubis, un triangulo invertido de espesor inaudito, un verdadero bosque negro, un felpudo en toda regla como no se había visto nunca, que tapaba sus ingles y resaltaba por la largura de los pelos hasta de perfil.
Educados los dos en la férrea diferenciación de los sexos y en el respeto a la naturaleza, asumían religiosamente ese exceso como un don que no hay que tocar ni corregir, aunque ello fuera motivo de comentarios burlescos entre sus íntimos. Él estaba acostumbrado a que verano tras verano los amigos le encontraran simpáticas analogías con el mono o el oso. Pero él se defendía exponiendo su teoría de la virilidad, que era indisociable de la pelambrera. A ella en cambio le costó aceptar sus abundancias, porque tenía un pudor mayor. Evitó desde joven mostrarse desnuda ante sus compañeras, pues la primera vez en las duchas provocó un no deseado espectáculo que le valió un mote, y ya en la madurez eligió el bañador antes que el bikini para que no rebasaran los pelos la línea de flotación.
Pero las costumbres cambian e imponen nuevos modelos estéticos, y en ese momento de sus vidas, el que coincidió con las vísperas del aniversario, se vieron de pronto, cada uno por su cuenta, como una anomalía andante. Como no eran inmunes a la publicidad ni a la dictadura de la moda, tuvieron que replantearse lo de permanecer en la trinchera. La presión era excesiva: la de la televisión y las revistas, pero también la de sus amigos coetáneos que ya se habían reciclado y defendían, desde la cincuentena, las virtudes de la eterna juventud, que pasaba por la dieta sana, la visita al quirófano y el barnizado de carnes. La nueva sociedad apartaba como muebles viejos a los que dieran indicios de eso, de vejez, y había revertido las identidades sexuales, exigiendo un hombre femenino y una mujer fuerte. La estética ya no era patrimonio de las mujeres y el calvario de la depilación era cosa de dos. El vello no era viril, sino una antigualla, y el pubis muy poblado quitaba posibilidades al tanga, esa segunda piel que las adolescentes de hoy muestran sin pudor.

Él se dejó asesorar por un amigo de infancia que desde tiempo atrás le venía vendiendo las virtudes del rapado integral, y a ella le convenció una amiga operada de todo que una tarde le exhibió su cuerpo neumático sin sombra de vello en las partes. Él no tuvo grandes problemas para encontrar uno de esos centros dermoestéticos que ahora abundan como los bares. Pidió cita, haciéndola coincidir con la fecha del aniversario, y allí le mostraron fotos de futbolistas famosos que habían sido clientes del nuevo templo. Tras dos horas de intensiva poda, con medios muy sofisticados que no le produjeron dolor, salió liso como un bebé, abrillantado de aceites y con la sensación de haber perdidos tres kilos de golpe. Ella se lo hizo sola esa misma tarde, en casa, con medios más tradicionales, unas tijeras con las que recortó sus guedejas y la máquina eléctrica de su marido. Apuró tanto que el resultado no lo hubiera mejorado el suplicio de la cera. Se divirtió mucho pensando que con el montículo que iba dejando caer a sus pies hubiera podido rellenar un cojín pequeño.

El día en que cumplían veinticinco años de casados él evitó la cerveza de la tarde y volvió pronto a casa, hacia las ocho, con un cosquilleo inédito y una excitación especial. Y ella le esperaba con esas mismas sensaciones, recién salida de la ducha y cubierta con un albornoz. Se besaron en el dormitorio y sólo entonces mencionaron la fecha que habría de cambiar sus vidas.
-Feliz aniversario –se dijeron al unísono.
Él se disculpó para entrar en el baño, y en cuanto cerró la puerta, ella se deshizo del albornoz, se sentó en la cama y aguardó, sintiendo un rumor de humedades en su centro despoblado. Él se desnudó en el cuarto de baño y para completar el regalo sorpresa se estimuló una erección ante el espejo.
Cuando él salió del baño enarbolado y poderoso, su mujer abrió las piernas y lo contempló recortado en el marco de la puerta. Entonces se le mudó el rostro y, durante un segundo infinito, revivió la imagen de su hermano adolescente entrando en su habitación, su hermano imberbe, su hermano sin vello, su hermano empinado. Cerró las piernas de golpe. Él miró a la mujer sobre la cama, pero no la reconoció porque el imán de su sexo atrajo toda su atención. Lo que vio fue una vulva desnuda, la expresión del sexo de su hermana más pequeña, que le había traumatizado y asqueado, una especie de almeja siempre irritada de talcos, abultada como gajos de naranja. El imperio de la virilidad se le derrumbó, lo que era ariete quedó como rabo entre la piernas.

Autor: Gatopardo aporta otro final más probable

Él se dejó asesorar por un amigo de infancia que desde tiempo atrás le venía vendiendo las virtudes del rapado integral, Él no tuvo grandes problemas para encontrar uno de esos centros dermoestéticos que ahora abundan como los bares. Pidió cita, haciéndola coincidir con la fecha del aniversario, y allí le mostraron fotos de futbolistas famosos que habían sido clientes del nuevo templo. Tras dos horas de intensiva poda, con medios muy sofisticados que no le produjeron dolor, salió liso como un bebé, abrillantado de aceites y con la sensación de haber perdidos tres kilos de golpe.
Llegó a su casa notando cada poro de su piel, excitado por el roce de la ropa, la brisa suave de la primavera, y abrió la puerta, enardecido y trémulo, como si fuera la primera vez.
Ella estaba echada en la cama, con la luz apagada, vestida, y llorosa.
-¿Qué te pasa?
Ella dirigió la mirada a su pecho depilado, y redobló el llanto.
-Eh, dime qué te pasa.
-Me han llamado para contarme que te has depilado.
Él se sintió cansado de golpe, idiota por haber creído que le haría ilusión.

-Pensé que te gustaría, pero no te preocupes, volverá a crecer. ..
-¿Así de simple? ¿Así de sencillo? ¿Te crees que soy tonta y no sé que eso es para eliminar las ladillas? ¡A saber qué furcia te las habrá contagiado!... ¡Y Dios sabrá qué otra enfermedad habrás traído!
Por primera vez en veinticinco años durmieron en habitaciones separadas.

Buen relato, Antonio. El final de Gatopardo también daría buen juego. Pero tu idea de "literatura asamblearia" no me termina de convencer, aunque lo mismo la implantas y triunfa. Yo creo, todavía, que un autor debe mandar en su obra (con un par) y el lector que se aguante, que para eso estamos.

AHORA

Ahora que sonrío enternecida y no hay dolor que os conmemore, confieso que os amé por naderías:
un rizo en la nuca, el gesto sorprendido, la risa, la tristeza, la voz, una palabra, una mirada esquiva o un temblor.

Y no sé quienes fuisteis ni me importa.
De todo lo vivido recuerdo la tibieza de un abrazo, un gesto adormilado,
un perfil a contraluz en la ventana,
y esa inmensa grisalla emocional, de hombres satisfechos.
Sólo recuerdo un amante de paso, que nada me ofreció que no fuera cierto y no fuera hermoso.
Y aquella alegría iconoclasta de su adiós sin promesas, fue un canto a la vida que aún resuena.

SIEMPRE HA HABIDO CLASES

Hay un tipo de gente que se enardece con el ruido ensordecedor de los tambores y las fanfarrias, y llega al éxtasis místico en la ruta del bombo y del tambor; y hay otra gente que escuchamos con unción la armoniosa yuxtaposición de sonidos y silencios, creada por Mozart.
Hay un tipo de gente que se excita con la mecánica sexual, basada en las elementales nociones sobre el émbolo y el pistón, descrita con un vocabulario cuartelero, paupérrimo y soez , con una cultura agraz aprendida del apareo de las bestias. Y hay otra gente que consideramos la sexualidad como un continente por explorar, un universo por conocer y una experiencia inefable.
Hay quien sacia su hambre engullendo proteinas y grasas, sin apenas masticar, mientras vigila el plato y la fuente. Hay quienes hemos hecho de la comida un ritual civilizado y degustamos los sabores, las texturas y los aromas de los alimentos.

Hay quien mira a un animal y ve filetes, o un abrigo de pieles, y sólo piensa en matarlo. Hay quienes miramos a un animal y vemos la milagrosa belleza de la vida en toda su diversidad, y nos sentimos gratificados con su existencia.
Hay un tipo de gente que simplifica todas las ideas y las experiencias ajenas para que coincidan con su limitación conceptual, y todo lo remiten a sí mismos. Y estamos los que buscamos comprender en toda su complejidad, las variaciones de una argumentación , de un razonamiento, para percibir el universo que nos interpela y nos atrae.
Hay quien se eterniza en lo anecdótico, y desmenuza con fruicción de maniaco las vidas que ve en televisión, y no le pertenecen, y es capaz de fundamentar en eso su existencia, mutilada de protagonismo desde que nació. Hay quienes no podremos jamas comprender tanta estulticia ni querremos hacerlo.
Hay quien expresa con onomatopeyas y frases hechas estridentes emociones indemostrables y sin fuste, que describen el erial de una inteligencia y de una sensibilidad sin cultivar. Hay quienes buscamos la palabra exacta para comunicar y comprender.
Hay mujeres que compran afecto y aceptación con demostraciones de infantilismo y de fingida fragilidad, con un fondo de armario de emociones prêt à porter; malas y sentimentales como el padre de los Karamazov. Y hay mujeres que nos negamos a estafar el amor que podamos inspirar, porque estamos dispuestas a no gustar y a no convencer, con tal de no fingir.
Hay hombres a los que "les sobra el cerebro, porque les basta con la médula espinal", y son basuras, egoistas, y no merecen vivir. Y hay hombres leales y solidarios, como sólo los hombres pueden serlo, poseedores de su propia identidad, cuya existencia es imprescindible.
Hay quien cultiva sus debilidades y exige un respeto para la minusvalía mental que se provoca. Y hay quienes nos mediremos con todas las dificultades, y jamás pediremos piedad.
Cada cual que se sitúe del lado que está, y que no pida el respeto de quien no se lo puede otorgar.

Sra. Gatopardo:
Le hacemos saber que hemos sucedido a Ramiro II que ha decidido abdicar y retirarse a un convento cuyo nombre, según sus deseos, no podemos comunicar a nadie y mucho menos a usted.

Antes de marcharse y como último consejo nos recomendó muy encarecidamente "nunca alabar nada que escriba Gatopardo, pues os jugais la corona". No me dijo nada más.

Ahora, al leer su escrito y después de consultar con los consejeros del Reino, sentimos comunicarle que hemos decidido lo siguiente:

¡Nos jugamos la corona y todo lo que haga falta!. Opinamos que su escrito es magnífico y que se debe incluir como texto de obligada lectura, memorización y análisis en todas nuestras escuelas.

Con nuestros reales saludos,

P.S.
Hemos advertido a nuestros paladines para que estén preparados pero, al decirles que se trata de un posible reto de Gatopardo, uno nos ha dicho que tiene su armadura en la tintorería y el otro dice que tiene pupita en un dedo. Le decimos esto para que swe tome algún tiempo con lo del reto. Vale

Lo que sí tengo claro es que, leyéndote, aprenderé a fondo el oficio de remar, porque he tenido que sudar para cruzar este Amazonas lírico, lleno de pedregosas metáforas flotantes y eufemismos reptilianos. Enfrascado en la procelosa lucha por entenderte, he llegado a besar, por un instante, los labios de la zozobra. Bueno, vale, el beso duró un minuto y medio y fue de tornillo. Pero es que besar me gusta mucho... ya desde

Lo cierto es que hablas con venenosa certeza y dejas clara tu posición en la tabla que dibujas... Sin embargo, no puedo apoyar la reivindicación implícita porque, directamente, no creo en clases. Ni en las oficiales que dibujan las distintas comunidades de la historia ni en las filosóficas que desmenuzas en tu texto. No puedo decantarme por ningún lado porque no me considero superior al que no ha tenido pericia para aprender a disfrutar de vivir en paz. Ni inferior al que acredita un número mayor de virtudes que las mías, fáciles de contar, por otra parte.

Yo miro a mi alrededor y sólo veo hermanos. Hermanos que, como yo, de repente, sin venir a cuento, sin solicitarlo, se vieron viviendo en un planeta, ahí en medio del espacio, que tiene guasa el asunto, si lo piensas... ¿Has visto la película "The Cube"? · http://centros5.pntic.mec.es/ies.victoria.kent/Rincon-C/Alumnos/al-10/al-10.htm · Pues igualito. Pero en la superficie de una una esfera azuloide, en vez de dentro de un cubo. Y veo hermanos equivocados, en su proceder o entender, equivocados desde mi punto de vista. Pero no son "los otros" (con independencia de que no tenga reparos en que paguen por el daño que hagan), son mis hermanos. Y no sé ya cómo convencerlos de que podríamos sentarnos y disfrutar juntos, en vez de pelearnos por lo que cada uno posee.

Existe una campaña por el que que educar la sensibilidad, aprender y mejorar se considera menos progresista que la moda que valora el no pensar, no mejorar, no esforzarse, y no admirar a quienes lo hacen. Y no es de extrañar que sea esa demagogia la que aplauden los hijos de papá metidos a progres.
Wolffo: ya sabes que sólo escribo cosas verdaderamente inspiradas cuando me pongo en trance, y en estado mediumnco, copio lo que tu poderoso cerebro me dicta. Es un secreto que no suelo ocultar.
Detrás del reflejo: se trata de optar, de elegir los estímulos, ya sea para abotagarnos o para crecer. Pero, objetivamente, observo que quienes eligen los estímulos para adocenarse llegan a la madurez y necesitan ansiolíticos y antidepresivos, para soportar la lobotomía a la que se han sometido cuando optaron por el mínimo esfuerzo y cultivando la pereza mental. Y observo que quienes nos esforzamos, no nos conformamos con vegetar, y cultivamos la inteligencia, no necesitamos drogarnos.
También se opta por la clase de felicidad a la que aspiramos, y la mayoría opta por acudir al médico para que los anestesie con benzodiazepinas, Prozac y todo el arsenal porque son atrozmente infelices.

Yo creo que Gatopardo ha sido muy respetuosa y se ha quedado corta en su catálogo binario. Y esa intolerancia que muestra a mí me parece muy saludable, porque los que presumen de respetar todas las opciones, los diplomáticos, los tolerantes y los mansos de carácter incurren en un franciscanismo de fachada que está reñido con nuestra humana condición de odiadores.
Su lista de desprecios coincide con la mía, aunque yo añadiría tres casos más merecedores de descrédito que a ella se le han pasado:
-los que ven la tele (sobre todo las series españolas).
-los que están pendientes del mundial.
-los que conducen.
Estos tres subgéneros de la raza humana no digo que no merezcan vivir, pero espero que se me conceda el derecho a dudar de la calidad de su encefalograma. En lo que no coindido con la briosa Gatopardo es en su visión de la sexualidad: lo del émbolo y el pistón a mí sí me pone mucho, y por lo que hace al vocabulario, prefiero mil veces el cuartelero, castizo y soez castellano antes que las mariconadas de los franceses, que inventaron, no se olvide, eso de hacer el amor, con lo bonito que es follar

Es de suponer que hay varias maneras de nombrar el "pues yo" o "a mi". Eso del egocentrismo tiene mucha caña pero, a veces, los pobres de espíritu solemos utilizar el yo para no involucrar a más de uno.
(Si crees una cosa de la cual no estás seguro, pues dices... "pues yo creo que" o "a mí me parece"... etc.)
Realmente, y sabiendo el gran riesgo que corro, le diré a mi admirada gata que se puede ser muy pobre de espíritu y tener alto grado de estupidez siendo persona de alta cultura.
No hace falta ser asiduo de "Salsa rosa" para llegar a ciertos límites de cetrinidez.
Las onomatopeyas, hoy en día y tal como llevamos nuestra desaforada vida, han pasado a ser un sistema de transmitir emociones o pensamientos con brevedad y eficacia.
Sobre todo, para los que no tenemos la suerte de disponer una cabeza intelectualmente lúcida, aunque nos esforcemos en ello.
Espero que la gata sea benigna conmigo. Sé que voy a recibir un buen rapapolvo pero...
Solo espero que no sea demasiado cruel y deje una pequeña puerta abierta para salvar mi honor.

Y eso tan políticamente correcto de que no hay nadie superior ni inferior es una estafa a la inteligencia.

Por favor, Antonio, siempre he confiado en su caballerosidad, no me sea indiscreto, no diga cuán briosa soy en la intimidad.
Al ser algo mayor que usted, que sólo tiene 120 años, según Tautina, no se habrá enterado que "hacer el amor" no proviene del francés faire l'amour con el significado de baiser, jouir, sino que es una expresión existente en ambos idiomas, que definía los rituales del cortejo y la conquista, previos al apareo. Al utilizarlo como eufemismo, ha empobrecido su significado, y héte aquí que usamos "conquistar" o "ligar", una tomada del lenguaje bélico y la otra empobreciendo el significado metafórico de aleación.
En cualquier momento que considere usted oportuno le puedo explicar por qué "follar" queda muy corto y muy pobre, y lo muy exacto que es el vocablo "inefable" en estas lides. En su casa o en la mía.
Pau:no se trata de buscar en cual lista te coloco yo; porque cada uno se situa según sus opciones a lo largo de la vida, y tengo la sensación de que poco le puedo enseñar que no sepa, así es que no sea usted coqueto, que una no es de piedra ni mucho menos.

Hacía mucho que no entraba en un ajar semejante.
Coincido con Antonio en que te has quedado corta, Gata. De todos modos, ten en cuenta que la EGB ya fue un "crack" y bajó mucho el nivel, luego la ESO más y sigue bajando. El Marca, las revistas del hígado (que no del corazón), la tele y los videojuegos también ayudan lo suyo. Añade a eso que te conocen poco y ya tienes algo del cóctel explosivo que explica, en parte, que algunos digan no entenderte.
Luego ya, se podrá discrepar o no de lo que dices, pero no de lo que pides: ¡menos mediocridad y más inteligencia (de aquella que quería matar Millán-Astray), señores (y señoritas)!
Agur.

TIEMPO DE CANALLAS

El imbécil moral delega la defensa de sus principios en las fuerzas de orden. Tiene miedo, vive en perpetuo estado de alerta, se siente en peligro , sospecha de cualquiera lo peor, y exige mano dura contra quien altere su modorra mental. El imbécil moral no sólo justifica el exterminio de los que se rebelen contra la tiranía y la injusticia, sino que reclama más contundencia.

El imbécil moral es ubicuo: están entre los espectadores y entre los periodistas y los informadores que avalan con su parcialidad los desmanes de los asesinos que disparan a quemarropa proyectiles con gases lacrimógenos, como el que mató a Alexis Benhumea en Atenco: veinte años, estudiante brillante de dos carreras en la Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México, y estudiante de danza clásica desde los ocho años, adherente a La Otra Campaña, esfuerzo civil y pacífico, que había acudido con su padre, médico y defensor de los Derechos Humanos, unicamente armados con sus conviciones.
A Alexis Benhumea lo dejó en coma ese proyectil que impactó en su sien, quebró el hermoso milagro que lo mantenía vivo, y murió ayer, porque los imbéciles morales están provistos de un miedo inabarcable para exigir que los esbirros disparen a matar. Da igual si muere una criatura de catorce años, como Javier, de un balazo en el estómago, o muchacho de veinte años llamado Alexis con más horas de estudio que de diversión en su biografía; les da igual que sólo sean responsables de haber querido ser personas íntegras, da igual si se llaman Javier Cortés, Alexis Benhumea o Digna Ochoa, o Pável González o... ¿cuántos?
Malditos sean los medrosos y quienes los defienden, maldita sea esa lepra moral en forma de cobardía, que permite, después de reclamar mano dura, y justificar lo injustificable, que puedan besar a sus hijos, acariciar a su perro o contemplar la puesta de sol sin que se los trague la tierra.
Son los mismos imbéciles morales que han permitido en catorce paises de Europa, los secuestros de "sospechosos", déportados y condenados sin juicio, "desaparecidos" y remitidos a paises en los que está instituida la tortura, como Yemen, Egipto o cualquiera de los paises esbirros de Estados Unidos Son los mismos que justifican la brutal represión contra quien se manifiesta en México, en Chile, en España...
Estamos viviendo el triunfo de los canallas que no tienen derecho a vivir, mientras golpean, torturan y asesinan a los mejores de entre nosotros. Para nuestra vergüenza si algún día olvidamos las ideas por las que lucharon y dejamos que el miedo nos gane.

Ver video sobre la represión de Atenco . Todo. No cerréis los ojos, porque esta represión sistemática se hizo en Argelia, en Vietnam, en Latinoamérica, en el País Vasco, la están perfeccionando contra los movimientos sociales y de defensa de los derechos básicos.

Miradlos bien, porque vuestros hijos pueden pasar cualquier día por una zona donde estén haciendo razzias indiscriminadas, tirando a matar, golpeando con saña a cualquiera, porque lo importante es que nadie se sienta a salvo y que nadie lo esté, si no forma parte de la casta de los poderosos.

La culpa no es del todo de los perros sino de los que los mandan. Que no son necesariamente lo que se entiende por fascistas, sino también socialistas y de todos los pelajes. No hace maldita la falta que figure en ninguna parte que uno tenga derecho a vivienda, trabajo, pensamiento ó libertad. Ni hace falta decir que el que no trabaja no cobra, y el que no sabe gobernar al paro. Por no decir a la mierda.

Pues tenemos un problema porque desde arriba nos miran y sólo ven números. Eso somos para ellos.

Por eso no les tiembla la mano para organizar una guerra y calcular el número soportable de víctimas propias, en aras de una victoria final. Antes de iniciarse el conflicto ya han decidido que alguno debe morir, puesto que saben que es inevitable. ¿Por qué no se lo explican así a las madres que se sienten orgullosas de tener a su hijo en el frente, defendiendo a la patria, mientras rezan para que todo salga bien?

He visto testimonios de madres que cuentan, orgullosas, cómo sus hijos han muerto defendiéndola, con honor. Y he sentido cierto asco...

No sé en qué parte de una guerra se esconde eso del honor. No lo encuentro por ningún lado.

Mi mujer, como ya sabes, es mexicana. Y me cuenta que allí es otra historia. Si aquí hay corrupción, lo de allí es ya escandaloso.

Por cierto, muchas gracias por tus palabras. :))

Aun estamos en una sociedad donde la brutalidad es la ley, la ley del que manda, en este caso, contra la guerra.
La culpa es de los perros y hay que tratarlos como son, luego ya se buscará a sus jerifaltes. Recordad que un perro de estos se vende por un plato de lentejas.

Autor: Los compañeros velan el cadaver de Alexis

Llega al funeral una multitud para despedirse con el joven disparado con un proyectil de gas
Por Juan Trujillo
El Otro periodismo con la Otra Campaña en la Cuidad de México
8 de junio de 2006
Ciudad de México, México, 7 de junio de 2006. Hoy el corazón de un joven dejó de latir, de sonar, de hablar, de soñar. Hoy el tiempo se detiene para la Otra campaña zapatista y por segunda vez está de luto, -por la muerte de la comandanta Ramona en enero pasado- ahora también Alexis Benhumea se retira. Hoy no solo la historia cambia radicalmente para la familia Benhumea y para el movimiento social, sino también para la Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM), el pueblo de San Salvador Atenco y este país que se llama México.
Hoy a las 2:10 de la madrugada, en el hospital Adolfo López Mateos, el estudiante de 20 años de la Facultad de Economía de la UNAM, adherente a la Sexta Declaración de la Selva Lacandona y militante de la Otra campaña, perdió la batalla contra la muerte. Este acontecimiento al cual Ángel, padre de Alexis, califica de “asesinato de Estado”, se inserta al escenario político mexicano después de que la Comisión Sexta del Ejército Zapatista de Liberación Nacional (EZLN), el subcomandante Marcos, tuviera una estelar participación la noche del lunes, con “casa llena” en un foro de discusión y de lectura de poemas con intelectuales sobre el dramaturgo Bertol Brecht -con el tema literario al parecer como único centro del evento, a unas cuadras de distancia de donde hoy se vela al cuerpo de Alexis-, y por otra parte, el “debate” televisivo de los cinco candidatos a la presidencia de la República la noche de ayer, esto último más bien repleto de monólogos.

Alexis había recibido el mortal impacto de un proyectil de gas lacrimógeno -documentado por Narco News-, en el parietal izquierdo del cráneo, durante la mañana del 4 de mayo en San Salvador Atenco al momento que las fuerzas policiacas federales, estatales y municipales hicieron su segunda incursión represiva por la calle Fresno y principal del poblado.
Desde las 16 horas y durante el transcurso de esta fresca tarde, en la funeraria Los Ángeles de la colonia Roma de esta ciudad capital los familiares, amigos, compañeros de lucha, miembros de ONG de derechos humanos y medios de comunicación comerciales y alternativos se dieron cita para velar el cuerpo de Alexis. La historia de la resistencia de este estudiante es narrada, pausadamente por Ángel, al tiempo que es abordado, intermitentemente, por decenas de personas solidarias. Con semblante firme como la de un fuerte roble, como en pasadas entrevistas, mirada penetrante y sonrisa humilde, el padre relata que la complicación de la salud de su hijo a raíz de la muerte cerebral -diagnosticada y confirmada por este medio el pasado domingo 28 de mayo-, fue en detrimento irreversiblemente, pues “ya los órganos del cuerpo no respondían igual y el corazón dejó de latir”.
A un poco más de un mes de constante angustia para la familia Benhumea, el tiempo parece haberse convertido en años de duración. Hace unos días, según cuenta Ángel, el hospital Zaragoza del Instituto de Seguridad y Servicios Sociales de los Trabajadores del Estado (ISSSTE) presionó a la familia para que trasladaran a Alexis de “terapia intensiva” a un cuarto en sus instalaciones; sin embargo, los Benhumea resistieron y lograron mantenerlo en “terapia intermedia” y su posterior traslado al hospital López Mateos.
Demanda penal y el movimiento antifascista
Mientras llegan decenas de arreglos florales que son colocados junto a los de la Otra campaña y al del EZLN, Ángel comenta a este periodista, que la estrategia para la demanda penal contra este crimen se va a basar en señalar a los culpables de la muerte de Alexis: “El Estado mexicano y sus representantes; el presidente (Vicente Fox) y el gobernador del estado de México (Enrique Peña Nieto) ya que los policías fueron el instrumento”, para ejecutar el operativo militar.
A la pregunta de si tiene confianza en los causes legales para su demanda, Ángel reitera su convicción de lucha, al tiempo que espera justicia y solidaridad del pueblo. “Hay que seguirle,” dijo su padre, quien, como su hijo fallecido, es adherente de la Sexta Declaración de la Selva Lacandona y de la Otra Campaña. “Hay que derribar a ese viejo presidencialismo que se va a deshacer, no es eterno. Espero que la justicia en este país cambie, y los reprimidos son un buen inicio para luchar por esa justicia”.
Para Ángel, a pesar de la muerte de su hijo y ante las demandas de este nuevo movimiento por la justicia, la lucha sigue y sigue pues sostiene firmemente que “tenemos que luchar, no podemos ser cómplices. Necesitamos una nueva forma de hacer política, evitar la intolerancia de estas armas que quieren imponer un régimen fascista. ¡No debemos permitirlo!”.
19:30 horas. Mientras unas 150 personas se concentraban a las afueras del velatorio y hacía su arribo solidario Jorge Salinas, activista telefonista brutalmente reprimido por la policía en Atenco, Ángel con fortaleza y como si no hubiera sentimiento que lo quiebre enfatiza que lo importante en esta lucha es “una nueva forma de hacer política, -pues es necesario- un movimiento antifascista con muchas fuerzas está por construirse”. Sobre la responsabilidad de los jóvenes, agregó: “Estoy sorprendido por la llegada de tanta gente (al velorio), la gente está muy indignada, los jóvenes se ven reflejados en mi hijo”.

La pasarela del dolor, las miradas conmovidas y las lágrimas son largas y seguirán hasta altas horas de la noche. Llegan mujeres, hombres, niños, ancianos: familiares, pobladores de Toluca y el estado de México, profesores y estudiantes de la Facultad de Economía quienes sostuvieron que “Quien no ama la vida, no muere por la vida, por su parte algunos compañeros del Movimiento Internacionalista del que Alexis era parte afirmaron que “Alexis no ha muerto, está en nuestros corazones (...) Su muerte será vengada”
Las voces de la madre y de la tierra
La persona visiblemente más afectada por el deseoso de Alexis es definitivamente su tierna madre. La mirada y tacto de esta delicada mujer al contacto con este periodista hablan por sí solas: dolor, nostalgia, injusticia. El mensaje de su madre Chela, es determinante para los jóvenes: “Cuídense mucho, los jóvenes que están luchando, cuídense de este gobierno”, y en seguida reconoce que “el propio Ollin (Alexis) está muy contento del apoyo que tiene aquí”.
Para muchos, el Delegado Zero debió de haber llegado a este velorio, no obstante según información extraoficial a las 21:00 horas, el sucomandante Marcos habría enviado un mensaje diciendo que se encontraba “en duelo de palabra” por lo tanto guardado silencio, esta es una tradición indígena cuando se da la desafortunada pérdida de un ser querido o en este caso, compañero de lucha. Hasta las casi 21:45 no había noticias de su visita.
21:45 horas. El Frente de Pueblos en Defensa de la Tierra (FPDT) de San Salvador Atenco hizo su arribo al velorio. Entre consignas llenas de energía, los ejidatarios con machete en mano y por conducto de su representante Ortencia expresaron que: “El pueblo de Atenco tiene una herida que se engrandeció con la muerte de Alexis. Alexis no murió, el gobierno lo mató”. Después de entregar a la familia Benhumea un machete como regalo simbólico, hicieron también la invitación para que el cuerpo de Alexis descanse en el panteón de Atenco. El entierro estaba originalmente programado para el día de mañana jueves a las 13:00 horas en el panteón de la colonia San Jerónimo, no obstante, hasta este momento mientras la gente solidaria sigue llegando, la familia valoraba todavía la iniciativa del FPDT.
Hoy el tiempo y la palabra se han detenido por momentos. Pero la fuerte convicción de las voces y gritos de solidaridad rompen el silencio ensordecedor para exigir justicia y libertad. Esta pérdida de un adherente a la Sexta Declaración y de la Otra Campaña podría significar el fin de una vida, pero también el principio de algo más que quizá, está por venir.

Siempre ha sido tiempo de canallas y de lucha. La gran desgracia de nuestro tiempo es que la gente tiene medios para influir y hacer la sociedad más justa, pero sigue actuando de modo egoísta o ignorante. La gente se cree más inteligente obteniendo un beneficio inmediato aunque suponga a largo plazo un perjuicio para muchos y cuando ese mal se instala, entonces se queda quieta, sin saber qué hacer, creyendo que hay otros que solucionarán el problema por ellos.

Estaba escribiendo un post para mi blog, te cojo ese enlace a informativos telecinco. Te dejo yo éste, una petición online para que el estado intervenga en el sector inmobiliario. Si te gusta la idea firma. Estamos en un estado social que debería influir para que este tipo de despropósitos (burbujas inmobiliarias) no ocurran.

DESPEDIDA DE SOLTERO HORTERA CON CHORRERAS LUMÍNICAS EN EL PATRIMONIO HISTÓRICO ESPAÑOL

Ya hemos tenido ocasión de conocer el desparpajo del equipo de Gobierno del Ayuntamiento de Boadilla del Monte (Madrid), y hoy hemos de abundar en su certero mal gusto para escoger amigos con hijos casaderos. Ver la decoración me hace sentir la necesidad de legislar la eugenesia, de modo y manera que no puedan multiplicarse.

Denuncia interpuesta en el Juzgado de Móstoles por los concejales de la oposición, Enrique Hernández Fernández, portavoz del Grupo Socialista; José Carlos de los Riscos Hidalgo, secretario general de la Agrupación Socialista; y Ángel Galindo Álvarez, portavoz del Grupo Alternativa por Bobadilla:
Copio:
"PRIMERO.-Que durante la mañana de hoy, personados ante las dependencias del Palacio “Infante Don Luis” sito en Boadilla del Monte, y ante una inspección ocular de la zona, hemos observado como tanto en la zona exterior del Palacio como en su interior, y jardines traseros, se estaban efectuando diversas obras, acondicionando la zona para la celebración de un evento.
Puestos en contacto con las personas encargadas de tal acto, nos han comunicado que se estaban realizando desde hacía varios días, diversas obras de acondicionamiento de tan ilustre Edificio, para la celebración de una Fiesta Particular.
Dicho evento va a concentrar aproximadamente a unas 450 personas, entre invitados y personal organizador.
El citado evento va a estar dividido en dos actos muy diferenciados:
- un primera acto, consistente en un concierto musical representado por la Orquesta Albéniz (integrante de PROSEGUR);
- y un segundo acto, consistente en la celebración propiamente dicha que se encontrará integrada por los siguientes: recepción, cena, baile incluyendo barra libre de copas, etc.

SEGUNDO (...) el uso del Palacio del "Infante Don Luis" corresponde al Excmo. Ayuntamiento de Boadilla del Monte, este edificio, debido a su especial situación, se encuentra protegido desde el año 1974, con la declaración de Conjunto Monumental Histórico-Artístico BIC ("bien de interés cultural") dentro de la Dirección General del Patrimonio de la Comunidad Autónoma de Madrid.
Tal protección se extiende a todas sus dependencias, internas, externas y jardines, de ahí que cualquier tipo de obra o modificación requiere inexcusablemente de la autorización de la Dirección General del Patrimonio (...) Con ello queremos decir, que no solamente requiere de una mera autorización, sino que a todo ello le precede una tramitación legal necesaria, de estudio del proyecto del evento realizado por técnicos colegiados cualificados para su emisión, así como del correspondiente Informe Favorable de Patrimonio que permita su ejecución, llevada a cabo y conclusión.
Pues bien, nada de esto ha ocurrido en este caso.
Siguiendo las indicaciones de D. Juan Jesús Siguero Aguilar, Concejal de hacienda y Patrimonio del Excmo. Ayuntamiento de Boadilla del Monte, la empresa organizadora del evento, "YA 2, S.L." procedió a solicitar de tal Consistorio autorización para el uso del Palacio "Infante don Luis", a cambio de lo cual abonó una tasa de aproximadamente 11.800.- Euros, comprometiéndose asimismo, PROSEGUR, a ceder su Orquesta Albéniz para la celebración de 4 recitales musicales en las dependencias de nuestro municipio.
Es más, la Autorización del Ayuntamiento de Boadilla del Monte firmada por d. Juan Jesús Siguero Aguilar, Concejal de Hacienda y Patrimonio del Excmo. Ayuntamiento de Boadilla del Monte, el pasado día 17 de Mayo de 2006, ya hacía prever a la empresa organizadora de este hecho, de que cualquier obra o autorización tenía que otorgarla la Comunidad de Madrid.
Pues bien, hasta la fecha, y un par de horas antes de la celebración del supuesto evento, la Direccion General de Patrimonio no tiene conocimiento de la celebración del evento, ni mucho menos le han sido solicitada autorización alguna para la realización o ejecución del acto o proyecto

TERCERO.- De una mera inspección ocular del interior y exterior del edificio, tal y como se acredita mediante el reportaje fotográfico que ha sido tomado in situ durante la mañana de hoy, podemos observar como la ejecución y conclusión de las obras que ha comportado dicho evento, han supuesto graves perjuicios para un edificio protegido, con el agravante de que el estado de conservación del mismo, -como es de todos sabidos- se encuentra gravísimamente deteriorado por el paso del tiempo.
La propia empresa organizadora estaba preocupada por el estado del circuito de cañerías que componen el sistema de canalización de aguas del edificio, por las gravísimas y continuas pérdidas de agua que por el pésimo estado en que se encuentra el edificio, puede repercutir directamente en el estado de cimentación de la construcción.
De la inspección ocular a que hacemos referencia, podemos destacar las siguientes obras e instalaciones que se han realizado en el edificio, y cuya autorización no existe por parte de la Dirección General del Patrimonio:

A) INTERIORES DEL PALACIO
- Se ha procedido, indiscriminadamente, a la instalación de un sistema de luces a lo largo de las dos plantas que distribuyen el edificio, observándose lo siguiente:
- En la zona de la capilla se ha instalado tomando como base las columnas laterales una liada de bombillas que cuelgan desde la cúpula de la capilla hasta el suelo.
- En la zona de la escalera que sube de la planta baja a la primera planta, a los lados de la misma existen tubos fluorescentes a modo de "discoteca" en la que se incluyen diversas fechas, y dibujos, etc.

- En las dependencias se han colocado tanto en la zona de rodapiés, así como en las distintas paredes, luces de todo tipo, para lo cual se ha tenido que taladrar indiscriminadamente en las paredes de las instancias.
- En los balcones se han instalado luces de iluminación.
- En toda la planta superior del edificio, se han instalado placas de césped natural a modo de alfombra o moqueta, que ha sido regado continuamente hasta la celebración del evento para su conservación.
- En la planta superior se han instalado dos zonas de lavabo o baño para los asistentes al evento, con paneles desmontables, y debido a que el sistema de canalización del palacio no resiste la toma de agua para desaguar estos aseos, se ha instalado por la empresa organizadora un sistema para proceder a tal agüe y desagüe.
- En dos dependencias se han instalado del techo unas planchas con plantas colgando del techo hasta casi la mitad de la habitación. Y en una de ellas, se ha colgado un árbol con raíces y todo, estando sujeto con alambres a los frescos que existen en dicha dependencia.
- En determinadas zonas de las dependencias de las dos plantas han sido pintadas sin tomar ningún tipo de diligencia.

B) EXTERIORES DEL PALACIO
- Parte anterior del Palacio:
- Se ha instalado en una pasarela de entrada al acceso principal con una estructura totalmente fija para ello.
- Parte posterior del Palacio:
- Se ha instalado diversas zonas, que podríamos distribuirlas de la siguiente manera
- Con distribución de dos zonas, una de recepción a la celebración del evento, y una posterior que va a ser la correspondiente al baile de “zona exterior”.
- Se han instalado diversas bombillas que integran unas frases hechas de detalle a los celebrantes en los muros perimetrales.
- En la segunda plataforma de los jardines interiores, se ha habilitado, al parecer, una zona para la realización de Fuegos Artificiales, cuya realización necesita la consiguiente autorización, y además, tampoco consta que vaya a estar allí presente la consiguiente dotación de bomberos que resulta obligatoria para tales casos. La organización dice que tienen un total de 40 extintores, pero nada más. Estamos hablando de unos jardines enclavados en un edificio protegido por Patrimonio, y en un entorno de pleno monte protegido, también, por su enclave y diversidad natural.

Unico.-Debemos recordar, que a tenor de lo dispuesto en el artículo 28 de la Ley de Patrimonio, es obligación de la Administración el de proteger y defender su patrimonio.
A estos efectos, el artículo 19 de la Ley 16/1985 de Patrimonio Histórico Español establece literalmente lo siguiente:
1. En los Monumentos declarados Bienes de Interés Cultural no podrá realizarse obra interior o exterior que afecte directamente al inmueble o a cualquiera de sus partes integrantes o pertenencias sin autorización expresa de los Organismos competentes para la ejecución de esta Ley. Será preceptiva la misma autorización para colocar en fachadas o en cubiertas cualquier clase de rótulo, señal o símbolo, así como para realizar obras en el entorno afectado por la declaración.
2. Las obras que afecten a los Jardines Históricos declarados de interés cultural y a su entorno, así como la colocación en ellos de cualquier clase de rótulo, señal o símbolo, necesitarán autorización expresa de los Organismos competentes para la ejecución de esta Ley.
3. Queda prohibida la colocación de publicidad comercial y de cualquier clase de cables, antenas y conducciones aparentes en los Jardines Históricos y en las fachadas y cubiertas de los Monumentos declarados de interés cultural. Se prohíbe también toda construcción que altere el carácter de los inmuebles a que hace referencia este artículo o perturbe su contemplación."

A 26 de mayo de 2006. (fin de la cita)

Y el equipo de Gobierno del Ayuntamiento de Boadilla no está contemplado entre las especies potencialmente peligrosas, lo prometo.

Además del alcalde, son responsables de esta salvajada contra el Patrimonio la familia Gut-Revoredo, propietaria mayoritaria de Prosegur. Siniestra familia, miembro del Opus Dei, entre cuyos "negocios raros" están la venta de Euroforum a la Sociedad Fancar de Inversiones, los trapicheos de ADEFAM con las distintas administraciones y con Garrigues, etc, etc. Por no hablar de Brasil. La hortera madre de la hortera novia es Helena Revoredo (presidenta de ADEFAM y Euroforum), la hortera novia creo que es Chantal Gut Revoredo. Al novio no lo tengo localizado, pero aparecerá en algún chanchullo. No falla.

DESDE QUE MURIÓ MI MARIDO

Aparentemente no eramos una pareja romántica, no salíamos casi nunca juntos, si no era para asistir a las bodas, bautizos, y funerales familiares. Mi marido no era detallista, olvidaba mis cumpleaños, los aniversarios, y, sin embargo, era capaz de andar tres kilómetros, campo a través, para encontrar lirios, porque me había escuchado comentar cuánto me gustaban. Y descepó uno, metió en una bolsa de plástico las raices con el cepellón de tierra, llegó a casa, dejó las pisadas embarradas por todo el pasillo, salió al patio, y plantó los lirios donde yo los viera desde la ventana de la cocina. Cuando quise darme cuenta, a la mañana siguiente, ya le había echado una bronca de órdago por no haberse cambiado las botas y manchar el suelo. Pero no contestó, no me dijo por qué no había podido pararse a quitarse las botas y ponerse las zapatillas, con una bolsa de diez kilos de tierra de la que sobresalía media docena de lirios azules de más de medio metro de altura.

Y yo no le pedí perdón, ni le dije cuánto le agradecía ese hermoso regalo. Le preparé para comer croquetas de merluza y un moje con tomate rallado, cebolla bien picada, atún escabechado casero, aceitunas negras y verdes, una pizca de orégano, sal, pimienta blanca, y un buen chorro de aceite de oliva, del nuestro. Y para el postre, cocí unas mondaduras de naranja y limón con un palito de canela, y le hice natillas de huevo, al baño maría, removiendo todo el tiempo, sin prisas. Luego, cuando ya estaban frías, puse un buen montón de azucar morena por encima, y la quemé con la plancha casi al rojo.

No me dijo si estaba bueno o malo; pero su expresión de arrobo y de alegría era mucho más elocuente que todas las palabras.

Y, qué cosas, cuando murió seguí mi vida aparentemente normal, y, sin embargo, hasta ayer, había perdido las ganas, ni pensaba en eso.

Al cabo de unos años, a veces, después de bañarme, lo hacía yo sola, pero sin alegría, sin gusto alguno, por pura necesidad. Y el resultado era un desatre, claro.

En todos este tiempo no había vuelto a sentir esa emoción impaciente de la espera, esa ilusión.

Pedro me esperaba, y me saludó con su gran sonrisa. Me situó frente al espejo, me ayudó a quitarme la chaqueta. Dejó mi pelo suelto, y jugó con los mechones entre sus dedos, lo ahuecó, y estudiaba mi rostro a través del espejo, captando mis reacciones, mi turbación.

—Espera, aún no, hace demasiado tiempo y...

—¡Confía en mí!— me dijo.

Yo temblaba. Pero todo fue tan delicado, tan despacioso, tan relajante... Y le dije que sí, que hiciera lo que quisiera.

—No, no lo que yo quiera, lo que tú necesitas...

Me hizo un corte de pelo y un moldeador precioso... ¡Pero, cómo ha subido el precio de la peluquería en estos seis años!

Ya sé que no le gusta que cuando escribe le digan "que bien, que bonito, me ha entusiasmado..etcétera." Pues lo siento, se fastidia usted, eso le pasa por escribir bien; por escribir historias tan llenas de ternura y además, con esos finales tan inesperados que son la rúbrica tan personal que hace que sus escritos sean inconfundibles.
De manera que, aunque le dé la pataleta debo decirle que su cuento me ha gustado mucho.

me ha gustado, pero si lo que querías es que en el párrafo "Al cabo de unos años, a veces, después de bañarme, lo hacía yo sola, pero sin alegría, sin gusto alguno, por pura necesidad. Y el resultado era un desatre, claro.", pensáramos en masturbación y después en sexo, yo lo he hecho pero sin convencimiento. No sé, es una cuestión de expectativas, no esperas que un cuento que ha empezado como el tuyo luego se ponga a hablar de sexo sin ningún tapujo, es una cuestión de convenciones culturales y literarias de esta sociedad y este tiempo en que vivimos.

Me fui al concierto tres horas antes para pillar sitio, pero qué va, tuve que pagarle 20 euros a un grupo de niñatos idiotas para que me hicieran sitio en primera fila. Cuando empezaron a tocar, me pegué todo el concierto bailando, a tres metros de él. Tocó todo el tiempo mirándome, con sus gafas de sol, guapísimo, no me perdió de vista en ningún momento. Nunca había bailado tan bien, como si la música se me metiera dentro.
Y cuando terminó, da unas palmadas sonriendo, me acerco, y lo veo que abre los brazos. Me latía el corazón a mil y me quedé un momento parada. Y llega un puto chucho asqueroso, se abalanza, y se pone a hacerle carantoñas y a jugar con él, pasando de mí. Y se fue con él, agüela, con el puto perro, qué corte más chungo, es que ni volvió la cabeza.
Y estoy en mi casa, encerrada en mi habitación, no puedo parar de llorar. No sé cómo pueden ser algunos tíos tan bordes, agüela, encima de que todo el concierto me estuvo comiendo con la mirada.

¡ESTO ES CALCUTA!, NUEVO LIBRO DE ANA BRIONGOS

Ana Briongos pertenece a las privilegiadas escritoras que transmiten su fascinante personalidad: vital, risueña, provista de un sentido del humor admirable, ha conocido a fondo los paises que describe, huye de los clichés, y ha establecido lazos amorosos con quienes son sus anfitriones. Escribí sobre ella anteriormente, Mi admirada Ana Briongos, y publicó en Gatopardo un capítulo de su libro "Un invierno en Kandahar". Sigo sin conocerla personalmente, que es una de las cosas que lamento en esta vida.
Este es un fragmento de su nuevo libro "¡Esto es Calcuta!", un viaje iniciático, como todos los suyos, descrito con perspicacia y transparencia. Ana Briongos dice: "El hilo conductor del libro es la difícil y complicada historia de amor y matrimonio entre un artista dibujante de comics catalán que vivió durante muchos años en la India y una mujer bengalí." (...) El libro está dedicado a mi madre, antigua maestra y admiradora del escritor y pedagogo bengalí Rabindranath Tagore y que, con 86 años, se animó a instalarse conmigo en Calcuta durante una temporada y cuya mirada, observaciones y reflexiones me sirvieron para tener una visión distinta, una visión sabia, de lo que estábamos viviendo."

Capítulo de "¡Esto es Calcuta": La familia ideal

Unos golpecitos en la puerta de la habitación me devolvieron a este mundo. Estaba sudando, tenía la ropa pegada al cuerpo y el pelo húmedo y pegajoso. Me había echado en la cama vestida a media mañana y, aunque estábamos en diciembre, durante el día, el sol pega de lleno y hace calor en Calcuta. Tras abrir la puerta y apartar la cortina, colgada de una cuerda tendida por fuera del vano, me encontré frente a un empleado de pelo blanco y aspecto rijoso. "Tiene usted visita", me comunicó sonriente y tranquilo. La ducha no ayuda gran cosa porque, antes incluso de terminar de secarte, ya vuelves a tener la misma sensación de calor pegajoso. Y algo parecido pasa si te cambias de ropa, pues, aunque la guardes en un armario, el tejido absorbe la humedad y el calor ambientes. Pero qué vas a hacer. Además, durante los pocos segundos que tarda en evaporarse la colonia que te eches sobre el cuello y los brazos, la sensación de frescor es objetiva. Y la mejora del olor, también.
Cuando bajé las escaleras que van a parar al salón-comedor, un hermoso espacio hipóstilo y abierto de par en par al exterior, no pude ver a nadie esperándome. Salí al jardín y tampoco había a nadie. Regresé a la entrada y, en una esquina de la zona donde se paran los taxis, que entran por el arco para dejar o recoger a los clientes, los vi. Y me quedé asombrada. Porque, como era de prever, allí estaban Nur Islam y

Nilufar, pero en compañía de ¡tres niños! limpios, bien vestidos, repeinados y radiantes. En lugar de esperarme sentados en los sillones de mimbre de recepción, o en torno a las mesas del jardín, permanecían todos de pie. No mostraban la curiosidad del intruso en un ambiente que no le corresponde ni, tampoco, la suficiencia de los indios ricos, acostumbrados a viajar y parar en los hoteles de postín. Se limitaban a esperar callados, tímidos y un poco apartados, como para no molestar. O por decirlo en otras palabras: era evidente que con sólo llegar a su habitación del Time Star hotel y cambiarse de ropa, Andrés había recuperado de golpe su personalidad calcuteña. Por ello, lejos de servirse de los privilegios de ser extranjero, ya se había situado socialmente en el sitio que él mismo escogiera cuando vivía aquí, suponía yo, el que correspondería a un vecino cualquiera del barrio. Cada vez que pienso en aquel momento, todavía sigo viendo con toda nitidez ese retrato de grupo, o por mejor decir, ese retrato de familia. Nur Islam relucía con su shalvar kurta blanca, limpia y planchada, a juego con el pequeño turbante también blanco; a su lado, y vestida con un shalvar kamiz de tonos suaves, en un degradado de rosas y anaranjados que le sentaba muy bien a su piel oscura, Nilufar sostenía en los brazos a un bebé de unos cuatro o cinco meses, que me miraba con unos ojos enormes pintados de negro; algo apartada, una niña de unos diez años ataviada con un vestido a flores, tan recién estrenado que casi esperabas ver la etiqueta de la tienda de Barcelona donde fue comprado, me miraba muy seria y sin pestañear, y un poco adelantado, pero pegado a su madre, un niño más pequeño, delgadísimo y con aspecto simpático, me observaba entre pasmado y asustado. Sus piernas como alambres sin forma salían de unos botines negros enormes, puntiagudos y relucientes, y se escondían en unos pantalones cortos y nuevos. Una camiseta también nueva, con un pato Donald en el pecho, completaba el atuendo.
Nilufar me obsequió con una de esas sonrisas que le iluminan la cara. Seguía siendo joven, esbelta y muy hermosa, pero aquella tímida muchacha a la que conocí en mi casa se había transformado en una mujer adulta. De puro radiante, Andrés me pareció a su lado casi un hombre viejo y cansado. Lo miré con curiosidad y él me devolvió una sonrisa. Por el brillo de sus ojos, más que por el gesto de su boca escondida entre tan abundante pelambrera, intuí que detrás de su hierática presencia, en el interior de su cerebro misterioso y complejo, saltaban y hacían volteretas invisibles diablillos traviesos, unos djins chispeantes, que estaban celebrando el haber conseguido sorprenderme. Él mismo parecía estar sorprendido y querer compartir conmigo esa sorpresa. La había encontrado, y resulta que estaba cargada de niños. Pero, una vez pasada la primera sorpresa, lo aceptaba sin más, con la misma naturalidad (o fatalismo) que le permitía recuperar de golpe su personalidad calcuteña.
Fue entonces cuando se me ocurrió que, incluso no siendo la suya, una familia como aquella era la que le hubiera gustado tener a Nur Islam. Y, por un instante. esa imagen tan vívida pareció quedar fija para siempre en mi retina, pero bastó un solo movimiento (quizá un taxi queriendo entrar y que nos obligó a echarnos a un lado) para que ese retrato, en apariencia imperecedero, se desvaneciese como un craquelado que resbala por un vidrio.
Una vez roto el estatismo del grupo, todos entramos en una suerte de movimiento continuo. Nos saludamos, intercambiamos besos como acostumbramos los occidentales y salimos del hotel. Con un niño agarrado a cada mano me ví a mi misma transformada en esa extranjera con niño indio, tan frecuente en Sudder Street, de las que todos los días se llevan a algún crio al tenderete cercano para comprarle galletas o caramelos. Los habitantes de la acera de enfrente nos miraban con disimulada atención. Es de suponer que, antes incluso de verlos entrar juntos en el jardín del hotel, ya se estaba corriendo la voz de que Nur Islam y Nilú se habían reencontrado. Pero yo era un elemento imprevisto en el cuadro y de ahí que, sin dejar sus respectivas ocupaciones, nos siguieran de lejos con la mirada, para luego acabar entre ellos de encajarme en el cuadro. Curiosamente, aunque yo no lo supe hasta que (medio muerta de risa) me lo contó, más tarde, la propia Nilufar, el barrio era mayoritariamente favorable a la reanudación de su matrimonio ,tras muchas cábalas y conjeturas, acabaron encontrándome la función más positiva de cara a dicha recomposición: entre todos habían acabado decidiendo que yo era sin duda miembro de alguna ONG extranjera (y más concretamente española, porque últimamente habían pasado por allí los de Sabera, con Penélope Cruz, Nacho Cano y el Banderas, y habían dado que hablar) y, por lo tanto, la encargada de que nunca más volviese a faltarles de nada a Nilú y Nur Islam, ni a los hijos de aquí ni a los hijos de allá. Todos felices. Una suerte de hada madrina. O una garantía de eterna prosperidad. Qué majos.

He leído el libro ¡Esto es calcuta! y me ha gustado mucho, no podía parar desde que empecé a leerlo. Es una visión distinta de la India. Es un libro triste y a la vez esperanzador, es muy ameno, te enteras de muchísimas cosas y hay anécdotas divertidas. Supongo que la crítica que hace al turismo de caridad levantará alguna ampolla aunque es una crítica ponderada. No os lo perdáis. Respecto a Rabindranaz es como si estuviera pasado de moda. Otro gran libro de Ana Briongos. Mi preferido era un invierno en Kandahar, pero tras la lectura de ¡Esto es Calcuta! Ya no se por cuál decidirme. Está soberbiamente narrado, con humanidad y una cierta melancolía. El cuidado por los detalles te transportan a la ciudad más intelectual y culta de la India, con sus puestos de libros, el Indian Cofee House, la calle hippy del Salvation Army. La historia de la joven india está muy bien hilvanada. Los personajes secundarios están muy bien tratados. Me gustaba especialmente el de la casera, tan fría y cortante. Leed ¡Esto es Calcuta! ¡No os lo perdais!

Marta: coincido contigo respecto al libro de Ana, pero creo que su crítica del turismo de caridad y las ONGs asociadas está muy bien argumentado, y será motivo de reflexión.
Respecto a Rabindranz Tagore, más bien es un autor para degustar y dejarse encandilar por su melodía y su alma, como mi admirada Trini, que tengo en mis enlaces, y que no lo había leído, y, sin embargo, me lo recuerda. Y estoy segura de que volverán a editarlo y a leerlo, porque no pierde con los años.
Joan, seguro que te fascinará.
Juan: qué alegría tenerte aquí: eres el fotógrafo del alma humana, y las personas que retratas siempre se me quedan en la memoria como si estuvieran conmigo.
Luna: los Ancares están en la provincia de Lugo, limitando con la provincia de León, y vale la pena visitar sin prisa, (no se puede subir en coche) Pedrafita do Cebreiro, As Nogais, Becerreá, San Román de Cervantes, Navia de Suarna y echar la parrafada con la gente con tranquilidad. No es sólo el paisaje, también es el "tempo", las personas que viven allí, y que me ha recordado los viajes de Ana Briongos, en los que se sumerge en el país y en la gente.

La debilidad es una vulgaridad, Luna, que sólo te hará diana de los sádicos, tirala por la ventana.

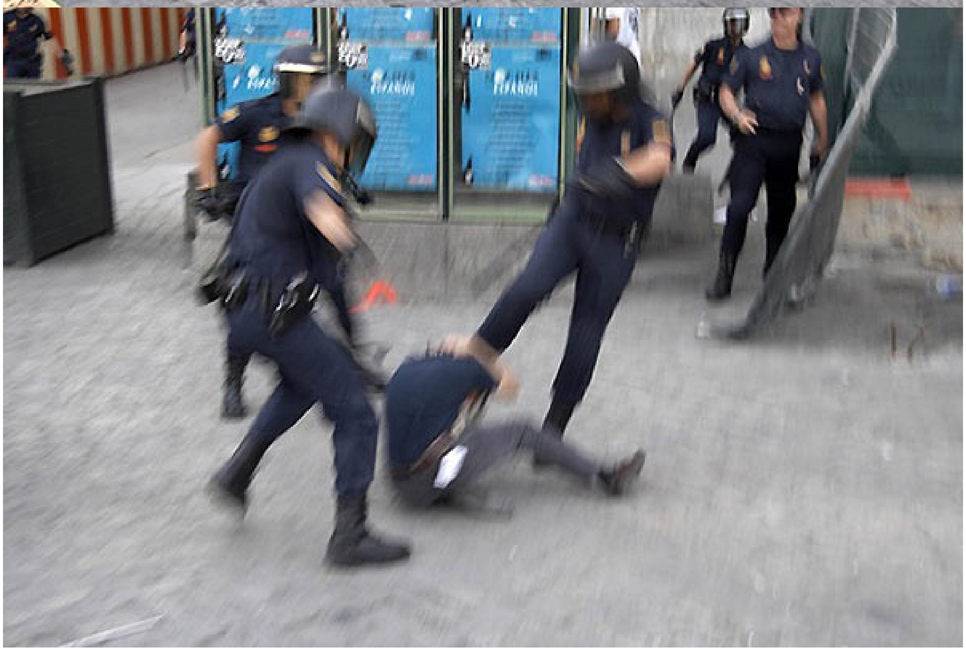
CARTA ABIERTA AL GOBIERNO DE ESPAÑA

Señor Presidente del Gobierno de España, señores ministros: en la Constitución española, existe un artículo de contenido gaseoso, teórico, hipotético y de etiología idiopática:

Artículo 47

Todos los españoles tienen derecho a disfrutar de una vivienda digna y adecuada. Los poderes públicos promoverán las condiciones necesarias y establecerán las normas pertinentes para hacer efectivo este derecho, regulando la utilización del suelo de acuerdo con el interés general para impedir la especulación. La comunidad participará en las plusvalías que genere la acción urbanística de los entes públicos.

Elimínenlo o hagan lo necesario para hacerlo efectivo. No manden a los antidisturbios con órdenes de atacar contra los jóvenes que participan en las sentadas pacíficas para pedir ese derecho, que nuestra Constitución reconoce, porque están sembrando la semilla del odio, porque su actuación no tiene legitimidad alguna: se comportan como bandas de sicarios y matones, a sus órdenes.



Fotos publicadas en 20 minutos.es de Edu León

Ese salvajismo policial contra los ciudadanos no es lícito, no es legal, ni legítimo, y ustedes son directamente responsables. Cuando los gobernantes son injustos, lo único lícito es la rebelión.
Este vídeo, realizado por Alejandra Andrade y Alfonso Diaz Lara, demuestra que, en una mañana, unos periodistas han sido capaces de encontrar cinco casos de fraude con las viviendas en protección oficial.
Sin ser inspectores de Hacienda, la mayoría de los ciudadanos reconocemos a quienes tienen un nivel de vida superior a sus ingresos lícitos y justificables: suelen ser promotores inmobiliarios, intermediarios y políticos próximos a las concejalías de Urbanismo, constructores afines al partido que elabore el Plan General de Ordenación Urbana y sepa cuáles serán los terrenos recalificables.
No manden a la policía contra los manifestantes; enviénla a investigar el fraude inmobiliario, y la especulación urbanística.
Si ustedes no beneficiaran con su lenidad a los especuladores, el fraude, las comisiones, los sobornos, y la especulación no existirían.

Personalmente creo que no va a ser nada fácil frenar la especulación, puesto que sobrevive con la connivencia del propio ciudadano comprador. Caso de no frenarse, desconozco cómo acabaría puesto que no tengo conocimientos de economía.

Respecto a la actuación policial, se plantea el dilema de siempre (supongo que se lo plantea el cuerpo, quiero decir, o está implícitamente planteado en las políticas a seguir): si se fomenta una actuación más respetuosa, perderán en autoridad y los instigadores aprovecharás para contraatacar. Si mantienen la dureza de sus actuaciones, aún con ánimo intimidatorio, acaban produciéndose excesos, como el que presentas en el post.

Debería legislarse para que fuera obligatorio grabar (por los propios policías) todas aquellas cargas policiales que sean ordenadas por las instancias superiores, como una especia de caja negra de conductas.

Si se ordena una carga, donde sea, se graba, por la propia policía o agente agragado imparcial. ¿Por qué no lo hacen ya así, de hecho? ¿por qué tenemos que ver estas cosas ocasionalmente, porque había un cámara por allí... y cuántas escenas de este tipo quedan en el olvido, en denuncias anónimas que no pueden probarse?

No, no. A ningún soldado lo sueltan por el campo a su albedrío, siempre hay superiores que coordinan y vigilan. Pues lo mismo con éstos. Y al que no le guste, que se apunte al INEM. Algo alternativo saldrá.

¿Se graba el madero con una mano mientras da porrazos con la otra?
¿el "agregado imparcial" ha de ser licenciado en la Facultad de Periodismo (imagen)?
¿podrían incorporarse los maderos un video (oculto) entre los cuernos?. Ya ves que yo también quiero aportar algo al debate.
¿Los instigadores son alguna asociación ilegalizada o es algún grupo de música que desconozco?¿Pueden grabar viodeo o sólo tomar esbozos de las palizas con carboncillo?
Por no alargar la cosa: ¿No te habrás confundido a los soldados con algún rebaño de cabras? Tu idea de la estrategia militar y disciplina castrense deja algo que desear.

La revista Interviu ha entrevistado al empresario Mariano Illera Sanz, que, tal como reveló elplural.com, en enero de 2001 vendió fincas rústicas en el municipio madrileño de Tres Cantos a familiares de Esperanza Aguirre, presidenta de la Comunidad de Madrid, poco antes de que fueran recalificadas para aumentar considerablmente su valor. Illera habla del engaño del que fue víctima por los parientes de Aguirre.

El empresario Mariano Illera Sanz vendió sus 23 fincas rústicas de Tres Cantos a cuatro tíos maternos y cinco primos carnales de Esperanza Aguirre. A los pocos días se recalificaron los terrenos, aumentando considerablemente su valor. Illena explica cómo se sintió engañado por los parientes de Aguirre.

Ésta no ha sido la primera vez que la familia de la política del PP se beneficia de una recalificación de terreno. Hace dos años una parte de sus parientes, propietarios de unas tierras por las que pasaba el trazado del AVE Madrid-Barcelona, vieron cómo el precio de su tierra se triplicaba por la construcción de la línea férrea, tal como explicamos también en elplural.com.

Interviú se hace eco de las noticias desveladas por elplural.com sobre las tramas urbanísticas de los parientes de Aguirre. Así en su número de esta semana la revista dedica cuatro páginas a lo que ha titulado El pelotazo de los parientes de la presidenta, en el que incluye la entrevista al empresario Mariano Illera Sanz, víctima de los engaños de la familia de Aguirre.

Las quería vender Según relata Illera en Interviú, llevaba tiempo queriendo vender las fincas rústicas ubicadas en Tres Cantos, y “no había manera”. Esas tierras las había comprado él y un socio en 1998 por doce millones de pesetas (72.000 euros). Así que le pareció un negocio magnífico venderlas por “4.800.000 euros”, dinero que le ofrecían los parientes de la presidenta de la Comunidad de Madrid.

Illera creyó que ese había sido uno de los mejores negocios de su vida; pero se equivocaba. El empresario desconocía en el momento de la venta que esos terrenos iban a recalificarse. “No soy tonto: si lo hubiera sabido los hubiese vendido más caros”, afirma.

11 millones de euros El 13 de febrero de 2001, poco después de que Illera hubiera firmado el contrato de arras, el pleno del Ayuntamiento de Tres Cantos, gobernado por una coalición entre el PP y el partido independiente de Tres Cantos Unido, aprobó el Avance del Plan General de Ordenación Urbana (PGOU), que afectaba a 17 de esas 23 fincas.

Los nuevos dueños de los terrenos (los parientes de Aguirre) no vendieron inmediatamente, sino tres años después estas fincas, por 11,5 millones de euros.

No los conocía El empresario afirma que no conocía la identidad de todos los compradores hasta la firma de las escrituras públicas de compraventa, el 22 de mayo de 2001. “Me llevé una sorpresa cuando encontré en la notaría a bastantes personas, que no conocía, y me enteré de que eran de la familia Gil de Biedma. Yo los relacioné con el poeta Jaime Gil de Biedma, no con Esperanza Aguirre”, dijo Illera.

Tíos y primos de Aguirre Aquellas personas, además de ser primos del autor (Jaime Gil de Biedma), son también tíos maternos y primos carnales de Esperanza Aguirre Gil de Biedma. Santiago, José Antonio y Javier Gil de Biedma y Vega de Seoane. El último de ellos es el conde de Sepúlveda. Los hermanos Gil de Biedma son socios de la correduría AON Gil y Carvajal.

7 millones En total, en la operación urbanística de Tres Cantos han participado 22 particulares y empresas suyas, que han obtenido casi 7 millones de euros de beneficio.

Información privilegiada El empresario denuncia la existencia de información privilegiada. En este punto, Illera dice que el ex alcalde, Ángel Luis Pérez, político del PSOE, conocido por su doble moral política, ya que no es la primera vez que se alía con el otro bando ideológico (compareció en el caso de los tránsfugas Tamayo y Sáenz), de “haber utilizado su influencia política (…) pues es la única persona que estaba metida en política”.

Otro negocio La familia Gil de Biedma Vega de Seoane sigue siendo propietaria, junto con el ex alcalde socialista, Ángel Luis Pérez, de seis fincas rústicas en Tres Cantos, pegadas al ámbito de actuación del PGOU. Su valor se disparará cuando sean recalificadas. Otro negocio más.

Monocamy: el superior que mandaba y vigilaba a los soldados en combate es el de la gorrilla y las gafas de espejo, barrigón, que sonrie y contempla la escena.
¿O es que te crees que los policías actuaron así porque se les fue la mano? Cumplen órdenes, y lo hacen a conciencia: es lo habitual ¿o eres de los que se creen eso que cuentan de que a los detenidos, cuando están esposados en una comisaría no se ensañan con ellos? Fíjate con que impunidad actuan enmedio de la calle, e imagínate porqué hay cientos de muertos que estaban bajo custodia en dependencias del Estado.
No sólo no ha cambiado, ha ido a más, porque se saben amparados por una opinión pública aleccionada por los grandes medios de comunicación, que cuentan milongas de policías que respetan las garantías jurídicas del detenido.

ALiMAÑA NEWS:
Mi idea de la estrategia militar y disciplina castrense es que me repugna cualquier uniforme al que acompañe un arma. No obstante y tal y como está el mundo, no queda más remedio que aceptar que los ejércitos y las policías son necesarias.

El "agregado imparcial" sería una figura que respresenta al ciudadano (igual que el defensor del pueblo, en un despacho) y que ejercería de contrapunto crítico en las actuaciones policiales. Supongo que no es el primer vídeo que ves en el que la policía entra en una vivienda, haciendo una redada. Sería cuestión de preguntarle al que graba cómo se las arregla (¿o es un paparazzi-topo, según tú?).

También hemos visto todos los típicos vídeos donde una patrulla americana detiene a un conductor en la autopista y hay una cámara que graba todo, desde el coche patrulla. No sé por qué te escandalizas tanto, ya que no estoy ejerciendo de Julio Verne. En último caso, podrían negociarse filmaciones aéreas, desde un helicóptero. Puede que te parezcan efectos especiales peliculeros pero no olvides que, cada vez que recorres una autopista, podría haber un helicóptero de la DGT esperando que pises una línea continua para inmortalizar tu utilitario. Haberlos, hailos. ;)

Lo que trato de decir es que no sería mala idea que se instaurase como norma, en vez de que la existencia de tales vídeos fuera fortuita, porque coincidía que había un cámara allí.

Los instigadores son los descerebrados de siempre a quienes les da igual la razón de cualquier manifestación. Simplemente se personan para provocar incidentes. Sin duda se crecerían ante cualquier atisbo de atenuación de la actuación policial. Supongo que esta teoría también es errática, claro... Acaso tanto como tu intento (innecesario) de ridiculizarme y que entenderé como una pataleta, restándole importancia. Sólo fíjate en tu venenosa reacción teniendo un teclado entre las manos. ¿Qué rayos podemos exigir, entonces, a quien lleva una porra?.

GATOPARDO:
Yo soy el primero al que asquea la actitud policial, aparte de que me ha tocado sufrir sus impertinencias, afortunadamente no demasiado graves, de momento. Y estoy de acuerdo con que actúan no sólo con impunidad, sino con soberbia y chulería. Coño ¡razón de más para filmarlos!. En este sentido no estoy desmintiendo lo que sugiere tu post, sino corroborándolo.

En lo que no estoy de acuerdo es en ese amparo de la opinión pública del que hablas. Tú y yo somos opinión pública y estamos condenándolo. Y la mayoría de los foros que visito vierten duras críticas contra la actuación de las fuerzas de seguridad del estado. Sin embargo, como bien dices, no sólo se atenúa sino que va a más. De ahí que tu post de hoy exista ¿no? De ahí que me sume a tu protesta.

Saludos a ambos. :)

La constitución no garantiza nada si no tienes contante en el bolsillo. Desmoralizador y poco esperanzador es esta continua especulación inmobiliaria que no tiene visos de parar. Más bien todo lo contrario como se está demostrando en Galicia o Murcia. Y ahora te contesto: una vivienda digna es la que no tiene un precio astronómico, que no tiene nada que ver con el costo real. Y la diferencia es la que se llevan los especuladores y los que blanquean dinero, los que pagan comisiones para recalificar tierras, etc. Es decir, todos los que medran en prácticas ilegales mientras el Gobierno manda la policía a machacar a los críos que piden que se cumpla la ley: eso que pone en la segunda parte del Artículo 47

Luna, espero que no abuses de tu debilidad para desviar el tema que nos ocupa. Hice una aclaración a Monocamy. Punto.
Tautina: ese tipo de ironía y de sarcasmo se lo he escuchado siempre a los guardias civiles y a los policías franquistas, cuando pedíamos democracia, derecho al divorcio, libertad de expresión y de asociación, etc. que nos aconsejaban irnos a Rusia; y ahora se lo suelo escuchar a sus retoños ante las protestas ciudadanas por el encarecimiento de la vivienda, debido a la corrupción. Y con las fotos ante tí del "uso desproporcionado de la fuerza" de varios policias contra un joven enclenque, me pregunto qué tipo de amputación en la sensibilidad hace falta tener o qué variación genética transmite la benemérita y la policía para incapacitar a sus descendientes la comprensión de que rebelarse contra la corrupción y la injusticia, no aguantar una vida degradada y degradante, es lo único que diferencia a un ciudadano digno de ese nombre de desgraciados sin dignidad.
Respecto al Sahara Occidental no creo que podamos ir porque nuestras gloriosas tropas españolas han huido ante todos los enemigos y sólo han planteado y ganado las batallas contra su propio pueblo, a ser posible desarmado y en inferioridad numérica. Corrieron como conejos cuando los moros les plantaron cara y abandonaron el terreno de batalla, y los territorios españoles en Marruecos.

Siento mucho no tener temas de calado y profundidad acordes con tu capacidad de análisis y comprensión, con pasiones incandescentes referidas exclusivamente a la entrepierna.

Autor: Detenidos sin estar en la manifestación

Dos jóvenes fueron encarcelados acusados de concentración ilegal cuando estaban sentados en la calle LaRepública- Leticia y su amigo fueron detenidos y encarcelados acusados por los antidisturbios de concentración ilegal. Los hechos sucedían mientras se desarrollaba la última manifestación llevada a cabo en Madrid el pasado 28 de mayo. Según relata la joven y sus amigos esperaban a otros compañeros cuando fueron abordados por varios antidisturbios que primero les pidieron la documentación y posteriormente se llevaron detenidos a Leticia y a su compañero. A la redacción de nuestro periódico ha llegado esta carta firmada por la detenida, pidiéndonos su difusión. Los hechos que se cuentan son graves. De nuevo, como ha sucedido recientemente en la detención de los jóvenes republicanos, la policía detiene, practica la vejación y encarcela a jóvenes sin cometer delito alguno. En este caso, ni siquiera participaban de la manifestación a favor de la vivienda, autorizada, que en esos momentos se desarrollaba. Reproducimos íntegramente el documento que la protagonista ha remitido.

"Buenas noches:

Me llamo Leticia, hace justamente veinticuatro (por el día 29 de mayo) horas estaba siendo detenida por unos agentes antidisturbios sin tener conocimiento alguno del motivo. Unos amigos y yo nos encontrábamos sentados con una bolsa de patatas fritas y granizado de limón esperando a otros dos colegas para irnos al retiro y disfrutar de la naturaleza. Donde nos encontrábamos circulaba la gente con total normalidad como cualquier día. No existía ningún tipo de concentración ni dispersión de la manifestación que se estaba llevando a cabo en la Puerta del Sol.

Aproximadamente 8 agentes antidisturbios se acercaron a nosotros diciéndonos literalmente que estábamos en una concentración ilegal. Yo les contesté que no, que estábamos esperando a unos amigos. Nos dijeron que nos dispersásemos “porque me sale de los cojones" , dicho textualmente por un antidisturbio. Yo estudio derecho y aunque no lo estudiara, es de cajón y de mínima inteligencia y dignidad saber que tienen que existir más motivos que un por que me sale de los cojones para que me echen de la vía pública. Aun así decidimos caminar, estilo ‘hare crishnas’, para esperar a nuestros amigos en el metro. Nos piden los DNI, se los damos sin ningún problema y yo pido el número de placa, que por supuesto no me dan y empiezan a empujarnos.

El DNI de uno de mis amigos no se devuelve, pido que se lo devuelvan que no podemos estar indocumentados. Nos sueltan improperios chulescos de nuevo refiriéndose a esa preciada autoridad cubierta por traje azul y porra. Nos devuelven el DNI y es cuando estoy llamando a mi abogado por teléfono, me piden que les dé el teléfono porque les "estoy grabando y haciendo fotos " digo que por qué? y tiro el móvil a un amigo, y sale corriendo y les persigue 5 antidisturbios me empujan, mi amigo se cae y le pegan dos golpes con la porra uno en la cabeza otro en la nuca y otro en el costado. Yo salgo corriendo me acerco a mi amigo tirado en el suelo. Nos agarran de todos lados, arrastrándonos hasta una vaya en donde me empujan y me choco contra la valla de Banco de España, me he lesionado el hombro y la mano. Nos esposan mi otro amigo esta tirado en el suelo y le abofetean mientras pide a un testigo que coja su teléfono. La mujer casi llora de vernos, la quieren echar, nos mira diciendo que es madre preguntamos por qué nos detienen, no nos contestan, les preguntamos dónde nos llevan, no nos contestan, y mientras nos van arrastrando por el suelo intentándonos levantar, agarrándonos del medio de las esposas para hacernos daño y de los brazos sin sujetar los hombros causándonos mucho dolor, gritamos que nos están deteniendo de manera ilegal nada más.

Creo en la no violencia, creo que es estúpida la agresión de cualquier tipo cobarde y poco valiente. La gente nos miraba asombrada los coches pitaban y les gritaban hijos de puta, nosotros no...Para qué....era una evidencia....era tan claro de ver lo que sucedía que sólo me quedaba gritar "esto es una detención ilegal! y mi número de móvil roto. Nos metieron en un coche de policía sin decirnos donde íbamos esposados, mirándonos, sonriendo, se pasaron el trayecto acelerando y frenando para darnos contra la mampara de protección en la cabeza, no lo conseguían, encendían la luz de atrás para que la gente por Gran Vía pudiera vernos bien (táctica psicológica de intimidación) . A uno de mis amigos le rompieron el cinturón fue caminando en calzoncillos medio cayéndose mientras los y las policías se mofaban de la situación nosotros nos lo tomábamos con humor y yo decía....venga dales una alegría al cuerpo, por lo menos que vean algo bonito en su vida! Volví a preguntar por que nos detenían, nadie contestaba dijimos que hasta que no viniera nuestro abogado no declarábamos nada. Levantaron a mi amigo se lo llevaron en calzoncillos, me levantaron a mi me llevaba por un pasillo el municipal levantándome los brazos hacia atrás para hacerme daño cosa innecesaria, y apretándome más las esposas.

Me lanzaron dentro del coche, diciendo..."venga para adentro" cual ganado...a mi otro compañero lo mismo. Nos llevan a una comisaría nos realizan el procedimiento de lectura de derechos etc., viene nuestro abogado y pasamos la noche en calabozo....Lo que más me sorprendió de todo, era el tratamiento humano por llamarlo de alguna manera y el olor a podredumbre. Que ellos, los que trabajan allí día tras día respiraran hasta jubilarse. Eso es lo que en dio fuerza...pensaba en silencio "sí, yo estoy en el trullo por que me obligáis, pero tú estás aquí todos los días como un condenado" dando gritos oliendo a mierda, y amargado. Yo saldré y seguiré siendo quien soy pero con más fuerza aún. No me daban miedo ni me lograron intimidar con sus frases de culpabilidad y miradas de odio. Por la mañana a golpe de barrotes un hombre me levanta "te doy cinco segundos"...me levanto, me dice que si quiero ir al baño claro que quiero, tengo diarrea de los nervios no aparentes, mientras estoy en el baño el policía se dedica a encender y a apagar la luz mientras mete prisa, me mete los codos, media hora después siguen el procedimiento y yo me preguntaba para que tanta prisa, para que tanto odio. Nos llevan a Plaza Castilla.

Pensaba que ya había visto lo peor...pero no, si el otro sitio olía a mierda en este, la mierda estaba en las paredes en formas de nombres e insultos a la policía, imaginaros el olor y sin ventilación. Por fin abogad, por fin libertad, por fin calle, por fin puedo llorar pero no lloro, me enrabietó odio y odio venganza injusticia, dolores en el cuerpo....mis amigos por teléfono mi familia, mi tripa revuelta y yo en mi cama preguntándome por qué estudio derecho, por qué la sociedad está tan podrida, por que tanta injusticia, me pregunto caminando por la calle si me va a pasar algo malo por no hacer nada, de nuevo, me da miedo caminar.

Cada vez que veo un coche de policía se me enraíza el odio...odio que sustituye la pena...esta es la verdad ni pegué ni insulté ni me negué a identificarme, me arrestaron de manera ilegal a mí y a mis amigos pero queda de puta madre decir lo que se dice justificar la violencia y proteger a los que supuestamente me protegen, al que me arrastraba por el suelo le dije- tiene gracia! no me han pegado en la vida y vienes tú, él, que me protege, el que cuida mis derechos como ciudadano....y me pega.....mañana lloraré......y recordaré una frase de una canción...."podréis meter mi cuerpo en una cárcel, pero mi mente, siempre libre, siempre arde, porque es imprestable".

Gracias, un saludo y con esta información haz lo que consideres oportuno. Gracias a la gente que nos está apoyando y los testigos que se ofrecen a hacer, nuestra, justicia.

Leticia."

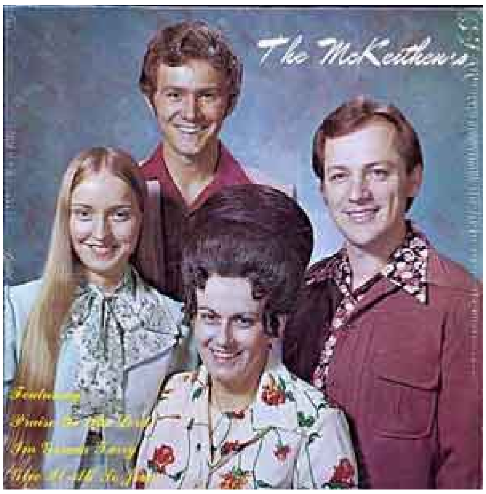
LO SIENTO, HIJOS MÍOS, PERO DE ESTO SE TIENEN QUE ENTERAR MIS NIETOS



Queridos nietos:

Cuando escuchéis hablar a vuestros padres de aquellos tiempos en los que se gestaba mayo del 68, leían a Marcuse, poniendo en práctica la revolución sexual de Wilhelm Reich en una comuna, y que todos tenían los discos de los Rollings Stones, Jimmie Hendrix, Lou Reed, Janes Joplin, Bill Haley, Joan Baez, Elvis Presley, Billie Holiday, The Who, y gente así... que sepáis que es mentira: estos son los discos que tengo orden de esconder en el zulo, y he de defender con mi vida, si es preciso, para que no los encontréis. Y lo de vivir en comuna, nada de nada: buenos son para saltarse una comida...

Y que no os mareen con broncas por los estudios, que después de no sé cuántos años estudiando inglés, lo único que saben es que los discos de 45 rpm. se llaman

"Hay un país
Que la guerra marcó sin piedad,
Ese país
De cenizas logró resurgir,
Años costó
Su tributo a la guerra pagar,

Hoy consiguió
Que se admire y respete su paz.
No, no conocí
El azote de aquella invasión,
Vivo feliz
En la tierra que aquél levantó,
Gracias le doy
Al gran hombre que supo alejar,
Esa invasión
Que la senda venía a cambiar.

Otros vendrán
Que el camino no habrán de labrar,
Él lo labró
A los otros les toca sembrar.

Otros vendrán
Que el camino más limpio hallarán,
Deben seguir
Por la senda que aquél nos marcó,
No han de ocultar
Hacia el hombre que trajo esta paz,
Su admiración,
Y por favor,
Pido, siga esta paz."

BALADA DE LA GORDA MARGOT, DE FRANÇOIS VILLON

Traducción de Rubén Abel Reches

Si amo a la bella y sírvola ¿os asusto?
¿me juzgáis vil y tonto y mentecato?
Tiene ella bienes para todo gusto.
Por su amor ciño daga, escudo y mato.
Cuando alguien viene tomo pronto un vaso
y de la pieza escúrrome callando.
Después le traigo queso y pan, lo abrazo, si paga bien le digo: "¿Vuelve? ¿Cuándo?
Cuando esté en celo, amigo, lo esperamos en el burdel en donde el pan ganamos".

Mas si amanece y no aportó dinero ¡ay de Margot! entonces enfurezco, no puedo verla, degollarla quiero.
Tomo sus atavíos, salgo al fresco
y con que iré a venderlos la amenazo.
Ella se planta como el Anticristo y de matarla ahí mismo sería el caso pues por la muerte júrame de Cristo que no lo haré. Y así peleamos en el burdel en donde el pan ganamos.

Pero vuelve la paz, se tira un pedo más criminal que de un cañón la bala, riendo me da un golpe, luego, quedo,
"¡súbete! " dice, en tanto que se instala.
Dormimos como un zueco, ambos beodos.
Si despierta y su vientre aún reclama se alza y me monta, tales son sus modos.

"¡Nos aplasta!" gemimos yo y la cama,
"¡Por tu lujuria nos desvencijamos!"
en el burdel en donde el pan ganamos.

Que llueva o truene, tengo el pan seguro.
Soy vicioso y halléme una viciosa.
No sé cuál de los dos lo es más, lo juro.
Y la basura nos parece hermosa y el honor nos repugna y lo ahuyentamos en el burdel en donde el pan ganamos.

BALLADE DE LA GROSSE MARGOT

Se j'ayme et sers la belle de bon het,
M'en devez vous tenir ne vil ne sot?
Elle a en soy des biens affin soubzhet;
Pour son amour seins boucler et passot.
Quant viennent gens, je cours et happe ung pot,
Au vin m'en voys, sans demener grant bruyt;
Je leur tens eaue, froumaige, pain et fruyt.
S'ilz paient bien, je leur diz: "Bene stat,
Retournez cy, quant vous serez en ruyt,
En ce bordeau ou tenons nostre estat."

Mais adoncques, il y a grant deshet,
Quant sans argent s'en vient coucher Mergot;
Voir ne la puis, mon cueur a mort la het.
Sa robe prens, demy seint et seurcot,
Sy luy jure qu'il tendra pour l'escot.
Par les costez se prent, c'est Antecrist,
Crye et jure, par la mort Jhesucrist
Que non fera. Lors empoingne ung esclat,
Dessus son nez lui en faiz ung escript,
En ce bordeau ou tenons nostre estat.

Puis paix se fait, et me fait ung groz pet,
Plus enffle qu'un velimeux escarbot.
Riant, m'assiet son poing sur mon sommet,
Gogo me dit, et me fiert le jambot;
Tous deux yvres dormons comme ung sabot.
Et au resveil, quant le ventre lui bruyt,
Monte sur moy, que ne gaste son fruyt,
Soubz elle geins, plus qu'un aiz me fait plat;

De paillarder tout elle me destruyt,
En ce bordeau ou tenons nostre estat.

Vente, gresle, gesle, j'ay mon pain cuyt.
Je suis paillart, la paillarde me suyt.
Lequel vault mieulx? Chascun bien s'entressuyt, L'un vault l'autre, c'est a mau rat mau chat.
Ordure aimons, ordure nous affuyt;
Nous deffuyons honneur, il nous deffuyt,
En ce bordeau ou tenons nostre estat.

ENFRENTARME A LO IRREMEDIABLE

Siempre me ha irritado la ceguera con la que los padres juzgan a sus hijos, y he presumido de amar lúcidamente a los míos. No necesité pensar que mi Pedro era un pequeño Einstein cuando se comía un cuarto de lápiz antes de acabar una división, ni creí que mi Juan fuera un ser lleno de sensibilidad porque se quedaba lívido si le mandaban leer un haiku, ni consideré que mi María tuviera cualidades de futuro premio Nobel de Medicina cuando contemplaba sin pestañear los sufrimientos ajenos.

No creía haber hecho una excepción con mis nietos, y mucho menos con Raúl, que nunca fue un buen estudiante, pero se esforzaba en llevar los cuadernos limpios, los libros sin manchas, y era elegido para mantener el orden cuando los profesores salían un momento del aula:

— No sé cómo lo hace: cuando se queda él, los niños están más callados que cuando está el profesor — nos contó el director.

Debería de haberme alertado el hecho de que nunca vinieran sus amigos a casa. Mientras que los cumpleaños de mis otros nietos me inspiraban un profundo sentimiento de comprensión hacia Herodes, en sus cumpleaños todos los invitados éramos adultos de la familia.

—¿Por qué no invitas a tus amigos?
—¿Invitarlos? ¿Para qué?
—No sé... ¿no te apetece que vengan a tu fiesta?
—Es mi fiesta, no la suya.
—Ah, bueno, como quieras... ¿Y no te aburrirás sin nadie de tu edad para jugar?
—Ya juego en la escuela con ellos...

Creció sin amigos, solitario, esquinado, insociable, y su única pasión era el kárate, las películas de superheroes, con cincuenta mil puñetazos, tiros y palizas, que observaba en el video con expresión de felicidad.

Me dijo su madre varias veces:
—Este nene es raro.
—Es la edad...-le contestaba yo.

Hace dos años se compró un saco, lo llenó de arena, lo colgó en la terraza, y se dedicó a darle puñetazos y patadas durante horas. Luego se duchaba, y se iba al gimnasio.

Su padre le prohibió llevar gafas con cristales de espejo en casa:
—Sólo me faltaba eso, que no sepa cuando me estás mirando. Aquí, en casa, no te hacen falta, que no hay sol.

Empezó a decir que le dolía la cabeza, y que no veía bien, que tenía fotofobia.

Su madre lo llevó a la óptica, y no paró hasta que consiguió una de esas gafas que se oscurecen con la luz.

Y cuando hablaba por teléfono con sus padres no había vez que no escuchara cómo descolgaba el supletorio para enterarse de nuestra conversación.

—¡Raúl, cuelga, no seas cotilla! —decíamos, tomándolo a chunga.

Hubo un momento en que se empezaron a preocupar, porque lo sorprendieron varias veces siguiendo a sus padres. Varios días me siguió a mí.

—Raúl, dime por qué me sigues.

— Hoy, por ejemplo: ¿sabes la cantidad de veces que has dado ocasión a cualquiera de quitarte el bolso? Y si hubieran querido cortarte el cuello, también. Nunca miras a ver quien se acerca a tí por detrás... No te das cuenta de...

—Me he dado cuenta de que me has seguido varios días: y te he preguntado que por qué, y aún no me has contestado.

—Estaba comprobando que eres una víctima perfecta para atracarte.

—¡Vaya bobada! ¿No tienes otra cosa que hacer?

Iba con gente muy rara, muy rara. Su actitud era muy fría, indiferente hacia todo lo que conmoviera o preocupara a cualquiera. Se relacionaba lo imprescindible, y cuando no tenía más remedio que coincidir, se comportaba con una frialdad extrema.

—Este niño me da escalofríos —decía su padre— parece un psicópata.

Su madre empezó a registrarle su ropa, a mirarle los cajones de su mesa de estudio. Y nos dijo:

—Yo creo que se droga o algo...

—¡Venga, ese caracter es cosa de la edad! —contesté yo— Ya no te acuerdas de la época que te dió por la espeleología y...

—Ya, pero es que él parece que está acorchado, como si tuviera anestesia en las emociones...

—Si, bueno, siempre ha sido así...

Y hace un año, nos tuvimos que enfrentar a lo irremediable.

Acabamos por aceptar la verdad, y ha sido un calvario, que no deseo a nadie. Ni siquiera supimos cómo reaccionar, y hubo lágrimas, amenazas, chantajes; pero al final nos rendimos. No tuvimos más remedio que aceptar que era mayor y no podíamos impedirlo. Me ha costado hacerme a la idea, y hubiera preferido haberme muerto antes que verlo así.

Mi nieto Raúl es de esos que van pateando gente indefensa en las manifestaciones pacíficas. Es policía.

El relato es magnífico, vieja, pero, como siempre, me jode la moraleja. Sin duda hay algún poli (algunos polis) que se pasan con los manifestantes que, casi nunca son "indefensos". Lenguaje tramposo, como cuando se opone "asesinato selectivo" a "atentado" en lugar de a "asesinato indiscriminado". Los rojos sois listos, sí, pero tramposos.
El relato es buenísimo, agüela, de verdad, si no fueras tan roja...

Querido Fabrizio: sí, es un relato de ficción: si me entero que un nieto mío se hace policía de los que andan pateando gente, me lo como.

m carmen: creía que a esa abuela ya le había pasado lo peor; pero van a llevársela con los pies por delante, asfixiada por falta de puntos y comas si tiene que leer otro comentario como el suyo.
Y no, no señora, moralmente no hay nadie peor que esos policías que acuden a patear y golpear a alguien que está en el suelo, porque conseguirán que quienes hayan sufrido su bestialidad, deseen romperle la cabeza a los policías.
Es el misma bestialidad que desplegaron en el país vasco con el primer gobierno del PSOE, y consiguieron el odio feroz de la mayoría en contra de las fuerzas armadas.
¿Es eso lo que pretende con quienes se manifiestan para recordar un derecho que pomposamente pusieron en la Constitución española?

::: Cobertura en La Haine: Tercera movilización en Madrid por vivienda digna :::

x La Haine

::: Unas mil personas se han concentrado esta tarde (y por tercer domingo consecutivo) en la Puerta del Sol para exigir el derecho a una vivienda digna. La presencia policial ha sido abrumadora en todo momento, pero la desobediencia ha vuelto a estar viva cuando la gente ha intentado burlar el dispositivo represivo y trasladar la movilización a Cibeles. De camino, los antidisturbios han entrado en escena empujando a los manifestantes y obligándolos a replegarse en la zona de Huertas. Poco después se han sucedido las cargas policiales en Jacinto Benavente y alrededores. Las carreras provocadas por los violentos uniformados se han repetido, una vez más, en el centro de Madrid :::

22:40. AL MENOS TRES CARGAS POLICIALES EN JACINTO BENAVENTE Y ALREDEDORES. Compañeros de medios alternativos nos informan que a las 21:30 aproximadamente varios grupos se fueron concentrando en la Plaza Jacinto Benavente, donde se reagruparon más de 100 personas. La policía que venía tras ellos ha cargado, incluso lanzaron algunas pelotas de goma. A partir de ahí, pequeños grupos se han tratado de reagrupar para continuar con la manifestación pacífica en la Plaza Mayor, pero la policía volvió a cargar. La gente ha salido por el Arco de Cuchilleros y se ha dividido para evitar la represión policial. El grupo que ha continuado por la calle Cava Baja (entre 70 y 90 personas), se ha chocado de frente con un grupo de antidisturbios cargando. La gente trató de repeler el ataque cruzando alguna vallas.

21.52: Nos informan que curiosamente a las 20:45 el Ayuntamiento ha censurado las cámaras de tráfico de la Puerta del Sol. En la página web se ve la pantalla en azul con un letrero que pone "Video temporalmente no disponible".

Y es cierto que los polis se pasan dando leña, sé de un fontanero que cada noche reza para que su poli "particular" sufra una avería en sus grifos, y lo llame a él para arreglarlos... Hace varios años que lo patearon sin venir a cuento y esa sería, de producirse, su masticada venganza...
Tambien conozco polis buenos, al menos en mi presencia claro está, y como además son amigos y los quiero...
Y sobre la leña, la reparten indistintamente del gobierno que les toque servir, seguir o sufrir...Cuando se ponen a dar dan.

Y si, tambien conozco polis buenos. De visita, pero buenos. Ahora cuando se junta la jauria de perros de presa la cosa cambia. Y lo mas triste es que lo hacen, el ridiculo digo, con todos los gobiernos. He sufrido gases lacrimógenos en la esquina Alcalá con Peligros en una mani pacífica reciente, y por terminar les recuerdo los brazaletes verdes del primer gobierno socialista para reprimir a los fotografos molestos ó no adictos.

Por desgracia, hace dos años fui a una manifa antiglobalización. Cuán sorprendida me quedé cuando vi policías fascistas de mi antiguo pueblo vestidos de paisano, pegándose con la gente y echando a correr en cuanto los antidisturbios se metieron a repartir hostias como panes.

Nadie había hecho nada, solamente esos cuatro soplapollas. Recibimos todos, y lo peor es que un chaval con una camiseta de una organización anarcocomunista terminó dos semanas en coma en el hospital.

Quien se mete a madero, realmente tiene un problema psicológico relacionado con un complejo de inferioridad que solapa con el uniforme, la pipa, la porra y la mala hostia contra la gente civilizada..

PARÉNESIS A ANTONIO GARCÍA MUÑOZ

Querido Antonio: me ha conmovido su dedicación, su exigencia y ese rigor que desea aplicar a su obra, sin hacer concesiones, para llegar a ser un verdadero escritor.

El anhelo de perfección y de inmortalidad en el escritor pudiera ser sublime, si no fuera porque podría ser una pulsión neurótica esterilizante; y cualquiera que, imbuido de solemnidad, trate de realizar una obra única, extraordinaria, suele dar cima a una melonada insufrible. Casi indefectiblemente.

Para llegar a ser escritor uno suele inclinarse peligrosamente al cultivo de la sinceridad y de lo auténtico, que es el elixir de la fatuidad, y acaba por caer en las profundidades abisales de la sensibilidad, no aprende a sonreír sin remordimientos, ni a mentir por puro gozo estético, y acaba haciéndole la cirugía plástica a la realidad para estabularla. Uno aprende a sobreactuar, como los malos actores, recurre a palabras grandilocuentes, construye frases con un ritmo que no se asemeja a lo que nadie diría entre el primer vagido y el último estertor; se considera más allá de las preocupaciones de la gente vulgar, y suele reivindicar la aristocracia de la inteligencia y despreciar el ocio ágrafo.

Y todo esto no es más que un montaje grotesco para enmascarar una carencia esencial, porque escribir, pintar cuadros, actuar en un escenario, hacer cine, cincelar una estatua o no hacerlo, forma parte de nuestras prerrogativas y de nuestra inanidad: es completamente intrascendente.

Querido mío: lo único que diferencia a los escritores del resto de la humanidad, lo que determina su pertenencia a esa raza especial, lo que los aparta de los demás y los sitúa en otra esfera, fuera del alcance del común de los mortales, es su profunda incapacidad para bailar con un mínimo de ritmo y de armonía.

Nada que no solucione una pareja de baile con el diablo en el cuerpo.

Un abrazo interminable y trémulo.

Al menos usted, escribir, mal o bien, escribe, y tiene la decencia de no hacer como los curas, que hablan de sexo sin saber de las grandezas y miserias de las lúbricas casas del alma, esas de las que tiraron la llave. O bueno, ni eso, que mi abuela decía que en los conventos había niños muertos en cajas de zapatos, y ni siquiera el apellido del sacristán aparecía como esquela en la tapa de cartón.

He tardado un poco en responder tan sugestiva carta porque me quedé atascado en la primera palabra. Conseguí averiguar su significado tras no pocas rebuscas, y cuando ya había logrado avanzar una líneas me encontré con el verbo estabular, que me produjo un segundo pasmo. De modo que llegué al final casi sin resuello y lo único que entendí fue que eso era una carta y que llevaba mi nombre.Pero no me desalenté y le hice otras cuantas lecturas. La leí del derecho y del revés, en diagonal y entre líneas y barajé tres interpretaciones posibles:
A) La carta era un ataque contra mí, porque Gatopardo había detectado en lo que escribo los vicios de un escritor petardo.
B) La carta era más bien preventiva, me llamaba a evitar esos riegos y por tanto aún estoy a tiempo de salvarme.
C) La carta era una invitación al baile.
Y como mi sueño, desde adolescente, ha sido reventar las pistas de la disco al ritmo de los Bee Gees, mucho más que ser escritor, me he acogido lleno de alegría a la tercera opción. Ya estoy moviendo las piernas.

CARTA DE VALENTINA PALMA NOVOA A SUS AMIGOS MEXICANOS

Carta a mis amigos mexicanos
Concepcion, Chile, mayo de 2006.
Mi nombre es Valentina. Mis amigos dicen que en la lista de detenidos aparecía como Valeria Palma o Larissa Palma. Es lógico: los que anotaron mi nombre y declaración no saben nada de mí. Para ellos soy un nombre cualquiera, unas nalgas cualquiera, unos senos cualquiera. Sólo que ellos también pueden ser cualquiera. Un policía sin uniforme es también cualquiera de esos rostros mexicanos que estaban tendidos junto a mí llenos de sangre, llenos de miedo, llenos de rabia por la impotencia.
Impotencia es lo mismo que siento yo aquí, deportada y alejada de mis amigos, de mi vida en México. Es cierto, Chile es mi país de nacimiento, pero yo escogí a México como el país donde quería vivir. Y ahora estoy aquí porque alguien decidió arrancarme diez años de vida. Alguien que no son esos policías que me detuvieron, ni los que me golpearon y me robaron mi cámara, ni los que me manosearon, ni los que veo por la calle y me dan miedo no importa en qué país. Alguien que tampoco son los funcionarios de migración que me deportaron sin decir por qué, ni los agentes que me asignaron en el vuelo hasta Chile. Como a una delincuente de altos vuelos. Así me hicieron sentir. Sólo que mi delito es raro: no sé en que parte del Código Penal aparece. Se trata de portar una cámara y mirar. De registrar lo que sucede a mi alrededor y comprometerme con decirlo. Para no olvidarlo, para aprender, por eso lo comparto.

Nunca nadie me dijo que era delito ser documentalista, mucho menos que se requería cierta nacionalidad para serlo. Tal vez si en algún apartado del examen de admisión al Centro de Capacitación Cinematográfica (CCC) alguien hubiera puesto una pequeña advertencia, así hubiera sido en letras mínimas. Como las que suelen hablar de castigos en los contratos, cláusulas, creo que se llaman.
Pero no, nada de cláusulas había en aquel examen. Y el CCC es una escuela gubernamental. Pertenece al Consejo Nacional para la Cultura y las Artes, que representa la cultura en México, mi país adoptivo. Un país en el que he estudiado dos carreras universitarias, y en ninguna me hablaron de delito parecido a portar una cámara. Así que allá fui, a San Salvador Atenco después de saber que habían asesinado a un niño de 14 años. Tal vez les parezca absurdo, pero yo creía que no me podía pasar nada si sólo iba a registrar el conflicto. Y no fui la única que lo pensé: había mucha gente de la prensa que pensó lo mismo, que se sentía segura. No me pregunten por qué, tal vez sólo es que creía en lo que dicen los que saben, eso de que vivimos en un estado de derecho. Y la democracia y todo eso que tanto se dice a diario en todos lados, por tanta gente, tantos señores de traje, tantos padres de familia que lucen muy respetables. Y yo pensando: estos policías tienen familia, y no porque tengan hijas de mi edad, pero tienen hermanos o padres de la edad del abuelo que a mi lado se desangraba en el camión de la policía en el que íbamos apilados como mercancías. "No estibar más de tres detenidos", debería estar escrito en las paredes de esos camiones. Y ahí, en medio del olor a sangre y los llantos en los oídos, trataba de pensar en mi desesperación. Para evadirme trataba de hilar una explicación para lo que estaba pasando, para lo que estaba viviendo, para entender cómo es que a alguno de los tantos que golpeaban a los tan pocos no se le cruzara por la cabeza una imagen de familia, de reconocer o reconocerse en alguno de los 200 que íbamos dando tumbos en los camiones atestados.
Estoy aquí contándoles esto y me pregunto si podría contestarles. Si podría explicarles a ustedes cómo hacen los policías que nos golpearon para llegar a casa y abrazar a su familia; cómo hacen los políticos para decir en voz alta: "aquí no pasó nada" mientras miran por la tele las golpizas; cómo hacen los periodistas que estuvieron ahí para no morirse de impotencia por saber que hay gente que no escucha sus palabras porque no les cree; cómo hacen los generales o vicealmirantes para dar órdenes a tres mil policías para arrasar un pueblo completo e irse a dormir tranquilos; cómo hace el mundo para enterarse de todo lo que se entera y apagar el televisor para seguir su rutina. No puedo contestarles, no sé cómo lo hacen.
Yo no podría. No sabiendo que los rostros de aquellas personas que no conozco y seguirán en mi memoria para siempre siguen llorando sangre.

Como me gustaria abrazar a esta chiquilla, darle ánimos, consolarla, decirle que lo que le han hecho la hará más fuerte, que hizo lo correcto y darle las gracias por su estremecedor relato tan valioso para otras personas que quieran visitar ese país.

Fue seguramente su juventud e inexperiencia la que no le permitió darse cuenta de que vivía en un país carcomido por la corrupción; en el que de nada sirve que las leyes permitan o no hacer fotografías o pasear por una calle. En Méjico lo único que vale es tener dinero, que lleva a tener poder o, lo que en ese país es lo mismo que tener licencia para agraviar, amontonar en un autobús a las personas, esquilmar a los pobres, traficar ilícitamente, y todo un largo etcétera en el que caben todos los delitos que podamos imaginar.

A cada persona que tenga intención de ir a Méjico debería entregársele una copia de la carta de Valentina.
Estoy seguro de que en Méjico hay decenas de millones de personas decentes, igual que en Sicilia también las debe haber, pero qué pueden hacer contra la corrupción organizada desde las más altas instancias.
Saludos Valentina y...adelante.

El tema que plantea Valentina es dificil, se ha hablado mucho de lo sucedido en San Salvador Atenco, creo que hay verdades a medias de ambas partes del conflito y manejo de la información, si bien es cierto, y se pudo ver documentalmente, que la fuerza publica se excedió en sus atribuciones, tambien es cierto que el dia antes los policias fueron golpeados y secuestrados (Se pudo ver en la tele con toda claridad)Invierto la pregunta de Valentina, como se siente un ciudadano que trata de apoderarse de la calle para su beneficio personal y que al ser desalojado patea y secuestra a un policia ¿Puede abrazar a sus hijos?.
Por otra parte Valentina al elegir a México como su hogar adoptivo (Es mi caso yo tambien lo hice con la variante de que yo renuncie a mi nacionalidad anterior para tomar la mexicana)debe conocer sus leyes y el articulo 33 constitucional faculta al Estado mexicano a cualquier extranjero cuya presencia juzgue inconveniente y prohibe la participación de los mismos en los ambitos politicos.Y el articulo dice inconveniente no delincuente. Tal vez un campesino que emigra, indocumentado pudiera alegar que no conoce las leyes de un país pero una persona con dos carreras universitarias, no.
Creo que la balanza de la justicia tiene dos platillos y en ellos se colocan los argumentos, razones y pruebas de ambas partes.

Querido Fabrizio: es costumbre civilizada en cualquier democracia detener a quien transgreda la ley, leerle sus derechos, decirle de qué delito se le acusa, interrogarlo con todas las garantías jurídicas que la constitución prevé y ponerlo a disposición del juez en el plazo legal establecido.
No es eso lo hicieron con los que atacaron a los policías que todo el mundo vio en televisión, sino que las fuerzas "del orden" cercaron Atenco, allanaron sin orden judicial los domicilios, destrozaron los enseres domésticos, atacaron a sus moradores, y detuvieron indiscriminadamente, sin decir de qué se les acusaba, golpearon, y torturaron y vejaron sexualmente a los detenidos.
Y para expulsar a los extranjeros, ya sabemos que hay un protocolo legal; pero se lo saltaron y no lo respetaron.
Lo cual nos lleva a lo de siempre: si se es mexicano, uno no tiene muchas posibilidades de ver respetados sus derechos humanos; y si se es extranjero, tampoco. Ir a estudiar, a trabajar o de vacaciones a México es una temeridad mientras la ley y el orden lo apliquen gente sin escrúpulos que se comportan como esbirros corruptos y sádicos descerebrados.

La forma más cobarde de justificar un atropello a los derechos humanos es la equidistancia entre el agresor y su víctima. Y, si a esto se le suma un discurso que encubre los delitos con un ramillete de eufemismos, la cosa llega a ser directamente repugnante.
Valentina no "plantea un tema". Denuncia la agresión de la que han sido objeto ella y otras personas, mejicanas y no mejicanas, por parte de la policía.
Veo que usted, a la hora de referirse al salvajismo policial, se apresura a pasar de puntillas hablando de "excederse en sus funciones". ¿Es que tiene miedo?
Veo también que, a la policía mejicana, tiene usted mucho cuidado de no recordarle ningún artículo de la santa constitución nacional, por no hablar de la Declaración de los Derechos Humanos. ¿Es que le da miedo?
Cuando personas explotadas, humilladas, amenazadas y torturadas, sin esperanza de justicia ni protección, salen a la calle a protestar, usted habla de "apoderarse de la calle para su beneficio personal" ¿Qué beneficio, miserable? ¿Vender cuatro flores? ¿Decir que están hartos, aun a sabiendas que los van a moler a palos?
Es difícil que entienda usted, tan cobarde, que la dignidad humana está por encima de las leyes, los decretos y los pasaportes. Tenga usted el miedo que quiera, pero no nos de lecciones de ciudadanía.

Qué tal. En cuanto al comentario de Fabrizio, sería interesante que mencionara a partir de qué indicios afirma que se "vió en la tele" que los policías habían sido "secuestrados". Sería inocente de su parte pensar que la televisión dice siempre la verdad. Existen otras versiones, obviamente "del lado de Atenco" que dicen que no fue un secuestro. Como dice el "cree" que de los dos lados hay lo que él llama "verdades a medias" y hay algo muy interesante aquí. Hablando como el dice de "conocer las leyes" y asumiendo que el debe hablar desde una posición de alguien que conoce el funcionamiento de las realidades o cuando menos de las teorías de como deben ser estas realidades ¿Qué no sabrá él cuál es la realidad de México?. Porque la constitución en el artículo 16 menciona que no se puede detener a una persona sin una orden, así mismo no se puede catear un domicilio sin orden escrita, etc. Las detenciones arbitrarias en México son cosa de todos los días. Incluso me pregunto si esta persona no habrá sido alguna vez víctima de un policía. En lo que refiere a este usuario y otros que evidentemente se alimentan de la información de la televisión, de los panfletones de ultraderecha (el periódico milenio, el uno más uno, la crónica de hoy (gazeta gratuita patrocinada por el "diputado" Jorge Kawaghi)) y de toda la gente que juzga este asunto desde afuera, valdría la pena que se acercaran a otras fuentes de información, o mejor aún a la gente involucrada, al padre de Alexis, o a los familiares de las detenidas. La verdad yo no podría ni repetirles lo que dice Fabrizio. Porque es fácil hablar de verdades a medias cuando se ve sólo una postura de forma abierta y las demás con una especie de revisionismo amateur que trastavillea por su vacuedad de argumentos. Yo creo que los "calificativos" que recibe fabrizio son producto del coraje que produce el temple y la cabeza fría de algunos frente a la barbarie, esa necedad de pensarse "lejos" e incluso "desde arriba" de todo esto. No se si linkear, o citar porque es claro que para estas personas nada es "prueba" nada es "justificación" para no quedarse callado mientras gente que para unos se ha hecho cercana es golpeada, encarcelada injustamente, con procesos irregulares, cargos inventados, pero es más fácil no buscar, no leer los larguísimos expedientes, las declaraciones de las mujeres atacadas. En una página hay un archivo que puede bajarse y yo pensaría que eso haría reaccionar a cualquiera. Pero hay gente que de verdad está lejos, que no pueden ver como humanos a los "macheteros" y demás personajes creados por la TV. Qué bueno por ellos. que caso tiene explicarles que éstas personas no quieren ser esclavos, que no quieren vivir en la miseria, que prefieren vender flores, usar la calle que ademàs muchos pensamos que necesita que al gente se reapropie de ella, en lugar de por ejemplo, volverse policía y golpear, o extorsionar después de cubrir la "cuota de arrestos" que pide el jefe. cómo pedirles que bajen el vidrio a las personas que van en sus autos como si fueran grandes carruajes, y que conocen a méxico desde sus parabrisas, y centros comerciales, detrás de vidrio siempre.
Yo soy mexicano de nacimiento, y prefiero "extranjeros" como valentina que se comprometen con la tierra, al nivel de atreverse a documentar la realidad lacerante en lugar de huírle y esconderse tras una televisión, al cobijo del sopór idiotizante de los merolicos del país de las maravillas.

Los invito a ver estas dos ligas con testimonios de detenid@s y pres@s.

EL PARLAMENTO EUROPEO PIDIÓ AL VATICANO QUE DEJE QUE LOS TRIBUNALES JUZGUEN A LOS CURAS VIOLADORES DE MONJAS

La Ley es clara: cualquiera que obstruya la acción de la Justicia para que los delitos no sean investigados, ni los culpables procesados y juzgados, de modo que queden impunes, es cómplice y encubridor. La jerarquía católica se ha mostrado más interesada en negar, encubrir y proteger a los abusadores que en defender, consolar y hacer justicia a las víctimas.

Me gustaría que la jerarquía vaticana, y sus aberrantes decisiones que desprecian la justicia y la equidad, no diera pie al desprecio que produce, aunque sólo fuera por respeto a todos los cristianos de base, monjas y sacerdotes que son un ejemplo de entrega y de integridad.

Supongo que a nadie le extrañará saber que el Vaticano ha puesto a buen recaudo a los sacerdotes, como hizo con Marcial Maciel, para que no puedan ser procesados ni juzgados por la Justicia del pais, y ha abandonado a su suerte a las monjas.
Y, por lo que respecta a mí, si se cumplen las profecías que dicen que éste es el último Papa, y estos los últimos tiempos de la Iglesia de Roma, no esperen que vaya a llorar.

RESOLUCIÓN DEL PARLAMENTO EUROPEO SOBRE LA VIOLENCIA SEXUAL CONTRA LAS MUJERES Y EN PARTICULAR CONTRA RELIGIOSAS CATÓLICAS

El Parlamento europeo,
—vista la Declaración Universal de los Derechos Humanos y la Convención Europea sobre los Derechos Humanos
—vista la Carta de los Derechos Fundamentales de la Unión Europea, —vista su resolución con fecha de 16 de septiembre de 1997 sobre la necesidad de organizar una campaña a nivel de la Unión Europea para la total intransigencia frente a la violencia contra las mujeres, —vista su resolución con fecha de 10 de marzo de 1999 sobre la violencia contra las mujeres,

—vista la Convención de las Naciones Unidas sobre la eliminación de cualquier forma de discriminación contra las mujeres,

A) ratificando la firme condena –por su parte y la de otras instituciones comunitarias– de cualquier forma de violencia contra las mujeres y en particular de los abusos sexuales,

B) seriamente preocupado por el contenido de una declaración aparecida en la revista americana National Catholic Reporter, en la que se señalan numerosos casos de estupro, en al menos 23 países, cometidos por curas a religiosas católicas,

C) considerando que la Santa Sede ha confirmado tener conocimiento de casos de estupro y abusos sexuales contra mujeres, incluso monjas, por parte de curas católicos, dado que desde 1994 se han transmitido al Vaticano al menos cinco informes sobre el tema,

D) considerando que, pese a haber sido pertinentemente informados acerca de estas violaciones de los derechos humanos, los responsables oficiales no han reaccionado como hubieran debido,

E) subrayando que, según estos informes, numerosas religiosas violadas también han sido obligadas a abortar (1), a dimitir y, en algún caso, han sido infectadas por el virus del sida,

F) tomando las declaraciones del portavoz del Vaticano, Joaquín Navarro Valls, quien ha afirmado que "el problema es grave pero geográficamente limitado", y subrayando que, por el contrario, este fenómeno se halla extendido no sólo en África

G) recordando que el abuso sexual constituye un delito contra la persona humana y que los autores de estos delitos tienen que ser entregados a la justicia,

1. condena toda violación de los derechos de la mujer así como los actos de violencia sexual, en particular contra religiosas católicas, y expresa su solidaridad con las víctimas,

2. pide que los autores de estos delitos sean arrestados y juzgados por un tribunal; pide a las autoridades judiciales de los 23 países citados en el informe que garanticen que se aclaren totalmente en términos jurídicos estos casos de violencia contra las mujeres;

3. pide a la Santa sede que considere seriamente todas las acusaciones de abusos sexuales cometidos dentro de las propias organizaciones, que coopere con las autoridades judiciales y que destituya a los responsables de cualquier cargo oficial;

4. pide a la Santa Sede que reintegre a las religiosas que han sido destituidas de sus cargos por haber llamado la atención de sus autoridades sobre estos abusos, y que proporcione a las víctimas la necesaria protección y compensación por las discriminaciones de las que podrían ser objeto en lo sucesivo;

5. pide que se haga público el contenido integro de los cinco informes citados en el National Catholic Reporter;

6. encarga a su Presidente que transmita la presente resolución al Consejo, a la Comisión, a las autoridades de la Santa Sede, al Consejo de Europa, a la Comisión para los derechos humanos de las Naciones Unidas, a los gobiernos de Botswana, Burundi, Brasil, Colombia, Ghana, India, Irlanda, Italia, Kenya, Lesotho, Malawi, Nigeria, Papúa Nueva Guinea, Filipinas, Sudáfrica, Sierra Leona, Uganda, Tanzania, Tonga, Estados Unidos, Zambia, República Democrática del Congo y Zimbawe.

(Aprobada en Estrasburgo el 5 de abril de 2001 con 65 votos a favor, 49 en contra y 6 abstenciones)

NOTA

1) Al parecer, el Vaticano permitió abortar en el Tercer Mundo a algunas monjas que habían concebido despúes de haber sido violadas. En el informe de la psicóloga benedictina, la hermana Esther Fangman, se dice: "En algunos países africanos, algunos curas han acudido a conventos y monasterios para "satisfacer sus exigencias sexuales". Más concretamente, esto quiere decir que un cura puede presentarse en la puerta del convento y esperar que se le ofrezca una religiosa para satisfacer su deseo sexual. En algunos casos, cuando una muchacha toma la decisión de entrar en una comunidad y se dirige al cura que mejor conoce para obtener el necesario certificado y las cartas de recomendación, éste no le concede los documentos si no va con él. Otra situación en la que puede sufrir presiones es cuando va a confesarse. Este tipo de situaciones están aumentando en los últimos años, probablemente a causa del sida, tan extendido en ciertos países de África. Con una monja, que presumiblemente es virgen, se evita el riesgo de contraer el sida. En algunos casos ha ocurrido que la propia monja haya sido contagiada por el virus y/o quedado embarazada. "

Y en otro informe: "Un año después de las denuncias hechas y presentadas a las máximas autoridades, los dos autores de los documentos anteriores, acompañados por el Obispo Crowley, fueron por fin recibidos por el Cardenal Martínez Somalo quien, para permitir un intercambio más técnico y fluido en inglés sobre tan delicado asunto, les dijo que había preparado una reunión de ellos con tres miembros del la Congregación: un dominico, un benedictino y una monja de Jesús María. En su promemoria de 4 páginas la hermana Maura recoge lo que se dijo en la reunión.

La hermana actualizó su informe de un año antes y fueron discutiendo punto por punto ese documento. En algunos puntos ella iba dando detalles, o contando ejemplos concretos que podía certificar. "Yo les puse el ejemplo de un sacerdote que había llevado a una monja para abortar. Ella murió durante la operación y el sacerdote ofició la Misa de Requiem. En respuesta sólo obtuve un asombroso silencio".

Leo y releo tus espeluznantes escritos sobre las asquerosidades que cometen algunos religiosos y que el Vaticano oculta y hay una cosa que no consigo entender: ¿por qué no actúan los fiscales, directamente, de oficio?.

Un violador igual que un corruptor de menores debe ir derechito al truyo, sin pedir permiso a nadie. Para eso, en los paises civilizados, tenemos leyes, fiscales y jueces.
Es más, ¿que hace el parlamento europeo cuando vé lo que hace el Vaticano?. Está muy clarito que el jefe de ese estado, está amparando delitos de lesa humanidad.

El general Gotovina, de 49 años, acusado de la matanza de al menos 150 civiles serbios y de la deportación forzosa de cerca de 200.000, es una de las personas más buscadas por crímenes de guerra en la antigua Yugoslavia, junto al ex líder serbobosnio Radovan Karadzic y al general Ratko Mladic. "Tengo información de que (Gotovina) está escondido en un monasterio franciscano y que la Iglesia católica le protege. He tratado el asunto con el Vaticano, que se niega tajantemente a cooperar conmigo", denuncia Carla del Ponte. El pasado julio, la fiscal viajó a Roma para transmitirle esas informaciones sobre el paradero de Gotovina al "ministro de Exteriores" del Vaticano, el arzobispo Giovanni Lajolo. Éste dijo no poder ayudarla con el argumento de que el Vaticano no es un Estado y no tiene la "obligación internacional" de ayudar a las Naciones Unidas a rastrear a criminales de guerra. Carla del Ponte, que es católica, se dijo "doblemente decepcionada" por la actitud el Vaticano. (Agencia EFE,23 de septiembre de 2005)
En la Iglesia católica, el Derecho canónico es un sistema jurídico completamente desarrollado, con todos los elementos necesarios. Cuenta con sus propios juzgados, jueces, abogados, jurisprudencia, un código completamente articulado e incluso con principios generales del derecho.

Los cánones de los concilios se complementan con decretos papales, y juntos se recogen en recopilaciones como el Liber Extra (1234), el Liber Sextus (1298) y las Clementinas (1317).
El Código de Derecho Canónico (Codex Iuris Canonici en latín) que rige actualmente fue promulgado por el papa Juan Pablo II el 25 de enero de 1983. Consta de siete libros, los que tratan (en orden) los siguientes asuntos: Normas Generales, el Pueblo de Dios, la función de enseñar de la Iglesia, las funciones de santificar a la Iglesia, los bienes temporales de la Iglesia, las sanciones en la Iglesia y los procesos.

Me parece horrible lo comedido por estos animales, no se puede pensar nada mas de ellos, que abusan de su poder o grado... Pienso que los curas debierian tener la oportunidad de casarse y tener una familia, para que no tengan que recurrir a estas aberraciones... claramente estas personas que abusan deben estar enfermos de la cabeza pero hay algunos que hacen la labor del sacerdote como corresponde, pero mas de alguna vez debe pensar en aquello y quiza por eso se vuelven turbios.

EL PAPA CASTIGA A MARCIAL MACIEL, FUNDADOR DE LOS LEGIONARIOS DE CRISTO

"Después de haber sometido los resultados de la investigación a atento estudio, la Congregación para la Doctrina de la Fe, bajo la guía del nuevo prefecto, Su Eminencia el cardenal William Levada, ha decidido -teniendo en cuenta tanto la edad avanzada del reverendo Maciel como su débil salud-- renunciar a un proceso canónico e invitar al padre a una vida reservada de oración y penitencia, renunciando a todo ministerio público. El Santo Padre ha aprobado estas decisiones.
Independientemente de la persona del fundador, se reconoce con gratitud el benemérito apostolado de los Legionarios de Cristo y de la asociación «Regnum Christi».
Id est : como no hay proceso no hay sentencia que reconozca la culpabilidad del sacerdote Marcial Maciel frente a las acusaciones de pederastia, no hay indemnización ni petición de perdón a las víctimas; ergo, se le prohibe dar conferencias, conceder entrevistas, y celebrar misa en público, cosa que con su salud y edad significa lo mismo que prohibirme a mí participar en concursos de Miss Camiseta Mojada 2006 en la modalidad talla XL. ¡Son listos como ratas de alcantarilla!

Desde que escribí sobre Los Legionarios de Cristo y su fundador, Marcial Maciel Degollado, he recibido mensajes en todos los tonos, yendo desde la creencia de que estaba mal informada, era crédula con sus enemigos; o era perversa y estaba secundando una campaña diabólica contra un hombre santo de vida ejemplar, hasta los que describían lo terrible que iba a ser mi fin cuando me descubrieran, avisándome que en ningún lugar de la tierra estaría segura, porque los que aman a Maciel están en todo el mundo. Lo normal en estos casos, vamos. Ni la milésima parte de lo que tuvieron que soportar en su niñez, adolescencia, y en su madurez, Félix Alarcón Hoyos, sacerdote español que ejerce en Estados Unidos; José de J. Barba Martín, catedrático del Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México; Saúl Barrales Arellano, profesor de un colegio católico; Alejandro Espinosa Alcalá, sobrino carnal de Maciel, autor de "El legionario"; Arturo Jurado Guzmán, catedrático de la Escuela de Lenguas del Departamento de Defensa de Estados Unidos; Fernando Pérez Olvera, ingeniero químico; José Antonio Pérez Olvera, abogado; Juan José Vaca Rodríguez, ex sacerdote, estrecho colaborador de Maciel durante tres décadas y ex presidente de Legionarios de Cristo en Estados Unidos, que han llevado adelante la acusación contra Marcial Maciel por abusos sexuales, como los que sufrió Ricardo, que fue violado y sufrió "todo tipo de abusos y humillaciones durante toda una semana" (la Semana Santa de 1991, cuando tenía 13 años) por el rector y algunos sacerdotes, que lo despertaban para sodomizarle, durante la noche, mientras sus compañeros dormían, en el Seminario Menor que la Legión de Cristo tiene en Ontaneda (Cantabria), donde los legionarios invitaron a Ricardo en una de sus campañas de captación ; así como otros cientos a los que ha silenciado la vergüenza y el sufrimiento.
Como respuesta, las quejas que se cursaron a la Santa Sede obtuvieron un ominoso silencio, mientras que a Marcial Maciel, Su Santidad, el Papa Juan Pablo II, le escribió una carta de apoyo y felicitación , publicada el día 5 de diciembre de 1994 en los siete diarios más influyentes de la Ciudad de México, avalada por su propia firma y con la reproducción muy visible del escudo de armas pontificio, en la cual encomiaba al Padre Maciel como "guía eficaz de la juventud" y como quien "ha querido poner a Cristo (...) como criterio, centro y modelo de toda su vida y labor sacerdotal…" , y el anuncio del nombramiento del padre Marcial Maciel Degollado como uno de los veintiún dignatarios encargados de organizar y dirigir el Sínodo de obispos de América, en Roma, programado para el 16 de noviembre al 12 de diciembre de 1997.
La legion de Cristo, 550 sacerdotes y 2500 seminaristas, se conoce en España como Misioneros del Sagrado Corazón y de la Virgen de los Dolores, y junto al Opus Dei, Camino Neocatecumenal –el de Kiko Argüello, el que pintó las paredes de la Almudena con indudable mal gusto para la boda del príncipe de España- y Comunión y Liberación, son la vanguardia del integrismo católico. La Legión de Cristo forma parte del ejercito del Papado y de la doctrina moral acuñada en el Vaticano, que amenaza con la excomunión a los que usen condón, o cualquier otro método anticonceptivo, a quienes mantengan relaciones sexuales sin ánimo de procrear, e, incluso, a los que miren a su mujer con deseo, según especificó Juan Pablo II, cosa que deben agradecer las mujeres católicas ya que no se tendrán en cuenta sus lúbricas miradas al marido.
Los Legionarios de Maciel se introdujeron en España en 1946, gracias a la familia Oriol, que ha dado cuatro sacerdotes a la Legión; y de Martín-Artajo, entonces ministro de Asuntos Exteriores de Franco, y cuenta ya con varios seminarios menores y dos mayores (Salamanca y Valencia), una universidad privada -la Francisco de Vitoria, Madrid-, y está comprando colegios privados, como el colegio El Bosque, de Madrid, cuyos alumnos han visto cambiar la orientación laica del centro a la ideología legionaria -separación de sexos incluida, “asesor espiritual permanente”, culto, oración y visita diaria a la capilla-; y han abierto decenas de guarderías -¡ pobres criaturas!; y entre sus seguidores están Gustavo Villapalos, ex rector de la Universidad Complutense de Madrid, consejero de Educación, Cultura y Deportes de la Comunidad de Madrid ; Alicia Koplowitz y su fundación Vida y Esperanza; y… el resto voy a dejarlo para otro día, que, si no, esta noche no duermo.

Gatopardo:

Que eres valiente ya la sabía; que tu trabajo informativo es muy serio porque lo investigas a fondo antes de publicarlo, lo intuía o, mejor dicho, estaba convencido; pero, que ibas a poder contra tanta gentuza y tanto poder, eso...lo dudaba.

A tí: muchas felicidades por tu coraje y tu fuerza.

A la política vaticana: como siempre, asquerosa y retorcida. No quiero escribir todo lo que me acude a la cabeza porque sé que me vas a decir que soy un animal y que no debo insultar pero es que esas cosas, como las que cuentas del seminario, o la "elegante" manera que han encontrado para apartar a un degenerado, que quieres, me indignan y fácilmente puedo perder las formas.

Y no vale decir: es que es en una organización tan grande siempre hay algún garbanzo negro. No, no vale, esos asquerosos no son garbanzos negros; son metástasis de un enorme cancer que se desarrolla en el Vaticano, con su Papa, sus Cardenales, sus Arzobispos, Obispos, secretarios, políticas, tradiciones y... sus dineros; ahí está el mal.

El Vaticano, que bien lo describió Emilio Zola. Que lástima que este escritor no pueda leer tu trabajo.

Saludos

Pues mi querida Gata, hay que cuidarse porque estas mentes retorcidas son capaces de cualquier cosa.
Del Vaticano no se puede esperar otra cosa, bien dice el dicho ¡Mientes como cura!, son perfectos en el arte de mentir, engañar y darle la vuelta al asunto.

El tema no es si procede o no un juicio y una eventual condena canónica. Ni si es "sucio" un comportamiento. El tema, es que ciertas instituciones, como cualquier club privado, ha de tener unos códigos que no pueden trasgredirse...El abuso sexual de menores no puede tener nada diferente a: tolerancia 0.

Los denunciantes de Marcial Maciel recuerdan sus vivencias
FRANCESC RELEA - México
EL PAÍS - Sociedad - 20-05-2006
"Me parece una decisión muy diplomática. El comunicado del Vaticano da alas a los Legionarios de Cristo para seguir mintiendo", dijo ayer Arturo Jurado, uno de los denunciantes de los abusos sexuales cometidos por el fundador de la orden, el mexicano Marcial Maciel. "No me interesa si castigan o no a Maciel. Mi interés es demostrar que las denuncias son ciertas. No quiero que mis hijas piensen que soy un mentiroso", añadió.

Jurado es uno de los nueve ex legionarios de Cristo que firmaron la carta enviada a Juan Pablo II en noviembre de 1997 en la que denunciaban las fechorías de Marcial Maciel. Recuerda las presiones y amenazas recibidas cuando abandonaron la congregación. "Maciel nos ordenó que no habláramos con nadie. De entrada obedecimos. Poco a poco me fui dando cuenta de la verdad". Jurado trabajó como profesor del Instituto de Lenguas del Departamento de Defensa de Estados Unidos en Monterrey (California), y centralizaba la correspondencia entre los denunciantes y su abogada, Martha Whegan, para evitar que Maciel interceptara las cartas, lo que hizo en más de una ocasión. "He vivido en EE UU, donde es un crimen gravísimo que un adulto tenga relaciones sexuales con un menor", dice.

"Nuestro error de juventud fue callar la verdad", admite José Barba Martín, ex miembro de la congregación y víctima de los abusos sexuales del fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo. No siente euforia ni frustración por el comunicado de la Sala Stampa del Vaticano -"con la Iglesia no cabe esperar grandes cosas"-, pero afirma convencido que "si no tomaban una decisión, el Papa habría perdido toda credibilidad". Profesor de Instituciones Políticas y Sociales en el Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM), José Barba llama la atención sobre el último párrafo de la nota del Vaticano, donde señala que "independientemente de la persona del fundador se reconoce con gratitud el benemérito apostolado de los Legionarios de Cristo". Una frase que la congregación tratará de utilizar a su conveniencia. "Sacan al padre Maciel y dan gracias a los Legionarios de Cristo. Es como decir que el tronco estaba podrido pero las ramas están bien. Y no es verdad. La investigación debe continuar. Desde el principio dijimos que no era una reivindicación personal, sino un servicio a la sociedad. Los Legionarios de Cristo nos acusaron de débiles mentales, pero son ellos quienes no han sido capaces de tomar una decisión".

Según explica Barba, a medida que han profundizando en la investigación han descubierto "el alcance del daño que Maciel ha causado a la Iglesia", y asegura que los Legionarios "eran una fachada horrorosa". Las denuncias de Barba son muy graves. Por ejemplo, las que hacen referencia a la adicción de Maciel a un derivado de la morfina. "Aquí lo importante es quién le conseguía la droga", subraya al explicar que en febrero de 1962, el fundador de la controvertida orden religiosa fue descubierto por un policía en San Sebastián cuando intentaba comprar el opiáceo. "Trató de sobornar al jefe de policía con más de 200.000 pesetas. Esta información está documentada y en poder del Vaticano. Pronto saldrá publicada en un libro", asegura Barba.

El periodista John Allen, corresponsal en el Vaticano del National Catholic Reporter, ha escrito que las denuncias de abusos sexuales contra Maciel son más de 20 y menos de 100. Nadie en la orden puede decir que no sabe. Ni el procurador general, Cristóforo Fernández, quien fue objeto de abusos sexuales, según afirma José Barba. Las víctimas están diseminadas en varios países, México, Estados Unidos, Irlanda, España, donde hay documentados varias decenas de casos en Ontaneda (Cantabria). "Creo que puede tener consecuencias devastadoras para el sistema de colegios que los Legionarios de Cristo tienen en España", estima Barba. "Parece que la consigna es extenderse lo más posible para que la Santa Sede se sienta intimidada y no se atreva a actuar. Es una institución basada en la mentira".

Juan José Vaca, antiguo legionario y hoy profesor en Nueva York escribió una carta demoledora de 12 páginas a Maciel. "En esa noche usted me arrancó mi virginidad masculina... Usted empezó el abuso aberrante y sacrílego que duró 13 años", decía el firmante, obligado a permanecer en la cama del fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo cuando el muchacho tenía 13 años. Vaca participó anoche en un programa de televisión en México.

Vaca, Barba y Jurado firmaron la carta que enviaron al papa Juan Pablo II después de que éste dijera en un discurso que Marcial Maciel era un modelo para la juventud. Otro ex miembro de la congregación, el ex rector de la Universidad Anáhuac Juan Manuel Fernández Amenábar, ya fallecido, escribió en el lecho de muerte una carta en la que acusaba a Maciel de haberlo sometido a abusos en tres ocasiones cuando tenía 16 y 17 años, y de ser adicto a un derivado de la morfina. Antes de morir le contó al padre Alberto Atié su historia y le hizo una petición: "En la misa de muerte diga a la gente que perdono a Marcial Maciel, pero pido justicia". Atié fue el encargado de la secretaría ejecutiva de la Comisión Episcopal de Pastoral Social. Ayer estaba colérico por el comunicado del Vaticano. "Aquí ha habido una negociación entre la Santa Sede y Maciel para dejar de investigar. Se ha negociado con un criminal, pederasta y abusador de menores".

El padre Antonio Roqueñí, abogado de los primeros denunciantes en 1998, calificó el comunicado del Vaticano de "farsa y simulación muy bien disfrazada". "Se ha presentado la sentencia como un favor del padre Maciel a la comunidad católica, como si renunciara a sus cargos. La verdad es que el Vaticano recibió muchas denuncias, con pruebas abrumadoras, de una conducta inaceptable que ha causado un daño terrible a muchas personas".

Roqueñí, que fue juez del Tribunal Eclesiástico de México, reclama transparencia a Roma. "¿Por qué no se abren a la opinión pública y dicen la verdad?" En su opinión, el caso no está cerrado. "Esto va a dar para mucho más", dijo. "Crecerá el clamor porque la comunicación de la Santa Sede no es clara, ni diáfana, ni completa. Las víctimas tienen derecho a la comunicación. Hay que cuidar la buena fama de los denunciantes, que han sido acusados de calumniadores". Según Roqueñí, es inusitado en la historia de la Iglesia que un fundador de una congregación como los Legionarios de Cristo "haya mantenido en el engaño a todo el mundo, empezando por el propio Papa".

Los Legionarios de Cristo son una de las congregaciones más influyentes de la Iglesia Católica que gozó de la total simpatía de Juan Pablo II. Está presente en 18 países y cuenta en sus filas con más de 500 sacerdotes y 2.500 seminaristas. El 26 de noviembre, una semana antes de que el tribunal de la Santa Sede notificara la reapertura de la investigación, Marcial Maciel celebró 60 años de sacerdote en el Vaticano, en un acto al que asistieron Juan Pablo II y el secretario de Estado del Vaticano, Angelo Sodano.

"Espíritu de obediencia"

El fundador de la Legión de Cristo y el Movimiento Regnum Christi, el sacerdote mexicano Marcial Maciel, acató ayer "con tranquilidad de conciencia" la petición del Vaticano de que renuncie a todo ministerio público, según informó su organización en un comunicado. El texto afirma que el religioso siempre ha mantenido su inocencia frente a las acusaciones de abuso sexual a seminaristas que se le imputaban.

"Con el espíritu de obediencia a la Iglesia que siempre le ha caracterizado ha aceptado este comunicado, con fe, con total serenidad y con tranquilidad de conciencia, sabiendo que se trata de una nueva cruz que Dios, el Padre de Misericordia, ha permitido que sufra y de la que obtendrá muchas gracias para la Legión de Cristo y para el Movimiento Regnum Christi", afirma el texto.

La nota admite que el "venerado padre fundador" ha recibido "a lo largo de su vida un sinnúmero de acusaciones", algunas de las cuales fueron presentadas en los últimos años a la Santa Sede. "Él afirmó su inocencia y, siguiendo el ejemplo de Jesucristo, optó siempre por no defenderse de ninguna manera", añade el comunicado.

Que la Iglesia tiene un problema sexual grave es claro y desde siempre. El de los no iglesia que estan alrededor y miran para otro lado permitiendolos tampoco deberia ser negociable.

Otro más de tantos casos! No lo hizo el papa anterior, que le tenía mucho aprecio. Ahora lo que importante es que sea llevado a la justicia, para que sus víctimas, tal vez, puedan dormir. Has hecho una labor muy completa de documentación en los dos post. Desgraciadamente poco frecuente este tipo de denunicas en los medios. Un abrazo

En 1945, el padre Marcial Maciel recibió una pena igual por parte del entonces obispo de Cuernavaca, Francisco González Arias, por haber abusado sexualmente del niño Francisco de la Isla, y nunca se supo cómo se le reincorporó a sus funciones. Es uno de los muchos puntos oscuros en la biografía del sacerdote pederasta.
En diciembre de 2004, cuando era prefecto de la Congregación para la Doctrina de la Fe, en cuyos tribunales se llevó el caso, nombró a Charles J. Scicluna fiscal especial para este asunto. El sacerdote maltés llegó a México el 3 de abril de 2005, para entrevistarse con víctimas del fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo, justo cuando en Roma agonizaba Juan Pablo II.

Scicluna se llevó al menos 30 expedientes con relatos de afectados. Casi cuatro veces más que las denuncias hasta ese entonces presentadas de manera formal ante el Vaticano. Con esto se reabrió formalmente el asunto, congelado varias veces en el anterior papado, esta ocasión bajo el cargo de absolución de cómplice, toda vez que el correspondiente al abuso sexual contra menores prescibe a los 10 años de los ilícitos cometidos, según el Código de Derecho Canónico.

La mayoría de los expedientes corresponden a víctimas de más de 60 años, que sufrieron las vejaciones cuando niños y adolescentes, pertenecientes a la orden de los Legionarios. Sin embargo, el especialista en temas religiosos Elio Masferrer dijo que se entrevistó con varios de los acusadores, algunos de ellos jóvenes. Es decir, a las viejas denuncias se sumaron otras.

Mes y medio después, la Legión de Cristo, en un intento por confundir a la opinión pública y presionar a Roma, falseó un comunicado del Vaticano diciendo que ''en breve'' se haría público que no había ningún proceso católico en curso, ni lo habría, en contra de su líder. Sólo que acreditó como responsable de sus dichos a la Secretaría de Estado del Vaticano, cuando corresponde a la Congregación para la Doctrina de la Fe emitir el juicio y hablar al respecto. Este hecho molestó al cardenal Ratzinger, el actual papa Benedicto XVI, sucesor de Juan Pablo II.

El caso se destapa en 1995, luego de que en su lecho de muerte Juan Manuel Fernández Amenábar, legionario de Cristo en su adolescencia, le confiesa al hoy ex sacerdote Alberto Athié Gallo que fue abusado sexualmente por Maciel, y le hace jurar que hará pública la denuncia.

Athié pide la ayuda del entonces obispo de Coatzacoalcos, Carlos Talavera Ramírez, para que lleve el caso al Vaticano, donde ya conocían de las acusaciones que desde tiempo atrás se hacían contra el fundador de la orden. El jerarca católico habla con el cardenal Ratzinger, quien se limita a escuchar la versión. Un año después, La Jornada da cuenta ampliamente del asunto.

Sin embargo, Roma determinó cancelar la investigación correspondiente por la relación de amistad que Maciel fincó con Juan Pablo II, y mantuvo una actitud silenciosa, casi cómplice, al respecto. Pero en 1998, el sacerdote Antonio Roqueñí, a petición de ocho de las víctimas, presenta una demanda ante los tribunales eclesiásticos por absolución de cómplice. Es decir, acusa al sacerdote originario de Cotija, Michoacán, de haber atacado sexualmente, confesar a sus víctimas, perdonarlas y mandarlas a comulgar.

El primer aviso que el padre Maciel recibe sobre lo que determinaría el cardenal Ratzinger en su contra se da en enero de 2005, al cumplir 84 años de edad y 60 de sacerdocio, y se ve obligado a dejar la dirección de la orden religiosa que fundó en 1941. Ese hecho fue, para Elio Masferrer, una salida ''elegante'', mientras que para Roberto Blancarte, también especialista en religión, se trató en ese entonces de salvaguardar a la legión. Hoy, con estos hechos se confirma que Maciel no tuvo otra opción que acatar la ''sugerencia'' del hoy sucesor de Juan Pablo II.

Desde entonces, el sacerdote mantiene una vida más que privada. En algún momento ha enviado algún mensaje a los Legionarios de Cristo, relacionado con la vida religiosa. Pero el hoy octogenario prácticamente ha desaparecido de actos públicos. Algunos de sus amigos hasta niegan haberlo visto e inclusive los impulsores de la causa de canonización del beato Ricardo Guízar y Valencia, su tío, buscan el deslinde de este lazo familiar desde que Roma, a inicios de este mes, aprobó este paso. Seguramente no prosperará el intento de Maciel por beatificar a su progenitora, conocida como mamá Maurita. De la página electrónica de la orden ya desapareció el vínculo donde se explican su ''vida, virtudes y milagros''.

Ésto es lo que pasa cuando no se tiene puñetera idea de lo que se habla. En fin, el tiempo dirá. Acusar es muy fácil y gratuito, sobre todo cuando se sabe que nadie se va a defender. Dentro de un tiempo todos os daréis de cabezazos por pensar así, o no, porque realmente os da igual.

Queridos, ¿en algún sitio de mi breve mensaje habéis encontrado desacato por mi parte hacia el Papa? Volved por favor a leer el comunicado, pero objetivamente.

Por otro lado, respondo a la alimaña (qué nombre más apropiado se ha puesto) de pederastia:
1) Todos sabemos lo aberrante que es la pederastia, pero también lo aberrante que es faltar a la presunción de inocencia. En el comunicado pone claramente que se rehusa a cualquier juicio, por favor, no lo hagas tú, que no eres nadie.
2) Defender a quien no se ha demostrado culpable por motivos más que suficientes que no me voy a molestar en poner aquí, NO les da derecho a llamarme mala católica, pederasta y decir que desautorizo a nadie.

En fin, hay que darles la papilla, que lso alimentos crudos todavía no saben digerirlos.

Me parece que hay que dejar tres puntos muy claros antes de caer en juicios falsos:

A)El que el Santo Padre Benedicto XVI haya establecido esta sanción contra Marcial Maciel, fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo, es porque tenía bases para poder comprobar que sus acusaciones poseen razón, así mismo, el Papa Benedicto XVI no ha hecho ninguna mala jugada él fue de los primeros Cardenales en aceptar atender el caso, creo que se le debe mucho en materia de justicia.

B)No por este individuo y otros malos sacerdotes debemos generalizar el problema. La Iglesia Católica está formada por gente también de bien.

C) No defiendo a los Legionarios de Cristo su metodología no me agrada, sin embargo, gracias a Dios la Iglesia no solo se limita a los Legionarios de Cristo.

Cuando eran niños
María Teresa Priego
31 de agosto de 2006

"No deplorar ni detestar nada, sino tratar de comprender", Spinoza.
En una frase elegida por Fernando González, en su libro: "Marcial Maciel. Los legionarios de Cristo: testimonios y documentos inéditos". Fernando es sociólogo y sicoanalista. Esta doble mirada sostiene el entrañable valor de su investigación. Su compleja empatía con las víctimas. "No se sirve a la memoria de un padre avalando sus faltas, sino evitando reproducir sus errores", una cita de Ramón Fernández. El fondo del trabajo de Fernando está dicho. No es posible entender el silencio que cubrió los años de abusos sexuales impunes de Marcial Maciel. Sin entender el lugar del padre. Y el lugar del hijo. "Los pactos de complicidad", y "los efectos cautivantes del ideal". En términos individuales. Y colectivos. La fascinación y el poder. De una personalidad disociada.
La investigación se estructura en los testimonios de las víctimas, y en el análisis de archivos. Un archivo perteneció al padre Luis Ferreira, "quien (en 1956-57) fungió como vicario general de la Legión.", otro "a la señora Flora Barragán, puesto en mis manos por su hija". La señora Barragán fue "benefactora" y "madre" de los legionarios de Cristo. Los documentos analizados no fueron "puestos en las manos" del investigador por los "enemigos" de la Legión, del Vaticano y de la religión católica. Vienen desde adentro. Fernando no "ataca" indiscriminadamente a la Legión. Se acerca a la personalidad de su fundador. A partir de datos duros.
La correspondencia de la jerarquía católica. Las palabras de quienes respetaron a Maciel y a su obra. Y un día se vieron obligados a dudar. La doble adicción de "marcial maciel". El secreto. Era hermético. Y era a voces. Nadie "vio". Basta leer los documentos inéditos para descubrir. Que tantos vieron. Suscribieron el pacto de silencio. La lealtad, entendida como sumisión. La realidad no correspondía al discurso y a la apariencia de la realidad. La apariencia se impuso. Fernando cita el "Pacto de denegación", de Kaes. Para intentar entender. Las reglas.
El pacto denegativo: "Es defensivo de los vínculos e incluye aquello que ha de ser reprimido, renegado, rechazado. Sobre la base de lo que dejamos afuera, nos juntamos. mantiene a los sujetos ajenos a su propia historia". Suena leve. Es hondísimo. Cuando estipula las reglas -conscientes o inconscientes- de la negación indispensable para existir, en el espacio anhelado del amor.
Las víctimas callaron. Interrogados en los años 50 durante una investigación realizada por el Vaticano, mintieron. Ni abusador sexual, ni morfinómano. "marcial maciel", dijeron. "Es un santo". Los testimonios narran una cotidianidad mortífera, por disociada. Como en El legionario, de Alejandro Espinosa. ¿Cómo traicionar al padre? ¿Cómo aceptar la traición del padre? ¿Quién lo creería? El naufragio emocional. Hasta llegar a la pregunta: ¿cómo vive su duelo una víctima de abuso sexual incestuoso? Quizá -escribe Fernando junto a ellos- luchando por dejar de vivirse como el "objeto" del daño infligido por el otro, para convertirse en el sujeto de su propia reconstrucción interior.
Pasar -cuando se va pudiendo- de la voz pasiva. A la voz activa. De "la memoria del rencor", a la "memoria del dolor" (Kancyper). El libro de Fernando es una reconstrucción sólida de los hechos. Y es un entrañable reconocimiento a las víctimas. A los adultos que hoy son. Como en la dedicatoria de El principito: "Cuando eran niños".

Respuesta a Marcelo: Las pruebas contra Marcial Maciel son contundentes y demoledoras. Se han escrito muchos libros sobre el tema, todos con sustento y bibliografías. El hecho de que a Ud. Marcelo, no haya tenido la mala suerte de ser acosado sexualmente, no significa que no haya pasado antes. Marcial Maciel, como otros en la jerarquía legionaria, escogen a sus víctimas cuidadosamente, deben ser atractivos físicamente y sobre todo, manipulables y obedientes, tal vez Ud. no tenía el perfil de víctima. Le suguiero Marcelo, tanto a Ud. como a los defensores de la "legión", que lean todo lo que puedan sobre el tema, y después formen su criterio. Hay mucha perversión en la Iglesia católica, pero una gran parte se concentra en esta orden.

Esta noticia es paradigmática de los métodos legionarios para quienes han denunciado sus abusos: el profesor de un niño de tres años desaparece, y lo encubren, defienden y estará seguramente en algún otro colegio de los Legionarios, repitiendo sus fechorías; y a la familia del niño de tres años violado, le organizan una campaña con recogida de firmas y amenazas. Nada ha cambiado ni cambiará en esa mafia religiosa, está podrida hasta la raiz.

Nuevo escándalo sacude a los Legionarios de Cristo
Nacional - Viernes 20 de octubre (14:00 hrs.)

* Culpan a un profesor de abusar sexualmente de un infante

El Financiero en línea

México, 20 de octubre.- Un nuevo escándalo de abuso sexual ha salpicado a los Legionarios de Cristo en México, con la denuncia presentada contra un profesor de un colegio ligado a este grupo religioso por los padres de un niño presuntamente abusado por él.

Los padres del infante que presentaron una denuncia penal ante la Procuraduría General de Justicia del Distrito Federal (PGJDF) en agosto pasado, manifestaron hoy a la emisora W-Radio su descontento con la respuesta de las autoridades del colegio de enseñanza preescolar a su problema.

El supuesto abusador del niño, que tenía tres años cuando presuntamente sucedieron los hechos, es Joaquín Francisco Mondragón, un profesor de educación física del Instituto Oxford, cuyo paradero se desconoce y es buscado por la justicia por los cargos de violación equiparada y abuso sexual agravado.

El caso, ocurrido en abril, trasciende después de que el pasado mayo fuera castigado por el Vaticano el fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo, el mexicano Marcial Maciel, debido a denuncias de que abusó sexualmente de seminaristas durante décadas.

Los padres del menor criticaron que los padres y los maestros del Instituto Oxford hayan firmado cartas contra ellos.

Según los padres, han pasado "de ser víctimas a victimarios", a pesar de que la directora del centro, Pilar Soto, les había asegurado que el caso iba a ser manejado "con la mayor de las caridades".

El padre del niño indicó que, tras denunciar los hechos a la dirección del centro, esperaba que tomaran más en serio el asunto pero sintió por momentos "que estaban concertando acciones en contra de" su familia. (Con información de EFE/GFL)

Este tema es pasado, sin embargo me interesa.
Yo fui estudiante del Instituto Tecnologico Autonomo de Mexico (ITAM), en el cual el Dr. José Barba (acusador del padre Maciel) es catedrático y fue mi maestro durante un año, yo no estaba enterada hasta hace unos meses.
Conozco muy bien al Dr. y les puedo decir que es una excelente persona, preparada, con una excelente moral e incapaz de mentir, en sus clases es neutral, creen en Dios y está en contra de toda injusticia. Así como todos los demas que acusan al padre Maciel, son buenas personas, dignas de credibilidad.
Yo que lo conozco le creo totalmente, ellos unidos luchan por que les crean sin mas apoyos que sus palabras.
A raíz de esto he conocido a muchas personas y he escuchado testimonios, de personas que son legionarios, o que alguna vez estuvieron involucrados.
No digo que todos sean igual que el padre Maciel porque conozco a legionarios y no son así pero en lo que respecta al padre Maciel, creo totalmente en los delitos que se le acusan. Lastima que no todas las personas tengan el gusto de conocer a las victimas de este caso.

DICEN QUE MURIÓ MARCIAL MACIEL DEGOLLADO, Y QUE DOLORES VÁZQUEZ ES INOCENTE, Y... no juzgo porque no sé, pero pensar sí: verdad lógica solamente en cuanto hecho del conocimiento. "Ni Marcial Maciel Degollado ni Dolores Vázquez eran de la opus Dei. Había dos clases de personas: las que eran de la opus Dei y las que no eran de la opus Dei": Estas afirmaciones biográficas de otro libro son una especie de "verdad" subjetiva. Dejemos aparte de momento la equívoca distinción entre verdad objetiva –que es la única que me interesa– y "verdad" subjetiva, y otros tipos de distinciones, y comencemos delimitando de las tres acepciones fundamentales cuál es la que nos sirve de lenguaje válido para dialogar críticamente con el espejo en compañía de Dolores Vázquez en cuanto ella es símbolo entendible (aunque sin importancia en comparación con otros del resto del sistema que sería mucho más laborioso por diversos motivos tratar de hacer comprensibles).

Acepciones aquí del término verdad.

La verdad es una, pero nosotros no podemos ahora entenderla toda a la vez en un momento, tenemos que ir por partes, poco a poco, paso a paso. La verdad es una, pero la podemos ver reflejada en tres espejos. Si en el espejo no hay verdad, entonces hay: nada, error, o mentira. Vamos a utilizar el término verdad aquí referido a tres tipos de espejos de la verdad (el segundo es el espejo para Dolores):

a) Verdad ontológica o espejo del ser (de las cosas y de la realidad):
o hay verdad o no hay nada.
b) Verdad lógica o espejo del conocimiento:
o hay verdad o hay error.
c) Verdad ética o espejo del comportamiento:
o hay verdad o hay falsedad.

a) Verdad ontológica. Es lo que las cosas son. O hay verdad o nada. Es llamada también verdad fundamental por ser el fundamento de todas las demás verdades o tipos de verdad. Propiamente no tiene contrario, sino contradictorio: el no-ser, que, al carecer de ser, no tiene propiedades, pero que, con el fin de conocerlo, le ponemos cierto ser, y de esta forma tenemos lo irreal. En el caso de las supuestas segunda inocente y la primera culpable Dolores Vázquez que conocimos, la segunda no es que sea la Dolores Vázquez verdadera, y la primera la Dolores Vázquez falsa, sino que la segunda es Dolores Vázquez, y la primera es una imagen irreal que simplemente no es Dolores Vázquez. Con el ejemplo del oro y del oropel, no es que el oro sea "oro verdadero" y el oropel "oro falso", sino que el oro es oro y el oropel oropel (latón), el oro no necesita distinguirse en verdadero y falso porque el oro es el oro sin más. Lo dicho: o hay verdad o nada. Lo contrario (contradictorio) de la verdad ontológica es la falsedad ontológica: el no ser que parece ser.

b) Verdad lógica. Es la conformidad, ajuste o coincidencia entre lo que pensamos sobre Dolores Vázquez y lo que Dolores Vázquez y las demás personas y cosas son en realidad. Su contrario es el error (engaño a sí mismo). O hay verdad o hay error. Sus objetos son: las cosas y los juicios, tanto ajenos como propios. Verdad de la razón (logos), no de el ò'n (gr. 'ser') o del ethos.
• Si se trata de las cosas, la verdad será la adecuación, ajuste o coincidencia entre lo que pensamos sobre Dolores Vázquez y las demás cosas y personas conocidas por nosotros y lo que Dolores Vázquez y las demás cosas y personas son. Como las cosas y Dolores Vázquez y las demás personas están "compuestas" de esencia y existencia, habrá verdades lógicas de esencia y verdades lógicas de existencia.

Las verdades lógicas de existencia serán: la adecuación de la existencia de las cosas y personas pensadas por nosotros con la existencia real de las cosas y personas pensadas.
Y las verdades lógicas de esencia: la adecuación de la esencia de las personas y cosas pensadas por nosotros con la esencia real de las personas y cosas pensadas.
Ejemplo del primer tipo: “Dolores Vázquez existe” (de Dolores Vázquez pienso que existe); y del segundo tipo “Dolores Vázquez es persona”; el “ser persona” coincide con lo que nosotros pensamos que es “el ser persona”.
• Si se trata de los juicios, la verdad será la adecuación de lo que pensamos sobre los juicios con lo que los juicios son. Respecto los juicios, podemos decir lo mismo que para Dolores Vázquez y todo lo demás: puede haber verdad de existencia (del objeto), es decir, si un juicio existe o no; y también verdad de esencia, es decir, si un juicio es verdadero o falso.
Según esto hay dos tipos de pensamiento: pensamiento verdadero y pensamiento erróneo. El pensamiento verdadero es afirmar que lo que es es y/o que lo que no es no es.
El pensamiento erróneo consiste en afirmar que es lo que no es y/o que no es lo que es.
La esencia de un juicio no es ser;
la esencia de un juicio no es sólo ser, sino ser verdadero o falso.
Es esencial, por tanto, la adecuación de lo que pensamos con lo que los juicios son, y la adecuación de lo que nosotros pensamos sobre las personas y las demás cosas con lo que las personas y las cosas son (como se ve identifico aquí personas y cosas con la realidad y no tengo en cuenta la distinción de X. Zubiri entre cosas y realidad).

c) Verdad ética. Es la conformidad, ajuste o coincidencia entre lo que pensamos (afirmamos o negamos mentalmente) y lo que decimos. Adecuación de nuestro comportamiento efectivo con los principios de comportamiento (lenguaje, gestos). La verdad ética propiamente hablando se llama veracidad, sinceridad. Su contrario es la mentira o falsedad (aquí no existe el error). Es la verdad del comportamiento humano. Es la adecuación de lo que decimos con lo que pensamos, la adecuación de la expresión de la interioridad con la realidad de la interioridad (veracidad).
Decir “juicio falso” está mal dicho, lo falso es ontológico;
decir “juicio erróneo” está bien dicho, lo erróneo es lógico;
decir “persona falsa” (que intenta engañar) es en sentido ético.

Nosotros vamos a situarnos en la verdad lógica para hacer una crítica del hecho del conocimiento en la actual sociedad de la información. Es necesario antes de nada entender por qué escojo esta palabra crítica y qué sentido le damos aquí teniendo en cuenta que no es una invención nueva sino que se ha utilizado siempre, aunque con distintos significados.

Introducción. ¿Por qué crítica?

Actualmente el nombre crítica es de uso universal. Existe en todas las lenguas, (occidentales al menos) y en cada una con su peculiar forma: En español crítica; en italiano y portugués crítica, en francés critique, en inglés critics, en alemán kritik.
Además, en cada una de ellas es utilizado tal nombre por gente de todos los niveles: el popular o llano, el culto o erudito, el científico o especializado; utilizándolo cada cual para sus menesteres expresivos.
Pero la existencia de tal nombre y su uso no son exclusivos de nuestros días.

Desde 2006 a la fecha, los legionarios ya han aceptado a regañadientes la culpabilidad de su santo defendido. Qué doble moral, en USA la iglesia esta en bancarrota por las demandas en contra de sacerdotes pedofilos, pero en Mexico, ni siquiera lo aceptaban.

La pedofilia es una psicopatologia de muy profundas raices,Maciel fue un pedofilo devenido en sacerdote,y que por lo tanto jamas deberia haber estado ni siquiera cerca de niños. Pero si asi lo hizo,fue porque conto con todo el apoyo del Vaticano. Lo de el fue la peor aberracion cometida,no solo ante la la ley del hombre,sino ante la ley de Dios. Tanto como si lo aceptan,como sino los legionarios Maciel fue un delincuete,lo penoso es que no pago por sus delitos.

Marcial Maciel ya no será santo

Por Jorge Queirolo Bravo

Pensé que lo lograría, que traspasaría triunfalmente la meta que tanto le habría gustado coronar, pero me equivoqué en forma rotunda. Me refiero, obviamente, a Marcial Maciel Degollado, el siempre evocado fundador de los Legionarios de Cristo. Dicho sacerdote, conocido debido a su predilección sexual por los seminaristas, sonaba como un firme candidato a ser canonizado. Ahora todo se arruinó. El festín de beatería hipócrita se derrumbó como un castillo de naipes en medio de un huracán.

¿Qué evento tan poderoso pudo pasar, como para aguarle la fiesta a los legionarios de la infamia? La respuesta es: algo inesperado y tremendamente sorpresivo. ¿Qué tan sorpresivo? Más de lo que se podría esperar de alguien que supuestamente fue célibe, aunque esto haya sido fuertemente cuestionado mientras el personaje aún vivía. ¿Qué sucedió entonces? Resulta que se dice que el inefable Marcial Maciel, además de violar a un cierto número de seminaristas, también fue padre. ¿Qué tiene esto de raro? ¿No es lo normal que un hombre tenga hijos? Para los mortales comunes y corrientes lo es, mas no para un prelado, de acuerdo con los extraños parámetros establecidos por esa institución tan anómala, decadente y anacrónica que es la iglesia católica.

Para la jerarquía eclesiástica que un cura u obispo viole o someta sexualmente a una legión de niños, adolescentes o seminaristas no parece ser un gran pecado. Solamente es motivo de traslados silenciosos para el religioso afectado, de tal manera que el brazo de la justicia secular, en lo posible, no lo alcance jamás. No es nada más que eso, y todos los actos y resoluciones administrativas que conciernen a estos “percances carnales” no tienen otra finalidad específica, como no sea la de proteger al autor material de dichas aberraciones. El mensaje del alto mando clerical a los sacerdotes es, en ese sentido, bien claro y no deja lugar a dudas: viola a todos los niños que quieras, pero no permitas que te descubran.

Tener un hijo ya es un asunto diferente y mucho más complicado. A los ojos del sacro colegio cardenalicio y los obispados esto sí que es un pecado descomunal, a desemejanza del abuso sexual en contra de menores que, en el mejor de los casos, es visto por ellos como una falta de poca cuantía y mucha frecuencia. Y por eso Marcial Maciel ya no será santo. Su imagen de yeso no adornará las bellas catedrales de las capitales europeas y latinoamericanas. No se erigirán santuarios que inmortalicen su memoria retorcida y libidinosa. Carecerá del honor de presidir, dentro de una urna de vidrio y cargado por sus adeptos, una procesión, pese a que éstas cada día son menos concurridas. Tampoco se imprimirán estampitas a colores, con una aureola blanquecina sobre su cabeza, para recordarles a los feligreses y peregrinos su falsa santidad.

Es que Maciel cometió el notorio desacierto de engendrar una hija, con lo cual su figura cayó perpetuamente en desgracia para los fanáticos trasnochados y andropáusicos que dirigen el Vaticano. Eso de ser papá sí que es imperdonable. ¿Cómo se le ocurrió perpetrar semejante tontería a Maciel? ¿No tenía, en ese momento, acaso, suficientes querubines bien dotados con los cuales revolcarse debajo de las sábanas? ¿Quiso el padrecito jugar a ser hombre? ¿Le sobrevino un súbito arrebato heterosexual? Porque, por lo que sabemos, a Marcialito más bien le picaba el culito. O para manifestarlo con una expresión bien criolla y algo vulgar: le gustaba que le atoren el tubo de escape. ¿Se entendió?

No ahondaré más en el tema. Lo que voy a decir a continuación puede sonar curioso, pero defiendo la opción de Marcial Maciel de haber elegido ser papá. Creo, incluso, que es lo único bueno y positivo que hizo en su inmoral vida. Y el clero diocesano debería respaldarme en mis dichos. ¿No dicen ser los más grandes defensores de la familia? Ahí tienen un buen ejemplo de alguien que trató de formar una familia, aunque informalmente. Marcial Maciel ya tiene un retoño propio que le puede poner flores en su tumba en el día del padre. Sus seguidores probablemente ya no lo harán, asqueados por la pérdida de prestigio de su progenitor espiritual. ¿Y qué dice la curia vaticana de todo este lío? Seguramente ya están buscándole un sucesor menos lujurioso a Marcial Maciel. A rey muerto, rey puesto.

MOTÍN CÍVICO

Disculpen si dejo de lado mi natural ponderado para afirmar que si hubiera en mi país más ciudadanos como la baronesa Thyssen, no tendría este permanente estado de bochorno y desconcierto ante la pasividad y permisividad con la que se aceptan los desmanes urbanísticos, en los que las corporaciones locales se saltan los obligados estudios de impacto ambiental, porque el famoso 3% de comisiones para la caja “b” de los partidos, que tan indiscretamente mencionó el presidente de la Generalitat de Catalunya, impone su servidumbre: si no hay obras, no hay manera de sisar.

Por lo tanto, el Ayuntamiento de Madrid, acometió el proyecto para soterrar la M30, y puso chimeneas que esparcen los gases contaminantes donde antes había zonas verdes. Y para ello taló 20.000 árboles, ha dejado sin pulmón verde un Madrid diseñado como una pesadilla asfixiante; saltándose la ley de Protección del Arbolado Urbano, y se proyecta talar otros tantos en futuros desmanes urbanísticos.
Y todo eso, contando con la financiación de la Comunidad Europea, que exige que todas las obras vayan avaladas por un estudio y su correspondiente declaración de impacto medioambiental. Y, qué despiste, ni el Ayuntamiento de Madrid, ni el Gobierno de la Comunidad de Madrid, ni el Ministerio de Medio Ambiente se habían acordado de cumplir esa norma de rango superior, por lo que esos 1.500 millones de euros de la Comunidad europea no van a llegar, y tendrán que salir de los impuestos de los contribuyentes, por la mala gestión de los responsables.
Y la mayoría de los madrileños maldiciendo por lo bajo, aguantaron como cabrones. O como españoles, que viene a ser lo mismo. Ha tenido que ser "Tita" Cervera, Carmen Thyssen, quien dijera hasta aquí hemos llegado, y de aquí no pasan, cuando supo el delirante trazado de cinco carriles para el Paseo del Prado, que incluye la eliminación de los árboles que adornan la entrada de su museo, que fueron plantados en el siglo XVIII bajo el reinado de Carlos III, de manera que los 110.000 vehículos que circulan diariamente por el paseo del Prado pasarían más cerca del Museo de la Fundación Thyssen-Bornemisza.
-"Quieren ponernos una autopista delante, y, encima, lo harán cortando una arboleda única", explicó la baronesa.
Y los intelectuales, las asociaciones de vecinos, y la mayoría de los ciudadanos, como si la cosa no fuera con ellos.
El alcalde de Madrid, Ruiz Gallardón, y la presidenta de la Comunidad de Madrid, Esperanza Aguirre, han tenido que parar las obras, y habrá un periodo para las alegaciones.
Otra de las pifias, ha ocurrido en las obras de prolongación de la Vía Carpetana, en la que se puso en peligro un yacimiento romano, y ha obligado a la Dirección General de Patrimonio Histórico a firmar una resolución para salvaguardar este yacimiento de "gran importancia, singularidad y magnitud". Pero, entre tanto, ya se habían talado los árboles del parque de Eugenia de Montijo para dejar sitio al asfalto y a los coches.
La contaminación existente en Madrid, proveniente de los gases de combustión, gracias a las nulidades con diploma de Arquitectos, que consideraron una demostración de ingenio eliminar ventanas y persianas, y crear moles, monstruos de hormigón estancos, climatizados con aire acondicionado, torres de refrigeración y de calefacción, nidos de bacterias y mugre, con el síndrome del edificio enfermo, que según la Organización Mundial de la Salud, "es un conjunto de molestias y enfermedades originadas en la mala ventilación, la descompensación de temperaturas, las cargas iónicas y electromagnéticas, las partículas en suspensión, los gases y vapores de origen químico y los bioaerosoles, entre otros agentes causales identificados".
Los malestares que producen son: jaquecas, náuseas, mareos, resfriados persistentes, irritaciones de las vías respiratorias, piel y ojos, alergias y fibromialgias .
Y, claro, España es el lugar donde circulan más billetes de 500 euros, procedentes del narcotráfico, del blanqueo de dinero ilícito que emerge en la construcción.
Y no sólo en Madrid: en cada Ayuntamiento de España hay un pozo mura, y lo sabemos todos.
Y como no podía ser de otra manera, todo lo que proyectan nuestros próceres es imperdonablemente feo y hortera. Como para fusilarlos.

Madrid es, si se mira bien, una de las capitales más bonitas de Europa. Si uno cierra los ojos y se imagina el Paseo del Prado sin coches, la calle de Alcalá sin coches, etc. tal y como eran a principios del siglo XX... si uno al caminar por Madrid sube la vista del suelo y mira hacia arriba, a los edificios... Madrid es una de las ciudades más monumentales y mejor conservadas (tantas fueron arrasadas por la segunda guerra mundial) de Europa. Y... todo eso no sirve de nada, si se le añaden los semptiernos cuatro, seis, ocho carriles de tráfico continuo de cualquier gran avenida madrileña. Madrid es también la capital con más tráfico y más ruido de Europa, con mucha diferencia.
Pero parece que algunos madrileños, como el alcalde, lo prefieren así: una ciudad todavía más hostil al caminante y al amante de la belleza, y más propicia, todavía más, al tráfico rodado.

Como asmático y como paleto tengo que decir lo siguiente: El señor alcalde de Madrid ya dijo en su programa sus intenciones urbanísticas que al elegirle fueron los madrileños los que las legalizaron. Lo de las leyes del impacto medioambiental y demás son unas boludeces, para disimular, como los chipopteros municipales de la medioambientez. Estos están solo para dar carta de legalidad a la rapiña de los otros. No se si en Arquitectura se estuduará el paisajismo ese, ó como se llame. Pero lo que si sé es que los que saben de eso son los de Montes, Agrónomos, etc. Pero estos como no mangonean no están en los ayuntamientos. Simplemente no están.
No entiendo como sufriendo los horrores de las ciudades todavia se permite a los arquitectos el seguir jodiendo desde la poltrona.
Todavia no es un parque el Juan Carlos y ya se les caen los puentes a los autores de la M-40. Y a los de la M-45 que arrasaron arboles que pagó la Comunidad Europes esa y pasan por encima de la Cañada Real y que les costó 4 veces mas de lo que vale.

Mirad; lo único que produce oxígeno, que yo sepa, son las plantas. Nos gusten ó no son vitales, y no es otra la cuestión. ¿No se compra la gente el "chalé" y el jardín lo alicatan hasta el techo?.

Los madrileños no somos cabrones, somos tontos.
La baronesa es la baronesa,aunque las obras empezaron mucho antes...y muchos cientos de nosotros, hemos gritado, pataleado, nos hemos atado a los árboles, tenemos nuestras casas llenas de pancartas contra esa tala indiscriminada.Es importante lo del Paseo del Prado, tan importante como otras zonas históricas de Madrid...Puente del Rey, Puente de la Reyna, Puente de los Franceses, Casa de Campo, zonas verdes y pulmones de la ciudad y sin nada que poder hacer..no somos baronesas, ni atraemos a la prensa vestidos de blanco...a nosotros directamente, nos tiran al barranco.Todos los días, con mi cámara, fotografío los desmanes de un Gallardón, soberbio y prepotente, donde se han talado, abedules, castaños de índias y todo lo que arrasan al pasar.....de verdad, sólo me queda la tristeza y como dice alguién en su comentario..cuando mire hacia arriba, veré cemento.Aún queda más...el derribo del campo de fúltbol del Manzanares,para hacer una montañita artificial para ver la sierra, y hacer playa en el río ¿Manzanares?..no, no, perdón el río Orinoco, que es lo que piensa el alcalde, el ca...del alcalde.

Moraleja: para que dejen de talar árboles. Para que dejen de destruir patrimonio artístico y natural. Para que dejen de enterrar reliquias de gran valor en pos de nuevos aparcamientos y edificios horteras, etc. etc. Hay que ser baronesa o famosa de las de prensa rosa-empalagosa ya que el pueblo, ese gran perjudicado, se ve que, aunque tiene voto (bien que se lo piden) no tiene voz...
Bueno mientras sirvan para eso las baronesas.

No sé que manía les ha dado a los alcaldes con esto de talar árboles, pasa en muchas ciudades no sólo en Madrid. No sé que vamos a dejar vivo.

En los pueblos aún tenemos nieve blanca; somos unos privilegiados.
Un abrazo fuerte y grande.
Detrás del reflejo: en cualquier ciudad de Europa se modifican los trazados y se planean las infraestructuras sanitarias con treinta años de anticipación; aquí se planifican las comisiones que van a dejar los proyectos a cuatro años vista, que es lo que se tarda en convocar a los ciudadanos para las elecciones.

Un abrazo, paisano.
Luna: si el 10% de los madrileños se hubieran echado a la calle a defender sus derechos, que es la cantidad que sale a celebrar una victoria del equipo local en cualquier ciudad, no tendría que verme en la tesitura de alabar a la baronesa Thyssen por amenazar con llevarse sus cuadros, y por negarse a seguir las conversaciones para prorrogar el acuerdo con el Ayuntamiento como medida de presión. ¡Y fíjate si ella no puede ponerse tranquilamente doscientos árboles en donde le cuadre vivir!
Un abrazo, paisana.

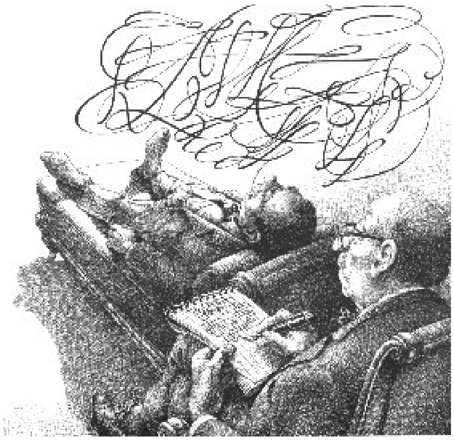
GRAMATICALMENTE CORRECTO



Un diputado ha presentado un proyecto no de ley para erradicar de la televisión los mensajes de móvil, esos que aparecen superpuestos al pie de la pantalla en ciertos programas . Algunos ya han respondido a la propuesta con la palabra censura. Ya se sabe que el concepto de libertad de expresión en este país es muy maleable. Los que escribimos de vez en cuando, lo hacemos, estos últimos años, con autocensura, por miedo a ofender a colectivos minoritarios o a que se nos escape una palabra caducada en lugar de la nueva acuñada por el gobierno. Impensable llamar negro a un negro, impensable recurrir al entrañable subnormal para referirse a alguien con déficit de entendimiento. O llamar padres a nuestros progenitores a y b.
Por contra, el poder, tan meticuloso a la hora de corregir el lenguaje y transformarlo en un rosario de despropósitos bajo el asesoramiento de feministas y psicólogos, resulta que no había reparado hasta ahora en ese detalle que todas las televisiones muestran a diario, a cualquier hora: mensajes anónimos, denigrantes para la víctima de turno –siempre un famoso-, delictivos en ocasiones y, como guinda, redactados en un lenguaje alternativo, más cercano al apache que a nuestra gloriosa y maltratada lengua. Es decir, el lenguaje del móvil, hecho de síncopas, abreviaturas y signos matemáticos. Ese nuevo lenguaje, nacido de las prisas, que prescinde de acentos y de las mínimas reglas ortográficas, se ha convertido en seña de identidad de la tribu adolescente, pero también de los universitarios. Sus códigos cifrados responden a ese anhelo de diferenciación que la juventud ha mostrado en todas las épocas, una jerga propia que es una puerta cerrada para el mundo adulto. Hasta ahí, lógico y comprensible. Como tal jerga, tenderá a la renovación en cosa de años, si no de meses, pues así se comporta la lengua coloquial, como cuerpo vivo que es.

Lo que es menos admisible es que estas jergas, aceptables en el ámbito privado, vayan adquiriendo un carácter estandarizado al ser reproducidas, sin pasar por el filtro de la corrección, en los medios de comunicación. El daño que se hace es doble: por un lado, estos mensajes constituyen auténticos insultos hacia personas públicas, independientemente de que estos personajillos de los programas rosas los merezcan, y al reproducirlos crean en el espectador no formado la idea de que todo el monte es orégano, de que es lícito e impune el insulto indiscriminado y soez como forma de crítica. Y por otra parte, su forma atentatoria contra la gramática produce en ese mismo espectador el espejismo de que ese lenguaje es el correcto, pues lo refrenda nada menos que la televisión, su única fuente de información junto con internet.
La imagen que se nos ofrece de la juventud, si atendemos a sus modos de comunicación y sin caer en el catastrofismo, es asimismo doble. Jóvenes que carecen de una cultura general pero están al tanto de cada chascarillo de los famosos; jóvenes que no saben escribir, y cuyo mínimo recurso de expresión es el exabrupto o el rebuzno. La contrapartida peligrosa a todo esto es que, educados en una cultura acéfala o directamente analfabeta, se acepte como norma la no norma y se rechace la corrección como un elitismo o una imposición engorrosa contra la que hay que luchar.
Me remito a algunos ejemplos que el usuario de internet ya debe conocer. En los llamados chats o en los foros internautas se ha impuesto el desprecio a la lengua: renuncia a la acentuación, a la puntuación o a las mayúsculas. Es el reino de las onomatopeyas, con el auxilio de estúpidos emoticones y otras lindezas. Aquel que, por puro sentido común, haga una llamada a la corrección y recrimine esa distorsión de la lengua, será visto como un elitista, un aguafiestas, un subversivo, constituyéndose en la rechifla del rebaño analfabeto. El otro ejemplo, el de mi querida amiga Gatopardo, está fresco en los seguidores de esta bitácora: por exigir unos mínimos –o máximos- de decoro lingüístico, ha sido acusada de censora o de intolerante. O de cascarrabias, lo que sin duda es. El castizo huevo hispano se impone en estas querellas: yo escribo como se sale de los cojones, es la respuesta de los ágrafos.
Salvando las distancias, yo pienso que esto actualiza la teoría de Ortega acerca de nuestro país, retrasado con respecto de otros europeos más cultos y que saben defender su lengua: nuestro problema viene de las masas ineducadas, instaladas en lo que el maestro madrileño llamaba aristofobia. Al que despunta, en este caso al que escribe bien, se le tiran a la yugular, del mismo modo que al empollón o al buen alumno se le condena al ostracismo. Ya veremos en qué para esa propuesta del diputado socialista, que miro con la mayor de mis simpatías. Espero que sirva para que de una vez el lenguaje políticamente correcto, artificial y eufemístico, dé paso al lenguaje gramaticalmente correcto.

Creo que en la televisión catalana ya funciona la censura en los mensajitos de móvil: si llegan escritos en español (la mayoría lo están) se traducen al catalán.

Hacia tiempo que no leia algo tan bien escrito y con tanta razón. Me parece una gran defensa de nuestro lenguaje, que yo también reivindico. Además, esa defensa ha sido efectuada con una gran expresividad y empleando un marvilloso vocabulario, reiterando la idea del argumento. Ha sido una delicia el leerle. Espero que escriba más comentarios. Un saludo de un miembro de ALBACETE DIGITAL.

A ver intentaré no hacer faltas de ortografía, muchas de las cuales se deben a la rapidez con que escribo y a alguna que otra interferencia lingüística por parte de mi lengua materna.
La aceptación de la "epidémia" lexico-gráfica parece ser un hecho cada vez más extendido, pues ya no solo afecta a los msm pues una visita por el mundo de la blogosfera, espació en el qual hasta el momento parecía haberse salvado de la idiotez, empieza a estar plagado de blogs escritos con el mismo lenguaje que se utiliza en los sms, con el mismo lenguaje y con el mismo contenido, no es nada dificil encontarte con blogs o espacios virtuales donde los posts son más o menos así: Wenas este fin astao de PM k tal?spero k bien,k sepais k me caeis d P.M y asias por alludarme kon lo del gogo jeje, weno haber kando kedamos... etc. etc.

Y por cierto me gustaria aclarar a Detrás del reflejo que ni en TV3 ni en Canal 9 se traducen los mensajes al catalán cuando los originales van en castellano.

Sr. García Muñoz:

Felicidades por su escrito. Es una pena, pero así es: no cuidamos nuestro hermoso idioma, ni el hablado ni el escrito. Empezando por el mismísimo jefe del Estado y siguiendo por el del gobierno, del ministro de cultura, presentadores de TV, locutores de radio, etcétera, que tienen a gala o, incluso consideran que se hacen más simpáticos, terminar en "ao" las palabras que terminan en "ado"; decir areódromos por aeródromos; metereológica por meteorológica; explotar por explosionar.
Conscientemente he empezado citando cargos para los cuales, a pesar de su importancia, para ocuparlos no se necesita demostrar una gran cultura ni tampoco demasiado buen gusto. Pero es indignante escuchar algunas personas de las que sí se espera aprender algo, como: algunos profesores de universidad, maestros de escuela, distinguidos académicos, cuando sueltan sus muletillas: "bueno, pues mire usted...", "bueno, pues la verdad es que...", "se lo digo sinceramente.."

Y, en cuanto a lo que se escribe... también deseo felicitar y animar a Gatopardo a que continúe en su intransigente línea; por el bien de la cultura y del buen gusto, de los que queremos seguir aprendiendo.
Atentamente,

Si fuera odio a quien demuestra haberse molestado en aprender; pero lo peor es que es amor a la pereza mental, al ínclito tonto, al erial conceptual, a la tontería irremediable, al energúmeno, al que no piense antes de hablar y después tampoco, porque se pretende que nadie se sienta disminuido por ser de una idiotez superlativa.
Y se suele clamar contra quien le diga tonto intonso y cerril a alguien desprovisto de razón y de entendimiento, que dice una melonada tras otra, con gran énfasis y con poca ortografía.
El primero que dijo "Todos tenemos derecho a decir lo que pensamos" cometió un grave error; pero los que lo repiten sin especificar que antes hay que pensar lo que se vaya a decir, son culpables de un crimen contra la inteligencia, que debería castigarse con mordaza.
Don Antonio, maestro, un abrazo y gracias por su lúcido artículo.

Algunas objeciones:

- Sospecho que ese abreviar y distorsionar las palabras en los mensajes de móvil, no responde a un deseo de diferenciación por parte de los más jóvenes, sino al de economizar en sus facturas.
Cierto es que también se ahorra tiempo y que la "diferenciación" es, o bien un valor añadido o bien un disfraz para revestir la insolvencia, diría que prácticamente inherente al jóven, hoy día.
De otros errores, no le niego la no intencionalidad y la ignorancia.

-El mismo diccionario de la R.A.E. utiliza abreviaturas para señalar la naturaleza de las palabras u otras explicaciones.
Claro que, para usted, mi querida Gatopardo, ésto no supone ningún buen argumento jjjjjj ("vocablo" al que usted recurre usualmente ;P)

-Me pregunto si le resultará comparable el paso que tuvo lugar del ¿castellano antiguo? (tal vez no sea esa la denominación correcta), al actual castellano, de modo que se sucedió la conversión de letras "f" en "h", la secesión del pronombre integrado en el verbo, y no sé que otros avatares que yo desconozca.

-No sé si la gramática española contempla fórmulas de estructuración como ésta que vengo utilizando en mi exposición, u otras más clarificadoras de nivelación a base de letras y/o números.

En conclusión, “m'alegro” de la evolución del idioma. Que se busquen, experimenten y nazcan nuevas formas que den soluciones a lagunas, a ambigüedades, a la necesidad de comunicarnos por escrito de forma que se reproduzca lo más fielmente posible la información íntegra de nuestra expresión oral.
El lenguaje es un medio, que puede ser bellísimo en su forma e incluso un juego intelectual; pero, sobre todo, es útil.

Querido Señor Antonio:
Me produce usted una inmensa ternura cada vez que escribe unos de estos soporíferos e insistidos discursos, porque estoy casi convencida de que cree que, realmente, es usted interesante. Puesto que visito a menudo a mi querida gata, por mucho que me obligue a no leerle para no deprimirme, acabo cayendo al fin en el infracción de pasear por sus líneas, siempre con idéntico resultado.
Y es que los ancianos como usted (le supongo, por sus pensamientos, próximo a cumplir los ciento veinte años) han defendido las mismas premisas en cada generación, a lo largo de toda la historia del hombre, ya sabe: Los jóvenes (siempre en general) no saben pensar por sí mismos y están abocados a la tragedia si no los corregimos y, por supuesto, el gobierno tiene gran parte de culpa en todo.
Por esta razón, y antes de que España se hunda irremediablemente en el analfabetismo, le recordaré por última vez que:
-El lenguaje abreviado no es nuevo, hace décadas que se utiliza en telecomunicaciones, para la señalética. Imagine a dos cabos señaleros en sendas cubiertas trasmitiendo una conversación mediante banderines letra a letra según el lenguaje gramaticalmente correcto.
-Hay mucha más gente de su edad que de la mía (ya sabe usted que rondo los diecisiete) que carecen de una cultura general pero están al tanto de cada chascarillo de los famosos y que no saben escribir, por lo que su mínimo recurso de expresión es el exabrupto o el rebuzno. Para los ejemplos se deben usar las mayorías, señor mío.
-Déjese de entrar a alternar en chats inadecuados para su edad, y evitará ridiculizarse con sus obsoletas y arcaicas formas de caballero español.
-Y no comparto la opinión del señor José con respecto a la abundancia de sus colaboraciones, aunque si hace tanto que él no leía algo así de bien escrito, no quiero imaginar cuales serán sus lecturas habituales.

Atentamente.

En un futuro que ya no veré, nobles damas, espero que la senilidad precoz que os aqueja sea posible retrasarla hasta los cuarenta años, de forma que cualquiera que lea completo un artículo no se quede con una sola frase fuera de contexto, con la irritante sensación de que hay un ataque personal en cualquiera que escriba algo que sea más elaborado que un diálogo de los Lunnis; hacedme el favor de poneros a dieta de sardinas, con suplementos de fósforo, a ver si esas cabezas os llegan a servir para algo más que para adornarlas con bucles. Hasta hoy mismo suponía que ofertar su página al señor García Muñóz para sus colaboraciones no era más que una caprichosa manía de genio excéntrica, pero empiezo a sospechar que hay algo más que antojo en su ceguera selectiva con respecto a tan pedante caballero. Reconozca usted que siente la misma fijación por tan adusto señor como yo por Vargas Llosa y dejémonos de diatribas en pro del buen escribir.
Con respecto a leer más o menos, entienda usted que aunque el conjunto del artículo es aburrido y casposo, hay ciertas afirmaciones que destacan en su estupidez y son dignas de ser resaltadas para vergüenza del autor, pero eso no significa, ni mucho menos, que no haya tenido yo el santo valor de leer el resto del emético texto, no sin mucho esfuerzo.
Y con respeto a la señorita Elena, no cometa usted el senil desliz del señor Antonio, metiendo a todos los jóvenes en el mismo saco, pues libre Dios a Elena de parecerse en nada a mí, por su propio bien. Pero sugerir operaciones al Pendón Volteriano es algo más que discusión gramtical por muy "cariñosamente" que sea la recomendación. Vamos a ver, doña Tautina, y se lo digo a usted porque parece que siente una querencia especial por mis torpes escritos. Sigue usted emperrada en la cuestión de mi edad, cuando usted no sabe la edad que tengo ni yo se la voy a decir. Y además nos dice la suya, que nadie le ha preguntado, y que a usted le gusta tanto. Ya se le pasará. En cuanto al artículo en sí, ya no me acuerdo muy bien de lo que dije –senilidad precoz que padezco desde los doce años- pero creo que la tesis no era exactamente la de que los jóvenes no sepan escribir, sino una crítica a que los medios de comunicación den cancha a esa forma de escritura. Lo demás serían argumentos secundarios. Que los adolescentes lo hagan por razones económicas –ahorrarse unos centimillos de euro-, como dijo usted o Elena, tanto da, choca con la circunstancia de que muchos jóvenes escriben igual de mal, en blogs o en exámenes, cuando no median esas razones de ahorro. Pruebe usted a leer a su admirado Vargas Llosa en lenguaje abreviado y ya me contará. Por cierto que hay modos y maneras de ponderar autor: decir que se le caen las bragas cuando lee al peruano suena cuando menos chabacano. Pero como no dudo de su sinceridad, haga por cambiarle la goma a la braga de vez en cuando, o no la lleve sin más, y se ahorrará muchas situaciones embarazosas. Y no implique a Gatopardo en estas trifulcas: nuestra historia de amor corre de puertas adentro y no la verá usted publicada en Superpop, su revista de cabecera (si es que sigue existiendo, que no lo sé)

Muy de acuerdo con la entrada del señor Antonio García Muñoz, pero no así con algunos de los comentarios al respecto. Me gustaría matizar algunas cuestiones.

A Tautina no tengo nada que decirle, porque parece más empeñada en llevar la contraria al autor a toda costa que a dilucidar una opinión coherente sobre el contenido del artículo. Simplemente decirle que no cometa la burrada de comparar el lenguaje abreviado de las telecomunicaciones con los mensajes de móvil o con los chats.

A Elena creo que hay que aclararle que el paso del castellano antiguo al actual no tiene absolutamente nada que ver con el fenómeno de estos nuevos lenguajes. Cualquier lengua evoluciona desde lo oral, y los cambios se incorporan a la escritura una vez se han normalizado. Jamás podrían producirse cambios en el idioma desde la escritura, y mucho menos desde la escritura de los móviles. Algo así es inconcebible. Lo que ocurre con el paso de la letra "f" a la "h" se debe a algo oral (la pérdida de la aspiración).

Por último, no puedo dejar de sorprenderme ante fundamentalismos lingüísticos como el de Ramiro II. Una cosa es cambiar letras de lugar (vulgarismos) y otra muy distinta es hacer los participios en "ao" o utilizar muletillas. No confunda la incorrección gramatical con las variedades diafásicas. Lo que critica es caracteristico de la lengua coloquial, y no tiene nada que ver con lo que critica el señor García Muñoz. No pretenderá usted que hablemos tal y como escribimos, respetando escrupulosamente todas las normas de la escritura, porque eso demuestra que no tiene mucha idea sobre el funcionamiento de la lengua.

Qué tal.
A mí siempre me han parecido irritantes las faltas ortográficas y la mencionada escritura disparatada que es ya de uso común en mensajes de teléfonos móviles y en chats. Lo veo desde un ángulo parecido al del autor del artículo, respecto a que son una forma de identificación y de "rebeldía", o un código, pero que promueve la ignorancia y la pereza mental al ignorar por completo las mínimas reglas de nuestro lenguaje y aceptar esa forma de escritura como normal, no sólo en jóvenes, pues he leído gente de todas las

No sé adónde podemos llegar si sigue esta espiral de lubricidad que usted desata con sus artículos. Y eso que, usted, sólo se muestra en todo su esplendor erótico en la intimidad como cumple con su edad y condición.
Estimado Hombre sin nombre: ¿dice usted que es fundamentalismo ese malestar casi físico al escuchar a alguien que puntúa sus frases con latiguillos del género "yo, la verdad", "mire, usted", "sinceramente", "vamos a ver", ¿no?, ¿comprendes?, etc.? Me declaro fundamentalista, si es necesario, porque he estado a punto de solicitar la declaración de mi cerebro como zona catastrófica al cabo de una hora de conversación con alguien que se expresa así. En el pasado, se puso de moda el "o sea", "a nivel de", "por consiguiente", "vale"; pero ahora están tan extendidos y son tan variados los idiotismos que escuchar una conferencia se convierte en un empedrado de latiguillos. ¿Qué idea hay que tener sobre el funcionamiento de la lengua para dejar de desear que se utilicen las palabras en su cabal significado?
Señor Urbina: podemos aplicar la norma en internet. Se lo aseguro.

Señora Gatopardo, seguramente usted es de las que todavía utilizan hablando el pretérito anterior en lugar del pluscuamperfecto y otras pijadas lingüísticas por el estilo. Pero le aseguro que la gente normal no habla así.

Pero en realidad, estoy convencido de que usted cuando habla sí utiliza (inconscientemente) esos latiguillos que tanto dolor de cabeza le dan, porque eso todo el mundo lo hace, y se lo digo yo, que he analizado decenas de producciones grabadas, de personas de distintas clases sociales y en diversas situaciones. Utilizar esas expresiones no depende de la cultura que se tenga o de lo bien que se hable (y mucho menos de lo gramaticalmente correcto que se sea).

Es evidente que sus nociones sobre lingüística son decimonónicas, pero le comunico que la lingüística está ya a años luz de su punto de vista desfasado. Lo que usted llama despectivamente "latiguillos", ya ha sido sistematizado, y es lo que Luis Cortés Rodríguez llama expletivos. Antonio Briz a su vez supera la visión del anterior y demuestra que no son inútiles ni gratuitos, sino que tienen una función determinada (funciones pragmáticas o metadiscursivas según el conector).

Si no tiene ni idea de lo que estoy hablando, puedo recomendarle algunos libros de Antonio Briz y del grupo Val.Es.Co, para que al menos no hable sin conocimiento de causa.

Así que por favor, una cosa es defender la corrección en la escritura, y otra muy distinta es pretender que hablemos tal y como escribimos. Le aseguro que las "reglas" que utiliza la lengua oral son diferentes a las de la lengua escrita, como han demostrado estos autores en innumerables concienzudos estudios.

Una vez más, sólo pido lo de antaño: seriedad.

Un saludo.

¡Cómo me gustan estas polémicas encendidas! ¡Y cuánto aprendo! ¿Qué he aprendido hoy?

En primer lugar he llegado a la conclusión de que Gatopardo en realidad es la abuela del anuncio de Casa Tarradellas (viuda de Tarradellas I, madre de Tarradellas II y siempre rodeada de Tarradellasitos varios). Una abuela de verano de la Mancha, entre Rosa Regàs y Pedro Almodovar.

En segundo lugar, me encanta la feliz manera en que la gente confunde el tocino con la velocidad. Aplicado al caso: la gramática con la retórica. En realidad Cicerón era un desconsiderado por no utilizar coletillas en sus discursos, así no hay quien entienda las catilinarias, claro, y los distintos "Homeros", escribían con el culo con tanta reiteración para coger el hilo. A la hoguera la Odisea.

En tercer lugar, y que esta circunstancia no le reste importancia (anda mira un pareado), Tautina tiene esta semana tal furor uterino que no la deja articular dos pensamientos seguidos. Ah, y el Pendón nos ha salido celosón (si es que cuando me entra la vena lírica sería capaz de escribir el libreto de una zarzuela).

Por último, Javier Marías, el rey de las coletillas (aquí la rima es asonante, no se crean), resulta ser también bloguero. Sorpresas te da la vida.

EN DEFENSA DEL PUEBLO MEXICANO, EN DEFENSA DEL PUEBLO DE ATENCO

Para los que pretenden hacer creer que quienes describimos los abusos y atropellos a la sociedad civil en México, nos hacemos eco de una campaña promovida por los revoltosos y los zapatistas, este es el informe del año 2005 de Amnistía Internacional sobre México.
Si después de leerlo no sienten demasiadas náuseas, pueden leer los informes:
México: Poner fin al ciclo brutal de violencia contra las mujeres en Ciudad Juárez y la ciudad de Chihuahua (Índice AI: AMR 41/011/2004)
México: Memorándum al Congreso de la Unión sobre las reformas de la Constitución y del sistema de justicia penal (Índice AI: AMR 41/032/2004)
México: Mujeres indígenas e injusticia militar (Índice AI: AMR 41/033/2004)
México: Abusos desoídos en Guadalajara. La resistencia a esclarecer violaciones de los derechos humanos sólo perpetúa la impunidad (Índice AI: AMR 41/034/2004)
Justicia para las mujeres de Ciudad Juárez y Chihuahua: Haz oír tu voz al presidente Fox .
Los socios de Amnistía Internacional que participamos en las redes de solidaridad, sentimos un profundo bochorno cuando en un país, que teóricamente es una democracia, escuchamos los gritos de las víctimas, golpeadas, torturadas, privadas de sus más elementales derechos, acosadas, amenazadas de muerte por quienes deberían de ser los garantes de la legalidad.
Estas son algunas de las alertas recibidas de Amnistía Internacional para escribir y pedir a las autoridades que actúen y garanticen la seguridad de esas personas.

Si estáis de acuerdo, os ruego que suscribáis la carta, remitida por personas y organizaciones preocupados por la violación de los derechos humanos en el conflicto de San Salvador Atenco, que copio a continuación:
Asunto: Contra la represión y por la defensa del estado de derecho

Profundamente preocupados por los acontecimientos en San Salvador Atenco, manifestamos lo siguiente:
1. Reprobamos la solución de fuerza desproporcionada aplicada en el conflicto social que se generó en San Salvador Atenco y que contraviene los principios fundamentales de derechos humanos de la ONU, particularmente el de proporcionalidad establecido en el artícu-lo 3: "Los funcionarios encargados de hacer cumplir la ley podrán usar la fuerza sólo cuando sea estrictamente necesario..." Planteamos la necesidad de establecer una vía de solución política que permita abordar a fondo las causas que han llevado a esta situación y evitar el escalamiento de esta confrontación.
2. En otras partes del país y recientemente en Michoacán, hemos observado al gobierno actuar del mismo modo, combinando fuerzas locales y federales en la represión a los movimientos sociales. La manera de realizar estos operativos ha generado una violencia desproporcionada con un saldo de altos costos humanos y sociales. No podemos legitimar el uso de la fuerza como medio para resolver las demandas sociales.
3. La convivencia social y política debe estar fundamentada en la democracia y la justicia, por ello para restablecer las condiciones de convivencia en la zona se requiere avanzar en un proceso de diálogo en torno de la distensión del conflicto, la liberación de los presos, la reconstrucción del tejido social y los temas de fondo que aún no han sido resueltos. La realización de una investigación que aclare los acontecimientos.
4. De igual manera, hacemos un llamado urgente a que se respete el pleno ejercicio de los derechos humanos en las diversas manifestaciones de protesta que se están desarrollando, así como la realización de una investigación sobre los hechos que condujeron a esta preocupante situación. Exigimos información de la situación jurídica y de salud de los más de 200 detenidos y detenidas durante los enfrentamientos y los operativos de estos días.
5. Hacemos un llamado a la serenidad y la calma de las distintas partes para encontrar un punto de diálogo para resolver el conflicto.
Atentamente.

Autor: Carta de Valentina Palma Novoa

Santiago de Chile, Martes 9 de Mayo, 2006

Mi nombre es Valentina Palma Novoa, tengo 30 años, de los cuales los últimos once he vivido en México. Soy egresada de la Escuela Nacional de Antropología e Historia y actualmente curso el cuarto año de Realización cinematográfica en el Centro de Capacitación Cinematográfica. Tengo FM 3 de estudiante.
A continuación quisiera relatar a usted los acontecimientos de los que fui testigo durante los violentos incidentes ocurridos en el poblado de San Salvador Atenco el Jueves 4 de Mayo del 2006, los cuales terminaron con mi expulsión del país de manera injusta y arbitraria.

1.- El día miércoles 3 de Mayo, luego de ver las noticias en televisión y enterarme de la muerte de un niño de 14 años, mi condición de antropóloga y documentalista hizo que me conmoviera con el deceso de este pequeño por lo cual decidí dirigirme a San Salvador Atenco a registrar cual era la situación real del poblado.

Pasé allí la noche, registrando las guardias que la gente del pueblo había montado y realizando entrevistas en las mismas. Hacía frío, me arrime a las fogatas que la gente del pueblo había montado mientras seguía registrando imágenes. La luz del amanecer anunciaba un nuevo día: jueves 4 de Mayo.

Han de haber sido como las 6 de la madrugada cuando las campanas de la iglesia de San Salvador Atenco comenzaron a sonar: tum tum tum tum, una y otra vez, mientras por el micrófono se vociferaba que la policía estaba sitiando el poblado. Las bicicletas iban de un lado a otro, la panadería de un costado de la iglesia ya había abierto sus puertas y la calidez del olor del pan recién horneado inundaba la calle junto con el ir y venir de los campesinos en bicicleta. El señor que vendía atoles me dijo que tuviera cuidado, que los que venían "eran muy cabrones".

Me dirigí a una de las guardias, donde los campesinos miraban en dirección a la manada de policías que allá a lo lejos se veía. Metí el zoom de la cámara, me di cuenta que eran muchos y que cubiertos por sus escudos avanzaban dando pequeños, imperceptibles pasos. Sentí miedo, ellos eran muchos fuertemente armados y los campesinos pocos y desarmados. En la pantalla de mi cámara veo como uno de los policías apunta y dispara hacia nosotros un proyectil que cuando llego a mi lado pude oler y sentir que era de gas lacrimógeno. Más y más gases lacrimógenos rápidamente fueron sepultando la calidez del olor a pan recién horneado y transformaron el angosto callejón en un campo de batalla.

El aire era ya irrespirable y me fui a la plaza mientras las campanas sonaban con mas fuerza, por diferentes calles se veía a la policía a lo lejos avanzar. La poca resistencia que hubo por parte de los campesinos dejó de resistir ante el ataque de las fuerzas policiales que abruptamente se avalanzaron sobre los pobladores. Apagué mi cámara y junto con los demás corrí lo más rápido que pude. Frente a la iglesia había un edificio público con las puertas abiertas y ahí me metí a esperar ilusamente que la turbulencia pasara. Habían ahí dos jóvenes resguardándose también ilusamente del ataque. Éramos tres y nos mirábamos las caras angustiados y con miedo.

Cuidadosamente me asomé a mirar a la calle y vi como cinco policías golpeaban con toletes y patadas a un anciano tirado en el piso sin compasión alguna. Sentí más miedo, regresé y le dije a los otros dos jóvenes que necesitábamos escondernos más, que ahí estábamos muy expuestos. Ilusamente nos subimos a la azotea y acostados boca arriba mirábamos los helicópteros que como moscardones ronroneaban en el cielo, mientras el sonido de los disparos fueron formando parte del paisaje sonoro del lugar. Una voz de hombre violentamente nos gritoneaba "bajen a esos cabrones que están en la azotea".

Primero bajaron los dos jóvenes, yo desde arriba miraba como los golpeaban y con pánico no quise bajar, ante lo que un policía gritó: "bájate perra, bájate ahora". Baje lentamente, aterrorizada de ver como golpeaban en la cabeza a los dos jóvenes. Dos policías me tomaron haciéndome avanzar mientras otros me daban golpes con sus toletes en los pechos, la espalda y las piernas. Mis gritos de dolor aumentaban cuando escuche la voz de alguien que preguntaba por mi nombre para la lista de detenidos, respondí: "Valentina, Valentina Palma Novoa", mientras un policía me ordenaba que me callara la boca y otro me golpeaba los pechos.

Una voz de hombre ordenó que me taparan con los escudos para que no vieran como me golpeaban. Se detuvieron a un costado de la iglesia y ahí me ordenaron que junto a los demás detenidos me hincara y pusiera mis manos en la nuca. Siguieron golpeándonos, mi celular sonó y una voz ordenó que registraran mi bolsa. En ese momento fui despojada de mi cámara de video, de mi celular y mi pequeño monedero con mis identificaciones y quinientos pesos.

Me levantaron de los pelos y me dijeron "súbete a la camioneta puta". Apenas podía moverme y ellos exigían extrema rapidez en los movimientos. Me avalanzaron encima de otros cuerpos heridos y sangrantes y me ordenaron bajar la cabeza sobre un charco de sangre, yo no quería poner mi cabeza en la sangre y la bota negra de un policía sobre mi cabeza me obligó a hacerlo. La camioneta encendió motores y en el camino fui manoseada por muchas manos de policías, yo solo cerré los ojos y apreté los dientes esperando que lo peor no sucediera.

Con mis pantalones abajo, la camioneta se detuvo y se me ordenó bajar, torpemente baje y una mujer policía dijo: "a esta perra déjenmela a mí" y golpeó mis oídos con las dos manos. Caí y dos policías me tomaron para subirme al bus en medio de una fila de policías que nos pateaban.

Arriba del bus otra policía mujer preguntó mi nombre mientras dos policías hombres pellizcaban mis senos con brutalidad y me tiraron encima del cuerpo de un anciano cuyo rostro era una costra de sangre. Al sentir mi cuerpo encima el anciano gritó de dolor, trate de moverme y una patada en la espalda me detuvo, mi grito hizo gritar al anciano nuevamente, que pedía a dios piedad.

Una voz de mujer me ordenó que me acomodara en la escalera trasera del bus, así lo hice y desde ahí pude ver los rostros ensangrentados de los demás detenidos y la sangre esparcida en el piso. Sin estar yo sangrando, mis manos y ropa estaban salpicadas de sangre de los otros detenidos.

Quieta y escuchando los quejidos de los cuerpos que estaban a mi lado, escuchaba como seguían subiendo detenidos al bus y preguntando sus nombres en medio de golpes y gritos de dolor. No sé cuanto tiempo pasó, pero el bus cerró sus puertas y hecho a andar. Dimos vuelta cerca de dos o tres horas. La tortura comenzó y cualquier pequeño movimiento era merecedor de otro golpe más. Cerré los ojos y trate de dormir, pero los quejidos del anciano que estaba a mi lado no lo permitieron, el anciano decía: "mi pierna, mi pierna, dios, piedad, piedad por favor".

Lloré amargamente pensé que el anciano moriría a mi lado, moví mi mano y trate de tocarlo para darle un poco de calma, un tolete fue a dar sobre mi mano, ante lo cual, con un gesto, pedí compasión al policía que dejó de golpearme. Queriendo darle un poco de amor acaricie la pierna del anciano que por unos momentos dejó de quejarse.

Le pregunte su nombre y me respondió. "Si me muero no lloren, hagan una fiesta por favor". Lloré en silencio sintiéndome sola en compañía de los otros tantos cuerpos golpeados, pensando lo peor; que nos llevarían a quien sabe que lugar y que ahí nos matarían y desaparecerían a todos.

Por un momento me dormí, pero el olor a sangre y muerte me despertó. Al abrir los ojos vi la pared de una cárcel. El bus se detuvo y una voz ordenó que bajáramos por la puerta trasera. Me ordenaron pararme y la puerta se abrió y mi cara llorosa y descubierta vio una fila de policías, sentí miedo otra vez.

Desde abajo una voz ordenó que se cerrara la puerta y que los detenidos debían salir con el rostro cubierto. Un policía me tapó la cabeza con mi chamarra y las puertas volvieron a abrirse otra vez. Abajo del bus un policía me agarro con una mano de los pantalones y con la otra mantenía mi cabeza gacha. La fila de policías comenzó a tirar patadas a mi cuerpo y al de los demás detenidos que eran parte de la fila.

La puerta del penal se abrió y nos avanzaron por estrechos pasillos en medio de golpes y patadas. Antes de llegar a una mesa de registro, cometí el error de levantar la cabeza y mirar a los ojos de un policía, el cual respondió a mi mirada con un golpe de puño duro y cerrado en mi estómago que me quitó el aire por unos momentos.

En la mesa preguntaron mi nombre, mi edad y nacionalidad, luego de eso me metieron a un cuarto pequeño donde una mujer gorda me ordenó quitarme toda la ropa, pedía rapidez ante mi torpeza producto de los golpes. “Señora estoy muy golpeada, por favor espere” le dije. Me revisó, me vestí nuevamente y volvió a cubrir mi cara con la chamarra. Salí del cuarto y nos ordenaron hacer una fila de mujeres para ingresar formadas y cabeza abajo al patio del penal, que luego me entere que le decían “almoloyita” en la ciudad de Toluca.

Han de haber sido las dos de la tarde del jueves 4 de Mayo cuando ya estábamos dentro de las instalaciones del penal. Nos llevaron a un comedor y nos separaron a hombres y mujeres. En una esquina, en medio de llantos las mujeres nos contábamos las vejaciones de las que habíamos sido objetos.

Una joven me mostró sus calzones rotos y su cabeza abierta llena de sangre, otra contaba que la habían llevado en medio de dos camiones mientras la golpeaban, vejaban y decían “te vamos a matar puta”.

Otra joven me comentó que tal vez y estaba embarazada, todo en medio de llantos y apretones de manos solidarios. El estado de shock entre las mujeres era evidente. En frente nuestro los hombres conversaban entre ellos mientras nosotras observábamos sus rostros sangrantes y deformados producto de la brutal golpiza. En eso estábamos cuando una mujer se acerca a nosotras y empieza a dar algunos nombres y pide que nos separemos del grupo. Éramos cuatro: Cristina, María, Samantha, Valentina. Se nos une al grupo un quinto; Mario.

Éramos los cinco extranjeros detenidos. Al momento llega un hombre, creo que era el director del penal y nos dice que allí donde estábamos, estábamos seguros, que aquí nadie nos golpearía, que lo que hubiese pasado antes de ingresar al penal no tenía nada que ver con él, como si dentro del penal no nos hubiesen también golpeado. Le pedimos hacer una llamada, petición que nos fue negada.

Mientras los detenidos visiblemente mas heridos eras sacados del lugar rumbo al centro de atención médica que había dentro del penal; no eran unos ni dos, de los ciento y tantos detenidos que éramos, han de haber habido unos 40 con lesiones gravísimas. Uno de los primeros en salir fue el anciano moribundo que a mi lado en el camión iba, a quien no volví a ver nunca más.

Nos llegó el turno a los extranjeros de ir a hacernos el chequeo médico. Yo tenía moretones en los pechos, la espalda, hombros, dedos, muslos y piernas, se recomendó hacerme una radiografía de las costillas pues me costaba respirar, cosa que en ningún momento se hizo.

La enfermera que tomaba nota y el médico que me atendió actuaban con total indiferencia a mi persona y las lesiones que presentaba. Salí de la oficina médica a esperar que Cristina, María, Samantha y Mario terminaran el chequeo. El seudo chequeo médico terminó y nos llevaron a una sala para tomarnos declaración.

Extrañamente un licenciado salido de quien sabe donde nos recomendó que no prestásemos declaración, comentario que era contradicho por las personas que estaban tras la maquina de escribir.

"Está bien si no quieres declarar, estas en tu derecho, pero sería bueno que dejaras constancia de lo que te pasó", me decía una licenciada. Mientras hacíamos las declaraciones, comenzaron a llegar al lugar muchos hombres de corbata que haciéndose los chistosos y amables nos preguntaban quienes éramos y como y porque habíamos llegado al poblado de Atenco, que si acaso sabíamos lo peligrosa que era esa gente.

Cayó la lluvia y nos trasladaron al comedor con todos los demás detenidos, se nos obligó a sentarnos y no podíamos establecer contacto con los detenidos mexicanos, si queríamos ir al baño debíamos pedir permiso. Llegaron funcionarios de derechos humanos a tomarnos declaración y fotos de nuestras lesiones, las declaraciones fueron tomadas sin interés, mecánicamente.

Se nos obligó a que registráramos nuestras huellas, nos tomaron fotos de frente y ambos perfiles, nos dijeron que eso no era una ficha, que era un registro necesario pues era muy probable que en la madrugada saliéramos en libertad y que para eso se necesitaba hacer la ficha. Una olla de café frío y una caja con bolillos fueron la cena.

Ha de haber sido la media noche y me acosté en una dura banca de madera a tratar de dormitar un poco, fue imposible, hacía frío y no tenía cobija. Del lado de los hombres, un rasta se dio cuenta de mi impaciencia ante el no poder dormir y comenzamos a hablarnos de un lado a otro con señas. Estábamos en eso cuando se presenta un custodio y comienza a dar los nombres de los cinco extranjeros. Nos levantamos, dimos un pequeño adiós a los demás detenidos y abandonamos el lugar.

Nos llevan a un lugar de registro, nos entregan nuestras pocas pertenencias y nos sacan del lugar camino a una camioneta diciéndonos que nos llevarían a una oficina de migración en Toluca. Afuera del penal escuche voces conocidas que gritaban mi nombre, me acerco a las rejas y puedo distinguir a muchos de mis amigos que me preguntan como estoy, les digo que mas o menos y que nos llevan a migración de Toluca.
Ellos me dicen que me van a seguir que no me van a dejar sola. Mi tía Mónica me pasa un sobre que contiene mis documentos migratorios y María Novaro, mi maestra y mamá en México, me da una chamarra para el frío. Así me subo a la camioneta que cierra sus puertas y oscuros nos vamos. Pasamos a una oficina en Toluca a buscar a una licenciada y de ahí nos llevan a la estación migratoria de las agujas en el DF.
Han de haber sido las tres de la madrugada cuando llegamos a la estación migratoria. Ahí una vez mas, un médico de mala gana constató lesiones. Dormitamos un rato porque a la hora en que llegamos no era horario de oficina, así que no habían muchos funcionarios en el lugar. Dieron las 7 de la mañana y un auxiliar nos llevo cereal con leche. Luego me tomaron declaración, una declaración en donde además de preguntar por mis datos personales, me hicieron preguntas cómo: ¿conoces al EZLN?, ¿has estado en Ciudad Universitaria?, ¿participaste en el foro mundial del agua?, ¿conocías a los otros extranjeros detenidos?, etc.

Firme la declaración a la que se adjunto mi documento migratorio, una carta de mi centro de estudios, una carta de mi maestra María Novaro, mi pasaporte, mi cédula de identidad chilena y mi credencial internacional de estudiante. Estaba en eso cuando recibo una llamada del cónsul de Chile en México, quién me pregunta mi nombre, el numero de mi cedula de identidad y si tengo algún pariente en México, me informa que lo que él puede hacer es velar que el proceso correspondiente se realice en las condiciones legales pertinentes.
Regreso a continuar mi declaración y las preguntas sobre el EZLN, el subcomandante Marcos y Atenco se repiten. Mientras tanto afuera de la estación migratoria se habían congregado amigos y familiares, con los cuales no se me permite comunicar, traté de hacerlo a través de señas y carteles, pero incluso eso nos es negado.
Me llevan a un cuarto en donde hay tres hombres que me dicen que están ahí para ayudarme, ellos me toman fotos de frente y ambos perfiles y en todo momento graban la conversación. Me preguntan mi nombre y si tengo algún alias, que si conozco al EZLN, que si he ido a la Selva Lacandona, que les dé nombres que puedan dar antecedentes de mí, que qué tipo de documentales me gusta realizar.
Me dicen que mi amiga América del Valle esta preocupada por mí porque me había perdido mientras escapábamos del lugar, mujer de la cual recién en Chile me entero que es una de las dirigentes de Atenco que la policía persigue.
Al terminar el interrogatorio, mis huellas dactilares son tomadas en una maquina muy sofisticada que va a dar a una computadora. Me sacan de la sala y me llevan a otra donde hay tres visitadoras de la comisión nacional de derechos humanos y luego de que las dos españolas y yo les contamos lo que hemos vivido, nos recomiendan urgentemente solicitar un abogado para que se gestione un recurso de amparo ante una posible deportación. El ambiente ya es tenso, así que le pido a una de las abogadas una pluma y un papel, para escribir "1 abogado" y mostrárselos por la ventana a mis amigos que están afuera, en ese momento entra un licenciado de migración y al verme escribiendo me dice: "¿necesitas un abogado?, yo soy abogado, cual es tu problema", le contesto que quiero poner un amparo, ante lo que el me responde que no es conveniente poner un amparo porque el amparo implicaría estar en la estación migratoria un mes y que lo mas probable era que pronto saliésemos en libertad, las visitadoras de derechos humanos, lo increpan y le dicen que por favor me dejen hablar con alguna de las personas que están afuera.
La visita se concede y hablo con Berenice, con quien me dejan hablar cinco minutos, a ella le digo que necesito un amparo y me dice que eso ya esta. Me despido abruptamente de ella y luego me llevan a hacerme un chequeo médico por segunda vez en esta estación migratoria, estoy en eso, cuando un licenciado llega apresuradamente a interrumpir el chequeo y me dicen que me van a trasladar a otro lugar, yo pregunto que adónde y no se me da respuesta.
Al salir de la consulta médica me encuentro a una de las visitadoras de derechos humanos y le digo que por favor avise a mis amigos que están afuera que me van a trasladar, le pregunto al licenciado que adonde me llevan y me responde que a las oficinas centrales de migración, no me dejan seguir hablando con él y me suben a un auto particular en el que también estaba Mario, mi compatriota. Me subo, se suben tres policías, se cierran las puertas y una policía pide cerrar las ventanas. La reja de la estación migratoria se abre y el carro se va como escapándose de algo. Íbamos por periférico a más de 100 Km. por hora en medio de un tráfico contundente.
Pregunto que adonde nos llevan y no obtengo respuesta, ya en el camino, me doy cuenta que vamos rumbo al aeropuerto y que delante de nosotros van dos carros más; uno con Samantha, la alemana y otro con María y Cristina, las dos españolas. Ante la inminencia de la expulsión injustificada en todo momento, no me queda más que cerrar los ojos y apretar los dientes y pensar: otra violación más.
Llegamos al aeropuerto como a las 6 de la tarde. Nos bajan de los autos y nos ingresan custodiados a una sala completamente blanca donde nos mantienen detenidos una hora o más. Luego nos ingresan a las salas de espera al interior del aeropuerto, donde nos mantienen custodiados. Primero sale el vuelo de Samantha. Seguimos esperando y en la espera yo no hago mas que llorar, me siento mal, me paró y trato de caminar por el pasillo, se me acerca una custodia y me dice que debo estar sentada, "me siento mal" le digo, "no me voy a escapar, déjame".

Sigo llorando y un policía se acerca y me dice: "ya no estés así, no conviene esa actitud, si te sirve de consuelo, déjame decirte que no estas deportada, que solo has sido expulsada del país, pero puedes volver a entrar en cualquier momento". Ilusamente sus palabras me calman.
Nos llevan a un bar a fumarnos unos cigarros porque todas estamos muy alteradas. El vuelo de Lan Chile de aproximadamente las once de la noche es anunciado, a mí y a Mario nos llaman, nos despedimos de María y Cristina con un apretado abrazo. Nos formamos en la fila y nos entramos al avión.
Dentro del avión uno de los pasajeros se acerca a mí y me entrega unas cartas que han mandado mis amigos que estaban afuera haciendo todo lo posible para detener esta injusta expulsión. Caen mis lagrimas de no saberme sola, la custodia que va a mi lado, me dice que qué me pasa, le cuento mi caso; le digo que llevo viviendo en México 11 años, que mi vida esta en ese país, que nunca se me dijo que estaba pasando, que todo el procedimiento ha sido ilegal, que he sido golpeada y vejada por la policía.
Me dice que a ella le avisaron 30 minutos antes de subirse al avión que viajaría a Chile, que a ella no le dijeron nada, pero que si notaba que algo raro hubo en el procedimiento, porque normalmente antes de deportar a alguien se pasa mínimo un mes en la estación migratoria, que ha de haber sido una orden dada desde arriba.
Ya asumiendo mí expulsión me pongo a platicar con ella y le digo que lugares de Santiago puede visitar el corto tiempo que dure su estadía. El cansancio y la impotencia son demasiadas, me duermo. Me despierto con la cordillera de los Andes en la ventanilla del avión. Bajamos del avión, nos entregan a policía internacional, donde nos toman declaración del porqué de nuestra deportación y/o expulsión.
Afuera me esperaba mi familia, llantos, besos, abrazos. Nos vamos al hospital a constatar lesiones y rápidamente armamos una conferencia de prensa con televisión y radio, en donde denunciamos la ilegalidad de nuestra expulsión y la brutalidad policial de la que fuimos objeto.
2.- Después de lo que les he contado quisiera hacer de su conocimiento mi total rechazo, indignación y rabia ante:
a) la utilización de la violencia física, psicológica y sexual como arma de tortura y coerción en contra de las mujeres.
b) la brutalidad policial de la que fuimos objeto todos los detenidos, más allá de nuestras nacionalidades.
c) la ilegalidad de mi deportación en dos sentidos: por haber estado mis papeles migratorios en regla y por el rechazo al amparo presentando, argumentando mi ausencia en el país, cuando yo aun estaba en México.
3) Por lo expuesto anteriormente anterior, estamos estudiando con nuestros abogados, orientar nuestras acciones tendientes a lograr:
a) Se nos restituya el derecho a seguir estudiando en México por medio de todo tipo de gestiones con el gobierno chileno y mexicano;
b) gestiones a nivel diplomático con la embajada de México en Chile;
c) poner una querella criminal contra la policía por delito de lesiones
d) entablar una demanda contra el estado mexicano por deportación ilegal.

¡No a la violación, no al uso de mujeres y hombres como objetos, no a la brutalidad y a la tortura, no a la justificación de la violencia!

HECHOS

Según testimonio de Melanie DEL CÁRMEN SALGADO LÓPEZ, 21 años, estudiante del 4° semestre de la carrera de Letras Hispánicas en la Facultad de Filosofa y Letras de la Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México, quien de forma independiente ha participado en actividades políticas y culturales dentro de la Universidad, ha sufrido amenazas de muerte por correo electrónico, a partir de la entrada de la Policía Federal Preventiva al pueblo de Atenco. Además, previo a esto se introdujeron a su departamento de forma extraña.

“El lunes 10 de abril de 2006.- salí de mi casa a las 12:30, me percaté que había olvidado mi dinero y regresé como a la 1:00pm. Al llegar encontré la puerta emparejada y la chapa de abajo medio zafada, cuando entré noté que toda la casa estaba revuelta: libros, ropa, cajones, cuadernos. Las cosas estaban tiradas por todos lados, las camas movidas y faltaban un DVD, una cámara digital y dinero además de que había una televisión encendida. Al ver todo esto pensé que había sido un robo cualquiera así que cambié la chapa y salí de mi casa para permanecer en otro lugar hasta que regresara mi familia.

El martes 11 de abril del 2006 en la noche, ya con mi familia, regresé a mi casa y nos percatamos de que el DVD y la cámara digital estaban escondidos debajo de una cama, que habían revisado el fichero de los libros con los que cuento y que se habían llevado dos de mis libros junto con sus respectivas fichas: “Si me permiten hablar” de Domitila y “La montaña es algo más que una inmensa estepa verde” de Omar Cabezas, además de un cuaderno con información personal, dejaron sobre mi cama revistas Proceso y el Plan de lucha del EZLN, así mismo, nos percatamos que la computadora estaba encendida y habían revisado información contenida en algunos disketes.”

El 04 de mayo 2006 alrededor de la 13:00 horas entró al Internet para revisar su correo electrónico, a las 14:17 recibió un mensaje por MSN de "elgueronano" que dice hola, 20 minutos después recibe la notificación de que ha llegado un correo igual a la del id que había mandado el saludo, al abrirlo descubre que quien remite es su papá. (Quien falleció hace seis años), dicho correo dice:

Lo cual le provocó mucho pánico a ella y a su familia, por lo que ya no fue a levantar la denuncia, por el temor a su integridad y la de su familia.

Desde ese momento por el temor ella y su familia se salieron de su casa, por sugerencia del Comité Cerezo, levantaron la denuncia ante el MP de la PGJDF, ahí solo le dieron un formato para iniciar una averiguación previa, con numero: FCY/COY-5/T2/00808/06-05, Folio: 808 y fecha 07/05/2006. Sin embargo no le permitieron levantar la denuncia, al mencionar al MP que creía que los anónimos pueden ser por motivos políticos, la hace entrar a una habitación donde están 3 elementos de la policía judicial quienes la someten a un interrogatorio intimidatorio por más de una hora de forma inconstitucional, ya que ella iba en calidad de víctima y la trataron como sospechosa, para que ella diera datos de cómo y con quiénes se reúne y cuales son sus actividades dentro de la UNAM,: haciéndole comentarios cómo: “ah, con razón”, “con quién te metiste, con el gobierno local o el federal”, “pues qué haces para que te anden siguiendo”, 08 de mayo de 2006.- Se encontró con Francisco Cerezo del Comité Cerezo, en la Facultad de Filosofía y Letras a las 14:00 hrs. estaba ahí para hablar con sus profesores y comentarles sobre las amenazas que ha recibido, y quedaron de verse a las 16:00 horas en el mismo lugar, como a las 15:30 revisó su correo electrónico y encontró una nueva amenaza de muerte:

Hola, levantaste la pinche denuncia... estás segura de que dijiste le verdad... ya te metiste en la boca del tigre y ahora que te parece que acabemos el jueguito. Feliz de estar en la escuela?, porque no decides... si quieres que te saquen encañonada o ya mejor de una vez con los pies por delante... como quieras si escojes la primera cambiate la pinche playera amarrilla que traes puesta. Y no corras a chillar con el Cerezo si años de trabajo no te van a avalar que te hace pensar que un perfecto desconocido te va a salvar. Los veo a las cuatro.

Le comentó a Francisco Cerezo, lo ocurrido y él se comunicó con la oficina del Maestro Ricardo Sepúlveda de la Oficina de Derechos Humanos de la Secretaría de Gobernación, salieron a enviarle copia de los mensajes para que pudieran ocuparse del caso. Estando en el estacionamiento, unos estudiantes se percatan que hay una persona filmándoles y entonces se acercan a él y le piden que se identifique, dijo ser periodista, pero al mostrar sus credenciales la oficial de elector y la licencia no correspondían con la de prensa, le retuvieron la cámara de video, su celular, sus credenciales de identificación y una copia de la cédula fiscal de la Secretaría de la Defensa Nacional, con la que facturaba sus gastos, cabe mencionar que en la filmación están entre otras personas, Francisco CEREZO hablando con Melanie del Carmen SALGADO y otras partes muestran a Francisco CEREZO y el café Villa proyecto económico del Comité Cerezo.

El 09 de Mayo de 2006, se acudió a la delegación de la Procuraduría General de la República en el DF acompañados de la Limeddh, a poner la denuncia penal correspondiente, que quedó asentada con número AP PGR/DDF/SPE-XI/1769/06 y se está solicitando a la Procuraduría General de Justicia del Distrito Federal que acepte que se haga la denuncia, lo que a decir de ellos están valorando si es de su competencia.

La Limeddh señala que los hechos referidos son acciones que contradicen los derechos a la vida, integridad personal, derecho de igualdad ante la ley, libertad personal, derecho a un recurso efectivo, libertad de pensamiento y expresión, y el derecho de petición, protegidos por los artículos: 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 14, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 22, 23 y 35 de la Constitución Política de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos; 3, 5, 9, 10, 19 de la Declaración Universal de Derechos Humanos; 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13 y 21 de la Convención Americana de Derechos Humanos, I, IV, VIII, XXV, XXIV de la Declaración Americana de los Derechos Humanos, 6, 7, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 17 del Pacto Internacional de Derechos Civiles y Políticos.

Por lo anterior la Limeddh solicita:

i.- Tomar las medidas necesarias para que cese el hostigamiento y amenaza en contra de Melanie DEL CÁRMEN SALGADO LÓPEZ y de Francisco CEREZO así como a los miembros de Comité Cerezo de Derechos Humanos

ii.- Se garantice la integridad física y psicológica de Melanie DEL CÁRMEN SALGADO LÓPEZ y de Francisco CEREZO así como del Comité Cerezo iii.- Que la Procuraduría General de la República, investigue de manera exhaustiva la denuncia penal que se abrió en contra de los elemento de la Policía Federal que fueron identificados siguiendo y grabándolos.

iv. Se tomen medidas concretas y urgentes para implementar la Declaración de los Defensores emitida la Declaración sobre el Derecho y el Deber de los Individuos, los Grupos y las Instituciones de Promover y Proteger los Derechos Humanos y las Libertades Fundamentales Universalmente Reconocidas.

v.- Asegurar la aplicación de lo dispuesto en la Declaración sobre defensores de los de Derechos Humanos, adoptada por la por la Asamblea General de Naciones Unidas el 9 de Diciembre de 1998, en particular en lo referente a la protección del derecho de toda persona"...individual o colectivamente, a promover la protección y realización de los derechos humanos y las libertades fundamentales, en los planos nacional e internacional y a esforzarse por ellos" (Art.1), así como en lo relativo al deber del Estado de garantizar ...la protección por las autoridades competentes de toda persona, individual o colectivamente, frente a toda violencia, amenaza, represalia, discriminación, negativa de hecho o de derecho, presión o cualquier otra acción arbitraria resultante del ejercicio legitimo de los derechos mencionados en la presente Declaración 8art. 12.2) y por la resolución sobre Defensores de Derechos Humanos en las Américas AG/RES. 1671 (XXIX-O/99), adoptada por la Organización de los Estados Americanos el 7 de junio de 1999.

vi.- Al C. Presidente de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos, con base al artículo 8 de la Constitución Política de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos solicitamos que, en el ámbito de su competencia y atribuciones, investigue los hechos aquí descritos y nos informe sobre las acciones que el gobierno decida llevar a cabo para resolver tal situación.

Autor: Profesores de Valentina Palma Novoa

Abogan por Valentina Palma
Señora directora: Los abajo firmantes, profesores de cine documental del Centro de Capacitación Cinematográfica (CCC), y del Centro Universitario de Estudios Cinematográficos de la UNAM, queremos manifestar nuestra indignación ante el atropello que sufrió la estudiante del CCC Valentina Larisa Palma Novoa, de nacionalidad chilena, quien fue expulsada del país en forma arbitraria, después de ser detenida con violencia, una vez que había videograbado sucesos en San Salvador Atenco.
Además de las violaciones a sus derechos humanos fundamentales, que han sido ya denunciadas por diversos medios, nos preocupa que las autoridades arguyan que la estudiante realizaba actividades ajenas a su condición migratoria, siendo que se trata de una estudiante de cine, con especial interés en el género documental. El registro de la realidad es indispensable para el aprendizaje y la práctica del cine documental. La gran diversidad de nuestro país, incluyendo sus graves y lacerantes problemas, y aun sus más agudos conflictos, debe ser materia del cine y video documental y de su proceso de formación, si es que queremos contar con una memoria crítica audiovisual, elemento indispensable de una auténtica cultura nacional.
Registrar la realidad es para nosotros los documentalistas no sólo un derecho, sino también un deber, un compromiso con el país, con su cultura, con sus raíces, con su complejo presente y sus futuros posibles. Hoy ese derecho parece estar en entredicho. Es por ello que no podemos pasar por alto la ominosa señal que constituye el atentado contra Valentina, que lo es contra la libertad, la expresividad, la creatividad y la sensibilidad de todos.
Nos manifestamos enérgicamente por su inmediato regreso al país, a fin de no afectar aún más el curso de sus estudios, así como por la reparación de los daños que le fueron causados, de forma injusta y arbitraria. Invitamos a los documentalistas mexicanos y de todo el mundo a sumarse a esta exigencia.

Al respecto quiero hacer algunos comentarios:

Me parece que el contenido es digno no solamente de leerlo, sino de analizarlo desde varios puntos de vista, con el afán de lograr al fin, una opinión lo mas objetiva posible de las cosas, de lo contrario, sería tan estéril el esfuerzo como lo sería continuar como un simple espectador de las gracias o desgracias que como país vivimos.

Existe hoy día, un movimiento que ataca desde varios frentes a lo que denominé nuestra conciencia colectiva, que no es otra cosa sino la percepción de manera generalizada se tiene dentro de la sociedad respecto de algún tema en particular y lo que una mayoría dentro de esa sociedad considera como abrazable, como cierto y verdadero.

El movimiento al que me refiero, intenta lograr que esa conciencia colectiva se vuelva rehén de su propia ignorancia, que asumamos los acontecimientos tal y como los plantean sin advertir las razones que le han dado origen a las cosas. A saber; tras leer el texto que nos mandas, me surgen tantas dudas de las posibles intenciones de esta persona que relata su vivencia, que me es difícil quedarme en la sola lectura de su escrito, ya que me parece que los razonamientos y motivaciones, son otras distintas a las que ella argumenta, como paso a exponer:

1. Ella califica a manera de prefacio como una infamia lo que cotidianamente sucede entre el gobierno mexicano y los ciudadanos, habla de miles de ejemplos mas, sin citar al menos uno de ellos, lo que supone en principio una falta de rigor en su dicho; asevera sin razón que el expulsar a extranjeros es contrario a nuestro marco jurídico, ya que esta claramente establecido en la Constitución Política de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos (CPEUM) que en casos como el que nos atañe es legal y suficientemente justificada la expulsión; asume que mi nombre y carácter de nacional mexicano se ve enlodado por el actuar del gobierno sobre ella -situación que es exactamente al revés- y pide solidaridad ante una supuesta "innegable injusticia".

CPEUM:

Artículo 6o. La manifestación de las ideas no será objeto de ninguna inquisición judicial o administrativa, sino en el caso de que ataque a la moral, los derechos de tercero, provoque algún delito, o perturbe el orden público; el derecho a la información será garantizado por el Estado.

Artículo 7o. Es inviolable la libertad de escribir y publicar escritos sobre cualquier materia. Ninguna ley ni autoridad pueden establecer la previa censura, ni exigir fianza a los autores o impresores, ni coartar la libertad de imprenta, que no tiene más límites que el respeto a la vida privada, a la moral y a la paz pública. En ningún caso podrá secuestrarse la imprenta como instrumento del delito.

Artículo 9o. No se podrá coartar el derecho de asociarse o reunirse pacíficamente con cualquier objeto lícito; pero solamente los ciudadanos de la República podrán hacerlo para tomar parte en los asuntos políticos del país. Ninguna reunión armada, tiene derecho de deliberar.

No se considerará ilegal, y no podrá ser disuelta una asamblea o reunión que tenga por objeto hacer una petición o presentar una protesta por algún acto a una autoridad, si no se profieren injurias contra ésta, ni se hiciere uso de violencias o amenazas para intimidarla u obligarla a resolver en el sentido que se desee.

2. Hay que felicitarle por la capacidad narrativa que tiene, se nota una destreza impresionante al describir y atraer a su favor situaciones de esas que a lo largo de la historia se han identificado como grupos vulnerables, es decir, los pobres, los campesinos, los ancianos, las mujeres, etcétera.

3. Me niego por definición a descalificar o a calificar a alguien por el simple hecho de que es mujer, esa perversa división de género, de falsa vulnerabilidad, de recogimiento forzado e involuntario por ser "una mujer" no me la trago. Así mismo, me niego a suponer que el pobre es por definición sucio, huevón, ratero, alcoholico y más. Me niego a pensar que el campesino, por el solo hecho de serlo, tenga derecho a trastocar mi esfera de derechos, de garantías mínimas de convivencia social y me niego a muchas otras cosas que significan en mi entender la sin razón.

4. Hay motivos mas que suficientes que hacen no solo legal sino legítima la intervención de un Estado por la fuerza para resolver conflictos. Lo son por ejemplo, el reestablecimiento del orden público y la paz social, garantizar a cualquier individuo el goce de sus garantías individuales, dentro de las cuales señalo la de libre tránsito, haber reaccionado ante la amenaza real de un grupo armado (que no el pueblo de San Salvador Atenco) que habiendo sido conminado por tres ordenes de gobierno a acatar la ley y a restablecer el orden no lo hizo, haberlo hecho -la intervención como tal- en proporcionalidad de fuerza, ya que no actuó el Estado con cañones para aplacar mosquitos, sino que entro con gases dispersantes a enfrentar machetes.

5. Si es que de verdad se trata de una antropóloga como ello misma lo esgrime, sus métodos y razones que le llevaron al ojo del huracán invitan a pensar mas bien que se trata de una reportera de guerra y, hasta el día de hoy no he escuchado a ningún reportero, de esos que cubren eventos como este, quejarse por que en la refriega le toco un macanazo o por que al tratar de huir le metieron siete balas y menos todavía narrar en que parte se las metieron.

6. Ojala de verdad reflexionemos un poco en las razones y motivos que originan esta descriptiva, ser un poco mas maliciosos y pensar que los intereses que hay detrás del evento en sí son muchos y de enormes ganancias para diferentes causas que hoy no califico por no ser el centro de la discusión. Las revoluciones las inventan los ricos para que las peleen los pobres, y en este caso particular hay mas de uno interesado en lograr un clima de inestabilidad, ya que al lastimar a la ley y al orden que de ella deriva, ganan esos intereses que resultan inconfesables, gana la diatriba, la verborrea sin razón, el no pensamiento y en ello perdemos todos.

7. Creo en verdad que lo que debiéramos de hacer como ciudadanos es exigir a nuestras autoridades el cumplimiento de la ley, empezando por ellos y terminando en nuestro respectivo entorno, ejercer nuestro derecho a votar y con ello ser corresponsables de nuestro destino, ser críticos con propuesta y no estériles quejas que caminan, invitar y recibir como nosotros sabemos -con los brazos y corazones abiertos- a cuanto extranjero quiera venir a este suelo, reconociendo al bueno y corriendo al tramposo, al arribista, no nos espantemos pues por que el Estado ejerza la fuerza, demandemos mejor que en ello se tenga especialización y método para no incurrir en una desmedida aplicación de misma, pidamos con fuerza que nunca mas haya escenas como las que hemos visto. Pero no pensemos que por el exceso de fuerza o de violencia incluso ejercida por parte de Estado, necesariamente deba de seguirse como conclusión, que Valentina Palma Novoa es una antropóloga consternada por la fútil muerte de un inocente y que se vio, así, de repente, envuelta en las fauces de un dragón violento llamado Atenco, llamado PRD, llamado PRI, llamado FOX, llamado México.

El respeto de los Derechos Humanos es imprescindible. No podemos quedarnos quietos ante estas injusticias que conocemos. No se respetan en los países con democracias sin consolidar, en los que no hay un reparto justo de la riqueza y dónde también quizás pueda fallar la educación. Un post muy, pero muy interesante, igual que el blog.

Atenta invitación a todos los indignados: a no votar, organizarse, luchar, informarse, leer, analizar, discutir, no callarse, pintar, accionar, reir, y crear, dejar el comodo escritorio y mucho ruido provocar, para la represión y explotación akabar.

Y Cito:

"En esta tortura y violación a los derechos humanos por parte de las autoridades están implicados como cómplices intelectuales el presidente Vicente Fox, el Poder Legislativo, el secretario de Seguridad Pública federal y, por supuesto, el gobernador Peña Nieto y sus cuerpos policiacos. Lo aseguro porque Vicente Fox ha sido el presidente mexicano que más tratados, convenios y protocolos internacionales relacionados con derechos humanos y violencia contra las mujeres ha signado en la historia de México. Está, por ejemplo, el Protocolo de Estambul, cuyo propósito es proteger a las y los detenidos de torturas físicas y sicológicas, y por supuesto de torturas sexuales. Estos protocolos, como el Estatuto de Roma, son convenios civilizatorios creados para que los países se comprometan públicamente en la arena internacional y poco a poco mejoren el bienestar y la calidad de vida de su población mediante mejores prácticas judiciales. Pero para que estos tratados funcionen se necesita elaborar reformas penales aterrizadas en el derecho mexicano. La trampa perversa está en que para aterrizar el Protocolo de Estambul, el gobierno foxista puso como especialistas a militares y a expertos en seguridad pública(...)"
"Las violaciones sexuales perpetradas durante seis horas en el traslado en camión (viaje que debió durar dos horas) pusieron a las víctimas en un total estado de indefensión. Durante y luego de la tortura, una víctima pasa por sentimientos de temor y pánico, ansiedad y dolor físico. Lo último que desea es que un desconocido -como un médico legista de la prisión- revise sus genitales, la toque y la lastime. La revictimización de las víctimas de violencia sexual está suficientemente documentada, y por ello las agencias especializadas de delitos sexuales que existen en México desde hace años saben del trauma secundario y del síndrome de estrés postraumático que paraliza a las víctimas y las sume en un terror de ser revictimizadas por sus captores y aliados, como pueden ser los agentes del Ministerio Público. "

Plaza Pública
Reforma penal por encargo

Por Miguel A. Granados Chapa.- Sería gravísimo que la LIX Legislatura hubiera practicado por encargo, sin saberlo la mayoría de sus integrantes una reforma penal que, al derogar el delito de violación a las garantías individuales, tuviera beneficiarios previamente establecidos. Es decir, que se hubiera modificado el código penal federal con vistas a obtener resultados concretos específicos o a evitar complicaciones a algún indiciado.

El 14 de septiembre de 2004 el diputado José Porfirio Alarcón Hernández (priísta, del cuarto distrito de Puebla con cabecera en Libres) presentó una iniciativa de reforma al artículo 364 del código penal federal, referido a la privación ilegal de la libertad. El proyecto, enviado a comisiones ese mismo día, pareció destinado a la congeladora, como ocurre a cientos de iniciativas, de las que nadie se ocupa jamás como no sea para desecharlas. Transcurrieron 18 meses y tres períodos de sesiones ordinarias sin que fuera dictaminado. De pronto, al comenzar este marzo, la iniciativa adquirió súbita importancia y su trámite velocidad. El dictamen admitió en parte los razonamientos del promovente y fue aprobado sin votos en contra por el pleno de San Lázaro el 16 de marzo. La reforma incluyó la derogación de la fracción II del artículo 364: referida a quien “de alguna manera viole, con perjuicio de otro, los derechos y garantías establecidos por la Constitución General de la República a favor de las personas”. El 5 de abril el Senado derogó ese delito, con el argumento, llegado desde San Lázaro, de que estaba afectado por “la ausencia de una adecuada técnica legislativa”. En vez de subsanar el defecto, como hubiera sido conveniente, lo que se hizo fue eliminar un riesgo para agentes de la autoridad arbitrarios, violadores de garantías individuales.
El texto apareció en el Diario Oficial el viernes 19 de mayo y entró en vigor al día siguiente de su publicación. Ni tardo ni perezoso, atentísimo lector del periódico gubernamental, el juez cuarto de distrito en materia penal con sede en Monterrey, Juan Manuel de la Fuente, acudió a su oficina en sábado y aplicó el mecanismo legal que ordena poner en libertad a los acusados de un delito que deja de serlo, sobreseyendo su causa. Lo notificó a los agraciados, Miguel Nazar Haro, Carlos Solana y Juventino Romero. Estos dos últimos, presos en el penal de Topo Chico, salieron de allí en las primeras horas del domingo, gratamente sorprendidos del súbito cambio de su suerte.
La libertad de Nazar Haro fue formal, pues no está recluido en ninguna cárcel sino que vive otros procesos en su domicilio, debido a que es mayor de setenta años.
Los tres habían sido acusados por la desaparición de Jesús Piedra Ibarra en 1975. Nazar Haro actuaba, a la sazón, como subdirector federal de seguridad (bajo las órdenes de Luis de la Barreda Moreno, también acusado en este caso e igualmente beneficiario de la reforma legal cuando lo detenga la remisa Agencia federal de investigaciones). Carlos Solana era el director de la Policía Judicial de Nuevo León, y Romero era agente bajo su mando. Estaban sometidos a proceso precisamente por el delito de violación de garantías individuales, que no era "inoperante" como alegó el diputado Alarcón sino que había operado en este caso.

El promovente de la derogación, según el dictamen había calificado de errónea la fracción eliminada, “porque no describe conductas ni tipifica delitos, sino sólo proporciona referencias normativas muy generales”... Es decir, la posible aplicación de esta fracción viola lo dispuesto en el artículo 14 de la Constitución.. “No lo entendió así el juez federal que aplicó esa fracción, ni los inculpados acudieron al amparo por considerar que se estuviera aplicando la ley por analogía o por mayoría de razón, métodos prohibidos en materia penal por el mencionado texto constitucional”.
La prontitud con que obtuvieron su libertad los beneficiarios acaso indica que la reforma y su publicación obedecieron a un plan que inmediatamente se convirtió en hecho consumado. Pero también podría ocurrir que un propósito diferente les haya deparado un bien inesperado; si bien, como queda dicho, la iniciativa data de septiembre de 2004, su trámite se aceleró en marzo pasado, después de que Lydia Cacho presentó en la PGR denuncia contra el gobernador Mario Marín, precisamente por violación a sus garantías individuales, entre otros delitos. De pronto el diputado Alarcón habría visto en la aprobación de su iniciativa una adecuada manera de aligerar la eventual carga penal de su jefe político y comunicó a su bancada la pertinencia de proceder en tal sentido.
Aún si no hubiera tenido destinatarios, la reforma camina en sentido contrario a la necesidad de promover los derechos humanos, y favorece la arbitrariedad. Como dijo el dictamen senatorial, aunque en su contexto el argumento pretendiera servir a lo contrario, este “delito no puede ser cometido por particulares, habida cuenta que la violación de los derechos y garantías establecidos por la Constitución General de la República, considerados como derechos del individuo que limitan en el ejercicio del poder público, solamente se podría manifestar en actos de autoridad”.
Precisamente: La derogación de ese artículo regala impunidad a los agentes gubernamentales. Se dirá que pueden ser frenados mediante acusaciones por abuso de autoridad. Pero, como se vio en los casos postreros de su aplicación, la fracción II del 364 servía para unir conductas arbitrarias. 24/05/2006

¡FELIZ CUMPLEAÑOS, ODALYS!

Colecciono de aquel primer "Habitat del unicornio" tus intervenciones, Odalys, las de Antonio P, Leda, Ramón Corominas, Luis Muiño, Pablo Santiago... Y, a veces releo aquello, que parece provenir de un universo paralelo y fascinante... Siempre me surge la sonrisa, la emoción, la carcajada, la ternura...
¿Te acuerdas?
"Los varones no juegan con muñecas y las niñas no cruzan las piernas al sentarse, ni juegan con pistolitas", con lo divertido que es. ¿Ver a mis padres desnudos...? ¡Estás loco! Ahora a mi mamá, cuando es necesario y luego de varias hospitalizaciones. A mi papá si lo veo por casualidad en calzoncillos me quita el apellido, ¡seguro!
Entre lo despistadita y la educación, me enteré de cosas "esenciales" algo tarde o al menos cuando ya todas mis amigas estaban de vuelta, lo que me trajo algunos tropiezos. De chiquita, mirando una presentación de ballet, casi pierdo los dientes al preguntar qué era el "bulto" que tenían los bailarines ... pero a ver, ¿de dónde lo iba a saber?!
¡Ya lo sé!
Odalys el día 14/09/2004 a las 21:54

Sí, qué bien.. se están dando encuentros... y eso Luis, apachurra a Antonio
Con lo que comentan de tabúes y pudores, me recuerdan algunos familiares: el desnudo, llorar frente a otro, hablar de sexo, mostrar afecto, etc. ¿Consideran "tabú" algo de lo que simplemente no se habla nunca? Es que según el día, prefiero no tocar algunos temas sobre los que, en otras ocasiones, puedo pasar horas hablando. Creo que ese miedo del que hablan, puede ser temporal, porque nos bloqueamos ante algo desconocido o doloroso, y que, en un momento determinado, preferimos ignorar y que nadie nos lo recuerde, hasta que lo podamos digerir o algo así. ¿Pudiera ser?
¡Leda, no abuses, mijita! O terminarás bailando la "J" y a ver en qué estado deplorable dejarás la capa extendida de Don Gabriel
Odalys el día 17/09/2004 a las 21:33

Sentido del humor, a lo cubano...

Oda a la luz eléctrica.

Pasarás por los cables sin saber que pasaste
Pasarás como el Charly, como Ivan y al pasar
Encenderé una vela con el fin de alumbrarme
Cantaré en las tinieblas ¡y la luz no vendrá ¡
Este apagón que tengo apasionado y loco Me lo sembré en la sala para no verte a ti
Y por mucho que intento y miro para el foco
No hay luz de San Antonio a punta de Maisí.
Me quedan las penumbras rodeando tu sonrisa
Se acabó el luz brillante, su llama se apagó
Y pensando en el filme de LA LUZ QUE AGONIZA
Llegaron los mosquitos ¡y la luz no llegó ¡
Mis plegarias se elevan a la Antonio Guiteras
Y oyendo a LUCECITA cantando una canción

Voy pasando las horas de interminable espera
Sin moverse las aspas de mi ventilador.
Y con la poca carne que se me descongela
Con el motor del agua sin poder funcionar
Te veré Luz María sonando las cazuelas
Esperando esa LUZ que algun día...¿vendrá?

68.Ahí va un chiste rompetabues, un poco anticuado ya, dedicado a todos aquellos a los que no les gusta hablar de política.
Estando Aznar reunido con Bush en Camp Davis le comenta el expresidente:
- Pero oye, Bush, tu como haces para rodearte de gente tan inteligente.
- Pues mira Aznar, yo les suelo hacer pruebecillas. Te pondré un ejemplo.
Coge el móvil y llama a Tony Blair.
- ¡Hola Tony! estoy aquí con Aznar y te llamo para hacerte una preguntilla: ¿quién es el hijo de tu padre que no es tu hermano?
- ¡Soy yo, por supuesto!
Bush se despide y cuelga.
- Ves Aznar, Tony es un tipo inteligente.
- Ya veo ya...
Aznar volvió a España y estuvo dándole vueltas al suceso. Cogió el teléfono y llamó a Pío.
- Hola Pío... que te quería hacer una preguntilla: ¿quién es el hijo de tu padre que no es tu hermano?
- Por Dios. Aznar... qué pregunta tan complicada... déjame un tiempo para que lo piense...
Pasan dos días y Pío llama a Mariano Rajoy.
- Hola Rajoy, mira a ver si me puedes ayudar con esta pregunta: ¿quién es el hijo de tu padre que no es tu hermano?
- Vaya Pío, es complicada la cosa... déjame un tiempo que lo piense y te llamo.
A los dos días Mariano llama a Pío.
- ¡Ya sé la respuesta Pío: soy yo!
- ¡Gracias Mariano, voy a llamar a Aznar!
Aznar coge el teléfono y escucha la voz de Pío.
- ¡Ya sé la respuesta, el hijo de mi padre que no es mi hermano... Es Mariano!
A lo que Aznar responde indignado.
- ¡Pero qué dices estúpido! ¡cómo va a ser Mariano! ¡a ver si te espabilas!... ¡¡es Tony Blair!!
(acompañar el chiste de una carcajada contagiosa)

69. ¡Vamos a ver, Antonio! ¡Aquí estás tú ! ¡Y contando chistes! Ése ya me lo sabía, a ver si me cuentas otro que no me sepa... como el del que va a afiliarse al Partido Comunista...
Aunque me lo sabía me ha hecho sonreir, gracias.
Eloísa el día 29/09/2004 a las 21:05

70. Lo siento Eloísa pero no caigo en ningún chiste sobre comunistas. Si no estaría encantado de ponerlo. Sólo me sé aquella frase que suelta mi padre: "la mayoría de los comunistas no piensan que todo se deba repartir... sino más bien que lo mío es mío, y lo demás se debe repartir".
En fín, ya me he enemistado con los de izquierdas y con los de derechas. Muy mal voy a acabar...

LAS CÁRCELES

LAS CÁRCELES

I

Las cárceles se arrastran por la humedad del mundo, van por la tenebrosa vía de los juzgados:
buscan a un hombre, buscan a un pueblo, lo persiguen, lo absorben, se lo tragan.

No se ve, que se escucha la pena de metal, el sollozo del hierro que atropellan y escupen:
el llanto de la espada puesta sobre los jueces de cemento fangoso.

Allí, bajo, la cárcel, la fábrica del llanto, el telar de la lágrima que no ha de ser estéril, el casco de los odios y de las esperanzas, fabrican, tejen, hunden.

Cuando están las perdices más roncas y acopladas,
y el azul amoroso de fuerzas expansivas, un hombre hace memoria de la luz, de la tierra, húmedamente negro.

Se da contra las piedras la libertad, el día, el paso galopante de un hombre, la cabeza, la boca con espuma, con decisión de espuma, la libertad, un hombre.

Un hombre que cosecha y arroja todo el viento desde su corazón donde crece un plumaje:
un hombre que es el mismo dentro de cada frío, de cada calabozo.

Un hombre que ha soñado con las aguas del mar, y destroza sus alas como un rayo amarrado, y estremece las rejas, y se clava los dientes en los dientes de trueno.

II

Aquí no se pelea por un buey desmayado, sino por un caballo que ve pudrir sus crines, y siente sus galopes debajo de los cascos pudrirse airadamente.

Limpiad el salivazo que lleva en la mejilla, y desencadenad el corazón del mundo,
y detened las fauces de las voraces cárceles donde el sol retrocede.

La libertad se pudre desplumada en la lengua de quienes son sus siervos más que sus poseedores.
Romped esas cadenas, y las otras que escucho detrás de esos esclavos.

Esos que sólo buscan abandonar su cárcel, su rincón, su cadena, no la de los demás.

Y en cuanto lo consiguen, descienden pluma a pluma, enmohecen, se arrastran.

Son los encadenados por siempre desde siempre.
Ser libre es una cosa que sólo un hombre sabe:
sólo el hombre que advierto dentro de esa mazmorra como si yo estuviera.

Cierra las puertas, echa la aldaba, carcelero.
Ata duro a ese hombre: no le atarás el alma.
Son muchas llaves, muchos cerrojos, injusticias:
no le atarás el alma.

Cadenas, sí: cadenas de sangre necesita.
Hierros venosos, cálidos, sanguíneos eslabones, nudos que no rechacen a los nudos siguientes humanamente atados.

Un hombre aguarda dentro de un pozo sin remedio, tenso, conmocionado, con la oreja aplicada.
Porque un pueblo ha gritado ¡libertad!, vuela el cielo.
Y las cárceles vuelan.

Este aliento poético ya no existe en nuestro tiempo. Suena tan remoto y tan intenso como una epopeya babilónica. ¿No nos habremos convertido en un buey desmayado después de haber sido un caballo al que se le pudrieron las crines?

Autor: A la opinión pública

Toluca, Estado de México, a 5 de mayo del 2006
A la opinión pública

A los organismos nacionales e internacionales de derechos humanos
A la prensa nacional e internacional
Al pueblo en general

Los que suscriben detenidos sin fundamento ni causa legal, el día de ayer 4 de mayo del 2006 y recluidos en el CERESO de Santiaguito la Loma ubicado en Toluca, Estado de México, tenemos a bien manifestar lo siguiente:

Primero: Que todos nosotros fuimos detenidos arbitrariamente sin fundamento ni motivo legar alguno, sin orden de aprehensión, sin haber sido sorprendidos en la comisión de algún delito, por lo tanto sin estar en situación de flagrancia, ni cuasiflagrancia, sin que se nos informara el porqué de nuestra detención.

Segundo: Nuestra detención fue violenta, tanto física como psicológicamente, todos nosotros a distintos niveles fuimos golpeados, insultados, violentados psicológicamente con amenazas, intimidación e insultos constantes, por parte de los elementos de la Policía Federal Preventiva, así como por granaderos de la policía preventiva del Estado de México, en el caso de las mujeres fueron abusadas sexualmente, golpeadas, violentadas psicológicamente mediante insultos y amenazas, sin que se notara de parte de la policía que nos detuvo, un trato diferente por su calidad de mujeres.

Tercero: una vez que se nos detuvo se nos subió a autobuses para trasladarnos a un destino para nosotros desconocido, ahora sabemos que se nos traslado al CERESO de Santiaguito la Loma, se nos subió de una manera sumamente violenta a los autobuses, se nos golpeo, se nos maniató con algo que ellos llamaron “piolas” (sinchillos delgados de plástico duro ajustables) inmovilizándonos de las manos (con las manos a la espalda) lo cual, más que una medida de seguridad fue una medida de tortura pues nos apretaron las muñecas lo más que podían, después de maniatados fuimos aventados al interior de los autobuses encimándonos uno sobre otro en el pasillo del autobús lo que una tortura psicológica pues muchos no podían respirar sobre todo los de abajo y la mayoría que al ser aventados cayeron en mala posición. Todo esto por parte de la Policía Preventiva del Estado de México, la situación antes planteada duro aproximadamente 15 minutos. La policía antes mencionada, nos levantó a la mayoría que permanecíamos amontonados en el pasillo y nos hizo hincarnos en los espacios de los asientos, haciéndonos poner de rodillas en el espacio donde normalmente se ubican los pies y la cabeza donde normalmente se ponen las asentaderas, generándonos tortura física y psicológica, pues el espacio tan reducido, la posición (hincados con las manos hacía atrás, con muñecas sumamente apretadas por las “piolas”) y el no poder movernos pues se nos decía por parte de los policías que nos custodiaban que en caso de movernos nos golpearían, cumpliendo esto en repetidos casos, todo el traslado desde que se nos subió a los autobuses hasta que llegamos al CERESO (que duro aproximadamente 4 horas) estuvimos en la posición de tortura antes mencionada.

Cuarto: El día 4 de mayo, ya estando en el CERESO, por la tarde, se nos llamo a desahogar nuestra declaración ministerial reservándonos todos nosotros nuestro derecho a declarar al no tener a defensor o persona de nuestra confianza asistiéndonos en dicha declaración y que no se nos informo el fundamento ni el motivo de nuestra detención, una vez habiéndonos reservado muchos de nosotros pedimos que se nos permitiera hacer la llamada que por ley tenemos derecho, a la cual se nos dio derecho, hasta más noche varias horas después de nuestra solicitud, por lo que estuvimos incomunicados desde nuestra detención (4 de mayo por la mañana) y hasta en la noche del mismo día.

Quinto: Denunciamos que fuimos objeto del robo de nuestras pertenencias, pues en el momento de nuestra detención y en transcurso del traslado al CERESO de Santiaguito se nos despojó de cámaras fotográficas, videograbadoras, celulares, dinero en efectivo, carteras con documentos personales, un discman, zapatos, ropa (playeras chamarras), herramienta de trabajo, lentes (algunos lentes los rompieron), joyas (cadenas de oro, anillos), tarjetas de banco y mochilas. Todo esto podrá verificarse con las declaraciones individuales hechas ante visitadores de la CNDH realizadas en el transcurso del día 5 de mayo del año en curso.

Exigimos nuestra liberación inmediata y la de todos los detenidos por no haber fundamento ni motivo legal para seguir privados de nuestra libertad.

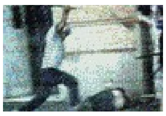
¿POR QUÉ ESA FURIA DESATADA CONTRA LOS CAMPESINOS QUE VENDEN FLORES EN ATENCO?



En México, cuando los mandatarios hablan de defender la Ley y el Orden contra los revoltosos, están hablando de esos batallones de policías pertrechados con armas de combate, que asedian un poblado, entran sin permiso judicial a las casas, y lo mismo le rompen la mandíbula a la abuela, que estaba sirviendo la sopa en ese momento, que patean la barriga de una embarazada o le fracturan el craneo al muchachito que esta tarde pasaba un exámen, y tenía su libro de matemáticas al lado del plato. Durante días, casa por casa, se le enseñará lo que pasa por buscar problemas, pinches campesinos aindiados que no respetan el Orden y la Ley.
¿El motivo? Vamos, no se hagan ustedes los inocentes: los que mandan y todo lo hacen con Notario y papeles legales están furiosos: un negocio sin apenas costes, todo beneficios, redondo, 3.000 hectáreas...
Lean, por favor, lo que ha ocurrido, y comprenderán todo:

William Santos Sáenz, asesor jurídico de los campesinos de Hunucmá, entregó ayer al Dr. David Figueroa Márquez, presidente de la Asociación Nacional del Notariado Mexicano, una copia de las denuncias contra el presidente del Consejo de Notarios de Yucatán, Carlos Gamboa Gamboa, quien avaló hechos manifiestamente falsos en perjuicio de los hombres del campo

El Lic. Wílliam Santos Sáenz, asesor jurídico de los campesinos de Hunucmá, entregó ayer al presidente de la Asociación Nacional del Notariado Mexicano, Dr. David Figueroa Márquez, la relatoría de las irregularidades en que ha incurrido su anfitrión y presidente del Consejo de Notarios de Yucatán, Lic. Carlos Gamboa Gamboa, en perjuicio de los intereses de esos hombres del campo.
En el documento, firmado por Felipe Moo Borges, en su calidad de representante de los ejidatarios de Hunucmá y Oxcum, se proporciona al Dr. David Figueroa Márquez la información que en días pasados pidió a través de la prensa para que actúe en consecuencia o cuando menos opine al respecto, ahora sí, con conocimiento de causa.
Ahí se le explica al líder nacional de los notarios "que el presidente del Consejo de Notarios del Estado de Yucatán, abogado Carlos A. Gamboa Gamboa, fue el que dio fe de las asambleas simuladas que se realizaron en esos ejidos y a través de las cuales se les trata de despojar de sus tierras que ascienden a más de 3,000 hectáreas".
Le informan que en esas asambleas también se simularon domicilios y se violó en forma descarada la ley; le dan los números de sus expedientes de juicios agrarios promovidos.
Le informan que han solicitado al Consejo de Notarios del Estado de Yucatán, a la Secretaría de Gobierno del Estado de Yucatán, y al Colegio de Notarios del Estado de Yucatán, inicie una investigación con respecto a la actuación del notario Carlos Gamboa Gamboa y de la cual no han tenido respuesta.
La entrega del documento desencajó al presidente del Consejo de Notarios y anfitrión de los fedatarios del país, pues le tiró el circo que una noche antes, en compañía de su colega Eric Granja Ricalde, le armó a su líder nacional.
A las 9 de la mañana, a casi 12 horas de distancia de haberse empezado los trabajos con temas sobre "Regularización de la tenencia de la tierra y política sobre desarrollo urbano", a cargo de Carlota Botey y Estape, y Oscar López Velarde, y "Contratos entre ausentes", por uno de los abogados consentidos del régimen, Jorge Carlos Estrada Avilés, se dio cuenta del acto protocolario.
La poca asistencia de notarios yucatecos llamó la atención; información recabada en el lugar del acto revela que de los 100 Notarios de Yucatán, sólo el 30 por ciento asistió al evento; la razón, según trascendió, es por la falta de convocatoria y la poca credibilidad del abogado Carlos Gamboa Gamboa, presidente del Consejo de Notarios.
En ese inter, el Dr. David Figueroa Márquez, presidente de la Asociación Nacional del Notariado Mexicano, interrumpió su plática para atender al Lic. Wílliam Santos Sáenz, asesor jurídico de los campesinos de Hunucmá, quien le entregó un documento donde relatan la irregularidad de su anfitrión, Carlos Gamboa Gamboa.
A partir de ese momento, el rostro del abogado anfitrión se desencajó y su persona empezó a apestar, fue notorio observarlo solo en el presidium; las sillas de sus lados se mantuvieron vacías; el presidente nacional mantuvo su distancia, lo que obligó al anfitrión a fingir que recibía una llamada telefónica por su celular para poder abandonar su lugar al frente del salón.(...)

De las 14 personas que fueron hospitalizadas en el hospital general Adolfo López Mateos de Toluca, diez fueron dadas de alta y cuatro permanecen bajo observación médica, entre ellos un hombre de 55 años de edad,Arnulfo Pacheco Cervantes, semiparapléjico que fue sacado a rastras por la policía estatal de su casa en Atenco: presenta fractura en dos costillas; Ramiro Zavala de 61 años, con un pulmón perforado; Edgar Santiago Navarro de 21 años con fractura del cubito derecho, y Rodolfo Rivera Galicia de 57, también con fractura en el cubito derecho.
A pesar de su estado de salud y que se evalúa intervenirlos quirúrgicamente, según señaló el director del nosocomio, Juan Manuel Domínguez, los cuatro se encuentran esposados a sus camas y son custodiados por ocho elementos de la policía estatal.

Es mucho más completo, querida gatopardo. También hubo policias muertos por los civiles con botellas llenas de gasolina, y los pobladores de Atenco aplaudian a los policias cuando entraron a poner orden.

Lo dificil es: se les habia prohibido vender flores en via pública, les valió un rábano y se pusieron. Llegaron los policias a decirles que se quitaran y los recibieron a piedras. De ahi todo se desató, tristemente.

Estamos en plenas elecciones, esto es politico, desgraciadamente. Y mas triste es que mueren inocentes (de los dos bandos: policias y civiles) por responsabilidad electoral. Es un asco.

Muchos saludos.

Autor: Gatopardo

Me ha emociona pensar, Magda, en esos policías que acuden raudos en defensa de la ley y del órden contra unos vendedores de flores que no tienen permiso, ¡qué falta de civismo, vender flores sin pagar la mordida!
Magda: ¿estás hablándome de la misma zona en la que los narcotraficantes, aliado y amparado por los políticos, campan por sus respetos, asesinan a la luz del día, jamás son requeridos por la policía ni llevados a juicio, se masacra a la población, y hay en este momento un ejercito disparando con bala contra los civiles?
¿Y quieres decir que lo que ha activado el celo de la policía y de las autoridades, que no buscan ni encuentran jamás a los asesinos, ni a los sicarios, ni a los que torturan, secuestran y roban, es que hubo gente que se puso a vender flores en el mercado?
¿Quieres decir que es sólo en Atenco dónde los policías están considerados como los más peligrosos delincuentes, matones, secuestradores y que la información que dan en las agencias de viajes internacionales, sobre la mafia policial forma parte de la complejidad que hay que tener en cuenta? Y la corrupción y la violencia institucional, que es la primera causa de que México sea de alto riesgo para inversores extranjeros, los asesinatos masivos, los crímenes de lesa humanidad contra los trabajadores, los defensores de los derechos humanos, las violaciones, las desapariciones, los asesinatos de periodistas, ¿también hay que achacarlas a que a veces mueren policías?
Magda, sé que esas razones son las que te permiten a tí y a los tuyos, creeros ciudadanos civilizados y dignos de respeto; pero si alguna vez hay Justicia, y al final un Tribunal internacional juzga por delitos de lesa humanidad a los responsables, los cachorros de Yunque y demás escoria, que gobiernan México, habría que pedir cuentas a todos los que, como los ciudadanos de la Alemania nazi, habéis justificado todo eso para vuestra tranquilidad.

Te copio la carta contando los hechos, que como verás, no remite gente armada con piedras contra las balas:
Viernes 5 de mayo de 2006
El Correo Ilustrado
Contra la represión y por la defensa del estado de derecho Señora directora:
Profundamente preocupados por los acontecimientos en San Salvador Atenco, manifestamos lo siguiente:

1. Reprobamos la solución de fuerza desproporcionada aplicada en el conflicto social que se generó en San Salvador Atenco y que contraviene los principios fundamentales de derechos humanos de la ONU, particularmente el de proporcionalidad establecido en el artícu-lo 3: "Los funcionarios encargados de hacer cumplir la ley podrán usar la fuerza sólo cuando sea estrictamente necesario..." Planteamos la necesidad de establecer una vía de solución política que permita abordar a fondo las causas que han llevado a esta situación y evitar el escalamiento de esta confrontación.

2. En otras partes del país y recientemente en Michoacán, hemos observado al gobierno actuar del mismo modo, combinando fuerzas locales y federales en la represión a los movimientos sociales. La manera de realizar estos operativos ha generado una violencia desproporcionada con un saldo de altos costos humanos y sociales. No podemos legitimar el uso de la fuerza como medio para resolver las demandas sociales.

3. La convivencia social y política debe estar fundamentada en la democracia y la justicia, por ello para restablecer las condiciones de convivencia en la zona se requiere avanzar en un proceso de diálogo en torno de la distensión del conflicto, la liberación de los presos, la reconstrucción del tejido social y los temas de fondo que aún no han sido resueltos. La realización de una investigación que aclare los acontecimientos.

4. De igual manera, hacemos un llamado urgente a que se respete el pleno ejercicio de los derechos humanos en las diversas manifestaciones de protesta que se están desarrollando, así como la realización de una investigación sobre los hechos que condujeron a esta preocupante situación. Exigimos información de la situación jurídica y de salud de los más de 200 detenidos y detenidas durante los enfrentamientos y los operativos de estos días.

5. Hacemos un llamado a la serenidad y la calma de las distintas partes para encontrar un punto de diálogo para resolver el conflicto.

Atentamente.

Magda querida: No sabemos si es más complejo, pero comprobamos que usted lo ha hecho más líoso. Según su peculiar verbo, los civiles "murieron" a los policias con botellas de gasolina ¿acaso les obligaron a ingerirlas? Y, si optaron por la via "contusiva" ¿qué más da que se llenaran las botellas de tequila o leche merengada". Luego dice que los pobladores de Atenco vitorearon a los policias cuando entraron a poner orden... ¿pues no estaban muertos?
Es usted un alma peculiar, muy dada a embarullar el relato. ¿qué es político? los policias armando la tirazaina por una nimiedad o los vendedores de flores sin haber pagado el permiso (y la mordida, quoi)?
¿Quizás, en su calidad de dama mejicana, solventa usted los problemas con el servicio con fusta y revolver? No sea bruta, gentil vocera de las fuerzas del orden.
En cualquier caso, si se le insubordina algún plebeyo, véngase para la Madre Patria, que aquí las Fuerzas De Acción Rápida andan escasas de ejemplares bravos y de tronío como usted.

PETICIÓN DE AUXILIO AL PUEBLO MEXICANO DE SAN SALVADOR ATENCO

La represión más brutal, la tortura y los asesinatos contra los que luchan por los derechos básicos en México, contra la sociedad civil que se rebela ante tantos abusos, se ha centrado en estos momentos en San Salvador Atenco: hay más de un centenar de heridos de bala, han matado a un niño de catorce años, y hay docenas de detenidos.

El candidato presidencial de la Alianza por México, Roberto Madrazo Pintado, se pronunció por aplicar "mano dura" en el caso de San Salvador Atenco, "no negociar con los transgresores de la ley y restablecer el Estado de derecho."
Los políticos, que han convertido los derechos humanos en una entelequia, no conocen la palabra justicia ni conocen otra respuesta que el exterminio y la represión.
Reproduzco más abajo el llamamiento a la solidaridad que han realizado: por favor, no los dejéis solos, secundad su petición, que nuestra indiferencia y nuestro silencio no asegure una vez más la impunidad de los enemigos del pueblo mexicano.

Copio:
En San Salvador Atenco -como en todos los conflictos sociales- el "estado de derecho" de los gobiernos panistas y perredistas-federal y local del estado de México- se sostiene mediante la represión y la desinformación.
No es nueva la técnica. Se aisla un grupo del resto de la sociedad civil, se crea una imagen marginal y sesgada del grupo en los medios- que hoy más que nunca refuerzan el principio fascista de mantener el orden a toda costa, recurriendo al miedo y la desinformación, y luego se da un golpe de fuerza.
Lo vimos en las marchas del dos de octubre a las que Marcelo Ebrard envió grupos de choque para atacar una marcha pacífica en un sector predeterminado, "marginal", para luego justificar la entrada de la policía y el uso de la fuerza. Lo vemos también en el conflicto en SITCARSA con los mineros, lo vimos en la huelga de 99-2000 en la UNAM, y ahora en San Salvador Atenco.
En los medios se maneja la versión de que "ellos atacaron primero", y presentan a los habitantes de Atenco, que resistieron al intento de construir un Aeropuerto en sus tierras, parte del Plan Puebla-Panamá, como salvajes y prepotentes.
Todos sabemos de que lado está el salvajismo y la prepotencia. El uso de cuerpos como la Policía Federal Preventiva (que significa el aval del Estado) y la policía local del Estado de México, con gobierno perredista, pone en relieve el desinterés de los gobiernos por solucionar los problemas de los pueblos, y la recurrente opción represora.
Además existe la vinculación directa de otras luchas sociales con el pueblo de Atenco, a propósito de las declaraciones del Delegado Zero ayer en Ciudad Universitaria, es claro que el gobierno ha decidido golpear a todas aquellos que se oponen a ser explotados y re-colonizados.
Debemos organizarnos y pasar la voz, discutir, hacer paros activos en las escuelas, e informar para desarticular la campaña mediática que pretende aislar a los habitantes de San Salvador Atenco-en particular a los miembros del frente por la defensa de los pueblos- criminalizar la lucha social, y golpear a las organizaciones que no se hincan ante los abusos del gobierno.

Marcha de protesta a Gobernación en solidaridad con Atenco

"A unos días del paso de la otra campaña por Atenco un violento intento de desalojo, orquestado por el gobierno del Estado de Mexico en contra de trabajadores del mercado Belisario Dominguez arrojó casi un centenar de detenidos, heridos de bala, y la muerte de un joven menor de edad, originario de la comunidad de Acuexcomac.
Integrantes del Frente de Pueblos en Defensa de la Tierra (FPDT) permanecen rehenes del gobierno estatal y, según trascendió, la comunidad de San Salvador Atenco se encuentra sitiada por fuerzas policiacas.
"El gobierno municipal ha decidido limpiar a todo Texcoco de gente pobre que afea la ciudad, pero además para invadir con más tiendas comerciales trasnacionales, como Wallmart", comunica el FPDT el 4 de mayo y recuerda la batalla contra la imposición de un aeropuerto en 2001 : "A nosotros nos queda claro que todo esto no es un hecho aislado de toda la represión que el estado desata cuando La Otra Campaña (...) pasa literalmente por los pueblos de México (...) Lo que el Estado está buscando es cobrarse la afrenta que representó la férrea resistencia de hombres y mujeres por defender lo único que tenían, haciendo añicos un decreto presidencial".
Las tropas del EZLN se declararon en alerta roja y anunciaron el cambio de mando en su estructura militar. El Delegado Zero convocó a La Otra Campaña a realizar acciones urgentes civiles y pacíficas dentro y fuera de Mexico para exigir la liberación inmediata de los detenidos y el retiro total de la fuerza pública que está invadiendo las tierras de Atenco."

Palabras del sucomandante Marcos

Compañeros, compañeras:

Hace unos momentos estuvimos viendo y escuchando en los medios de comunicación el manejo que se estaba haciendo, el manejo informativo sobre lo que estaba ocurriendo. Escuchamos a los locutores y locutoras de Televisión Azteca implorando por que entrara el orden, por que entrara el ejército a poner orden y acabar con lo que estaba ocurriendo ahí. Escuchamos también la indignación de televidentes que mandaban cartas diciendo que eran unos idiotas los locutores que estaban pidiendo que entrara más fuerza pública.
Hace años aquí, en la Plaza de las Tres Culturas hubo una matanza y entonces el gobierno dijo que el ejército había sido agredido. Y pasó mucho tiempo a que alguien preguntara qué estaba haciendo el ejército en un mitin estudiantil. Y ahora esos medios de comunicación, incluso de la radio, no se les ocurre preguntar qué estaba haciendo la fuerza pública en San Salvador Atenco. Y estaba haciendo esta alianza que se dio entre el PRD y el PRI para desalojar a unos vendedores de flores porque el presidente municipal de Texcoco piensa que afean la ciudad; porque quiere meter un centro comercial, un Wal-Mart ahí en Texcoco y le molestan los pequeños comerciantes y que también el PRD aliado ahí con el PRI a nivel estatal, ahora aliado con el PAN a nivel federal, y ahora va a tener que dar cuenta de esta muerte.

Como Comisión Sexta del Ejército Zapatista de Liberación Nacional, organización adherente a la Otra Campaña, estamos pidiendo, solicitando respetuosamente a las coordinadoras regionales y subregionales en todo el país a que acuerden y ejecuten acciones y movilizaciones de apoyo al Frente de Pueblos en Defensa de la Tierra a partir de las 800, ocho de la mañana del día de mañana, cuatro de mayo del 2006.

Como Comisión Sexta nos estamos declarando en alerta. Han sido ya declaradas en alerta roja las tropas del Ejército Zapatista de Liberación Nacional y en punto de esa hora serán cerrados los Caracoles y los Municipios Autónomos Rebeldes Zapatistas. A partir de este momento, a partir de este momento, está funcionando ya el nuevo escalón de mando en el Ejército Zapatista de Liberación Nacional. Cualquier cosa que me ocurra hay ya ahí quien tome las decisiones. No sabemos ustedes, pero los zapatistas somos hoy Atenco.

Vamos a estar atentos a sus demandas. Llamamos a que se hagan reuniones por sector, por regional, como ustedes piensen y que acuerden estas acciones. Como Comisión Sexta estamos cancelando todas nuestras participaciones en las actividades programadas y estamos esperando la indicación del Frente de Pueblos en Defensa de la Tierra. Si necesita nuestra presencia allá, allá iremos. Si no, participaremos directamente en alguna de las acciones que ustedes programen para el día de mañana a partir de las 800, ocho de la mañana.

Cierre de carreteras, cierre de calles, volanteo, pinta, lo que se les ocurra, civil y pacífico. Atenco no puede estar solo. No vamos a detener estas acciones y esta situación hasta que los compañeros y compañeras del Frente de Pueblos en Defensa de la Tierra así nos indiquen.

No vamos a hacer caso de ninguna información que no llegue a través de ellos. Para nosotros, ellos y ellas, quienes forman el Frente de Pueblos en Defensa de la Tierra son la Otra Campaña en esas tierras. Respetaremos sus decisiones. Llegaremos hasta donde ellos nos digan llegar. Han sido claros en sus demandas: liberación inmediata de los detenidos y retiro total de la fuerza pública que está invadiendo sus tierras.

Este es nuestro mensaje compañeros y compañeras. No sólo para la Otra en este otro México, en esta otra ciudad de México que se está levantando. Es nuestro mensaje para la Otra Campaña en todo el país. Desde Chiapas, Quintana Roo, Yucatán, Campeche, hasta las dos Baja Californias, Sinaloa, Chihuahua, Tamaulipas, Nuevo León. De norte a sur, de este a oeste, que la Otra Campaña resuene en Atenco y que haya justicia para los caídos. Gracias compañeros, gracias compañeras.

Despliegue policial contra los habitantes de Atenco
Viernes 5 de mayo de 2006
El Correo Ilustrado
Contra la represión y por la defensa del estado de derecho

Señora directora: Profundamente preocupados por los acontecimientos en San Salvador Atenco, manifestamos lo siguiente:

1. Reprobamos la solución de fuerza desproporcionada aplicada en el conflicto social que se generó en San Salvador Atenco y que contraviene los principios fundamentales de derechos humanos de la ONU, particularmente el de proporcionalidad establecido en el artícu-lo 3: "Los funcionarios encargados de hacer cumplir la ley podrán usar la fuerza sólo cuando sea estrictamente necesario..." Planteamos la necesidad de establecer una vía de solución política que permita abordar a fondo las causas que han llevado a esta situación y evitar el escalamiento de esta confrontación.

2. En otras partes del país y recientemente en Michoacán, hemos observado al gobierno actuar del mismo modo, combinando fuerzas locales y federales en la represión a los movimientos sociales. La manera de realizar estos operativos ha generado una violencia desproporcionada con un saldo de altos costos humanos y sociales. No podemos legitimar el uso de la fuerza como medio para resolver las demandas sociales.

3. La convivencia social y política debe estar fundamentada en la democracia y la justicia, por ello para restablecer las condiciones de convivencia en la zona se requiere avanzar en un proceso de diálogo en torno de la distensión del conflicto, la liberación de los presos, la reconstrucción del tejido social y los temas de fondo que aún no han sido resueltos. La realización de una investigación que aclare los acontecimientos.

4. De igual manera, hacemos un llamado urgente a que se respete el pleno ejercicio de los derechos humanos en las diversas manifestaciones de protesta que se están desarrollando, así como la realización de una investigación sobre los hechos que condujeron a esta preocupante situación. Exigimos información de la situación jurídica y de salud de los más de 200 detenidos y detenidas durante los enfrentamientos y los operativos de estos días.

5. Hacemos un llamado a la serenidad y la calma de las distintas partes para encontrar un punto de diálogo para resolver el conflicto.

Atentamente.

¿Qué pasa en ATENCO?
Los días 3 y 4 de mayo de 2006 la policía federal y del Estado de México atacaron nuevamente a los pobladores de San Salvador Atenco, quienes mostraban su solidaridad apoyando a un grupo de floricultores quienes eran despojados de su fuente de trabajo. Los medios de comunicación se han dedicado a descalificar a los campesinos atenquenses diciendo que ellos rompieron el orden en la población, criminalizándolos por defender sus derechos de organizarse y solidarizarse entre compañeros. Los granaderos llegaron agrediendo con fuertes golpes y gases lacrimógenos provocando la muerte de un joven, más de 200 detenidos y cientos de heridos de gravedad; también provocaron el miedo entre la población y la indignación de la sociedad.
¿Por qué a los campesinos de Atenco?
Este ataque tiene una explicación política, ya que hace unos años el pueblo de Atenco defendió sus tierras de cultivo cuando el gobierno planeaba construir en ellas un nuevo aeropuerto. Sin embargo, la gente no sólo se defendió, sino que siguió organizándose en comunidad para defender cualquiera de sus derechos; es por eso que el gobierno y los medios de comunicación agreaden física e ideológicamente a sus pobladores y a sociedad en general.
Esta injusta agresión no es sólo contra la gente de Atenco, es contra todos nosotros porque nos dejan entender que ante cualquier reclamo de justicia y solidaridad, la represión y violencia serán aplicadas hacia todos. Una vez más el gobierno demostró que su política es el castigo injusto a todos los que luchan por sus derechos.
¡Alto a la represión en Atenco!
¡Alto a la agresión por la defensa de nuestros derechos!
¡Libertad a los presos políticos!
¡Alto a la manipulación de los medios de comunicación!

Para el pueblo tan dolido y afrentado està claro, para los que verdaderamente han saqueado y dañado a Mèxico, a sus grandes recursos, a los marginados y los màs vulnerables (mujeres y niños): total impunidad (narcos, salinistas y foxistas proimperialistas y saqueadores entreguistas, etc.etc.); para el pueblo con dignidad harto de tanta afrenta, obligado a luchar: se le criminaliza satanizàndolo con el apoyo del monopolio mediàtico, linchando la lucha pretendiendo aislarla y justificarla.
Si los gobiernos realmente fueran congruentes y obedecieran el mandato social, no habrìa atentos ni mineros luchando contra la corrupciòn y el abuso de poder del Estado.

En lugar de ello dan explicaciones dolosas e irresponsables alentando aùn màs represiòn, màs derramamiento de sangre.
No se vale. El pueblo està cansado.
Paz sì pero con dignidad y congruencia institucional, asì sì habrà respeto a la ley en todos sentidos.

Que se esclarezcan los hechos, piden
Señora directora: Los abajo firmantes nos manifestamos por el respeto a los derechos humanos de los detenidos en la comunidad de San Salvador Atenco, exigimos esclarecimiento de los hechos y repudiamos la política represiva del gobierno del estado ante los movimientos sociales. Si la represión es lo que se antepone a la negociación, qué sexenio nos espera.

Atentamente.

TEATRO Y CIRCO

Me acerqué la otra noche al Teatro Circo para verificar con mis propios ojos quién tenía razón en la trifulca organizada a raíz de su inauguración: si los proalcaldistas, que lo contemplan como el no va más de la modernidad, o los opositores, para quienes no pasa de ser otra megalomanía electoralista con tintes de chapuza. Mi curiosidad era puramente sociológica y morbosa, ya que entre mis prioridades no están las representaciones teatrales, que siempre me han parecido impostadas y un poco ridículas. A mayor abundamiento, y por las reseñas que había leído en la prensa, se trataba de una obra de carácter feminista, por lo que mis prejuicios eran mayores, y ya iba yo rogando cuando buscaba mi butaca que me tocara detrás de una de esas famosas columnas que impiden la visión del escenario.

Dado que se trataba de una invitación, nos subieron al anfiteatro, o sea al gallinero, y allí efectivamente –tras algún tropezón por lo diminuto de los escalones- pude comprobar la solidez de las columnas, su armónica distribución, a más de unas cuantas sillas sueltas añadidas al aforo, reivindicación quizá de los añejos tiempos en que el propio espectador tenía que llevarse su silla a los espectáculos de variedades.
Acomodados y expectantes, una voz de ultratumba nos anunció que faltaba un minuto para el comienzo de la función, y añadió algo más, palabras enjundiosas que la magna bóveda dispersó por el aire y que yo no pude entender. Pero bastó con que se encendieran los focos y se inaugurara la función para que pudiera oír algo: el taconeo en sensorround de una de las azafatas guiando a su asiento a unos espectadores retrasados.
A partir de aquí, poco puedo añadir. No soy crítico teatral ni estoy al día de los movimientos de dramaturgia actuales, pero aun de serlo me vería incapacitado para juzgar una obra de la que solo me llegaron retazos. Una tercera parte del escenario se me escamoteó, lo que provocó continuos estiramientos de cuello de los asistentes de mi zona, junto con la incómoda sensación de estar perdiéndose algo: mientras los espectadores de abajo reían continuamente, yo miraba perplejo a mi acompañante en demanda de ayuda: ¿qué han dicho?. La precaria audición y visibilidad me privaron de la percepción de una obra que apuntaba talento (y que a la postre, por lo poco que oí, no resulto tan feminista): unos voluntariosos actores –alguno de ellos excelente- y unos diálogos ingeniosos que se perdieron en medio del vacío de la bóveda.
Hace ya muchos años, un director de cine impuso una demanda a Televisión española por emitir películas fragmentadas. Al no respetar el cinemascope en las emisiones, las franjas laterales de la pantalla desaparecían, de modo que no era infrecuente asistir al espectáculo de dos narices dialogando, o a la desaparición de un personaje colocado en una esquina del encuadre. La otra noche reviví esa incómoda sensación de escamoteo.
Por ser un simple invitado, no me cabía la reclamación del precio de la entrada sino un sosegado pataleo. Pero los que pagaron por un sitio preferente tras columna o los mismos responsables de las compañías teatrales deberían plantearse la posibilidad de renunciar a asistir o a actuar en un local que solo permite la visibilidad o audición a unos cuantos privilegiados.
Ahora que se oyen quejas de los arquitectos, en el sentido de que la apertura del Teatro Circo fue precipitada –había que abrir en Feria por bemoles-, sólo hay que esperar que los responsables municipales se tomen con calma las próximas inauguraciones y no las ciñan al calendario electoralista. Porque lo del Teatro Circo tiene un pase, pero después viene el aeropuerto.

Lo siento, amigos, pero en blogia están haciendo ajustes, y lleva prácticamente toda la tarde descolgado.
Nicolás: la pregunta que me hice no fue con el teatro, sino con ese protocolo de chapuzas y cosas mal acabadas para poder pasar el trámite de la inauguración. Me resulta tan conocido que podría haber ocurrido en cualquiera del centenar de pueblos que conozco.

Pregunto:

¿por qué a esos arquitectos, jerarcas municipales y demás responsables de esos desaguisados no los llevan cinco años a plantar árboles a cualquier páramo de España?.

Resalto que no pido cadena perpétua; pero sólo porque hoy tengo un día blandengue.

SOPORTO CON GRAN ENTEREZA EL SUFRIMIENTO QUE PRODUZCO

Siempre he pensado que el peor castigo es que te aten un tonto a un brazo. Tampoco es mal suplicio tener a unos cuantos memos haciendo comentarios sin ton ni son, destrozando la lógica, la gramática y la paciencia; sin repajolera idea del artículo que han leído o sin intención de leerlo.
Me da vergüenza ajena tener que explicar reiteradamente que los balbuceos mentales, los atentados a la gramática, a la sintaxis y a la inteligencia son perfectamente prescindibles aquí. Y suelo borrarlos.
En las redacciones de los periódicos, hay normas estrictas para las cartas al director, y la mayoría de las que llegan va a la basura. Aquí también.
Estos estultos exigen libertad para decir sandeces e impertinencias, y claman contra mi censura. Por mí, pueden hacer una asociación de damnificados de mi intransigencia. Y que se federen.
Tengo el cupo de los amores que soy capaz de despertar, completo y el ego, blindado. Y soporto con gran entereza el sufrimiento que produzco.

jejeje abuela. lo peor no es que se te cuelgue un tonto al brazo......
lo peor podria decir que es:
. Descurbir que el tonto esta dentro de ti.
- Descubrir demasiado tarde que lo que hay por fuera esta mejor por dentro.
- O que lo peor esta por venir...............................
no tienes mas que asomar el ojo a este 1 de Mayo... manifestaciones en india, en estambul, en rusia, en alemania y en muchos paises incluso el nuestro... todas con una base comun: hacer destacar las injusticias...
pero de todas cabe destacar la huelga latina en eeuu y el golpe táctico de Evo Morales al retirar el patrocinio de su petroleo a empresas extranjeras.... oleee aunque eso nos va a doler en los bolsillos....

pero bueno... lo bueno es que alguien dijo: "Se acabó el saqueo"

Espero que muy pronto alguien con mas autoridad venga a decir algo asi.....

En cualquier caso, yaya, ya que te imagino con los brazos en jarras, y el ceño fruncido; en vez de atizar a tus nietos con la vara verde, podrías recomendar el uso de páginas como la www.rae.es, donde se pueden consultar dudas. De hecho, yo mismo cuando escribo en internet, suelo tenerla abierta por si dudo entre \"b\" o \"v\", jaja. Respecto a sus consejos para que me vaya a una abadía "venedictina", siento decirle que no existe con esta denominación ninguna. Y mientras haya tanto inepto en la RAE me parece un desdoro.

II. Si por algún desajuste glandular le es a usted inevitable ejercer semejante actividad contra la salud pública, le aconsejaría que la haga en alguna superficie lavable y con pizarrín.
III. Tenga usted en cuenta que ya no puede gozar de los beneficios e indulgencias de una ley del menor.
IV. En este país, hay muchísimos editores y cuñados. Son rebaños de los que intento mantenerme a prudente distancia.
V. No le aconsejo que lea, porque existe el indudable peligro de que sufra usted una gastroenteritis aguda a la segunda idea que pretenda digerir.
VI. La fase gallinacea de los 19 años no siempre es transitoria. A veces se convierte en constitucional.

SEÑORA GATOPARDO O PENDÓN VOLTARIANO, QUE ES LO MISMO:

A veces he pasado por su blog, y hoy, al ver este escrito, y al leer los comentarios, he sentido compasión por usted. Déjeme decirle:

1. L`agüela no es precisamente muy "ortográfico".

2. Si, existe abadía venedictina como tal.

3. Debe tener mucho tiempo libre.

4. La señorita Alejandra no ha cometido ningún fallo ortográfico y es más, me parece que sí demuestra tener sentido común y ser muy perspicaz para su edad. Hoy en día la mayoría de los jóvenes no escriben, ni publican (y ya puestos ni sus blogs están llenos de literatura de calidad, sino de fotografías o cosas efímeras).

5. Muchos autores que se han querido dedicar a la poesía han tenido que abandonarla y dedicarse a la prosa, por carecer del gran talento que eso requiere. Hoy día cualquier persona de cultura media podría escribir una novela, pero jamás lírica. Le recomiendo lea a Cristina Peri Rossi (Poesía Completa, Editorial Lumen). En el prólogo señala la inmensa cantidad de autores que no han triunfado en el mundo del verso y han tenido que resignarse al de la prosa.

6. Su nieto sí escribe con algunas faltas. (Pero, obvio, un nieto es un nieto).

7. No volveré por este blog. Quizás mis tan cultivados años en la abogacía, viajes alrededor del mundo de congreso y congreso y mi persona en general no sea tan inteligente para merecer leer sus, a veces mediocres, a veces buenas, letras.

Yaya, no seas bestia con lo de la LOGSE, que servidor ha mamado de ella. Y aunque tiene muchas deficiencias, también la época franquista dio eruditos en distintas disciplinas y no se acarrea contra ellos.

Así que como con Sevilla, solo nos metemos los sevillanos; con la LOGSE solo nos metemos los que la hemos padecido. :P

¡Ay! Qué bien me lo he pasado leyendo estos comentarios, y qué lástima que ya concluyan. Me pregunto si podría yo incluir algún pequeño escarnio que indujese a cualquiera de sus irascibles y ególatras comentaristas a una nueva tanda de entretenidos menosprecios carentes de pulcra sintaxis.
¡Cómo me gustaría formar parte de ese reducido grupo de áridos amigos que destrozan sin piedad florecillas lírico-silvestres con sus patazas de lexicógrafos! Cuánta envidia me da ese docto Pendón, que responde a todos sin ser preguntado con el beneplácito de la dueña, o ese alabancero de Rubén, que enamoró a la gata hasta el punto de que sólo a él consiente con una sonrisa sus jajases y sus @rrobas. Qué gran premio otorga la sin igual gatopardo a sus amigos cediendo una vez más, tras sus pequeños rezongos, el espacio para que se maten a placer comentaristas y comentados en pos del buen discutir.
Yo, que fui desheredada aquel día en esta tierra de malos humos, vuelvo hoy como la hija pródiga a exigir mi puesto en tan digna corte, y ya que estoy, me quedo a seguir leyendo.

Sin duda debería seguir escribiendo sobre su cultivadísima mente y la mediocridad del mundo, sacar brillo a su armadura y ponerla más a menudo porque sube audiencia y es divertido. Eso si, le rogaría que no rociara más la espada con ese veneno absurdo, más allegado a la senilidad que a otra cosa.

¿Veneno? ¿Veneno absurdo? Confieso que la imagen lírica de la armadura brillante y la ficticia espada de cultivada erudición me ha conmovido profundamente, tanto que casi me identifiqué con el señor Fernando cuando hablaba de la perspicacia de los versos alejandrinos, pero ese veneno absurdo que menciona… es que no acabo de pillar la metáfora.

Me uno a las palabras de MARTIN CASTRO y añado: Esta sección de comentarios es mucho más divertida que el blog entero. Por favor, el autor o autora(si, creo que es autora pese a sus múltiples nombres: Gatopardo, Tautina y Pendón Volteriano)ha convertido esto en todo un auténtico "reallity show". Es triste/simpático/curioso leer las contestaciones que ha escrito (más bien con pezuña que con pluma) a los comentarios.

A diferencia de usted, las personas que han manifestado sus opiniones contrarias,al menos al principio, no se han valido del insulto o del menosprecio. Algo que no comprendo de una persona anciana o en todo caso, mayor. De todas formas, como lectora habitual que he sido de su blog, me siento completamente defraudada. El orgullo y la ceguera, son malos síntomas a cualquier edad.

Mi admirado Luis Muiño tiene una consulta y se lo recomiendo vivamente para tratar esta psicopatía tan característica, que le hace creer que los demás son idiotas irredentos, y que una labia de agente comercial colegiado, y representante de cosméticos, puede confundirse con un catedrático emérito y aplaudido conferenciante. Sólo espero por su bien que no tenga que vender ni una escoba con estos métodos, porque los comerciantes son listos como ratas de alcantarilla y huelen un fraude a medio kilómetro de distancia.
Ex aequo: ¿Va a ser usted quien me va a proveer de las dos cosas que me receta? ¿O su incapacidad para ofrecerme el remedio corre pareja con su falta de originalidad y de creatividad para hacer el diagnóstico? Pero claro, la culpa es mía. Debería dejarte más comentarios de vez en cuando, así la gente me metería también en el mismo saco y diría que somos únicos y trinos (junto con tautina, menudo menage).

Sólo una pequeña reprimenda. No tienes razón con la pobre Alejandra. Deberías de acordarte de tus años mozos y del ímpetu de la juventud.

Queridos míos: gracias por desempeñar vuestros papeles no escritos ni fijados de antemano, que me ha permitido sacar de la madriguera a una enemiga que no es de mi talla ni de mi clase.
Habéis actuado con inteligencia e ingenio, habéis visto la provocación y habéis jugado con entusiasmo sin saber cuál era el resultado que buscaba.
Sí, quien se embosca en varios seudónimos, masculinos y femeninos, ha sido tan poco inteligente que ha dejado un rastro que le identifica, y como perfecto ejemplo de su clase ha menospreciado la inteligencia ajena.
Tengo la captura de pantalla de su blog antes de que lo borrara, de su perfil, que ofrece nitidamente su identidad como blogger, su IP y todos los datos: Alejandra, Fernando, Ex-aequo, Martín Castro, Menopáusea, etc. son la misma persona patológicamente obsesionada conmigo, que ya me acusó en su blog de ser yo El Pendón Volteriano. No lo soy, como tampoco soy Tautina, ya me gustaría a mí llegarles a la suela de sus zapatos de tacón.
Y ahora, hablando en serio: me importa un bledo que escribáis con faltas de ortografía e ignorando la gramática, mientras sigáis derrochando ingenio y aportéis vuestro espíritu de controversia y análisis y no un mero trámite "dorapildoras" al uso para quedar monos y amables.
Aprender, saber, ahondar con el espíritu crítico aguzado es una bendición de la inteligencia, que no se puede limitar por un estúpido orgullo egocéntrico.
Gracias a "yo mismo", "detrás del reflejo","Elena", "Felipe", "Vailima", "Rubén", ¿Y servirá de algo? ¿Crees de verdad, que el señor Bush y su pueblo ensombrecido por la filosofía del "Gran sueño NorteAmericano" se ablandarán y entrarán a razones; entendiendo todo aquello por lo que protestan quienes empujan por la parte de atrás a todo el páis?

Malgastarán sus fuerzas, en un intento desesperado porque, al menos, le sea reconocida su dignidad.

Qué se puede esperar de un país, que se cree por encima de todos los demás. Pero que arrodilla por las esquinas, para que nadie lo vea excepto aquel que ejerce la fuerza de empuje.

Saludos a tod@s.

No sé, Rubén, si con este boicot se conseguirá algo; lo que sí sé es que jamás en toda la historia de la humanidad se ha conseguido ni un derecho, ni una ventaja social sin pedirlos y sin luchar por ellos.
Así es que cualquiera que lo intente me parece más inteligente que quien se quede quieto pensándoselo.

1 DE MAYO SIN CONSUMIR PRODUCTOS USA EN DEFENSA DE LOS DERECHOS DE LOS INMIGRANTES LATINOS

El 6 de diciembre pasado, el presidente del Comité Jurídico de la Cámara Baja, James Sensenbrenner, introdujo el “Proyecto de Protección de la Frontera, Antiterrorismo, y Control de la Inmigración Ilegal 2005”, catalogado en los registros como HR4437.
Once millones de indocumentados trabajan en EEUU a destajo, sin derechos civiles, acosados y cazados como si fueran terroristas.
Son once millones de seres invisibles que limpian los cristales y las fachadas de los grandes edificios, colgados en andamios móviles, son obreros agrícolas, cocinan y sirven la comida en los restaurantes, aseguran la mano de obra especializada e imprescindible para que funcionen las infraestructuras del país, en los trabajos más duros y peor pagados,luchan en su ejercito, y son sus envíos de dinero a sus familias los que mantienen en pie la maltrecha economía de sus países de origen, mientras sus Gobiernos se desentienden elegantemente de sus derechos y de su situación en EEUU.
El 1 de mayo se ha hecho una llamada a todos los inmigrantes latinos para que no acudan a sus puestos de trabajo, y a sus compatriotas latinoamericanos para boicotear empresas y productos norteamericanos.
Podemos ayudar: no consumir Donuts, Mc Donalds, Burguer King, Starbucks, Sears, Crispy Cream, Walmart, Seven-Eleven, Coca Cola... y no acudir ni consumir productos de una franquicia norteamericana, ni ir a un cine donde haya una película USA, para defender sus derechos elementales como trabajadores y como seres humanos: el derecho a escolarizar a los hijos y los servicios médicos, sindicales y ciudadanos de esos millones de trabajadores latinoamericanos, explotados, acosados y perseguidos.
Pásalo. Dáte el gusto de demostrarles lo que significa prescindir de quienes desprecian.

Exacto. ¡esta es una magnífica idea! y pienso seguirla. Pero no un día sino una semana y, si es posible, todo el tiempo que pueda.

También es una buena idea para aplicarla a todos los productos fabricados en los países donde se explotan los niños. Y para aquellos que cazan ballenas y matan las focas jovencitas a garrotazos (Japón y Canadá).

Y, aprovechando que el Ebro pasa por los cerros de Úbeda, puedo añadir boicotear los pueblos en cuyas fiestas se maten o torturen animales. Me gustaría tener una lista de esos pueblos; si la consigo la publicaré.

Sé que he mezclado muchos asuntos pero todos tienen que ver con ¡hacer algo!

Saludos

Pero, atención, hace unas semanas compré una taladradora alemana. Cuando, en casa, abrí la envoltura me dí cuenta que estaba fabricada en Taiwán.

No suelo consumir ni usar productos fabricados en EE.UU. Así que el día 1 de mayo aún menos.
De todas maneras, como dice Ramiro, a saber donde están fabricadas ciertas cosas...

El boicot debe ser a productos Y SERVICIOS. Como son yahoo, blogger, flickr, hotmail, gmail, y demás con base en estados unidos. En el caso de méxico, por ejemplo-y aunque suene ridículo- se requiere aprovisionarse desde antes ya que resulta prácticamente imposible hacer cualquier compra en un lugar que no sea franquicia, o propiedad estadounidense. Lugares como "superama", marcas de agua como Bonafont, Electropura, varias marcas de celulares, de ropa, jugos, etcaétera, están en manos gringas. ¿O cómo ven?

Sin duda alguna que es una bizarrada lo que pretende ese xenófobo gobierno , te comento que me he puesto en campaña desde que me enteré de los planes de boicot , espero con ansia el impacto que les traerá tal medida, Coño a ver se despiertan esos irracionales gobernantes.
Saludos desde Venezuela.

Las cosas no se solucionan con boicots.
Un día como queja está bien, otra cosa es, por antipatía o manía, hacer boicot. Vamos, como lo del cava.
Mi menda consume poco americano y, básicamente, por razón de gustos.
Además, hacemos más daño a sus trabajadores que a su economía.

[LOS ASESINOS SIN CASTIGO Y SUS PROTECTORES (2)]

Párrafos extraidos de la carta de los padres de Pável González:

"La crueldad, la indiferencia hace más difícil el andar, pero ello no es una debilidad sino una fortaleza. Las madres dejamos de lado el duelo por los mártires del sistema, cuya vida plena fue truncada en sus ilusiones con sadismo brutal.

Esas mujeres, madres y familiares de Juárez y tantas más, esperaron en vano impotentes y angustiadas; a la esperanza, siguió el terror, el desconcierto, las lágrimas, la desolación, las interrogantes, la impotencia, la indignación, el alma desgarrada. Pero el amor y las memorias son un legado de fortaleza que guían esa lucha por la justicia y la verdad ante la indiferencia y falta de voluntad de las autoridades.

Es a lo mismo a lo que nos enfrentamos, a casi dos años del martirio de nuestro hijo Pável González, estudiante de la UNAM y la ENAH, y luchador social incansable; lo único que hemos recibido, al igual que las madres de Juárez, son burdas investigaciones. Pretenden apuntalar la tesis del suicidio desacreditando el fuerte espíritu de lucha y compromiso de Pável, su gran capacidad y sabiduría para entender las causas reales de injusticia en este mundo. Bueno, tan burdo es que hasta investigan su perfil psicológico, inclinación sexual o cuántas operaciones tuvo de su nariz, por un medicamento antinflamatorio antialérgico, prescrito para ello. Muchas evidencias se perdieron, debido a omisiones e irregularidades ministeriales. Recién, nos enteramos que el Antropólogo Forense que registramos para estar presente en la exhumación y necropsias de Pável, recibió una llamada diciendo que se había cancelado, mientras nosotros desconcertados lo esperamos en vano, impotentes, por todo el aparato que se montó y tanta prepotencia.

En un principio confiamos en el gobierno capitalino, les dimos todo lo que nos pedían, aún con ello, no abrieron otras líneas de investigación, hacen de lado evidencias, amenazas y hostigamientos, con tal de avalar la perversa tesis del suicidio. Ya no esperamos nada, el poder judicial no está a la altura de la verdad histórica y alienta aún más la impunidad. Hay una disonancia entre la verdad histórica y la jurídica, pues las víctimas pasan a ser los responsables.

A la burla de Fox y su fiscalía (que junto con la nada son la misma cosa) por los genocidios del 68 y 71, por la "guerra sucia", las desapariciones y los presos políticos, se suma el descrédito del Estado, que cae aún más por los asesinatos a periodistas, por la impunidad de gobiernos pederastas y el hostigamiento contra Lydia Cacho.

¿Qué podemos esperar con un procurador de tinte panista; con un presidente de la CDHDF como Icaza, que recién se desenmascara defendiendo el poder perverso de la empresa española Eumex, respaldada legalmente por los panistas como Fauzi Hamdan y Diego Fernández de Cevallos? ¿Qué esperamos, con un Ebrad salinista que mantuvo la tónica del poder represor de la guerra sucia, orquestando la tolerancia cero en actos reivindicativos y en las marchas del 2 de octubre, y que tiene nexos con grupos de choque porriles (1) y neofacistas que actúan contra los miembros del Consejo General de Huelga de la UNAM?

Por ello no alentamos esperanza en su justicia y esclarecimiento, por ahorita. Sólo nos queda luchar para que no lapiden la memoria de Pável, y porque sabemos que en el fondo, lo que está en juego es el fin de la impunidad y el estado de derecho.

Lo de Pável fue un mensaje de terror para desarticular un pilar importante de la sociedad, la férrea lucha digna del sector estudiantil de la UNAM por defender la educación pública y gratuita, en un momento coyuntural de cambio de poder. Esos luchadores sociales y estudiantes, enfrentan una represión constante; muchos han sido expulsados. Todo con el aval del Rector de la UNAM, Juan Ramón de la Fuente, y directores como Gerardo Ferrando, de la Facultad de Ingeniería, cuya mentalidad tecnócrata neoliberal atentan contra el logro del pueblo de una educación pública y gratuita.

Por esos luchadores y por Pável, también luchamos, ya no queremos más mártires. Porque con estos luchadores y con los caídos la sociedad está en deuda, por su estoica lucha por un mundo mejor, por su dignificación. Es necesario hacer que los legisladores no sólo pidan rendimiento de la partida presupuestal a la UNAM, sino que sea un organismo que medie, lo más cercano a la ética, y a la altura que la sociedad requiere, con el empuje de la sociedad, para resarcirlos y contener las masacres e impunidad en la UNAM, recuperando su carácter autónomo e institucional.

Todo ello ilustra el grado de ignorancia y desdén hacia las políticas humanistas y sociales.

Como si esto no bastara nos damos cuenta que hay quien se lucra con el dolor del pueblo, diciéndose defensores de derechos humanos, pero en realidad juegan un doble papel, peor que aves de rapiña, porque abusan de nuestra impotencia en su oportunismo pragmático. Su sentencia será la del pueblo, los juzgará por sus hechos, porque la verdad, tarde que temprano sale siempre a flote, sin importar cuánto lodo lapiden sobre las tumbas de los muertos con dignidad, siempre ha sido así, lo constatamos con el movimiento 68 y el jueves de Corpus, que tanto difamaron. Así será.

Objetivamente, existe una correlación directa entre las condiciones sociales, estabilidad social, estado de derecho, democracia, ciudadanía, derechos humanos y seguridad. Es decir, no puede haber seguridad sin ciudadanos que ejerzan todos sus derechos, ni puede darse una democracia sin ciudadanos plenos. Sin éstos es imposible consolidar un estado de derecho que asegure la convivencia pacífica entre los diferentes sectores y miembros de una sociedad.

Prevenirlo reclama un orden jurídico basado en la confianza social. En los países llamados desarrollados lo tienen claro, saben en su pragmatismo, que no habrá desarrollo sin una estructura legal confiable y un Estado de derecho confiable para las personas y las empresas. Los países competitivos en gran medida deben su éxito en la capacidad de lograr acuerdos políticos entre los agentes sociales y económicos, bajo un liderazgo institucional y un proyecto nacional acordado.

Ello queda claro en el Informe sobre la democracia en América Latina, hacia una democracia de ciudadanos y ciudadanas, presentado en el 2004 por el Programa de las Naciones Unidas para el Desarrollo, tratando el tema de la seguridad. El análisis de la OEA, por igual reconoce que la exclusión y la violencia son una epidemia mortal contra la seguridad y la democracia, y de que es imposible pensar en democracias auténticas y estables en América Latina si no se resuelven los problemas.

Es decir, las reformas institucionales de la seguridad pública y de la misma justicia penal son insuficientes sin las reformas económico-sociales, civiles, políticas y culturales.

No sabemos cuán largo es este andar, tal vez para que ello suceda ha de haber nuevas generaciones generadoras de un nuevo ser humano, otros valores solidarios, libres de violencia, en donde el poder ya no ofenda al pueblo, en donde ya no sea impotente ver cómo hombres poderosos y millonarios abusan de las mujeres y niños saliendo impunes, donde ya no se pervierta la conciencia social.

Por ello Pável hacía énfasis en la educación y, paralelamente a su andar, alfabetizaba en zonas marginadas.

Hoy, a los dos años de su muerte, deseo rendir homenaje a su memoria, a su legado de gran calidad humana y espíritu fuerte y combativo, creador, de lucha por justicia y libertad. Pável con tu vivir y con tu muerte nos dejaste un camino a seguir; no permitiremos que callen tu nombre y tu obra, mucho menos que enloden tu memoria. Recordarte es fortalecernos en tu ejemplo hasta dar tu misma sangre, tu martirio y esfuerzo.

Gracias compañeros.

Contra el Olvido y la Impunidad.
"La unidad digna de la fortaleza, la sabiduría del espíritu, y del corazón humilde."

En el impresionante primer artículo/informe de Gatopardo ya quedé horrorizado y sin argumentos coherentes para hacer el más mínimo comentario constructivo. Seguramente lo que le ha pasado a otros lectores pues he visto que no han habido muchas reacciones a tan importante trabajo que seguramente costó muchas horas y esfuerzo para reunir tal cantidad de información y direcciónes para el lector interesado en profundizar en el tema.

Con esta segunda publicación: La entrañable y sobrecogedora carta de la madre de Pavel, me he quedado peor porque ¿qué se puede decir, que exprese el sentimiento de nulidad que se siente?. Porque está muy bien criticar los sistemas corruptos y asesinos pero ¿que más podemos hacer para combatirlos?. No tengo ni idea.

Seguramente habrá lectores mucho más activos en estos temas que podrían sugerir ideas. Por favor, háganlo. Gracias

Gatopardo ya nos informa, que mucho es. Pero, y nosotros los lectores

Leo a Ramiro y me encuentro con sensaciones y pensamientos que comparto.
creo que el silencio es proporcional a la demanda de respuestas.
si yo no tengo respuestas, me resulta dificil dejar un comentario.
y estos son casos en los que cualquiera queda sin palabras... la impotencia lleva a la acción o al enmudecimiento, a la parálisis, al "no saber qué decir", a pensar que "nada de lo que yo diga cambiaría ni un ápice las cosas".
y es así.
lamentablemente es así.
nada-de-lo-que-yo-diga-aquí-cambiaría-nada me da el pálpito de que la carta no fue escrita por los padres del chico.

seguramente alguien, más instruído y mejor informado, la escribió por ellos.
bien, es una forma de ayudar.
pero aquí me planto como mujer, tal vez como madre simbólica, tal vez como psicóloga... y me digo: no se puede, no está bien meter en un mismo saco la muerte de un hijo con cuestiones de gobierno o de oscuros asesinos... aunque ellos mismos hayan sido por acción o por omisión responsables de su muerte y de todo aquello que se esconde atrás.
se lo puede llamar asesinato político.
pero a un duelo... a un duelo, no se lo puede llamar duelo político.
porque la muerte no entiende de políticas, el duelo no entiende de política, el dolor es el dolor, y el dolor no se mitiga con manifiestos ni manifestaciones... por eso las miradas se vuelven pétreas, por eso el alma se vuelve un cayo en la planta de los pies... y tal vez sea eso lo que los mantenga erguidos.... pero el costo es altísimo; porque a la muerte/martirio de ese hijo, que es muerte/martirio de esa madre; se suma lo que llamamos "LA CAUSA"... ese hijo se transforma en una "causa" a seguir...... no queda demasiado espacio ni energía para un verdadero duelo, sólo de lágrimas, sin panfletos.

perdón, pero no me llevo con la política.
y ante casos así, me sale de adentro la mirada de humana.

Soy la madre de Pável.
Algo muy grande, más grande que este efímero existir me sostiene y todo me lleva a seguir luchando. En realidad a mi tampoco me gusta la política...pero a qué tipo de política me refiero? tal vez a la la misma que el lector que me antecede: la política del lucro, que deshumaniza, que mutila la condición humana, la que descontextualiza y parcializa, la que degrada, la que embilece en su ruindad mercenaria...Más bien se trata de humanizarnos, de dignificarnos. Precisamente aquí está la disyuntiva, porque ello lleva obligadamente al marco político sin querer, paradója, tal vez. Pero ante este orden mundial que pone al ser humano como objeto del cual dispone o desecha impunemente sin mediar valor ético alguno, violentando sus mismas reglas de juego en su sistema de poder...en fin, no podemos aislarnos de la política, pero hay de política a política, la suerte está echada. Porque sino, cuántos muertos y mártires más son necesarios para asumir cada quien desde su tiempo espacio, aportando un granito de arena, que Pável mi hijo no dudó nunca en dar, porque creemos y merecemos un mundo mejor.

Pdta. Nadie me asesora ni nadie me hace los escritos. Que sea sólo el sistema el que subestime la inteligencia y sapiencia humana. Pável y yo íbamos en la misma Facultad en la UNAM, yo ya soy pasante en Pedagogía, me duele concluir cuando ya no va mi hijo.
Pdta. 2: el duelo no puedo llevarlo como debiera ser, en efecto, aprendemos a vivir con el alma desgarrada, qué otra cosa me queda, si Pável dió su vida por algo grande, sin egoísmos, yo no puedo enclaustrarme. Porque mucho lapidaron su cuerpo, pero no voy a permitir que además pretendan enlodar su gran espíritu solidario. Eso me haría sentir miserable y cobarde, Pável no se lo merece. Pero no sólo es por Pável, sino por muchos más Pável que siguen en pie luchando por ese bello horizonte de vida plena al ser humano, por ellos que impunemente siguen reprimiendo, porque sino lo hago, sería cómplice del terrorismo de estado que pretende petrificarnos. Entonces, ese bello legado de luchadores estaría aún más a merced de la impunidad.
Por el amor, paz,sabiduría con humildad, legados de mi hijo Pável. Vale! Saludos y gracias.

bueno, lamento que se me haya interpretado tan mal.
no voy a decir nada más.

mis respetos a la madre de Pável.

al Pendón (¿te llamas así, ése es tu nombre y apellido?)
no puedo más que decirle que con o sin su "desprecio" no quita ni agrega nada.....
evidentemente el odio (que no es lo mismo que el dolor), enceguece y no permite leer con claridad.
El odio necesita asideros para exponerse, y los cobardes aprovechan la ocasión para ladrar.

mucho lo lamento.

mi punto de vista era (y seguirá siendo) meramente humano, despojado de toda otra circunstancia.
me preocupaba el duelo de esa madre.
me preocupaba tamaño peso.
me preocupaba su soledad, ésa que no puede compartirse, ésa que ninguna causa y ninguna muchedumbre puede paliar... ni familia, ni amigos, ni prensa, ni nada.
el dolor por el hijo perdido y nada más.

Autor: Gatopardo

¿Qué podemos hacer? ¿De qué sirve lo que yo diga y haga? La respuesta que el poder nos ha preparado para responder es "de nada", y nuestro sentimiento de impotencia, de desesperanza favorece la inactividad, el silencio: y algo que pasa por listeza en la mayoría rocía nuestra parálisis con frases como "no te metas en líos", "vive y ocúpate de lo tuyo", "no se puede hacer nada, el mundo es como es", "ya tienes bastante con lo tuyo".
Y quienes han recibido una esmerada educación burguesa, que desgaja el conocimiento de los actos y de su proyección práctica, si ha sido bien aleccionado y asumió la teoría, ofrecerá análisis momificados, hará una taxonomía, una clasificación de las respuestas y de las opciones separando cada móvil, cada emoción y cada reflexión que trate de enfrentarse a los crímenes del poder.
Y se dirá: No me gusta la política. Comprendo y me solidarizo con los deudos de todos los asesinatos del terrorismo de Estado; pero no viene a cuento hablar de política si estamos haciendo un duelo. No hay que mezclar conceptos. Porque el saber burgués es un intento quirúrgico forense que estudian y perciben seres mutilados intelectualmente, alienados, desprovistos de espíritu reflexivo, que han primado la acumulación de conocimientos sin interrelacionarlos con la realidad.
Por eso, los conocimientos que adquirimos quienes estamos en la parte de abajo de la pirámide social, sin habernos críado en la atmosfera aseptica y cómoda de los intelectuales, sin haber recibido el adiestramiento y la domesticación de los retoños de la burguesía, encarnamos y acompañamos cada acto y cada suceso de nuestra realidad, y somos incapaces de separar lo que aprendemos de lo que comprendemos.
Por eso nosotros transformaremos el mundo, y la burguesía que ha instaurado la dicotomía, la escisión mental, sólo lo podrá destrozar.
Saber los entresijos del poder, cómo asesina, cómo se perpetúa con la complicidad de de los que se refugian en su privacidad, en su pasividad, en su miedo y su egotismo, saber que no hay zona segura porque el terror que ejercen no es selectivo, sino arbitrario y ciego, y comprender de una puñetera vez que nuestros actos respecto a la comunidad de seres humanos tiene consecuencias y repercusión, aunque desconozcamos su alcance, nos libera del sentimiento paralizante de esterilidad.
Todo lo que se dice, todo lo que se calla, todo lo que se sabe y todo lo que se ignora, todo lo que pensamos y todo lo que nos negamos a elaborar forma parte de nuestra definición como ciudadanos y es política. Y quien se declara apolítico está optando politicamente por abandonar a su suerte a los que son masacrados, torturados, esclavizados, despojados de sus derechos en México, en China, en las comunidades indias de Bolivia, en Madrid, en nuestra aldea, en nuestra familia, en nuestra identidad como individuos.
Sí, Lourdes, si hubieras sido alienada convenientemente con unos conocimientos burgueses, y sus valores, llorarías y gemirías en un duelo carente de referencias a lo que lo causó, sin interrelacionar los datos, y sin sentirte parte solidaria de la humanidad que defendió y encarnó Pável. Y en vez de estudiar Pedagogía y desarrollar una labor de denuncia y de transformación, te sumirías en la neurosis estéril, te abotagarías emocionalmente, y buscarías la anestesia como liberación.

Porque hay una parte de la humanidad que reacciona como tú, se que tenemos la de ganar, y que, como tú dijiste, la "gente linda" que lucha codo con codo, a pesar del peligro, del miedo y del dolor, sé que transformará el mundo y vencerá. Y me siento orgullosa de ser vuestra aliada. No soy la única, somos miles, millones, y nuestras opciones son infinitamente más dignas y más inteligentes que la ceguera de los cultivadores de su privacidad y de su insolidaridad.
Recordad el Teorema de Bell cuando creáis que lo que digáis y hagáis no cambiará y no servirá: "cuando dos partículas interactuan, para a continuación perderse en direcciones opuestas, toda interferencia que afecta a una de las partículas incidirá ipso facto sobre la otra, con independencia de la distancia que las separe".
Mon: no hay ataque en esto que digo; sólo es un diagnóstico que hago como no-psicóloga: nunca habrá nadie mejor preparado ni más instruido para describir y desentrañar los crímenes del poder que quien parió, crió, educó y apoyó a un luchador asesinado por ellos, y la historia da miles de ejemplos.

He estado \"perdido\" estas ultimas semanas asi que ahora que tenido que volver hacía atras y releer el post anterior, este , los comentarios , el articulo tambien de Monn. Quizás si hubiera leido el post en el momento en que lo pubicaste mi comentario hubiera sido otro. No obstante en cierto modo leerlo des de la intemporalidad de la acción primera (aunque el hecho en si no lo sea nunca) me permite observar que aquello que nos une a todos es el dolor y la rábia porque en el fondo es la injustícia 8politica, social, de clases, inhumana)la que propicia el asesinato y el dolor y ante eso todos, todos, estamos unidos.
Mi abrazo , mi dèbil fuerza y mi esperanza para Lourdes González.
Mi comprensión también para Moon (de cuyo corazón no dudo)la lucha por amarnos y evitar cualquier clase de crimen y asesinato empieza por luchar contra los odios entre nuestros vecinos, entre nusetros amigos, entre nuestros familiares. Creo que no deberiamos confundir este principio con una falsa complicidad ante los crimenes de estado.
Gato cómo siempre comparto tus palabras pués siempre salen de la senzates, el analisis profundo y riguroso la sabiduria y sobretodo des del corazón.
Un beso

LOS ASESINOS SIN CASTIGO Y SUS PROTECTORES (1)

Desde hace más de treinta años, los cachorros de la burguesía mexicana, educados, y bendecidos por los sacerdotes defensores de la ortodoxia integrista, los Legionarios de Maciel y similares, son captados en la organización secreta Yunque, con el paradigma del difunto General Franco, se les entrena para exterminar a los enemigos de la civilización cristiana, y eso incluye instrucción especializada en torturas, y asesinatos tumultuarios a modo de rituales de iniciación, siguiendo el manual de los servicios de inteligencia.

Interpelación en el Senado del Diputado Oscar González Yáñez, del Grupo Parlamentario del Partido del Trabajo, para que las autoridades competentes investiguen el asesinato del estudiante de la UNAM Pável González y se descubra a los responsables:

"El día 19 de abril de este año, Pavel González salió de su casa en compañía de su padre con destino a la Ciudad Universitaria en donde Pavel estudiaba la carrera de Estudios Latinoamericanos en la Facultad de Filosofía y Letras, desde ese día su familia perdió todo contacto con él y no es sino hasta el sábado 24 de abril en que el compañero Mario González González padre del occiso recibe una llamada telefónica en donde se le informa que su hijo sufrió un accidente y que se encuentra en una Agencia del Ministerio Público de la Delegación Tlalpan en la Ciudad de México.
Al acudir a dicha Agencia se le informa que Pavel había sido encontrado muerto. Pero lo peculiar del caso es que Pavel es llevado a la parte más alta del cerro del Ajusco, la que se conoce como Pico del Águila y es colgado en una de las cruces que en esa zona existen.
Esto es lo paradójico del caso y repetimos no se trata de un crimen por quererle robar un carro, ni un crimen en un intento de secuestro o asalto con violencia, no es tampoco arrollado por un microbús o un vehículo automotor.
Pavel es secuestrado, torturado y asesinado vilmente. No obstante lo anterior los criminales son capaces de subir su cuerpo a la parte más escarpada del Cerro del Ajusco y en el Pico del Águila dejarlo. Lo agreste del terreno hace suponer que no fue una ni dos personas las que pueden cargar un cuerpo cuyo peso es de aproximadamente 60 kilogramos y además subirlo para dejarlo en la cruz.

El joven Noel Pavel González era un activista político, altermundista, simpatizante del comité a favor de los Hermanos Cerezo, así como de los productores de café orgánico en el Estado de Chiapas y miembro del Frente Zapatista de Liberación Nacional, además del Consejo General de Huelga del Sur.
Esto nos lleva a pensar que este homicidio dada sus peculiaridades entraña algo más, entraña una amenaza para quienes militan o simpatizan con las causas progresistas de este país, contra quienes se oponen al alineamiento que en materia comercial este gobierno pretende con los Estados Unidos de Norteamérica.
Además se han dado una serie de irregularidades, por ejemplo, bajo el pretexto de lo difícil del acceso al Pico del Águila el Agente del Ministerio Público no se constituye en el lugar de los hechos para dar fe del homicidio y del levantamiento del cuerpo, ni acuden los peritos forenses para la toma de las fotografías correspondientes, sino que el cuerpo es bajado por elementos de la Dirección General de Recursos Naturales (CORENA), sin la presencia del Ministerio Público, policías ministeriales o peritos forenses.
Pero además al reconocer el cuerpo de Pavel, sus padres se percatan de un sinnúmero de lesiones que el cuerpo presentaba, y el argumento que se utiliza es que el cuerpo se les cayó a los rescatistas y rodó en descenso, aproximadamente 60 metros y esa fue la causa de esos golpes, sin existir hasta el momento información forense que determine si éstos fueron en vida o post-morten.
Una vez que se conoció del homicidio de Pavel llegaron a los correos electrónicos personales de compañeros de Pavel, correos con fechas lunes 26 de abril, a las 2:29 p.m., viernes 30 de abril a las 4:17 p.m., sábado 22 de mayo a la 1:29:42 a.m. y sábado 22 de mayo a la 1:19 a.m., cuyo origen es la dirección: llanao janes yunque20008@hotmail.com, estos correos contienen amenazas en contra de los compañeros de Pavel y se les insta a dejar de investigar o como se dice en uno de ellos "manténganse alejados o correrán la misma suerte".
La existencia de estos correos electrónicos y el origen de los mismos hacen necesario un deslinde público de la organización de derecha denominada el "Yunque" y por supuesto que la instancia correspondiente de la Procuraduría General de la República en materia de delitos cibernéticos investigue y determine quien o quienes dieron de alta esta dirección electrónica y quien o quienes la utilizaron para enviar estos mensajes. (...)
Para nadie es un secreto ya que el ambiente político en México esta totalmente viciado, que como reza el refrán "A río revuelto, ganancia de pescadores", por ello es imprescindible que las instancias de procuración de justicia averigüen de manera precisa e indubitable qué fue lo que ocurrió en contra de Pavel González entre el lunes 19 de abril en el que su familia perdió contacto con él y el sábado 24 del mismo mes en el que su cuerpo es encontrado.
Pero que además se precise el porqué de las omisiones en que incurrieron los Agentes del Ministerio Público al no constituirse en el lugar de los hechos tal y como lo prescribe el Código de Procedimientos Penales para el Distrito Federal."

El texto completo de esta comparecencia en http://www.senado.gob.mx/sgsp/gaceta/?sesion=2004/07/07/1&documento=59

A la organización secreta Yunque, pertenecen los responsables de que no sean investigados los asesinatos cometidos contra los trabajadores sociales, periodistas, y militantes de izquierda, sin seguir el protocolo legal y forense en el lugar de los hechos, realizando la autopsia y los estudios anatómico-forenses pasando por alto lesiones evidentes. Como en el caso de Digna Ochoa y otros muchos, Pável fue secuestrado, tenía hematomas, equimosis, graves lesiones anales y perianales, traumatismo craneal, signos de haber sido torturado, y como en el caso de Digna, concluyeron que era suicidio.

Son miembros de Yunque :
Ramón Muñoz Gutiérrez , jefe de la Oficina de Innovación Gubernamental (no me pregunten qué innovan) de la Presidencia de la República. Ramón Muñoz ha sido enlace entre el CEN del PAN y el gobierno de Fox, y desde marzo de 2002 responsable de coordinar el gabinete presidencial con la capacidad de aprobar o vetar funcionarios.
Luis Felipe Bravo Mena , presidente del PAN , casado con Gabriela Romero Castillo también afiliada a Yunque, dirigente de la Asociación Nacional Cívica Femenina (un calco de la Sección Femenina franquista con ribetes peronistas), Yunque, hermana de Cecilia Romero , es diputada federal, actual senadora del PAN y dirigente de la Unión Nacional Cívica Femenina, casada desde mayo de 2001, con Emilio Baños Urquijo, hermano de Fernando Baños Urquijo, ex presidente del MURO y de la Guardia Unificadora Iberoamericana (GUIA), ambas fundadas por el diputado panista e ideólogo de ultraderecha Luiz Pazos .
Guillermo Velasco Arzac , ex jefe de asesores de Marta Sahagún en la coordinación de Comunicación Social de la Presidencia y ahora es el encargado de relaciones públicas de Vamos México.
En la Secretaría de Gobernación , se encuentra su director Carlos Abascal Carranza ; Francisco Salazar , subsecretario de Trabajo; Jorge Ocejo , jefe de asesores; Gerardo Mosqueda, coordinador general de delegaciones federales; Raúl Vázquez Osorio, secretario particular; Jesús Rivera Barroso , coordinador general de Planeación, y Fernando Urbiola Ledezma , director general de Presupuesto.
En la Secretaría de Desarrollo Social (Sedesol): Antonio Sánchez Díaz de Rivera, subsecretario de Desarrollo Regional; Gonzalo Robles Valdez, subsecretario; José de Jesús Castellanos, antiguo coordinador de Comunicación Social y luego, director general de la Unidad de Enlace, y Gustavo Serrano Limón, coordinador general de Servicio Social.
Otros miembros de El Yunque en la dirección del PAN son el primer secretario general de ese partido con la llegada de Bravo Mena fue Jorge Ocejo y su relevo, Manuel Espino, el secretario general adjunto, Arturo García Portillo, y el secretario de Acción Gubernamental, Julio Castellanos así como el portavoz del CEN, Miguel Ángel Vichique de Gasperín, sobrino de Mario de Gasperín.
Otros miembros son el próximo gobernador de Querétaro, Francisco Garrido Patrón, y su ex jefe de campaña, el diputado federal Alfredo Botello Montes, así como el senador Marco Antonio Adame, colaborador en materia de imagen de Carlos Medina Plascencia.
Otros notables yunquistas son el presidente del PAN en el DF José Luis Luege Tamargo, Salvador Abascal Carranza y José Paoli Bolio.
Otra prominente militante yunquista es la ex diputada federal del PRI, ex subprocuradora general de la República, María de la Luz Lima Malvido, actual representante cultural de México en Inglaterra quien junto a su esposo Luis Rodríguez Manzanera, fueron dirigentes del Movimiento Universitario de Renovadora Orientación (MURO).

"Con Espino al frente, las hordas fanáticas de El Yunque se preparan para acometer, con violencia, contra quienes juzgan sus enemigos, como ya lo han hecho, con análoga vehemencia, en otras ocasiones mediante los membretes que han controlado y controlan, como el Frente Universitario Anticomunista (FUA), el Movimiento Universitario de Renovadora Orientación (MURO), Desarrollo Humano Integral y Acción Ciudadana (DHIAC), el Comité Nacional Provida (Provida), entre otros grupos de choque.
Son los miembros de El Yunque los que lanzaron, en 1966, bombas contra el periódico El Día; los que dieron, también ese año, una paliza al periodista Miguel Angel Granados Chapa; los que prendieron fuego al Aula Magna de la Universidad Autónoma de Querétaro, en 1976; los que atacaron a los actores de Cúcara y Mácara, en 1981; los que usaban armas en la Universidad Autónoma de Puebla y en la UNAM, desde los cincuenta hasta los ochenta, para intimidar a sus adversarios; los que lanzaron pintura roja contra el obispo Sergio Méndez Arceo; los que destruyeron la muestra en el Museo de Arte Moderno, en 1988; los que reventaron la convención del PAN de 1976...
Son los mismos, sólo que ahora de mayor edad y provistos de abundante poder político y económico. Nunca han depuesto su capacidad para la difamación, la calumnia y el odio, no sólo contra los intelectuales, sino contra cualquier ciudadano que los enferma porque no está atado a dogmas como ellos.
Por ello, si quienes en el PAN deponen de los principios y, en cambio, se someten a la idea del exterminio que fomenta la extrema derecha, que encarnan Espino y sus secuaces, entonces los ciudadanos libres estamos obligados a fijar una posición inequívoca frente a la barbarie.
La historia no recomienda otra cosa: No se puede ser tolerante contra los intolerantes. Y ante la espada que empuña El Yunque, las ideas."

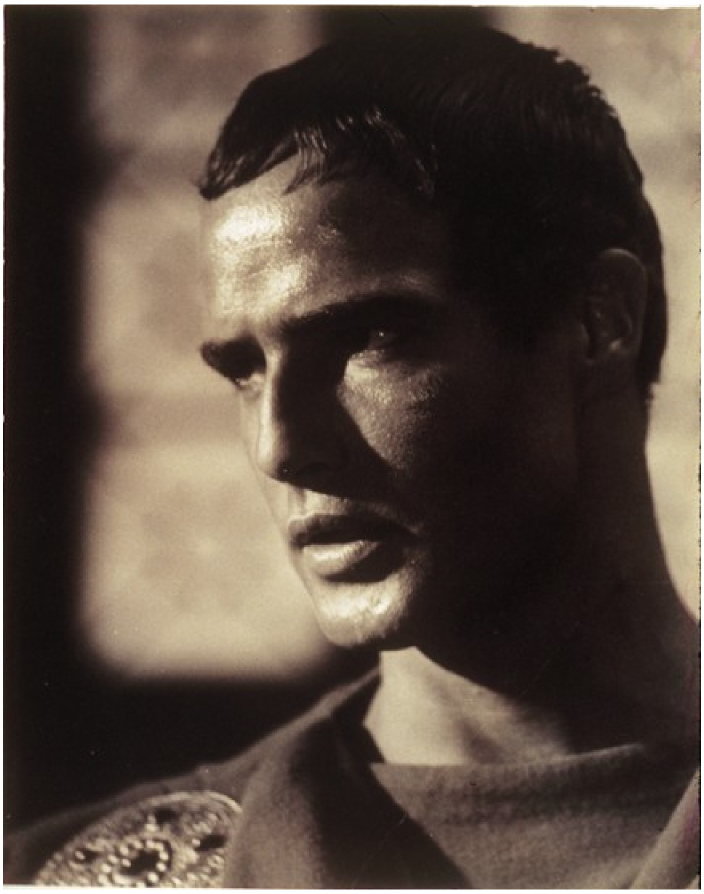
DISCURSO DE MARCO ANTONIO



(Marco Antonio se dirige al pueblo romano congregado en el Foro, llevando en brazos el cadáver de César, apuñalado por los libertadores, encabezados por Casio y Bruto. Los ciudadanos rugen de alegría por la muerte del tirano y abuchean a Marco Antonio, el mejor amigo de Julio César)

Antonio: Amigos, romanos, compatriotas, escuchadme: he venido a enterrar a César, no a ensalzarlo. El mal que hacen los hombres les sobrevive; el bien suele quedar sepultado con sus huesos. Que así ocurra con César Bruto os ha dicho que César era ambicioso: si lo fue, era la suya una falta grave,y gravemente la ha pagado. Por la benevolencia de Bruto y de los demás, pues Bruto es un hombre de honor, como lo son todos, he venido a hablar en el funeral de César.
Fue mi amigo, fiel y justo conmigo; pero Bruto dice que era ambicioso. Bruto es un hombre honorable. Trajo a Roma muchos prisioneros de guerra, cuyos rescates llenaron el tesoro público. ¿Puede verse en esto la ambición de César? Cuando el pobre lloró, César lo consoló. La ambición suele estar hecha de una aleación más dura. Pero Bruto dice que era ambicioso y Bruto es un hombre de honor.
Todos visteis que, en las Lupercales, le ofrecí tres veces una corona real, y tres veces la rechazó. ¿Eso era ambición? Pero Bruto dice que era ambicioso y es indudable que Bruto es un hombre de honor.
No hablo para desmentir lo que Bruto dijo, sino que estoy aquí para decir lo que sé Todos le amasteis alguna vez, y no sin razón. ¿Que razón, entonces, os impide ahora hacerle el duelo? ¡Ay, raciocinio te has refugiado entre las bestias, y los hombres han perdido la razón!... Perdonadme. Mi corazón está ahí, en esos despojos fúnebres, con César, y he de detenerme hasta que vuelva en mí...

Primer ciudadano: Creo que hay mucha sabiduría en lo que dice
Segundo ciudadano: Si te paras a pensarlo, César cometió un gran error
Tercer ciudadano: ¿Ah, si? Me temo que alguien peor ocupará su lugar.
Cuarto ciudadano: ¿Le has prestado atención? No creo que él quisiera tomar la corona. Y por lo tanto, no era un ambicioso.
Primer ciudadano: Y si se descubriera que lo fue… algunos lo soportaríamos.
Segundo ciudadano: Pobrecillo, sus ojos están rojos como el fuego de llorar…
Tercer ciudadano: No hay nadie más noble en Roma que Antonio.
Cuarto ciudadano: Préstale atención, que empieza a hablar otra vez.
Antonio: Ayer la palabra de César hubiera prevalecido contra el mundo. Ahora yace ahí y nadie hay lo suficientemente humilde como para reverenciarlo.¡Oh, señores! Si tuviera el propósito de excitar a vuestras mentes y vuestros corazones al motín y a la cólera, sería injusto con Bruto y con Casio, quienes, como todos sabéis, son hombres de honor. No quiero ser injusto con ellos. Prefiero serlo con el muerto, conmigo y con vosotros, antes que con esos hombres tan honorables!
Pero aquí hay un pergamino con el sello de César. Lo encontré en su gabinete. Es su testamento. Si se hiciera público este testamento que, perdonadme, no tengo intención de leer, irían a besar las heridas de César muerto y a empapar sus pañuelos en su sagrada sangre. Sí. Suplicarían un cabello suyo como reliquia, y al morir lo mencionaría en su testamento, como un rico legado a su posteridad!
Cuarto ciudadano: Queremos escuchar el testamento. Léelo, Marco Antonio Todos los ciudadanos: ¡El testamento!. ¡El testamento! Queremos escuchar el testamento del César.
Antonio: Tened paciencia, amigos. No debo leerlo. No es conveniente que sepáis hasta que extremo os amó César. No estáis hechos de madera, no estáis hechos de piedra, sois hombres, y, como hombres, si oís el testamento de César os vais a enfurecer, os vais a volver locos. No es bueno que sepáis que sois sus herederos, pues si lo supierais, podría ocurrir cualquier cosa.
Cuarto ciudadano: Lee el testamento. Queremos escucharlo, Antonio: debes leernos el testamento, el testamento de Cesar.
Antonio: ¿Queréis tener paciencia? ¿Queréis esperar un momento? He ido demasiado lejos en deciros esto. Temo agraviar a los honorables hombres cuyos puñales traspasaron a César. ¡Lo temo!
Cuarto ciudadano: ¡Esos hombres honorables son unos traidores!
Todos los ciudadanos:¡El testamento! ¡El testamento!
Segundo ciudadano: ¡Son unos miserables asesinos! ¡El testamento! ¡Lee el testamento!
Antonio: ¿Me obligáis a que lea el testamento? En ese caso, formad círculo en torno al cadáver de César, y dejadme mostraros al que hizo el testamento.¿Bajo? ¿Me dais vuestro permiso?
Todos los ciudadanos: ¡Baja!
Segundo ciudadano: ¡Baja!
Tercer ciudadano: ¡Tienes permiso!
Cuarto ciudadano: Acercaos, haced un círculo.
Primer ciudadano: Haced sitio al cadáver.
Segundo ciudadano: Haced sitio al noble Antonio.
Antonio: ¡No me empujéis! ¡Alejaos!
Todos: ¡Atrás, atrás!
Antonio: Si tenéis lágrimas, preparaos a derramarlas. Todos conocéis este manto.Recuerdo la primera vez que César se lo puso. Era una tarde de verano, en su tienda, el día que venció a los nervos. ¡Mirad: por aquí penetró el puñal de Casio! ¡Ved que brecha abrió el envidioso Casca! ¡Por esta otra le apuñaló su muy amado Bruto! Y al retirar su maldito acero, observad como la sangre de César lo siguió, como si abriera de par en par para cerciorarse si Bruto, malignamente, la hubiera llamado.Porque Bruto, como sabéis, era el ángel de César. ¡Juzgad, oh dioses, con que ternura le amaba César! ¡Ese fue el golpe más cruel de todos, porque cuando el noble César vio que él lo apuñalaba, la ingratitud, más fuerte que las armas de los traidores, lo aniquiló completamente. Entonces estalló su poderoso corazón, y, cubriéndose el rostro con el manto, el gran César cayó a los pies de la estatua de Pompeyo, al pie de la cual se desangró...¡Oh qué funesta caída, conciudadanos! En aquel momento, yo, y vosotros, y todos, caímos, mientras la sangrienta traición nos sumergía. Ahora lloráis, y me doy cuenta que empezáis a sentir piedad. Esas lágrimas son generosas. Almas compasivas: ¿por qué lloráis, si sólo habéis visto la desgarrada túnica de César?

Mirad aquí. Aquí está, desfigurado, como veis, por los traidores.

Primer ciudadano: ¡Penoso espectáculo!
Segundo ciudadano: ¡Ay, noble César!
Tercer ciudadano: ¡Funesto día!
Cuarto ciudadano: ¡Traidores! ¡Miserables!
Primer ciudadano: ¡Sangrienta visión!
Segundo ciudadano: ¡Queremos venganza!
Todos: ¡Venganza! ¡Juntos! Perseguidlos, quemadlos, matadlos, degolladlos, no dejar un traidor vivo!
Antonio: ¡Conteneos, ciudadanos!
Primer ciudadano: ¡Calma! ¡Escuchemos al noble Antonio!
Segundo ciudadano: Lo escucharemos, lo seguiremos y moriremos por él Antonio: Amigos, queridos amigos: que no sea yo quien os empuje al motín. Los que han consumado esta acción son hombres dignos. Desconozco qué secretos agravios tenían para hacer lo que hicieron. Ellos son sabios y honorables, y no dudo que os darán razones. No he venido, amigos, a excitar vuestras pasiones. Yo no soy orador como Bruto, sino, como todos sabéis, un hombre franco y sencillo, que quería a mi amigo, y eso lo saben muy bien los que me permitieron hablar de él en público. Porque no tengo ni talento, ni elocuencia, ni mérito, ni estilo, ni ademanes, ni el poder de la oratoria para enardecer la sangre de los hombres. Hablo llanamente y sólo digo lo que vosotros mismos sabéis.Os muestro las heridas del amado César, pobres, pobres bocas mudas, y les pido que ellas hablen por mí. Pues si yo fuera Bruto, y Bruto Antonio, ese Antonio exasperaría vuestras almas y pondría una lengua en cada herida de César capaz de conmover y amotinar los cimientos de Roma.

Todos: Nos amotinaremos.
Primer ciudadano: ¡Quemaremos la casa de Bruto!
Tercer ciudadano: ¡Vamos, pues, persigamos a los conspiradores!
Antonio: Escuchadme, ciudadanos. Escuchadme lo que tengo que decir.
Todos: ¡Alto! Escuchemos al noble Antonio.
Antonio: ¡Pero, amigos, no sabéis lo que vais a hacer! ¿Qué ha hecho César para merecer vuestro afecto? No lo sabéis. Yo os lo diré. Habéis olvidado el testamento de que os hablé.
Todos: ¡Es verdad, el testamento! Esperemos a oír el testamento.
Antonio: Aquí está, con el sello de César. A todos y cada uno de los ciudadanos de Roma, lega setenta y cinco dracmas.
Ciudadano segundo: ¡Noble César! ¡Vengaremos su muerte!
Tercer ciudadano: ¡Oh, magnánimo César!
Antonio: Tened paciencia y escuchadme:
Todos: ¡Alto!
Antonio: Lega, además, todos sus paseos, sus quintas particulares y sus jardines, recién plantados a este lado del Tíber. Los deja a perpetuidad a vosotros y a vuestros herederos, como parques públicos, para que os paseéis y recreéis.
¡Éste sí que era un César! ¿Cuando tendréis otro como él?

Si existe una personalidad apasionante en la antigüedad, pocos pueden negar que ésta sea la Cayo Julio César.

El Julio César de Shakespeare debería estudiarse en cualquier asignatura de retórica. Es un auténtico monumento a la manipulación de la masa (como queda claro en este fragmento).

En el foro, imagino que fue Augusto, se construyó un templo dedicado a él. Hoy día, no se puede decir que sea uno de los edificios más bellos ni de los mejor conservados de Roma. Pero siempre me ha llamado la atención que manos desconocidas, cuando los idus de marzo se aproximan, dejan flores todavía en su memoria.

¡Qué listo fue Marco Antonio!
Inteligente y fiel amigo.
Por él, la República no pudo resurgir y nació el Imperio.

Lo bueno de Shakespeare es que siempre deja la puerta abierta a la libre opinión, a la posibilidad de ver las cosas con distintos ojos.

Un abrazo.

Desde el punto de vista de Shakespeare y Suetonio, la muerte de César es consecuencia de la acumulación de poderes sobre sí, que hace peligrar la estructura de poder de Roma, y Bruto, después de matar a Julio César dice que lo hizo "no porque amase menos a César, sino porque amaba a Roma más." Los conjurados actuan contra el despotismo, como libertadores y en defensa de las instituciones, y del poder del Senado, por sentido del honor cívico.
Leyendo a Suetonio, y a Séneca, no he encontrado que se mencione como dato relevante sus amoríos, que fueron numerosos y poco ortodoxos, hasta el punto que un poeta satírico de la época, cuyo nombre no recuerdo, decía de él que era el mayor amante de las mujeres y la mejor mujer de sus amantes. Pero en la Roma de su época esto no tenía las connotacíones morales que el cristianismo le ha dado, y hasta una época muy reciente los historiadores no han mencionado que tuviera alguna importancia que, entre todos sus hijos habidos de diferentes mujeres, estuviera el hijo habido con Cleopatra, que más pareciera una garantía de continuidad para mantener a Egipto como aliado en el futuro, ya que el sucesor se educába en Roma.
Pero seguramente será una idea que me he hecho con más base literaria que histórica.
Cuéntamelo, Luis, por favor, que tengo mis libros en cajas.
Alimaña: ahora que me lo recuerdas: tú quedaste en hacerme un bonito reportaje sobre el 80º aniversario de la reina de Inglaterra: mándamelo sin tardanza.

...Por consideración hacia ti, Gatopardo, daré una somera explicación de lo que es una lección de historia documentada y fácil de comprobar, si a uno de verdad le interesa el tema.
César derrotó a Pompeyo en Egipto. Allí conoció a Cleoptara y mantuvo una relación amorosa con ella de la que nació Cesarión, que enseguida su madre asoció al trono, es decir, de recién nacido.
Los enemigos de César, Bruto entre ellos, aprovecharon este hecho en su contra. El discurso que recoges tiene lugar cuando Marco Antonio, fiel amigo de Julio César, arenga al foro para defender y ensalzar los valores de su difunto amigo.
Aquí es cuando sale a la palestra Octavio Augusto, hijo adoptivo de Julio César que, dentro de ese ambiente de negociación (por llamarlo de algún modo) y lucha por el poder forma un nuevo triunvirato, el segundo. A Marco Antonio le destinan a Asia y allí cae prendido de la bella Cleopatra. Octavio intentó ganársele e incluso consiguió que Marco Antonio se casara con una hermana suya, pero acabó regresando junto a la faraona, por lo que Octavio entonces fue decidido a por ellos; su objetivo era el poder absoluto del Imperio. Aquí la historia oficial cuenta que Cleopatra y Marco Antonio se suicidaron, aunque distintas corrientes históricas contemplan la nada desechable posibilidad de que fueran asesinados o mandados asesinar por Octavio Augusto. Por cierto, Bruto acabó suicidándose también; y el propio Octavio se encargó de acabar con la vida del pequeño Cesarión, de apenas cuatro años.
El cristianismo no tiene parte en esto, aunque ya andaba cerquita, pero tanto el amor al prójimo como el odio, el crimen o la traición existían ya antes de los romanos.
...A veces es mejor no abrir la boca, pero es inevitable para algunos: la red se presta a estas salidas de pata de banco gratuítas. Si a partir de aquí se pretende emparentar a las momias con los príncipes de Gales, pasando por los cerros de Úbeda allá cada cual. Entiendo que el aburrimiento, la ignorancia, las ganas de polémica fácil y divertimento a costa de otros, hacen estragos. Pero disculpen que no entre a estas paparruchadas y siga a lo mío; pasaba por aquí...

UN SALUDO, GATOPARDO:

Autor: Gatopardo

Sí, Luis, vamos a centrarnos en el asesinato de César y la guerra civil que se desata a continuación. El punto de vista del historiador no deja de estar impregnado de las referencias culturales de la época en que vive, y por eso, al no encontrar en los historiadores contemporáneos de Julio César referencias que den importancia alguna a los amoríos, sino a la concentración de poderes que, desvirtúa la esencia de la república romana y de sus instituciones, es por lo que me preguntaba si no será una interpretación muy subjetiva de los historiadores posteriores, la que considere como causa desencadenante "casarse y tener un hijo con la reina de una potencia extranjera."

Cleopatra no es un personaje que se limite a acostarse con Marco Antonio, sino que establece una alianza política, conspira y forma parte de una conjura para luchar contra el poder hegemónico de Roma, junto a Marco Antonio, pero también a pesar de él.
Cleopatra era lo que posteriormente se ha llamado "un hombre de Estado" y como tal, usó todas las armas, incluidas las de sus ejercitos.
Pero ya te digo que tiro de recueros viejos y de conclusiones, tal vez literarias y no históricas.
Un abrazo, Tamargo, y gracias por tus explicaciones

Eminencia: Cuando hable de "someras explicaciones" procure que no sean cimeras tonterías:
1. Tenga a bien facilitarnos las fuentes historiográficas en las que se apoyan sus memeces y no hable de dar "lecciones de historia documentada" cuando sus conocimientos se apoyan en "una de romanos" donde salía Liz Taylor, que estaba de toma pan y moja.
2. No se puede afirmar que Cesarión fuera hijo de César. Plutarco lo afirma, pero Suetonio lo niega. En Divvus Iulius,52 dice: " ...denique accitam in urbem non nisi maximos honoribus praemiisque auctam remisit filiumque natum appellare nomine suo passus est" Confío en que su eminencia gris entienda el valor de "passus est". La identidad del padre de Cesarión era, en vida de César, cuestión muy debatida:
"Quem quidem nonnulli Graecorum similem quoque Caesari et forma et incessu traditerunt. M. Antonius adgnitum etiam ab eo senatui adfirmauit, quae scire C. Matium et C. Oppium reliquosque Caesaris amicos; quorum Caius Oppius, quasi plane defensione ac patrocinio res egeret, librum edidit, non esse Caesaris filium, quem Cleopatra dicat" (Ibid.,) ¿Le queda claro a su eminencia ?
3. Este Cesarion, tuviera por progenitor a Cesar o a un acemilero, no tiene importancia política ninguna. La que usted se ha inventado, díganos de dónde la ha sacado. ¿En Lucano? ¿Qué texto? Octavio lo degolló, pero también hizo lo mismo con Antonio, hijo de Antonio y Fulvia.
4. Octavio no quería la muerte de Cleopatra:"Cleopatrae, quam seruatam triumpho magnopere cupiebat, etiam psyllos admouit, qui uenenum ac uirus exugerent, quod perisse morsu aspidis putabatur"
Y a los hijos que había tenido con Antonio, lejos de considerarlos pretendientes multiculturales al trono, "non secus ac necessitudine iunctos sibi et conseruauit et mox pro condicione cuiusque sustinuit ac fouit" (Ibid.,) ¿De qué pozo de ignorancia ha sacado usted la hipótesis del heredero que provocaba desvelos en Roma? Diga fuentes.

5. Sobre el consuelo que, siempre según su eminencia, Marco Antonio ofrece a Cleopatra, mire usted lo que dice el mismo Marco Antonio en una carta a Augusto :"Quid te mutauit? quod reginam ineo? uxor mea est. Nunc coepi an abhinc annos nouem? tu deinde solam Drusillam inis? ita ualeas, uti tu, hanc epistulam cum leges, non inieris Tertullam aut Terentillam aut Rufillam aut Saluiam Titinesiam aut omnes. An refert, ubi et in qua arrigas? (Ibiod.,69)
6. Como no tengo tiempo de estar contestando todas las tonterias que a usted le pasen por esa cabeza, le ruego deje en paz a Shakespeare, porque no me voy a pasar otro ratito explicándole que Shakespeare alteró y comprimio el relato de su fuente histórica con fines dramaticos.
¿Vale? que decían los romanos.

¡Vaya, vaya! César representaba a una facción del patriciado que tuvo la visión del alcance de los cambios que traía la expansión imperial. Roma ya no podía ser gobernada por una aristocracia municipal que miraba la realidad con las anteojeras de hacía un siglo. César se apoya en la plebe y en las conquistas de sus legionarios para alzarse con todo el poder y someter a las viejas familias a una instancia política de nuevo cuño.

Bruto dice que Cesar murio por su ambicion y Marco Antonio les dice que todos somos ambiciosos y por lo tanto se justifica la venganza sea la muerte del honorable Bruto Antonio, quien mato al no menos honorable Julio Cesar.Es cierto que ambos discurso son ejemplos clasicos de los estilos atico y asiatico de la oratoria.

Pau: como bien decís Marco Antonio era un fiel amigo de César, Inteligente, Listo. Atributos todos ellos que comparto.
Pienso que era todo ello y además ambicioso. Siempre he pensado en los minutos desde que encuentra su cadáver y lo lleva cargando hasta el foro. Los pensamiento y emociones ciertas de vengar al amigo muerto, además de recibir para sí los beneficios secundarios de la muerte de su amigo. Esa ambigüedad, tan humana, lo reviste. En cambio Bruto me parece más al héroe trágico o romántico, muere por la república de Roma. Acometer su martirio arrojadose sobre la espada de Casio. Escribo desde el punto de vista literario interpretativo. No quiero herir susceptibilidades bien documentadas.

¿QUÉ DECÍA LA JERARQUÍA CATÓLICA SOBRE LOS CRÍMENES DE LA DICTADURA ARGENTINA?

A finales del 1976, la Iglesia podía estar segura de que los represores ganarían, por lo que la jerarquía católica dio su abierto apoyo al Gobierno Videla, a pesar de que muchos de sus sacerdotes y monjas fueran víctimas de los escuadrones de la muerte.
Los represores secuestraban a los que llamaban "subversivos", que eran:
-Los que ayudaban en las villas-miseria.
-Los que reivindicaban mejoras laborales y salariales.
-Los estudiantes más activos de los centros de enseñanza media y de las universidades.
-Los periodistas en desacuerdo con los represores, que se atrevieran a manifestarlo en algún artículo.
-Los psicólogos y los sociólogos, por pertenecer a profesiones "sospechosas"
-Las monjas y sacerdotes que llevaban sus enseñanzas y su ayuda a las villas-miserias.
--Los amigos de cualquiera de todas estas personas, y los amigos de estos amigos.
-Cualquiera que preguntara por un secuestrado.
En mayo de 1977, por iniciativa del presidente Videla, la Conferencia Episcopal Argentina recibió a los generales Viola, jefe de Estado Mayor del Ejército, Jáuregui y Martínez (responsables de los servicios de inteligencia). Al finalizar la reunión Monseñor Ildefonso Sanserra de San Juan informó a la prensa:
-"... los señores militares nos informaron con amplitud sobre la situación actual del país en el marco de la actividad defensiva y ofensiva contra la guerrilla subversiva, que se nos ha impuesto desde adentro y afuera de nuestro territorio... al término de la exposición de los generales hubo un intercambio de ideas en un clima verdaderamente cristiano y patriótico..."
Como demuestra la cita anterior, todo era considerado en un clima cristiano y patriótico: existía una verdadera alianza, los genocidas eran defensores de la Fe de igual modo que eran defensores de la patria. En diciembre del 77, Monseñor Victorio Bonamín en una conferencia en la Universidad Nacional del Litoral dice:
-"Es una lucha por la República Argentina, por su integridad, pero también por sus altares... esta lucha es una lucha en defensa de la moral, de la dignidad del hombre, es una lucha en defensa de Dios... por ello pido la protección divina en esta guerra sucia en que estamos empeñados..."
¿Podría tomarse la declaración anterior como una prueba de que fue una Guerra Santa?
En noviembre de 1977, Monseñor Victorio Bonamín, obispo castrense, había dicho:
-"... si pudiera hablar con el gobierno, le diría que debemos permanecer firmes en las posiciones que estamos tomando: hay que desestimar las denuncias extranjeras sobre desapariciones..."

Acotar que su propio sobrino fue detenido, torturado y desaparecido. Monseñor Bonamín, a pesar de su enorme influencia en la cúpula del gobierno militar argentino, no movió un dedo por cambiar la suerte del muchacho.
Durante el siguiente año se sintieron tan eufóricos que hasta el Monseñor Sansierra se daba el lujo de bromear. El 31 de enero del 78 dijo:
-"... Yo voy a la cárcel y me dejan salir siempre. Nunca me quedo adentro..."

Las Investigaciones
Durante el año 77 se sintieron fuertes y triunfantes y la Iglesia tenia razón de gozo...
El 26 de mayo de 1978 Monseñor Romulo Garcia de Mar del Plata defendía la represión de una manera cristiana:
-"... las denuncias sobre violaciones a los derechos humanos son campañas improvisadas y organizadas por quienes niegan la libertad..."
En el año 1979, comenzaba a sentirse la presión extranjera, debido a las violaciones de los derechos humanos. Investigaciones internacionales estaban descubriendo el reino del terror.
El 11 de septiembre de 1979, el Monseñor Octavio N. Densi, obispo auxiliar del Plata y Rector de la Universidad Católica Argentina, se siente personalmente afectado por las investigaciones internacionales, y dice:
-"... la Comisión Internacional de Derechos Humanos no debería haber venido, el gobierno, con gran generosidad, la ha aceptado... una comisión extranjera no debería venir a tomarnos examen..."- y también: "... la Argentina es uno de los países donde hay más tranquilidad y donde los derechos humanos están más respetados. No veo que, en este momento, en la Argentina se encarcele, se mate, se atropellen los derechos humanos... "
Monseñor Guillermo Bolatti, de Rosario, es más contundente el día 13 de septiembre de 1979:
-"... cada país debe regular los derechos humanos, no deben ser los extranjeros (la CIDH) los que nos vengan a indicar lo que tenemos que hacer..."
Para mostrar el apoyo del Vaticano a la dictadura militar en el gobierno, Monseñor Parodio, destinado en el Vaticano, en su visita a Mar del Plata declara:
-"... ahora se comprende mejor a la Argentina... en Europa hay quienes siempre buscan lo negativo... aquí el rostro de la Argentina se ve más positivamente..."
En diciembre de 1979 los crímenes eran demasiado grandes como para ocultarlos, y empezaban a reconocerlos y justificarlos. Monseñor Antonio Quarracino, de Avellaneda, futuro presidente CEA y cardenal de Buenos Aires dice:
-"... En una situación de guerra, los argumentos y los límites éticos entran en un cono de sombra y oscuridad..."
En marzo de 1981 Monseñor Bonamín en la Casa Rosada y junto a Videla dice:
-"... Los miembros de la Junta Militar serán glorificados por las generaciones futuras..."
En abril de 1982 Monseñor Miguel Medina, vicario General de las Fuerzas Armadas declara:
-"... Algunas veces, la represión física es necesaria, es obligatoria y como tal, lícita..."
El 11 de agosto de 1982, después de haber sufrido las humillantes y justas derrotas en el Atlántico Sur, Monseñor Medina declara:
-"... es un honor para la Argentina tener la calidad de estas Fuerzas Armadas..."

PRESIDENCIA DE LA NACIÓN

El papa Juan Pablo II con el general Galtieri y el almirante Jorge Anaya en 1982, en su visita a la Argentina durante la guerra de Malvinas.

Llamada a la Impunidad

El 19 de noviembre de 1982 Monseñor Juan Carlos Aramburu, Arzobispo de Buenos Aires, declara en "Il Messagero" de Roma.

-"... en Argentina no hay fosas comunes y a cada cadáver le corresponde un ataúd. Todo se registró regularmente en los correspondientes libros..."

Ya en abril del 83, con el país en crisis y con la justicia a la vista, Monseñor Quarracino declara.

-"... es necesaria una ley que yo llamo de olvido, porque si no, no le veo solución. Si no es así, se envenenará más la sociedad Argentina..." ¿No les recuerda algo este argumento, las tesis de algunos sobre los asesinatos y las fosas comunes -aún por investigar- en España?

EL 15 de abril podemos ver una especie de revisionismo cuando Monseñor Quarracino declara:
-"... no hay que dejarse engañar, hay supuestos desaparecidos que están fuera del país.... hay gente que no figura en las listas, que están en otros lugares de América Latina indocumentados y pasan para mucha gente como si fueran desaparecidos... si son indocumentados y están fuera del país, por algo será, pero me consta que los hay.."
El 2 de mayo, Monseñor Quarracino declara sobre la ley de autoamnistía:
-"... es valiente y está bien hecha... las protestas individuales de algunos obispos argentinos sobre el contenido del documento son individuales y en consecuencia no pueden ser tomadas tan en cuenta como la opinión de la Conferencia Episcopal Argentina..."
Al aceptar el cargo como presidente constitucional el Doctor Raúl Alfonsin, el Documento de la C. E. A. "Democracia, responsabilidad y esperanza" dice:
-"... el episcopado argentino pudo no acertar todo lo que dijo e hizo. Los obispos somos hombres limitados; pero podemos afirmar que siempre procuramos obrar y hablar de acuerdo a los dictados de nuestra conciencia de pastores..."
Muchos sacerdotes se quedaron con sed de sangre y guerra. Se sentían frustrados al no haber podido aniquilar a todos sus opositores, como en las inquisiciones y genocidios de antaño.
El 23 de enero de 1984 el Monseñor Carlos Mariano Pérez, de Salta dijo:
-"... hay que erradicar a las Madres de Plaza de Mayo y a los organismos de derechos humanos que pertenecen a una organización internacional, lo mismo hay que terminar con la exhumación de cadáveres NN que es una infamia para la sociedad..."
El 30 de julio de 1984, el representante de Cristo, Padre Christian Von Wernich, capellán de la Policía de Buenos Aires y actual párroco en Bragado, declaró a la revista "Siete Días".
-"... que me digan que Camps torturó a un negrito que nadie conoce, vaya y pase, pero cómo iba a torturar a Jacobo Timerman, un periodista sobre el cual hubo una constante y decisiva presión mundial... ¡que si no fuera por eso!..."
Monseñor Plaza fue siempre fiel a sus principios. El 21 de mayo de 1985 declara sobre el juicio a los excomandantes asi:
-"... es una revancha de la subversión y una porquería. Se trata de un Nuremberg al revés, en el cual los criminales están juzgando a los que vencieron al terrorismo..." Este hombre de carácter murió en 1989, habiendo recibido los Santos Sacramentos y la Bendición Apostólica de Su Santidad.
El 23 de Octubre de 1991 "La Nación" informa:
"Todos se sintieron llamados por el Papa. Festejo en la Nunciatura: El presidente Menem y el nuncio apostólico Ubaldo Calabresi brindaron con champaña por los trece años del papado de Karol Wojtyla. A cincuenta metros del sillón Luis XV en el que hablaban los dos, los ex presidentes Videla y Viola mantenían un diálogo junto a los ventanales de la Nunciatura. En el mismo salón conversaban Leopoldo Galtieri, Basilio Lami Dozo y Emilio Massera. La senadora Saadi conversaba con el obispo Jorge Casaretto y, después, con Gerardo Sofovich..."
El Papa apoyo todas las actitudes criminales de todos los Obispos, Monseñores y curas varios en la Argentina. Cuando un grupo de familiares de desaparecidos viajo al Vaticano, pidiendo ayuda para encontrar a sus seres queridos, el Papa no los recibió.
El 2 de mayo de 1995 Monseñor Edgardo Storni de Santa Fe declaraba:
-"... La Iglesia no necesita hacer ningún examen de conciencia y mucho menos pedir perdón a la sociedad Argentina..."
Monseñor Edgardo Storni, obispo de Santa Fé, actualmente está separado del cargo, aunque sobradamente protegido por la curia argentina, ante las gravísimas acusaciones de pederastia que pesan en su contra.

Gatopardo:
Impresionante documento que voy a imprimer para guardarlo junto a los libros y publicaciones que tratan estos temas.
En realidad, a lo largo de la historia ¿cuando ha estado la Iglesia al lado del débil y el necesitado?. Poder y dinero, dinero y poder es lo que ha buscado y obtenido por medio de guerras, torturas, autos de fe y terribles amenzas infernales.
No hay más que ver que hicieron con las órdenes mendicantes o con los cátaros o con los suyos que se atrevían a criticar el sistema.
Cunado los pueblos expoliados por los poderosos se morían de hambre, la iglesia aún los extorsionaban más para edificar palacios para sus queridas y compra de tierras y títulos nobliarios para sus familiares. Un reciente ejemplo es "San" José M. Escribá (con b) "de Balaguer" que cambió y adornó sus apellidos y después se compro un título de marqués.
También puede traerse a colación la "gran ayuda" que prestó Pio XII al pueblo judio. En fín, tema asqueroso.
Gracias por el artículo.

El arzobispo Edgardo Storni, ponía a Dios como aval para convencer a los seminaristas de la bondad de sus abusos sexuales: fue procesado judicialmente en agosto de 2002 acusado de haber abusado sexualmente de al menos una cincuentena de jovencitos, todos ellos seminaristas. El Vaticano le investigó por esta misma conducta en 1994, pero silenció su expediente. En el momento de cerrar la edición de este libro, a principios de septiembre de 2002, en el Vaticano se había adoptado la decisión de removerlo de su cargo, pero hasta octubre de 2002, tras su procesamiento, no lo hizo.
A raíz de un capítulo destapando el asunto, en el libro "Nuestra Santa Madre" de la periodista Olga Wornat, el comunicado oficial de la Conferencia Episcopal Argentina afirma que "se ofende al obispo y la iglesia".

Muy interesante post. La Iglesia Católica jugó un papel nefasto en la época de la dictadura, parecido al que asumieron en la Croacia de Ante Pavelich cuando los hitlerianos atacaron Yugoslavia. Sin embargo no hay que olvidar que la oposición, los montoneros y todas las organizaciones que componían la "Tendencia", provenían del catolicismo de base. También es preciso recordar que dos obispos fueron asesinados por la dictadura por su "opción preferencial" por los pobres: Ponce de León, el de mi diócesis, y Angelelli, de la Rioja, que murieron en "accidentes" simulados al más puro estilo mafioso. Saludos.

Buena colección de joyitas. Impresionante recopilación de los rebuznos de otra jerarquia mas; estoy pensando en banqueros, politicos y demás fauna mimética que se adapta al medio para medrar pase lo que pase.
El problema fundamental de esa Iglesia es el sexual, los demás los soluciona "divinamente".

Lamentable y triste. Primero por que todo sucedio a sabiendas del resto del planeta, igual que en España, durante la dictadura de otro mal nacido y sus perros, algunos de ellos aun en el poder. Sin ser ya no juzgados y condenados, sino como minimo , implicados, cuestionados... Pero hoy sigue sucediendo sin que nadie haga nada. Palestina, Libano, Corea del Norte, Yemen, ... y un largo etc. Personas desaparecidas, calladas a la fuerza por ser activistas de una causa, por expresar en voz alta lo que sienten, por ser mujer, por ser pobre, por ser niña, les da igual, el poder no tiene prejuicios, mata cualquier amenaza de evolucion.De la ignorancia y el olvido se alimenta.

No se trata solamente de un episodio triste y lamentable. Se trata más bien de una posición política tomada firmemente por la iglesia en época de la guerra fría. No hay que olvidar que las dictaduras en América latina tenían un régimen de terrorismo de Estado, no sólo no denunciado por EE.UU. si no que de muchas maneras apoyado política y económicamente por ese país. El miedo de EE.UU., de la Iglesia y de las FF.AA. era el avance del comunismo en sudamérica. Toda actividad que tendiera al servicio social, la preocupación por el prójimo, la rebelión frente al abuso, etc. eran vistos como accionar protocomunista. Claro que comunismo era una palabra peligrosa, y el discurso oficial la reemplazaba por subversión, para no dar ideas a alguno. La iglesia es uno más de los ricos Estados del mundo (con ventajas y prerrogativas que los demás no tienen) y como tal actúa sólo en pos de sus intereses. Eso de ayudar al prójimo es una falacia.

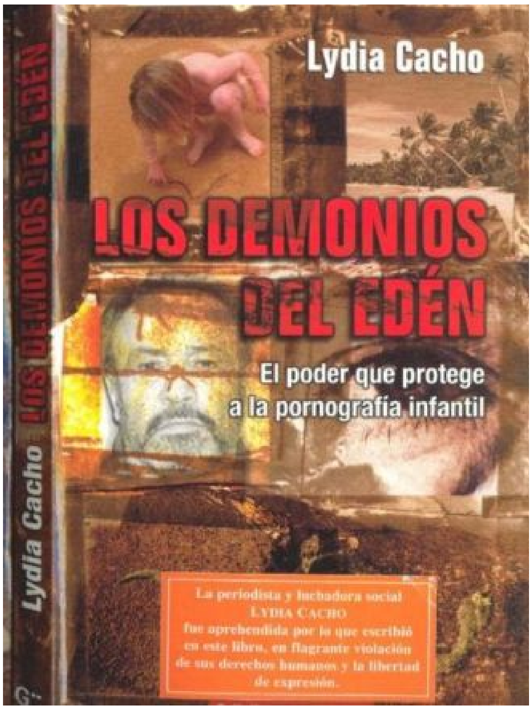
LUCHA CONTRA LA IMPUNIDAD

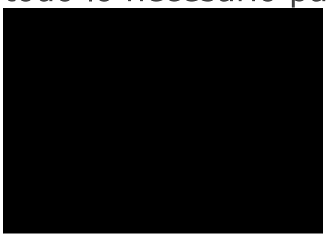


Diario de Yucatán, México Tres mujeres, un camino. 15 de abril de 2006

Autor: Jorge Zepeda Patterson

Por distintas razones, tres mujeres están en camino de cambiar la manera de impartir justicia en nuestro país. Las tres decidieron que el Estado de derecho no es una graciosa concesión de las autoridades, o una meta a alcanzar cuando logremos un buen presidente. Poniendo en riesgo su vida y con la disposición absoluta de sacrificar todo en su empeño, han emprendido una cruzada para exigir justicia aquí y ahora, cueste lo que cueste. Veamos.

1. Isabel Miranda Wallace ha hecho lo que nadie se había atrevido antes: convertirse en detective, ministerio público y organismo de difusión para aprehender a los responsables del secuestro y asesinato de su hijo, el empresario Hugo Wallace. Isabel no sólo investigó por su cuenta hasta dar con el nombre de los secuestradores, sino también contrató tres espectaculares con las fotos de los responsables y con el aviso de una recompensa de 250,000 pesos. Una vez que supo dónde localizar al jefe de la banda, el ex judicial César Freyre Morales, y antes de entregarlo a la policía, documentó entradas y salidas, contactos y actividades de este personaje, hasta averiguar su red de cómplices. Sólo entonces ofreció la información a la policía, y grabó el momento de la detención para evitar un intento de cohecho que lo dejara en libertad.
A partir de la detención de Freyre Morales el 26 de enero, Isabel Miranda siguió utilizando espectaculares, anuncios y volantes para ofrecer recompensas para la captura del resto de sus cómplices. El resultado ha sido impresionante: en este momento hay cinco personas arraigadas, sujetas a un proceso de investigación. Ahora la señora Miranda continúa su campaña para detener más cómplices y documentar otros delitos cometidos por esta banda e impedir que un juez los deje en libertad “por falta de elementos”.
Isabel Miranda no es la primera persona que se involucra en la investigación de un caso de asesinato de un familiar cercano. No es raro que los padres de una víctima contraten judiciales para montar una investigación en paralelo (en ocasiones incluyendo “la ejecución” de los responsables). Lo singular del caso es que la señora Miranda ha optado por un camino absolutamente transparente. No ha intentado comprar policías o agentes del ministerio, y ha recurrido a la opinión pública para obligar a las autoridades a hacer su trabajo. Pese a la desconfianza que le inspira la justicia mexicana, ha hecho todo lo necesario para que sea ésta quien castigue a los responsables.



2. Es una actitud muy similar a la de Lydia Cacho contra las autoridades responsables de su detención irregular, de la violación de sus derechos, y de la venta de la justicia a favor de un particular (Kamel Nacif). Ella ha interpuesto demandas contra el gobernador poblano, Mario Marín, la procuradora del estado, el jefe de la policía judicial y otros funcionarios. Su caso se ventila en la PGR, en el Congreso y en la Suprema Corte. Pese a los intentos del gobierno poblano de “pactar” algún tipo de arreglo, Lydia Cacho ha mantenido su decisión de llegar al final. No es una tarea sencilla. En el esfuerzo de recabar pruebas, peritajes, testigos y testimonios, compite sola contra la maquinaria oficial. A pesar del indudable apoyo de los medios de comunicación, al final se trata de una batalla muy desigual entre un individuo y el aparato de estado. La diferencia de recursos legales y económicos para litigar este largo proceso es apabullante contra la periodista. Y sin embargo, Lydia Cacho sabe que está sentando un precedente que podría atenuar en el futuro la enorme impunidad de la que gozan los gobernadores contra un ciudadano aislado.

3. Hace unos días, al coincidir en un evento, Vicente Fox intentó besar a Rosario Ibarra de Piedra. Ella no lo permitió. Ante la reiteración presidencial, Doña Rosario le espetó: "Dígame donde está mi hijo y le recibiré el beso". Hace 32 años que desapareció Jesús Piedra Ibarra, durante la guerra sucia de la década de los setenta. Desde entonces Rosario no ha parado. Ella ha sido pieza fundamental para que los agravios no hayan caído en el olvido. Las comisiones para investigar los delitos del 68 y de la guerra sucia y las detenciones obtenidas deben mucho al esfuerzo incansable de esta luchadora social. Los empeños de estas tres mujeres podrían estar cambiando paradigmas. Rosario Ibarra ha mandado el mensaje a los poderosos de que sus infamias tarde o temprano habrán de alcanzarlos, siempre y cuando alguien conserve la memoria de sus delitos. Lydia Cacho está demostrando que la impunidad absoluta de la que gozaban los gobernadores puede esfumarse ante la voluntad de una ciudadana valiente y decidida. Por lo demás, el escándalo de las grabaciones ha cambiado la manera en que los poderosos hablan entre sí, sobre todo en el teléfono. Isabel Miranda ha inaugurado nuevas formas de procurar justicia, poniendo en evidencia a los aparatos oficiales pero, al mismo tiempo, colaborando con ellos.

En México sólo se denuncia uno de cada cuatro delitos, pero sólo se investiga uno de cada 22 y se logra una aprehensión en uno de cada 128. Es decir, 98.8% de los delitos no son castigados (cifras de 2004, de un total de 12 millones de delitos). Es una cifra brutal que no sólo refleja la ineficiencia del Poder Judicial, sino también el conformismo e impotencia de millones de víctimas y sus familiares.
Estas tres mujeres decidieron que los crímenes que padecieron no quedarían impunes. Pero al buscarlo podrían conseguir mucho más que eso: basta que una porción de mexicanos siga su ejemplo para provocar una nueva relación entre la sociedad y la justicia. Una revolución contra la impunidad.

Mi querida Gata: Es una verguenza lo que pasa en este pais. Las autoridades te dicen que las cifras delictivas han bajado y ellos se basan sólo en los delitos que no se pueden dejar de denunciar como lo son el robo de autos (Sin el acta el seguro no te lo paga)y los homicidios (Estos por su gravedad. Existen cientos, miles, millones de pequeños delitos que nadie denuncia y es que pasar por el viacrucis del ministerio público es tremendo. cualquiera que vaya a poner una denuncia va a encontrar que hay montones de personas esperando y luego los agentes no te atienden, dicen estar ocupados aunque esten leyendo el periodico, nunca hay médico legista para que te revise y de fe de si tienes lesiones o si vienes borracho, en fin los Ministerios Públicos entorpecen la denuncia y asi "bajan" los indices delictivos. ¡Ingeniosos no?

ALBACEA DE GABRIEL FERRATER

Qué pensaría el obstinado suicida, el angelical dipsómano, cuando se embriagó por última vez con anhídrido carbónico.

Cómo conseguiría aquella lucidez, en qué calendarios alumbró ese día color de plata sucia, como la víspera de los vendavales y de los desastres que nos aniquilan y nos sobreviven.
Qué calló para siempre sobre esta infame pretensión de hacer poemas cuando al fin se hizo sabio, unos segundos antes de morir.
Cuál fue el testamento que se llevó consigo en una bolsa hermética, el sensual precursor de sus cenizas, el solemne iniciado en el culto al desgaste, el dulce precavido...
Quién sabe si es el mismo que descifro en secreto, sonriendo al plenilunio de enero, mientras escribo para las polillas que nada opinan del pleonasmo ni del suicidio y no valoran mis ironías.

Y a mi que me parece, que el mal que les entra a muchos es la ignorancia de no saber entender el lenguaje con el que se proyectan estos versos... En fin, recomiendo a aquellos venerables lectores recelosos de dejarse querer un poco por la cultura, que envainen sus dedos y comiencen comprándose alguna obra de la Colección de libros del Barco de Vapor. Pero bueno, es solo una recomendación; eso sí, por algo hay que empezar.

Por cierto, y me dirijo a la dirección de Gatopardo.blogia.com, ¿se ha planteado ya, la Señora Tambroni, el salir del armario?

Y antes de que me linchen los lectores, por hacer tal pregunta, permitan a la dirección de la página responder primero. Que mi cuestión, tiene un matiz que va más allá de cualquier mente pervertida.

GABRIEL FERRATER

A estas alturas del mes de abril suelo recordarlo.

Alguien que yo admiraba hasta dolerme el pecho decidió suicidarse antes de que llegara el mes de mayo de 1972, antes de cumplir los cincuenta años, y suelo conmemorarlo con la ternura hirsuta que nuestro odio al patetismo instauró.

Un debil atisbo de arrepentimiento le hubiera permitido rasgar la capucha de plástico que se ajustó cuidadosamente en la cabeza, y no lo hizo.

Se llamaba Gabriel Ferrater, y era una especie de genio iconoclasta, apasionado por el álgebra y las matemáticas, por la literatura, hablaba checo, alto-alemán y ya no recuerdo qué otras lenguas, aparte del catalán y del castellano, y era divertido, imprevisible, delirante, seductor... y un gran poeta que se olvida injustamente entre tanta grisalla como se encumbra.

Alguien, quizá, quiera traducirnos al castellano este poema de los tiempos en los que la policía llegaba de madrugada, como ahora, y bastaban sus sospechas, como ahora, para hundir a un ser humano en la desesperación, entre la indiferencia de todos, como ahora...

LA VIDA FURTIVA

Segurament serà com ara. Estaré despert, aniré amunt i avall pel corredor. Com un minador que surt d'un pou, em pujarà des del silenci de tota la casa, brusc, el ronc de l'ascensor. M'aturaré a escoltar el bufeteig de portes de metall, i els passos pel replà, i endevinaré l'instant que arrencarà a tremolar l'angúnia del timbre.

Sabré qui són. Els obriré de seguida. Tot perdut, que entrin aquests, a qui ho hauré de dir tot.

Gabriel Ferrater

El Sanedrín de la crítica literaria aún no ha comprendido que huyera del trémolo, del estilo engolado, del amaneramiento y de lo declamatorio, con lo fácil que es lo rebuscado.

el “abofeteamiento”(1) de las puertas de metal, y los pasos Que yo sepa, Mishima intentó dar un golpe de Estado, fracasó y se hizo el harakiri, una evisceración. Sangriento y doloroso.

Y la anoxia provoca sopor en un primer momento e inconsciencia antes de la muerte. No hay sufrimiento suplementario autoinflingido.

Aquí va otra alternativa apresurada. Aparte de cierta literalidad, de la que no me veo capaz de escapar (no he traducido jamás un poema y no sé cómo me atrevo ahora), me he atrevido con un par de cosas discutibles. Una se refiere a la traducción de un grado de indeterminación y, la otra, a las cualidades de la distancia personal. La primera, en el tercer verso, donde he sustituido la indeterminación de la expresión "salir de un pozo", por la determinación más concreta de la expresión "salir del pozo"; lo he hecho así por pura intuición, porque creo que en esa expresión catalana no hay tanta carga de indeterminación como la castellana "un pozo"; puesto que parece que el pozo corresponde a la mina del minero (o a su pozo personal), tengo la impresión de que, en castellano, la expresión "el pozo" acerca al minero a esa especie de forma del destino que es trabajar en "pozos", sean reales o mentales (no soy catalán y puede que venga de ahí mi conocimiento superficial de la potencia determinante de los artículos); y, la segunda cosa discutible, es la traducción del pronombre "aquests", del último verso, que debería ser traducido por "estos" y yo prefiero traducir por "esos". Me decanto por "esos" debido a que establece una distancia un poco mayor con respecto al nombre referido. Me atrevo a traducir esa distancia "mental", porque la distancia física está muy clara en la escena. Selecciono esa pizca más de distancia por referirse a gentes ajenas, personas con las que no hay un vínculo personal ni deseo de que ese vínculo se produzca. En catalán no sabría hacer semejante sutileza. Como te decía, agüela, yo no soy catalán y, a pesar de que me manejo con bastante fluidez, en este momento sólo se me ocurren los pronombres "aquests" y "aquells", que serían "estos" y "aquellos", para expresar esa relación. El primero denota proximidad y el segundo una distancia considerable. Podría haber utilizado "aquellos". Pero prefiero traducir "esos" porque, además de esa equívoca distancia intermedia, permitiría el uso de cierto tono despectivo. Con lo cual añadiríamos ciertas consideraciones sobre posible distancia moral, y no sólo mental.

Seguramente será como ahora. Estaré despierto, iré arriba y abajo por el pasillo. Como un minero que sale del pozo, me subirá desde el silencio de toda la casa, brusco, el ronquido del ascensor. Me detendré a escuchar el abofeteo de puertas de metal, y los pasos por el rellano, y adivinaré el instante en que arrancará a temblar la angustia del timbre.
Sabré quiénes son. Les abriré enseguida. Todo perdido, que entren esos, a quienes habré de decir todo.

De estas dos libertades que me he tomado, me parece que la más arriesgada podría ser la primera: la traducción del grado de indeterminación. De cualquier forma, siempre queda la posibilidad de traducir aparte esos dos versos delicados de un modo más convencional. La cosa quedaría así:

Verso 3º
"que sale de un pozo, me subirá"

Verso 10º
"que entren estos, a quienes habré de decir todo."

Sí, creo que aciertas dándole ese sentido despectivo al aquests, y me quitar el indeterminado también me parece una buena solución. La traducción literal es la mejor forma de cargarse un texto.
A ver si me explicáis otras dos o tres palabras: tremolar en este texto parece referirse al trémolo musical, nota repetida y sostenida, y no a su acepción de trémulo. Y luego, está la polisemia de "minador" el que mina (para hundir un edificio, un puente, etc) y el que trabaja en una mina.
Otra cosa: angúnia: no sé el sentido que tiene para un catalán; pero el significado que yo le doy es el de congoja y no el de angustia o ansiedad.
Y no sé cómo se resuelve todo eso.
¡Y miles de miles de gracias!

"Y el que quiera escuchar que escuche"
Gracias por lo que estoy aprendiendo.

Encantado de charlar contigo sobre estas cosas, gata.
Antes de nada, angúnia es angustia o congoja.
Aquí van algunas observaciones sobre cómo leo yo el poema:

Minador. El minero y la angustia
La situación en la casa, con la sospecha de que "ciertas fuerzas" podrían venir en busca del protagonista, la espera angustiosa, el escuchar en el silencio de la casa esos ruidos de ascensor que siempre me han parecido como metáforas del embarazo. Esa escucha interna y externa, esa tarea de minero, ese horror que se puede hacer realidad como un minero saliendo del pozo con la cara sucia... A mí me parece una situación angustiosa.

Tremolar. El temblor y la angustia del timbre
En ningún momento consideré la posible acepción musical de tremolar, aunque la idea del trémolo musical también tiene que ver con el temblor. Yo creo que toda esa angustia en suspensión arranca a temblar cuando suena el timbre. ¿Tiembla también el protagonista? No sé, pero sin duda hay terror y no me extrañaría que temblara. La época en que fue escrito el poema nos podría dar pistas sobre los mecanismos de timbre posibles y una idea bastante gráfica sobre ese temblor. No sé de cuándo es el poema, pero sí sé que Gabriel Ferrater murió en 1972. Luego, es anterior a esa fecha. Así que lo más probable es que el mecanismo del timbre fuera de aquel tipo primitivo en el que un martillito "temblaba", oscilaba, junto a una campana movido por impulsos eléctricos. El resultado era un "riiiiiing" que se producía por temblor y que duraba tanto tiempo como se mantuviera pulsado el botón junto a la puerta. Aquí, el timbre se convierte en el elemento que formula y da cuerpo a la angustia. Ferrater dice "la angustia del timbre" y construye una metáfora con la que referirse a su propio terror.

El terror
Lo realmente pavoroso de este poema es la sensación de convivencia continuada con el terror. Porque todo eso no está ocurriendo. Él dice que "seguramente será como ahora". El personaje maneja (no me atrevo a decir acaricia) la hipótesis de que se produzca esa escena y vive con la angustia continua que le produce la idea de que en cualquier momento se puede hacer realidad. Convive con el horror mental de considerar ese suceso como verosímil y probable. Lo terrible es que los ascensores y los timbres funcionan todos los días de un modo inofensivo, pero la biografía del protagonista incluye la posibilidad de que sean el anuncio del horror. Y sabemos que todo eso ocurría en tiempos de la dictadura de Franco. En la vida de un disidente furtivo que vive bajo una dictadura que tortura y asesina no es de extrañar que los más insignificantes ecos de la vida cotidiana se conviertan en terribles amenazas. ¿Ayuda esto a entender su suicidio?

Fecha: 17/04/2006 00:14.

Autor: Gatopardo

No sé si será presunción por mi parte, pero su suicidio lo sentí como una muestra de libertad y de coherencia: era alcohólico, tenía el hígado muy destrozado, toda su inteligencia lo aislaba del resto aunque fuera seductor, simpático, sociable, y su núcleo de amigos fuera importante: creo que no quiso convertirse en un despojo de sí mismo, y eligió su propia muerte sin aspavientos, porque el patetismo le horrorizaba, nunca dramatizaba, y la prueba de que su decisión de morir era firme es que no tuvo ni un espasmo involuntario que le hiciera rasgar la bolsa de plástico. Creo que vivió como un estoico extravertido ante los demás y murió como un estoico a secas confrontado consigo mismo, Respecto al riesgo, al miedo a ser detenido, a la tortura, creo que no lo asustaba como algo personal sino como estridencia y despropósito vital, independientemente de contra quien se ejerciera: era repulsión ante la bajeza que significaba, y no sólo en el caso de que fueran por él.

Me explico mal, Max. Tengo miedo de traicionar y distorsionar al querer explicarlo.
Sé que respeté su decisión de morir.
Un abrazo fuerte

De ninguna manera un poeta olvidado. Otra cosa es que el recuerdo agradecido (¡y cuánto, y no de pocos!) se confunda con las estridencias y alharacas de nuestras famillas mundanas. Admito que no hay demasiados que lo tomen como el modelo que Ferrater debería ser. Quizá hasta para terminar.
Ahora bien, discrepo con Trini en la \"sencillez\" y la ausencia de \"rizos\" (sí de \"galimatías\"). Ferrater no me parece un poeta siempre fácil ni siempre claro, aunque sí sea siempre inmediato y persuasivo. Un poeta magnífico, quizá el mejor de su quinta y de su entorno.

La posibilidad de tomar decisiones acerca de la propia muerte (cómo, cuándo, dónde) me parece de suma importancia. Comprendo y comparto tu tacto ante una decisión tan potente y grave, y ante la trascendencia que puede tener para "los otros", incluso para personas que, como yo, no le conocieron.
Yo soy de los que creen que en ciertos suicidios puede haber una lección de vida (sí, de vida). La otra lección, la de muerte y las técnicas para quitarse la vida, tiene interés a causa de la perversa y siniestra relación que tenemos con la muerte en nuestra cultura. Deberíamos tener acceso a una muerte fácil y confortable, decidida voluntariamente. Pero no. Aquí hay que morir cruelmente, como dios manda.
Tomo aquí lo que hay de vida en esta muerte y te manifiesto mi respeto profundo hacia él y hacia quienes estuvisteis cerca.

LA REPÚBLICA

Para variar, voy a dar razones contables por las que prefiero la República a la Monarquía:

La Casa Real cobra de los Presupuestos Generales del Estado, 8.050.000 € al año (ocho millones cincuenta mil euros).
El Presidente de Gobierno cobra de los Presupuestos Generales del Estado 87.552,12 € anuales (ochenta y siete mil quinientos cincuenta y dos euros con 12 céntimos)
Para sustituir las funciones de representación del Rey, supongamos que haga falta unas cualidades equivalentes al más alto dignatario del Tribunal Constitucional, que cobra 139.290 euros (ciento treinta y nueve mil doscientas noventa euros).
Cada cuatro años, el pueblo decide si se les renueva el contrato, que no es indefinido.
Sus descendientes no heredan el cargo.

En el septuagésimo quinto aniversario de la proclamación de la República, más de catorce mil ciudadanos hemos firmado el manifiesto "Con orgullo, con modestia y con gratitud" que propone Memoria del Futuro

He firmado porque no creo que la monarquía valga lo que cuesta.

Pues yo también he dado en mi "blog" un "viva la república", pero no firmo el manifiesto de marras, porque mi "viva" no tiene nada de nostalgia. Me parece contraproducente, si de propiciar que llegue la tercera se trata, enzarzarse en un debate pseudointelecutal "á-la-Moa" sobre si la segunda fue el paraíso en la tiera o el infierno a fuego lento. Tan patéticos me parecen los "Moa" como los románticos idealistas y sus símbolos y banderas. Cierto es que vivimos todavía en el post-franquismo y que todavía falta mucha justicia por hacer a la segunda, y sobra mucho pacto de silencio sobre el franquismo y la república. Pero de ahí a pensar que todo fue fantástico entre el 31 y el 36... sí, viva la república, y que venga ya, pero no con el espíritu del 31, sino la república del siglo XXI!!!!!!!!!!!!

Si es así, es que me he explicado mal: aquí, ya están como republicanos partidarios de la III República los mismos inútiles, ineptos, resentidos y chupopteros que han recibido invitaciones a la Zarzuela por el santo del rey y cargos por encima de sus aptitudes: véase Rosa Regás y la alegre pandilla de los que cobrarán por dar conferencias en los fastos del 75 aniversario.

Los gastos de la casa real española son equiparables a los gastos de la presidencia republicana de cualquier país.
Una cosa es el sueldo y otra, los gastos. Dentro de ellos está contemplado el sueldo.
Los gastos de la casa real española son los más bajos de nuestro entorno, tanto en repúblicas como monarquías.

La casa real tiene 7'2 millones de € de presupuesto, en él está contemplada la guardia real, todos sus empleados, protocolo y viajes, pero no su escolta, que corre a cargo del ministerio del interior.
En nuestro entorno, tan sólo la corona holandesa dispone de menos, 7 millones para ser exactos. También dispone menos Luxemburgo por motivos de evidente comprensión.
En lo relativo a Francia no tengo ni idea. Hay pocos franceses que la tengan. Ayer por la noche, hablé con uno y me dijo que se enteraría, pero que un día leyó que costaba más que el rey belga. Dicho rey, creo que dispone de más de 12 millones.
La presidencia de la república francesa tiene más de ciento cincuenta empleados, algunos con sueldos millonarios, dispone de un helicóptero y un Mystere, aparte del Airbus que, como la corona española, utilizan el resto de los ministerios.
Dudo mucho que todo eso lo pueda pagar de su bolsillo.

Ninguno de los datos que das sobre el uso del "sueldo" del rey se corresponde con la realidad. Hay una parte de los "fondos reservados", que como sabrás, no hay que justificar, que va para los gastos de la Casa Real. Y donde ya he pegado la carcajada es con eso de que la Guardia Real se la paga el rey. Forma parte de nuestras gloriosas Fuerzas Armadas, y está integrada por militares provenientes de los tres ejercitos, Pau, tiene cinco siglos de antigüedad, y su presupuesto está incluido en Defensa, lógicamente.

Y si tienes interés en conocer los presupuestos generales de Francia, coloqué hace días el enlace en la respuesta a José Manuel en este mismo post: y eso de que los franceses lo desconocen, serán los espabilados que va a ver si se enteran, el resto podemos conocerlos sin ningún problema, porque son públicos.

No, no dispongo de tiempo.

Lo cierto es que según los franceses, su presidente dispone de más de ciento cincuenta empleados, bastantes más que el monarca español. Dispone del Mystere y el helicóptero, cosa que el monarca español no.
Supongo que ciento cincuenta empleados franceses, entre ellos, un jefe de protocolo y dos asistentes, un jefe de "palacio" presidencial y secretarios diversos para cada uno de ellos, no salen nada baratos.
Yo no sé lo que cuesta todo eso ni me importa. Lo que sí tengo, son los datos de las distintas casas reales de Europa (eso de la prensa del corazón da para mucho). La verdad es que dan miedo en comparación con la nuestra.
Parece ser que el Quirinal tampoco sale muy barato a los italianos. Por lo menos, es lo que ellos dicen.

2. Los republicanos no queremos comprar ningún rey. Ni de saldo. Ni aunque nos regalen un Nokia con videocámara.
3. Tampoco lo queremos regalado
5. Si te vas a quedar tranquilo y feliz, hago una colecta y monto a nuestro gracioso

Las dos veces que pusieron la República en España fue un auténtico FRACASO, sencillamente xq nuestra idiosincrasia es distinta de la de otros países y lo que para ellos va bien parece que a nosotros no nos va tan bien, cambiar algo que nos ha ido de lujo durante 25 años por una cosa que SIEMPRE ha ido mal, perdóname, pero me parece de no tener muchas luces. Si funcionara mal yo sería el primero en protestar.

Prefiero que se lleve ese dinero el Rey que todos los políticuchos de segunda fila que hay hoy actualmente en la palestra.

Más aun cuando muchos de los que defienden la República lo hacen por ser parte de un conjunto de ideales a los que poco les preocupa si verdaderamente el cambio puede beneficiarnos o no, si no que tienen ese sentimiento y como tal, este es irracional.

Hola, me he leido el foro entero y la verdad es que me parece gracioso. Todos, o casi todos, los que posteamos en este foro somos republicanos.
Eso no quiere decir que no podamos ser objetivos.
En cuestion de presupuesto, los gastos de las Coronas europeas suelen superar a la española, siendo los gatos de las casas reales europeas:
• Casa real inglesa, 55 millones de euros al año.
• Casa real sueca, un poco más de 11 millones de euros.
• Casa real noruega, 13 millones.
• Las casas de Holanda y Bélgica (que son las más baratas) cuestan unos 9 millones de euros anualmente.

La nuestra son unos 8,5 millones de euros, situandose entre las baratas.
Si lo que queremos es situarnos frente a otras republicas no nos olvidemos que existen algunas ineficaces, como la italiana donde la Presidencia de la Republica, cuyo cometido ejecutivo es verdaderamente menor que el frances y similar al del jefe del estado español, se gasta cuatro veces mas que la monarquia inglesa, la francesa, para quien todavia lo dude (si alguien lo hace que me escriba, que me ocupare de decirle exactamente donde ver cifras) se gasta varias veces mas de lo que se gasta la monarquia española. Es mas la monarquia española es lo mas barato de Europa, gastandonos 19 centimos por persona al año (en italia son 4 euros, o 1,2 en Reino Unido, por poner ejemplos)
Tampoco debemos de olvidar que no es lo mismo presidencia del gobierno que Jefatura del Estado, he leido por ahi que por que no se engloba la misma figura en una sola, no solo lo hace un pais suramericano, lo hacen los Estados Unidos de America, con un sistema presidencialista, que tiene sus ventajas por supuesto, pero que no podriamos (ni querriamos) ver aqui dada la falta de madurez politica de este pais (a parte de que no es costumbre en Europa, ya que tendemos al sistema parlamentarista). Y no se enfaden, es la realidad, pero tampoco es algo de extrañar, hace poco mas de 30 años que salimos de una dictadura, es una democracia joven que ira madurando con el tiempo. Eso si, creanme, si dudamos de que eso ocurra, o intentamos pensar que no se consigue una verdadera democracia con una Monarquia estamos equivocados, puedo repetir los nombres de los paises de al rededor que tienen una monarquia y llegan a ser sino los mas democratas se quedan en lo mas arriba.
Asi que por favor, evitemos ser cinicos respecto a la monarquia, lo fundamentalmente negativo es que no es reelegible a las 4 o 7 años, que nostros no valoramos con nuestro voto su gestion. Pero si que elegimos a Juan Carlos I, esta en la Constitucion, que fue aprobada por mayoria aplastante en un referendum, y establecia un regimen monarquico con Juan Carlos a la cabeza, lo elegimos, ahora simplemente seamos consecuentes con nuestros actos. Y por cierto, recuerden que es mas importante la remodelacion de la justicia, una educacion que no sea partidista, una economia sostenible basada en la productividad y el esfuerzo.

No, lo importante no es si Monarquia o Republica, lo importante es levantar este pais cada dia, hacer de él una democracia futura que sea capaz de sobrevivir a las generaciones venideras, y que sea, por supuesto,con el esfuerzo y trabajo de todos juntos.

Ciertamente lo que sucede es que la monarquía esta obsoleta y no se corresponde con la evolución sociopolitica que venimos experimentando desde que las ideas de Jean Jacques Rouseau o James Locke triunfasen en la guerra de la independencia y poco más adelante con la revolución francesa. Todos estos acontecimientos historicos marcaron un nuevo orden mundial que poco a poco sería el modelo de gobierno en todo el mundo, pero claro está el proceso aún no está completado. Tiempo al tiempo, la divina providencia, en sus misteriosos caminos ya ha puesto en el derecho universal de las leyes constitucionales el verdadero codigo de valores a seguir, y cualquier contradicción quedará alli escrita como una mancha resplandeciente, tal ven ni a Dios le haga ninguna gracia, y no hubiese mas gracia en un rey de la que puede haber en cualquiera de nosotros, que somos iguales que ellos ante la ley natural, mas cercana a dios que la ley del privileguio, esta ya mucho más cercana al hombre, Saludos.

Antes de nada, decir que me parece totalmente respetable la opinion de cada uno y espero que, al igual que mis amigos republicanos, respeten la mía. Por lo demás, me parecería genial que el Rey de España tuviera una asignación mucho menor, pues soreviviría perfectamente con ella, y el dinero se podría dedicar a otras cosas como a los que lo necesitan. Pero no conozco pueblo en el mundo que necesite más a un rey/reina que el de este país. Nadie vino de un planeta extraño para acabar con las dos repúblicas anteriores, recuerdenlo: fuimos los españoles. La última república, megamitificada, fue incapaz de evitar las múltiples revueltas, actos de violencia, y la pobreza generalizada de este país. A partir de ahí podemos suponer lo que podría haber hecho (levarnos al espacio, crear un rayo láser capaz de destruir planetas lejanos, o hacer de este un país próspero...lo que queramos). No lo hizo mejor nuestro sanguinario dictador. En miles de años de Historia en este país, es este el período más estable, y tenemos una democracia y un Rey. Estándo él se detuvieron a tiempo una intentona golpista y un golpe de estado (teorías conspiranoides aparte,sobre su implicación...). Y aún estando él, conocimos, durante la primera legislatura de Zapatero, el período más convulso de nuestra política actual, agitados por los conspiranoides del PP, los obispos y con culpa también, cómo no decirlo, del PSOE. Nadie es inocente en estas cosas. Y aún así, viviendo en una etapa fráncamente mejorable, quereis volver a experimentar un sistema fracasado en nuestro país, soñando con que somos Francia, USA, o Dios sabe quién. Pero no somos ninguno de esos; somos España, con sus defectos, y sus virtudes, y este Rey nos sirve hasta que deje de servir, pero no antes. MIentras tanto, es el único representante respetable de nuestro país, el único al que el despreciable G.W. Bush recibió como Jefe de Estado (nunca a Zapatero), el único que no se arrodilla ante los extranjeros (véase Aznar-Bush, y compárese con el "¿Por qué no te callas?" al "dictador" CHávez), y el único que impidió que Losantos, iniciara un nuevo golpe de estado a base de calentar a sus esbirros fachas, hasta que fue despedido de la COPE por meterse con el Rey. Y decid que és fácil lograr algo de los obispos (hacer que se callen, echarlos de España, que respeten la Constitución) a ver cuanto tardan los millones de católicos de este país en salir a quemar sedes del partido comunista. Este Rey se ha ganado a pulso estar donde está, mientras siga siendo como es, y teniendo el poco poder político que tiene en nuestras fronteras. Dejad las revoluciones para los que las necesitan. En este país se necesita construir sobre lo que hay...no darse por vencido y pedir destruirlo todo, soñando con utopías carentes de fundamento. Pedir que le rebajen la asignación: ¡Por favor, si!...pedir que se vaya...¡No!

UNOMAS: ¿Usted no se da cuenta de que atribuye al rey, sin pruebas y sin argumentos, todo lo que se le pasa por la cabeza?

Y, a todo esto, por si no se ha dado cuenta, le ha atribuido, al mismo tiempo, actos que caen en la inconstitucionalidad, como maniobrar para echar a un comunicador de una empresa privada. Pero no me malinterprete, no obstante. Verá:
"Cuéntase que el tiempo pasado y el futuro batallaban sobre la imaginación, porque cada uno decía que era suya.
El tiempo pasado alegó que era suya, porque imaginaba las cosas pasadas y el tiempo futuro decía que era suya,porque imaginaba las cosas venideras. Al no entenderse, decidieron elegir un juez que apaciguase y decidiese aquella porfía, proponiendo como tal al tiempo presente, que residía en medio de ambos. Pero el tiempo futuro dijo que no era juez competente,porque tenía mayor proporción y concordancia con la imaginación en las cosas pasadas que en las venideras. Y entonces, no pudiendo convenirse ni hallar juez común, volvieron a reñir mutuamente. Y por cuanto la imaginación amaba ser más del tiempo pasado que del futuro, por respeto de la memoria, que intercedió con ella, fue vencido el tiempo futuro por el tiempo pasado, el cual dijo al tiempo presente que hacía mal en no ayudarle, pues le amaba cuanto podía."

Pobre tiempo futuro, lleno de esperanza e ilusiones, siempre supeditado a la memoria selectiva, subjetiva, manipulada y adulterada de una sociedad cansina y aburguesada que se muerde la cola, para, al final acabar devorando su propia cabeza.
Casi treinta años de cielo abierto y seguimos ocn los ojos cerrados, imaginando lodos pasados en lugar de dejar fluir, crecer y florecer la vida que nos ha tocado.
Que lástima que la anarquía sea algo tan lejano en un presente tan pobre, tan destructivo para el individuo. Ni quito, ni pongo rey. Solo quiero futuro.

cuando hagas una afirmacion de este tipo debes aportar los datos reales no solo los que te interesan. Los gastos totales de la republica francesa son mas del triple de los que nos supone la monarquia. Ademas en España se ha demostrado que el unico sistema democratico posible que mantenga la union de todos los españoles. Cuando se voto el articulo referente a la monarquia en nuestra constitucion los padres de la constitucion votaron a favor incluso el pce salvo los dos del psoe que se abstuvieron, es decir, ninguno voto en contra, ademas esta constitucion se refrendó obteniendo mas del 80% de votos a favor lo que quiere decir que la monarquia española es totalmente legitima

Lo primero decir que menos mal que alguien como SKBSK con ha ilustrado con un comentario con datos precisos y no unos datos como los del autor del blog que ni tan siquiera sabe calcular lo que cobra al AÑO el presidente de la república francesa siguiendo el enlace que antes ha puesto porque si el presidente cobra 19 331 € netos al mes x 12 meses = 231 972 € no? Bien ese es el sueldo DEL PRESIDENTE nada mas que ademas se subió en 2007 ya que antes cobraba unos 7000 € al mes, menos que un diputado. Ahora bien dando datos mas o menos precisos o mas bien estimados no creo que queramos una república como la italiana (la cual en 2006 y según el libro "33 españoles y el Rey", de Carlos García Retuerta (Martínez Roca, Madrid, 2009. Página 233).) se gasto unos 425.000.000 € mientras que nuestro vecino del norte se gasto (mismo libro, misma página) 30.500.000 €. Ahora la familia real se gastó (mismo libro, misma página) 9.050.000 €. Critiquen si quieren a la familia real por cualquier razón, pero no lo hagan por lo que se gasta, ya que viendo lo que se gastan otros paises somos los mas ahorradores.

Para Saut

Ohhh si, para qué criticar a la monarquía, ya que derrochan menos que otros países... Puff...
Es que óyete diciendo que sí, que el rey despilfarra pero otros países despilfarran más, asi que eso justifica que nuestro rey gaste a manos llenas.

Y sobre este blog:

El rey cobra actualmente 9 millones de euros anuales. Ningún presidente del gobierno ni de la república cobraría para él solo 9 millones de euros al año.

Además, está la trampa de decir que la monarquía es más barata que una república. ¡Pues claro que una monarquía (por sí sola) es más barata que una república).
La república es el gasto de mantener a todos los gobernantes (como en una democracia) y la monarquía es el gasto de mantener los gastos de una familia.
Ahora bien, lo que es un sinsentido es tener democracia o república y mantener encima una monarquía.
Y les pongo algunos datos:

República francesa: 90 millones de euros al año.
República italiana: 241 millones de euros al año.
Nuestro sistema de gobierno (España): 720 millones de euros al año...

Los gastos del rey son 9 millones de euros anuales (que se dan para su casa y familia como reza la constitución y jamás entenderé porque hay que mantener al resto de familiares cuando ellos no son jefes de estado),y aparte de esos 9 millones de euros pero hay que calcular aparte otros gastos: cocineros personales, médicos personales (este no tiene listas de espera en la seguridad social), criados y chachas, escoltas privados (cuyo sueldo va de 4000 euros para arriba), guardia real, gastos de gasolina (y no solo los coches sino que cuesta un dineral llenar de gasolina el tanque del "bribón")...

Lo de que el rey no espera en la seguridad social es totalmente cierto. No hace mucho fue operado en el Barna Clinic (una parte privada del hospital público donde el rey estaba alojado), reservando toda esa parte del hospital para un solo enfermo...
No tuvo lista de esperas ni para las pruebas de lo que tenía ni para la operación y luego le vimos con toda la cara "alabar la buena sanidad pública que tenemos los españoles".

Para colmo de males, el rey ha tenido muchos escándalos. Uno fue que mató a su hermano (ya fuera premeditadamente o por accidente) sin que se abriera un juicio o investigación y la pistola del crimen se tiró al mar. El rey es inviolable, esto es, aunque se le pille en flagrante delito no puede ser juzgado o condenado, contraviniendo lo que dice la constitución de que todos los españoles somos iguales ante la ley.
Luego también se ha ido pagando prostitutas con dinero público (algunas veces a millón de pesetas la visita) y una muy sonada fue la de Bárbara Rey.

Total que el rey es impuesto (fue puesto por Franco y coronado antes del referendum de la constitución) y cuando muera Juan Carlos, reinará Felipe... ¿quién habrá con votos elegido a nuestro nuevo jefe de estado?. Os lo digo yo: nadie.

Sea como fuere es un sinsentido defender una institución cuyo cargo es vitalicio y se pasa de padres a hijos.
Bajémosle el sueldo a todos los políticos y tengamos un sistema democrático basado en quitar el sistema dhont y hacer listas abiertas para los partidos, porque con las listas cerradas se fomenta el bipartidismo perenne y lo mismo el sistema dhont que hace que para el PP-PSOE necesiten para un escaño 50.000-60.000 votos e IU necesite 500.000 votos para tener ese mismo escaño. Cuanto más pequeño es el partido más votos necesita para tener un escaño y si eres un partido grande necesitas pocos votos para lo mismo.

Solamente quería dejar constancia de que estoy totalmente de acuerdo con el ultimo comentario, sobre todo apoyo la idea de la necesidad tan acuciante de una reforma electoral.
Con respecto al tema principal, los gastos de la monarquía, yo no me he informado, pero creo que es imprescindible y muy interesante para los ciudadanos conocer estas cifras.

Finalmente, hago una petición para que si alguien quiere exponer de forma extendida y detallada todos los gastos de uno y otro modelo lo haga porque, insisto, es un tema realmente interesante para aquellos que vemos la monarquía como una herramienta que no arregla nada.
Buen blog y buena información
Un saludo.

En primer lugar... el Presidente de una República tiene un salario (que no tiene El Rey de una monarquía democrática) y después, según sepa traficar, gastará y desfalcará las arcas del estado. En nuestra Monarquía Parlamentaria, en la que el Príncipe no hereda la propiedad de una nación sino un puesto de representación internacional y, en el caso de que los electores aprendamos a votar en blanco y hubiera de disolver las cortes, tendrá la capacidad de instaurar un gobierno provisional con gestores de primer nivel (razón por la que Bélgica no ha ido a la deriva tras quedarse sin su gobierno, gracias a una monarquía que, lejos de ideología, está preparada desde la infancia para situaciones como esa). Otra cosa es... la legitimidad que tiene la mujer de un príncipe que no ha sido educada en tales menesteres. Nuestra Monarquía no cobra un sueldo ni puede adquirir posesiones con ese dinero... nuestra monarquía dispone de un presupuesto destinado a todo lo referente a las funciones que tiene que desempeñar y, entre esas funciones, está el conservar los palacios y terrenos que tiene a su disposición.
No voy a hacer alusiones a la inteligencia de nadie... pues esto no depende de inteligencia... sino a cultura. ¿Saben lo que es el antiguo régimen? ¿Qué es una monarquía totalitaria? ¿Qué es una monarquía parlamentaria? ¿Qué es una monarquía federal? Y otra, la bandera Republicana (una invención del Siglo XX a petición de la Madre Patria que era la URSS, nombre que se le dio a La Gran Vía de Madrid durante la 2ª República) no era del color que airean... la banda de abajo era de color azul intenso. Lo que sucedió fue que tras los 40 años de DICTADURA MILITAR, al desempolvarlas, los colores azules habían variado hacia el violáceo que conocemos hoy. Culturilla nada más.

Por cierto. La bandera de la Primera República, para quien no crea el argumento esgrimido en el comentario anterior, era igual que la de la monarquía "rojo y gualda" con una diferencia: NO DISPONÍA DE CORONA.
¿Cómo abanderáis esa corona sobre el escudo de España? ¿No sabéis que el Real Madrid o la Real Sociedad cambiaron sus nombres y sus escudos durante la II República porque la corona indica la condición regia de la nación?
Culturilla nada más.
Un saludo.

lo cual no es sorprendente si piensas que tanto un rey como un presidente de república tienen la misma función y, exceptuando la herencia del cargo, las mismas prerrogativas. El argumento que compara el sueldo del presidente de la república francesa con los gastos de la monarquía es torticero, puesto que los gastos de una presidencia de la república no se reducen al sueldo del presidente, y lo mismo vale para una monarquía.

Cuando leo que al rey nos lo impuso Franco y luego no dicen nada más veo que el comentario es totalmente partidista. El rey tenía la misión y las órdenes de seguir con el "movimiento" sin embargo el realizó todas las gestiones para que hoy tengamos una democracia.
Desde siempre los extremos se juntan y este caso no es una excepción tanto la extrema derecha como la extrema izquierda quieren una república (en estos momentos, ya que ninguno de los dos pueden tener sus preciadas dictaduras).
A la Casa Real le falta marketing, no sabe vender sus logros ni sus trabajos, porque aunque la información está ahí o no interesa o simplemente vemos información más filtrada. Digo esto porque se sabe que la mediación del rey en el conflicto con Marruecos (Isla Peregil), fue decisiva y evito problemas mayores. Hace pocos meses se firmó un contrato con Arabia Saudí para construir una red de trenes de alta velocidad (cifrada en varios miles de millones de euros), que darán trabajo en fábricas españolas a trabajadores españoles y ese contrato lo ha conseguido la casa real. Solo con este trabajo ha amortizado el sueldo de este año.
Conozco muchos republicanos, que lo eran de niños en la II república, que decían en las décadas del 80 y 90 que ellos no podían cambiar a estas alturas de la vida y por eso no decían viva a la monarquía, pero si hubo un rey en España que lo mereciese ese era este.

Los cambios tienen que ser para mejor no para peor.

MARCHANDO OTRA DE OPINIONES IMPOPULARES

No es un secreto que quienes luchamos por la despenalización del aborto, no fuimos quienes lo utilizamos como alternativa contraceptiva para los embarazos no deseados; sino que quienes lo han utilizado sistemáticamente son aquellas mujeres de pro que, en las relaciones sexuales esporádicas, no se atrevieron a contrariar al varón que no quisiese usar preservativo, y, en las relaciones estables, tiene lapsus que revelan su pueril inconsciencia. Es decir, las que jamás estarán a nuestro lado para reivindicar sus derechos. Las aliadas objetivas del machismo.
También es sabido que quienes quisimos que la Ley considerara delito el maltrato en la familia, fuimos poco propensas a caer en relaciones de dominación, no nos enamoramos de los hombres agresivos; y nunca olvidamos que el maltrato lo recibe el más débil y lo ejerce el más fuerte; y entre los sádicos que maltratan a su prole hay tantas mujeres como hombres. Y eso lo confirman las estadísticas que existen de niños hospitalizados con lesiones por maltrato.

Las que quisimos que los hombres asumieran su responsabilidad paterna y desempeñaran su papel en la relación afectiva y la educación de sus hijos, partimos de una premisa esencial: que considerábamos a los hombres dotados de la misma riqueza humana y emocional que las mujeres, y creíamos que sería beneficioso para el equilibrio psíquico y emocional de los componentes de la familia. Por eso reivindicamos la plenitud y no la frustración como modo de relación.
Las que reivindican el papel prioritario de la madre en la crianza y educación de los hijos, son las mismas que buscaron y desearon varones mutilados emocionalmente, y que trasmiten a sus hijos una visión distorsionada y negativa de los hombres, que a su vez, los mutila. La Ley que, en caso de divorcio, da automáticamente la custodia a las madres está primando esa visión morbosa y sexista.
Hoy, la Ley que penaliza el maltrato ha pervertido lo que la legitimaría, que es la igualdad para todos, la presunción de inocencia, y el rigor en el castigo contra quien denuncia en falso.
Los Juzgados están saturados por el alto porcentaje de denuncias infundadas, mendaces, de mujeres que desean perjudicar y vengarse de sus maridos; a los que pueden negar así el derecho irrenunciable a los vínculos afectivos con sus hijos. Pero no olvidemos que también les están negando a sus hijos el derecho a tener una vida afectiva libre y plena con su padre. Ese secuestro no es sólo emocional, sino que interfiere gravemente en su libre desarrollo y sus derechos esenciales.
Los jueces, los abogados, los psicólogos, los asistentes sociales no ignoran lo que está ocurriendo, y sólo se atreven a comentarlo en privado: la maldad, la perversidad, la mezquindad, el espíritu vengativo, y la falta de escrúpulos morales en la especie humana está equitativamente repartidos entre hombres y mujeres por igual; sin embargo, esa Ley contra el maltrato en el seno de la familia, le ofrece a esas mujeres con características nefastas el arma idónea para sus fines más perversos.
Nunca me solidarizaré con ese tipo de mujeres que representan lo más despreciable del sexismo que combato. Y, ojala, no sea la única que se indigne por el contenido y el desarrollo de esta Ley demagógica y moralmente inicua.

Demasiado encasillamiento y dogmatismo.
También hay quien aborta porque, el hijo, es tan sólo "no-deseado" y con eso es suficiente.
Echabas un polvo con un tipo, te quedabas preñada, hablabas con él, se desentendía, te decía que pagaba, tenías diecinueve, dieciocho...
¿Qué haces?
Pues, abortas. ¡Qué cojones!
Abortas y punto.
Llegas a Londres y te montan un estudio sicológico, te machacan vilmente hasta que ven que estás segura, te sacan el feto y te dicen el sexo que tenía. Llegas a España jodida, traumatizada y frígida.
No sigo porque, como tu sabes, eso merecería un libro y un tratado.

José Manuel: la despenalización del aborto significa que quien haya de abortar no arriesgue una condena de prisión: no significa que quien no quiera o crea que no deba abortar se le obligue; y, en pura lógica, quien no esté por esa solución no tiene por qué decidir cuáles son las razones por las que deba abortar una mujer sin ir a la cárcel.
Pau: el criterio por el que una mujer decide abortar ni lo pregunto ni me interesa: luché para que se despenalizara sin necesitar razones lacrimógenas y emocionales de uno u otro signo.
Y eso no obsta para afirmar que las despenalización no fue porque las folloneras de siempre quisiéramos abortar, y -como con la pastilla del día después- las del sí-buana lo han considerado una alternativa normal para no aprender a decir "no".

¿Te has planteado que hablar en nombre de las mujeres sea completamente demagógico? ¿Es que nos ha comido la lengua el gato?

Otra vez ¡pleno al quince!, Gatopardo. Mire, me apuesto un Velazquez contra un café de puchero a que usted no tiene nada de gato o gata, sino que es un lince de pura sangre. ¿acepta la apuesta?. Naturalmente, su palabra me basta. Sólo tiene que decir que no es verdad y dando por perdida la apuesta depositaré inmediatamente el cuadro donde me indique.

Su magnífico artículo envía cariñosos saludos a la caterva de hipócritas que niegan a la mujer el derecho a ser dueñas de su cuerpo y de su vida. Pienso que generalmente son aquellas o aquellos, dispuestos ha realizar cualquier clase de porquería menos aquella que pueda generar descendencia; y que, además, "si pasaba" tenían pòsibles para relizar un viajecito de compras a Londres. Pido para las mujeres y los hombres, que han dado la cara por esos derechos un monumento delante del Congreso. A los que estaban en contra pero ahora se aprovechan les dedico la poesía de iguel Hernández "los cobardes", que habla de "las fugitivas cacas".

En cuanto a los maltratadores de niños: ¡30 años plantando pinos. Y a las autoridades que no toman las medidas suficientes para que tal asquerosidad no suceda ¡60 años de lo mismo!

Para no exenderme más, termino refiriéndome a las señoras o señores que maltratan a sus conyuges pero declaran que son ellas las maltratadas: ante cualquier declaración, directos a la máquina de la verdad (5 análisis) y según el resultado ¡a plantar pinos -20 años-!.

No sé tal vez porque vivi en un país donde desde hace muchísimos años el aborto era legal pues no me planteo esos conflictos de que si es vida o no ¡Estas embarazada! ¿Que deseas hacer? Es tu cuerpo y tu decides. Creo que si de todas maneras lo van a hacer es mejor que sea con todas las condiciones medicas posibles.
En los otros aspectos el tema es largo y complicado. Actualmente ya no hay igualdad entre hombres y mujeres, muchas leyes favorecen a la mujer y algunas mujeres malintencionadas abusan de su condición. En México basta con que una mujer te denuncie por acoso sexual para que seas consignado y no alcances fianza ¡Y luego se quejan de que no hay hombres!

Pues yo prefiero menos leyes y más justicia, me parece que hay por este país demasiado vividor del legislerio y poco interes en aplicar la ley.

Pienso que cuando las leyes, aprobadas por la lucha de mucha gente, o aprobadas por que es algo natural en los tiempos en que vivimos, son llevadas a los extremos, dejan de ser buenas leyes.
En efecto, hay mujeres que aprovechando los maltratos infringidos a otras, maltratan ellas mismas a los padres de sus hijos negándoles sus derechos.Aunque estos sean unos "benditos" Y quien se quita de encima a un marido pelma, cuyo único delito es ese, ser un pelma, acusándolo de maltrato... Y sé de mujeres verdaderamente maltratadas a las que no se escucha en ningún lado por que están tan anuladas que no saben cual es el sitio idoneo para acudir.Ni a que puerta llamar.
Con la ley del aborto estoy de acuerdo siempre que se vaya libremente sin que nadie te obligue a ello. Algo menos de acuerdo estoy con la pildora del día después. Bueno, tengo mis razones para opinar así pero seria demasiado largo de contar.

MIEDO A OPINAR

Autor: Domingo F. Failde

En España, la libertad de expresión va camino de convertirse en pura virtualidad. Con el agravante, eso sí, de que ni tan siquiera en los vastos dominios de Internet se inviste su ejercicio de cuantos requisitos y cualidades le confieren tal nombre, a imagen y semejanza de una idea platónica, demasiado platónica para ser real.
En los años difíciles, era precisamente esto: palabra subrepticia, clandestina; un grito que brotaba del silencio, de las negras entrañas del espanto, de la entretela de la negación. Alguien clamaba "¡Libertad!", esa palabra impura –que así la adjetivaba el poeta fascista José María Pemán en el impresentable "Poema de la bestia y el ángel"- y salía corriendo calle arriba, llevándose el semblante de la voz, la progenie de aquel clamor secreto que se resuelve en queja. "¡Libertad!", dice otro. Y otro, en un rincón, temblándole el aliento, repite "¡Libertad!", mientras una maraña de uniformes asfixiaba con su ceniza el eco reprimido de la imposible consigna: Libertad, libertad; una sábana blanca con el vocablo en rojo, sangrando bajo los cascos de los caballos.
No podía nombrarse. Ninguna boca la invocaba acaso y circulaba muda por las callejas del extrarradio, temerosa de ser descubierta, detenida, procesada, bajo cargo de subversión. Por su causa, afrontaba la gente persecuciones, cárcel, la muerte misma, que no es muy diferente a una vida penada, irrespirable.
Entonces, la censura tenía rostro. Era un hombre enfundado en su guerrera, un funcionario oscuro con mirada de cuervo, un alcázar marmóreo, una selva de bayonetas, un nublado que escupe pavor. Ahora no. Los censores son un virus que infunde recelo: ¿qué pensarán de mí si digo esto?, ¿qué consecuencias pueden traerme mis palabras?, ¿qué será de mi empleo si afirmo lo contrario?, ¿qué ocurrirá si éste o aquel se entera? Y uno empieza a borrar los vocablos malditos, suaviza la expresión por no ofender a nadie y termina omitiendo, callando, sepultando en silencio la ignominia, no sea que le nieguen el saludo, lo despidan de su trabajo, le den la espalda en club, yo qué sé, miedo al miedo, temor a que las cámaras te delaten, a que un troyano te despatarre el ordenador y un vampiro succione tu intimidad, diseccione tus pensamientos y te encierre con nombres y apellidos en alguna lista siniestra, carne de seguimiento, materia de sospecha, ciudadano indeseable.
Por eso nadie opina en foros ni mentideros. Ni siquiera cubriéndose el pelaje con el antifaz de un seudónimo. "Silencio, a callar he dicho", como Bernarda Alba. Aquí nadie replica. Uno deja el mensaje en la pantalla, y al cabo de los meses sigue allí, solitario, oculto por una maraña de moscas que defecaron alrededor sus sandeces en triste idioma. Nadie dice ni mu, no vaya el replicado a ser un mandamás. "Silencio, a callar he dicho". Veinte años, poniéndole punto a la i, tocándole las narices a tantísimo reaccionario, y nada. Silencio. Nadie se atreve a rebatir, refutar, impugnar, desmentir, oponerse.

Sueño con que, algún día, al abrir algún web u ojear un periódico, alguien me haga encontrar la horma de mi zapato y me vista de limpio con razones contrarias. Si ocurriese el portento, buscaría al firmante por todo el planeta y, en lugar de batirme con él a bastonazos, le invitaría a unas copas de Ribera del Duero, celebrando, como el protagonista de "Casablanca", el principio de una gran amistad.
Vivimos en la sociedad del "buen rollo", pero no es verdad. El respeto no implica, necesariamente, temor. Tampoco enemistad la discrepancia. Ni hay por qué resignarse cuando se empeñan en endosarnos gato por liebre. El servilismo y la democracia son antagónicos. También la dignidad, por descontado. Y el origen de sus raíces: pese a quien pese, la libertad.

En la imagen: Duelo a garrotazos, de Goya.

Interesante e importante asunto. Hace unos días, tuve una conversación con un conocido filósofo español (a quien no voy a nombrar porque voy a referir de oído, es decir, como yo lo recuerdo, algo que me dijo y no estoy completamente seguro de ser fiel a sus palabras). Nuestro filólosof se que jaba en aquella conversación de que esto de lo políticamente correcto se lo está cargando todo; ya no hay sitio para la discrepancia; el ambiente está insoportable; yo, decía él, ya digo que no a casi todas las invitaciones para participar en programas de televisión y radio, porque no hay manera de salir de esa estrechez de lo políticamente correcto.
Se quejaba nuestro filósofo del escaso nivel de discusión pública, de la miseria cognitiva (aquí ya empiezo a derivar por mi cosecha). Y es cierto, qué poco margen de maniobra ¿no? Uno necesita equivocarse un poco, sacar un poco los pies del tiesto para buscar nuevos puntos de vista. Pero parece que no, que, aquí no. Aquí a quien saca un pie del tiesto se lo cortan.
¿O será que creemos que nos lo van a cortar y somos unos "cagaos" que ejercemos la autocensura?

Por pura paradoja, he publicado este artículo de mi admirado poeta Domingo F. Failde, y lo explico: hace aquí una montón de afirmaciones con las que no estoy de acuerdo; la primera, en el título, porque precisamente opinamos gratuitamente la mayor parte del tiempo, sin base, sin rebozo, sin pudor ni timidez alguna.
Respecto a "los años difíciles", me temo que el poeta debe de ser muy joven o muy mayor y no se acuerda que la mayoría de los españoles ni siquiera criticaban en privado la dictadura; y como desde hace siglos, pasamos sin despeinarnos de un régimen a otro, con un mínimo ajuste en el lenguaje para adornarlo con tacos e improperios de signo contrario contra los cuatro desgraciados que siempre están dispuestos a disentir.
Mire usted, don Domingo, en la naturaleza de las cosas está que nuestras opiniones no despierten una ternura universal; y no por eso hemos de clamar contra la censura. Lo normal es que el caracter, el modo de reir, las opiniones, y hasta la caída de ojos, nos procuren odios y amores, aliados y adversarios. Eso es normal y muy sano.
¿No sería mejor que madurara usted emocionalmente y se habituara a no recibir un remolque de aprobación y ternura cada vez que usted se exprese?
A mis años, le puedo asegurar que hay más motivo para enorgullecerse de los enemigos que de los amigos.
(Y no es necesario que malgaste conmigo en Ribera del Duero, porque no lo diferencio del vino de la casa.)

Una vez me dijeron que es un error esforzarse en caer bien a todo el mundo y que de la misma manera que debemos asimilar a nuestros amigos también lo debemos hacer con nuestros enemigos. Las opiniones son el reflejo de nuestra diversidad y no siempre son la mejor baza para hacer amigos.

Hace un par de días he tenido el placer de conocer a un señor catedrático experto y número uno en lo que respecta a la zoología, y digo el placer por que es una maravilla escucharlo hablar de su especialidad. También tuve la oportunidad aunque no el placer de escucharlo hablar de temas cotidianos y es cuando observé el "sí güana" general de todos por evitar el enfrentamiento ante un señor que rezumaba pedantería y clasismo en el cien por cien de sus palabras. No pude evitar dedicarle un par de pinceladas ante algunos de sus comentarios.

...La libertad no soporta el maltrato y, en cuanto nota el ataque, se le enciende el pilotito. Eso sí, no entiende de si es rojo o azul, blanco o negro. Hoy, lo "políticamente correcto" se ha convertido en un subterfugio para no decir la puñetera verdad o enmascararla. Cada uno somos nuestros peores censores, sobre todo, porque se nos olvida que, de un extremo al otro, hay que escuchar para volver a tomar la palabra, y rectificar, si es preciso; y en caso contrario, seguir conviviendo. Por eso me quedé siempre con la literatura: desarrolla el espíritu crítico, aunque sea en silencio, pero avanza; como la libertad...

Max: si un filósofo se queja de que no se puede hacer una mesa redonda con rigor en la televisión y la radio es que no ha reflexionado sobre la naturaleza incompatible de esos medios con el intercambio ponderado, riguroso y sensato de las ideas. Que analice los fines y los medios en que se basan.
Ramiro II: si hubiera mucha gente en España como yo no estaríamos en la España de las autonomías sino en la Confederación Ibérica de Bandas de Uno, y eso sería un sinvivir.

Liquenman: nunca entenderé que se le pida a un escritor, a un filósofo, a un especialista riguroso, que sea, además, simpático, bondadoso o tolerante, cuando a quien es una bellísima persona en nuestro entorno, y tiene una incultura enciclopédica no se le exige que sea un gran zoólogo, por ejemplo.
Elena, me alegro que pasado el tiempo hayas llegado a la misma conclusión que antes rebatías, cuando pretendías que comprendiera que el uso de un léxico idoneo, los temas conflictivos, me convertirían en una administradora de bitácora con apenas lectores, que huirían a otros pagos más amenos y complacientes. Respecto a la pregunta antispam, sospecho que Blogia la ha colocado para eliminar, mediante ese test de cultura general, a los desinformados.
Tamargo: la libertad no sólo ha de soportar el maltratato, es que si es verdadera libertad ha de recibir más palos que una estera, en pura lógica.
Y sigue sin asomar Domingo para polemizar, con lo que dice que le gusta a él la discusión.

ASUNTOS PERSONALES

Ha llegado el momento de desvelar el misterio y la razón por la que me escondo bajo un seudónimo.

Los tiempos que se avecinan serán duros, terribles, y los encaro con tristeza, extenuada, y sin esa viveza borde que me caracteriza. Ha entregado su dimisión José Bono, el ex-Ministro de Defensa del Gobierno de España, "por asuntos personales".

Eso significa que volverá a El Salobre, y recorrerá los pueblos para preguntar al pacífico vecino por la familia, por la cosecha o el pleito que tiene con el de al lado; se dejará ver con sus hijos, se tomará la obligación de dejarse caer por el bar con su primo y testaferro, para decir que él sí que vive bien y es inteligente. Lo es. Más que su otro primo que bucea en los insondables arcanos de la historia local; pero infinitamente menos que el paisanaje que le ríe las gracias como cacique y sabe que no hay solución, que eso es como la grama, puedes limpiar un rodal, y mañana habrá crecido otro.

Sé que recalará como secretario general de la ONU o de la OTAN, pero, entre tanto, estorbará como un marido jubilado, más que una cómoda en el pasillo. Volverá a estar en campaña, otra vez.

Y la razón por la que no puedo salir a cara descubierta, sin seudónimo, diciendo "yo soy", es porque hay docenas de fotos comprometedoras con Bono besándome.

Los malditos cámaras se han cebado en mí, y no hay retrospectiva de su carrera política donde no salga mi jeta cariacontecida, con Bono besándome apasionadamente.

Los fotógrafos saben lo emotivo que resulta mi venerable pelo blanco, mi venerable edad y mis venerables arrugas, y con lo besucón que es, esta anciana, como todas, ha sido víctima de sus saludos cariñosos.

Y los que me hará, cagüenlá, que es un gerontófilo compulsivo, y vivo a un tiro de piedra de su casa.

Ejemplo de cómo nos trinca Bono por el pescuezo para besar a las viejas.

VERGÜENZA

Bien sabe Dios que Antoñita fue de las que acogió a Mila, aquella catalana que Federico había conocido en la Universidad, con los brazos abiertos:
-¡Aquí somos muy sencillos, no gastes maneras! -Si bien, para que supiera con quien estaba hablando, se remontó hasta las Cruzadas para hablarle de su familia, y luego le dijo - Te presentaré a mi modista, que nos cose baratísimo...
Mila vestía esa especie de uniforme andrógino de camisa y pantalón vaquero, que desentonaba entre la gente bien de Sevilla, y Federico, su marido, que había estudiado en Barcelona, hombre al fin, ni se daba cuenta. Como no se daba cuenta de que su mujer había hecho el ridículo con los caballeros de la Real Maestranza hablando del estilo mozárabe de un monumento. Aquello se había quedado como ocurrencia hilarante, y no había día en el que alguno de ellos no dijera con voz engolada refiriéndose a la faena de un torero, la actuación de un árbitro, una comida sosa, un camarero que se había trabucado con el pedido*...: "¡Eso es estilo mozárabe!"*- y las carcajadas estallaban.

-¡No sé que pretende Federico haciendo oídos sordos a semejante impertinencia! -le había comentado Jaime a Antoñita- Cuando le he dicho que yo era descendiente de Cristóbal Colón, la cretina me ha preguntado si en mi familia eso se puede documentar o si se encuentra todo en el Archivo de Indias. ¡Fíjate tú! Yo le he dicho que entre mis antepasados sólo había cristianos y mujeres decentes, y no nos habíamos mezclado con indios; pero a Federico lo pienso coger aparte y lo voy a poner a caldo, porque su obligación es frenarle la lengua a su mujer.

Empezaron a darles de lado cuando Mila y Federico aparecieron por la Feria de Abril vestidos de trapillo y ella con una cámara de fotos. Tuvo mucha guasa Jaime cuando les dijo:

-¿Venís del campo y no habéis querido esperar a vestiros como Dios manda para venir a saludar? ¡Qué atentos sois! - y luego los ignoró como todos los demás.

Cuando estaban preparando las cruces de mayo, Cuca llamó a todas las amigas con una noticia que al principio se negaron a creer:

-¡Mila estaba en la manifestación del 1º de mayo con los sindicalistas!

-Pasaría por allí y le sorprendería la manifestación al cruzar la calle, mujer... es de una de las mejores familias catalanas... -argumentó Antoñita como una tonta, incapaz de creer que alguien pudiera ser tan cerril.

-Sale en la foto de ABC sosteniendo una pancarta, lo puedes comprobar...

Y durante muchos años, se cerraron las puertas de las casas decentes, y Mila y Federico tuvieron que reducirse a tratar con profesores de la universidad, escritores, intelectuales y gentecilla así. Y como esnobismo máximo, no vendieron el palacete del Barrio de Santa Cruz del siglo XVII para comprar un piso en el barrio de los Remedios, sino que lo restauraron y vivieron allí.

Mila y Federico tuvieron nueve hijos, y un día doña Purita, la madre de Federico, una señora de la mejor estirpe de Sevilla, temiendo por su memoria ante aquel aluvión, tuvo que decirle a su secretario:

-Hay que hacer la lista de mis nietos con sus cumpleaños y onomásticas.

Y cuando el secretario estuvo preparado con pluma, tintero y secante, doña Purita dictó:

- 1º.- Juan Alberto Fernández de las Salesas y Rocafort, nacido el 6 de mayo de 1977, onomástica el día 24 de junio...

Y yendo por el sexto, al decir los nombres de pila, el viejo secretario tuvo la ocurrencia de querer completar con los apellidos:

-...Fernández de las Salesas y Rocafort... -dijo suavemente como para sí.

Doña Purita golpeó el suelo con su bastón y gritó con la voz estrangulada por la ira:

- ¡En mi presencia y en mi casa no admito iniciativas del servicio: copie al dictado lo que yo le diga!

Y el viejo secretario de doña Purita, profesor emérito de la Universidad, pero sin abolengo, se lo contó a todo el mundo:

-¡Menuda diferencia entre doña Purita, toda una señora, con la nuera! - decía extasiado con aquella dignísima salida.

- ¡A Mila, Doña Purita le tiene prohibida la entrada a su casa! -informaba alguien a quien efectivamente doña Purita tenía en la lista negra, como a casi todo el mundo.

Pero la última atrocidad de Mila había sobrepasado las peores sospechas, y Antoñita decidió pedir firmas para que se tramitase en el Vaticano su excomunión. Llamó una por una a sus amigas, y todas pusieron el grito en el cielo cuando les explicó lo que a ella le había tenido que explicar Jaime.

-Es la jefa, en toda Andalucía, de un grupo como la Mafia, que recoge dinero, y amenazan con cartas a los gobiernos para soltar del presidio a los chorizos y a los criminales -les dijo.

Nadie se negó a firmar ni a formar parte de la comisión que llevaría la petición al arzobispado, ni hubo quien se extrañase de que hubiera acabado capitaneando delincuentes.

En el ABC de Sevilla, con nombre, apellidos, y su fotografía, para mayor vergüenza, estaba la noticia de que Mila era la Presidenta en Andalucía de Amnistía Internacional.

¿SE PUEDE QUEDAR?

Las instrucciones eran claras: había que acompañar discretamente a la calle a todo aquel invitado que no lo fuera; pero no se podía herir el ego de los asistentes pidiéndole identificación: el arbitro que debía decidir quién era un participante de pleno derecho en aquella fiesta era yo, algo así como un Petronio que malgastase el talento organizando recepciones y aconsejando el protocolo adecuado a la ocasión, contratado por nuevos ricos.
El jefe de camareros me hizo una seña para que me fijara en un desconocido con el cabello casi blanco.
—¿Se puede quedar o lo acompañamos a la salida?
Llevaba un traje bien cortado, de un tono ala de mosca con una camisa blanca. Gesticulaba, su rostro tenía un tono cobrizo casi natural, y si no fuera por cierto rictus de desagrado casi constante en la boca, hubiera resultado simpático. Hasta aquí no vi nada que me indicara qué debía hacer.
Como si se hubiera dado cuenta de mi atención, tomó del brazo a su interlocutor y fue a sentarse frente a mí. Al hacerlo, sus calcetines blancos destellaron y supe qué contestar.

—¡Es un honor que haya venido!

Sólo alguien verdaderamente elegante sería capaz de rebelarse contra esa norma mostrenca que prohíbe los calcetines blancos, y el único es Giorgio Armani.

INTERMEZZO PARA MELÓMANOS

By Nature's swift and secret working hand
The garden glows, and fills the liberal air
With lavish odors.
There let me draw
Ethereal soul, there drink reviving gales,
Profusely breathing from the spicy groves
And vales of fragrance.
Thomson.

Piesse ideó una escala de materias aromáticas comparable a la de las notas musicales, para mezclar esencias armoniosamente, y componer una melodía de fragancias.
De la misma manera que las notas bajas evocan gravedad, dramatismo, como en un Dies Irae, los perfumes que se le asemejan pueden estar indicados en momentos solemnes y crear una atmósfera desconcertante si se usa en una celebración frívola. Los estudios de aromaterapia confirman que existe una profunda influencia de los perfumes en nuestro ánimo.

Partiendo de esta escala se puede formar mezclas armónicas, comparables a las musicales:

Acorde en DO mayor

Sándalo LA en clave de FA
Geranio LA en clave de FA segunda octava
Acacia MI en clave de SOL
Azahar SOL en clave de SOL
Alcanfor DO en clave de SOL

Acorde en FA mayor

Almizcle SOL subprimera octava
Rosa DO primera octava
Tuberosa FA
Alcanfor DO
Narciso FA segunda octava
Haba tonka DO

Escala de olores de Piesse (FA mayor) Subiendo octavas desde abajo.

Pachulí LA
Vainilla SI
Alhelí DO siguiente octava
Benjuí RE
Frangipani MÍ
Estoraque FA
Clavo SOL
Sándalo LA
Clemátide SI
Cálamo DO siguiente octava
Castóreo RE
Pergularia MI
Bálsamo del Perú FA
Clavel SOL
Geranio LA
Heliotropo SI
Lirio DO siguiente octava
Almizcle RE
Guisante de olor MI
Bálsamo de Tolú FA
Canela SOL
Rosa LA

Una sonata, un aria, una polka, toda composición musical tiene infinidad de variaciones melódicas; la partitura puede ser un pentagrama simple o un pentagrama doble, como en las partituras vocales adonde existe un pentagrama para las voces altas y otro, para las voces bajas, y existen variantes en el tempo y la orquestación, pero siempre rige la férrea disciplina de la armonía.
Lo mismo que las notas de un pentagrama, los elementos que componen un perfume son limitados; pero la divina armonía en la composición crea la obra de arte, la joya perfecta, el Quinteto para clarinete KV. 581 de Mozart o Jicky, de Guerlain.

Porque es posible que Dios haya muerto; pero en Mozart y en Guerlain se puede confiar siempre.

El perfume de la madera del sándalo tiene un efecto antidepresivo, es antiséptico, antiespasmódico, astringente, afrodisíaco, cicatrizante, expectorante, y tonificante. Pero los palitos que venden con aroma de sándalo no contienen sándalo, sino una apestosa mezcla indefinible e inedinteficable.
Sin embargo, puedes crear un ambiente relajado y receptivo con D-Limoneno (la esencia extraída de la cáscara del limón y de la naranja) o pulverizando con un agua de colonia con componentes cítricos o poniendo un pañuelo de papel embebido en los radiadores.

El cap d'ase es el cantueso, también llamado "tomillo borriquero". Tiene propiedades relajantes. Y el agua de la cocción del cantueso nutre y mejora la piel. Los vahos de cantueso servían para descongestionar los bronquios en los resfriados.

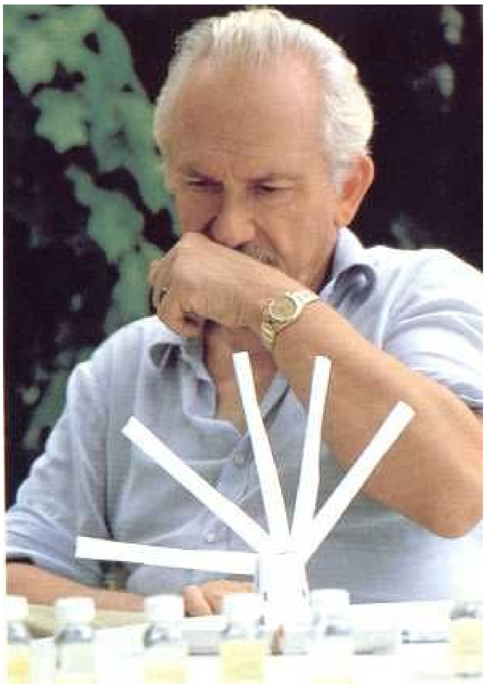
LAS SIETE FAMILIAS DEL PERFUME Y LAS NOTAS AROMÁTICAS



" Nunca me he sentido tan desvalido como cuando era joven, me encontraba solo con una mujer, y llegaba hasta mí su perfume."

Todo el mundo parece entender hoy de vinos, pero muy poca gente se atreve a declarar su amor al perfume, ese vínculo sensual y misterioso que puede amargarnos una velada por su desazonante impertinencia o elevarnos hasta las cimas del extasis sensitivo. Y, debería de ser preceptivo su estudio, porque en el perfume se aúna la ciencia, el arte, el placer estético y sensorial, y su elección suele demostrar una certera falta de criterio o una exquisita sagacidad.
Porque no todos los perfumes son aptos para todas las ocasiones, todas las personas ni todas las horas del día.
El Comité Francés del Perfume mantiene desde el siglo pasado una clasificación, que actualiza rigurosamente, y en la que se describe las siete grandes familias de perfumes, divididas en cuarenta y cinco subfamilias.
Una variedad infinita de aromas, que los perfumistas de ayer y de hoy han combinado en un sinfín de posibilidades, como notas de fondo, notas de corazón, notas de cabeza… Diversas familias de perfume han nacido de estas infinitas variaciones.
En esta nomenclatura se encuentran las siete grandes familias: Hespérides, Florales, Fougères (helechos),Chipres, Amaderados, Ambarados y Cueros

* Hespérides, son las fragancias basadas en los aceites esenciales de limón, naranja, lima, mandarina y bergamota. Las primeras "Eau de Cologne" utilizaban hespérides. A este cuerpo fresco y picante se añaden leves notas florales o notas amaderadas. "Eau Impériale", de Guerlain (1853) pertenece a esta familia, una de las más antiguas en perfumería.
La familia hespéride se subdivide en: especiado, aromático, floral chipre, amaderado y amaderado floral.
Florales son las fragancias clásicas y representan una gran familia. De una única nota floral, se pasa a mezclas más complejas de rosa, violeta, narciso, tuberosa o alhelí. La familia floral es de lejos la más amplia y sus notas entran, como base o complemento, en más de la mitad de los perfumes que se comercializan hoy en día.

El aroma de las flores es efímero y para captarlo se utiliza el método headspace, consistente en encerrar en una burbuja de vidrio aquello de lo que queremos extraer el aroma. Lo que permite reproducir el aroma de una flor no es una sola nota sino la combinación de multitud de ellas.
Las fragancias florales contienen aceites esenciales de flores y pueden subdividirse en ocho categorías: soliflor, bouquet floral, floral aldehídico, floral verde, floral amaderado frutal, floral frutal, y floral marino. Perfumistas conocidos como Molinard o Houbigant han contribuido al desarrollo de esta familia. Con el aceite esencial de lavanda los hombres descubrieron las colonias florales. Más tarde se añadieron aldehídos y nació una nueva subfamilia, de colonias florales más penetrantes. Los florales se combinan con varias notas afrutadas, amaderadas o marinas, más frescas, que diversifican esta categoría.
Fougère, es el nombre que se aplica a esta familia de perfumes, pero no significa que la fragancia trate de reproducir el olor a helecho, sino de evocar el ambiente de un bosque. Se realiza en general con notas de lavanda, musgo, madera y cumarina. A esta base se pueden añadir matices aromáticos, florales o afrutados, cilantro, tomillo, romero o artemisa, que combinan a la perfección.
Es una familia tradicionalmente masculina que adopta el nombre de un perfume francés ya desaparecido, "Fougère Royale" , de Houbigan (1884), que evocaba el aroma de los bosques. El éxito de este perfume convirtió la combinación de lavanda, musgo, encina, maderas, bergamota en punto de partida para multitud de fragancias.
Dentro de la familia fougère encontramos: floral ambarado, ambarado dulce, especiado y aromático.
Chipres, es una familia de perfumes creados desde 1917, y las notas de musgo de roble y de pachulí constituyen su base, amenizada, dependiendo de los creadores, con notas afrutadas de melocotón, con notas florales como la rosa, o incluso con notas cuero: esencias de humo o de madera quemada le dan un carácter nítidamente masculino. Estas fragancias, ricas y persistentes, tienen una base de musgo de encina, pachulí, sándalo o bergamota y aparecen asociadas a notas frutales en los perfumes más femeninos de la familia.
Esta familia recibe su nombre de un perfume fabricado en Chipre y famoso en la Antigua Roma. François Coty lo redescubrió a finales del siglo XIX y creó "Chypre" en1917.
Las variedades de la familia chipre son: frutal, aldehídico, cuero, aromático, verde y floral.
Amaderados. Son fragancias masculinas. Se trata de notas calientes, como el pachulí, el aroma del cedro o el vetiver. También se encuentra el rastro de la lavanda y, a veces, de cítricos. Los amaderados se acompañan a menudo con notas más frescas, hespérides o marinas, y de vez en cuando se encuentran con notas aún más calientes y sensuales, especiadas o ambaradas.
La madera del sándalo, el cedro, el pino o el ciprés, forman parte de las esencias utilizadas para crear perfumes de esta familia. Estas se suelen encontrar asociadas al pachulí y al vetiver.
Para decir que un perfume pertenece a esta familia, las notas amaderadas deben encontrarse en el corazón de éste o entre las notas de salida.
Hasta el éxito de "Feminité du Bois" , de Shiseido, predominaban en esta familia los perfumes masculinos, ahora se encuentran perfumes para ambos sexos.
Esta familia se divide en conífera hespéride, especiado, ambarado, aromático, especiado cuero y marino.
Ambarados u orientales, agrupan perfumes con notas suaves y calientes, hechas de polvo y vainilla, cuyo olor es característico. Las fragancias de esta familia evocan especias y esencias exóticas ,y se obtienen de la mezcla de vainilla, ámbar y almizcle. Por supuesto, se trata de notas de fondo, que se asocian con otras, generalmente olores más afrutados, ligeramente amaderados. También se puede detectar una presencia floral, a menudo la del clavel.

Deben su nombre al ámbar gris, una secreción de los cachalotes muy utilizada en perfumería a comienzos del siglo XX y que actualmente se sustituye por elementos sintéticos.
Son unos perfumes intensos y dulces, lo que los hace especialmente adecuados para las noches de otoño e invierno.
Dentro de esta familia encontramos ámbar dulce, semiambar floral, ámbar hespéride, ámbar floral amaderado, ámbar floral frutal y ámbar floral especiado.
Cueros. Sus notas tratan de reproducir el olor característico del cuero, con notas de humo, de abedul, de tabaco y de madera quemada. Los cueros están suavizados por notas florales, como las del lirio y de la violeta. Especialmente indicados para hombres que consideran que los perfumes son un complemento de higiene y de estilo.
Se subdivide en cuero floral y cuero tabaco.

Quien ha elegido un perfume para siempre, renunciando a todos los demás, mutila todas las facetas de su personalidad menos una, para llegar a ser una persona incompleta y monocorde, poco dúctil y limitada. Quien capta la necesidad de variar el perfume según el momento y el estado de ánimo, demuestra conocer la naturaleza de la mente, cuya diversidad polifacética es su mayor logro y nuestra mayor riqueza.
Nuestro perfume nos identifica, pero también nos define.

Mi olfato es directamente proporcional a la longitud de mi nariz, es decir tengo bastante buen olfato,puedo identificar los perfumes que las personas traen puestos. Algunos me hacen casi vomitar. Ej. Buen trabajo. Totalmente de acuerdo en en dos puntos: pocas personas se interesan por el mundo del perfume. Rastrear su historia, estudiar las distintas familias olfativas, descubrir las que más nos gustan. Tener claro lo que no nos gusta y efectivamente: no cerrarse a una sola fragancia. Desde que tengo uso de razón me fascinan los perfumes aunque también puedo entender que haya personas incapaces de reaccionar a una determinada fragancia. Y efectivamente, es difícil elegir perfume y renunciar a todos los demás, imposible. Algunas veces lo he pensado: uno que sea tu sello y emblema . . . pero -aunque tengo mis preferencias- no puedo soportar perderme otros. En este momento estoy utilizando diecinueve y para mí es lo más normal. Tengo dos de cabecera pero nunca descarto la posibilidad de serles infiel.

LA FAMILIA: HOMBRE + MUJER

Nadie con un gota de sangre siciliana permitirá que se mencione sin arrobo esta despreciable institución, que se perpetúa gracias a la fea costumbre de los varones, consistente en rascarse constantemente la entrepierna por la comezón de una higiene insuficiente, exacerbando una genitalidad proclive a la eyaculación precoz; mientras que sus coetáneas, vislumbrando cumbres de pasión inmarcesibles, se guardan bien de hacer padre a quien no haya firmado el contrato matrimonial o no pueda subvencionar el alivio de lo que sólo es producto de su atávico odio al jabón. Porque al hombre siciliano no le gusta estar con mujeres, se siente enfermo; él necesita la ruda camaradería de los machos.

Las familias sicilianas tienen un matriarcado con sociologia de corral aviar, y el picoteo inmisericorde de la mujer, quejosa y vocinglera, incapaz de ser discreta en un asunto que no le ataña, suele dar lugar a hombres ufanos y bravucones en la calle, que entran en coma profundo cuando llegan a casa. Sentados delante de la televisión, se diría que son obra de un taxidermista chapuzas que hubiera olvidado ponerles ojos de cristal.

Los hijos crecen, como no podía ser de otra manera, más próximos a nuestros ancestros de las cavernas que a la humanidad evolucionada, y suelen mostrar una crueldad cerril y una única ceja, que sombrea su mirada torva. En algún lugar de su anatomía existe un cerebro muy poco evolucionado, porque les basta con la médula espinal, y no necesitan pensar ni emocionarse ni sentir, salvo irritación, descontento y hastío.

Comen con la boca abierta, y en una postura próxima al derrumbe sobre la silla y la mesa, y suelen escoger el momento en que tienen la boca llena para hablar. Su lenguaje es parco y repetitivo, tienen cierta propensión a la frase hecha, a la onomatopeya y a la idea fija, como sus progenitores, y jamás aprendieron a dar las gracias ni a excusarse; pero mienten sistemáticamente, con la misma soltura que respiran, y la mayoría de los odios incurables entre vecinos viene de esa capacidad sobrenatural para fabular y perjudicar.

Nadie con dos dedos de frente puede clamar contra lo que haga peligrar la familia tradicional: ha de ser la clericalla y la carcundia más cerril quien gima y amenace contra la libertad, el erotismo, el libre albedrío y el divorcio, que son las únicas conquistas de la civilización que la humanidad debería defender, condenando a estos enemigos de la alegría de vivir a casarse y procrear o sumergirlos en una balsa llena de mierda por cuya superficie pasase, cada treinta segundos, una cuchilla rebanando cuellos. ¡Qué menos!

MÁS QUE UN JUEGO, DE LUIS TAMARGO

Entre las bitácoras que leo, hay gente con talento, un buen estilo literario, capaces de crear personajes y narrar historias con el pulso y el latido preciso para atrapar la atención del lector. Luis Tamargo reune todas esas caracteristicas, y, además, tiene el don de abarcar en sus descripciones mundos, países, vivencias y situaciones describiéndolos como aquellos viajeros y exploradores de lo humano, que vivieron al límite, a fondo, y nos lo transmitieron desde su escritorio.
Si también hubiera editores con talento...

"Más que un juego", relato de Luis Tamargo

"-¿Ahora? –preguntó ella volviéndose, pero sin bajar los brazos que sostenían su bellísimo pelo negro, suelto aún".
Luigi Pirandello.

Si le llamaba ahora le molestaría, lo sabía. Se acercó al ventanal y sacó el teléfono móvil de su bolso, movida por un impulso espontáneo de despedida. Su figura desnuda se recortaba al trasluz de las cortinas y el tenue reflejo moldeaba sus contornos redondeados. Así la encontró Bruno al salir del baño, le pareció sublime, encantadora y, desde atrás, abrazó su cuerpo menudo en un gesto amoroso de protección.
-¿Qué haces? ¿a quién llamas?
-...Iba a comprobar si tenía llamadas! –ella se dejó besuquear en el cuello, mientras volvía a colocar el teléfono en su sitio.
Él siguió aferrado a ella sin cesar en sus arrumacos cariñosos y Vera se dejó mecer, quizás en exceso pensativa... Bruno aprovechó para retomar la conversación iniciada en la sobremesa:
-Díme, Vera, ¿lo has pensado ya? Ella se giró, entregada aún entre sus brazos, y le miró a los ojos antes de hundir el rostro en su pecho. De nuevo volvió a mirarle cuando él la empujó con suavidad hacia el lecho...

-¡Bruno! ¿...otra vez? ¡Oh, Bruno!
Ambos rieron entre susurros y besos al tiempo que rodaban entremezclados con las sábanas revueltas.
Bruno era algo más joven que ella, aquel ejecutivo italiano venía demostrándole su fogosidad desde hacía varios años, cada vez que sus gestiones de negocios le traían al gélido invierno de Praga. Ella no era precisamente una mujer fácil, pero nadie mejor que una señora casada para conocer los motivos que la indujeron a dar el paso y convertir la habitación de aquel hotel en mudo testigo de sus apasionados encuentros. Hacía algún tiempo que había dejado de considerar sus casi veinte años de matrimonio y hoy, que se cumplía otro aniversario de boda, ni siquiera su propio marido se había acordado.
Para Nikolai Zabielin sólo existía una pasión: las paredes de su casa estaban plagadas de su huella con las fotos enmarcadas de sus eventos más destacados; las estanterías de su biblioteca rebosaban de numerosos volúmenes, auténticos tratados de ajedrez, manuales de estrategia, algunos de ellos con las jugadas maestras subrayadas; una vitrina en el salón mostraba los variados trofeos, nada espectacular sino pequeños premios de un aficionado, un buen y concienzudo aficionado que ponía los cinco sentidos y uno más en su juego predilecto.
Al principio, Vera le acompañó a las concentraciones, mientras fueron novios; aquella afición le venía desde la infancia y ella lo admitió como una parte integrante de su vida cuando se casaron. Después, los niños no llegaron, tal vez alejados por el enjudioso celo que su marido volcaba en aquel juego, ahora transformado en obsesivo y, así, se fue distanciando. La señora Zabielin no estaba dispuesta a compartir con aquel tablero de ajedrez su vida.
Nikolai no era mala persona, no, Vera le había querido. Pero los enfados se sucedieron cada vez con más violencia cuando regresaba tras una derrota y, cohibida por la tensión, ella llegó a temerle. Le tenía prohibido llamarle o distraerle la fecha de la competición y aquella mañana, como en anteriores ocasiones, el señor Zabielin marchó pronto para evitar interferencias que pudieran distorsionarle o distraer su concentrada atención en la partida. Era consciente de su nivel intermedio, lejano de las renombradas figuras que idolatraba; estudiaba las tácticas de los grandes en sus libros hasta aprenderlas de memoria, pero mantener aquel status suyo del montón requería de toda su exclusiva dedicación. Hasta ahora no había evolucionado del puro juego por placer de los comienzos en el colegio o en el bar al de los torneos municipales, por ello era tan decisivo el encuentro de aquella fecha que representaba el salto a la categoría interregional. Por ello mismo le pasó desapercibido un año más la celebración de su aniversario, aunque Vera tampoco le hacía ya hincapié sobre estos detalles. Además, ella no le beneficiaba con sus atenciones, si le notaba preocupado le atosigaba con obstinada insistencia porque se relajara y no lograba en él sino el efecto contrario, así que optó por centrarse en lo suyo, era mucho lo que se jugaba.
Sin embargo podía darse por satisfecho porque en aquella velada le tocó una jugada similar a la transcrita en una de las fases de un afamado certamen internacional que acabó por aprender de tanto tratar de descifrar. Sabía de cada movimiento y de las probabilidades de acierto en cada caso; rezó para que su oponente no optase por la pieza retrasada y, para su regocijo, así ocurrió con lo que rubricó el final con un jaque mate perfecto.
Regresó henchido de orgullo con el trofeo y una nueva categoría que defender, ávido por retomar el libro donde enfrascarse de la jugada que le había otorgado el éxito en aquella jornada. Cuando entró en casa llamó a Vera, sin obtener respuesta. Pegada al espejo del recibidor encontró una nota firmada por ella: "Salí a comprar tabaco". Se dirigió como un autómata hacia el salón, abrió la vitrina y posó la copa del trofeo; luego buscó entre los manuales de ajedrez hasta dar con el que contenía la jugada que le valió el triunfo y, sonriente, lo releyó una y otra vez, ensimismado. De pronto a Nikolai se le nubló el gesto. Algo no encajaba... Cerró despacio el libro mirando al techo: Vera no fumaba...

Pero Vera volaba ya hacia Trento, acabó por aceptar la proposición de su amor italiano que, a pesar de estar sujeto en el asiento de al lado, le besuqueaba el rostro propinándole carantoñas que apenas lograba sofocar entre risas y susurros:
-...¡Bruno! ¡Oh, Bruno!

Como podemos comprobar con la muestra de este relato, Tamargo es un escritor en la más amplia extensión y profundidad del término: sencillo, preciso, intenso, rico, expresivo, transmisor de una fuerza descriptiva extraordinaria, inteligente, vibrante, imaginativo ... Podría seguir así indefinidamente, pero no quiero que en su modestia se nos ponga colorado. Tan sólo le deseo que siga creando con el acierto de siempre y que pronto un editor con talento (como dice Gata) le descubra. Nosotros ya lo hemos hecho hace tiempo y disfrutamos mucho con ello antes de que ese editor nos lo robe un poco.

SECRETOS DE MUJER

Rosa me ha insistido que su hija Florita, mi ahijada, está muy rara desde que se casó. Y su voz y su gesto transmiten zozobra. Viniendo de ella, que suele ser tranquila y razonable, es como para alarmarse. Para colmo, una amiga común le ha contado que vio a Florita con hematomas en la cara. Y Florita le contó eso tan clásico de que se había caído, y se había golpeado con el picaporte. Justo cuando ha estado dos meses dando excusas para no ver a su madre.

—¿Tú crees que Pedro se habrá atrevido a pegarle?

—No sé, Rosa, lo que me extraña es que Florita no haya acudido a tí inmediatamente… Siempre te ha contado todas sus discusiones con él…

—Y Pedro también me las ha contado siempre…

—No sé… pero si no me entero, reviento.

Y, claro, con lo cotilla que soy, me invité a comer en su casa para encontrarme con Florita y Pedro, a los que no había visto desde hace cuatro meses.

Florita tiene cuarenta años, ha logrado perpetuar su carácter adolescente e inestable, y sus risas, sus gestos de desagrado y su expresividad desaforada convierten su rostro en la más transparente crónica de su estado de ánimo. Pero cuando llegué, Florita permaneció hierática, me besó, me abrazó, y me dio la bienvenida sin mover ni una ceja.

—Gata, cómo me alegro de verte.

—¿Te pasa algo?

Una risa que no se parece en nada a la suya, surge de las profundidades de la glotis, sin reflejarse en su rostro.

—¿Tiene que pasar algo para que me alegre de verte, pérfida Gata?

Pedro se acerca a nosotros, y la mira con arrobo. Me saluda con verdadera alegría y me pregunta lo de siempre.

— ¿Verdad que tu ahijada está preciosa?

—¡La más guapa del mundo! -Y nunca he dicho una mentira mayor. Florita está horrible, no parece ella. Tiene un gesto de susto, como si una visión espantosa la obsesionara. Su verborrea, sin embargo, es la misma.

—Mamá se ha empeñado en que pongamos la mesa en el comedor, pero yo digo que comamos en la cocina. ¡Dame la razón!

—Florita, por instinto de supervivencia ya sabes que nunca le llevo la contraria a tu madre: es un privilegio que se ha ganado por soportarme desde que íbamos a la escuela.

Comemos en la cocina, claro. Madre e hija se obsequian con frases intrascendentes y tensas. Así es que hago uso de mi proverbial falta de tacto.

—Bueno, Pedro, dime por qué tu mujer no viene a vernos…

Pedro mira a su mujer y calla. Florita pestañea, sin mover un músculo, y trata de bromear. Pero parece asustada.

—Ahora, Gata, estoy casada, y…

—Venga, Florita, lleváis viviendo juntos ocho años, no me vengas con rollos… Además le he preguntado a Pedro, porque tú mientes siempre y él, no.

Pedro está azorado, no me mira.

—Bueno… es que… Florita no ha podido… es…

—Oye, Gata, no te metas con él, soy yo la que he estado ocupada y no he podido venir…

—Ya… algo muy gordo ha tenido que ser para que interrumpas tu costumbre de venir a diario a comer o a cenar, a que tu madre te cosa los botones que se caen…

Rosa tiene los ojos cuajados de lágrimas.

—No sé qué te pasa, hija, pero... estás muy rara, y… no pareces la misma...

Florita mira a Pedro con esa extraña expresión despavorida. Y callan. Rosa se levanta y empieza a preparar la cafetera.

—Mamá, no nos quedamos a tomar café, nos vamos —dice Florita con la voz temblorosa y el rostro inexpresivo— Tenemos que irnos.

Pedro titubea, pillado por sorpresa.

—Si… hemos quedado…

Algo en su expresión me recuerda a otras mujeres que he conocido en las mismas circunstancias, y, de pronto, caigo en la cuenta de lo que debería de haber comprendido al mismo verla, y, sobre todo, sabiendo que Pedro es más joven que ella. No sé por qué a estas alturas me sigue costando tanto trabajo aceptar la estupidez de los que amo.

Rosa llora abiertamente, y me parece una canallada callarme, así es que suelto la información sin importarme los sentimientos de Florita.

—Rosa, no llores: esta idiota se ha hecho un tratamiento para quitarse arrugas, y por eso tiene la cara como si fuera en moto con el viento de frente y hubiera visto un fantasma o llevara un bigotillo de mierda fresca pintado.

OBRAS, REFORMAS Y LOGOPEDIA

Romualdo, el albañil que me han recomendado, ya había trabajado en esta casa antes de que yo la comprara.

— ¡Menudo trabajo tuve aquí para dejarla decente! ¿Qué es lo que quieres hacer?

— En la planta de arriba... he quitado las placas de escayola del techo, y he tirado el tabique que dividía una habitación en dos cuartos muy pequeños...

—¿Y eso para qué?

—Porque quiero tener una habitación más grande. Y lo que no sé hacer es unos salientes de yeso para poner unas estanterías ... aprovechando las columnas de ladrillos por donde suben los tiros de la chimeneas...

—Pero habrá que poner antes las escayolas nuevas de los techos...

—No, ya he limpiado las vigas de madera, sólo hay que parchear donde se ha caido el yeso...

—¿Las vigas con qué las vas a tapar entonces?

—Las voy a dejar a la vista...

Da un bufido suave y sostenido, un soplido despacioso cargado de paciencia y desesperación.

—Hace cinco años que hice el tabique y bajé los techos... quedaban dos dormitorios muy bonicos... para una cama de cuerpo y medio y una mesilla en cada una, y aún quedaba paso...

—Ya, pero yo quiero dejar una sola habitación y con las vigas de madera a la vista...

—Bueno, también las puedes pintar de azul, pero queda mejor con paneles de escayola...

—Yo les voy a poner aceite de linaza, y se quedarán en su color...

— ¿Aceite de linaza? Eso no va a quedar bien...

Callo y le pido que suba para decirle lo que quiero que haga. Se planta en medio y dice con un alarido:

—¿Pero aquí qué ha pasaaado?

—Mire, aquí, donde tengo hechas las marcas, quiero unos salientes para apoyar las lejas, y aquí también —y señalo con el índice cada marca y cada hueco, y remacho, imbuida de ese espíritu didáctico que me hace sentirme profundamente idiota, cada vez que me encuentro con un genio del gremio que sea mirándome con escepticismo.

—Esto va a ser un dormitorio ¿no? No hace falta tanta leja... ¿para qué son?

—Para los libros...

—Es mejor que los pongas en un mueble para la televisión y los libros, y lo pones en la sala de estar.

—No, es que tengo muchos...

Las sílabas se agarran unas a otras como si tuvieran eco y, en realidad, digo algo así como "NNNNNNo eeeees qqqque tttttttengo mmmmmmmuchchchchos"

—Pues pon dos muebles...

—Qqqqqquiero ppppponnnnnnnerlos aaaaasssssí.

Ya debo de tener esos ojos de loca que se me ponen cuando se me olvida todo lo que aprendí yendo al logopeda para corregirme la tartamudez. Él me mira como si hubiera hecho un curso con Stanislawski para expresar todas las variedades del desprecio, y dice:

—Bueno, quien paga, manda. Mañana puedo empezar.

Y baja las escaleras ante mí. Sale de la casa, saluda a las vecinas que "toman el fresco" y vigilan mis idas y venidas con sus sillas de anea encaradas hacia mi casa, y, antes de cerrar la puerta de la calle, me dice:

—¡Menuda idiotez quitar las escayolas y el tabique!

Las vecinas alzan la ceja y aprietan los labios en una mueca que significa "¡Ya te lo había dicho yo!" en el Método del Actors Studio.

Al cabo de diez días, cuando Romualdo viene a cerrar las rozas por donde pasan las nuevas cañerías, le enseño cómo ha quedado mi habitación, pintada de blanco, con las ventanas y las vigas de madera tratadas con aceite de linaza. Intento demostrarle que, en realidad, mi oligofrenia no es tal.

Mira el resultado y deja caer:

—Si no hubieras quitado las escayolas y el tabique habría quedado bien...

—A mmmmmmmí mmmmmme gggggusta.

Tautina, qué alegría verte por aquí y escuchar tu risa.
Zuriñe: tengo poca propensión al victimismo femenino, y me consta que el gremio de los chapuzas no establecen criterios de sexo a la hora de contrariar sistemáticamente a sus clientes. Es superior a sus fuerzas llevar la contraria. Es como los peluqueros cuando sus clientes les dicen que no quieren teñirse las canas: no han sido adiestrados para asumir los deseos ajenos. Nada que ver con la ancestral lucha de sexos. La paranoia de las mujeres que todo lo perciben en clave "eso es porque soy mujer" a mí me cansa y me parece esteril y poco presentable como análisis de la realidad, y espero no sufrir un deterioro neurológico que me haga creerlo.

"Si non est vero e ben trovato" más o menos.

Corto y preciso; excelente relato. Es el canon que hay que pagar por ser bien educado con las personas de mal gusto que son como los fanáticos religiosos o políticos que intentan, a toda costa, implantar su dictadura. No sé bien que lleva a qué: el fanátismo al mal gusto o el mal gusto al fanatismo y la dictadura.

Lamentablemente, pienso, que este tipo de personajes forman la mayoría absoluta en cualquier altura o profesión de no importa el país que quieras.

Y, volviendo a lo que cuentas, la culpa sólo la tiene quién permite que el mal gusto y la estupidez (que no siempre van juntos)puedan expresase libremente. Con un: "no le he pedido su opinión, haga lo que le digo y, además, ¡bien hecho, si quiere cobrar!" hubiese terminado rápidamente el tema; el estúpido soberbio se hubiese convertido en un sumiso "bueno, bueno como usté diga, yo sólo quería..." claro que, el muchacho de marras no hubiese vuelto y, como están las cosdas, con lo que cuesta "pillar" a un profesional... no está la cosa para andarse con remilgos de buen o mal gusto.

Genial, Gata, y aún te quedas corta. A ese señor le caías bien, no cabe duda, porque sólo te sometió a un segundo grado y al final hizo lo que querías. Créeme, tener un amigo constructor-decorador-diseñador (se puede extender a los técnicos de infraestructuras hidráulicas)que sólo te echa una "suave reprimenda" es un tesoro incalculable que no está al alcance de cualquiera. Invita a ese buen hombre a merendar de vez en cuando y no vuelvas a ponerle en ese compromiso, por favor, que le echan de su gremio.

ELLOS

Para Jackie

A veces, las únicas miradas teñidas de ternura fueron las suyas.
Acecharon mis caricias, y mi risa, como si buscasen el infinito
y lo hallasen en mí.
Cuando la congoja atenazaba mi voz, respondían en el lenguaje mudo de los que aman sin miedo, sin dudas, sin remedio.

De todas las palabras que aprendí, las únicas que digo como una oración, hablan de aquellos animales que pagaron rescate y tributo por lo único humano de mí, que merece existir.

"gata" se llevo mucho cariño, el que consigui, tras mucho esfuerzo enseñarnos a demostrar.menos del que se merecia y menos del que nos dejo.
recordaremos su mirada limpia,llena de esperanza, de alegria, de todo ... capaz de derribar muros y eliminar miedos, y nos deja... a medio de enseñarnos a querer sin mas... sin pedir con una mano que no sabe donde acariciar y silencio, mucho silencio.
solo se olvida a quien no se hizo querer a ella sera imposible olvidarla.

PERDONAR Y OLVIDAR

Suena el teléfono a las once de la noche.
-Ay, Gata ¿te has enterado de la noticia?
-Si, estoy que no me lo acabo de creer... te iba a llamar ahora…
-Y ahora supongo que toca perdonar y aquí no ha pasado nada.
-No va a ser fácil, pero no nos pilla de nuevas, la historia se ha repetido demasiadas veces…

-Juan y yo estamos indignados, no acabamos de creernos que esos canallas se sienten con nosotros y tengamos que aguantarnos las ganas de matarlos.
-Sí que es duro… racionalmente creo que hay que dejar los odios, porque sólo sirve para crear más odio… Sin embargo, emocionalmente, claro que entiendo el rencor.
-Hemos estado saliendo a la calle mirando alrededor, siempre temiendo lo peor… Cuando Pepe se va de marcha, como sé que va siempre a los mismos sitios, me imagino que van a ir a buscarle, y hasta que no llega me da mil vueltas la cabeza, siempre creo que lo van a matar.
-¡Qué infierno habéis tenido que vivir!
- Tú sabes que yo siempre me había arreglado… pues ahora no me conocerías…hace meses que no me pongo ni la crema hidratante. Parezco veinte años mayor…
-No sabes como te comprendo, Paca, vivir con esa tensión es como para arrasar a cualquiera
-Pues Pepe, tan contento, Gata, como si le hubiera tocado la lotería.
-¿Qué le ha dicho su padre?
- Nada. Juan se quedó directamente en shock y no dijo nada.
-Yo, como comprenderás he quedado como la mala, porque he dicho que esa gentuza puede decir lo que quiera, que pueden jurar sobre la Biblia que no los voy a creer, y no los perdono.
-Es que ha sido muy fuerte…
-Gata: que hemos estado amenazados de muerte, joder, que Juan, si no se aparta, le vuelan la cabeza…
- Sí, y sin comerlo ni beberlo, por ser el padre de Pepe.
-Y yo…mis amigas dejaron de ir conmigo a tomarnos un café o de compras, porque, claro, no estaban dispuestas a jugarse el pellejo… Es que iban adonde estuviera, para intimidarme… mirándome en plan retador...
-¡Vaya gentuza!
-Ah, no, Gata, ahora resulta que todo eso hay que olvidarlo, y perdonar y hacer el mea culpa si es preciso.
-Será vuestro hijo único, y lo querremos mucho, pero hija mía, es como para mandarlo a freir espárragos.
-Y ahora, cuando se cansen, porque eso no puede durar… ¿qué? ¿Otra vez a escondernos?
-¿Y ella?
-Ella tan tranquila… vino haciéndonos arrumacos… nos dijo que lo importante es que ya han hecho las paces…
-¡Qué cuajo tienen!
- Hombre, que a mí me parece bien que hagan las paces, que se junten o se separen o se suban a un pino; pero que nos hayan acosado y nos hayan intentado matar…
-Si, como la culpa de su separación os la echaron a vosotros…
-Pero es que ni Juan ni yo nos metimos nunca en nada: cuando Pepe se hizo novio de Puri, sólo dije: ¡Pues menuda joya de familia para emparentar con ellos! ¡Y díme si no llevo razón!
-Es que son energúmenos…
-Pero si a los abuelos no les hablaba ningún vecino…Y los padres y los hermanos han estado en el cuartelillo cincuenta veces por peleas…
-¿Y los juicios que hay pendientes por las paliza a Juan y las amenazas de muerte a vuestra familia?
-Supongo que como mi hijo tiene el sentido común en la entrepierna, tendremos que retirarlos…
- Y tragaros el infierno que os han hecho vivir…
-Sí, ya ves. Lo que yo digo: como si se pudiera olvidar eso... porque venga la parejita, cogiditos de la mano, a decirnos que deberíamos comer juntos, las dos familias, el domingo…

-¿Y pensaban que ibáis a decir que sí?
-¡Como lo oyes!
-Y todo porque ellos se junten o se separen, y os metan en la zambra.
-¡Es que con esta pareja es como vivir en el país vasco...
-Ya lo creo...
-Bueno, que tengo que cortar, que luego la factura...
-Te llamo mañana. Un abrazo.
-Un beso.

la contradiccion entre el respeto y el valor de la vida humana y a los derechos de las personas no siempre es fácil observarlo desde la distacia necesaria para analizar las cosas. Quizas porque todos hemos pensado cómo podemos sentirnos si nos matan una persona amada y como podemos sentirnos cuando la represion nos quita una persona amada hemos luchado por intentar comprender para avanzar y mejorar.Será dificil, muy dificil, però nuestro compromiso ha de ser la esperanza, una esperanza digna que nos permita ver más allá , que nos permita llegar a ver "las personas" . Y digo yo... ¿qué sentido tiene llamarle a un alto el fuego "permanente"? ¿No es una pausa en la guerra? ¿No debería llamarse entonces "abandono de las armas"? ¿No es una mera fórmula del lenguaje para no decir lo que deberían decir de una vez por todas, que es lícito defender el nacionalismo y la autodeterminación en cualquier lugar del mundo, pero sólo y siempre con la palabra?

Ojalá no sea sólo un modo de agazaparse en las trincheras y reaparecer. Ojalá sea el inicio de una paz irrevocable, y que la gente en Euskadi pueda ser de una vez libre, de veras libre, que no es cuando uno tiene una u otra bandera, no, más bien cuando uno puede elegir lo que hace con su día a día sin amenazas.

Algo que ya nos olíamos los vascos por la debilidad de la banda y el sinsentido de los su "guerra" en la democracia. Estaba al caer la noticia. Sergi: creo que si no se hubiera institucionalizado el Estado de excepción de facto contra la población civil en el País Vasco, los asesinatos y torturas del GAL, con cargo a los presupuestos generales del Estado, y no se hubieran suspendido las garantías procesales contra cualquiera que la policía declarara sospechoso, no se habría enconado ni radicalizado tanta gente como ha dado su apoyo a ETA durante tantos años. Quien haya vivido allí puede contar las razzias intimidatorias y las torturas sistemáticas contra los detenidos. Y como decía aquel, ese sistema fue peor que un crimen de lesa humanidad: fue un error táctico y estratégico para acabar con el apoyo social y la base de jóvenes dispuestos a militar en ETA.Respecto a los que mandan en ETA, hubieran dejado las armas hace muchos años si hubieran podido obtener un sueldo que les garatizara un nivel de vida y una capacidad adquisitiva como los que tienen con ETA, me aseguraba hace tiempo una fina analista de las motivaciones humanas.

En el 5º programa de Radio Mai se interrumpió mi programa de Literatura porque los de Radio Mai están como un rebaño de cabras y no han encontrado la forma de recibir los archivos de sonido grabados y montarlos y emitirlos: mucho curro para ellos, es una hora a la semana y se pueden herniar.
Un abrazo, Joan.
Fabrizio: si se llaman terroristas es porque no controlan los medios de información, porque si no, se llamarían patriotas, resistentes o luchadores por la libertad y la democracia, que es como se hacen llamar los ejercitos. Y no creo que los civiles encarcelados, aterrorizados, torturados y asesinados por los defensores de la libertad y la democracia (en cualquier país) puedan hacer esos distingos semánticos que a nosotros nos gustan tanto. Un abrazo, sabrosón.
Vailima: todas las guerras acaban con un tratado de paz; y si es injusto, si es abusivo para alguna de las partes, antes o después, vuelve a estallar el conflicto. Si se firmó un tratado de paz con Alemania, Italia y Japón, con millones de muertos en el conflicto; bien podremos firmar las bases para una coexistencia pacífica a pesar de todas las víctimas. Un abrazo,mi cosmopolita Vailima.

Luis: el precio del odio y de la cerrazón que lleva a la guerra sin cuartel ya lo conoces: es la pérdida de la razón, si alguna vez alguien la tuvo. Si te refieres a cuáles son las condiciones para que no se vuelva a las andadas, me esperaré a saberlas para opinar si estoy dispuesta a decir que no aunque me maten: pero para tener la fuerza moral de opinar, tendría que colocarme frente a los energúmenos armados, con las manos desnudas, y jugarme sólo mi pellejo, y no rodeada de guardaespaldas, a buen recaudo, decir que no para que se jueguen el pellejo los demás, que es lo que hacen los políticos.

Un abrazo, Luis.
Zuriñe: precisamente, la Ley se imparte en un Tribunal y no mediante la venganza privada porque las víctimas no pueden ser "justas". Y sé que es impopular decir esto tan elemental en Derecho cuando llevamos un tiempo utilizando el argumento emocional de que las víctimas pueden pedir, imponer o prohibir medidas que afectan según la Ley única y exclusivamente a los Tribunales.
Un abrazo, amiga Zuriñe.

Creo que es la mejor noticia que he oído en mucho tiempo. Por cierto, muchos medios se empeñan en decir que ETA ha declarado una "tregua permanente" en lugar de un "alto al fuego permanente". ¿Es que sólo yo veo que los términos "tregua permanente" son incompatibles si van unidos? Tregua tiene un carácter temporal determinado (un día, un año...) mientras que permanente significa dudadero, inmutable. Sí ya sé que ahora puede aparecer gente diciendome que quizás la "tregua" de ETA no sea "permanente", pero yo hablo exclusivamente del uso de los términos lingüísticos.

Creo que todos debemos felicitarnos y comprender que es sólo un comienzo, pero muy positivo y esperanzador. Es una oportunidad que no podemos dejar pasar porque no nos hayamos puesto nosotros la medallita. No es un tema de medallitas, sino de vidas humanas. Algunos piden que una de las partes se pongan de rodillas, pidan perdón, entreguen las armas y se disuelvan, todo de golpe y ahora mismo, cuando eso será el final del proceso de varios años. Tampoco podemos confundir una negociación con una venganza por más que las víctimas y sus familias hayan sufrido mucho, pero ¿eran menos víctimas o menos seres humanos las víctimas sus familias de la represión franquista? y ¿cómo se ha cerrado ese capítulo (aún abierto)?, ¿quién ha pedido perdón?, ¿quién se ha puesto de rodillas?, ¿quién ha pagado íntegramente sus culpas? Hay quien dice que no es comparable. Desde luego cuantitativamente no lo es y en cuanto a otros aspectos, habría que analizarlo más despacio, lo que no significa que yo no rechace el terrorismo con todas mis fuerzas, pero todo tipo de terrorismo, también el triunfante, también el de estado, también el de los "imperios" de turno.
De todos modos, quiero insistir en que me parece una buena noticia. Veremos en qué acaba. Espero que bien.
Saludos.

Si, Lilith, los comentaristas dan significados diferentes a la palabra tregua y alto el fuego; pero yo no acabo de ver la diferencia si no es por el calificativo que le acompañe y modifique su significado. Seguramente en el lenguaje bélico tenga un significado preciso que yo desconozco: si me lo puedes explicar, te lo agradecería.

HERIDAS DE GUERRA

Murió Teodomiro, el hombre que combatió con más saña durante la guerra, el que luego intercedió por los vencidos con más generosidad… Sin embargo, abandonó a Marina, su novia desde que eran críos, porque su familia era republicana —cuentan.

En la posguerra, cuando salía de misa, acudían a él las mujeres que tenían familiares presos y le decían:

—" Teo, tú sabes que es un buen hombre…". Y ninguno le pareció malo, a todos los ayudó… La telefonista que llevaba la centralita en aquellos años podría contar las innumerables conferencias que puso para favorecer a sus paisanos presos. Algún tiempo después, venían a darle las gracias… ellos aún marcados por la pesadilla de golpes y privaciones; ellas rencorosas…

Quien nunca vino a pedir ni a agradecer fue Marina. Su hermano Pablo estuvo en la cárcel, y le prohibió que fuera a interceder por él… " Aunque me condenen a la última pena no vayáis a pedir por mí a nadie y menos a Teo …" —le dijo.

¡Malditas guerras! De crios siempre se les veía juntos a los tres; eran una piña…Y luego, dejar a Marina con el ajuar hecho.... Claro que también hay quien cuenta que Teo no la dejó; que fue ella quien le dijo: " No vuelvas a venir a esta casa hasta que yo no esté muerta y enterrada."

Pablo volvió de la cárcel a tiempo de acompañar a su madre al cementerio, y a los pocos días abrió la carpintería en los bajos de su casa otra vez, como si nunca hubiera faltado. Teo estuvo en el funeral, pero no se saludaron…sólo se miraron intensamente, y quien bajó la vista fue Teo.

Marina se hizo modista… Bordó y cosió el ajuar de sus amigas; y luego el de las hijas de sus amigas, y salía de su casa escuetamente para hacer los recados… A la caída de la tarde, Pablo cerraba la carpintería y subía a su casa, cerraba a cal y canto las contraventanas del balcón, daba igual que fuera verano o invierno… Cenaban, escuchaban la radio, echaban las cuentas del día, leían y hablaban de sus cosas. Marina y Pablo se llevaban muy bien desde pequeños, y los años no rompieron su armonía.

A veces, cuando Teo había bebido unos tragos de más, venía a la puerta de Marina y gritaba lleno de desesperación:
—¡Sal por lo que más quieras, asómate que te vea! ¡Te lo pido por caridad, asómate! ¡Sólo quiero verte!

Contaban que un día llegó Teo, cuando no tenían cerradas las contraventanas todavía. Marina, que le estaba probando un vestido a una vecina, se quedó lívida cuando Pablo hizo por asomarse:

—"¡Por Dios Pablo, que te pierdes!" —y se abrazó a él temblando. Aquella vecina ha olvidado el color del vestido que le hizo Marina, pero tiene grabada la imagen de Pablo con los dientes apretados y los ojos chispeantes, que se apartó del balcón y salió del taller de costura como si sus hombros cargaran con su lápida, y la palidez de muerta de Marina...

Había mucho miedo entonces, pero con razón, —decían— le podría haber costado la cárcel… Teo tenía mucho poder en la Falange… y teniendo antecedentes Pablo, habiendo luchado con los republicanos… Un enfrentamiento no hubiera quedado sin consecuencias…

Ni siquiera cuando Teodomiro se casó y tuvo un hijo dejó de gritar al balcón de Marina en cuanto se pasaba de tragos.

Marina adquirió una severidad que amedrentaba a sus vecinos; y Pablo, tan sociable antes de la guerra, sólo hablaba lo imprescindible con sus vecinos, del frío y del calor, de las cosechas, pero no daba pie para conversaciones amistosas…

A veces alguien sacaba a relucir el escándalo que había organizado a su puerta Teo, llamando a Marina. Pablo callaba y traspasaba con una mirada de hielo a su interlocutor.

—"No hemos oído nada, con los muros tan recios… Yo creo que la gente se lo inventa –decía.

Ni los partidarios de Teo ni sus enemigos le hubieran facilitado las cosas para que viera a Marina haciéndose el encontradizo… A veces estaba en la mercería de la Tuerta y le decían:

—Por ahí viene Teo, borracho.

Y ella dejaba los hilos y las cintas y se marchaba a escape… Todos le avisaban… Los que pensaban que Teo la había dejado con el ajuar preparado, y los que pensaban que Marina lo había abandonado cuando Pablo estaba en la cárcel: los de derechas y los de izquierdas.

Llega el coche fúnebre a la Iglesia y sentados en unos bancos del jardín los jubilados observan si tiene que dar la vuelta para entrar por la puerta lateral, que está a pie de calle, o hay suficientes amigos para subir el féretro por las escaleras para entrar por la puerta principal. Sus miradas minerales ya no expresan nada.

Pablo tiene los ojos rojos y un gesto aturdido. Se acerca al coche y lanza una mirada circular a los que se dejan ver en el funeral, pero no piensan entrar en la Iglesia. Su voz ronca no se quiebra:

—¿Vais a dejar que Teo dé la vuelta como si no tuviera amigos para llevarlo por la escalera?

Y los mira uno a uno sin pestañear.

Poco a poco se van acercando, toman posición alrededor del ataúd y lentamente, en un silencio total, lo llevan hasta la Iglesia.

Pablo se demora al lado del féretro, lo acaricia como si buscara un fallo en la madera y susurra:

—¡Adiós, amor mío!

Marina lo abraza y él refugia en su hombro su rostro hecho trizas por el dolor.

—¡Calla, Pablo, calla! -le dice dulcemente, en voz muy baja- ¡Le prometimos a Teo que nadie sabría… calla!

—¡Mientras viviera… sólo mientras viviera, Marina, pero ya no!— y un sollozo de dolor sobrehumano le quiebra la voz.

Todos fingen no entender y un acuerdo tácito, que tiene la dimensión de su infinita cobardía, les impedirá pensar que fueron ellos sus carceleros. Y seguirán contando que fue la guerra…

NO NOS RESIGNAMOS...

En la imagen: cómo eran los españoles no hace tantos años, cuando los que se quedaban tenían que vender los muebles, los recuerdos, cualquier cosa, hasta que los que habían emigrado enviaran dinero a la familia... cuando íbamos a la vendimia a Francia, a trabajar en cadena en la Renault, o como "bonnes à tout faire", o en a destajo en Alemania, porque huíamos de la miseria. No había familia que no tuviera alguien trabajando en el extranjero... ¿os acordáis?

¿O sólo nos acordamos unos pocos de que también los españoles fuimos emigrantes?

¿Sabéis una cosa? Me siento orgullosa de los que empujados por el descontento, la desesperación o la miseria, salimos de nuestro país. Y entiendo perfectamente a los desesperados que llegan de Africa, de Latinoamérica... Y no comprendo ni quiero entender a los españoles que se sienten amenazados por la inmigración.

"Queremos saber quién debe a quién y cuánto ¿África debe a los países occidentales o los países occidentales deben a África?
¿No habría que reconocer que tenemos con estos países una deuda ecológica y una deuda histórica y que, por tanto, no tiene sentido seguirles exigiendo el pago de una deuda externa, por otra parte ya pagada con creces? Lo mismo podría decirse de otros continentes del Sur en relación con los del Norte. A cambio de la riqueza ilegítimamente transferida del Sur al Norte, los países de Sur deberían ser compensados razonablemente."

Más que compensados, han pagado con creces los países del Sur, puesto que nuestras riquezas se las debemos a sus recursos naturales. El colonialismo fue la factura bien cara que pagaron y ahora no se pueden servir de los restos que dejamos, y por ello salen en desbandada a compartir aquello que nosotros hemos construido. Dificil dilema el solucionar esta problemática. Y todos tienen que contribuir, los gobiernos occidentales junto a los gobiernos de los países en desarrollo, y construir de nuevo sus lugares, porque en ningún sitio como en casa propia.Yo tengo familia esparcida por Brasil y latinoamerica que ni siquiera conozco. Ellos también fueron en busca de una vida mejor, huyendo de la misera moral y fisica del franquismo. Un abrazo, al final no me he quedado sin internet.

Esa es una de las claves del tema de la inmigración, Gata: la alianza (nada santa) entre la mala leche de algunos (los poderosos de siempre o algunos de sus descendientes) y la fingida fragilidad de memoria de otros (los del rebaño), gracias a los cuales son posibles las dictaduras y las tiranías y sus crímenes. Porque el racismo (se disfrace de lo que se disfrace) es un crimen más y la explotación, y las ilegalidades de quienes abusan de ellos y luego les dan la patada y los gestos de asco de quienes se aprovechan de ellos pero les querrían invisibles. ¡Tantas y tantas conductas inhumanas y otras cómplices y cínicas! En fin, que vamos para atrás como los cangrejos, pero hay que seguir denunciándolo como tu haces.

Desgraciadamente la memoria es frágil y los humanos más olvidadizos aún. Me indigno cuando oigo, principalmente a gente que en su día emigró, bien ellos o sus familias, para sobrevivir, y ahora vociferan contra los que arriesgan su vida por una mejor. Útopica? probablemente si, pero esperanzadora al menos y si para mantener esa esperanza hay que arriesgar el pellejo qué más da pero, y si se gana?...
Hay otra cosa que odio más que a los "salvadores de la patría" que critican la emigración y es a las mafias que se estan lucrando a costa de la miseria y la desesperación de la gente.

hay un cocepto en derecho internacional llamado "deuda odiosa". Se aplicó a Cuba cuando ganó su independencia. En virtud de este estatuto internacional, Cuba quedaba exenta de honrar las obligaciones contraídas en su nombre por el gobierno que usurpaba su soberanía, vale decir : el de España. Esto fue posible por la diligencia diplomática de los EEUU, que aún no siendo una potencia mundial, tenía suficiente peso ya como para hacer valer sus derechos y los de sus amigos. Claro que luego se cobró el favor con la Enmienda Platt.

a aquellos que hemos sufrido la emigración, ya sea en nosotros mismos o en familiares cercanos, debería servirnos como referencia; pero parece que son bastantes quienes no se ven reflejados en los inmigrantes que llegan de África. Y no es solo por el diferente color de piel. También es cuestión de conciencia solidaria. Que esta necesita crearse.

No hace falta evocar la memoria para imaginarnos en Francia vendimiando, mi compañera de piso, sin ir más lejos, estuvo allí este verano con su padre que lleva más de 10 años marchando a Francia cada vez que llega esa estación. Sin embargo, pesa ver como el que uno comparta los medios con otros menos afortunados no hace más empático al primero...

Durante cinco siglos las potencias europeas, deberíamos incluir también a EE.UU aunque únicamente mantuviera la colonia de Liberia durante un corto periodo de tiempo, han explotado en beneficio propio los recursos naturales y humanos de las colonias que actualmente conforman el mal llamado "Tercer Mundo".
Si durante 500 se han saqueado continentes enteros en nombre de la civilación y el progreso, si Europa ha evolucionado económicamente a partir de los recursos de las colonias africanas y americanas, si EE.UU configuró una red económica agrícola gracias al trabajo de los esclavos africanos, ¿qué derecho tenemos a exigirles una deuda externa?
¿Con qué derecho les miramos a la cara mientras actualmente seguimos manteniéndoles en situación de dependencia económica impidiendo dar salida a los productos africanos para que no alteren el llamado "orden económico mundial".
Hay muchas formas de dominar y no todas ellas pasan por la conquista territorial.

EN JUSTA CORRESPONDENCIA

Estuve investigando y contrastando las informaciones para escribir el artículo "¿Qué dirá la Iglesia Católica de esto que está ocurriendo aquí?", sobre el informe publicado el 19 de abril de 2005, que habla de 261 muertes en dependencias oficiales, bajo custodia del Estado español, y otro, titulado "Torturas bajo custodia del Estado", sobre las amenazas de muerte al capellán del Hospital Psiquiátrico de Fontcalent, que había denunciado las palizas sistemáticas a los enfermos mentales por parte de algunos funcionarios; la escalofriante cifra de muertes no naturales en la prisión de Córdoba, Albolote (Granada). etc.
Gracias a un amigo, que ha sido Director de un centro penitenciario, me contaron detalladamente sobre algunos funcionarios de prisiones que son auténticos psicópatas, y que actuan con total impunidad creando un clima de terror entre sus propios compañeros, a los que hacen cómplices en las palizas sistemáticas a los presos. Pero todos me dicen: "No des los datos, no escribas ni una palabra de esto o irán por mí..." Así, pues, escribo asepticamente remitiendo a lo que ya se ha publicado en prensa, maldiciendo en arameo a Mercedes Gallizo, que pasea su inoperancia y su estulticia con mando en plaza, sintiéndose una heroina porque ha de ir con guardaespaldas.

Y recibo el primer e.mail de Ignacio, que transcribo (después de corregir 19 faltas de ortografía):
Jueves 13 h.

Hola, Gatopardo: estoy estudiando 3º de Psicología, y tengo que presentar un trabajo sobre eso que has puesto, es muy interesante, pero es muy largo y lo que quiero saber es si sabes cuantos casos en plan estadísticas.
Como máximo dos folios, con cuadros de estadísticas y bibliografía ¿Me puedes dar toda la información?

Hola, Gatopardo: es que ya te he dicho que lo que quiero es poner estadísticas, y poco rollo. Sólo contéstame a lo que te he preguntado, y me pones las estadísticas y ya es suficiente. Es un trabajo para subir nota y hay que presentarlo el lunes , tengo que hacer este fin de semana, pero tengo que despejarme un poco porque es fin de semana y he quedado.
Bueno, supongo que tú también habrás sido joven, ya sabes, unas birras y lo que salga ja jajaja Gatopardo no he recibido eso que te he pedido, y creo que ya te dije que lo necesitaba para el lunes. Me has jodido bien, y por lo menos me podías haber avisado y no dejarme colgado.

Esto me pasa por fiarme.
Ignacio

Respuesta:
Domingo, 20 h.
Estimado Ignacio: Como me explicó que el trabajo era para subir nota y no tengo espíritu competitivo, preferí no tomarme la molestia. Pero veo que no lo entendí bien y resulta que era para presentarlo usted y subir su nota. Si es así, entiendo que lo lógico es que lo redacte usted y no yo.
Efectivamente, lleva razón: es una temeridad confiar en mí.
Atentamente.
Gatopardo

4º e.mail de Ignacio
Pues sabes lo que te digo, que eres una hija de puta. Y te preocupas mucho de los cabrones presos y te dedicas a joderme a mí que no soy un ladrón ni un asesino, que son los que a ti te gustan, pero a mí no me respetas que soy un tío legal. ¡Por mí que los maten a palos a todos!

Éste es uno entre docenas de amables lectores que me piden información. En todos ellos existe un desparpajo conmovedor que les hace pensar que mi felicidad consiste en rellenar las inconmensurables lagunas que su pereza mental han ahondado. Y. no se sabe cómo, han llegado a la peregrina convicción de que merecen respeto, grandilocuente palabreja que se ha popularizado, desprovista de su significado original. Y aclaro que quien quiera hacerse acreedor de respeto tendrá que haber conseguido metas dignas de elogio, demostrando fehacientemente su inteligencia y su superioridad moral. Si no es así, yo puedo dedicarle a un ser humano mi benevolencia, mis sobrantes afectivos, mi afecto más irracional o mi tolerancia, que no es muy grande. Pero mi respeto se gana, se conquista, y no lo merece cualquiera por el hecho de estar haciendo bulto en el censo. Y sobre todo, recuerden que nadie, nunca, jamás, ha podido decir que me desvivo por fomentar el cultivo del Alzheimer.

Quedan avisados.

EL PUEBLO GUARANÍ

Suelo esperar poco de los que llegan al poder, aunque sean elegidos por los olvidados y los vencidos que necesitan mantener la esperanza de que algo ha de cambiar.
Con Evo Morales no he hecho una excepción, porque para llegar a confiar en él tendría que cambiar las leyes que ofrecen cinco hectáreas por cabeza de ganado y una por cabeza de familia. Eso, en la práctica significa que los hacendados ganaderos tendrán las de ganar frente a sus siervos, los guaraníes que trabajan de seis de la mañana a nueve de la noche cobrando ocho o nueve bolivianos los mejor pagados, cuatro, los niños; seis o siete las mujeres: por 15 horas de trabajo. Sin días libres ni seguros sociales.

Para sobrevivir una familia, viviendo en un rincón techado con hojas de maíz, sin muros, sin electricidad ni agua corriente, vistiéndose con las ropas viejas que el patrón les descuenta de su salario, es preciso que todos trabajen: me refiero a trabajos duros, inhumanos, porque es más barato un hombre que una bestia de carga, que los condenan a una muerte prematura, a una vejez anticipada, a un dolor crónico que lacera la sonrisa, la mirada y la respiración.
Le pedí a Dinosaurio, ese hermano del alma que Internet me ha dado, que escribiera sobre esto. Os lo cuenta en La Cueva del Dinosaurio
Os pido a todos los que tengáis una bitácora que escribáis también sobre los guaraníes que viven como siervos-esclavos, porque los patrones no se humanizarán con buenas palabras, sino con leyes sociales que los coloquen en la ilegalidad. Y sí en algo creo es en la capacidad de la opinión pública internacional para convencer a los gobiernos para que legislen y velen por los derechos de los que los eligieron.
Gracias, Dinosaurio, por tu artículo "El pueblo guaraní" : es una hermosura tener esta deuda de gratitud contigo.

Y mi gratitud a Narco News, porque no permite que se olvide la realidad de América que nadie considera noticia.

Se ha sumado mi admirada Blanca Vázquez, de Mosaico de inquientudes y quietudes, con un artículo magistral sobre las condiciones de vida y trabajo de los guaraníes y de otras comunidades indígenas, titulado "Esclavitud en el siglo XXI", y también ha publicado sobre el mismo tema en su blog en Periodista Digital : "Los flojos no tienen voluntad"
Gracias, Zuriñe, por ser mi amiga, y por tu capacidad para comunicar lo esencial.

PD 18 de marzo 2006
Sobre Atlantis y Sobre Atlantis II de Ciberpunk se suma, y publica en sus dos bitácoras: "Un vídeo sobre la explotación del pueblo guaraní", reseñando el artículo de Salón Chingón.
Gracias, Atlante: iteailoviu!.

Me temo que a Evo le pase como a Lula. Ojalá que él pueda hacer algo más y pueda impulsar medidas desde el gobierno a favor de los indígenas explotados. También hay que reconocer que es muy difícil porque la oligarquía terrateniente no se quedará de brazos cruzados. En fin, algo podrá hacer, por lo menos al principio. Pero la denuncia en la Red es cosa de todos.

600 familias guaraníes deberían ser atendidas por Evo ya que mucha gente lo reclama. Pero ¿qué hacer si Evo no hace absolutamente nada? ¿nos quedamos mirando cómo no hace nada? ¿o miramos hacia otro lado porque lo interesante es denunciar pero no hacer nada? Porque, lo que es de momento, no va a hacer nada de nada, sólo decir que sí, que es una injusticia y que se estudiará el caso con detalle. ¿y después? ¿qué medidas de presión podemos hacer para que Evo haga algo por esas 600 familas guaraníes (unos 3.000 individuos)? ¿impedimos la entrada de más bolivianos en el país? ¿impedimos que manden dinero los bolivianos que viven aquí? Deespués del No de Evo.. ¿qué?

Ya sé que este post se refiere a Bolivia Y a Evo, Pero permitidme una breve digresión: la historia de Paraguay se confunde con la historia del pueblo guaraní; en esa , otrora, floreciente república un pueblo laborioso y educado supo dotarse de una economía prospera y moderna para la época, la más moderna de Sudamerica. Construyeron la primera línea ferroviaria, la industria despegaba, la educación y el civismo resplandecían. Hasta que los intereses del Imperio Británico, por medio de sus mamporreros en la zona, decidieron que aquello debía terminar. La corona necesitaba países importadores de las manufacturas inglesas y exportadores de materias primas. Paraguay era la única nación de la zona que no se resignaba a que la aprisionaran en el corsé de esos designios. Y así se fraguó la destrucción de un país, literalmente, como la de Cartago. La Santa Alianza de Brasil, Argentina y Uruguay. Tres países dominados por sus burguesías compradoras más envilecidas y degeneradas en su dilapidación de la soberanía y la hacienda patria , testaferros de los bancos de la City de Londres, los mismos que hoy todavía mandan, se confabularon para destruir a la nación guaraní. Casi no quedaron hombres, sólo mujeres y niños. La lucha fue cruenta y los paraguayos valientes, pero la superioridad de las repúblicas "hermanas" se impuso. Tanta infamia es imposible de borrar, pero el general Perón en el año 73, con ocasión de una visita a Asunción, les restituyó las banderas y pidió públicamente perdón, en nombre de Argentina, al pueblo paraguayo. Un gesto nada más. Pero un gesto que comporta el reconocimiento de una gran atrocidad.

...Al hilo de tu post, Gatopardo, he subido uno de los primeros relatos que publiqué en Blogia. No trata de guaranís, aunque bien pudieran serlo; o yanomanis o yawalapiti u otros seres humanos que co-habitan este mundo, aunque no sea el mismo. Tal vez la situación sea imperfecta desde los orígenes y aún estemos lejos del equilibrio, a veces incluso ni siquiera por la labor.
Esa orilla a la que alude el escrito es necesaria hoy para preservar y proteger unas culturas de otras, pero espero que al menos no sea una frontera de separación, olvido y aniquilación. No podemos cometer siempre los mismos errores, no a estas alturas...

ARTHUR KOESTLER Y LOS LIBROS DESCATALOGADOS

La timidez es el peor castigo, no mitigado por el hecho de que sólo apareciera en ataques intermitentes. El tímido puede compararse con un cable de alta tensión, rodeado de espesas capas aislantes, que le protegen, pero al mismo tiempo le impiden todo contacto con el mundo exterior. Hay varios tipos de tímido. En algunos la tensión disminuye a medida que pasa el tiempo, la capa aislante se vuelve más flexible, la timidez termina por convertirse en cortés reserva una actitud tan adecuada al temperamento anglosajón, que hasta la cultiva por amaneramiento. En otros ocurre lo opuesto; la capa protectora se convierte en un caparazón rígido e impenetrable, que ahoga a su portador y aleja atemorizados a todos los que se acercan.

Hay un tercer tipo, al cual pertenezco, que podría llamarse el tímido intermitente. En el caso del tímido intermitente, los periodos de madurez y de rigidez, alternan con otros de extrema garrulidad y conducta desatada. Cual de las dos actitudes emergerá en una ocasión dada, depende de las circunstancias, que están fuera del dominio del sujeto. Si las circunstancias son tales que se establece el contacto entre el núcleo vivo del cable y el medio ambiente, la corriente fluirá libremente y lo más probable es que ocurra un cortocircuito, con gran despliegue de chispas, mientras saltan todos los tapones. Otras circunstancias, en cambio, sólo conseguirán que el medio ambiente frote y raspe la capa aislante, donde el tímido persiste encajonado, forrado, ahogado, sordo, mudo. (1)

Estos párrafos, y miles de páginas de Arthur Koestler han sido condenadas a desaparecer de nuestro alcance: los editores siguen teniendo los derechos de autor y, por lo tanto, la posibilidad de no publicarlo.

Si podéis, preguntad en cada librería que os pille al paso por los libros de Arthur Koestler, encargadlos, que vuelvan locos a los distribuidores y éstos a los editores que han eliminado de los catálogos a este escritor por motivos incomprensibles, y hablo también de otros como Koestler, que tienen calidad literaria y sus ediciones se vendían razonablemente bien.

Porque no es necesario quemar los libros de los autores que se desea silenciar: basta con editarlos sin promoción ni publicidad, dejarlos en depósito en las librerías, de donde son recogidos a las tres semanas por los distribuidores, para guillotinarlos.

Si, ahora se hace así: los ejemplares que no se hayan vendido en un periodo de seis meses máximo, se guillotinan. Para ahorrar costes y espacio de almacén.
Hay algunos casos de autores que fueron críticos, dieron que hablar y ya nadie recuerda, a los que un editor hizo un contrato millonario para cinco títulos, a entregar en los diez años siguientes, y con derecho exclusivo de edición perpetuo sobre ellos.

Y guillotinó todos, salvo los cincuenta ejemplares que por contrato debía entregar al autor. Toda su obra de madurez, fuera de la circulación.

Fueron favores a unos amigos poderosos, que lo recompensaron ampliamente.

Y mientras, los lectores entusiasmados con autores a los que se escucha cada día en tertulias y programas en la radio y la televisión, mañana tarde y noche. Sin caer en la cuenta de que no puede tener tiempo para escribir ese libro que publica cada seis meses, por muy radiofónica que sea su voz, por muy gracioso que resulte el texto que le escribe el equipo de guionistas de la emisora, por mucho que se haga fotos en el escritorio donde dice que trabaja.

¿Os podéis imaginar qué está ocurriendo cuando la literatura queda en manos de grandes empresas editoriales, que también monopolizan los medios de comunicación, y desde donde nos imponen a sus autores?

Cada vez que como lectores defendáis vuestro criterio, y apoyéis a esa editorial pequeña, aunque tenga mala distribución y tarde en servir cuando pedís un libro, cada vez que os neguéis a cambiar vuestro pedido por el título y el autor con el que nos bombardean desde los monopolios, estáis salvando de la guillotina a quien quizás merezca la pena leerse.

Y si tenéis libros de autores descatalogados, fuera del ISBN, fotocopiadlos, distribuidlos por Internet, que puedan saltar la barrera del silencio impuesto desde las editoriales. Es la única manera de rescatarlos que nos dejan, es el único homenaje que podemos rendirles a quienes crearon en soledad sin recompensa alguna.

BELLEZA EN ESTADO PURO

Todo me cayó de golpe en un mes: se casó mi hijo y se fue a vivir a Canadá, mi marido me abandonó por su secretaria, cumplí cuarenta y cinco años, y me descubrieron un tumor en el tiroides. Mi casa, que parecía una sucursal de todos los amigos de mi hijo, se quedó silenciosa y vacía, y como no ajustaban bien las dosis de L- Tiroxina, mi humor iba del estupor al letargo y del aturdimiento a la modorra.
La medicina privada me ofreció los mejores especialistas y la mejor clínica,
- Hay que operar- me dijo el médico- pero no te preocupes porque dentro de unos meses no se notará la cicatriz. Ven, mírate en el espejo de aumento…
Con sus dedos manicurados señaló adónde y cómo y qué. Yo asentía mirando mi piel opaca, con arrugas alrededor de unos ojos de mirada vacua, y más arrugas en la boca y en el cuello, sin las piadosas coartadas de la luz tamizada de mi cuarto de baño y mi presbicia…
-¡Qué horror!

El médico, contestó como si tuviera la respuesta preparada
-Ahora que vamos a entrar al quirófano sería el momento de hacerte unos retoques. Es una operación sencilla, y lo que me extraña es que nunca lo hayas pensado... por ejemplo, el contorno de la boca ha perdido masa muscular y quedan los labios sumidos, y los párpados y el mentón se te han aflojado… y el pecho está muy descolgado también, todo eso te echa veinte años encima… Y para tu estado de ánimo sería importante verte otra vez guapa…
Asentí aturdida por la revelación. Me di cuenta de que en los últimos veinte años apenas me había mirado al espejo para peinarme y recogerme la coleta que llevaba siempre, y entre tanto había perdido agudeza visual y mi rostro se había convertido en el de una vieja que yo no conocía.
Firmé todos los papeles, me sometí a todas las pruebas diagnósticas y con una sensación de terror paralizante entré en el quirófano.
Sólo recibí visitas de los médicos y las enfermeras que me hicieron las curas y, sobre todo, recibí muchas sonrisas: hasta los celadores y las limpiadoras me sonreían. Pero hasta que no se quitaran los puntos y desaparecieran los hematomas no traerían un espejo. Pasé en la clínica la convalecencia rodeada de tantas sonrisas que empecé a imaginarme a mi pobre millonario marido en la ruina, teniendo que prescindir del yate y de los caballos para pagar la factura, y por primera vez en mucho tiempo yo también sonreí.
-¡Ah, esa sonrisa es la mejor prueba de que estás a punto! Si está mañana el esteticista te hace la manicura, un bonito corte de pelo y un maquillaje favorecedor, te presentaremos a la guapa chica que eres en un espejo… ¡Y por favor, déjate aconsejar y cambia de estilo!
Seguían todos sonriendo, pero el esteticista y sus dos ayudantes me miraban con el ceño fruncido…
-Habrá que hacer algo con esas canas…
- No me he teñido el pelo nunca…
-Ya, ya se nota: tienes el pelo de un color rata horrible: primero voy a cortar: quiero hacerte algo nuevo, que vaya con tu cara, que es muy interesante… y te daré unos destellos de color… en degradado... y en el maquillaje voy a usar…
-¡No me he maquillado nunca! -Vi el gesto de horror y corregí-...pero claro, tendré que aprender…
-Cuando veas lo guapa que estás, no lo podrás creer.
Al cabo de tres horas sus sonrisas emergieron absolutamente deslumbrantes:
-¡Estás sencillamente divina!

Y fueron convocados los doctores, las enfermeras y llegó un espejo de un metro que colocaron sobre la mesita auxiliar.
Sobre unos ojos inmensos, de pestañas interminables, caían mechones de color berenjena y naranja que se desplomaban desde una cresta de quince centímetros, adonde las ráfagas de color jugaban con la luz… Y mis labios pintados de rojo, sugestivamente gordezuelos, tenían una expresión de pasmo que enseguida se convirtió en una sonrisa temerosa… Una especie de vampiresa indescriptible, de senos espectaculares, se dejaba identificar por los pendientes de perlas que heredé de mi madre.
-¡Ay… no parezco yo!…
- ¡Ni falta que hace! Ahora sólo falta que te vayas de tiendas y te compres ropa bonita… y empiezas a salir y verás… La cicatriz del cuello todavía tardará unos meses en desaparecer, pero te puedes comprar bonitos foulards de seda y aprendes a ponértelos con estilo…
Durante varios días tuve que mirarme cientos de veces y cada vez me sentía más entusiasmada con mi aspecto, mi nuevo estilo… Cuando volví a casa el portero no me reconoció, y su mirada embelesada fue nueva para mí, que había recibido sus miradas indiferentes durante quince años.
Mi cambio repercutió en toda la gente de mi alrededor, y un día, Nano, uno de los amigos de mi hijo, que trabaja en una agencia de representantes artísticos me invitó a un concierto de rock.
-¡No he ido jamás a un concierto de rock!
- Son de tu época… Porque tú eres de la época de…
Y le interrumpí:
- Yo soy de la época de Armando Manzanero y Los Panchos…No, de verdad, Nano, gracias…
-Es que no conozco a nadie más para sacarme del apuro...
-¿Qué apuro?
- Después del concierto tenemos que acompañarlos para que vean la movida nocturna y han pedido que vayamos con una tía espectacular… y bueno, ya sabes lo poca cosa que son las chicas de la pandilla…
Levitaba. Literalmente levitaba de emoción.
Cuando llegó Nano a buscarme iba ataviada con la ropa que habíamos escogido entre los dos: un pantalón de cuero, unas botas con quince centímetros de plataforma, una blusa de seda transparente, un chalequito de cuero diminuto y un foulard anudado al cuello para tapar la cicatriz del tiroides.

-Te está sobrando una cosa…

-¿Qué?

-Te sobra el sujetador, hace feísimo con la blusa transparente…

Y pasé a quitármelo, porque efectivamente el sujetador sólo era útil para el pudor: la silicona de talla 110 no conoce la Ley de la gravedad.

Y después de un concierto ruidosísimo en el que me emborraché de decibelios, Nano me presentó al representante del grupo más famoso del mundo, que por discreción no debo identificar, y le preguntó si era alguien como yo lo que buscaba. El representante me miró de hito en hito y le dijo a Nano en inglés:

-¡Perfecto! ¡Belleza en estado puro! Parece una mujer si no te fijas…

Le pregunté, enfadada, que por qué decía eso.

Y al darse cuenta de que yo lo había entendido me lo explicó en español:

-Mick no soporta a las mujeres, pero como tiene fama de semental, tenemos que buscarle para salir por ahí un transexual que no vaya de "drag-queene", porque si no la prensa lo crucificaría… A ti se te notan las hormonas y la silicona, pero das el pego… Por cierto, ¿te han cortado el pene también?

Amigos: las mujeres que conozco que se hicieron cirugía o se han puesto botox tienen cara de ir en moto a toda velocidad; y las que se han hecho liposucción han logrado un cuerpo que parece recién sacado del depósito de cadáveres después de un accidente. Y conste que para que no se noten las cicatrices no es que sea necesario maquillarse, es que hay que estucarse y alicatarse: la alegría que transmite su sonrisa es lo más parecido a la que tiene una dentadura en el vaso de agua de la mesita de noche, y no digamos ya cualquier otra emoción humana... ternura, humor, ironía, todo queda homologado con esa expresión de sorpresa fijaque se les queda, igualica que la de los muertos en accidente fortuito.

RED VOLTAIRE NECESITA NUESTRO APOYO ECONÓMICO

Necesitamos gente que se atreva a contar que el 11 de setiembre nadie pilotaba manualmente los aviones que se estrellaron contra las torres gemelas. Y que no se hundieron como resultado del impacto, sino porque fueron minadas con material explosivo.
Necesitamos que alguien nos diga que el avión comercial que estrellaron contra el Pentágono no era tal, sino un misil de las fuerzas armadas de los EEUU.
Necesitamos saber qué asombrosa casualidad hizo que en New York y Londres coincidieran los atentados con simulacros idénticos.
Necesitamos que haya quien se atreva a decir que, cuando el espacio aereo norteamericano estaba cerrado para los vuelos nacionales e internacionales, los únicos que recibieron permiso para marcharse (sin ser interrogados por los investigadores), por cortesía del Departamento de Estado, fueron los familiares de Ben Laden y sus allegados, socios de la familia Bush a lo largo de varias generaciones.
Cuando algún día los españoles volvamos a sentir la imperiosa necesidad que nos hizo gritar: "¡Queremos saber la verdad sobre el 11-M!", tendremos que contar con periodistas y medios de comunicación que no se dejen comprar, cegar ni asustar.
Red Voltaire siempre ha publicado las investigaciones que silencian las grandes empresas de comunicación, y sería necesario que pudiera seguir haciéndolo. Y para eso, Red Voltaire necesita nuestro apoyo económico: clicad aquí para ofrecer una donación de 10, 30, €...lo que podáis, porque, entre todos, podemos asegurar su continuidad.

Si clicáis en los enlaces que he colocado a los diferentes artículos de Red

Las últimas noticias que yo tengo es que Bush pilotaba el primero de los aviones, pero saltó en el minuto previo al hostiazo, y quedó suspendido en el aire, émulo de Schzwarzenegger, con tiempo suficiente para tomar el otro avión que también estrelló contra la segunda torre. Escapó por los pelos y luego se mezcló con los bomberos del rescate, tomó el primer taxi libre que había y se marchó al aeropuerto a despedir a Bin Laden que había cenado en casa la noche anterior. Tengo más noticias, pero esas las cobro: por sólo 11 euros levanto la manta.

El retiro por parte de la Casa Blanca de la felicitación prematura que envió a Felipe Calderón por su elección a la presidencia de México es un síntoma de que las élites gobernantes en Estados Unidos no están satisfechas con ese personajillo mexicano para ocuparse de las tareas globalizadoras. Es tan débil el sistema político mexicano que no ha habido una sola voz de protesta por los vuelos de aviones militares norteamericanos sobre la zona fronteriza del norte de México.
Por último, la precaria intelectualidad mexicana encabezada por la dulzona Elena Poniatovsky sólo ha recibido muestras de desprecio por parte de la derecha arribista que acompaña a Calderón. Por otro lado, a la desaparecida Elena Garro se le acusa de haber sido agente del gobierno del PRI. Así intenta el PAN desacreditar a los intelectuales que apoyan en masa a López Obrador. ¿Cómo espera Calderón gobernar a una nación en medio de este conflicto globalista si sólo está apoyado por un sector empresarial incompetente que lejos de ser actor globalizante está perfectamente globalizado?

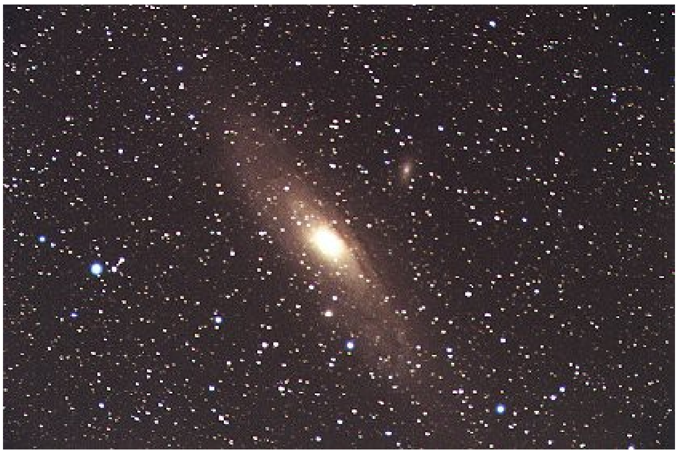
NADIE NOS PRECEDIÓ



Nadie nos precedió.
Quién te acompañó cuando, desposeída, te acurrucaste en el dintel del abismo
y cruzó el vacío tu mirada terrible.
Quién te susurró aquella noche consuelos que acunaran tu tristeza estriada.
Quién pudo evitarte el frío en las rodillas
y las grietas del interior, umbral de la locura.
Quién supo de qué país venías, con qué ausencias, de qué exilio inefable.
Ay, hermana, nadie nos precedió, nadie nos dijo sino palabras.
Pero desde esta única isla, que también los nuestros deshabitan, a veces —ocurre a veces—encontramos la risa, la lucidez y la belleza, porque todos los náufragos tienen su Viernes.

SOBRE LOS ASESINATOS DE MUJERES EN MÉXICO

Recomiendo la lectura de Socialismo o Barbarie, con un artículo del periodista mexicano Gastón Pardo, sobre los asesinatos de Mujeres en Ciudad Juárez, y os ruego que reflexionéis sobre lo que significa esa isla de corrupción, impunidad y prevaricación que es México para sus ciudadanos. Porque si la sociedad civil no actúa, no reacciona a tiempo, y elige encogerse de hombros, por miedo o por desidia, la maldad sin límites triunfa, cruza todas las fronteras, se extiende, y todos somos culpables de negligencia criminal.
Gracias a quienes investigan, arriesgando su vida, considerando que este asunto nos afecta y nos concierne a todos.

El asesinato de mujeres en Ciudad Juárez continua impune Las complicidades entre grupos políticos que se han sucedido en el poder en el estado mexicano de Chihuahua han contribuido al mantenimiento en la penumbra y en la impunidad del que es quizá el mayor asesinato serial de mujeres en la historia. La Red Voltaire ha mantenido vivo el interés por el tema, como lo demuestra en esta transcripción fragmentos del libro de la periodista Diana Washington, especialista en el tema.

Por Gastón Pardo (*)

Cosecha de mujeres. El safari mexicano
El encabezado de este texto corresponde al título del libro de la célebre periodista Diana Washington Váldez. La investigación es un apasionado relato sobre las mujeres asesinadas desde hace años en ciudad Ciudad Juárez, burgo situado cerca de la frontera mexicana – estadounidense. Diana Washington Váldez, periodista del diario El Paso Times, de Texas, ha investigado y escrito sobre el feminicidio durante seis años. En 364 páginas, narra porqué las autoridades mexicanas no han arrestado a los responsables de todos estos asesinatos y sostiene la hipótesis de que algunos de los crímenes fueron perpetrados por jóvenes pertenecientes a prominentes familias de Juárez que tienen nexos con el cártel de la droga de esa ciudad y compran protección policíaca. Con la autorización de Editorial Océano, el diario mexicano La Jornada publicó un adelanto de la obra, que ofrecemos a los lectores de la Red Voltaire:

La saña con que mataban a las mujeres fue lo que al principio me llamó la atención, escribe Diana Washington. Ese día invernal de febrero de 1999, permanecí despierta hasta la madrugada, leyendo una serie de relatos que describían muerte por muerte. Así comenzó todo. Pese a las afirmaciones de las autoridades, estos crímenes no tenían nada de normal y ya eran demasiados. Desde 1993, jovencitas, incluso niñas de sólo 12 años, eran violadas, estranguladas y mutiladas sádicamente. Durante los pasados 10 años, más de 400 mujeres han sido asesinadas y una cantidad indeterminada de ellas permanece en calidad de desaparecidas.
Una de las víctimas, Gladys Janeth Fierro, de 12 años, fue secuestrada en mayo de 1993, y al poco tiempo, la encontraron muerta. Sufrió abuso sexual y fue estrangulada. En septiembre de 1995, el cadáver de otra estudiante, Silvia Reyes Morales, de 17, fue localizado en un terreno al sur del Aeropuerto Internacional de Ciudad Juárez. Su seno derecho había sido cortado y el izquierdo mordisqueado por dentadura humana. Eso le hicieron a otras víctimas ese mismo año en uno de los predios en disputa, propiedad de familias influyentes.
Sagrario González, de 17 años, quien trabajó como obrera en una maquiladora, desapareció en abril de 1998 al salir de su trabajo. Después de varios días, su cuerpo fue encontrado en un lote baldío ubicado al oriente de la fábrica donde trabajaba. Las autoridades establecieron que la joven fue ultrajada, estrangulada y apuñalada. En 1996, otras ocho mujeres fueron localizadas en una región desértica de Juárez conocida como Lomas de Poleo, cerca de El Paso, Texas.
El hallazgo de estos cadáveres en las tierras conocidas como Lote Bravo y Lomas de Poleo se incluyó en los expedientes analizados por los perfiladores de criminales de la FBI durante su visita a Juárez, en marzo de 1999.
Los expertos de Estados Unidos fueron enviados a la frontera luego de que el presidente mexicano, en ese entonces Ernesto Zedillo, y el presidente estadunidense Bill Clinton abordaran el caso de los crímenes contra mujeres en Juárez, durante su encuentro en la ciudad de Mérida, Yucatán, en febrero de 1999.
Sin embargo, cinco años después, los asesinatos de las mujeres en Juárez de nuevo fueron tema de diálogo entre los mandatarios de ambos países, George W. Bush y Vicente Fox.
Según declaraciones de funcionarios mexicanos, se grabó un gran triángulo en las espaldas de algunas de las víctimas, mediante un cuchillo o algún otro instrumento cortante. En Asia, un triángulo es un símbolo vinculado con los políticos de ultraderecha. También ha sido utilizado por algunas sociedades y logias secretas, incluso hasta por los nazis.
Me resultaron muy inquietantes los relatos que leí esa noche de 1999. Aunque no todos los crímenes estaban relacionados entre sí, en los hechos todos ellos mostraban una extrema violencia. En apariencia, las víctimas eran escogidas y sus secuestros estaban muy bien organizados. Las mujeres desaparecían en la zona centro, a plena luz del día, sin que nadie oyera u observara algún detalle en particular.

Al principio, creí que esos crímenes eran obra de un par de depravados asesinos bajo protección policiaca, gracias a sus vínculos con el bajo mundo. Había indicios de ello. Después, tuve conocimiento de que existía algo mucho más turbio y complejo detrás de esta cosecha de muerte.
Al parecer los criminales eran hombres poderosos que gozaban de influencia en las más elevadas esferas del gobierno mexicano. Pero los investigadores mexicanos, quienes sabían que estos hombres escogían a sus víctimas entre las jovencitas miembros de familias muy pobres, nada hicieron para frenarlos.
Una antropóloga de Brasil describió a esta agrupación y a sus cómplices como una «cofradía» que se valía de estas muertes para demarcar su territorio y sellar un pacto de silencio, mientras que una socióloga de Juárez calificó estos asesinatos como feminicidios y les atribuyó tinte sexual.
Homicidas en serie, pandillas salvajes y vendedores de droga también se consideraron responsables, pero lograron eludir su responsabilidad en los asesinatos de las mujeres en Juárez.
Los crímenes que convirtieron a esta ciudad fronteriza en la capital mundial de los asesinatos de mujeres no comenzaron de la noche a la mañana. Tuvieron sus inicios en la guerra sucia de México, cuando apenas se iniciaba una red de capos del narcotráfico, empresarios, militares, policías y funcionarios corruptos.
Y estas muertes estaban surgiendo en otros lugares de México y Centroamérica. El terror y la desenfrenada violencia vinculada al cártel de los Carrillo Fuentes fueron de gran utilidad para encubrir a los poderosos juniors, a quienes un funcionario federal atribuyó la comisión de estos asesinatos para proteger sus intereses financieros.
Por muchos años, los sospechosos permanecerían ocultos. Pero al final, el velo fue descubierto y esto provocó una serie de amenazas. En el año 2004, tres policías mexicanos me enviaron un mensaje de advertencia para que detuviera y abandonara mi investigación. Otra fuente mexicana me reveló que «los juniors están preocupados; no quieren que sus nombres sean divulgados».
A finales de 2003, luego de que el diario La Jornada, de la ciudad de México, publicara breves extractos del manuscrito de este libro, unos colaboradores y yo empezamos a recibir extraños telefonemas con ruidos de fondo, que semejaban un serrucho eléctrico y la voz de un niño suplicando «Mami, no».
Un agente federal de Estados Unidos también recibió llamadas similares, las cuales fueron rastreadas hasta México. Una fuente federal nos alertó de la intención de un funcionario del gobierno para emprender la «Operación Desaparición», un plan dirigido contra un periodista de la ciudad de México. Este plan fue diseñado luego de que un influyente ciudadano se quejara de que algunos de nosotros nos estábamos acercando demasiado.
Las autoridades mexicanas no cuentan con ninguna prueba en contra de los sospechosos ya encarcelados y que enfrentan acusaciones de participar en una cadena de crímenes en serie, lo que incluye al egipcio Abdel Latif Sharif Sharif. Los feminicidios se han extendido hasta la ciudad de Chihuahua, la capital del estado, a unos 380 kilómetros al sur de Juárez...
Cynthia Kiecker, una ciudadana de Minnesota, Estados Unidos, y su esposo, un ciudadano mexicano, fueron acusados del asesinato de una joven en la ciudad capital, en el año 2003. El Departamento de Estado de Estados Unidos cree que Cynthia y su marido fueron torturados para obligarlos a firmar confesiones falsas.
Desde el principio, las amenazas y las intimidaciones han formado parte de la odisea en Juárez. La FBI se ha visto frustrada en sus esfuerzos por colaborar. Expertos van y vienen sin que las cosas cambien.

Organismos internacionales, como Amnistía Internacional, Naciones Unidas y la Comisión Interamericana de Derechos Humanos, se han manifestado en vano contra el gobierno mexicano. Sin embargo, retroceder sólo beneficiaría a los asesinos. A menos que se haga algo para impedirlas, estas muertes continuarán. Sin una importante intervención internacional, una segunda década de muertes promete ser peor aún que la primera. Este libro fue escrito porque hay vidas en juego.

Epílogo: Los abogados
En julio de 2004, tres mujeres fueron reportadas como desaparecidas en Ciudad Juárez. A una de ellas la encontraron sin vida. La tercera joven, Fabiola Chacón Arreola, de 18 años, vivía en Anapra. Sus familiares dicen que la joven se dedicaba a cuidar a su hermano discapacitado, además de tener la seguridad de que ella no se fue por su propia voluntad. Su madrina relató que Fabiola era estudiante en una escuela de computación, ubicada en la zona centro. Hasta ahora no se sabe nada de su paradero.
Sin duda alguna, lo que está sucediendo en la ciudad fronteriza es alarmante. A causa de la indiferencia oficial, los asesinatos de mujeres se han extendido hacia otros estados de la República. Si hay o no vínculos posteriores entre los crímenes y las diferentes ciudades, ello debe ser investigado.
El destino de muchas mujeres desaparecidas se desconoce, e incluso las personas que han sido identificadas como sospechosas no han sido presentadas ante los tribunales judiciales. Los funcionarios de corporaciones investigadoras en ambos lados de la frontera saben quiénes son los asesinos, pero nada se ha hecho.
Algunos de los autores materiales ya murieron, pero como parte de las pugnas dentro del crimen organizado. La administración de Fox tiene la oportunidad de recuperar la fe de sus ciudadanos actuando correctamente. Los crímenes y desapariciones continúan de manera incesante y todo seguirá igual hasta que los verdaderos asesinos sean detenidos, y cuando los gobiernos de México y Estados Unidos decidan y reconozcan el fracaso de las políticas bilaterales, que tuvieron como trágico resultado las muertes de centenares de mujeres.
Se requiere una solución bilateral que valorice más el salvar vidas que incrementar el número de decomisos de drogas o permitir el paso libre del comercio.
El clímax de los «crímenes intolerables» llegó cuando varias madres de las víctimas de Juárez y de Chihuahua clamaron justicia durante una sesión con el presidente Fox, en la ciudad de México, en noviembre de 2003.
La reunión con la autoridad máxima de su país fue el punto culminante de todo el trabajo y ayuda de organismos que se habían lanzado para ayudar a estas mujeres. Las madres expresaron que habían dado a Fox una lista con nombres de sospechosos y esperaban que, en consecuencia, él actuara. Al término de la reunión Fox dijo: «La justicia a veces es escasa en nuestro país».
Él tiene la oportunidad de cambiar esta circunstancia. De no ser así, lo que sigue es interponer una denuncia ante un tribunal internacional.

Acontecimientos
En el 2004, la fiscal federal María López Urbina entregó un informe al estado de Chihuahua en donde señala a más de 80 funcionarios y agentes estatales por el supuesto mal papel que ejercieron durante las investigaciones.
El presidente Vicente Fox mencionó el informe de López Urbina durante su cuarto Informe de Gobierno. Como algunos hemos argüido, estos investigadores, aunque no fueran los culpables, sí son los responsables de que los crímenes siguieran por el mal desempeño de su trabajo.
Tal vez ni siquiera pisarán la cárcel y probablemente sean exonerados, pero el hecho de que la autoridad federal tomara en cuenta la pobre calidad de las investigaciones estatales, representa un paso muy importante.

Entre los señalados en el informe de López Urbina estuvieron Suly Ponce, Hernán Rivera, Manuel Esparza y Antonio Navarrete.
En realidad, faltan los altos mandos que fueron sus jefes. La comisionada federal Guadalupe Morfín Otero también presentó un informe en relación con estos crímenes en 2004. Durante un foro en Ciudad Juárez pidió la liberación de «quienes no deben permanecer en prisión», y comentó que «es inevitable preguntar hasta dónde llega en las altas esferas la complicidad y cuál es el papel que desempeñan los organismos y poderes que deben hacer contrapeso al Ejecutivo del estado».
Victoria Caraveo, quien se desempeñó como titular del Instituto Chihuahuense de la Mujer, emitió un informe que dio a conocer la primera cifra oficial de los asesinatos de mujeres en Juárez. Le faltaron algunos casos, pero el número dentro de su informe fue más elevado que el manejado por la Procuraduría General de la República y la Comisión Nacional de los Derechos Humanos.
Bajo la presidencia de José Luis Soberanes, la CNDH aportó datos importantes en el 2004, y puso un enfoque anteriormente ignorado en las mujeres extraviadas. Esto impulsó a emprender una búsqueda y algunas de ellas fueron localizadas por las autoridades federales. En julio de 2004, los chihuahuenses tuvieron la oportunidad de elegir un nuevo gobernador, y los juarenses un nuevo alcalde. Debemos estar atentos a estos acontecimientos. Lo negativo del asunto es que personas cuya culpabilidad está en duda, los culpables prefabricados, no han sido exonerados.
Existen sospechas de que varias muertes, y la forma en que se ha extendido a otras regiones representa una serie de respuestas a las estrategias bilaterales antidrogas y del libre comercio. Incluso, los jefes de los cárteles en México están luchando contra la posibilidad de que sean extraditados a los tribunales del extranjero, en particular Estados Unidos.
El gobierno mexicano habría tratado como secreto de Estado algunos aspectos de la lucha antidrogas, impulsada en gran parte por Estados Unidos, para tratar de apagar o contener a los cárteles. Como respuesta, se desató una poderosa alianza de intereses económicos, que incluye políticos y elementos corruptos del Ejército y de las fuerzas policiales, y que ha declarado una guerra en contra de los esfuerzos del gobierno.
La alianza ha respondido a operativos como Chihuahua Pilot Project y a cambios que proceden del Tratado de Libre Comercio, que amenazaban el statu quo. La contraguerra ha incluido los asesinatos sistemáticos de mujeres –una auténtica campaña de terror que podía garantizar el doblegamiento de gobernantes y el temor en sus comunidades.
Hemos visto que entre sus elementos se encuentran policías y soldados que fueron adiestrados por agencias federales estadunidenses, convertidos en escuadrones de la muerte para una extensa red del crimen organizado. Como ejemplos, tenemos a los Zetas, que operan en Tamaulipas y Nuevo León. Estos sicarios tuvieron como manual de operaciones las guerras sucias de países como Guatemala, El Salvador, Chile, Argentina y México.
Algunos narcotraficantes de Tijuana y Juárez se han trasladado a esos países para instalarse en ellos y evadir la justicia. Las víctimas de Ciudad Juárez –la mayoría jóvenes y de origen humilde– representan el futuro de la industria maquiladora y, en general, del pueblo mexicano.
El gobierno se ha adelantado a callar las inquietudes de la sociedad civil con las detenciones injustas de personas que nada tenían que ver, y todo para seguir ocultando el verdadero fondo de esta guerra. Pero el silencio se ha roto, y no tiene caso seguir ocultando la verdad.
En cada batalla hay crímenes de guerra, y este caso no es la excepción. Las autoridades de Estados Unidos y México deben actuar con urgencia para poner fin a la ola de crímenes y reparar el daño humano colectivo. No habrá solución sin justicia.

ÉXTASIS GOZOSOS EN UN CONVENTO ZAMORANO

A mediados del siglo XIII, las mujeres con recursos económicos contaban con la posibilidad de llevar una vida más independiente y placentera que la que les podía ofrecer el contrato matrimonial. Y esa posibilidad era formar parte de una comunidad de monjas dominicas emplazada en los arrabales de una ciudad. No sonrían escépticamente y sigan leyendo.
Ello explica por qué doña Elvira Rodríguez convenció a su marido de que le dejara libre para fundar, junto con su hermana doña Jimena y doce novicias, el convento dominico de las Dueñas de Zamora, pagando una buena suma al obispo zamorano don Suero. Las "dueñas" de este convento dominico establecieron pronto estrecha relación con sus compañeros los dominicos de la ciudad que acudían (en principio) a predicar al convento femenino. Paralelamente a un famoso pleito que se entablo entre el obispo y las monjas más estrechas, se desarrolló una correspondencia entre los dominicos y las monjas más mundanas, en la que se detallaban las prácticas eróticas permitidas entre frailes y monjas para guardarse del peligro de la preñez.
Según más tarde denunciaría la priora nombrada por el obispo don Suero para acabar con las visitas de los varones dominicos al convento femenino: "los frailes de la Orden de Predicadores acostumbraban a venir mucho al convento de las Dueñas, casi diariamente, desde la mañana a la siesta y desde la siesta hasta la tarde y , muchas veces, allí les anochecía y había día que venían diez pares de ellos y andaban por la casa con las "frailesas" jóvenes abrazándolas y magreándolas y diciendo palabras inconvenientes. Y allí se desnudaban, quedando en paños menores y aun como el día en que nacieron. Y luego ellos se vestían los hábitos de ellas y ellas los de ellos. Item, con consentimiento de doña Jimena, se intercambiaban su ropa interior como prendas de amor". Esta denuncia se envía al cardenal don Ordoño para que lo relatara al Papa. Cuando la susodicha priora leyó a las monjas la orden del obispo don Suero de que cerraran las puertas del convento e impidieran toda visita de los dominicos, éstos, liderados por fray Munio, incitaron a las monjas a la rebelión metiendo misivas por los agujeros de los muros. Y, cuando la priora apresó y excomulgó a dos monjas rebeldes, estalló la revuelta general. Cantando "Te Deum laudamus" y otras canciones menos decorosas depusieron a la priora, llamándola "mastina" y "caraza", liberaron a las presas y dieron entrada a los frailes que se agolpaban en la puerta… Fray Munio cambió sus hábitos con doña Orobuena, fray Juan de Ariancos se desnudó ante las novicias y cambió su hábito con Marina Domínguez de Toro… (Sigue en el texto latino la descripción detalladísima de las orgías, que omito por decoro)

¿QUIÉN ES EL MONSTRUO DE FLORENCIA? (3)

Capítulos anteriores:
¿Quién es el Monstruo de Florencia? (1)
 ¿Quién es el Monstruo de Florencia? (2)

La Italia Nostra.

"Hablar de crímenes políticos en Italia —me decía un magistrado— es una redundancia, porque el delito, en su contexto y su trascendencia social afecta a los ciudadanos, y tanto su castigo como su impunidad requieren unas condiciones sociales y políticas capaces de cumplir o de ignorar el Estado de Derecho."

En Italia, como en cualquier país donde la corrupción y la impunidad formen parte de todos los peldaños de la escala social, el ciudadano aprende a callar, a no colaborar con los investigadores, y a guardar para sí los datos que conoce.

¿Nadie escuchó los disparos en el silencio de la noche? ¿Nadie, entre los cientos de mirones, provistos con visores nocturnos, micrófonos y cámaras, logró captar ninguno de los asesinatos? ¿Nadie observó a quien, manchado de sangre, se desprendía de su uniforme impermeabilizado, antes de subir al coche y huir? Parece improbable. Pero los italianos saben el precio que se paga cuando uno se inmiscuye en la defensa de la Ley.

El contexto social y político

El 12 de diciembre de 1969, estalla una bomba en el Banco Nazional de la Agricultura (16 muertos y 88 heridos). La que colocaron en el Banco Comercial no llegó a estallar. En el pasaje subterráneo del Banco Nacional del Trabajo, en Roma, otra bomba mata a 13 personas; y otras dos, en el Altar de la Patria y en el Museo del Ressogimiento de Roma, hieren a cuatro personas.

La policía busca a los culpables en la izquierda, señalados de antemano, e ignora las pistas, los indicios, las pruebas: ochenta detenidos, como el ferroviario Pinelli, que "se cayó" desde el cuarto piso de la Fiscalía de Milán durante un interrogatorio, o Valpreda, un bailarín que fue encarcelado hasta 1972. Al cabo de los años, a los policías les llega la idea de preguntarse por los portafolios, de manufactura poco común, donde iban los explosivos, y descubren que fueron comprados por Giovanni Ventura y Franco Freda, fascistas de Padua.

El 22 de julio de 1970 estalla el tren "Flecha del Sur" en Gioia-Tauro. Los investigadores, los peritos en explosivos y la policía dicen que es un accidente ferroviario, y hasta 1993 no se reabre la investigación, para descubrir que la bomba fue colocada por dos criminales calabreses. El dinero provenía del Comité de acciòn de la provincia de Reggio, formado por representantes y parlamentarios del MSI(extrema derecha)

Es la culminación de un plan de los servicios secretos italianos, auxiliados por la extrema derecha, que se llamaría más tarde en los periódicos "la estrategia de la tensión". Había que dar argumentos para un golpe de Estado militar, y el 8 de diciembre de 1970, el príncipe Valerio Borghese con parte del Ejercito y las organizaciones de extrema derecha, "Avanguardia Nazionale" y "Ordine Nuovo", y la Gran Logia Masónica P2, lo secundaron. Quizás no se acordaron de avisar al Gobierno legal, y éste se opuso y lo hizo fracasar.

El 31 de mayo de 1972, Vincenzo Vinciguerra, militante de Ordine Nuovo, avisa a los carabineros de que, en Peteano di Sagrato, hay un coche ardiendo, y tal vez haya alguien dentro. Los policías se acercan, y cuando abren la puerta, les alcanza la deflagración de la bomba-trampa, que mata a tres en el acto.

En 1972, el cardenal Marcinkus vende la Banca Católica del Véneto al Banco Ambrosiano de Roberto Calvi, de la logia P2, sin consultar al cardenal Albino Luciani, obispo de Venecia, que se opuso sin darse cuenta de que estaba enemistándose con la CIA, la mafia, la logia P2, el grupo Gladio, y todas las bases del poder en Italia. Cuando llegó a Papa, como Juan Pablo I, decidió revisar los asuntos financieros del Vaticano, y murió en circunstancias sospechosas.

El 7 de abril de 1973, una bomba que transportaba el fascista Nico Azzi, estalla en el tren Turín- Roma. No obstante su filiación, hay testigos que oportunamente afirman haberlo visto con el periódico de extrema izquierda "Lotta Continua".

El 17 mayo de 1973, Gianfranco Bertoli, perteneciente a los servicios secretos, que actua como "topo" en los grupos anarquistas, lanza una granada en la Fiscalía de Milán: 4 muertos.

En Brescia, el 28 de mayo de 1974, en la Plaza de la Logia, una bomba depositada en un contenedor estalla entre los que se manifiestan contra las bombas, los atentados y la violencia en Italia. Ocho muertos y 94 heridos.

El 4 de agosto de 1974, en un vagón de segunda clase, estalla una bomba en el túnel ferroviario de San Benedetto Val di Sembro, y golpea al tren Italicus: 12 muertos y un centenr de heridos.

El 2 de agosto 1980 en la estación Bolonia, una bomba mata a 85 personas y deja heridas a más de 150. Los jueces italianos vieron la firma de los terroristas de extrema derecha; pero los servicios secretos italianos del general Santovito maniobraron para eliminar las pruebas y desviar las sospechas, dándoles una multitud de informaciones falsas y erróneas. Según los magistrados (actas de la Corte de Justicia del 23 de noviembre 1995): "el SISMI nos hizo llegar una masa de informaciones difícilmente verificables, a fin de empujarnos en unas investigaciones y pistas tan improductivas como extenuantes".

El 23 de diciembre de 1984, otra vez en el túnel de San Benedetto Val di Sembro, 15 muertos del tren 904 siguen esperando justicia.

Se trataba de culpar a la izquierda, y desatar una represión policial y política que propiciara el triunfo del estado de excepción, la supresión de las garantías legales y las libertades ciudadanas, como siempre. Y los servicios secretos, los sicarios de la mafia, y los mercenarios de extrema derecha, actuaron al unísono en las matanzas. "Los estragos que han ensangrentado Italia a partir del 1969, pertenecen a una única matriz organizativa. Dicha estructura obedece a una lógica según la cual las instrucciones salen de aparatos insertos en las Instituciones, de una estructura paralela y secreta del ministerio del Interior. " —según el texto de una de las sentencias.

Antecedentes históricos

La alianza Vaticano-EEUU-masonería-Cosa Nostra nació con el desembarco del ejercito de EE.UU. en la Italia fascista. La mafia siciliano-americana, con redes e intereses económicos en Italia, facilitó a los aliados ayuda e información para enfrentarse a los fascistas y aniquilar a los comunistas, que habían encabezado la resistencia hasta entonces.

Los pactos establecidos han salido a la luz, y forman parte de los sumarios, instruidos gracias a gente con poco apego a la vida. Como el magistrado Alessandrini, asesinado en enero de 1979, cuando iba a procesar a Calvi por el caso del Banco Ambrosiano. Como el periodista "Mino" Pecorelli, asesinado en marzo de 1979, que investigaba la conexión Vaticano, narcotráfico y Maffia, y se atrevió a publicar la lista de los miembros de la Logia P2 con altas responsabilidades en el Estado y la Iglesia. Como Giorgio Ambrosoli, un abogado que había investigado durante cinco años, y fue asesinado el 11 de julio de 1979, después de declarar sobre las conexiones entre Sindona, el Banco Ambrosiano de Roberto Calvi, el recientemente fallecido obispo Marcinkus del IOR y la Logia P2. Pocos días después, fue asesinado el teniente coronel Varisco, que lo había interrogado y tomado declaración. En octubre de 1979, Enrico Cuccia, director de Mediobanco, uno de los hombres más influyentes de Italia, que había testificado sobre la amenaza de muerte que Sindona había proferido contra Giorgio Ambrosoli, recibe una bomba que destruye su casa. En 1982, intentan asesinar a Roberto Rosone, director general del Banco Ambrosiano, que ayuda en la investigación y trata de sanearlo. El 18 de junio de 1982, después de asegurar que va a tirar de la manta, Roberto Calvi aparece ahorcado en un puente de Londres, antes de descubrirse un desfalco de 1.300 millones de dolares en su banco. En octubre, Giuseppe Dellacha, directivo del Banco Ambrosiano, "se cae" por una ventana y se mata. En 1983, Michele Sindona, que había sido extraditado de EE.UU. y permanecía en una celda de "máxima seguridad" de Voghera, muere envenenado con cianuro en el café.

La logia P2 utilizaba los servicios del Banco Vaticano para enviar dinero a cuentas en Latinoamérica. Una gran parte de las operaciones de financiación de la guerrilla contra-nicaragüense, (dirigida por el vicepresidente George Bush) se realizó mediante las redes financieras de la mafia italo-norteamericana, respaldadas por el Banco Vaticano, estrechamente vinculado al Banco Ambrosiano, propiedad de Roberto Calvi, un banquero que había comenzado en los setenta una fulgurante carrera en el mundo de las finanzas italianas de la mano de su padrino, Michele Sindona, miembro relevante de la logia P2, banquero de la Cosa Nostra desde 1957 y Consejero Financiero del Vaticano.

La investigación del juez Imposimato demostró más tarde que Sindona fue escogido por la Santa Sede y por Marzinkus, precisamente por sus conexiones con la mafia y la CIA, para poder trasvasar fabulosas cantidades a los Escuadrones de la Muerte latinoamericanos, controlados por las dictaduras amigas de EE.UU. Así se financiaron las matanzas cometidas por los fascistas en Italia y en España, y así se pudo financiar en Latinoamérica la "Operación Cóndor", los asesinatos de militantes y dirigentes de izquierdas, las desapariciones, los golpes de Estado, y la desestabilización de los gobiernos progresistas en los años setenta y los ochenta.

Parece que no ha pasado el tiempo

En aquella Italia de entonces, como en la de ahora, los ciudadanos se saben rodeados por oscuras fuerzas en las que la policía, los servicios secretos, la mafia, y los políticos corruptos han creado redes insondables, pero evidentes. Acudir como testigo a la policía para denunciar un crimen puede ser suicida: nadie sabe si alguno de los funcionarios cobra un sobresueldo por filtrar los datos a quien le pueda interesar silenciarlo. Ha triunfado una mentalidad que explica los asesinatos como si las víctimas fueran culpables por cruzarse en el camino de los asesinos, y el epitafio suele ser: "Descubrir quién es el asesino no les va a devolver la vida."

El miedo a complicarse la vida, que se ha popularizado tanto en Europa desde entonces, ha permitido que el dinero negro, procedente de las actividades mafiosas, supere el PIB de muchos países.

Hay que recordar todo esto para comprender el silencio, la impunidad, los fallos y las negligencias en la investigación de los crímenes del Monstruo de Florencia y tantos otros.

Sr. Veraldi Pascuale

He leido sus capítulos 2 y 3. Sólo puedo decir que Vd. es un maestro. Primero me ha tansportado a mis años jóvenes que viví en la dulce Toscana y mis paseos nocturnos en mi amada Florencia y de golpe me he encontrado en una escena de pesadilla que he vivido como si la estuviese viendo. Efecto magistral.

Después en el capítulo 3 he recordado la Italia que viví y a muchos de los italianos que conocí.

Despues, en un alarde de información me ha descubierto la asquerosa tela de araña que han tejido estamentos o instituciones que, según dicen, actúan en nombre de la libertad y los derechos humanos o en nombre de Cristo.

Por favor, Sr. Veraldi, siga escribiendo. Ya nos dirá quién era el mostruo de Florencia pero mientras tanto disfrutaremos y aprenderemos con lo usted escriba.

¿QUIÉN ES EL MONSTRUO DE FLORENCIA? (2)

Capítulo anterior: ¿Quién es el Monstruo de Florencia? (1)

Florencia es la capital de la región toscana, compuesta por las provincias de Arezzo, Livorno, Carrara, Pisa, Pistoia, Siena y Prato. Es una ciudad de unos 350.000 habitantes, protegida por innumerables leyes para salvaguardar el Patrimonio Artístico e Histórico, que impide cambiar una bisagra en una ventana o hacer reformas sin las mil trabas burocráticas de los funcionarios municipales, provinciales y nacionales, mal pagados en Italia, y que obtienen un sobresueldo mediante los consabidos sobornos para agilizar o saltarse los trámites legales. En consecuencia, todo el crecimiento de población que no consigue absorber la ciudad, se ubica en los alrededores de Florencia, en 44 municipios, donde viven unos 600.000 habitantes. Como Arezzo, forma parte de la región de los antiguos etruscos, ancestros reivindicados como garantes de la superioridad cultural de los florentinos, que encarnan sus virtudes fenicias sin descartar su fondo helénico, y su paisaje conserva aquella feraz naturaleza entre el resplandor fantasmal de las luciérnagas, con castaños, cipreses, robles, encinas, olivos viñedos, y el aroma de romero, ajedrea, y jaras, que los pintores renacentistas inmortalizaron.

La cordillera de los Apeninos, las colinas de Chianti, Montereggi, cerca de Fiesole, donde el pintor de origen español, Antonio Bueno vivió como florentino confeso y converso, las colinas Metalíferas, y un valle regado por el Arno son el medio natural por el que se desplazan los florentinos para trabajar, estudiar, encontrarse con los amigos, pasear, acudir al cine, a la biblioteca, a un museo, a la pizzería o la trattoría o para bailar en una discoteca. No hay modo de vivir allí sin transitar aquellos bosques milenarios, tan familiares para los florentinos como las calles asfaltadas para los milaneses.

La segunda pareja asesinada. 14 de septiembre de 1974.

La mañana del 15 de septiembre de 1974, en Borgo san Lorenzo, en "Le Fontanine" de Rabatta, en un sendero cercano al río Sieve, un campesino ve un Fiat 127 aparcado: en el asiento del conductor, yace muerto, semidesnudo, Pasquale Gentilcore, de 19 años. Stefania Pettini, su novia, de 18 años, está muerta no lejos de allí, y yace con los brazos en cruz y las piernas abiertas.

El informe forense precisa que Pasquale recibió seis tiros y dos puñaladas en el tórax. Stefania, cuatro tiros y 96 puñaladas en la zona de los senos, del bajo vientre y del pubis, donde sobresalía un sarmiento de vid con hojas introducido en la vagina. El asesino había desparramado los objetos que Stefanía llevaba en el bolso.

Pasquale Gentilcore trabajaba en una oficina de seguros y Stefanía era secretaria. Hacía dos años y medio que salían juntos, con separaciones y reconciliaciones. La policía logró saber cuáles habían sido sus actividades en las últimas horas de su vida aquel domingo. Aquella tarde, Pasquale conducía el coche de su padre, llevó a su hermana María Cristina a la discoteca "Teen Club" y quedó con ella de acuerdo para pasar a buscarla a medianoche. Luego, fue a buscar a Stefanía y se supone que se dirigieron al lugar donde encontraron la muerte poco después de las nueve de la noche.

Conmociona pensar en las semejanzas con tantos otros jóvenes en la zona, que no fueron asesinados a tiros ni rematados a cuchilladas en aquella noche lluviosa y oscura de novilunio. Pienso en la angustia de los supervivientes, privilegiados y manchados por ese suceso para el resto de su vida.

La policía no sospechó ni tomó nota, entonces, de las concomitancias con el asesinato de la primera pareja, porque el asesino de aquella era el marido y estaba en la cárcel.

Pudiera ser que aquel primer crimen, que luego se ha atribuido al Monstruo de Florencia, no fuera obra de éste, pero le proporcionase la ocasión de adueñarse de la pistola que Mele dijo haber tirado.

Y con este segundo crimen pasa lo mismo: también los sospechosos se lanzan a hablar, confesar, acusar, contradecirse. Como en todos los asesinatos, la policía recibe denuncias, confesiones falsas, anónimos... Las investigadores se centran en Bruno Mocali de 53 años, un supuesto curandero; en Giuseppe Francini, un minusválido mental que se presentó a la policía para acusarse del delito, y en Guido Giovannini, un mirón, identificado por algunos testigos y que tenía por costumbre espiar a las parejas en aquella zona. Pero, según se ha sabido después, espiar a las parejas es un pasatiempo popular entre los hombres florentinos, que se ayudan con prismáticos con visor nocturno, cámaras de fotos, micrófonos... Tuvieron que soltar a los tres detenidos.

La policía dio vueltas en vano alrededor de los conocidos y allegados de la pareja, investigó a los enfermos mentales, a los que tuvieran antecedentes penales. En definitiva, trataron la investigación como un crimen sórdido y aplicaron la lógica instituida en estos casos, que es la misma que aplican los buenos médicos a los casos difíciles: dejar que el tiempo resuelva y ofrezca la solución.

Perfil del asesino de Pasquale Gentilcore y Stefania Pettin.

El perfil de este crimen corresponde al de un hombre en la fuerza de la edad. Ha matado de forma expedita a Pasquale, pero se ha ensañado con Stefanía y ha seguido apuñalándola incluso después de muerta. Un asesino que se deja cegar por la cólera, un pícnico. Alguien que odia la plenitud sexual de la mujer y su corporeidad. Un frustrado sexual. Alguien que responde con violencia a la sensualidad femenina, y sólo se siente seguro cuando es un cadáver. Se demora para mutilarlo y esto hace pensar que conoce bien la campiña, sabe moverse en silencio, captar los sonidos que indican la presencia de alguien y no necesita huir inmediatamente de la escena del crimen, porque en el silencio de la noche distingue e identifica los ruidos. Es alguien que resulta familiar en la zona, no es extraño encontrárselo, quizás porque recolecta plantas medicinales. Y también es posible que se haya familiarizado con el bosque como cazador furtivo de los que utilizan cepos y trampas.

¿QUIÉN ES EL MONSTRUO DE FLORENCIA? (1)

Quienes vivimos en la Toscana en algún momento de nuestra vida a partir de 1968, adquirimos la certeza de que la muerte violenta nos llegaría de mano de algún conocido, algo que todas las estadísticas confirman en cualquier parte del mundo.

El monstruo de Florencia conocía cada rincón de los alrededores, y asesinó y mutiló a sus victimas con absoluta impunidad, burlando las patrullas, las trampas y las sospechas. Era uno de nosotros, un vecino amable y preocupado por el riesgo que corrían las jóvenes parejas que se iban en el coche, buscando intimidad al abrigo de los bosques, y maldijo, como todos, al asesino, y se mostró conmovido por la juventud de las víctimas. Formó parte de quienes testificaron que no habían visto a nadie, ofreció sus pesquisas a la policía, habló con sus amigos de sus sospechas, azuzó la desconfianza contra algún forastero que se cruzó en su camino, y entre los 100.000 ciudadanos que interrogó la policía, entre los millares de folios que rellenaron los investigadores, se encuentran su nombre y su dirección, sus respuestas, sus coartadas y su perfil inocuo. Yo lo conozco, lo conocemos todos, y sé quién es, como lo sabemos todos.

La primera pareja asesinada. 21 de agosto de 1968

En Lastra a Signa, un pueblo tranquilo de la Toscana, Barbara Locci, de 32 años, apodada "la abeja reina", casada infiel con múltiples aventuras amorosas, había dejado a su marido, Stefano Mele, enfermo en casa, y se había ido al cine con su hijo Natalino, de ocho años, y Antonio Lo Bianco, de 34 años, uno de sus amantes. Después, en el coche de Antonio, con Natalino dormido en el asiento de atrás, buscaron un sitio tranquilo para sus efusiones en los alrededores del cementerio. Natalino llamó a la puerta de un caserío apartado a las dos de la mañana del día 22. Dijo que su padre lo había llevado en brazos hasta allí, que habían matado a su madre y a su "tío", y dijo haber visto a los asesinos, luego dijo que no recordaba. Al cabo de los años fue hipnotizado para que pudiera describir al asesino. En su mente se mezclaron los recuerdos inducidos, los deseos, lo onírico, los disparos, los asesinatos, y en su memoria sólo quedó nítida la absoluta oscuridad de aquella noche sin luna.

Su padre, Stefano Mele, dijo haber estado durmiendo, enfermo; luego dijo que los había matado con la ayuda de otro amante de su mujer, Francesco Vinci; dijo muchas cosas, y después se contradijo. Quizás era el único prestigio que podía rescatarle de la humillación por aquellas infidelidades repetidas y consentidas, y en algún momento afirmó que él los había matado, que les había disparado ocho tiros con una Beretta de calibre 22, y esa cifra y la marca de la pistola eran detalles que sólo podía conocer si hubiera estado en la escena del crimen —dijeron los investigadores—, o si se los hubieran puesto en su boca los policías que lo interrogaron, dijimos los que sabemos cómo se hace.

Le preguntaron por el arma del crimen, y confesó haberla tirado, haberla escondido, y cuando la policía la buscó, rastreo minuciosamente los diferentes lugares que señaló, sin encontrarla, dijo que la había entregado a un tercer cómplice. Más tarde se declaró inocente, y culpó a otros.

Stefano Mele fue condenado a catorce años de prisión por el asesinato de su mujer y de su último amante, cometido en un ataque de locura transitoria, a pesar de sus protestas de inocencia.

Seis años después, otra pareja, que se había refugiado en la oscuridad de los bosques para hacer el amor, fue asesinada con aquella Beretta 22, y esta vez, el asesino, sin la mirada despavorida de un niño brutalmente sacado del primer sueño, pudo firmar su crimen en el cuerpo de la mujer, con trazo firme, como buen conocedor de la anatomía humana.

MÉXICO: LA CONSPIRACIÓN MAFIOSA CONTRA LA PERIODISTA LYDIA CACHO

Hablar de México, bucear en la siniestra trama de narcotráfico, pederastia, prostitución, violaciones, asesinatos, y corrupción institucional, requiere un coraje excepcional. Hay cincuenta y cuatro periodistas asesinados, y dos desaparecidos en los últimos años . En el periódico La Jornada , Blanche Petrich recibió anonimamente las grabaciones telefónicas de varias conversaciones, en las que se detallan las intrigas contra Lydia Cacho, que denunció la red de violadores y pederastas en la que está implicado el empresario Kamel Nacif, y cómo fue detenida y apresada ilegalmente, mediante una conspiración mafiosa en el que participan jueces, gobernadores, policías, funcionarios de Justicia y políticos. Vomitivo.

Si la sociedad civil no nos hacemos eco, ésta podría ser una de las veces en las que el coraje personal de los periodistas no sirve de nada, salvo para ser asesinados.

Reproducimos a continuación un fragmento del artículo de Blanche Petrich en La Jornada del 14 de febrero de 2006:

Entrega anónima de grabaciones de telefonemas de Kamel Nacif. Al desnudo, la intriga contra Lydia Cacho. Solecito: Conversaciones con gobernadores y empresarios aclaran la infamia.

POR BLANCHE PETRICH

Una serie de grabaciones, depositadas por un mensajero anónimo en la recepción de este diario, contienen conversaciones telefónicas sostenidas por el empresario poblano Kamel Nacif, quien mandó detener a la periodista Lydia Cacho porque lo menciona en su libro Los demonios del Edén , sobre prácticas de pederastia. Los telefonemas grabados del industrial se inician en el momento en que policías judiciales de Puebla, en coordinación con la judicial de Quintana Roo, cumplían la orden de arresto de la escritora en Cancún. Concluyen el 23 o 24 de diciembre, cuando Cacho ya ha sido puesta en libertad bajo fianza.

A lo largo de esa semana crítica desfilan por la línea telefónica de Kamel Nacif dos gobernadores, Mario Marín, de Puebla, y Pablo Salazar Mendiguchía, de Chiapas; empresarios textileros amigos del magnate, como Hubert, un ciudadano francés; Luis Angel Casas, quien fungió como coordinador de finanzas de la campaña electoral de Marín; un paisano de Nacif, Hanna Nakad Bayeh, también conocido como Juanito, y un periodista que habla familiarmente dos veces con el magnate, y a quien éste llama Andrés o "muñeco". El informador trabaja en un diario nacional y en una radioemisora.

Nacif Borge, voz rasposa y lenguaje vulgar, refiere a lo largo de las conversaciones cómo, mediante amistades y contactos dentro del Cereso poblano, "recomendó" que encerraran a Lydia "con las locas y las tortilleras" para que fuera violada cuando ingresara a prisión; cómo se obviaron los trámites legales de notificar a la periodista del proceso que se seguía en su contra "porque si no, no llega a la cárcel".

Este hombre adinerado y poderoso, con escolaridad de apenas preparatoria, da cuenta de la fobia contra el ejercicio periodístico que tienen él y sus amigos; el propio gobernador poblano, Mario Marín, e incluso el reportero que, al parecer, lo frecuenta.

Las cintas grabadas ilustran, además, la preocupación e involucramiento personal de Nacif, conocido como el rey de la mezclilla, con otro proceso penal, el de la extradición del presunto pederasta Jean Succar Kuri, su antiguo socio y amigo preso desde hace dos años en Arizona. Un abogado a quien llama Richard y otro gestor del empresario en Estados Unidos, con acento argentino, hacen referencia a hechos que dejan en claro que Kamel Nacif asiste directamente en los trabajos de la defensa de Succar y que incluso hay financiamiento suyo de por medio.

Las grabaciones, que se alargan por cerca de hora y media, saturadas de expresiones misóginas, incluyen 12 telefonemas distintos.
Quien más lo llama, quien permanece más en contacto con Nacif Borge durante esos días de diciembre es Hanna Nakad Bayeh, propietario de un taller textil dentro del Cereso de Puebla, denunciado en reportajes de La Jornada de Oriente por abuso de la mano de obra prácticamente esclava de los internos que trabajan para él.

Nakad -o Juanito- se mantuvo aquellos días muy activo en los juzgados; en la oficina de la procuradora de Justicia, Blanca Laura Villeda Martínez; en el despacho de la agente del Ministerio Público que llevó el caso, Rosa Aurora Espejel, pero sobre todo a la vera de la juez Rosa Cecilia Pérez González, a quien describe como ''hermana de nosotros mil veces''.

Dice Nakad, conocido como Juanito, quien aún conserva un fuerte acento de Líbano, a pesar de los 25 años que tiene en México:
-¿Qué pasó, patrón?

-¿Qué pasó, Juanito?
-Oye, estoy aquí en la procu. No pude ver a Alfonso Karam porque está en una rueda de prensa (...) Hablé con la juez. La juez ya está en el juzgado.
-¿Y qué dice?
-Me dice: 'Juanito, no te me presentas aquí hoy'. Le digo ¿y por qué? Me dice: 'Luego, después te digo'. Parece que le hablaron desde ayer. 'No te quiero ver por acá, no te preocupes, estás en buenas manos'.
-¿Y qué? ¿Le va a dar fianza?
-No creo. No creo. Ora sí, me dijo que le hablamos al rato. No sé qué orden recibe desde arriba. La otra vez igual... ta' bien, oye, orita te hablo, alcanzo a Alfonso Karam, te hablo en dos minutos, cinco minutos. (Cuelga.)
Acto seguido, la grabación registra el siguiente intercambio:
Dice Hanna, testigo de cargo en contra de Cacho en la demanda que interpuso Nacif:
-Oye, ya está aquí esta mujer. Ya se fue a la chingada.
-¿Qué, había tanto pedo o puro cuento?
-No tanto, pero... no. Su marido ni madre. Y vino Televisa y toda la cosa y la bajaron donde estaba detenida. Porque por orden del gobernador, le dije, aunque sea cinco minutos, encerrada en una celda. Y la iban a meter ahí, y la bajaron, le tomaron fotos, no sé qué madre. Y ya se fue. Delante de mí habló con López Zavala para decirle que le dice al gobernador que ya esta mujer anda en camino al Cereso, que en cinco minutos llega al Cereso.
-Mmmm.
-Y ya iba yo a ir, pero me dijo la juez que no, que ya luego ella me platica (...) Bueno, ya la trajeron, ya la chantajearon. Dicen que está deshecha. Porque dice que la trajeron en una carcacha. Le dije, es a propósito, que le mandaron en un coche viejo. Que en 24 horas que estuvo con ellos le dan de comer una vez. Vamos a ver qué pasa.

El casete, entregado en la redacción de La Jornada en un sobre sin remitente, contiene otra llamada de Nakad antes del arribo de Cacho a Puebla; Naked le informa a Nacif que los locutores (de radio) reportan que la periodista arrestada venía ya en camino y que nunca fue notificada anteriormente del proceso que se abrió en su contra porque nunca recibió los citatorios legales.

Otra conversación es con un hombre de acento argentino, posible intermediario entre Nacif y Succar Kuri, preso en Arizona y sujeto a proceso de extradición:
-Mañana va a haber un escándalo hijo de puta nacional.
-¿Eso puede ayudar a Succar, Kamel?
-Bueno, pues por lo pronto ¿no dijo la hija de la chingada que yo hacía fiestas?
-Sí, claro, hija de puta.
-¿Y que tenía yo 100 denuncias de acoso sexual? A ver, hija de tu chingada madre, ¿dónde hay una?
-Ahora págale a una mujer en la cárcel para que la viole.
-No, no, no. Si ya está recomendada.
-Ah, qué lindo.
-Con las locas y las tortilleras. Sale bajo fianza, ¿eh? Pero la sujetó al proceso.
Son varias las referencias que Nacif hace con socios y amistades acerca de esta ''recomendación'' a las autoridades para que agredan a la detenida una vez que ingrese a prisión. Una de ellas es con otro de sus amigos, Hubert, de acento francés, a quien le informa de la situación. Hubert pregunta:
-¿Y la van a traer a Puebla?
-Claro, la mandé allá. Les dije, la traen a la hija de -ya la agarraron a las 12 del día-, les dije la traen en carro, a la hija de puta. Esposada. Si quiere mear, que se mee.
-Incroiable... (Increíble).

-Dicen que la venganza es una sopa que se toma fría, no caliente, caballero.
-Como el gazpacho.
-Ya le dije a Naked. La pones con las locas y las tortilleras.
-Tú crees que estoy bromeando, ¿eh? Nomás que Juan controla ahí. Ya le fue a decir el director. No te preocupes, aquí, locas y tortilleras. Que aprenda a volver a escribir esta hija de su rechingada madre.

Estas referencias sobre la forma como, por intermediación de Nakad, que tiene buenas relaciones entre los custodios del Cereso, fue ''arreglada'' un violación sexual en contra de Lydia Cacho en cuanto ella ingresara al área de las celdas, coincide con el relato que la propia detenida hizo para La Jornada:

''En cuanto ingresé al Cereso me pasaron a un área de revisión. Una custodia joven me ordenó desnudarme completamente. Fue muy humillante, pues no había puerta y solo un plástico nos dividía de donde estaban los judiciales. Hacía mucho frío y empecé a estornudar. De pronto, me dijo la celadora: ''¿Usted es la de la tele, verdad? Tenga mucho cuidado, porque la van a violar''. En su espanto, Cacho sólo acertó a preguntar: ''¿Cómo?'' Ingenuamente, la policía entendió literalmente la pregunta. ''Pues con un palo''. Pero le recomendó: ''No se preocupe, póngase a toser, a estornudar, hágase la muy pero muy enferma para que me la pueda llevar a la enfermería''. En ese momento entró al área la jefa en turno de custodias. ''Me di cuenta -relata Lydia Cacho- que intercambiaron señas y miradas. No se me va a olvidar nunca el nombre de esa mujer. Entre las dos me tomaron de los brazos y empezamos a avanzar por un corredor. Al fondo había tres custodios hombres. Se adelantaron y empezaron a forcejear con las custodias, tratando de llevarme a otro sitio. Ellas resistieron, la jefa les dijo que iban por medicina y luego me entregaban con ellos. Corriendo alcanzamos la puerta de la enfermería. Una vez ahí adentro me aseguraron que no me entregarían, me tranquilizaron, me dejaron descansar y cumplieron su palabra de mujer. No dejaron que me violaran''.

(Fin de la cita)

¿Alguien detuvo y procesó a los conspiradores y pederastas coludidos?
-Esto es México -¿recuerdan?- y son los periodistas e investigadores los que han de temer la cárcel.

Autor: Lydia Cacho denuncia que la acosan policías federales

CANCÚN.— La periodista Lydia Cacho denunció ayer ante representantes de la prensa que desde hace dos días agentes de la Procuraduría Judicial del Estado a bordo de dos vehículos rondan a toda hora sus oficinas del Centro Integral de Atención a Mujeres (CIAM). Precisó que personal de la oficina ha reconocido a algunos de los policías que participaron en su detención en diciembre.

Hizo responsables de lo que le pueda ocurrir al empresario textilero Kamel Nacif, al gobernador poblano Mario Marín y a la procuradora de Justicia de Puebla, Laura Villegas.En rueda de prensa, anunció que exigirá una investigación en torno a la actuación del procurador de Justicia en Quintana Roo, Bello Melchor Rodríguez Carrillo, quien el día en que la detuvieron para llevársela a Puebla, se negó a recibir a la abogada Ana Patricia Morales Portas, asesora del CIAM, quien alegaba que no había una orden de arresto.
La periodista confirmó el involucramiento del subsecretario de Seguridad Pública federal, Miguel Angel Yunes, en el caso por presunta pederastia del empresario libanés Jean Succar Kuri y dijo que son varias las víctimas que hicieron descripciones físicas y nombraron al funcionario dentro del expediente. Yunes también está enfrascado en una polémica con el coordinador de los diputados federales del PRI, Emilio Chuayffet Chemor. Yunes dijo anteayer que está dispuesto a dejar su cargo y regresar a la Cámara de Diputados para hacer frente, desde la tribuna, a las imputaciones que le hizo el diputado priísta sobre su supuesta implicación en pederastia.

Contrariamente a lo que se rumorea en los mentideros periodísticos, no hay acuerdo definitivo con Luis María Ansón. Si bien su dimisión de Planeta y La Razón pueden dar a entender que se han eliminado los obstáculos más graves, la negociación no ha abocado en la firma del contrato para adquirir el 51% de las acciones de la bitácora Gatopardo, que sólo ofrece el 49% de las acciones y la posibilidad de colaborar con una sección fija de periodicidad semanal, de tema alternativo y outsider, llamada La Flor de la canela. Tampoco es verdad que esté dificultando la negociación la la pretensión de Gatopardo de obtener el Premio Miss Camiseta Mojada, que presidirá Luis María Ansón, ni el hecho de que éste concurse para el Premio Gayumbos Sublimes, que preside Gatopardo. Entre las bitácoras que leo, está Las peroratas de Wolffo, una extraña mezcla de humor, emoción, desinhibición, pudor, ternura... y música. Hay veces que lo leo entre carcajadas, como en El Chou deve continuar, cuando cuenta con quien tiene que competir como artista de bodas y banquetes; o en la que narra la verdad sobre su ardua amistad con el envidioso John Lennon:"Desmontando al chico celoso", con testimonios gráficos impagables...
Pero hoy no me río, estoy emocionada como una colegiala, porque Wolffo actúa el día 25 de febrero, al filo de la medianoche: el Ciclón de Valdemorillo vuelve a soplar en el bar Plaza Mayor (c/Cristo, 30, Villanueva de la Cañada), podéis leerlo aquí
A estas alturas, tal como está el mundo, dosifico mucho mi sensibilidad, y la única gente que me da pena de verdad es la que nunca ha leído la bitácora de Wolffo, ni escuchado sus temas musicales en castpost.
De nada, ya sabéis que me gusta ser útil.

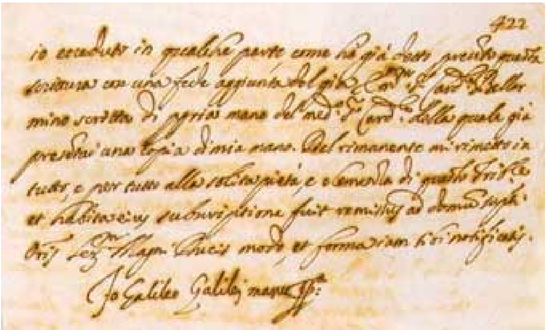
"...Y SIN EMBARGO SE MUEVE"



No está comprobado histórica ni documentalmente que Galileo dijera estas famosas palabras después de verse obligado, bajo amenaza de tortura, a humillarse y a retractarse de sus teorías sobre la estructura del sistema solar: "Me hinco de rodillas ante los venerables inquisidores, y, puesta la mano sobre los Santos Evangelios, afirmo que creo y creeré en el futuro todo cuanto la Iglesia reconoce y enseña como verdadero. Me fue ordenado no creer ni enseñar la falsa teoría del movimiento de la Tierra y de la inmovilidad del Sol, por ser contraria a las Sagradas Escrituras. A pesar de ello he escrito un libro en el cual expongo esta teoría maldita. Reniego de tal herejía, así como de todos los restantes errores y de toda opinión que vaya contra las enseñanzas de la Iglesia. Y dondequiera que descubra o sospeche la existencia de una herejía, lo denunciaré inmediatamente a la Santa Inquisición".
En esos momentos, Galileo era ya un anciano enfermo y casi ciego (las largas horas observando el sol habían dañado irreparablemente su retina). Puede que añadiera, al salir de aquel acto de "solemne" humillación "y sin embargo se mueve". Era apasionado, "soberbio" y cabezota hasta límites peligrosos. Pero también debió de pensar en otro rebelde que defendió las teorías copernicanas, Giordano Bruno, delatado, secuestrado, torturado y encarcelado durante siete años y, finalmente, quemado en la hoguera en 1600.
Lo cierto es que el texto donde reniega y abjura de sus descubrimientos viene a culminar la historia grandiosa y a la vez terrible del pensamiento occidental del siglo XVI. Nadie puede sustraerse en ese siglo ni a las guerras de religión ni a la férrea e implacable persecución que cada dogma impone sobre cualquier individuo, desde un miserable labriego hasta una dama noble o un arzobispo primado de España. Los documentos inquisitoriales muestran una complejísima y minuciosa labor jurídica y legal donde se analiza y aquilata la posible herejía que puede tener una frase, una broma dicha a destiempo, una falta de atención a los ritos o un mal gesto…De ahí la importancia de la denuncia. Todo el mundo vigila, todos tienen la obligación de delatar:

“Y dondequiera que descubra o sospeche…”. Johannes Keppler, protestante, cayó en la miseria más absoluta para salvar a su madre, ya octogenaria, de ser quemada en la hoguera por bruja (era herbolaria). Miguel Servet muere en el fuego purificador de los calvinistas…
Era más probable morir a manos de los “correligionarios” por hereje que víctima de los enemigos.
Si tuviéramos que resumir en una frase qué confrontación subyace en este siglo, diríamos que es la voluntad del individuo por plantear interrogantes y descubrir formas e instrumentos de pensamiento frente a una concepción dogmática y revelada. Los resultados de la investigación experimental sólo son admitidos si coinciden y reafirman el dogma de fe. Todo lo que tiene que decir Lutero de Copérnico es: “Este loco quiere invertir el orden astronómico. Sin embargo las Sagradas Escrituras demuestran que Josué paró el Sol y no la Tierra”. Cuando Galileo descubre las manchas solares, el padre Schneider, que también las había observado, se niega a admitir que sean tales porque era inadmisible que un astro tan bello y creado por Dios tuviera “imperfecciones que lo afeaban”.
La confrontación no se establece, pues, entre pensamiento laico y creencias religiosas. Casi todos los científicos, artistas, filólogos y pensadores “herejes” son profundamente religiosos. Galileo cita a San Agustín para quitarse de encima las críticas de sus perseguidores: “La Biblia enseña cómo entrar en el cielo, no cómo funciona”. Se comienza una ingente tarea de revisión filológica y traducción de los clásicos, porque éstos habían quedado reducidos a una versión distorsionada de frases hechas, de discusiones estériles, pesadas e interminables sobre un universo y una realidad a los que estaba prohibido observar y analizar. Lo que se ha dado en llamar espíritu renacentista es el afán por saber todo de todo y por traer al presente el mundo clásico en su pureza original. Esta suerte de enciclopedismo provoca a su vez una crisis de pensamiento que se hace patente sobre todo en la segunda mitad del siglo XVI. ¿Cómo se ordena todo lo que el hombre va descubriendo? Se discute sobre todas las ramas del saber, las disciplinas tradicionales, la función de las nuevas (hasta ese momento, por ejemplo, la astronomía era una parte de la astrología). Se comienzan monumentales recolecciones y taxonomías que van desde las que recogen los manuscritos griegos existentes a las que anotan todo de lo que se encuentra en el Nuevo Mundo.
En esta Europa nace, en 1548, Tomaso Garzoni.

AMENAS HISTORIAS DE LA NUMISMÁTICA

La gravedad del delito de falsificación de moneda es extrema, ya que es la base de la economía de las naciones. Por esta razón, en el Derecho moderno, este delito se considera perseguible internacionalmente, como la piratería, la trata de blancas y el esclavismo.
La falsificación de moneda es un delito contra el interés público del Estado.
Toda la moneda que emitió Franco durante la guerra, desde setiembre de 1936, con la inscripción Banco de España, era a todas luces falsa, puesto que no tenía en garantía el depósito de oro correspondiente en el Banco de España, que estaba en poder del legítimo gobierno de la República.
Al acabar la guerra, Franco decretó que los billetes de curso legal en España, según el Derecho Internacional, carecían de valor, y sólo tenían validez los billetes falsos emitidos por él. Los Bancos extranjeros se encontraron con la divisa española de sus depósitos anulada, en uno de los mayores fraudes contractuales de la historia moderna. Los ahorros de años de millones de españoles se convirtieron en papel sin ninguna utilidad. De la noche a la mañana nadie pudo comprar ni lo más imprescindible para subsistir. No era bastante con encarcelar a los que hubieran tenido lealtad al gobierno legal, y fusilar a miles en juicios sumarísimos sin garantías procesales, además, todos los españoles se vieron reducidos a la más absoluta miseria... salvo los escogidos.

Fue la primera vez en la historia que se defraudó masivamente el contrato social que garantiza la validez del dinero.
Y ésta es una de las razones por las que Franco corría el peligro de ser detenido y procesado si viajaba al extranjero, según los convenios internacionales (International Convention for the Suppression of Counterfeiting Currency - Ginebra, 20 Abril de 1929).

En noviembre de 1936, los militares rebeldes, en Burgos, fabricaron sin respaldo del Banco de España:

Billetes de 25 pesetas de Burgos, se fabricaron 33 millones del primer encargo y 13.550.00 billetes en el segundo.
Billetes de 50 pesetas de Burgos, se fabricaron 12.260.000 y 5.000.000 billetes respectivamente.
Billetes de 100 pesetas con la Catedral de Burgos, se fabricaron 22.000.000 y 6.350.000 billetes respectivamente.
Billetes de 500 pesetas, con la Catedral de Salamanca, se fabricaron 1.060.000 y 1.270.000 billetes.
Billetes de 1.000 pesetas del Alcázar de Toledo, se fabricaron, como las 500 Ptas, 1.060.000 y 1.270.000 billetes.

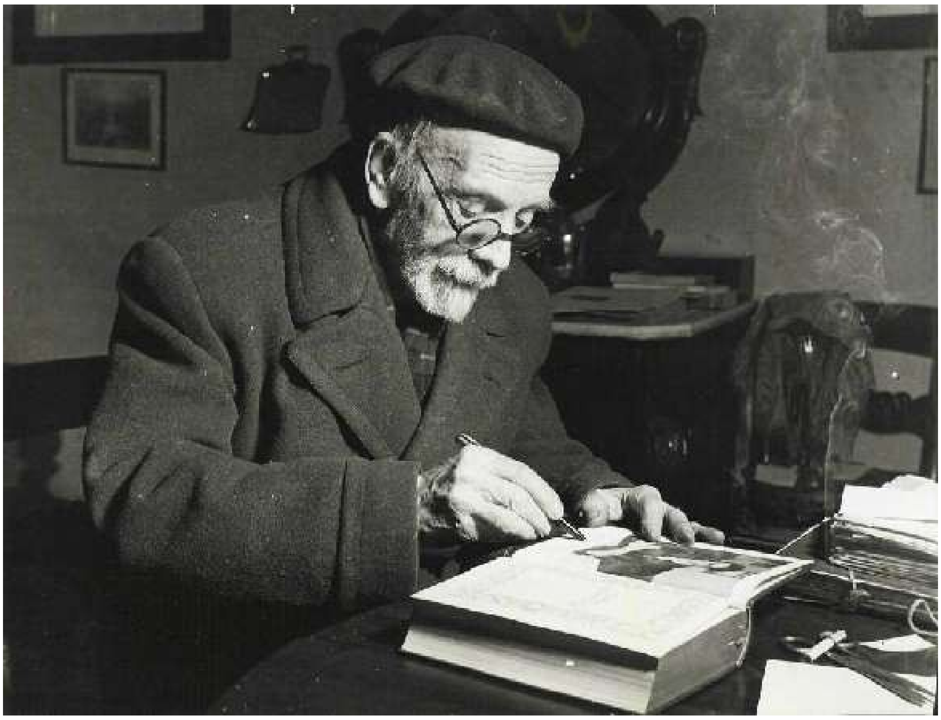
LOS BAROJA: RADIOGRAFÍA FAMILIAR



Por Pío Caro Baroja

«Elegirás el exilio para poder decir la verdad.» Nietzsche.
Comenzaré por decir algunas generalidades que se pueden aplicar a mi familia, a mis tíos principalmente, y empezaré por advertir que al personaje, en general, no se le conoce por su obra, sino por otra serie de datos generalmente externos: aspecto, retratos, fotografías, biografías, y hoy por los llamados medios de comunicación, por su aparición en público y por lo que dicen de él los críticos y periodistas. Con estos últimos elementos se crea una figura, una imagen, un cliché, que puede ser falso y que, sin embargo, persista durante años y se convierta en estatua de bronce. Así, a una persona se le puede tildar de ogro, de misógino, de malhumorado o de no saber escribir o ser mal gramático para toda su vida, como a mi tío Pío, bien por no haberle leído o no conocerlo [...]

Estos calificativos de ogro, misógino, egoísta, o de no poner bien las comas y otras sandeces, los ha tenido mi tío Pío, cuando era el hombre más respetuoso, correcto, educado y justo que he conocido; el más sincero, el más fiel a sus ideas, el que mejor y con más cariño ha cantado a su tierra, el que ha escrito páginas perfectas e inolvidables y el hombre más delicado con las mujeres, como se puede ver entre sus páginas, en donde aparece una variedad de tipos como en la obra de ningún otro escritor. No voy a dar ahora la larga y variada lista de sus tipos femeninos, ni marcar el interés que sentían las mujeres por él. Todavía recuerdo a algunas que le oían embebidas en las tardes de Ruiz de Alarcón, ya en su vejez. [...]

Es indudable que uno de los problemas que se le puede plantear a cualquier intelectual de cara al público, y probablemente el que más le puede afectar a su imagen, es el de la relación con el mundo social. A veces la vulgaridad es una ventaja, se crea una identificación inmediata con el personaje, cosa que se da en el arte y sobre todo en la política. Es el llamado «mensaje», la vulgaridad al alcance de todos. Pero hay otros personajes que esto no lo logran nunca. Hoy, con los llamados medios de comunicación, la identificación o no con la sociedad vigente es rapidísima y se puede modelar. El cambio de imagen, esta «peluquería» moderna, sabe mucho de ello: se lima un colmillo, se le añade un tufo, se le pone silicona o un tinte, una zamarrilla o un traje negro, y ya está al servicio del socialismo o del capitalismo. Pero para esto hay que prestarse a ello. Estos males, vamos a llamarlos carencias, para una vida social cómoda, los han tenido, en mayor o menor grado, los miembros de mi familia, no por su aspecto físico, o porque fueran antipáticos, sino por otras causas más profundas: de pensamiento y de actitud, entre otras, la sinceridad y la dignidad, que ya se adivinan en esta radiografía. Hoy día a esta actitud disconforme y crítica se la considera peligrosa, y en términos ampulosos, a los que no llega el arte ni la literatura, se la llama «alarma social», una nueva figura de censura. [...]

Mi familia, a lo largo de estos cien años, ha dejado una larga estela de trabajo, que está ahí para juzgar sobre ella. De todas maneras, buena parte se ha perdido, se ha roto por el tiempo y por la guerra. Pero quedan muchos testimonios que sirven para ajustar sus personalidades: son unos doscientos escritos, entre novelas, textos, poesías y estudios; y cerca de otros dos mil testimonios plásticos, entre cuadros, aguafuertes o dibujos; y naturalmente muy poca gente conoce esta obra en su totalidad.
Muchas veces me he preguntado dónde residía o de dónde venía el «micelio» que originó tanta producción, tanto trabajo, y he creído que podía venir de las orillas del lago de Como, de los Nessi, litógrafos y también pintores; pero fallaba mi supuesto cuando pensaba también en los Baroja impresores y en mi abuelo Serafín con estas inquietudes literarias y pictóricas. Y he llegado a la conclusión de que el micelio, si era vasco, se fortificó con néctar lombardo, en el caso de mi madre y mis tíos, y después recibió savia genovesa y andaluza. [...]

He dicho que hemos sido como una familia de topos que vivían en unas galerías interiores trabajando día y noche. También he hablado de nuestras excursiones externas y de los desengaños, quizá por esto esa «amanita barojiana» ha tenido el néctar agridulce de la elegía; y hemos descubierto unas mil formas distintas de llorar –como dijo León Felipe– al comprobar que lo soñado, lo recordado, el pasado, se destruía o era mentira, y que aquellos campos luminosos que deslumbraban eran también campos de sangre, de odios y rencores, y hemos llorado hasta con sonrisa, que es la forma más hermosa del llorar.
Quizá aquí, ahora, habría que decir algo sobre ese pesimismo barojiano tan cacareado, que, según creo, ha sido el resultado de una confrontación del mundo interior, idealizado, con la realidad exterior.
Cuando Pío se entera, en el comienzo de la Guerra Civil, de que avanza una columna carlista por el Bidasoa, que no es la de Mina o la del Cura Merino, decide, junto con el médico y un policía de Vera, ir a verla. Está pensando casi literariamente y está reconstruyendo la llegada de una «partida» del Escuadrón del Brigante; pero cuando se encuentra con la tropa que avanza, con las boinas rojas, los fusiles relucientes, los cañones, las ametralladoras, la petulancia, el sudor y la mirada brillante, la realidad en definitiva, siente una repulsa y una disconformidad con lo idealizado, y además, por si fuera poco, está a punto de ser fusilado. Y curiosamente en ese instante completa su imagen literaria y nos dice lo que piensa: «Gritaré ¡Viva la Libertad!». Otro sueño.

No creo que a estas alturas del siglo, llamado ufanamente siglo xx, y mirando lo que ha sido, ninguna cabeza clara encuentre motivos para sentirse optimista, y más si hace el balance de cien años: millones de hombres muertos, más que durante toda la vida anterior de la humanidad, enfermedades y lacras incurables, miseria, hambre, rapiña, que, frente a otros logros, no son para sentirse optimistas; y mis tíos no lo fueron, y fue ésta otra causa de crítica y de reproche, el cacareado pesimismo barojiano, tantas y tantas veces repetido, frente al ideal de la falsa sonrisa aunque nos estuviéramos matando. El pesimismo también produce alarma social y sobre todo a los que mandan y figuran en nómina. [...]

Mi familia, a lo largo de estos cien años que se pueden testimoniar año a año, ha tenido un común denominador aunque matizado en las distintas personalidades, una linea seguida y constante que va de punta a punta en la supuesta radiografía. En el esquema, en el gráfico, lleva el nombre de individualismo, y, como atributo de éste, su liberalismo. Un liberalismo viejo que ya aparece en los últimos Alzate, en don Eugenio de Aviraneta y en los primeros Baroja de Oyarzún.
Quizá por eso le interesaron a Pío las personas, los individuos, fueran del bando que fueran, mucho más que las doctrinas.
Y creo que sólo el individualista puede ser liberal, lo demás son entelequias políticas, juegos florales; hablar de libertad con socialismo es una contradicción evidente porque son incompatibles y se destrozan, aunque en tiempos de la Revolución Francesa libertad e igualdad Esta linea larga y clara del individualismo, tan rechazada en nuestro tiempo, lleva en el gráfico, a sus lados, dos círculos grandes que la flanquean; son como barrancos abiertos muy cercanos al camino, dos simas peligrosas que pueden dar vértigo y arrastrarte al fondo de la espelunca: la sinceridad y la crítica, dos atributos o facultades de la libertad. Poder pasar entre estos dos escollos del viejo mar del pensamiento sólo es posible con la ayuda de la independencia, con la autonomía, con la autosuficiencia intelectual y material.
Llegando a este extremo, se puede recorrer ya todo ese camino, navegar a mar abierto y ver clara la linea sin quiebra alguna.
¡Y qué difícil resulta marchar en solitario por este sendero! Y mi familia lo ha hecho, renunciando a muchas cosas con esfuerzo o, quizá, por reunir una serie de condiciones que no son corrientes y que muchas veces las han llamado «privilegio», como si fueran dones recibidos gratuitamente y no logrados con privaciones. [...]

Al año bien cumplido de la muerte de Julio, necesito hablar de él, hacer unas consideraciones sobre su obra, recordar cómo y cuándo se fraguó su personalidad científica y su enorme capacidad de trabajo. Fue en Itzea y durante la guerra, durante aquellos tres años de hostilidad exterior que Julio pasó hora a hora entre los libros. Por aquellas manos jóvenes pasaron miles de libros, centenares de citas, de páginas, de litografías y grabados. Muchas veces lo he dicho, Julio vio todo lo que el hombre había escrito, dibujado o pintado desde Altamira a Pablo Picasso; de física, matemáticas, apenas sabía las cuatro reglas. Pero la imagen, el retrato, de los mil hombres que han arrastrado el carro del arte o del progreso le eran conocidos a través de cuadros, estampas y grabados. El bombardeo del barrio de Argüelles, de Madrid (1937), con la destrucción de la imprenta de nuestro padre, también le liberó de otro compromiso, el de haber sido impresor. Allí, en aquel bombardeo, Julio volvió a librarse, a la vez que se perdieron más de cien planchas de aguafuertes, muchos originales de las novelas de Pío, dramas de Ricardo, escritos de Aviraneta y retratos familiares. El que no le dejaran opositar en la posguerra también le valió para su trabajo. La anglofilia conocida de Pío en pleno franquismo, y con el gobierno vertido hacia la Alemania nazi; el acercamiento y amistad con el encargado de asuntos exteriores yanqui, Philip Bonsal, y con el hispanista inglés Walter Starkie, director del Instituto Británico, que le ofreció trabajo para que le facilitara datos sobre una España curiosa, también le sirvieron –amén de las pesetillas que le daba el escritor inglés– para completar su mundo. Creo que esa afición a comprar libros escritos por viajeros extranjeros por España vino de entonces, de los comentarios y bibliografías que le pedía Walter Starkie cuando estaba preparando Don Gitano. Esta colección de libros se conserva en Itzea, antes estuvo en la casa de Churriana y frecuentemente la consultaba Gerald Brenan, vecino de ese pueblo. Su estudio sobre las sociedades características diferenciadas, saharauis, moriscos, judíos, vascos, podía venir también de entonces, de la extensa lectura de testimonios de viajeros antiguos y modernos que las marcaban con particular interés, como cosas curiosas y sorprendentes. [...] valieran como aspiraciones generales; otra entelequia igual que hablar y predicar la democracia en países pobres con grandes desigualdades económicas, porque jamás el rico se ha asociado con el pobre si no es para hacerle trabajar.

ALIMAÑA NEWS: LA SGAE DEMANDA AL DIARIO DANÉS QUE PUBLICÓ LAS CARICATURAS DE MAHOMA.

Madrid, hace 12 horas.-Por Alimaña News (redactor-jefe)

Esta mañana, la letrada doña María Graziella Fernández de Urquijo y Medina de Torralba, en representación de la Sociedad General de Autores, (SGAE) ha presentado en los Juzgados de la Plaza de Castilla una demanda contra el diario danés Jyllands-Porten y sus humoristas gráficos por haber hecho uso de la imagen del profeta Mahoma, sin haber solicitado permiso ni haber abonado las tasas por derecho de uso a la SGAE, que es quien actualmente posee el copyright del afamado y polémico profeta.
Fuentes cercanas a Teddy Bautista, director de la institución, han comentado que éste se había entrevistado con el Concejal de Seguridad de la capital española para impedir que se permitiera la venta en el Top Manta de camisetas con la cara de Mahoma.
La Comunidad Musulmana de Lavapiés ha lanzado una fatwua contra todo aquel que venda las mencionadas camisetas y, para que quede claro la firmeza de sus propósitos, han lanzado una olla de couscous contra el un señor rubio, teñido, que, a la sazón, pasaba revisando contadores de gas.

SOBRE LAS JERGAS DE HABLA HISPANA

Por Raúl Gallardo

Una parte de mi tiempo libre la dedico a colaborar con Roxana Fitch en el apartado de España de su página. Además, la he conocido personalmente y discutimos en su momento toda la sección española. Bien, yo soy español, filólogo, traductor y lingüista como Roxana y desde un punto de vista lingüístico, mi variedad de español, el andaluz, está a caballo entre el castellano y el español de América en general, puesto que la base lingüística de la lengua en América está en la variedad andaluza, no en la castellana.
Eso me hace comprender muchas inquietudes de hablantes hispanos e incluso, si se me permite decirlo, las quejas que tienen sobre las injusticias que se cometen contra ellos desde España por parte de los "eruditos" españoles de la lengua.
Desde aquí, puedo decir que los académicos españoles se muestran bastante reticentes a aceptar como españolas la mayoría de las palabras y expresiones locales o regionales americanas, puesto que no tienen su origen dentro del castellano, sino en las lenguas amerindias, hecho que, quizás, impida (y a la vez explique) que un proyecto como el de Roxana dependa de sus esfuerzos y el de las personas que quieran o buenamente puedan ayudar, en lugar de la gente que verdaderamente podría hacerlo con todos los medios. Los académicos también muestran prejuicios contra el español de América porque, a juicio del castellano, muestra incoherencias y errores gramaticales. Y digo que me identifico con muchos hispanos porque en España mi variedad dialectal siempre se ha tenido como una "deformación del castellano". Y yo me pregunto entonces ¿Y qué es el castellano? ¿Acaso el castellano no es el resultado de la deformación de una lengua superior, mucho más compleja, que es el Latín?
Habría que recordarles a los académicos españoles que hasta que Helio Antonio de Nebrija, latinista andaluz, no tradujo a su lengua, el castellano, una gramática latina que él mismo escribió, y se dio cuenta de que el castellano podía someterse a reglas, es decir, tener una gramática propia, no apareció el sentido patriótico y la necesidad en España de tener un lenguaje común, puesto que en esa época, siglo XV, los españoles del norte no se entendían con los del sur y viceversa. El rey de la época, Carlos I (V de Alemania), al leer la gramática de Nebrija, publicada en 1492, dijo que "La lengua siempre ha sido la fiel compañera del imperio". Él era alemán de nacimiento y con sólo unos 12 años llegó a la Corona española para ser rey sin saber castellano. Se convirtió en el mayor defensor de la lengua, e incluso delante del Papa, en una convención internacional en el Vaticano, donde la lengua que se usaba era el latín, se atrevió a hablar "en mi lengua castellana, que considero tan digna y merecedora de ser conocida como el latín", respuesta que le dio a un sacerdote que representaba a la Corona de Francia, que quedó tremendamente escandalizado ante la osadía de hablar en otra lengua y dijo al rey español en latín que no había entendido lo que había dicho, recordándole a su vez que sólo se podía usar el latín como lengua común. El rey español contestó, más o menos para resumir, que quien quisiera dirigirse a él, que aprendiera castellano porque no estaba dispuesto a hablar en ninguna otra lengua y obligó a la diplomacia extranjera a aprender castellano.

A partir de ahí, surgieron gramáticas castellanas para extranjeros y cada país empezó a plantearse seriamente la posibilidad de gramaticalizar su lengua. Era una época en la ninguna lengua vernácula de ningún país podía tener gramática porque sólo las lenguas nobles como el Latín, el Griego clásico y el Hebreo antiguo eran las dignas merecedoras de ello sencillamente por ser lenguas muertas, es decir, que ya no podían cambiar ni deformarse. El castellano, al igual que el francés y el toscano (italiano estándar) eran lenguas populares mayoritarias a nivel nacional que no podían tener gramáticas porque resultaron de la deformación de una lengua noble, a las que llamaron "lenguas corruptas". Hoy día, estas "deformaciones", y desde hace muchos siglos, han alcanzado y conservado el mayor status de valor, prestigio y reconocimiento lingüístico en todo el mundo que pueda conseguir una lengua, en un principio por su elegancia, hoy día por las inmensas aportaciones a la literatura de grandes clásicos universales y el número de hablantes.
Dicho todo esto, me remito a lo anterior: gracias a la labor de un español no castellano, la lengua tomó un impulso como ninguna otra lengua en la historia. Su gramática no sólo fue la primera de castellano, sino que también la primera gramática de una lengua moderna, suponiendo la difusión de la lengua a gran escala. Y con la llegada de los españoles a América, y tras su independencia de España, en este país se llegó a temer por la separación lingüística, que ocurriera exactamente lo mismo que ocurrió con el latín: que la deformación fuera tan grande que no se pudieran entender los hispanohablantes entre ellos, es decir que surgieran nuevas lenguas a partir del español en América. Fue entonces cuando nació la Real Academia Española con el lema de "Una, pura, limpia y da esplendor" que resumía a la perfección la labor a la que se habían comprometido. "Una" refiriéndose a una sola lengua en la comunidad hispánica, unificar la lengua a pesar de sus variedades. "Pura", sin interferencias de otras lenguas. "Limpia" de extranjerismos y préstamos. Y todo eso para que dé "esplendor". En otras palabras: la máxima expresividad y el florecimiento de la lengua se conseguirían si se pudiera mantener tal cual es, y no admitir cambios ni sugerencias.
Nuestra lengua posee algo único que no tiene ninguna lengua: una institución que en un principio velaba por su seguridad y que se fijó como objetivo la preservación y unión del castellano. Ése es el mérito de la RAE: tanto en América como en España, el español se escribe de una sola forma, se habla de una sola forma y es la garantía de la unidad lingüística. Hoy día un español puede entenderse con un salvadoreño, un cubano puede entenderse con un argentino, un mejicano puede comunicarse con un peruano, y eso ya es un logro porque ni siquiera la lengua más internacional, el inglés, cuenta con una institución equivalente a la Academia Española, pues se trata de una lengua que está fuertemente dialectizada y de la que se separan dos grandes dialectos: el británico y el americano estándar. El dialecto británico cuenta como autoridades lingüísticas las bases de datos de los diccionarios Oxford, Collins, Cambridge… y el dialecto americano tiene el diccionario Merrian & Webster como guía. El francés tiene la firma que hace la enciclopedia y diccionario Larousse, el italiano tiene el diccionario Zanichelli… y el portugués depende de lo que se decida en las conferencias entre representantes portugueses y brasileños de la lengua portuguesa. Tanto el inglés como el portugués tienen ortografías dialectales, una consecuencia de la falta de unidad en la comunidad de hablantes.

Pero muy poco se imaginaban estos eruditos de la Ilustración española que, por regla general, la historia siempre nos ha enseñado que una lengua cambia desde que sale de su territorio para meterse en otro. Una lengua no es más que la manifestación oral de un pueblo y su cultura, y como expresión de la realidad, se debe adaptar siempre al mundo que le rodea. ¿Alguien se ha preguntado alguna vez qué cara pondrían los españoles cuando vieron por primera vez un papagayo o una llama? ¿O el ananás, que después llamaron piña? ¿O una canoa? ¿Qué palabras salieron de sus bocas para expresar lo que veían? La lengua española no estaba preparada para describir el mundo que les rodeaba y los españoles tuvieron que echar mano de patronímicos, es decir, palabras castellanas para referirse a realidades americanas, hecho que explica que la palabra "ananás", la que usaban los indios caribales en el Caribe, tuviera poco éxito en la lengua española porque a los colonos el fruto de la palmera más bien les recordaba a una piña, que es en verdad el fruto del pino, de donde se sacan los piñones.

Fue el mismísimo Descubridor quien, en un diario, utilizó y sin quererlo agregó al español la primera palabra amerindia: "'canoa, que una especie de barca'". Con el tiempo, la introducción de palabras amerindias adaptadas a la fonética española se hizo cada vez más frecuente y son palabras que han sobrevivido hasta tal punto que hoy día nos resultan de lo más normal: 'cochino', 'tomate', 'tiburón', 'huracán', 'patata' y un larguísimo etcétera. Por eso mismo el español se hizo americano en cuanto llegó a América.

A todo esto hay que añadir que el tiempo que se tardaba en realizar una travesía por el Atlántico y llegar a España o a América era de unos cinco o seis meses produciendo un aislamiento lingüístico entre los dos mundos, por lo que las innovaciones lingüísticas en España llegaban bien tarde a América, hecho que explica, entre otras cosas, por qué en España se usa el "vosotros" cuando en América se usa o sustituye por el "ustedes". Con este aislamiento y la mezcla étnica los hispanohablantes de América tuvieron que arreglarse con lo que habían aprendido para formar su lengua.

Después de cinco siglos, nuestra lengua ha crecido, ha influido a las lenguas más importantes y es gracias al enorme esfuerzo de los hispanoamericanos que hoy día el español se está dando a conocer por todo el mundo y que ha penetrado fuertemente en Estados Unidos, siendo la lengua más estudiada en ese país, adoptando palabras como 'plaza', 'mil', 'fiesta' casi sustituyendo a las propias inglesas 'square', 'thousand', 'party' y dando a las personas que las usan el mismo prestigio que aquí en España se le da al que usa palabras inglesas en lugar de las españolas, una señal de cultura. América ha enriquecido mucho el español, tanto en la expresividad de que carece el castellano como en léxico, y en España casi se le ha dado la espalda. Hoy día la lengua es así y debería ser aceptada en todas sus variedades.

Lo que me maravilla es que toda investigación llevada a cabo con el patrocinio de los catedráticos, directores de tesis y académicos sobre la lengua se basen exclusivamente sobre lo que otros eruditos, profesores y académicos hayan escrito anteriormente. Y el resultado de esta percepción endogámica de la lengua se empobrece cada vez más, como no podía ser de otra manera. Ensimismados en su jerga gremial y en sus fidelidades académicas, han creado monstruosas excrecencias teórico-ideológicas dignas de un frenopático, como el generativismo. Mientras la ciencia trata de explicar el mundo con el lenguaje más diáfano y preciso posible, los lingüistas se esfuerzan denonadamente en utilizar un metalenguaje, lo más críptico posible, abstruso, para encubrir su falta de rigor.

CONFESIÓN

Entre mis máximas preferidas están aquellas que dicen: "La verdad de quien no tiene que mentir, nunca es interesante", "Las confesiones deberían estar reservadas al confesionario", "Los sentimientos desatados no son de fiar ni son deseables en literatura, y en la vida corriente, tampoco", "La autenticidad sólo en los objetos de una casa de subastas", "Lo que sale de las tripas será auténtico, pero es mierda", "Tomarse en serio es de mala educación", "La sinceridad es el artificio de quien no sabe elaborar ficciones"...

Es decir, que no daría un céntimo por levantarle un monumento a la sinceridad.

Pero hoy no tengo más remedio que deciros la verdad: Gatopardo acaba de cumplir un año en blogia.com. He publicado 334 artículos, y la mayoría son de mis caritativos colaboradores, que saben que si abro la bandeja del correo y no me han enviado nada, me tengo que poner a escribir algo.

Y espero que siga siendo la bitácora de una lectora más que la de una escritora, que se caracterice por lo que escriben los otros aquí, más que por lo que yo escribo; y más volcada en lo que ocurre alrededor que en las insondables vaciedades de mi vida interior.

A no ser que me dé un alipori y descubra una vena exhibicionista, monologante, y me dé obsesivamente por mimar mi ego, en inacabables confesiones en las que demuestre, palmariamente, cuánto me hacen sufrir los demás, y lo sensible y buenísima persona que soy... Si ocurre algún día, si me pongo sincera, sublime, confesional e intimista, no os creáis nada, nietecicos míos. Serán patrañas.

Quiero darle las gracias a los polemistas, a los que disienten, a los que opinan y critican, a los heterodoxos, a los descontentos y a los que me llevan la contraria, porque son la sal de la vida y de esta bitácora.

Jefa, mi regalo es una exclusiva sobre Fungairiño. Le han llegado dos ofertas de trabajo: una de Javier Sardá, que vuelve a televisión y le ha ofrecido una miniserie titulada "El Pinochet que yo amé". La otra oferta viene de la Casa Real para ser preceptor de la Infanta Leonor. A tal efecto se le ha enviado una silla de ruedas con sidecar y una escopeta para que el fiscal y la infantita puedan compaginar las clases con el deporte de la caza al que la familia real es tan aficionada.

PORQUE NUESTRA PATRIA ES EL LENGUAJE

La labor de los académicos de la lengua consiste en definir el significado y la utilización de los vocablos y su ortografía. En la Asociación de Academias de la Lengua Española (1) se documentan las acepciones particulares de sus países, provenientes, normalmente, de escritores cultos, que a su vez han expurgado de su léxico las palabras de jerga local, los modismos regionales, ya que su formación les invita a considerar correcto lo que el Diccionario de la Real Academia Española recoja y admita. Como se ha visto, la elección de Académicos de la Lengua en España, por ejemplo, se ha convertido en un premio para quienes hayan sido dóciles guardianes de intereses editoriales espurios, sin categoría ni prestigio, y nos encontramos en manos de quienes deberían velar por la Lengua Española, y,sin embargo, la masacran ignorando su riqueza.

Afortunadamente, al margen de los premios y las becas, merecedora, sin embargo de todos los apoyos, Roxana Fitch, una traductora mexicana, inició hace nueve años un trabajo para recopilar los modismos y jergas particulares de los países de habla hispana, sin copiar los trabajos editados y realizados con anterioridad, que es el método de los eruditos, sino recogiéndolos de los "chats" y "foros" de internet, y de sus corresponsales, que escriben y se expresan con naturalidad en su lenguaje local: lo que empezó como una explicación del significado en México de expresiones coloquiales, en un intento de: "exponer sólo y exclusivamente expresiones coloquiales y jergales del castellano, pero poco a poco las peculiaridades de las versiones de cada país hispanohablante me convencieron que el enfoque se podía ampliar, por lo menos en el caso de todos los países de América, y dentro de ellos, casos particulares donde los idiomas autóctonos (nahua, quechua, aymara y taíno, entre otros) tienen una influencia fuerte en el habla cotidiano. Entonces empecé a crear apartados para los americanismos (pero en especial esos términos que tienen un sinónimo castellano que tal vez en las Américas se conoce o se usa menos) y el vocabulario autóctono usado en vez del castellano como molcajete (nahua) en vez de mortero, yuyo (quechua) en vez de hierba, bohío (taíno) en vez de casa. Estos últimos glosarios todavía están muy subdesarrollados, pero su elaboración sigue en curso."

Actualmente, Roxana Fitch ha ampliado su impresionante catálogo, mediante archivos sonoros grabados para ilustrar el habla autóctona y su prosodia.

Es un trabajo titánico, perseverante, riguroso, y más que interesante, imprescindible, que hubiera debido contar con el apoyo, el estímulo y la ayuda de las instituciones, y sólo ha contado hasta la fecha con los colaboradores espontáneos que le envian sus vocablos locales, sus modismos, con notas quejosas por no haberlos incluido antes, a los que Roxana Fitch responde pidiendo excusas, dando las gracias y solicitando que sigan señalándole las carencias que observen en su recopilación.

Y todo eso, desde hace nueve años, en los ratos libres que le deja su trabajo de traductora, sin becas, ayudas ni más medios que su fuerza de voluntad y su rigurosa curiosidad intelectual. Os pido que cada expresión coloquial, cada modismo, cada ejemplo jergal que utilicéis en vuestro país, en vuestra región, en vuestro entorno, se lo enviéis para que pueda incluirlo y preservarlo; os pido que seáis sus valedores para solicitar de quienes utilizan los fondos públicos y privados, el apoyo económico que le permita viajar y recoger in situ el testimonio sonoro, el giro semántico, el localismo, y la riqueza que no debería perderse de nuestro hermoso idioma, y para que no haya de sacrificar su dedicación por falta de ayuda y de medios.

El siglo pasado, una mujer que tuvo que sacrificar su vida profesional a su vida personal, María Moliner, dedicó sus escasos ratos libres a hacer fichas con el uso de los vocablos en los autores que leía, y al cabo de años logró crear el "Diccionario de uso de la Lengua Española", un trabajo que parece haber sido realizado por un ejercito de eruditos. Un matrimonio de estudiosos de la lengua española, Ramón Menéndez Pidal y María Goyri, recopilaron y preservaron los romances de la tradición oral, anónimos, que los eruditos anteriores habían despreciado, y gracias a ellos se ha preservado el romancero. Roxana Fitch pertenece a esa estirpe intelectual, y ojalá seamos capaces de lograr que no tenga que restringir su investigación a los pocos ratos libres que le deja su trabajo como traductora.

Os pido que incluyáis Jergas de habla hispana en vuestros enlaces, que os convirtáis en sus colaboradores, ofreciéndole, para ser preservados, los vocablos y modismos propios de vuestro entorno. A las autoridades académicas, a los hispanistas, a los que administran fondos para becas y estudios sobre nuestra lengua, les pido que valoren y reconozcan con su apoyo la impresionante labor investigadora de Roxana Fitch, una mujer que dignifica y defiende con su proyecto y su trabajo nuestra patria común, el lenguaje.

Decía mi abuela, que era gallega y a decir verdad su castellano no era muy bueno, "Patria es la tierra que te da de comer", así resumía ella de forma simple y de un tirón, que el hombre si no tiene satisfechas sus necesidades básicas no puede dedicarse a asuntos más elaborados como los sentimientos patrioticos o de pertenencia a un lugar. Anecdota aparte, pondré en mi blog el enlace y agradezco que lo des a conocer. Una de las cosas que más me impactó de México es la cantidad de palabras que están incorporadas al lenguaje diario (Algunas muy dificiles de pronunciar) que tienen su origen en idiomas autoctonos. Otra cuestión que creo se debía analizar es que algunas palabras del castellano tienen acepciones muy diferentes en los distintos paises latinoamericanos y algunas de ellas no se recogen en el dicccionario.

En los países hispanizados, una cultura ajena modificó las vidas de las personas. El lenguaje es una de las pocas formas de ver cómo se mantienen, en los giros vocales distintos y en la construcción de palabras, las culturas originarias; y también son un fondo histórico de la interrelación cultural, de la manera en que la sociedad eligió comunicarse.

Gracias a Roxana, que hace el trabajo realmente pesado, podremos aprendernos mejor a nosotros mismos. Enhorabuena.

Una parte de mi tiempo libre la dedico a colaborar con Roxana en el apartado de España de su página. Además, la he conocido personalmente y discutimos en su momento toda la sección española. Bien, yo soy español, filólogo, traductor y lingüísta como Roxana y desde un punto de vista lingüístico, mi variedad de español, el andaluz, está a caballo entre el castellano y el español de América en general, puesto que la base lingüística de la lengua en América está en la variedad andaluza, no en la castellana. Eso me hace comprender muchas inquietudes de hablantes hispanos e incluso, si se me permite decirlo, las quejas que tienen sobre las injusticias que se cometen desde España por parte de los "eruditos" españoles de la lengua contra ellos.

Desde aquí puedo decir que los acádemicos españoles se muestran bastante reticientes a aceptar como españolas la mayoría de las palabras y expresiones locales o regionales americanas puesto que no tienen su origen dentro del castellano, sino en las lenguas amerindias, hecho que, quizás, impida y a la vez explique que un proyecto como el de Roxana dependa de sus esfuerzos y el de las personas que quieran o buenamente puedan ayudar en lugar de la gente que verdaderamente podría hacerlo con todos los medios. Y digo que me identifico con muchos hispanos porque en España mi variedad dialectal siempre se ha tenido como una "deformación del castellano". Y yo me pregunto entonces "¿Y qué es el castellano? ¿Acaso el castellano no es el resultado de la deformidad de una lengua superior, mucho más compleja, que es el Latín?

Habría que recordarles a los acádemicos españoles que hasta que Helio Antonio de Nebrija, latinista andaluz, no tradujo a su lengua, el castellano, una gramática latina que él mismo escribió, y se dio cuenta de que el castellano podía someterse a reglas, es decir, tener una gramática propia, no apareció el sentido patriótico y la necesidad en

España de tener un lenguaje común, puesto que en esa época, siglo XV, los españoles del norte no se entendían con los del sur y viceversa. El rey de la época, Carlos I (V de Alemania), al leer la gramática de Nebrija, dijo que "La lengua siempre ha sido la fiel compañera del imperio". Él era alemán de nacimiento y con sólo unos 12 años llegó a la Corona española para ser rey sin saber castellano. Se convirtió en el mayor defensor de la lengua, e incluso delante del Papa, en una convención internacional en el Vaticano, donde la lengua que se usaba era el latín, se atrevió a hablar "en mi lengua castellana, que considero tan digna y merecedora de ser conocida como el latín". Es más, él nunca permitió que ningún rey o alto representante de algún reino se dirigiera a él en otra lengua que no fuera el castellano. Era una época en la ninguna lengua vernácula de ningún país podía tener gramática porque sólo las lenguas nobles como el Latín, el Griego clásico y el Hebreo antiguo eran las dignas merecedoras de ello sencillamente por ser lenguas muertas, es decir, que ya no podían cambiar ni deformarse. El castellano, al igual que el francés y el toscano (italiano estándar) eran lenguas populares mayoritarias a nivel nacional que no podían tener gramáticas porque resultaron de la deformación de una lengua noble. Hoy día, estas "deformaciones", y desde hace muchos siglos, han alcanzado y conservado el mayor status de valor, prestigio y reconocimiento lingüístico en todo el mundo que pueda conseguir una lengua, en un principio por su elegancia, hoy día por las grandes aportaciones a la literatura de grandes clásicos universales y el número de hablantes.

Dicho todo esto, me remito a lo anterior: gracias a la labor de un español no castellano, la lengua tomó un impulso como ninguna otra lengua en la historia. Su gramática no sólo fue la primera de castellano, sino que también la primera gramática de una lengua moderna. Y con la llegada de los españoles a América, y tras su independencia de España, en este país se llegó a temer por la separación lingüística, que ocurriera exactamente lo mismo que ocurrió con el latín: que la deformidad fuera tan grande que no se pudieran entender los hispanohablantes entre ellos, es decir que surgieran nuevas lenguas a partir del español en América. Fue entonces cuando surgió la Real Academia Española con el lema de "Una, pura, limpia y da esplendor" que resumía a la perfección la labor a la que se habían comprometido. "Una" refiriéndose a una sola lengua en la comunidad hispánica, unificar la lengua a pesar de sus variedades. "Pura", sin interferencias de otras lenguas. "Limpia" de extranjerismos y préstamos. Y todo eso para que dé "esplendor". En otras palabras: la máxima expresividad y el florecimiento de la lengua se conseguirían si se pudiera mantener tal cual es, no admitir cambios ni sugerencias.

Pero muy poco se imaginaban estos eruditos de la Ilustración española que, por regla general, la historia siempre nos ha enseñado que una lengua cambia desde que sale de su territorio para meterse en otro. Una lengua no es más que la manifestación oral de un pueblo y su cultura, y como expresión de la realidad, se debe adaptar siempre al mundo que le rodea. ¿Alguien se ha preguntado alguna vez que cara pondrían los españoles cuando vieron por primera vez un papayo o una llama? ¿O el ananás, que después llamaron piña? ¿O una canoa? ¿Qué palabras salieron de sus bocas para expresar lo que veían? La lengua española no estaba preparada para describir el mundo que les rodeaba y fue el mismísimo Descubridor quien, en un diario, utilizó y agregó al español la primera palabra amerindia: 'canoa'. Con el tiempo, la introducción de palabras amerindias adaptadas a la fonética española se hizo cada vez más frecuentes y son palabras que han sobrevivido hasta tal punto que hoy día nos resulta de lo más normal: 'cochino', 'tomate', 'tiburón', 'huracán', 'patata' y un largísimo etcétera. Por eso mismo el español se hizo americano en cuanto llegó a América.

A todo esto hay que añadir que el tiempo que se tardaba en realizar una travesía por el Atlántico y llegar a España o a América era de unos cinco o seis meses produciendo un aislamiento lingüístico entre los dos mundos, por lo que las innovaciones lingüísticas en España llegaban bien tarde a América, hecho que explica, entre otras cosas, por qué en España se usa el "vosotros" cuando en América se usa o sustituye por el "ustedes".

Después de cinco siglos, nuestra lengua ha crecido, ha influido a las lenguas más importantes y es gracias al enorme esfuerzo de los hispanoamericanos que hoy día el español se está dando a conocer por todo el mundo y que ha penetrado fuertemente en Estados Unidos, siendo la lengua más estudiada en ese país, adoptando palabras como 'plaza', 'mil', 'fiesta' sustituyendo a las propias inglesas 'square', 'thousand', 'party' y dando a las personas que las usan el mismo prestigio que aquí mismo en España se le da al que usa palabras inglesas en lugar de las españolas, un señal de cultura. América ha enriquecido mucho el español y en España casi se le ha dado la espalda. Hoy día la lengua es así y debería ser aceptada en todas sus variedades.

Me sorprendo cada vez que me encuentro con personas que afirman que hablar usando modismos o jerga es "impropio" o "una manera de hablar a evitar".
¡Y yo que gozo tanto cuando descubro palabras nuevas, que con su simple originalidad deslumbran y hacen sonreír! ¿Qué decir de palabras como "entotorotado" de Nicaragua, "pariguayo" de la Rep. Dominicana, "urtuguncho" de Argentina, "chilapastroso" de México y "gayumbos" de España? Para mí son golosinas deliciosas al paladar. Y dicho sea de paso, ninguna aparece en la 23.a edición del DRAE.

UN MONUMENTO AL CINISMO

Sólo vi la media hora final de la entrevista Zapatero/Gabilondo, pero me arriesgo a aventurar que ha sido el más bochornoso espectáculo televisivo en muchos años. Ya miraré las reacciones en la prensa –que en El país seguro se centrarán en el share o cosa similar -, pero lo visto, con una ánimo objetivo, no admite más réplica que la burla o la incredulidad. El referente inmediato que estará en boca de todos será sin duda el sainete de Urdaci con Aznar cuando este tuvo que dar cuenta ante las cámaras del asunto del Prestige. Pero la entrevista de ahora en Cuatro va más lejos aún en cinismo, desvergüenza y manipulación.

No he entendido ni entenderé nunca los méritos de Iñaki Gabilondo, ni como presentador ni como entrevistador. Los que lo admiran –el títere de Juan Cruz sobre todo- hablan de una habilidad especial para sonsacar a sus entrevistados e ilustran ese hipotético talento con una recordada entrevista a Felipe González que tienen por el colmo de la valentía independiente, de la mordacidad periodística. Yo creo, sin haber estudiado periodismo, que toda entrevista con un personaje importante y polémico debe crear tensión, debe provocar nerviosismo en el interpelado salvo que este sea un témpano de inmóvil fachada. Debe armarse con preguntas molestas que comprometan una respuesta temblona del acusado, pues este tipo de entrevistas con el poderoso han de ser acusaciones antes que chascarrillos de confesionario. Nada de esto hubo en el encuentro con Zapatero, al que se le vio más relajado, chisporroteante y contento que nunca, hasta le brillaba el rostro de satisfacción y las manos se le iban en arpegios aéreos que parecían componer una canción a dúo. Pero la tramoya se advirtió en un desliz del presidente, que fue a mi parecer el momento clave de la entrevista, antes que cualquier referencia al estatuto, al terrorismo o a la iglesia. En un momento dado, movido por el entusiasmo que le proporcionaba su propia elocuencia, se le escapó el tuteo hacia el colega Gabilondo y ahí se desmontó todo el invento y se vio el tinglado de la farsa. Las preguntas continuaron siendo mansas, simples enunciados para que Zapatero tomara carrerilla, soltara su rollo samaritano sin que se le interrumpiera una sola vez, que es obligación de todo inquisidor cuando el acusado se repite. Estaba Zapatero aureolado por su propia santidad y el patético Gabilondo le hacía de monaguillo, le sostenía la túnica en agradecimiento por haberles dado una tele, que desde ahora es escaparate de nuestro glorioso gobierno social. Pero al final algo debió abrirse paso en el torturado cerebro del cabestro entrevistador, quizá un resto de honestidad, cuando ante la cámara fija, en la despedida, pareció amagar un trago de saliva, una mirada de insondable tristeza, reconocimiento de que había metido la pata hasta el fondo de la abyección periodística, en tanto que a un feliz Zapatero se le escapaba una sonrisa luciferina y satisfecha.

Cuando la banalidad se instala en la ciudadanía, cuando se vota a un candidato porque tiene cara de buen chico, porque hace cincuenta años fusilaron a mi abuelo unos desalmados de la derecha o de la izquierda, porque alguien parece serio o tiene recursos de vendedor de enciclopedias, es normal que una entrevista deje de ser informativa y se convierta en un pasodoble, una danza sincopada que evite pisotones y encontronazos.
Esta democracia ha obtenido líderes que no soportan ni una finta dialéctica ni un amago de discusión, y quien más y quien menos espera de sus líderes que no rompan el pacto con la inanidad ideológica que los sustenta.
Como no tengo televisión, he preguntado a mis conocidos qué impresión sacaron de la entrevista, y me han hablado de un presidente que controla mejor las cejas (¿depilado por arriba y botox?), que sigue sonriendo sin ton ni son, pero dosifica el gesto serio con largueza, de su corbata a juego con el color de ojos, de su descontrol con el dedo punteador, y de su pelo, y respecto a sus declaraciones, bien es sabido que nadie mira, ve, oye y escucha al mismo tiempo y con la misma perspicacia: es la magia de la televisión: aniquila la comprensión mediante estímulos discordantes.
Los oradores más elocuentes suelen soportar mal la lectura de sus discursos sin el adorno de los trémolos de su voz y los gestos que acompañan su oratoria. Antonio, te aconsejo leer atentamente el texto de la entrevista si quieres saber qué se dijo, y dejar la interpretación de las miradas y los rostros al placer de ver la interpretación de los actores en una película. Y de paso te ahorrarás ser espectador de comedias con un mal guionista y actores mediocres.

Bueno, la televisión la tengo puesta sin volumen y, créalo, ni falta hace que me lo cuenten. Ahí tiene la fotografía. Pertenezca esta o no a esa entrevista: gesto forzadamente servil del entrevistador, actitud en exceso sonriente del entrevistado, ambos intentan protegerse con los brazos. Conclusión: los sujetos están simulando o mintiendo. El entrevistador lanzará las flores y el entrevistado acabará dándose un baño de gloria con el agua. Pendejos .

La gente, gata, es normal, tiene sus debilidades, sus defectos y virtudes. Los que gobiernan son normales, gente que arrastran sus complejos como tu o como yo, sus miedos, más que nosotros, supongo, porque mucha gente depende de ellos... Si yo, un vulgar confeccionista, temo, cada inicio de temporada, equivocarme, por la destrucción de trabajo y bienestar que ello puede producir en mucha gente, podrán, ellos, dormir tranquilos?
Cuando uno, afín a tu sensibilidad, te falla, te cabreas más de la cuenta.
Aznar utilizaba el medio público. Ese no tiene tanta desvergüenza... pero también falla.
Te veo demasiado cabreada, gata. Es normal que esté contento. Las cosas le salen bien y su oposición está alejándose, cada día más, de su territorio. Es normal que, como humano, se regodee.

Un abrazo.

Perdón por propasarme, gata.
Yo ni siquiera vi el final ni el principio. Con solo ver a ese hombre, a los dos por separado, un día, ya tuve bastante. Hablan y no dicen nada, son gentes que se escuchan demasiado a si mismos.
Piensa gata, que esa gente, como tu bien sabes, tiene asesores de imágen. Al Zipi le dicen cuando y como debe sonreir y enarcar las cejas, que corbata, que pose, que camisa es la más adecuada...
La televisión es ilusionismo, es una radio más engañosa. Hay lo que hay... no más.

No ví la entrevista, no puedo opinar sobre ella.
Lo que me extraña es el mosqueo del Sr. Antonio García Muñoz, pasó lo normal.
Zapatero dá una entrevista, ¿a quién? a un medio que está a su lado, a un periodista que está a su lado.
¿Cuáles van a ser las preguntas? Muy claro, en las que se pueda lucir.

Además ya tenía que saber que en TV nada es lo que parece y que los asesores de imagen, que tanto poder tienen ahora, habrían estudiado hasta lo más mínimo,los movimientos, los silencios, las miradas, las sonrisas,...hasta el tuteo con el presentador. Seguro que eso también estaba en el guión.
Por eso no veo esas entrevistas, no me van a impresionar nada de nada.

POBRE MÉXICO, TAN CERCA DE LOS LEGIONARIOS DE CRISTO Y...(2)

En la casta dirigente de México, la más inculta y cerril, con gran diferencia, de toda la tierra, conviven las creencias en la brujería, los hechizos, los "trabajos" para encadenar el corazón -la erotomanía es la unica expresión de su sensibilidad- o para eliminar al enemigo, las misas negras, los rituales macabros, con un catolicismo pazguato, guadalupano, infantil e integrista, cuya máxima expresión se encuentra en Los legionarios de Cristo.
Los poderosos mexicanos matan, roban, violan, transgreden todas las leyes, la ética y la moral por consideraciones de lucro; pero se sienten excusados por la mafia religiosa de Marcial Maciel, que justifica, ensalza, absuelve y premia con su bendición a sus cómplices en la depredación.

Reproducimos el artículo de José de Córdoba en The Wall Street Journal

LOS LEGIONARIOS DE CRISTO EXTIENDEN EN MÉXICO SU INFLUENCIA CON APOYO EMPRESARIAL

CIUDAD DE MEXICO — Hace dos años, un puñado de multimillonarios latinoamericanos y algunos de los inversionistas más importantes del mundo se reunieron el hotel Plaza de Nueva York. El objetivo era homenajear al plutócrata mexicano Carlos Slim y recaudar fondos para las escuelas para niños pobres de la Legión de Cristo, un grupo conservador católico de rápido crecimiento.
Entre los que pronunciaron discursos estuvo el reverendo Marcial Maciel , el fundador mexicano de la Legión, de 85 años, y el presidente de la junta de Citigroup Inc., Sanford Weill. En cuestión de horas, los 500 invitados habían reunido US$ 725.000.
La Legión estaba en su elemento. Fundada en 1941, la orden concentra su ministerio en los ricos y los poderosos con la idea que, al evangelizar a los líderes de la sociedad, el impacto benéfico en el resto de la sociedad se multiplica. Tal como los jesuitas murmuraban en los oídos de los príncipes europeos hace siglos atrás, los sacerdotes de la Legión son hoy en día confesores y capellanes de algunos los empresarios más poderosos de América latina. "El alma de un recolector de basura es tan importante como la de Carlos Slim, pero si Slim se convirtiera, se imagina la influencia y el poder para hacer obras benéficas que él podría prestar" dice Luanne Zurlo, ex analista de valores de Morgan Stanley, que organizó el beneficio en Nueva York. Slim, el hombre más rico de América latina, con una fortuna que estimada en US$ 24.000 millones, dice que él no es un católico muy devoto, pero que está ayudando a la Legión a crear 50 universidades de bajo costo en América latina. La Legión se ha convertido en un factor importante en la promoción de la agenda social del Vaticano y en la defensa del catolicismo contra de las incursiones que grupos protestantes evangélicos en la región. En Roma y Cuidad de México, las universidades del grupo ofrecen títulos avanzados en bioética, disciplina que enfatiza los límites que la moral debería imponer a la ciencia. Los críticos de la Legión sostienen que, al concentrarse en los acaudalados, refuerza las agudas divisiones de clase que por largo tiempo han retrasado a América latina, social y económicamente. Agregan que la Legión promueve la intolerancia y el arribismo social, antes que la devoción al evangelio de Cristo. Algunos mexicanos aluden sardónicamente a sus miembros, conocidos como los Legionarios de Cristo, como los "Millonarios de Cristo". Algo más preocupante para la Legión es que al padre Maciel, su fundador, se le ha acusado públicamente por casi una década de haber molestado sexualmente a al menos ocho seminaristas adolescentes, desde los años 40 a inicios de la década de los 60. El padre Maciel niega las acusaciones. Muchos activistas católicos, molestos con el encubrimiento de la Iglesia en los casos de abusos sexuales de parte de sacerdotes, piensan que el Vaticano ha protegido al padre Maciel debido al alcance y poder de la Legión.

La Legión opera en cerca de 20 países, incluyendo Estados Unidos, Chile, España, Brasil e Irlanda, pero ejerce su mayor influencia en México, donde administra la red de escuelas católicas para los sectores acomodados de mayor crecimiento y, todos los años en el segundo trimestre, moviliza a unos 20.000 voluntarios para que viajen a pueblos remotos e inciten a los católicos vacilantes a que se mantengan dentro de la fe. Mientras la Iglesia tiene dificultades para captar nuevas vocaciones, los nueve seminarios de la Legión han ordenado a unos 650 nuevos sacerdotes, muchos de los cuales provienen de familias acomodadas. Es un salto frente a los 210 nuevos sacerdotes que tenía en 1990. La Legión también cuenta con 1000 "señoritas consagradas" —laicas que hacen votos de castidad, pobreza y obediencia— y cerca de 65.000 voluntarios laicos, que forman parte de un grupo conocido como Regnum Christi.
Las obras de caridad representan cerca de US$ 50 millones del presupuesto anual de US$ 650 millones de la Legión. La entidad gestiona a Mano Amiga, una red con 21 escuelas que atiende a cerca de 13.000 estudiantes pobres, cuyos padres pagan una mensualidad de entre US$ 10 y US$ 20. Los miembros de Regnum Christi han empezado muchos esfuerzos caritativos en México, como un programa que recibe donaciones en dinero de clientes de supermercados para un banco nacional de alimentos. La Legión era una de las favoritas del papa Juan Pablo II, a quien le gustaba la mezcla de fervor religioso y doctrina conservadora.
Poco después de su ascensión como papa en 1978, Juan Pablo II declaró que quería ser el primer papa en visitar México, el segundo país católico del mundo, detrás de Brasil, pero el gobierno mexicano era reconocido por su postura anticlerical. El padre Maciel negoció una invitación, pidiendo ayuda a las devotas madre y hermanas del presidente mexicano, según el biógrafo del Papa George Weigel. El viaje empezó un proceso que culminó eventualmente en el restablecimiento de las relaciones diplomáticas entre México y el Vaticano. En años recientes, el padre Maciel organizó una audiencia privada entre el papa Juan Pablo II y la primera esposa del presidente Vicente Fox, que trabajó en Roma para la Legión en Roma durante un año.
En la actualidad, Maciel escribe cartas afectuosas a Marta Fox, la poderosa segunda esposa del presidente mexicano, que recientemente obtuvo la anulación por la Iglesia de su primer matrimonio, según dos amigos de Marta Fox. Un o de ellos dice que las cartas aluden a "Mi muy querida Martita". La oficina de Marta Fox no respondió a los pedidos de comentarios al respecto.

Los fuertes lazos de la Legión con la élite quedan en evidencia en Monterrey, ciudad de cuatro millones dominada por empresarios. Durante décadas, los jesuitas jugaron un papel importante en la educación de los hijos de familias acaudaladas, pero la Orden Jesuita dio un giro hacia la izquierda y fue expulsada en 1968 por el obispo local, que los acusaba de apoyar un paro en la universidad local. Desde entonces, la Legión pasó a definir el tono intelectual y social de los ricos de Monterrey a través de su red de escuelas, clubes y organizaciones de caridad. Muchos de los empresarios y ejecutivos de Monterrey envían sus hijos a escuelas de la Legión, en la que niños y niñas no se mezclan, y donde forjan conexiones que duran toda la vida. "Son muy buenos educadores", dice Slim. "Mis hijos estudiaron con ellos". Los padres de clase media luchan para pagar las caras mensualidades, que llegan a los US$ 900, convencidos de que sus hijos se beneficiarán de las amistades que hacen en la escuela, dice David Martínez, ex miembro del grupo Regnum Christi que estudió en escuelas de la Legión y ahora es director-gerente del fondo de cobertura Fintech en Nueva York Casi todos los clanes prominentes de Monterrey tienen un hijo que es sacerdote de la Legión o una hija que es señorita consagrada. Martínez, dice que el padre Maciel es "adorado" por la clase alta de México porque durante 60 años ha hecho que los ricos se sientan como si "Cristo los amara más que a otras personas y los usara como parte de un plan divino". La influencia de los legionarios también se extiende a la oficina. Muchas empresas pagan a evangelizadores de la Legión para que lideren discusiones semanales sobre valores católicos. En Grupo Novem S.A. de C.V., una compañía de aguas que es propiedad de una familia de simpatizantes de la Legión, se le pide a los empleados que asistan a seminarios de una hora sobre temas como el matrimonio y la clonación humana. Los críticos de la orden dicen que ésta crea un sistema opresivo para quienes no adhieren a la ortodoxia católica. José Zumaya, un psiquiatra que trata a parejas en Monterrey, dice que algunos de sus clientes acaudalados sufren de lo que llama "el síndrome legionario", en alusión al temor de sufrir el ostracismo social si se divorcian.
Cuando creó la Legión en 1941, el padre Maciel era un ambicioso joven de 20 años proveniente de la aristocracia católica de provincia. Tres de sus tíos eran obispos y un cuarto lideró un ejército de campesinos contra el gobierno mexicano en 1926 durante la Guerra Cristera. Según la historia oficial de la Legión, el Papa Pío XII ordenó al padre Maciel que reclutara líderes latinoamericanos y dijo que la congregación debería ser como un "ejercito (evangelizador) en formación de batalla".
En 1997, ocho hombres divulgaron acusaciones previamente hechas al Vaticano a través de canales internos, de que el padre Maciel los había abusado cuando eran seminaristas en los años 40 y 50. El organismo del Vaticano encargado de investigar tales acusaciones, bajo la dirección del Cardenal Joseph Ratzinger, no actuó inicialmente sobre una queja formal entablada ante el Vaticano en 1998. En México, los grandes medios ignoraron las acusaciones. Cuando una pequeña estación de TV presentó un documental sobre ellos, varios empresarios organizaron un boicot publicitario que casi llevó a la estación a la bancarrota. El año pasado trascendió que Ratzinger había reabierto la investigación en los últimos días del papado de Juan Pablo II. A medida que la pesquisa se reiniciaba en enero de 2005, Maciel renunció como director de los legionarios, citando su avanzada edad. En abril, un alto investigador del Vaticano fue a Nueva York y México para entrevistar a los acusadores del padre Maciel. Hoy la investigación se mantiene abierta, mientras los legionarios están bajo la dirección del padre Álvaro Corcuera, un mexicano de 47 años, quien dice que continuará gobernando "con una estricta fidelidad" al espíritu del fundador.

La mayoría del pueblo mexicano es católico de de los que van a la iglesia cuando hay bodas y bautizos (Eso si, siempre llegan tarde y a mediados de misa, andan escondiendose entre los pocos que llegaron temprano)Tambien van a fin de año a bendecir 12 velas que prenden cada dia primero para que nunca les falte "casa, vestido y contento..perdon sustento", cuando compran casa, carro o algo asi llaman a un padre para que les saque "el chamuco" o sea el diablo y tengan buena suerte, de la misma forma no puede faltar un rosario colgado en el espejo retrovisor del auto, una imagen de San Judas Tadeo en la cartera(Santo muy venerado por estos lares tanto por policias como por ladrones ¿Habrá alguna diferencia? según que es el abogado de las causas perdidas)El estado se declara laico pero recesa labores los dias 12 de diciembre por la Virgen de Guadalupe, viernes y jueves santos, según que no son dias oficiales pero son "de costumbre", tampoco el gobierno ha podido sacar una ley que permita el aborto y cada dia nacen montones de niños no deseados, que luego se abandonan en las calles o se les pone a trabajar para ayudar a mantener a la numerosa familia.
De esta ideosincrasia popular desde mi punto de vista muy respetable, se nutren los vivos, aquellos que llegan y a beneficio de distintas causas lo explotan y empobrecen más.
Hay que recordar que la religión es el opio de los pueblos.

Gracias por el espacio en la radio. Lo de México que acabo de leer me parece bastante anacrónico. No sabía que aún operaban de esa forma. Voy a recomendarle leer este post a una amiga mexicana que debe tener información al respecto. Me has dejado pensando, más ahora que en Perú estamos ad portas a las elecciones presidenciales y el panorama más que incierto se presenta nefasto.

Interesante testimonio de la punta del iceberg de los oscuros manejos de una secta católica como el Opus (como señala Felipe) dedicada al control del poder a través del control de los poderosos para hacernos retroceder a todos a las cavernas. MÉXICO: LA CORRUPCIÓN, EL SECUESTRO, Y EL ASESINATO, COMO SISTEMA

En México, no es necesario ser elegido en las urnas para administrar los fondos públicos: basta con ser una intrigante, corta de luces, ambiciosa, y estar casada con el presidente Fox. Los dislates de la pareja presidencial y sus secuaces parecen sacados de un culebrón de quinta categoría. Sería risible, si no fuera porque mientras los Legionarios de Maciel y Marthita defenestran la legislación vigente en provecho propio, en México se han asesinado veinte periodistas en los últimos cinco años, (cincuenta y cuatro desde 1983), y se ha hecho desaparecer a otros dos; son centenares de trabajadores sociales y defensores de los derechos humanos asesinados, al igual que en Ciudad Juárez se sigue asesinando mujeres, y ya son más de cuatrocientas, torturadas, mutiladas, violadas colectivamente y asesinadas, y más de seiscientas "desaparecidas", cuyos cadáveres no se han encontrado.
La policía manipula y hace desaparecer las pruebas, intimida y amenaza a los familiares y amigos que intentan investigar, mientras la "mordida" y el chantaje de los funcionarios públicos, están institucionalizados. Los narcotraficantes tienen venia, adquieren y administran fortunas, que utilizan para financiar a políticos corruptos o labrarse un porvenir como tal, ocupando puestos clave en las instituciones del Estado. Como en los tiempos del PRI, aquel partido que quiso imitar el PSOE de Felipe González, y del que, a veces, tengo la sensación de que ha conseguido una buena copia.
Mario Renato Menéndez Rodríguez , de la revista Por esto publicó sus investigaciones sobre Roberto Hernández Ramírez y el tráfico de drogas al por mayor, con fotos de los embarques de cocaina en su pista privada, que explicaría el origen de la fortuna de este dirigente y principal accionista del Banco Nacional de México (BANAMEX) y de la Casa de Bolsa Acciones y Valores. El magnate se querelló contra el periodista y en el juicio, al apreciarse la veracidad absoluta de la información y a la vista de las pruebas aportadas, el juez no condenó al periodista y argumentó esto en su sentencia.

No es de extrañar que la Hispanic Society haya premiado, junto a Jesús Polanco, al magnate Roberto Hernández Ramírez. No, al periodista Mario Renato Menéndez Rodríguez , no. No sean ustedes ingenuos y no me digan que se les ha ocurrido: ¿qué iba a hacer Jesús Polanco compartiendo el premio con un periodista íntegro?
Lydia Cacho Ribeiro publicó un libro con sus investigaciones sobre una red de pornografía infantil, de abusos y violaciones a menores, en la que participa, entre otros, del empresario Kamel Nacif Borge . El empresario acusado por la periodista, protegido de Fox, claro, la denunció por calumnias. Lydia Cacho Ribeiro fue detenida por la policía en su casa de la ciudad de Cancún y la llevaron a mil quinientos kilómetros de distancia, a la ciudad de Puebla, feudo del magnate. Estuvo detenida durante 30 horas por cargos de difamación antes de ser puesta en libertad bajo fianza. El 17 de enero de 2006, el Tribunal Superior de Justicia exoneró a Lydia Cacho del delito de calumnias imputado por el empresario Kamel Nacif a la vista de las pruebas aportadas.
En cualquier país del mundo civilizado, eso hubiera significado abrir diligencias para procesar al narcotraficante, al responsable de la red de pederastia. En México no, nos limitamos a no dar un peso por la vida de esa clase de periodistas.

Pobre Mexico, tan cerca de los Legionarios de Cristo y...

Aquí transcribo la lista de los periodistas asesinados y desaparecidos, extraída de la web de la Federación de Asociaciones de Periodistas Mexicanos, en espera de que algún día se les haga justicia, y sus asesinos y los que pagaron a los sicarios, sean juzgados y condenados. Cito textualmente:
"A continuación, primeramente, los nombres de los 20 compañeros asesinados en el cumplimiento de su deber en estos últimos 5 años. Los mencionamos para vergüenza de las autoridades que no han sabido o no han querido dilucidar dichos crímenes, y, mucho menos, llevar ante la justicia a los autores intelectuales y materiales, porque tal parece que la impunidad es el signo tratándose de informadores:
1. Hugo Barragán Ortiz, radio reportero de la estación Radio Max de Tierra Blanca, Veracruz. Golpeado y apuñalado en su propia casa. 30 de octubre de 2005.
2. José Reyez Brambila, reportero del periódico de Vallarta Milenio de Guadalajara, Jalisco. Apuñalado, su cadáver fue encontrado en la cajuela del automóvil propiedad de la empresa. 17 de septiembre de 2005.
3. Raúl Gibb Guerrero, director del diario La Opinión de Poza Rica. Fue asesinado a balazos en Papantla el 6 de abril de 2005.
4. Dolores Guadalupe García Escamilla, reportera y conductora de noticiarios de Stereo 91 de Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas. Baleada el 5 de abril de 2005, después de 11 días de agonía falleció el 16 en la Clínica Hospital de Especialidades de esa ciudad fronteriza.
5. Gregorio Rodríguez Hernández, reportero gráfico y corresponsal de El Debate de Mazatlán en Escuinapa, Sinaloa. Fue acribillado cuando cenaba con sus dos hijos. 28 de noviembre de 2004.
6. Leodegario Aguilar Lucas, editor de la revista Mundo Político de Acapulco, Guerrero, secuestrado el 22 mayo de 2004, su cadáver incinerado fue encontrado el 8 septiembre, los restos presentaban huellas de disparos.

7. FRANCISCO ARRATIA SALDIERNA, articulista de los periódicos "EL IMPARCIAL" y "EL REGIONAL" de Matamoros, Tamaulipas, fue baleado el 31 de agosto de 2004.
8. Francisco Javier Ortiz Franco, coeditor del Semanario Zeta, de Tijuana, Baja California, ultimado con disparos frente a sus menores hijos el 22 de junio de 2004.
9. ROBERTO JAVIER MORA GARCÍA, editor del diario El Mañana y de la revista North México Business, ambos de Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas. Cuando llegaba a su domicilio fue apuñalado el 19 de marzo de 2004.
10. Rafael Villafuerte Aguilar, director del periódico La Razón de Ciudad Altamirano, Guerrero. Fue asesinado a balazos en Tierra Caliente el 13 de diciembre de 2003.
11. José Miranda Virgen, columnista del diario El Sur de Veracruz. Muerto en el 16 de octubre 2002, víctima a los 60 años de edad de una explosión de gas en su domicilio, que se supone intencionada por su actividad crítica contra las autoridades locales.
12. Félix Alonso Fernández García, director de la revista Nueva Opción, de Miguel Alemán, Tamaulipas. Fue ultimado con disparos de metralletas AK-47 de 17 de enero de 2002.
13. Saúl Antonio Martínez Gutiérrez, subdirector editorial del diario El Imparcial, de Matamoros, Tamaulipas. Fue encontrado su cadáver con cuatro balazos de 9 milímetros en la cabeza en las inmediaciones de Río Bravo y Matamoros el 24 de marzo de 2001.

15. José Luis Ortega Mata, director del semanario Ojinata, de Ojinaga, Chihuahua. Fue ultimado el 19 de febrero de 2001.
16. Humberto Méndez Rendón, reportero del Canal 9 local. Fue muerto el 9 de febrero de 2001
17. Hugo Sánchez Eustaquio, editor del diario La Verdad, Atizapán de Zaragoza, Estado de México. Su cadáver fue hallado el 19 de Julio 2000, días después de haber sido secuestrado.
18. José Ramírez Puente, periodista de Radio Net, de Ciudad Juárez, Chihuahua. Fue asesinado de 36 puñaladas el 28 de abril de 2000.
19. Pablo Pineda Gaucín, reportero del diario La Opinión, de Matamoros, Tamaulipas. Su cuerpo fue hallado con un balazo en la cabeza cerca de Harlington, Texas, Estados Unidos, en la zona limítrofe con México el 9 de abril de 2002.
20. Luis Roberto Cruz Martínez, reportero de la revista Multicosas, de Reynosa, Tamaulipas. Fue asesinado el 1 de febrero de 2000.
Entre los 54 asesinatos ocurridos de 1983 a la fecha es de recordarse con emoción, respeto, pero también con la rabia de la impotencia, que nos deja la impunidad imperante en nuestro país, a Manuel Buendía Tellezgirón, de la casa EXCÉLSIOR, considerado uno de los mejores periodistas de investigación. Recibió un disparo en la espalda a quemarropa. Su cadáver fue arrojado en un estacionamiento de la Avenida Insurgentes, centro de la Ciudad de México el 30 de mayo de 1984. Recientemente había escrito sobre casos de corrupción en el Sindicato de Trabajadores del Petróleos y sobre el narcopoder. Su columna "Red Privada" aparecía en unas 200 publicaciones y trataba crímenes y corrupción institucional.
Y a Héctor Félix Miranda *"El Gato Félix" del Semanario ZETA. Fue abatido a tiros el 20 de abril de 1988, en su coche mientras conducía hacia el trabajo. Era un reconocido rastreador de casos de corrupción, un crítico del gobierno y un columnista distinguido, el más popular en Tijuana. Cuando fue asesinado estaba investigando el blanqueo de dinero proveniente del tráfico de drogas.
Esta es la vergonzosa lista de los 54 informadores asesinados en México desde 1983 a la fecha, lo que comprueba que el periodismo se ha convertido en nuestro país en la más peligrosa profesión.
1. MORÁN MUÑOZ, ELISEO medio de comunicación: LA VOZ. Muerto en 1983. El 19 de marzo se le encontró asesinado a tiros. Las circunstancias de su muerte no han sido esclarecidas. Había denunciado casos de corrupción policial.

2. BUENDÍA, MANUEL medio de comunicación: EXCELSIOR. Muerto en 1984. Este periodista de investigación de México, recibió un disparo en la espalda a quemarropa en la capital el 30 de mayo. Recientemente había escrito sobre casos de corrupción en el sindicato de trabajadores del petróleo. Su columna "Red Privada" trataba crímenes y corrupción institucional.
3. JUÁREZ VÁZQUEZ, JAVIER medio de comunicación: PRIMERA PLANA. Muerto en 1984. Su cuerpo fue hallado el 31 de mayo maniatado, torturado y acribillado a balas. Era el director de su publicación semanal en Minatitlán, Veracruz.
4. BREÑAS ARAYA, JORGE medio de comunicación: EL RÍO. Muerto en 1986. El 17 de junio recibió varios disparos de unos asaltantes que irrumpieron en su casa de Río Bravo cerca de la frontera de México con Texas. Era el propietario de su periódico.
5. FLORES TORRIJOS, ERNESTO medio de comunicación: EL POPULAR Muerto en 1986. El 17 de julio fue asesinado por unos pistoleros no identificados después de haber expuesto casos de corrupción y tráfico de drogas. Era el director y editor de su diario de Matamoros.
6. MORENO FIGUEROA, NORMA medio de comunicación: EL POPULAR Muerta en 1986. El 17 de julio fue asesinada por unos pistoleros no identificados junto a otro periodista. Acababa de denunciar casos de corrupción y tráfico de drogas. Era una popular columnista de su diario de Matamoros.
7. LÓPEZ URÍAS, ODILÓN medio de comunicación: ONDA. Muerto en 1986. Fue secuestrado el 7 de octubre y dos días después se le encontró muerto a balazos. Algunos testigos afirmaron que siete pistoleros habían detenido su coche en una autopista fuera de Culiacán. En su periódico trataba la corrupción y el tráfico de drogas. Su muerte siguió al secuestro y asesinato de su hijo a principios de aquel mismo año. En ambas muertes se sospechó de traficantes de drogas.
8. JACOBO, JESUS MICHEL medio de comunicación: EL SOL DE SINALOA. Muerto en 1987. El 16 de octubre le dispararon unos hombres no identificados. Probablemente fue asesinado por su trabajo como periodista y su defensa jurídica de acusados por tráfico de drogas.
9. BURGUEÑO ORDUNO, MANUEL medio de comunicación: EL SOL DEL PACÍFICO. Muerto en 1988. El 22 de febrero fue tiroteado por tres hombres enmascarados que irrumpieron en su casa y le dispararon siete balas. Habitualmente escribía sobre drogas, crímenes y violencia. También era el director de Deslinde y enseñaba periodismo en la Universidad Autónoma de Sinaloa, en Mazatlán.
10. MIRANDA, HÉCTOR FÉLIX medio de comunicación: ZETA. Muerto en 1988. Fue abatido a tiros el 20 de abril en su coche. Era un rastreador de casos de corrupción, un crítico del gobierno y un columnista popular en Tijuana. Cuando fue asesinado estaba investigando el blanqueo de dinero proveniente del tráfico de drogas.
11. GONZÁLEZ REYES, RONAY medio de comunicación: EL MUNDO. Muerto en 1988. Unos asaltantes no identificados le dispararon en su oficina el 13 de julio. Los motivos no han sido esclarecidos.
12. BEJARANO, LINDA medio de comunicación: XHIJ-TV. Muerta en 1988. Esta periodista, que dirigía un programa en un canal de Ciudad Juárez, fue tiroteada el 23 de julio por la policía en un suceso que el gobierno calificó de error de identificación. La policía afirma que disparó al menos 47 veces al Chrysler New Yorker que ella conducía por haberlo confundido con otro coche que supuestamente transportaba a traficantes de droga.
13. CÓRDOVA SOLÓRZANO, ALFREDO medio de comunicación: UNO-MAS-DOS. Muerto en 1990. Falleció el 9 de junio, tres días después de que unos pistoleros no identificados le dispararan en su casa en Tapachula. Había escrito sobre tráfico de drogas. Era el fundador y director de su periódico de Chiapas, desde hacía 5 años. Anteriormente ya había sido agredido y golpeado.

14. OROPEZA, VÍCTOR MANUEL medio de comunicación: EL DIARIO DE JUÁREZ. Muerto en 1991. Este columnista y homeópata fue asesinado a puñaladas el 13 de julio en su consultorio en Ciudad Juárez. Las razones no están claras, pero era conocido por sus críticas columnas que acusaban al Partido Revolucionario Institucional de fraude electoral. Sus heridas apuntaban a que pudo haber sido torturado antes de ser asesinado. Tenía 60 años.
15. ARENAS GÁLVEZ, JUVENCIO medio de comunicación: CUESTIÓN. Muerto en 1991. Este especialista en cuestiones policiales fue hallado acuchillado el 7 de octubre junto a su coche, estacionado a las afueras de la ciudad de México. Algunos colegas del periódico afirmaron que había acordado encontrarse con un policía justo antes de su muerte.
16. VENEGAS VALENCIA, GABRIEL medio de comunicación: TELEVISA. Muerto en 1991. Fue asesinado a balazos, y su cuerpo se halló el 14 de octubre. Cubría temas sindicales, pero los motivos del crimen siguen sin esclarecerse.
17. REYES, JOSÉ AGUSTÍN medio de comunicación: EL HERALDO. Muerto en 1994. Corresponsal del periódico El Heraldo y de la cadena de radio Rasa en La Paz, Baja California. Asesinado el 16 de marzo.

¡Hola!
Muy buen artículo, muy completo. Y tristemente, una realidad. Hace no mucho, publique de hecho, una historia sobre un periodista de radio brutalmente agredido por 30 oficiales de policia del Distrito Federal (http://zolliker.blogspot.com/2005/11/realidad-novelada-de-un-periodista.html), y lo peor del caso, es que han pasado un par de meses del suceso, y no se ha resuelto nada. Nada. N-A-D-A.

Brutal y repelente sistema.
Y dicen que eso es democracia. Lo que no comprendo es la afición de Felipe por crear un partido así.

Olga Wornat, periodista y escritora argentina, es autora de una biografía no autorizada de Marta Sahagún, "La Jefa", publicada en 2003, y de la reciente obra "Crónicas malditas", en la que investiga sobre la pareja presidencial y su entorno.

En las "Crónicas malditas", Olga Wornat afirma que los hijos de Marta Sahagún, y en particular Manuel Bribiesca Sahagún, serían culpables de tráficos de influencia y enriquecimiento ilegal, mediante contratos en el sector de la construcción. La periodista asegura también que el mismo Manuel Bribiesca Sahagún dispone de un jet privado, que vale un millón de dólares.

El 3 de mayo, el secretario particular de Marta Sahagún anunció la presentación de una querella por "perjuicio moral". El 6 de mayo, el juez civil federal Carlos Jiménez Mora aceptó la querella y puso a la periodista en situación de arresto domiciliario, hasta que se dicte sentencia.

El 8 de mayo, negando las acusaciones contenidas en la obra de la periodista, Manuel Bribiesca Sahagún anunció a su vez su intención de recurrir a la justicia.

"Desde hace varios días, estoy siendo acosada por personas que me siguen, me vigilan en el hotel en que resido", ha confiado la periodista a Reporteros sin Fronteras. La periodista asegura que su línea telefónica está siendo objeto de escuchas. Dice que "nunca ha tenido tanto miedo como en este momento".

Autor: Informe 2004 sobre México de Reporteros sin fronteras

El 13 de julio de 2003, Jesús Mejía Lechuga, de la radio MS-Noticias, fue declarado desaparecido por su familia. Habría sido visto por última vez la víspera, en una entrevista con Alfonso Alegretti, un responsable del Partido Revolucionario Institucional (PRI), en la alcaldía. En sus programas, el periodista denunció a Guillermo Zorilla Pérez, diputado federal del PRI, por su presuntas relaciones con el narcotráfico en la región. La justicia local considera que Jesús Mejía ha huido por un presunto delito de robo de un vehículo y, por este motivo, se ha presentado una denuncia contra él. La denuncia se refiere a un coche que le habrían prestado, y que resultó ser un coche robado. Un periodista de la región subraya que si realmente hubiera huido su familia no habría acudido inmediatamente a denunciar su desaparición a la policía. En agosto de 2001, unos policías secuestraron, por poco tiempo, a Jesús Mejía Lechuga , por orden de un general, cuyos abusos había denunciado.

Además de felicitar al autor del artículo quiero decir que por cuenta de una multinacional alemana tuve que realizar frecuentes y largos viajes a Méjico. Así que puedo decir que conozco ese país y confirmo punto por punto lo que, a cerca de la corrupción de las autoridades, dicen el articulista y los comentaristas. Pero no sólo es que pidan dinero a cambio de algo, no, es que te extorsionan a cambio de dejarte tranquilo o que les busques un puesto importante en la compañía a un familiar, por ejemplo.
Al llegar, un español residente en ese país me dijo: ¡paga, y no se meterán contigo! y, además, ¡no entregues, nunca, tu documentación a un policia, paga lo que sea pero no suletes tus papeles!

Después, aprendí que cuanto más importante es el personaje menos rubor tiene cuando te pide dinero o favores por hacer lo que debería ser su deber hacerlo.
El país es hermosísimo pero, a pesar de ello, os regalo Méjico y no creo poder vivir los años suficientes como para poder ver gobernantes controlados por la justicia o la prensa en esa nación.

Sigo.
Desgracidamente no conozco los libros que mencionan los articulistas. Trataré de conseguirlos.
Por mi parte, aconsejo leer "La revolución mejicana" de don Vicente BlascoIbañez.

Estupendo trabajo de recopilación y denuncia. Clara como el agua has sido. No se puede decir más claro pero si más alto. Y así hay que seguir, a pesar del miedo, que yo tendría mucho, si estuviera allí denunciando los hechos. Lo de Juarez y las mujeres es una verguenza global, una más, ¿Algún día se conseguirá justicia en este asunto, investigación, juicios? Un abrazo desde la furia

Mi querida Gata: anoche estuve sentado frente a este post tratando de encontrar un modo de defensa a este país que aunque no me vio nacer ya lo he ehcho mio, con el estoy agradecido porque me ha dado todo lo que una persona puede esperar de la vida, una familia preciosa y estabilidad económica y por ende emocional. pero no encontré un argumento que fuera creible para mi mismo y por lo tanto tambien sería increible para los demás.
Desgraciadamente el país está asi ¿Que puedo decir a mi favor? que no voté por Fox porque desde su campaña no me convenció lo encontré demasiado payaso y ahora veo que no es payaso sino títere de su esposa que ha sabido colarse entre las redes de la corrupción.

TAUTINA CONTESTA A ANTONIO GARCÍA MUÑOZ

Yo empecé a fumar a la edad de trece años.
Si pienso en la causa, fue tan burda como que una prima mayor que yo y más borde también, se burlara ante mis amigos de lo cándida e inocente que era. En aquella época (como en ésta) fumar a esas edades trasgredía todas las reglas. Por eso, hasta que no conseguí tragarme el entonces asqueroso humo, no forme parte de la panda de los tíos geniales, y desde entonces, el hábito me acompañaría el resto de mi vida.
Durante la adolescencia, recibí mil broncas y castigos de mis padres por "fumar tan joven", lo que me convertía en una perfecta rebelde. Poco tiempo después, hacía junto con mis buenos amigos, tertulias interminables envueltos en la insana neblina del humo que inundaba el garito de turno, y fumábamos sin descanso para que, el café en una mano y el cigarrillo en la otra, nos diese un aspecto más interesante durante la conversación. Aquella era una edad en la que tu imagen tenía destacada importancia, y si no eras un tipo atlético y/o rico, más te valía ir de trasgresor con la colilla colgando del labio o algo peor. De todas formas, ya que nombré el aspecto atlético, reconozco que fumar jamás me entorpeció a la hora de practicar cualquier deporte, si no fuera porque estaba deseando terminar el ejercicio para encender el pitillo sin haber recobrado aún el aliento.
Durante décadas he anhelado desesperadamente salir de cualquier lugar cerrado media hora después de entrar en él, por muy importante que fuera para mí estar allí, sólo para poder “disfrutar” de un cigarrillo.

Recuerdo cada uno de mis embarazos como una época terrible de mi vida porque tuve que dejar el tabaco. Se me hacía imposible y recaía con algún pitillo cada dos por tres, que apagaba a la segunda calada con un llanto incontenible y culpable, Las ansias me consumieron en cada ocasión, hasta el extremo de retomar el hábito recién salida del hospital, en plena lactancia, a pesar del cargo de conciencia que me suponía como madre.Hace algunos años, me enfrente al absurdo de explicar a mi hijo pequeño lo malo que era fumar, y la necesidad de que jamás adquiriera un hábito tan asqueroso, mientras yo encendía un cigarrillo con otro. Y por fin, el seis de enero del año pasado, dejé el tabaco definitivamente después de veinticuatro años, que se dice pronto, por el método más estúpido que existe, un libro de autoayuda.
La historia de cualquier fumador es igualmente desagradable y frustrante, y aquél que asegure otra cosa miente. Sin embargo, un fumador no es un marginado social, no es un vicioso, ni tiene al gobierno en su contra, ni pertenece a ninguna minoría por cuyos derechos haya que pujar, señor García Muñoz. Me estremezco al pensar en el atrayente mensaje que trasmiten esas palabras suyas a algún adolescente al que se le ocurriera leerle.
Un fumador es sólo una persona que fuma, nada más. Ni está enfermo (el humo de un cigarrillo contamina mucho menos que una buena bocanada de tubo de escape de un autobús), ni enganchado (el mono es tan leve que ni te despierta del sueño nocturno), ni carece de voluntad o es idiota (conozco a fumadores mil veces más inteligentes que yo y con una enorme fuerza de voluntad).
Un fumador es sólo una persona que aún no ha descubierto que el tabaco es algo que se deja fácilmente con solo proponérselo, y vive enganchado a ese vicio por miedo a las consecuencias de dejarlo.
Si tiene usted que dar un mensaje absurdo que sea éste, señor García Muñoz, pero no se crea una persona especial por encenderse un pitillo a escondidas, que ya no tiene usted trece años.

Creo, Tautina, que has olvidado que era un artículo irónico y tomarlo al pie de la letra, para inducirlo a "curarse" mediante el abandono del maravilloso vicio en pro de la virtud acrisolada que predicas, me demuestra lo mal que os sienta dejar de fumar. Con un cigarrillo habrías entendido a la primera que se trata de un artículo humorístico.

Y una cosa: quedas excluída de mi herencia porque la virtud no merece premio en vida sino en el más allá: despídete de recibir a mis gatos, que cuando yo me muera no te los voy a dejar.

Estimado Pendón tiquismiquis, mi problema es haberle conocido a usted, y recuerde que es mucho menos burlesco pretender ser rebelde a mis trece añitos que a sus sesenta y nueve.
Gatopardo, el humo de tus celtas te atrofia el sentido del humor hasta el punto de encontrar un lado cómico al articulo del señor García Muñoz, lo que demuestra lo mal que te sienta fumar. En cuanto a la herencia me importa poco…volveré a ganarme tu cariño en dos días.

Gatopardo, tu escritora invitada, columnista que ha dejado de fumar hace poco y empieza con manual para convertirse en pocos dias y ser feliz en otros, se me antoja que presenta los síntomas de los conversos.

Pan y circo ...recuerdos de los romanos sabios políticos. Ahora, en las sociedades modernas se distrae la atención con otros temas adicionales: movilizar opinión y crear un debate irrelevante, medio estilo de cruzadas modernas.

En mi país, muchos años atrás, ante una grave crisis política, el presidente de la república escribió un artículo en el que dudaba de la autoria de un poema muy reconocido y atribuía a otro poeta los versos. Suficiente para dividir el país en un debate que calmo las pasiones políticas.

A mí me da igual que los fumadores fumen y paso de sumarme a campaña política alguna, lo que me da menos igual por la parte que me toca como madre, es que nuevos fumadores adolescentes se sumen a la familia del pulmón negro sólo porque los "viejos" fumadores hacen apología de su vicio, convirtiéndolo en un vericueto político contra el que rebelarse.
Y no dejé el tabaco hace poco que fue hace un año.

¿Y a usted quién le ha dicho, doña Tautina, que yo no tengo 13 años? ¿Y dónde pone que yo me sienta especial? Lo de "enfermos" e "idiotas" no lo digo yo sino El País en sus últimos editoriales anti tabaco. Y mi texto no era una apología del fumeteo, como usted lo ha interpretado, sino una crítica a las medidas de un gobierno que diga lo que diga nos tiene fichados. Si un adolescente encontrara atractivo mi mensaje yo también me estremecería, pero de sorpresa, porque los adolescentes de hoy no leen. Y desde luego yo nunca diré a un joven que no fume. Le diré que respete a sus padres, a sus mayores, que no mate mendigos y que use menos el movil. Pero si fuma, le animaré a que persevere hasta el final: todo antes que convertirse en un ex fumador dispuesto a contar batallitas aleccionadoras y ñoñas como la suya

Señora Tautina, bellísima persona:

Gracias por su enternecedor e interesantísimo y profundo relato (un poco largo diría yo) en el explica cuando y por qué empezó a fumar. Es un psico análisis que muestra la fortaleza de su carácter. ¡Gran madre es usted! se fumaba -eso sí, llorando- sus pitillos cuando le daba el pecho a su tierna criatura. Pero ahora, que el chaval ya se afeita, quiere que vea en usted una madre ejemplar.

Efectivmente es usted una bellisima persona, como declara en su propio escrito.

¡Vaya, vaya! pero un poquito de mala leche ya tiene ¿verdd que si? Como le tira lo de la edad a la señora Gatopardo. No debería haberlo hecho, ha cometido un pecado; debe confesar el sábado pues ha mentido y se ha ensañado con una pobre ancinanita muy indefensa ella. Eso, buena mujer, es peor que fumarse un buen Celtas.

Conozco la verdadera edad de Gatopardo y, siendo que usted la conoce -como dice- no la voy a corregir. Nobleza obliga. Pero si le voy a decir que miente miserablemente y que necesita un buen puro (de tabaco habano, se entiende) para recuperar algo de lucidez y un poquito, poquito, de humor.

¡Ah, y el sábado a confesar! pero sin enrrollarse, que tiene tendencia a ello.

Sea buena y dicúlpese

He de aclarar que en España, un Ministro de Educación recibió la invitación a colaborar en uno de los principales periódicos nacionales, y envió un poema de tan bella factura que ocupó el espacio de honor, y decía así:
Puedo escribir los versos más tristes esta noche.
Escribir, por ejemplo: "La noche está estrellada, y tiritan, azules, los astros, a lo lejos".
El viento de la noche gira en el cielo y canta.
Puedo escribir los versos más tristes esta noche.
Yo la quise, y a veces ella también me quiso.
En las noches como ésta la tuve entre mis brazos.
¡La besé tantas veces bajo el cielo infinito!
Ella me quiso, a veces yo también la quería.
¡Como no haber amado sus grandes ojos fijos!
Puedo escribir los versos más tristes esta noche.
Pensar que no la tengo. Sentir que la he perdido,

Oír la noche inmensa, más inmensa sin ella.
Y el verso cae al alma como al pasto el rocío.
Qué importa que mi amor no pudiera guardarla.
La noche está estrellada y ella no está conmigo.
Eso es todo. A lo lejos alguien canta. A lo lejos.
Mi alma no se contenta con haberla perdido.
etc.
Nos reímos unos cuantos. Y ni caso.

Me estraña que usted, que ha visto entrar las tropas napoleónicas en Madrid, aún espere conocer un ministro con cultura. Mire, para ser ministro tiene, primero que ser un buen político y esta premisa ya elimina una de las primeras cualidades que debe tener una persona culta: el buen gusto.

Hubo, sí, ministros con cultura, pero fueron malos políticos y por eso pasó lo que pasó.

Y, en cuanto a ese peñazo de madre llorona: TAUTINA, que hasta el nombre es repelente, puede que despierte lascivia y lujuria, pero eso sí, hasta que abre la boca o escribe algo. Para mí, que como buena conversa, en secreto "judaiza"

Ay, Felipe, bien que me duele reconocer que si tuviera que dejar a alguien mis gatos sería a Tautina porque es la mujer más fiable que existe; pero reconoce que es como para indignarme, pues, la inicua, escribe en tres minutos, día tras día, como divertimento, lo que yo tardaría en idear una semana, tiene la desfachatez de tener tres hijos, una gata y un perro y no sé cual es más digno de arrobo y envidia, si el mayor de los cinco a su cargo, que no sobrepasa los ocho años o la de ocho meses... a éso, suma que no cultiva el enfisema ni apesta a un metro a tabaco, sino a jabón, y además, por si fuera poco, exhibe una tolerancia indignante: no le molesta que se fume en su presencia, y sólo desea que sus hijos no adquieran ese hábito... ¿No es para apedrearla?
Respecto a Aprendiz: mesura, amigo, el empleo de las mayúsculas, únicamente admisibles en siglas y en títulos de crédito, que son el equivalente ortográfico de las voces destempladas que dan los sordos y los necios, y si te fuera posible, controla la envidia que te produce el estilo impecable de Tautina, y si no puedes emular su calidad, imita su elegancia moral al dejarnos a sus adversarios como colillas sin descolocar una ceja.

En cuanto a la heroica madre llorona que ha vencido al demonio del tabaco y se lava con jabón sin que por ello se le pueda tachar de impúdica pero que piensa que ser mayor es pecado, no quiero opinar más.

Ahora la que me preocupa es su prima, la muy borde, que obligo a fumar la la cándida e inocente palomita. Alguien debería ponerla en guardia. Que no la ha perdonado, que no, que un día de estos puede ir a por ella.

Sorprendido, digo, porque yo la había creído no fumadora de siempre, por sus escritos, claro. Escritos preciosos, llenos de sabiduría y bondad. Escritos que solo puede producir una persona no adicta al tabaco.
Pssse... Ahora que lo pienso. A Tautina la conozco de hace más o menos un año. Ahora lo entiendo. Ahora entiendo el porqué me tiene cogido el corazón y vete a saber cuantas cosas más.

MINUSVÁLIDOS CON HUMO

El otro día leí una noticia según la cual la vejación o discriminación a minusválidos –o discapacitados, que ya no sé ni cómo hay que llamarlos con el nuevo baile de palabras- se penará con multas que llegan, según la gravedad, a una millonada de euros. No sé por qué me he acordado de los fumadores. Nuestro gobierno patriota/ social, se ha propuesto muy firmemente la defensa de las minorías hasta el punto de ejercer sobre ellas una discriminación positiva, como se ve en esta nueva modificación legal y en algunas otras anteriores. En la ciudad donde vivo, el incansable ayuntamiento ha trabajado mucho para los minusválidos, cosa loable, allanando bordes de aceras, reservándoles aparcamientos, e incluso cargándose escalinatas que tenían su historia para crear rampas, que hasta la fecha no he visto usar a ningún minusválido. Bueno está. Pero ahora se ha creado, por moda social, una nueva leva de minorías, la de los fumadores. Hasta hace unos pocos años este espectro de viciosos constituía la mayoría, ya que todo dios fumaba, pero los miedos impuestos por informaciones tenebrosas, la mimesis paranoica y el deseo a toda costa de ser como los americanos han hecho que muchos hayan ido abandonado el hábito, de modo que lo que antes era una mayoría se ha quedado en la minoría actual, con tendencia a la baja (y no siempre por defunción). Ahora pues los fumadores somos una de esas maravillosas minorías que tanto gustan al gobierno, sólo que a nosotros el gobierno nos odia. Salvando las diferencias, también somos minusválidos que necesitamos de la prótesis del cigarro, esa apoyatura ominosa de la que muchos dependemos. Ya sé que la comparación sonará abrupta o escandalosa, y por ello dije salvando las diferencias, por si las moscas susceptibles. Pero a lo que iba. Somos minoría y, como tal, un gobierno políticamente correcto como este –formado por serafines, angelicales ministras, ex-fumadores de todo- debería protegernos como oro en paño, pero en lugar de hacer leyes para nuestra conservación, en lugar de fomentar la discriminación positiva hacia nosotros, de multar a quien nos veja, ha sido el mismo gobierno el que nos ha vejado, queriendo salvarnos de nosotros mismos, como quien ayuda a una viejecita a cruzar la acera que no quiere cruzar. Somos una minoría asquerosa.
Ayer mismo salí de mi centro de trabajo para guarecerme bajo una cornisa en medio de la lluvia. Allí estaban otros cuatro o cinco apestados rebulléndose en el abrigo y expeliendo humo, formando pequeñas volutas que se mezclaban con las de una fabrica cercana. La estampa era patética, aunque seguro que provocaría la risa entre los consumidores de bífidus activo, corredores de media tarde y lectores compulsivos de etiquetas alimenticias. Entonces fue cuando me acordé de los minusválidos, con sus rampitas, sus privilegios en las bolsas de oposiciones, su discriminación positiva. Tan minoría como nosotros. Nada que ver, o sí, según se mire. Pero ahí estábamos. Enfermos, como se nos ha llamado con actitud paternalista –cuando no estúpidos- encogiendo por via legal a una minoría que no tiene ya derechos, sino el derecho de ser denunciados.

Digo más: tengo una lista de ésos, de la que tacho a los que se van muriendo con los pulmones sanos. Y saludo con relinchos de risa la noticia de que me he llevado por delante a otro no fumador. Teniendo en cuenta que me han desahuciado los médicos varias veces, es como concederles veinte años de ventaja en la apuesta.

Veo que se endureció el tema en españa. Leo en varias bitácoras la reacción.
Aqui ya venimos con esa carga desde hace más de tres años.
A mi toda esta paranoia anti-tabaco, se me antoja más como una elaboración del tipo realizado por kafka...el castillo, en fin, el estado invadiendo como un desierto...luego, los contentos de hoy, serán invadidos por el estado cuando proscriban el café o el vino, ... ya veremos eso!!!

Sé que gracias a los medios de comunicación de este país tan democrático y, ahora gracias a nuestro gobierno, tan liberal y tolerante, las personas están muy susceptibles con este tema de la ley anti-tabaco (ya sean los de un bando o los del otro). Aún así me atreveré a bromear con el tema y deciros a los fumadores: ¿De qué os quejais? si la mayoría de los bares han colgado el cartel de: "En este establecimiento está permitido fumar". Ahora para quienes nos afixiamos con humos ajenos será más díficil, a la vez que injustificado, pedir educadamente: "perdón, le importa no fumar mientras saboreo este delicioso pescaito"

Ay, no, Nerea, tú de la liga de los no fumadores que hablan de "asfixia"... ¿No sabes, criatura, que la incidencia del cancer en un perímetro de 150 metros de una estación de autobuses (gasoil) se multiplica por cinco? ¿No sabes que la combustión de los coches contiene gases sesenta veces más nocivos que los que se encuentra en un reducto de fumadores sin ventilación?
Pues indaga, Nerea, indaga, y procura buscar bares de no fumadores, porque cualquier ciudadano que salga a la calle no puede circular por espacios sin gases de combustión de coches. Y al año mueren más por accidentes de circulación que por cancer, te comunico.
Y no he conocido a nadie que le molestara el humo hasta que se puso de moda que molestara. ¡Qué casualidad!
Ah, y para mayor recochineo: una varita aromática de esas que tanto usan los místicos del antitabaco es tan cancerígena como un paquete de Celtas, y los ambientadores que tanto se venden lo mísmo.
Lo que no se os mete en la cabeza es que vivir da cancer. Y no hay más cáscaras.
Por cierto, vi los análisis en diferentes espacios y el de un cine, donde nadie ha fumado jamás, y era el lugar más contaminado de partículas cancerígenas en suspensión en la atmósfera, con gran diferencia respecto a otros como un bar-restaurante de tapas donde se fumaba. Y si eso no se oculta, pero no se glosa en plan palizas, pregúntate por qué es.

Casi siempre, por circunstancias que no vienen al caso, he fumado a escondidas, y eso creaba una ansiedad perjudicial para la salud. Quizás con esta ley, sacada de cauce, a mi parecer, estemos creando otra clase de enfermedad o trauma...

Gato, yo no he hablado de cáncer en ningún momento: me encantan las baras de incienso y el cine y siempre preferiré el aire limpio de los pequeños pueblos al aire contaminado de la sociedad industrializada. Evito usar el coche y el autobús, y no por ser más sana, simplemente disfruto más así. Mi tío, Gato, que es una persona muy competente (como mucha otra gente de mi entorno para mi fortuna), ya me dio ese mismo argumento hace más de mes y medio, cuando se encendía un puro mientras terminábamos de almorzar. En el momento en el que saquen una ley para prohibir el uso de coches en las ciudades y sea obligatorio el uso de un sólo transporte público que utilice combustible ecológico (que ya los hay pero muchos intereses económicos impiden su implantación), ahí estaré, apoyándola, como ahora. Yo no puedo evitar la contaminación de los coches, las nuevas térmicas que se están construyendo a 20 kilómetros de mi ciudad, el SIDA, los accidentes de tráfico, el abuso contra menores, el abuso contra mayores, el paro , la sinvergonzonería de éste, y cualquier otro gobierno que nos trata como subnormales, y ahí paro porque la lista es interminable Gato, y yo lo sé.

(He tenido que repartir el comentario en dos, porque era tan largo que no me dejaba publicarlo).

Y el tabaco es una estupidez (si quieres) comparado con todo esto, pero es una estupidez que no depende de un tío acomodado en un sillón que nos maneja para que nada cambie (o sí), depende de la persona que tengo enfrente, y si a mí me molesta comer sin saber qué estoy saboreando, y si al respirar el humo toso y los ojos se me ponen rojo, y llego a casa y no me gusta el olor de mi ropa y de mi pelo, etc; ¿qué hago? El tabaco es un vicio molesto y perjudicial, respeto que la gente lo tenga, pero no quiero compartirlo. El índice de CO2 en las ciudades es alarmante, tengo que respetar que los demás no vayan andando, pero seguiré negándome a usar el coche dentro de la ciudad. ¿Tan extraño es que pensando así y buscando hacer mi pequeño espacio un poco más agradable, le pida a quien se siente frente a mí para comer, que espere a que termine mi plato?

EL VIEJO PROFESOR ENRIQUE TIERNO GALVÁN

Ese día, me encontré con el cortejo funebre que acompañaba a Tierno Galván al cementerio. Parecía sacado del atrezzo de una película de Berlanga, pero creo que fue idea de Pilar Miró — que siempre gustó de la ópera—, eso de la calesa y los caballos empenachados de negro, conducidos por aurigas enlutados. Los dirigentes socialistas lo acompañaban contritos y orgullosos, y la mayoría ya habían sustituido la pana por la alpaca.

Mi mueca irónica no escapó a los compungidos literatos con los que iba, y redoblaron sus manifestaciones de duelo. Lloraban con el pañuelo en la mano, sin enjugarse las lágrimas, y tuve que escuchar que ese día sería recordado, siglos después, como la fecha en la que "el pueblo" había salido a la calle para testimoniar su respeto al viejo profesor. Yo pensaba en Raúl Morodo, en José Bono, en Antonio Gómez Rufo y en todos los que habían montado el Partido Socialista Popular con los más oscuros y variopintos pasados, reconstruidos primorosamente en una impostura casi artística, mientras mis amigos hablaban, llorosos, de que la salud del viejo profesor quedó minada por las penalidades del campo de concentración en el que estuvo recluído, después de la guerra.

Respondí intentando parecer seria que ojalá yo tuviera en mi vida todas las penalidades que el heroismo de Tierno Galván y sus ideas de izquierdas le hicieron padecer. Y, claro, me dio la risa, tuve que huir porque mis carcajadas suelen ser escandalosas e irrefrenables. Perdí una ocasión de oro para parecer sensible a los ojos de aquellos literatos, y años después, el que sollozaba más ruidosamente, se refirió a aquel trance:

— Acabo de leer el libro de César Alonso de los Ríos sobre Tierno Galván. Resulta que tú sabías que aquel historial de sufrimientos como represaliado era mentira, por eso te reías y no me lo has contado nunca.

— ¿Te lo habrías creído si te lo hubiera contado?

— No sé...

— Yo sí lo sé: está clarísimo que esta clase política emergente que recaló en el antifranquismo se ha fabricado un pasado. Y quien quiera descubrir el engaño va a recibir poca comprensión, y un montón de palos. Prefiero reirme, es más sano para el cutis.

Ayer telefonee a este amigo para precisar un dato sobre un famoso autor, que se quita años y ha cambiado su lugar de nacimiento por otro más en consonancia. Y mi amigo, que ha logrado trabajar siempre para los que mandan, me contó, en un ataque de amnesia chocante, que estaba preparando, en el Ayuntamiento de Madrid, un homenaje al "viejo profesor" en el vigésimo aniversario de su muerte.

— Estoy recapitulando datos de su biografía -me dijo- y es impresionante la integridad y la fuerza moral que tuvo.

Y , al decírmelo, me vino la idea de reproducir aquí el artículo en el que Cesar Alonso del los Ríos cuenta por qué escribió "La máscara de Tierno Galván" y como llegó a descubrir que la biografía de Tierno Galván era falsa, para recomendaros que leáis el libro, si lográis rescatar algún ejemplar de la purga que tuvo:

EL VIEJO PROFESOR por César Alonso de los Ríos

Mis primeras sospechas sobre la figura mítica de Enrique Tierno venían de lejos: de unas largas entrevistas en las que me habían inquietado ciertos silencios y algunas contradicciones que yo quise achacar a reservas políticas. Pero fueron mis viajes a los lugares en los que, según él, había pasado su infancia y algunos periodos en la posguerra, cuando tuve las primeras pruebas de sus invenciones. En cuanto comencé a contrastar testimonios personales y a frecuentar archivos se me vino abajo el falso edificio construido por el Profesor: desde el hermoso escenario rural con casas labradoras a los pisos de mediana burguesía ilustrada, una vez trasterrada la familia a la capital.

Más duro me resultó aceptar la verdad de Tierno en guerra. Se desplomaba la ficción del joven libertario que trabajó en el Socorro Rojo, que acompañó a Hemingway y a Dos Passos por los frentes de Madrid y que, con 20 años, trató a un desnortado Besteiro, a un derrumbado Azaña, a... todos los jefes republicanos. Si las fantasías familiares podían haber tenido cierto interés literario, las invenciones de la guerra y la del imaginario campo de concentración eran de un oportunismo político muy duro de asimilar. El archivo de Alcalá no deja títere con cabeza del antifranquismo precoz del Profesor ni los hechos reales permiten la tesis de un Tierno Galván enfrentado a la dictadura nada menos que en una sesión solemne como es la inauguración de un curso en el Instituto de Estudios Políticos con la presencia de jerarcas y figuras como Moscardó y Pilar Primo de Rivera.

El primer documento oficial, relacionado con la vida del Profesor, fue el acta de nacimiento. En medio de tantas dudas fue un consuelo tener en la mano un dato cierto: la fecha del acta -8 de febrero de 1918- coincidía con la que aparecía en las biografías. No dejaba de ser curioso que el único dato cierto hubiera sido precisamente el que siempre se había puesto en duda en los propios medios tiernistas. La razón era el prematuro envejecimiento del Profesor. Cuando llegó a la cátedra de Salamanca con 35 años parecía que tenía 50. Por eso Raúl Morodo, el primero de sus colaboradores, lo llamó Viejo Profesor.

¿Cómo fue posible que el Profesor pudiera ocultar su pasado? Hay dos razones: su carácter hermético unido a la distancia insalvable que había, en aquella época, entre catedrático y alumnos. En segundo lugar, el pasado era un tema tabú en la posguerra.

Se desplomaba la ficción del joven libertario que trabajó en el Socorro Rojo, que acompañó a Hemingway al frente...

Pero si la partida de nacimiento me había proporcionado un dato cierto, descorría también el velo de la verdad familiar: ni había nacido en tierras de Soria ni era descendiente de labradores. Era madrileño y nunca llegó a abandonar la ciudad totalmente. Las cátedras de Murcia y Salamanca le obligarían a desplazamientos de dos o tres días por semana, y las clases en Princeton o en Puerto Rico a alejamientos de meses. Ateneísta, ratón de biblioteca, paseante por el Madrid galdosiano del barrio de Pozas y de Argüelles... fue un empedernido madrileño. La casita en la que nació lleva una placa que mandó colocar Juan Barranco a la que nadie dio importancia porque siempre se tuvo la idea de que el alcalde de Madrid había nacido por casualidad en la capital. Según las versiones del Profesor los padres se trasladaron para que la madre tuviera los cuidados que no podía tener en el pueblo. También según el Profesor, su padre dejó la labranza y se trasladó como rentista a Madrid poco antes de la proclamación de la II República. Tierno diseñó la figura paterna como un ser callado, casi taciturno, cauteloso en sus juicios y quizá conservador. Un arquetipo de hombre castellano del que él sería un trasunto ilustrado. Este retrato lo había completado con la pertenencia de unas casas labradoras en Valdeavellano y Almazán en las que veraneaba la familia a no ser que alquilaran una casa en la sierra madrileña como la de Robledo de Chavela justo en el verano del 36. El cuadro no dejaba de tener ese atractivo de lo rural profundo, de la propiedad y el enraizamiento en la historia. Del mismo modo, el Profesor había hecho un canto de la vida soriana, tan alejada de las modas, tan cuajada de todas esas virtudes de sinceridad, honradez, coherencia que contrastan con la vorágine del mundo moderno.

Familia trashumante.

La verdad había sido más dura y más prosaica: los antepasados del Profesor habían desaparecido de Valdeavellano a mediados del XIX para alistarse en el Ejército y siguieron la trashumancia de los regimientos, de plaza en plaza, incluidas las de ultramar. Su abuelo paterno se había retirado como capitán de Tudela donde se casó con una chica navarra, en segunda nupcias. A esos familiares "vascos", con los que apenas tuvo trato, se refería Tierno cuando hablaba de las raíces de su sensibilidad para la cuestión vasca. Los hijos de Julián Tierno siguieron la tradición militar. Alfredo, padre del Profesor, estuvo en la guerra de Cuba. En Almazán conoció a Julia, hija del sobrestante de carreteras, jefe de peones camineros para entendernos, con la que se casó.

El Profesor se examinó de ingreso de Bachillerato en el Instituto Cisneros, a los 12 años, como alumno libre. Él ha dicho que asistió a clases en el Cervantes pero no es cierto. A los 14 años la familia se trasladó al barrio de la Prosperidad y se matriculó en el Ateneo Politécnico, un colegio laico y modesto concertado con el Instituto Cervantes. El Profesor hizo dos cursos de Derecho antes de la guerra pero no de Filosofía y Letras. El matiz tiene su importancia. Ratón de biblioteca, lo fue también hasta el año 1937 cuando le llamaron a filas. Se colocó entonces en la Oficina de Reclutamiento a la que acudía por las mañanas mientras por las tardes se empozaba en las bibliotecas. Ha contabilizado, entre los sufrimientos de su vida, el frío de las bibliotecas durante la guerra. Nunca quiso hablar, ni siquiera en sus memorias Cabos sueltos, de la detención de su padre, sospechoso de quintacolumnista como militar retirado, acogido, como su hermano, a la ley Azaña. Tampoco ha aludido al proceso que sufrió su hermano Alberto, una vez terminada la guerra, y del que salió bien librado ya que pudo incorporarse al cuerpo de Veterinaria, recuperando empleo y sueldo. Se retiró de capitán para dedicarse a la avicultura.

Ni había nacido en Soria ni era descendiente de labradores

El Profesor Tierno no estuvo en campo de concentración alguno como ha dicho y escrito. Se matriculó recién terminada la guerra y pudo examinarse en la convocatoria de junio de 1939 a tercero de Derecho. Santiago Montero Díaz le animó a hacer Filosofía y Letras en la Facultad de Murcia de la que él era decano. Así hizo la carrera en dos convocatorias. Lee la tesis doctoral de Derecho en 1942 bajo la dirección de Francisco Elías de Tejada, un fundamentalista del tradicionalismo. En 1944, ganó la plaza de jefe de negociado del Ministerio de Educación Nacional. Esto le permitió casarse con Encarna Pérez Relaño, una chica culta, buena traductora, cuatro años mayor que él, y abandonar las clases particulares en colegios de segunda enseñanza. Comenzó a dar sus famosas clases para ingreso en la carrera diplomática. Se ha hablado, sin razón, de las dificultades económicas del joven Tierno, de la pobreza incluso. Enrique Tierno era funcionario público en Madrid a los 26 años con la categoría de jefe de negociado. Ayudante en la cátedra de Carlos Ollero, comienza a publicar en La Revista de Estudios Políticos que sin duda se abriría ideológicamente en los últimos años 50 pero muy lejos de ser un refugio de liberales. A los treinta gana la cátedra de Derecho Político, junto a Manuel Fraga. Una carrera realmente brillante, concluiría Aranguren. Ya durante sus años como catedrático de Murcia comienza a tener contactos políticos con democristianos y monárquicos, algunos de ellos militares que empiezan a tomar distancias con el régimen. Él data su contestación al franquismo con motivo de la inauguración del curso del Instituto de Estudios Políticos. El relato no se sostiene. Es patético. Por entonces sus tesis tenían mucho que ver con concepciones elitistas de la sociedad. De ellas pasaría a un regeneracionismo costista y a una vocación europeísta, aséptica desde el punto de vista político. El acto público de gran repercusión en el que participó Tierno de modo protagonístico fue en la cena del hotel Menfis, junto a Joaquín Satrústegui y Jaime Miralles, en la que se lanzó el nombre de don Juan y donde Tierno defendió la monarquía como "salida".

A partir de entonces la vida pública de Tierno Galván es más conocida aunque las claves de muchos de sus actos están en estos primeros años. Él pensó que el régimen era muy fuerte, más que Franco, y que nunca permitiría la legalización de los partidos republicanos. De ahí que fuera necesario montar un partido socialista y una central sindical distinta al PSOE y a UGT o bien dotar a estas organizaciones de caras que no tuvieran nada que ver con la guerra. Tierno hizo dos obras importantes. Montó un colectivo de personas en su entorno, una escuela, siempre de gentes muy valiosas e inequívocamente antifranquistas. Por otra, su obra intelectual tiene momentos de alto interés como los ensayos sobre Costa, el barroco o la picaresca. Por fin y por encima de fingimientos, invenciones e imposturas, llegó a convertirse en la principal figura socialista de oposición al régimen. Le terminó costando la cátedra aunque en esta apuesta hubiera, como es lógico en un político, una parte de cálculo.

Debo decir una palabra sobre algunas reacciones a mi investigación sobre Tierno. Prefieren los mitos a la verdad. Por otra parte tenemos una tradición anticientífica. A partir de la guerra se hizo un pacto de silencio, gracias al cual nuestra historia parece más un rosario de milagros que un comportamiento colectivo contradictorio y lógico a la vez. Se ha llegado a tales grados de complicidad en el ocultamiento de la realidad que quien se atreve a romperla se convierte en un aguafiestas cuando no en un inquisidor. Qué se va a hacer. Son riesgos del oficio.

Y lo peor es que no sólo los políticos se inventan un pasado, comunidades enteras también lo hacen y luego pagamos todos las consecuencias de una mentira muy bien lograda que ha sabido convencer a generación tras generación.

Con estos grandes políticos nunca se sabe. Mirad el caso de Mitterand, que también ocultó su pasado en Vichy. Torrente Ballester decía que él había sido indiferente en la GCE, que lo que le preocupaba era cuidar a su familia, pero un ex-alumno suyo del masculino de el Ferrol del Caudillo me ha contado que iba a las clases con camisa azul y llevando la pistola en el cinto.

A mí la impostura instalada en la vida política española, en la derecha y en la izquierda, me parece un síntoma de la falta de arraigo que tiene la honestidad y la sinceridad en nuestro país y en nuestras instituciones. Me provoca risa.
Y cualquiera que pretenda hacer pasar por sospechoso a quien la señale y desmienta, me parece que demuestra que las mentiras de los políticos tienen cómplices perfectos en ese tipo de ciudadano. Respecto a las maravillas del Madrid de la movida debieron de ser absolutas para quien no era un vecino que se levantaba a las siete para ir a trabajar sin poder pegar ojo en toda la noche para que los señoritos s divirtieran trasnochando. Y no le supe encontrar la gracia. Y la primera vez que se destapó y denunció el asunto de las mordidas, los cobros de comisiones para dar licencias de obras, fue un concejal, Alonso Puerta, convencido de que lo que el viejo profesor pontificaba era lo que había que aplicar, y Tierno Galván lo echó. A mí esa "movida" tampoco me hizo gracia. Y las de después, sólo han sido la progresión normal en la corrupción generalizada que soportamos.

Hola Gatopardo, y gracias por tus elogios...no voy a ser humilde y decir que no los merezco(ja,ja,ja). Aunque me has dejado medio sorprendido, me estas pidiendo que grabe con mi propia voz para radio MAI (por supuesto que lo haré). Lo que no sé es cuál de mis textos desearías que lo lea (o tal vez quieres uno nuevo). Ya me lo dirás.

1. Haya pasado ampliamente el límite de la mediana edad y reivindique la chabacana medianía de su juventud.
2. Que ande escaso de recursos estilísticos o fuentes literarias y recurra a expresiones sobadas como "socavones faraónicos" (¡sabrá usted de cultura egipcia!)

Caballero, ¿ha seguido algún curso sobre vocativos epistolares en alguna mancebía otrora famosa en su pueblo? Lo de "gatísima mía" huele tan rancio como su admiración a un mediocre retórico como el difunto Tierno.
Pero, para ser justos, su querido "Viejo Profesor" dijo una frase que muy bien se le puede aplicar a usted "La cursileria es un conato de ser" ¿A que le gusta?

A un príncipe (...) no le es necesario tener todas las (...) cualidades , pero sí le es necesario aparentar tenerlas. Es más, me atrevería a decir esto: si las tiene y las observa siempre son perjudiciales y, si aparenta tenerlas, son útiles; como aparentar ser piadoso, fiel, humano, honesto y serlo de verdad, pero estar con el ánimo dispuesto de tal manera que, si es necesario no serlo, puedas y sepas cambiar a lo contrario.

Creo que la historia está repleta de mentiras, es en sí una gran mentira, inventada dependiendo de los gobiernos e intereses, esto no es nada nuevo ni más reprochable, es una más, me temo, como el hace poco descubierto personaje que se inventó un pasado en el campo de concentración de Auschwitz, para, tal vez, entrar en la historia o ser alguién que en realidad no había conseguido ser. Quien sabe? triste pero cierto.

Hay dudas razonables de su pasado. Bueno son argumentos contra su persona. Pero como alcalde de Madrid, fue de los que más se preocupó en dar servicios (soy de Carabanchel) nos puso un parque enorme, un centro cultural, un centro de salud, asfaltó calles que llevaban sin tocar 25 años, etc. Este hablaba por sus hechos. A Álvarez del Manzano todavía le estoy esperando. Por cierto, que un alcalde le hable al Papa en latín, está al alcance de pocos.

Este artículo pone en duda su honestidad, pero no se podrá rebatir su labor como alcalde, ni hacer olvidar su magnetismo personal. El Viejo Profesor gozaba de una virtud escasísima en la clase política: cultura. Y la posibilidad (no demostrada: el tal César Alonso de los Ríos me inspira una confianza nula) de que mintiera sobre su pasado no va a cambiar ni un ápice ni su elegancia como persona, ni su impecable labor como alcalde.

Por más que el revisionismo derechil pretenda alterar las conciencias ciudadanas para que olviden lo vivido, todo queda en fuegos artificiales para sus 'hooligans'; al resto sólo nos inspiran sonrisas irónicas, cuando no carcajadas.

No te conozco Cesar Alonso de los Rios, pero los apellidos tan largos siempre me ponen en guardia. Solo quiero comentar que es fácil escribir articulos? o notas de personajes ausentes. Es gratis. Pero ha sido y es tan grande la figura de Tierno Galván que ni tu ni nadie logrará empañarla. Lejos de rumores, si te contó alguien quienes fueron al Concierto homenaje o al entierro, podrías haberte dado cuenta de lo "enorme" y "admirado" que fue. El nunca dijo que naciera en Soria, si que lo hizo en Madrid (para mi orgullo como madrileño). Tampoco le oí decir lo de las penalidades, es más en una entrevista horrorosa de la ínclita Mercedes Milá a Encarnita, se hartó Encvarnita que ellos fueron defendiendose con clases y traducciones... Vamos que de casi todo lo que le supones que dijo o hizo, creo que con (maldad) no has dicho verdad en ninguna de ellas.

PROTOCOLO HÉTICO

Para Laika

No hablemos del hambre, estridente reclamo del vacío intransferible,
y qué decir del frío,
excrecencia o punzada en los nudillos,
hasta la médula y la nuca desolladas, si no escribo de la pesarosa penumbra de zapatos ni del tacón que falta en la esperanza, con ropas desflecadas, ya sin marca de fábrica.
Una esmerada educación todo lo salva,
y me solidarizo con la anorexia del gourmet, disiento de la conveniencia del visón con los vaqueros,
y prosigo la eterna discusión sobre el fondo y la forma, con esta protocolar impertinencia de duquesa arruinada, que gasto a manos llenas, sin crédito ni avales.
Secretamente conjuro a Jean Genet:
en su honor degüello a un rentista ahorrativo, descuartizo a los inapetentes comensales de un festín,
y ahorco con hilos de lamé trenzados a ociosas benefactoras de la alta costura, en insomnios beatíficos después de no cenar.

que el mundo ya no es sólido cual traje y el hambre se resbala por las medias hasta llegar al fin a la última blonda del deseo.
Mas, duquesas, a veces, nos miramos, enfrentamos poemas y salimos
a tumbarnos perfectas en la calle que va a dar a la mar.
No dejemos de lado, por si acaso, la libreta y un rastro de memoria.

EL NEVAZO DE LA TÍA CIRILA

Sí, lleváis razón, escribir un relato corto es difícil. Pero también lo es hacer un mueble, una reja para la ventana o un guisado de lentejas. Basta con saber qué es necesario, cuál es el resultado que se quiere conseguir, y hacerlo.
En un relato corto, el narrador y los personajes han de tener un lenguaje y un modo de ser y actuar acorde con la acción que se narra, y han de diferenciarse de la forma de ser, expresarse y sentir del autor. A su vez, el argumento y la elección de los hechos, han de presentarse desde una perspectiva que se amalgame con el resto. Y luego, todo éso ha de tener un entorno idoneo para la acción, los personajes y el argumento.

Y lo más difícil no es contar cosas, sino omitir lo prescindible, no amontonar adjetivos, hechos y detalles innecesarios.
Es condenadamente difícil lograrlo y explicarlo, así es que mejor os pongo un ejemplo de lo que yo considero un relato logrado: en La cueva del dinosario , Javier Auserd ha escrito “El nevazo de la tía Cirila ”. Leedlo y de paso fijáos en todas las hermosas palabras y modismos, desterrados de nuestro léxico cotidiano y de nuestra memoria, desplazados por un lenguaje empobrecido y homogéneo, y cómo ese modo de expresarse define la idiosincrasia de los personajes.
De nada, ya sabéis que me gusta ser útil.

ALIMAÑA NEWS ENTREVISTA EN EXCLUSIVA A WENCESLAO

DESDE MELILLA

El Ejército español no está tranquilo. Las Fuerzas Armadas meditan y se rascan con concentración y preocupación cogote y entrecejo. Pero Alimaña News ha roto la impenetrable barrera del silencio impuesto y ha conseguido una nueva entrevista de nuestro admirable Wenceslao, macho cabrío de nuestra Gloriosa Legión.

Wenceslao está tumbado en un catre de una mísera pensión melillí, fumando su Habanos de siempre, y bebiendo a sorbitos un carajillo con miel. Hay una alfombrilla comida en una tercera parte y de la colcha faltan los flecos, que Wenceslao se tapinó una tarde, durante su convalescencia.
-“Tendinitis. Por un gilipollas que se equivocó marcando el paso. La miel es para que me admitan en el coro de la ONG de mi novia”
-¿Tienes novia?
Entorna los ojos con sorna :
-”Eso pregúntaselo a un civil. En la Legión, la hombría y el honor se dan por supuestos.”
- ¿Y qué se dice en el Cuartel del caso del Teniente General Mena?
-En el Cuartel se trabaja por la Patria. Apunta eso. El teniente general con su boli y un par escribió su discurso. Eso lo apuntas y que se lo traguen los que dicen que la milicia no es culta. Lo escribió él. No se lo escribieron. Cosa que no se puede decir del Rey o Zapatero. Lo escribió y lo leyó con sus puntos y sus comas. Y con un par. Lo que pasa es que hay mucha envidia. Y mala leche. Treinta años con la barrila de escriba usted y aprenda el lenguaje civil. Para dar hostias con póliza y ortografía, digo yo. Y ahora llega mi teniente general con un par y dos folios, y lo destituyen.
- Pero lo que dijo, Wenceslao...
- Mariconeo de políticos. Cuarto de guantazos y se acaban las tonterias. Y eso que mi teniente general no le ha aguantado a Bono lo que le aguanta la tropa. Y todo el mamoneo, porque lo pillaron fumando en el cuartel. Y como no era grifa, que era tabaco... Apunta eso que no digo más.
Me despido de un Wenceslao abatido, un patriota desengañado que consume su juventud y un trozo de cortina, acostado en una triste pensión melillí. Fumando.

entrevistado hecha con el teléfono móvil. Lo publico para no tener la bronca contigo, pero esto es un insulto a la inteligencia de mis lectores. Y ese Wenceslao es un delincuente que se merecería una temporada en el calabozo por fumar.

Mira, Wolffo, ya vale, que me tenéis harta Alimaña y tú, empeñados en demostrarme que los militares escriben la gran Literatura de nuestro tiempo. Acabo de tener una discusión por teléfono con Alimaña que me quiere hacer creer que Muñoz Molino aprendió su estilo ultrametáfórico haciendo atestados cuando estaba en la Guardia Civil.
Y estoy segura de que Wenceslao no habrá dicho ni la mitad de lo que dice Alimaña que dijo, que ya me los conozco yo a los dos. Mi difunto brigada si que era un hombre inteligente y listo. Decía: "¿se comen las letras? No. Pues ¿pa qué?" Y cuando me desespero con este blog, que lleva razón Antonio García Muñoz, que debería dedicarlo a hablar de mis estados de ánimo, y quitarme a los colaboradores, me acuerdo mucho de lo que me decía mi difunto brigada.
Y más vale, Wolffo, que te pongas a trabajar ya y me grabes eso, que tienes mucho morro.

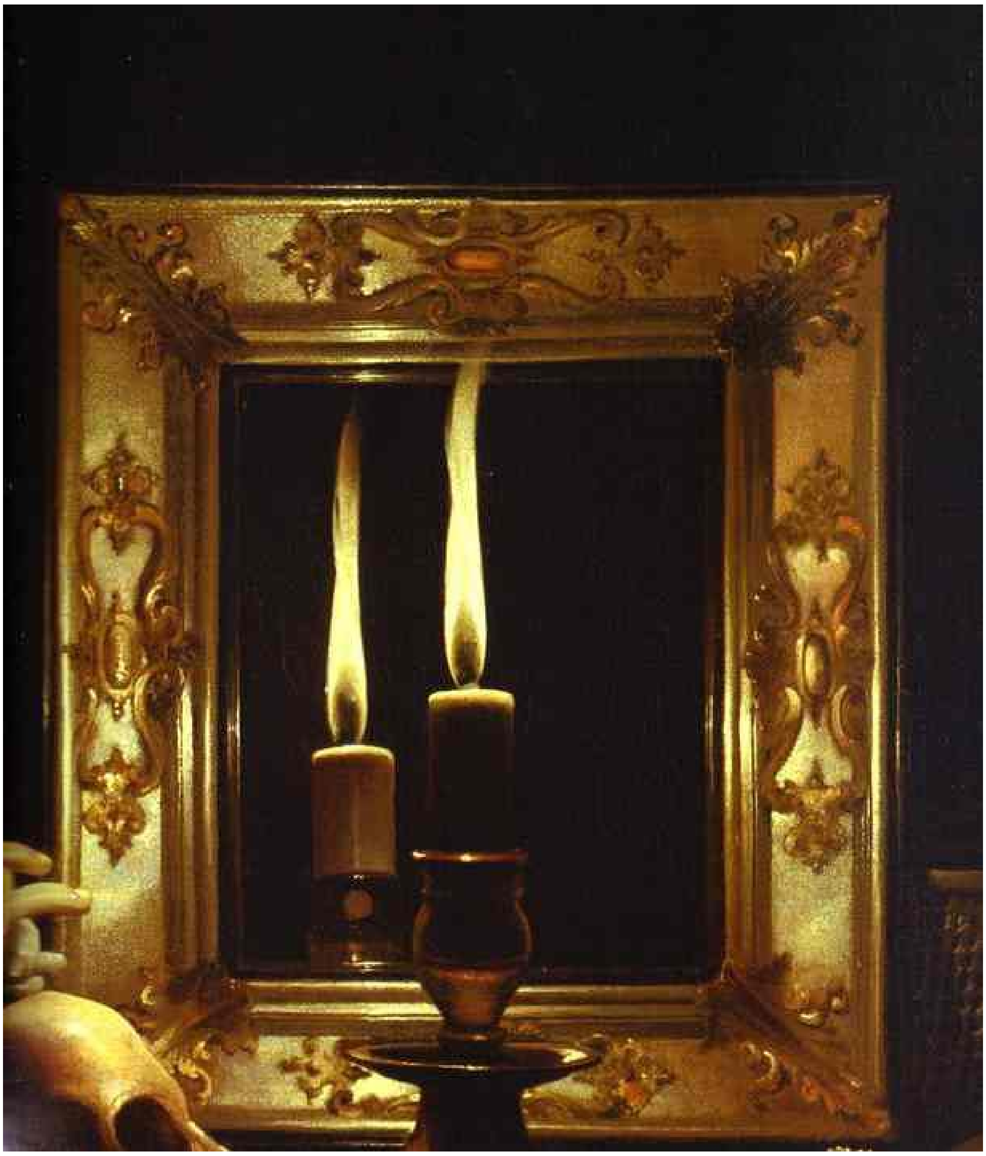
LA ÚLTIMA CENA



Elena había sido una revolucionaria en los años sesenta. Claro que sólo se trataba de esas pequeñas revoluciones que aquellos años podían permitirse los jóvenes en una ciudad de provincias y sin otro peligro que una aventura nocturna en la comisaría, de la cual, por otra parte, su padre la sacaría de inmediato con un par de llamadas de teléfono.
A pesar de todo, existía furia en su corazón, auténtica y sagrada furia. No había más que verla, alta, oscura, de poderosos rasgos clásicos y salvajes al mismo tiempo, representando a Lisístrata en medio del crucero del Colegio Mayor, rodeada de la llama de sus palabras y vestida con un incandescente peplo rojo que el único foco iluminaba. Los aplausos estallaban cuando Lisístrata caía al suelo con ese movimiento grandioso y trágico de todos los simétricos pliegues de su túnica descendiendo a las frías losas en un vertiginoso arrebol de rosa tronchada. Todos los demás revolucionarios aplaudían frenéticamente.
De eso hacía más de treinta años – pensó Emilia viendo a su hermana servir la mesa de Fin de Año casi en trance. Porque aquello no podía ser más que otro trance, tan ilusorio y tan vacuo como aquel que tenía lugar en el gélido crucero, hacía ya tanto tiempo que ni su propia hermana lo recordaba, o al menos aparentaba no recordarlo. Y es que a Elena no le gustaba hablar del pasado, prefería pensar que nunca había existido, era mucho más cómodo, "y quizá menos doloroso", se dijo Emilia contemplando la patética danza de su hermana alrededor de la mesa centelleante.
Eduvigis, su cuñado, reposaba como un buda a punto de estallar ante la dorada pierna de cabrito que Elena acababa de servirle. Emilia lo miró, no lograba entender cómo su hermana soportaba aquello, aquella humillación constante que nadie quería ver; todos los miembros de la familia parecían ciegos, sordos y mudos, como si el matrimonio fuese una especie de atroz tabernáculo donde se podía degollar impunemente a cualquiera ante la respetuosa mirada de todos. Cuando Emilia le preguntaba a su hermana por esas ojeras, más verdes o más moradas de lo normal, ella solía contestarle: "He tenido una noche malísima", o cualquier otra excusa tan estúpida como ésa. Pero es que cuando Emilia le decía a su madre que había que hacer algo, que aquello no podía seguir así, la madre, también llamada Elena, le contestaba que eso pertenecía a la intimidad del matrimonio, que Eduvigis era un buen padre, un buen abogado y un buen esposo, "con sus manías, claro –añadía- como cualquier otro hombre", y que había que dejar que los esposos arreglaran sus cosas.

Y así siguieron las cosas, arreglándose, diez años más. En ese tiempo, Emilia se trasladó de ciudad, consiguió trabajo en una pequeña empresa de informática, y también se casó. Las relaciones se distanciaron y Emilia sólo veía a los suyos una vez al año, en aquella ceremonia de la Cena a la que asistía con la misma fe con la que iba a ver una buena obra de ficción en el teatro.

Cada año encontraba a Elena más vieja, más extrañamente desgastada, y más silenciosa; a veces, cuando su hermana le servía el plato de cochinillo crujiente, o de pavo, o de lo que tocara ese año, tenía la sensación de que su hermana no existía, de que sólo se trataba de un fantasma, de una mortal sombra que se deslizaba de la cocina a la mesa, centelleante otra vez, en medio del vértigo de la nada, como si toda su antigua furia –esa que Emilia veía aún al fondo de las desgastadas fotografías- hubiera quedado reducida al brillante tintineo de las pulseras de oro sobre la grasa olorosa de los asados. Siempre sirviendo platos con aquella mirada ausente y esos ojos desorbitados y en un permanente trance donde Emilia sólo veía fulgir una pátina oscura, un ascua cenagosa que sólo podía llamarse miedo.

Sí, debía de ser miedo, un miedo atroz –pensó Emilia viendo cómo Elena soportaba, ante la mirada impasible de todo el entorno familiar, las palabras cariñosamente denigrantes que, entre vino y vino y broma y broma, le dedicaba aquel buda a punto de estallar que seguía siendo Eduvigis, su marido. Y no es que a Emilia le hubiese ido demasiado bien en su matrimonio, de hecho, ese año Elías no había acudido a la famosa cena. Habían decidido separarse y todo el papeleo se hallaba ya en marcha. Ese último año pasarían las navidades con sus respectivas familias. Y eso que Emilia había amado a su marido con cierta intensidad, al principio, claro, luego, con el tiempo, se fue dando cuenta de que él no la amaba de la misma manera; Elías confundía el amor con la posesión de todo su ser, de su tiempo, de sus amistades y de toda su vida. Y eso, ella, no estaba dispuesta a consentirlo, que se buscara a otra, otra como su propia hermana, otra a la que no le importara someterse a las reglas creadas por el hombre ni ver cómo su vida se iba pareciendo a la de un exótico bonsái de sigilosa e inquietante belleza.

Al fin y al cabo, una estatua, eso es lo que quieren todos, una hermosísima estatua con la vida paralizada dentro, bien inmóvil, educadamente discreta y diciendo siempre sí a todo; eso quieren todos ellos, una buena muñeca hinchable que sepa ser puta, criada, virgen, diosa y madre, madre también, claro, de lo contrario ¿cómo se seguiría propagando su especie? Eso pensaba Emilia viendo cómo su hermana retiraba los platos con la ayuda del resto de las mujeres de la familia. Pensó en Lisístrata cuando de nuevo la vio surgir de la profundidad untuosa de la cocina con una fuente espectacular de bizcocho y chocolate helado donde vibraban diecisiete centelleantes bengalas. Eduvigis le dijo a alguien que apagara las luces, su esposa no podía hacerlo todo, claro, ya no le quedaba libre ni una sola mano.

Emilia asistió al tenebroso espectáculo de ver avanzar a su hermana en medio de las oscuridad y los aplausos y sólo iluminada por el alegre chisporroteo de las luces. Ahora sí que le pareció toda una máscara griega, con aquella mueca, que trataba de ser una sonrisa, flotando sobre le tronco de chocolate y el fondo del ojo, impasible y frío, muerto para siempre.

Emilia lloró de dolor y de rabia. Cuando se volvieron a encender las lámparas aún se limpiaba una lágrima que toda la familia confundió con alguna de las cálidas emociones propias de las fechas.

Fue precisamente a los postres, con el champán y antes de que dieran las doce, cuando decidió comunicar a la familia que se separaba; de hecho, Elías y ella ya vivían separados desde hacía algunos meses, sólo se trataba de decir eso, que estaban ya con los trámites y que todo iba bien, dentro de lo que cabe.

Sabía que les dolería, de eso estaba segura, pero no más de lo que también le dolía a ella misma, de eso también estaba segura. Tanto su madre como Elena sentían por su marido una especial veneración, quizá para su madre Elías representaba la imagen del hijo varón que nunca tuvo, y para su hermana…, no sabía lo que significaba para su hermana, tal vez el hermano que tampoco tuvo, tal vez, como para su madre, sólo se tratara de otra imagen fantasmagórica, la del perfecto marido, que ella, desde luego, jamás tendría, a no ser que por uno de esos extraños misterios de la naturaleza, la metamorfosis fuese posible y de la monstruosa caja de Pandora que era el vientre búdico de Eduvigis surgiera de golpe, o por el soplo de cualquier dios, un caballero andante, o un pequeño principito, "o una rana, también eso sería posible, una rana gorda empapada en salsa de alcaparras y nueces", pensó Emilia sonriendo malévolamente al imaginar tal apoteosis.

Emilia sonrió de nuevo, bebió un par de sorbos de aquel Möet et Chandon, que su cuñado guardaba bajo llave con el celo de un insaciable ogro, y comunicó su decisión a esa mesa atónita y paralizada en que de pronto quedó convertida toda su familia: desde la imagen del padre muerto que parecía asomar a las pupilas de la madre, hasta su minúscula sobrinita, todos se quedaron sin habla.
Emilia no esperaba que la primera en romper aquel silencio más duro de tragar que todas las uvas de la noche juntas, fuese Elena, su hermana. Y no lo esperaba, evidentemente, por la simple razón de que llevaba más de treinta años soportando en silencio a aquel espeluznante trasunto de buda que era Eduvigis, su marido.
Pero fue ella, Elena, su hermana, la que surgiendo otra vez de las sombras de la cocina, ahora con las manos ocupadas por nuevas fuentes adornadas de espumillones, gritó.
El resto de los comensales aún quedó más atónito de lo que ya estaba. Nadie de la familia recordaba que Elena supiera gritar. Ella misma tampoco; pero lo hizo, y con todas sus fuerzas, estampando sobre la mesa la fuente de guindas y turrones cuyo contenido se desparramó entre los restos de vino y las refulgentes bolas navideñas:
- "¿Qué estás diciendo, hija de puta? ¿Qué vas a separarte?"
Si en ese instante hubiera caído una tromba de hielo sobre sus cabezas, ninguno de ellos habría visto en tal fenómeno nada insólito.
Elena seguía gritando, encendida y llena de furia, como una auténtica Lisístrata que se hubiera equivocado de escenario.
Aún seguía gritando cuando Emilia se levantó de la mesa y salió de la casa sin despedirse de nadie. Nadie se dio cuenta; todos trataban de calmar a aquella desgraciada bacante que jamás le llegaría a Lisístrata ni al borde de su túnica.
Aún se oían los gritos cuando la reja del portal se cerró a sus espaldas.
Al menos, para ella, sí que comenzaba un Año Nuevo.

De entre las cien consideraciones que se podrían hacer de ese texto se me ocurre una, quizá la menos importante, pero que me ha hecho detener la lectura: se trata del hecho de que los Colegios Mayores, sede del pensamiento juvenil revolucionario en los años sesenta son, en la actualidad la sede del pensamiento más conservador y burgués. ¿Dónde se encuentran hoy los jóvenes con ideales? -Hasta el barrio de Lavapiés comienza a ser un mito-

La próxima vez consulte antes usted, por favor, las normas de ortografía: las palabras con mayúsculas sólo son admisibles en las siglas y en los títulos. Suelo borrar todos los comentarios con mayúsculas, pero éste lo voy a dejar porque demuestra claramente que quien necesita escribir con mayúsculas tiene un superego patológico, que le impide saber ortografía y puntuación, pero le induce a perorar como si supiera y se dirigiera siempre a ignorantes.

No sé si una norma no escrita en este foro impone que los comentarios a los relatos sean siempre elogiosos -al menos yo los he visto casi todos elogiados, por más que algunos fueran pésimos. Así que me arriesgo a decir que a mí el cuento no me ha gustado nada, que está hueco de sustancia narrativa y que lo único que sobrevuela en medio de su pretendido lirismo es una cuestión de denuncia social. Pero las denuncias, al juzgado. Como se lee en el frontispicio de este donosa bitácora: los buenos sentimientos no son garantía de buena literatura. Las buenas causas tampoco, añado.

Mi queridisima Gata: A mi si me gustó el relato. En mi tierra se decía que el revolucionario de hoy será el retrógrado del mañana. Aqui se cumple.

Al hilo de lo que dice Antonio, confieso que no me caracterizo por eludir la crítica ni la polemica.
Respecto a este relato, los personajes me parecen dibujados con un lapiz sin afilar, y sus gruesos trazos me molestan porque el precioso trabajo de orfebre realizado con un lenguaje exacto, preciso, merecería que huyera del retrato sin matices.
Y efectivamente, echo de menos la ironía y la complejidad de otros escritos de Julia Olivares, autora de dos libros que os recomiendo: "Partida de damas" y "El baño de las ninfas".
Sin embargo, para mi mal, he de reconocer que ha retratado una escena que viví como espectadora en una ocasión, y los personajes eran tal cual, horriblemente exactos. Así es que quizás no hay desacuerdo entre el trazo del lápiz para retratar a algunos humanos y el uso del lenguaje, sino que el contraste es lo que subraya el horror de lo narrado.

Da la casualidad de que mi padre, que en paz descanse, se llamaba Eduvigis Ceferino, y no se puede decir que nadie lo tomara por femenino.
Eduvigis, como Asunción, Encarnación y otros, son nombres masculinos y femeninos, según el sexo del que se llame así.

Querida mía: Mi difunto tío Anselmo se hacía llamar Marlene en la intimidad. Proceder a un examen de genitales para decidir si Eduvigis es masculino o femenino parece, a todas luces, excesivo. Santa Eduvigis fue una extravagante viuda con tres hijos y tres hijas (dice su hagiografía), que "alcanzó de su esposo licencia para vivir en castidad y el Buen Enrique, a imitación de su esposa, se obligó también a guardarla". Observa que se trataba de una castidad bastante relajada: seis cachorros. Otro día más detalles sobre esta pareja, que alegro el retiro de las monjas con rudos presidierios disfrazados de albañiles

PORQUE ESCRIBÍ

A Cristina y Angélica

Ahora que quizás, en un año de calma, piense: la poesía me sirvió para esto:
no pude ser feliz, ello me fue negado, pero escribí.

Escribí: fui la víctima de la mendicidad y el orgullo mezclados y ajusticié también a unos pocos lectores;
tendí la mano en puertas que nunca, nunca he visto;
una muchacha cayó, en otro mundo, a mis pies.

Pero escribí: tuve esta rara certeza, la ilusión de tener el mundo entre las manos
—¡qué ilusión más perfecta! como un cristo barroco con toda su crueldad innecesaria—Escribí, mi escritura fue como la maleza de flores ácimas pero flores en fin, el pan de cada día de las tierras eriazas:

una caparazón de espinas y raíces

De la vida tomé todas estas palabras como un niño oropel, guijarros junto al río:
las cosas de una magia, perfectamente inútiles pero que siempre vuelven a renovar su encanto.

La especie de locura con que vuela un anciano detrás de las palomas imitándolas me fue dada en lugar de servir para algo.
Me condené escribiendo a que todos dudarán de mi existencia real, (días de mi escritura, solar del extranjero).
Todos los que sirvieron y los que fueron servidos digo que pasarán porque escribí y hacerlo significa trabajar con la muerte codo a codo, robarle unos cuantos secretos.
En su origen el río es una veta de agua —allí, por un momento, siquiera, en esa altura—luego, al final, un mar que nadie ve de los que están braceándose la vida.
Porque escribí fui un odio vergonzante, pero el mar forma parte de mi escritura misma:
línea de la rompiente en que un verso se espuma yo puedo reiterar la poesía.

Estuve enfermo, sin lugar a dudas
y no sólo de insomnio, también de ideas fijas que me hicieron leer con obscena atención a unos cuantos psicólogos, pero escribí y el crimen fue menor, lo pagué verso a verso hasta escribirlo, porque de la palabra que se ajusta al abismo surge un poco de oscura inteligencia y a esa luz muchos monstruos no son ajusticiados.

Porque escribí no estuve en casa del verdugo ni me dejé llevar por el amor a Dios ni acepté que los hombres fueran dioses ni me hice desear como escribiente ni la pobreza me pareció atroz ni el poder una cosa deseable ni me lavé ni me ensucié las manos ni fueron vírgenes mis mejores amigas ni tuve como amigo a un fariseo ni a pesar de la cólera quise desbaratar a mi enemigo.

Pero escribí y me muero por mi cuenta, porque escribí porque escribí estoy vivo.

Magnifico poema que descubre el interior y lo pone cara al sol. Siempre me han gustado las letras en tono desafiante y humilde a la vez. Pareciera que el poeta se arrancara la piel para exponer el zumo vital, aun a costa de ser lastimado nuevamente, completamente dispuesto a pagar el precio de su osadía. Creo que eso es amor, que recoge en las palabras toda el agua tierna y cristalina que baja de las cumbres para humedecer los labios secos y luego de humedecerlos, hacer que de ellos broten recuerdos y añoranzas que corren al mar, el mar eterno de la poesía. Muchas gracias mi querida gatúbela por este poemita que es tronco de poema. Saludos

ECOLALIA

A las nueve y media de la mañana, la tercera llamada de José me pilló con la paciencia agotada por las cuatrocientas y pico llamadas anteriores: José, como la mayor parte de los habitantes de mi pueblo, no tiene ninguna enfermedad neurológica grave, salvo una estulticia cuidada y abonada con un vocabulario de cien palabras y dos o tres temas de interés exclusivo: la comida, el tiempo y las enfermedades.

-Dígame.
-Hola. ¿Qué estás haciendo?
-José: has llamado en dos horas tres veces para preguntarme qué hago. Ya te lo he explicado: estoy corrigiendo los exámenes... me interrumpes y no me dejas concentrarme. Por favor, no me llames más.
- Es que he venido a almorzar, y mientras se fríen las longanizas, te da tiempo a acercarte... he puesto media docena más a la lumbre. Las hago bien fritas, a fuego lento... porque si no, se queman por fuera y están crudas por dentro, y se indigestan... Como tuve una úlcera hace quince años, tengo que tener cuidado... Venga, vente a almorzar conmigo...
-José, y me da igual como te gusten las longanizas, no me interesa. Ya te he dicho que me aburre oír hablar de comida, del tiempo y...
-Si, bueno, si no puedes venir a almorzar, quedamos esta tarde a merendar... no hace frío, aunque se va a levantar cierzo...
-No, no, y no.
-Mujer, bien tendrás que merendar algo...
-José, escucha, no me apetece, no quiero, me aburro con tu conversación, siempre me cuentas lo mismo una y mil veces, a ver si lo entiendes de una vez...
-Oye, ya te llamo luego, que se me van a quemar las longanizas...
Media hora después, cuando estaba intentando saber qué sabía Ramoncín P. sobre las "gerras punicas" y como había logrado introducir al Señor de los Anillos enmedio, volvió a sonar el teléfono. José otra vez.
-Si.
-Que se me quemaban las longanizas y he tenido que colgar, porque a mí me gustan a fuego lento, bien fritas, y hay que irles dando la vuelta, que si no me da acidez... y te he dejado con la palabra en la boca...
-José, que no me llames más. ¿Lo entiendes? Que no me llames más, que no me llames más –grité llena de ira. Y colgué.
Suena el teléfono. Es José.
-Oye, que se ha cortado...
-No, José, no se ha cortado, he colgado yo.
-Es que no hemos quedado en nada aún para la merienda...
-José, no quiero quedar contigo, ya te he dicho que me aburres, que siempre hablas de comida, del tiempo, de tu úlcera... que repites siempre lo mismo ¡Qué me aburres y estoy harta de tus llamadas y de tu conversación! ¿Me has entendido?
-Bueno, mujer, tú también me dices siempre lo mismo, qué le vamos a hacer, te repites más que la morcilla de cebolla... pero eso no quita para que merendemos... ¿o es que para divertirse hay que matarse de hambre?

PÍOS DESEOS PARA EMPEZAR EL AÑO

Pasada ya la cumbre de la vida, justo del otro lado, yo contemplo un paisaje no exento de belleza en los días de sol, pero en invierno inhóspito.
Aquí sería dulce levantar la casa que en otros climas no necesité, aprendiendo a ser casto y a estar solo.
Un orden de vivir, es la sabiduría.
Y qué estremecimiento, purificado, me recorrería mientras que atiendo al mundo de otro modo mejor, menos intenso, y medito a las horas tranquilas de la noche, cuando el tiempo convida a los estudios nobles, el severo discurso de las ideologías
-o la advertencia de las constelaciones en la bóveda azul...
Aunque el placer del pensamiento abstracto es lo mismo que todos los placeres:
reino de juventud.

HE ESTADO A PUNTO DE SUICIDARME

En Gatopardo no suelo hablar de mis delicuescentes estados de ánimo, no confío a los lectores los entresijos de mis neurastenias, no pido árnica para mis tristezas y mis fracasos personales, y dejo el talante confesional para quien ha de sufrirlo por amistad.

Digamos que no me entusiasma la autobiografía —siempre piadosa— ni las confesiones —siempre mendaces— para arrebatar la simpatía del lector.

Pero este 31 de diciembre de 2005 quiero deciros, sin rubor y sin ocultaciones, como una quinceañera exhibicionista y ególatra, lo que siente mi viejo y cansado corazón alborozado, y hago volatines aun a riesgo de descolocarme la cadera, porque mi júbilo me obliga a danzar por las viejas callejas y abrazar a mis amigos, que me han visto tantos meses hirsuta y acongojada, y es que hoy —¡bendito sea!— acaba el año conmemorativo del centenario de Don Quijote.

¡No lo habría soportado ni un día más sin suicidarme!

Admirada Gatopardo:

Como siempre empieza usted sus escritos tratando de sugerirnos que es una, más o menos venerable anciana, achacosa y de desastrado aspecto.

Es cierto que luego se desmelena contra todo lo que parezca ser "opinión mayoritaria". Me creo yo, que lo hace por eso que alguien dijo, -"ser es ser diferente"-

Se nota que le importa un pimiento lo que, por el contrario, dicen los norteamericanos de Bush "ser diferente es indecente"

Y, lo peor es que, generalmente, sabe exponer brillantes razones que apoyan sus razonamientos; que labia y neuronas no le faltan.

Pero esta vez, no, no estoy de acuerdo con su comentario sobre el centenario del Quijote. Yo, por lo menos, he podido oir y leer muchos interesantes análisis, discusiones y opiniones que me han ayudado a entender mejor lo que esa magnífica obra significa y esconde.

Yo creo que, en realidad, lo que tiene son celos, pelusilla, rabieta y comezón de que don Miguel y el hidalgo Quijana sean casi más conocidos que usted y que, además, no consiga que el Sr. Cervantes participe en Gatopardo.

Además, no me ha sentado bien que me ponga un anuncio de crecepelo especialmente dirigido a mí.

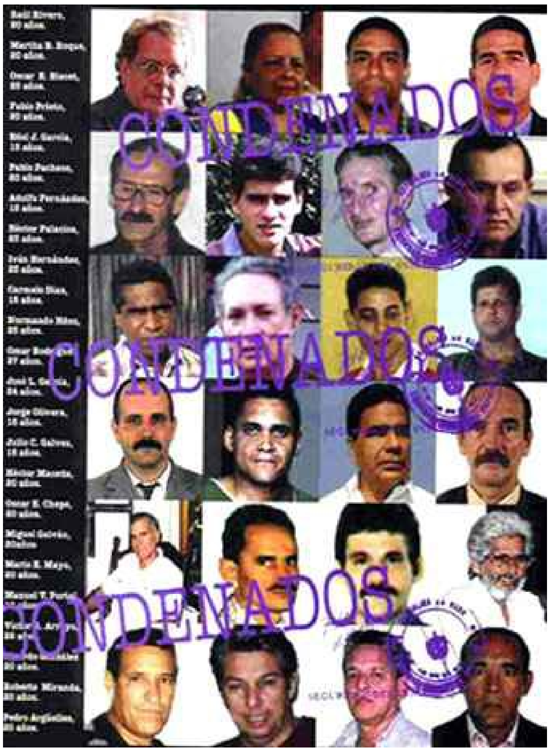
EL CONSEJO ESTATAL DE LOS MEDIOS AUDIOVISUALES NI SE LE HUBIERA OCURRIDO A AZNAR...



Si al Gobierno Aznar se le hubiera ocurrido esto del Consejo Estatal de los Medios Audiovisuales, a estas horas echarían humo las rotativas, la sociedad civil se habría movilizado, las calles hervirían de manifestantes, las bitácoras habríamos agotado las comparaciones con Goebbels y ya lo habríamos rebautizado como el Mengele, el Idi Amin Dada, de la libertad de expresión.
El Gobierno nos está preparando un Consejo Estatal de los Medios Audiovisuales que tendrá «potestad sancionadora» porque sin «la necesaria capacidad de coerción no puede actuar con la eficacia requerida». Actuará cuando considere que una emisora no dice la verdad, no cumple su labor de servicio público, o si sus contenidos no son los apropiados.
Este organismo tendrá facultades de sanción sobre las radios y las televisiones, y es al que se consultará preceptivamente el otorgamiento de las licencias a los operadores; tendrá también «cierta capacidad normativa que ejercerá a través de circulares de desarrollo de leyes y reglamentos», ha de «velar por los contenidos» y por el pluralismo, e «impondrá en su caso las correspondientes sanciones»; y «supervisará, en fin, el cumplimiento de la misión de servicio público por parte del operador público». El artículo 3, en su apartado h, confiere al organismo «potestades de control, inspección y sanción» y lo hace de una manera expresa para el cumplimiento de sus fines.

En los artículos 2 y 3 del texto, en los que el Gobierno al Consejo Estatal amplias funciones, entre las que se establece que dicho organismo pueda «dictar resoluciones vinculantes» con la posibilidad de «adoptar motivadamente las medidas cautelares que estime oportunas» para asegurar el cumplimiento de sus laudos y resoluciones.
El anteproyecto legitima al Consejo para «ejercer acciones judiciales y, específicamente, la acción y cesación y rectificación en materia de contenidos audiovisuales». Sus resoluciones pondrán fin a la vía administrativa, y contra ellas los interesados podrán acudir a los tribunales contencioso-administrativos.
Y ahora que me acuerdo, en sentencia firme, el Tribunal Supremo instó al Gobierno para que deshiciera la operación de concentración entre Antena 3 de Radio y la Cadena SER en 1993, ya que mutiló, según el alto Tribunal, la libertad y la pluralidad informativa... Antena3 era líder de audiencia y el Grupo PRISA la compró para cerrarla, y sumar sus emisores a la SER, y trece años después, los interesados que pudieron acudir a los tribunales contencioso-administrativos siguen esperando que se ejecute la sentencia. El Gobierno, en vez de actuar diligentemente para cumplir con la Ley, prepara una con la que nos vamos a enterar algunos listos, que vamos de bocazas.
La justicia en nuestro país no es un cachondeo, es de caracter gaséoso y volatil, y se adapta al envase y a la utilidad última con parsmonia.
El Consejo Estatal de los Medios Audiovisuales estará compuesto por un presidente y seis consejeros, uno de los cuales será elegido como vicepresidente. Tanto el presidente como los consejeros serán nombrados por el Gobierno mediante real decreto a propuesta del Congreso de los Diputados, aprobada por la mayoría de dos tercios. El texto prevé que los consejeros «serán elegidos entre personas de reconocido prestigio y competencia profesional».
Es decir, que todo éso lo decidirán siete pesebreros, designados a dedo por el Gobierno, y con dos tercios del parlamento. Y, a partir de ese momento, estos ciudadanos sabrán lo que es la verdad, qué es útil como servicio público y qué es lo apropiado en un programa de radio y de televisión.
¡Áteme usted esa mosca por el rabo! Lo que los filósofos en miles de libros no han conseguido averiguar para llegar a un acuerdo, unos cuantos estómagos agradecidos lo sabrán y actuarán sin titubeos.
Afortunadamente, esto se le ocurrió al Gobierno de Rodríguez Zapatero y aquí no pasa nada: los insurrectos de izquierdas somos obedientes y leales defensores de los desmanes de los nuestros. Aquí, para callar a los periodistas y a los intelectuales no es necesario llegar a los extremos que llega Fidel Castro: aquí se reparten comisiones de servicio con un sueldo bastante por encima de los meritos, y todos tan contentos, porque esto es una Democracia. Y a los que nos da vergüenza ajena y consideramos que esto es lisa y llanamente una Ley-mordaza, una Ley que instituye la censura, independientemente de quien la patrocine, siempre se nos puede tachar de "resentidos" o "fascistas".

Un abrazo entrañable para quienes sacudieron mi modorra y me sirvieron de ejemplo: a ardibeltza que resumió lo que pienso en "Bienvenida, Censura, te echaba de menos"; y para Melytta de La mirada del Cíclope que se hizo eco en "Desde un portátil...por la libertad de expresión": libertad de expresión para todos, incluidos los adversarios, los opositores, los críticos, porque su silencio significaría la impunidad de los liberticidas.

Artículo 19 de la Declaración Universal de los Derechos Humanos: Todo individuo tiene derecho a la libertad de opinión y de expresión; este derecho incluye el de no ser molestado a causa de sus opiniones, el de investigar y recibir informaciones y opiniones, y el de difundirlas, sin limitación de fronteras, por cualquier medio de expresión.
Bajo el Gobierno de Rodríguez Zapatero habrá que hacer una salvedad y añadirle: "...si el Consejo Audiovisual lo permite y Polanco no lo impide."

Desgraciadamente (odio utilizar esta palabra para lamentarme, y odio utilizarla demasiadas veces como sinónimo de impotencia)queda demostrado de nuevo que los derechos humanos sólo fué una ilusión pasajera. Y que los medios de comunicación és un instrumento demasido poderoso para que los políticos, los partidos y los grupos de poder, los dejen ser libres. Lo que és totalmente indigno és que quienes defienden con tanto ahínco el derecho a la libertad se callen por un puñado de prevendas.Esperemos que no consideren los blogs cómo medios de comunicación porqué las multas iran que chutan. Yo no pienso callarme nada. Un abrazo Esa ley creo que vulnera la Constitución. Espero que muchos de los que ahora se llenan la boca con ella, lo denuncien como es de recibo.

yo también estoy indignada con estos gilipollas. Me pregunto si saben lo que están haciendo...me pregunto? no, ya no es la primera vez que pasa, estos memos de sociatas hacen las leyes que posiblemente ellos no lleguen a aplicar, pero que sí que aplicarán al pie de la letra los del próximo gibierno del PP.

por qué les gustará tanto legislar para la derecha??

Un cordial saludo.

Para aquellos que tuviesen dudas que la estrategia global neoliberal va más alla de unas siglas políticas, este proyecto de ley es demoledor.

Veo que estas muy influencia por los medios de comunicación, hay que hacer un ejercicio de limpieza psicológico de desprogramación y verlos como meras correas de treansmisión, cada día más mediocres, vulgares.

PP o PSOE, meras pantallas proyectivas de un único sistema.

¿ Para cuando las plataformas ciudadanas ? ¿ seremos capaces ?.

Vivimos en el siglo XXI con extrusturas del XX y pensamiento político del XIX.

La falta de cultura democrática, sustituida por la mentalidad mafiosa, permitió que el PSOE aprobara la Ley Corcuera, la de la patada en la puerta, que fue declarada anticonstitucional; y que no se haya encontrado al misterioso "X" del GAL, que todos conocemos; y esta Ley no se hace para que legisle la derecha, es que el PSOE es la derecha, y hasta que los votantes de izquierda no comprendan eso tan elemental, tendremos ni más ni menos que los gobernantes que merecemos: unos corruptos que se amaparan de poder para legislar al margen de la Constitución y saltarse las Leyes.El PSOE español es una copia del PRI de México: las mismas tácticas mafiosas.

Pasándose por el arco del triunfo lo que dijo el Tribunal Supremo, mira estos chicos:"El dictamen del Tribunal de Defensa de la Competencia (TDC) sobre la nueva fusión solicitada por la Cadena SER y Antena 3 Radio autoriza esta concentración, si la empresa resultante cumple seis condiciones, entre ellas, la enajenación de trece emisoras:

"La operación notificada supone un obstáculo al mantenimiento de la competencia efectiva en el mercado afectado, por lo que sólo debe autorizarse si se somete a las condiciones señaladas en el dictamen de este informe".

El texto del TDC, difundido este jueves,incluye entre sus condiciones "el respeto al pluralismo informativo", en los términos previstos por la nueva redacción de la disposición adicional sexta de la Ley de Ordenación de las Telecomunicaciones (LOT)."
Par que nos vayamos enterando para qué y para quien se legisla.

Totalmente de acuerdo. Desgraciadamente muchas de las decisiones que se toman hoy son controladas por la singular separación de poderes que padecemos los subditos de este Estado cuando en realidad deberían recaer en las manos de los ciudadanos. Es triste que los medios sólo se preocupen a la hora de hacer ruido y cuando a ellos les atañe, mientras la sociedad civil permanece malherida.

Hemos de ser nosotros los que derribemos a los que mienten y calumnian, pues de otro modo corremos el peligro de ver como la verdad se nos impone desde arriba. Para ello se necesita una sociedad madura, y me temo que no la tenemos.

Lo que está claro es que no se puede permitir que se siga mintiendo e insultando, algo habrá que hacer al respecto. Pero algo distinto a lo que se está planteando.

A la libertad de prensa se antepone el derecho a la intimidad, el honor y la propia imagen, y con esto nuestra Constitución regula sobradamente cualquier irregularidad (en casos muy concretos) que pudiera darse en el tema, que las puede haber, y de hecho las hay, sobre todo las provenientes de cierto personaje de cierta cadena de radio, esto no me lo quita nadie.
Lo del dichoso proyecto, una patinada y de las grandes, y si siguen adelante, el precio político considerable.
Ciertos lobbys deberían se más comedidos para no matar la gallina de los huevos de oro.

La posibilidad de control o cierre de medios de comunicación es un insulto a la democracia. Pero yo creo que algunos se rasgan las vestiduras cuando es el partido "contrario" el que promueve estas normas.

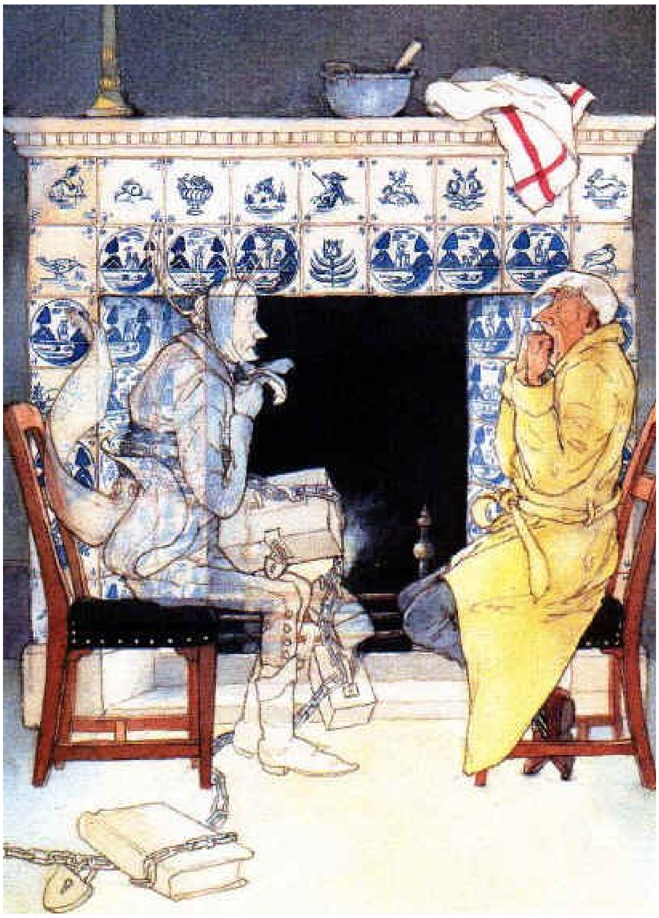
ALIMAÑA PRESENTA: RUMOR DE DITIRAMBOS, LLOROS, PÉSAMES...



Señoras, señores, damas, caballeros, doncellas, galanes, mozas y mancebos: tengo el placer, el gusto, la delicia, el deleite, la delectación y el escorrozo de presentarles esta conmovedora elegía fúnebre, este epicedio insigne, este réquiem perisológico entonado por un filólogo a la muerte de su padre. Paladeen con fruición la prolijidad, el pleonasmo, el ribete, el fárrago y el follaje retórico de este arquetípico ejemplo de tonto circunstanciado, de pedante albardado o asno bachiller. Su pobre padre debió de morir de perforación timpánica, maldiciendo la hora, el mes y el año que se le ocurrió regalarle al imbécil de su hijo el Diccionario Ideológico de Julio Casares y el Espasa de Sinónimos y Antónimos.

RUMOR DE DITIRAMBOS, LLOROS, PÉSAMES..
Padre, silabeo tu nombre. Eu-se-bio, y ya no me deslumbran sus fanales esplendentes o reverberos piadosos, íngrimos, sino que me espantan sus sombras atezantes, atenazantes, atemorizantes, disfrazadas de amazonas apocalípticas y enmascaradas con antifaces pálidos.
Padre, te acabas de difumar, difuminar, esfumar o esfuminar (puedes escoger el verbo que más te guste o quedarte, si así te peta y place, con la pareja, el triunvirato, el completo cuarteto propuesto o con ningún naipe del poker y rehusar la redondilla entera o el serventesio integro, o sea, ad libitum), pero no nos has dejado sólo tu solo cuerpo inerte, sino también un legado formidable o relicto caudaloso, una manera hábil, mágica, útil, válida (reputada arquetipo, dechado y/o espejo, donde mirar y mirarse para ver bien), definitiva y prodigiosa de y para afrontar dificultades y/o arrostrar problemas, de y para encontrar escapatorias a los callejones sin salida y/o las mejores soluciones y mejoras a todo y para todos.
De luto, padre, así estamos quienes te quisimos y veneramos entonces y ahora, las y los que hay, durante esta noche triste, dura hasta tener que soportar lo inaguantable, escuchar, verbigracia, indignadas/os, cómo ciertos pesaméferos y determinadas plañideras ríen las gracias a/de la crueldad, nos hemos sentido impelidos y visto obligados a clamar ¡basta ya! y nos hemos persuadido a (seguirte) que te siguieran y aprendieran (aprendiéramos) a admirarte (readmirante) tras conocer (reconocer) y considerar (reconsiderar) inobjetablemente eficaz y edificante el luengo y diuturno calvario que con tanta dignidad y con tanto aplomo has coronado/cubierto/recorrido. Evoco en esta noche oscura del alma, en estas horas áridas (y, al alimón, feraces) en las que descuella el desconsuelo, escala el escalofrío, manda el llanto y reina la resignación, circunstancias sin alivio y sin remedio ni remiendo junto a tu cuerpo exánime, las últimas tardes que pasé contigo (estando tú todavía lúcido), a la vera de tu cama, en las que tú fascinabas con los argumentos, subterfugios, propuestas y tesis políticamente incorrectos/as con los/as que me descolgaba y desplegaba, irreverente, aún incompletos/as, ante tus ojos/oídos epatados y yo sonreía franca, que no (sé) sardónicamente y te decía (y)e (re)iteraba que con comportamientos modélicos de beatos, semidioses, paráclitos, jesucristos o santos que remedar.
Padre, tú has sido, eres y serás, para quienes te tratamos (y ahora tratamos de retratar), encarnación ejemplar de la lucha omnímoda, total, sin cuartel, que el ser humano es capaz de librar contra el mal y, acaso valga y no huelgue la redundancia, la enfermedad, de su resistencia y de su resiliencia. Esa alhaja, ese lujo sin ajar, no lo (en)cerraremos, meteremos ni tapiaremos mañana, padre, cuando enhichemos tu cuerpo marcesible, enmohecible, enmudecido. Esa joya portátil, prendible, imperdible, ese bagaje libre y liviano viajará con nosotros mientras tengamos memoria y con otros cuando nos hayamos quedado sin plaza en el mundo, o sea, se nos hayan agotado el plazo y las prórrogas, es decir, hayamos expirado todos tus deudos.

SUB ROSA REGÁS: UNA CANCIÓN DESAFINADA

Autor: Clandestino Menéndez clandestino@literaturas.com Capítulo de " Cuadernos Críticos 01" (PVP 12,50€) Para pedidos: Literaturas.com

Crítica acompasada de la novela "La canción de Dorotea", de Rosa Regás, ganadora del 50º Premio Planeta ¡50 años! ¡100 millones!
Esta fue la cantinela que, durante varias semanas, meses incluso, pudo escucharse a todo lo largo, ancho y gordo de nuestro país. ¡El Premio Planeta llega a su quincuagésimo aniversario! ¡El premio más cuantioso nunca entregado! ¡100 millones! ¡Esto es importancia, y no aquellos otros reconocimientos mindundis que se despachan con una plaquita o un diploma enrollado! Durante varias semanas, meses incluso, las páginas culturales de los periódicos, los suplementos y revistas literarias, las cadenas de radio y televisión... en todas partes se difundía la noticia, se realizaban reportajes, monográficos, portadas, se llevaba a cabo un extenso despliegue publicitario para un acontecimiento, al fin y a la postre, editorial y privado, cuya promoción a cualquier otro le hubiera salido por un cataplín pero que don José María el "Avispado" solucionó con cincuenta kilos -que es lo que ha subido el forraje del premio- y un par de llamadas a sus contactos en el ministerio, que le aseguraron la presencia de los reyes, varios ministros, y unos cuantos diputados, subsecretarios, gobernadores y demás gente de poco más o menos con afán de figurar. Tal fue el quincuagésimo premio Planeta de los cien millones... un gran suceso que, como los terremotos, los incendios y otras catástrofes, tuvo secuelas y rebrotes de menor intensidad, en forma de presentaciones, entrevistas, fotos, coloquios con Rosa Regás, la ganadora, de invitada, reportajes en suplementos culturales: Rosa Regás nos enseña su casa...
Cierto día, mientras paseaba, este crítico vio el libro ganador del Planeta: La canción de Dorotea, expuesto en lugar destacado en una librería y envuelto en papel de celofán. Picado un tanto por la curiosidad entró a comprarlo. 2.900 pesetas, le dijo el dependiente sin el menor rubor. Ciscándose, por cierto, en todos aquellos que dicen velar por el bien de la cultura y ponen los libros a este precio absolutamente disparatado, el crítico no obstante le tendió al dependiente el dinero. Se aproximaban, a todo esto, las fiestas navideñas, y el hortera (quiero decir, el dependiente) consideró acertado preguntar: ¿se lo envuelvo para regalo, señor? No, gracias, respondió el crítico, es para mí. Me lo voy a leer. Puso el otro cara de extrañeza suma, y aún insistió: ¿de verdad no quiere que se lo envuelva? No, gracias, es para leérmelo. Con cierta sensación, no sabría decir por qué, de tipo raro, abandonó el crítico el establecimiento con el libro bajo el brazo, e introduciéndose en la primera cafetería, rompió el celofán, tiró la faja que pregonaba era la quinta edición del libro, 230.000 ejemplares vendidos, y comenzó a leer. A leer y a anotar:

Página 9, primera del texto: La novela empieza con la descripción de una tal Adelita. ¡Y qué descripción! El simple inicio: "Era una mujer tan baja que...", propio de un chiste de colegiales, no augura nada bueno. En efecto, al poco se nos habla de que los brazos de la mujer eran "cortos y fornidos, disparados hacia el exterior por el tórax vigoroso". Como el monstruo de Frankenstein, se entiende, aunque Rosa Regás sin duda quería decir proyectados hacia adelante, porque eso de unos brazos "disparados hacia el exterior"... ¿Y cómo iban a estar si no? ¿Conoce usted a alguien en este planeta, señora Regás, que tenga los brazos "disparados hacia el interior"? Pero sigue, sigue el agreste retrato: dichos brazos expansivos "remataban su aspecto de aborigen en proceso de extinción". Se conoce (yo no lo sabía) que el aspecto de los aborígenes cambia dependiendo de si están en proceso de extinción o en franco ascenso demográfico. Sigue diciendo la autora que "la coincidencia de medidas entre la longitud y la anchura es lo que convertía (a esta Adelita) en un ser tan singular". ¡Coño, tan singular! Como que, si nos fiamos de tus palabras, era un ladrillo de la construcción andante.

Ahora en serio, a cualquier lector con un mínimo de gusto le bastan estas 18 líneas de la tosca descripción de Adelita para sospechar que este libro no puede ser bueno.

En esta misma página y siguiente: Se nos cuenta cómo Adelita, que ya hemos visto era un mazacote, dada su constitución morfológica tuvo problemas para sacarse el carnet de conducir (tendría problemas, digo yo, para entrar en los coches). Se examinó seis veces pero nada, "achacó los fracasos de sus exámenes a la mala idea de los examinadores", y al final optó por comprarse una mobilette. Que la frivolidad impera hoy día en la novelística española es cosa sabida, pero ni el más pesimista hubiera esperado nunca encontrarse con un principio como éste para una novela premiada y bendecida por los medios. ¡Las tribulaciones de una señora bajita para sacarse el carnet de conducir!

Página 11: La protagonista-narradora nos cuenta que, como luego advirtió, y contrariamente al resto de las personas, la tal Adelita tenía la costumbre de mirar fijamente a los ojos de su interlocutor cada vez que mentía, y de bajar la cabeza avergonzada cuando decía la verdad. Inefablemente. Es una cosa de la que se dio cuenta, dice, "mucho más tarde, casi al final de la historia". Sin embargo, nos lo cuenta ahora. Fácil es imaginar por qué. Ya me veo cómo, a lo largo de toda la novela, cada vez que la autora converse con esta rarísima Adelita, nos hará la pertinente acotación: ora me miraba de frente, ora miraba al suelo. Un modo de trazar psicologías y tensión en las escenas sencillamente burdo.

Pag. 12: Las debidas presentaciones entre Adelita y la autora, quien la va a emplear en su casa como asistenta. El bodoque le da como referencia que ha estado sirviendo en la casa de los señores Álvarez. "¿Los Álvarez de Álvarez y Bonmatí?, pregunté". Ya estamos haciendo gala del porte alcurne y aristocrático que últimamente les ha dado por adoptar a todos estos nuevos ricos de la literatura. La Grandes, por ejemplo, no pierde ocasión de recordar que ella pertenece a la noble familia de los Alcántara y Churrasco, la Etxebarría a la que puede suelta que ella ha estudiado en el Liceo Anglosajón, la Freire, más modosita, habla de las fincas de sus abuelos. Parecen aquellos cristianos nuevos desenterrando y traficando con osamentas, que denunciara Quevedo. A ésta le ha dado por los Álvarez de Álvarez. "Sí, esos, ¿los conoce?", responde Adelita, "y me miró fijamente un instante". ¿No te digo yo, lector? Vamos a estar con esta tontería de me miró, no me miró, hasta el final de la novela.

Pag. 13: A ver si estamos a lo que estamos, Rosita. En las novelas, por muy a la transilvana que se hagan, hay que guardar un cierto tono sostenido. No puede ser que en un párrafo un personaje esté mirando el paisaje "con esa melancolía que dulcifica el espíritu y se empeña en esconder la inquietud que lo ronda", al siguiente se nos presente a Adelita encima de la mobilette de un modo grotesco ("el casco dominaba la figura que se hundía en el asiento"), más o menos como la hormiga atómica. y al otro párrafo la autora retome el tono ridículamente ampuloso para decir "no era tranquila la voz de mi conciencia". O se narra (mal) a lo cursi, o se narra (mal) a lo chusco, pero no pueden ser las dos cosas a un tiempo. Salvo que exista una profunda ironía, pero (ay, Rosita, ¿verdad?) no es este el caso.

Pag. 15: Una muestra del cuidado estilo regasiano: "(Adelita) me subía una taza de té que yo le agradecía del mismo modo que lo hacía...". Un poco más abajo, una muestra de cómo la autora no es una experta precisamente en la puntuación: de "un reconocimiento" hasta "siguientes", 35 palabras, que en total forman cinco oraciones, con adverbios y demás, y ni una sola coma entre ellas.
En esta misma página: Parida memorable, claro ejemplo de lo que es escribir sin cabeza. Adelita es muy eficiente en el cuidado del anciano padre de la protagonista: lo lavaba, lo afeitaba, "una perla". Tanto es así de laboriosa y abnegada que, el día que murió el padre, "fue ella la que se ocupó de limpiar el cadáver y amortajarlo, y organizar el entierro (...), sustituyendo en su labor a los empleados de la funeraria, que no pusieron objeción ninguna a que alguien les hiciera el trabajo". Queda ahí para las antologías del parto.
Pag. 16: El anciano padre de la protagonista "era mayor y estaba un tanto atropellado". Por eso debió de ser que se fue de Barcelona buscando la paz de un pueblo en las montañas.
Pag. 17 (o, lo que es lo mismo, ni una sin chorradas): El padre de la protagonista tenía contratados a unos pastores "que andaban por los campos en barbecho o en las lindes de los caminos y los bosques con la radio a todo volumen ahuyentando a los motoristas que cruzaban los prados en busca de peligros". Ante esto cabe preguntar: ¿por qué andaban los pastores por las lindes y no por los caminos? ¿Por qué la radio ahuyentaba a los motoristas? ¿Tan mala era la música? Y si unos andaban por los barbechos y otros por los prados, ¿qué les importaba a cada cual del otro? ¿Y cuáles son los peligros que hay para un motorista en un prado? ¿Y por qué los buscaban? Y así mil preguntas, todas causadas por la indigencia del lenguaje, el estilo y la lógica.
En esta misma página y siguiente: El anciano caballero iba los domingos al pueblo a jugar al dominó y solía ocurrir que "le acometía uno de sus ataques de violencia verbal". Entonces les soltaba a sus compañeros de partida un rollo macabebe sobre su hija, a la que ha enviado a estudiar Biología Molecular "por el ancho mundo" (esta expresión, por cierto, Rosa, no la usan ya ni los monjes trapenses), sobre su yerno "que era un enloquecido artista de izquierdas" (esto de enloquecido artista es nuevo, verdaderamente, pero casi, Rosa, que visto el resultado preferíamos lo antiguo), sobre el estado de sus negocios, sobre mil cosas. "El discurso podía ser interminable, pero siempre acababa con las mismas palabras: Y si al morir dejo la hacienda mermada (¡toma ya!), no por esto voy a sentir el menor remordimiento, también yo tengo derecho a cantar mi propia canción". Antes estas disertaciones dominicales a nadie debe extrañar que los jugadores trasladaran la partida al bar de al lado, lo más lejos posible de este pelma.
Pag. 21: Adelita la blocoide decide adoptar el papel de ama de llaves "como pasó a denominarse a sí misma, según probablemente habría visto en alguna película". Tal chirrido de dientes me ha provocado esta atroz expresión que todos los clientes de la cafetería se vuelven a mirarme, asustados.
Pag. 22: Adelita la paralelepípeda, ahora en papeles de enfermera, "se ponía alrededor de la cabeza el fonendoscopio". Para mí tengo que no sabía usarlo. Pero es sólo una opinión.
Pag. 29: Adelita miente más que un futurólogo. La señora Regás, en estado de gracia literaturil, al soltar trolas prefiere denominarlo "los hechos no coincidían con los de su vida" (expresión, además, fatal, porque no son hechos, Rosa, sino dichos o palabras, eso te pasa por meterte en retóricas). Pero esto es lo de menos. Lo de más es que, durante cerca de diez páginas, la Regás nos ha pintado que su personaje es una mentirosa a base de hacerla soltar y soltar y soltar embustes a cual más descabellado y siempre con la mirada fija. Esta buena mujer ignora por completo lo que es la sugerencia (que está emparentada con el arte), prefiere antes la acumulación (que está emparentada con la palabrería y el chismorreo). ¿Que hay que mostrar a un personaje como mentiroso? Nueve páginas diciendo mentiras, a veces tan absurdas, y punteadas, además, por lo de la mirada fija, que no es ilógico pensar que esta mujer toma a sus lectores por tontos.
Adelita seguirá mintiendo un par de páginas más, por si acaso quedara algún lector despistado.
Pag. 37: A la protagonista le ocurre lo siguiente: "al ir a poner el dinero que había sacado del banco para pagar una serie de facturas en la pequeña caja fuerte empotrada en la pared del fondo del cuarto de armarios, que yo usaba como vestidor..." Aquí los familiares de la Regás tuvieron que separarla a viva fuerza del ordenador, en cuyas teclas se había cebado y no había manera de hacerla parar. Lo digo en serio: esto es imposible escribirlo a mano. Se descoyunta uno la muñeca.
Pag. 38: El caso es que dicha caja fuerte estaba abierta y por la mente de la protagonista pasa: "una sombra de inquietud, esa misma sombra que nos hace dudar de una situación cuando no es exactamente igual que la que dejamos". Cuán cierto es esto. Yo acabo de entrar a orinar al servicio de la cafetería y, cuando al salir he visto que uno que estaba entonces sentado está ahora sacando tabaco de la máquina, me he llevado un sobresalto increíble. Lo mismo me ocurre cuando llego de trabajar y veo que, un coche que había aparcado cuando me fui, ya no está. ¡Qué inquietudes, Rosa, estoy contigo!

Un poco más abajo: Total, que la han robado una sortija. "Lo había sabido con ese conocimiento vago pero firme que sólo reconocemos como tal una vez se ha comprobado que era cierto lo que pronosticaba aquella inicial alarma" Esto, sencillamente, es indescifrable: conocimientos vagos pero firmes que se reconocen cuando se comprueban... No hay lógica por ninguna parte. Pero es que la cosa sigue, oh lector episcopaliano y discotequero, durante seis líneas más, todo en estos términos incomprensibles, para llegar a la sesuda conclusión de que es "como si hubiera un orden oculto pero inmutable, según el cual, si no se les presta atención, las cosas se esconden, desaparecen".
Como habrá advertido el lector que los siga, una de las más curiosas costumbres de los novelistas españoles actuales es ponerse a filosofar sobre la nada para llegar a supinas tonterías. Parece que no, pero tiene su mérito.
Pag. 44: La protagonista desconfía de Adelita. Entonces la interroga muy sutilmente. El interrogatorio se centra en sus hijos y aquí el estilo regasiano se zambulle ya en el puro chismorreo y charla de vecindario: que si uno de los hijos está pintando la casa, que si las motos las compraron de segunda mano, que si el otro era albañil pero le despidieron, que si el mayor está casado y vive en... Esto es lo que tiene la literatura de consumo, que le consume a uno.
Bromas aparte, la novela hasta aquí ha sido mala, pero en este tramo resulta nefasta. Los ímprobos esfuerzos de la Regás por crear una trama tal que de misterio en torno a la desaparición de una sortija causan vergüenza por delegación. La conversación al estilo de las novelas policiacas que sostienen la protagonista y el sargento de la Guardia Civil a quien va a denunciar el robo (a todo esto, porque se lo recomiendan por teléfono, que a ella no se le había ocurrido) es, sencillamente, demencial. Renuncio a comentarla; me limito a transcribir una frase de ella para que se haga el lector una idea del tenor general: "Quien tan bien sabía que yo estaba ausente sabría también que en mi casa saben siempre dónde estoy" (pag. 50).
Si la conversación con el guardia civil no había sido bastante, va también a hablar con la policía. Al encontrarse ante el comisario (pag. 53) "luché por dar a mi mirada un aire de normalidad". Aparte de la expresión horrenda, ¿por qué hacer esto? ¿Por qué aparentar normalidad en una comisaria, cuando precisamente si uno va a comisaria es porque ha ocurrido algo excepcional? ¿Y cómo se aparenta esa normalidad? ¿Mirando de reojo? Cuánta memez, San Peroncio Bendito.
En esta misma página: Conversación con el policía. Ella sentada, él de pie, "dándose golpecitos en la mano con un abrecartas" (topicazo excelso). "Yo lo seguía con la vista y torcía la cabeza cuando no alcanzaba a verlo porque caminaba a mi espalda" (contorsionismo sublime).
Después de tres páginas enteras de un diálogo de percebes, la protagonista, al fin, sale muy contenta de comisaría en la página 56 "porque este policía se valdría de sus hilos ocultos y me devolvería la sortija y la paz". Una novicia que se hubiera dedicado toda su vida a hacer almendras garrapiñadas no tendría esta visión tan candorosa de la policía. Ni redactaría de modo tan melifluo.
La protagonista, después de denunciar el robo, se pierde durante un par de páginas en consideraciones de este estilo: "Por una parte, no podía decirle (a Adelita) lo que sabía porque había que procurar que fuera ella la que confesara por sí misma (no conozco yo ningún caso en que alguien haya confesado por boca de otro, pero bueno). Por otra, no decírselo me parecía improcedente, porque no hacía más que mantener esta situación absurda en la que ella, yo estaba segura, sabía que yo sabía". Eso de "saber que yo sé" se conoce que lo oyó la Regás en un teleflín y le gustó mucho, porque va ya para la cuarta vez que emplea esta expresión o parecida. Por lo demás, éste es el tipo de dudas chorridentas que asaltan a los personajes de cartón piedra que no tienen ni la más mínima conexión con la realidad.
Pag. 60: En esas consideraciones chirles van camino de darle las uvas. Efectivamente, "ésa sería la penúltima noche del año, pero ninguna señal había en el cielo que anticipara el cambio de cifras que traería consigo el año próximo". Pero cómo que "pero no había", Rosa, joder, ¿desde cuándo ha habido en el cielo señal alguna de cambio de fecha? Deja ya de hablar por hablar, coño.
Pag. 61: A Adelita la cúbica le da como un ataque epiléptico. "Se había convertido en un amasijo de bultos indescifrables que buscaba en vano su lugar y su forma en aquella penumbra". Mira por donde, y sin querer, la señora Regás me ha dado la definición exacta para el estilo de este libro: un bulto indescifrable.

Pag. 63: El sargento del puesto llama a la protagonista a una hora intempestiva para decirle que Adelita está allí. "Ya sabe, añadió con voz de entendido, el criminal siempre vuelve al lugar del crimen".
Esto ya ha pasado de oscuro a tétrico. Esto ofende la inteligencia de un niño de tres años. Esto es un engaño, un timo, un insulto en toda regla al público, a quien se está presentando "esta cosa" como lo más señalado del panorama novelístico actual, auspiciado por todos los gerifaltes culturales y alharacado desde todos los medios de comunicación. Este libro bastaría, por sí sólo, como señal de alarma contra todos esos negociantes sin escrúpulos de la cultura, directores de suplementos, críticos que hacen la estatua, escritores cobistas y zalameros que han sumido a la novelística española en un auténtico lodazal. Bastaría, sí, si aún quedara un amago de decencia, pero esta señal de alarma no se oirá. Pasará ante el silencio cómplice de la crítica cucharera y fondona, como pasó "lo de" Maruja, "lo de" Montero, "lo de" Gala, "lo de" Umbral...
Sigo, en fin, con esta crítica, irónica en la medida de lo posible. Pero quisiera hacer constar que, en el fondo, la cosa no tiene ni puta gracia.
Pag. 70: "¿Qué será de mí ahora?", exclama Adelita luego de confesar su delito. "¿Dónde han quedado mi honor, mi vergüenza?". La referencia al honor y el tono de la invocación (sólo le falta decir ¡oh, cielos!) es, como verá cualquier lector atento, algo muy propio de los tiempos que vivimos.
Pag. 74: Los sentimientos de la protagonista-narradora hacia Adelita, su criada, tal como están contados, carecen de toda lógica y coherencia. Con anterioridad, y al menos durante doce páginas, nos la ha estado tildando de embustera, y ha confesado que, aguantar sus bolas, "era el precio que tenía que pagar por estar bien atendida". Es decir, que hay establecida entre ellas una relación jefa-empleada de lo más vulgar. Justo después de decir esto, a la señora le desaparece una sortija (algo también de lo más vulgar, Rosa Regás, por más que quieras presentarlo como un misterio insondable de reminiscencias cósmicas), se descubre que la ha birlado Adelita, y allá que va el cubo de Rubik al talego. ¿Es lógico que ante esto la protagonista exclame a renglón seguido: "La noche era tenebrosa. Como mi espíritu"? ¿Es coherente que se pase media noche en vela con preguntas como: "¿Qué pasaría con ella? ¿Volvería o no volvería? Y, ¿qué tenía que hacer yo? ¿Tenía que despedir a la mujer...?"
Pag. 76: Cansada de hacerse preguntas tan inútiles como impropias de la situación, decide irse a dormir. "Una vez en la cama me puse a leer El peregrino secreto, de John Le Carré que debía de estar allí". ¡Coño, qué sorpresa! ¡Eso sí que no me lo esperaba! ¡Pídele un autógrafo! Y, de paso, dile que te enseñe a utilizar las comas.
En la página siguiente comienza a hablarnos la protagonista-narradora de su padre. Y, como la mayoría de los novelistas hodiernos, Rosa Regás se limita a "decirnos", así a secas, como es (en este caso, como era) el anciano, pero no nos lo presenta, no nos lo hace vivo, no nos da siquiera sea una muestra del carácter hosco y el comportamiento huraño que se supone tenía el viejo. Menguada hasta lo más extremo de imaginación para componer hubiera bastado con una escena, reveladora de la atrabiliaria personalidad del viejo, hemos de conformarnos a cambio con toda una balumba de palabras (casi cuatro páginas) y sentencias, dichas todas en un tono falsamente literario, impostado y ridículo. Cuatro páginas hablando de "su imperio (que) no había muerto con él", de "esa torre de autoridad y trueno que yacería un día desmoronada a mi merced", de "sus arrebatos, su ira, su afán justiciero". Cuatro páginas, en fin, de humo y monserga vacua, del peor rollo literario, que acaban por hacer saltar en defensa del anciano a cualquier lector neutral y mansurrento: Pero bueno, si a este hombre, quitando allá la brasa que les suelta a sus compañeros de dominó, no le hemos visto en ningún rincón del libro hacer nada "tiránico" ni ejercer ningún "imperio" ¿Por qué se pone usted así con él?
Pero el alter ego de Rosita es tan buena que, en la página 80, todo este rencor se le ha olvidado. La embarga entonces la melancolía y su pluma se derrite en merengue batido. "No sabemos que amamos hasta que desaparece el ser amado. O, mejor dicho (sí, a ver, explícate mejor), no sentimos la verdadera profundidad del amor hasta que se ha ido, por breve y escaso que haya sido ese amor". ¿Y qué me dices, Rosa, de los largos y pesados que acaban en divorcio? Pero nada, ella ha tomado carrerilla y sigue, sigue por este absurdo camino de frases hechas sobre el amor y de ideas empiringotadas, que le ahorran el trabajo de pararse a recapacitar sobre lo que está diciendo. "¡Qué fácil nos habría sido una caricia! ¡Qué poco me habría costado acariciarle la calva!” Y en este tono de poesía acariciante sigue la exposición hasta que autora, protagonista y lectores caen rendidos por el más profundo sopor.

Es Regás la que se levanta primero y despierta a su protagonista "Tenía que estar en el juzgado a las doce". Camino del juzgado, en la página 82, "un espejo en la pared me devolvió la imagen de mi rostro. Era el mío (convenía puntualizarlo), pero ahora me parecía el rostro de una desconocida". Y al hilo de esto se lanza Rosa a una descripción de la protagonista que sonroja al lector, tal es la incapacidad total, absoluta y lamentable de esta mujer para construir el retrato de una persona. En este caso balbucea cuatro sandeces de lo más vulgar: "había descubierto el primer cabello blanco", "la piel era morena, lo mismo en invierno que en verano, aunque no tomara el sol", "me encontraba horrible", "¿no podrías ir a la peluquería, como todo el mundo, al menos una vez por semana?" (esto se lo dice una voz interior), "¿cuántos años me echaría la gente". En fin, de escándalo.
Página 83: Adelita llega al juzgado. "Llegó en un furgón del que descendió con dos guardias civiles, uno a cada lado". Así dicho, tal parecen los picoletos dos garrafas de aceite que transportarse la mujer en jarras. Además, Rosa, ¿no te parece un poco exagerado este despliegue policial para una criada que ha robado una sortija? Y no lo digo porque usaran un furgón, que, a ver qué iban a hacer, si la mujer era de complexión cuadrangular y no cabía en un simple coche...
Página 84: "Y allí estaba otra vez el hombre del sombrero negro". Ocurre que, a lo largo de lo que llevamos de novela, la narradora-protagonista ha tenido varios encuentros y fugaces visiones de un hombre pues, lo dicho, con sombrero negro. Con varias quiero decir quince o dieciséis, a veces dos por página, de una manera tan frecuente y usual que todo el aire inquietante que Rosa pretendiere darle a esa figura acaba por diluirse. Porque, efectivamente, alguien debería explicarle a esta mujer que cuando uno se encuentra repetidas veces con un individuo en las inmediaciones de su casa no es un tipo misterioso y enigmático. Es un vecino.
Pag. 87: Un individuo a quien ha encontrado con una navaja en la mano le sugiere a Rosa Regás una escena bucólica: bien pudiera ser que estuviera empleando el cuchillo para comer "la naranja o el queso. Así comían los pastores de tierra adentro". Los pastores de mar adentro sabido es por todos que comen pescado.
Mientras tanto, la criada ha quedado en libertad provisional (pag. 88), bien advertida de que no puede salir del país. Rosa aprovecha el momento para hacernos un retrato de la mujer tras su estancia entre rejas, con lo cual, y lo visto por experiencias descriptivas anteriores, no creemos que la pobre Adelita haya salido ganando con la decisión del juez. "Los ricitos de su cabeza (...) eran opacos, vidriosos, casi grasientos (...), pensé que no debía de haber podido lavarse el pelo". Como será el tono cochambroso del retrato que al final la criada no puede por menos de saltar: "Acabemos pronto; yo lo he tenido todo en contra: soy baja, soy fea" y descrita por Regás, le falta añadir. El consuelo que le ofrece la protagonista es para demandarla por crueldad: "Adelita, cálmese; es bajita, es cierto, pero no es fea, no diga eso".
En el trayecto hacia la casa, en la página 91, Adelita se decide a hablar. La protagonista detiene el coche "con un frenazo que por poco nos estampa contra el cristal". Pocas veces he leído, de verdad, frase más cazurra.
Lo que al fin suelta Adelita es un discurso sobre los ricos y los pobres remanido y penoso. "Ellos (ustedes) hacen las leyes (...). Nuestro mundo es un mundo distinto que se rige por normas muy alejadas de la realidad de ustedes". Y todo en este estilo huero y refritolado que, sin embargo, hace pensar a la protagonista (pag. 93): "¡Qué bien se expresa! ¿De dónde habrá sacado esta teoría? ¿No pertenecerá a un partido político, a un sindicato o algo así? ¿O a una secta?"
A todo esto (pag. 95): "Aquella noche era la última del año. Mañana sería el primer día de otro que llamamos nuevo". Bueno, mujer, pero tú no hagas caso; lo llamamos así por chinchar.
Rosa tiene, de vez en cuando, unas carencias gramaticales... Página 96: "Yo había oído mi voz pero no me parecía que fuera yo la que había hablado". Lo que quería decir tu protagonista, Rosa, es que LE parecía que NO era ella quien había hablado, sino otra persona. Tal como tú la haces decir, le parece que no ha hablado, sino que, por ejemplo, ha rebuznado un burro.
Paso por alto las profundas reflexiones que asaltan a la protagonista en la página 99 y que la hacen sentirse "un soplo, una invención, casi una patraña o, mejor aún (a Rosa se la ve crecida), una marioneta en manos de fuerzas ocultas que viven en nuestro interior y mueven nuestros brazos y nuestras manos al margen de nuestra voluntad". (El idioma de Rosa, como se ve, es un idioma muy nuestro). Paso por alto, como digo, estas profundas consideraciones porque, comparadas con la duda metafísica (pag. 100) que asalta a la protagonista después de una conversación telefónica, son puro humo. La mujer se pregunta, desgarrada: "¿Había sido yo la que había colgado o había sido él?"

Pag. 101: "Al día siguiente me fui a Toldrá en busca de un abogado". ¡Y lo encuentra!. Si después de tanto rollo como nos ha soltado Rosa con las señales del cielo, con la noche que llamamos última del año, después de tanto puntillismo con las dichosas fechas, no advierte que el día siguiente, en buena ley gregoriana, habría de ser el de Año Nuevo, festividad hasta para los kiosqueros y los panaderos, eso es que está escribiendo con la cabeza en otro sitio. O metida en un cubo.
La mujer va a Toldrá y nos describe el sitio como tiene por costumbre, o sea, fatal. Que si casitas adosadas "que hacían las delicias de sus habitantes", que si rascacielos que dejaban a los campanarios "en inferioridad de condiciones". Horroroso todo, incluso cuando hace una incursión en la historia del lugar, un pueblo que había sido importante por sus mercados de ganado "cuando las playas eran tierra entre los piratas del mar y la población". Quería decir, sin duda, barrera, o algo así, porque el que las playas sean tierra no tiene nada de excepcional. Es eso consiste su gracia precisamente. Estoy seguro de que, si estuvieran dentro del agua, perderían su aquél.
En éstas y otras que me salto voy ya por la página 107... ¡y siguen dándole vueltas al robo de la sortija! Esto no es serio, señores. Y que conste que en ningún momento niego que pueda hacerse gran literatura sobre bases banales. De hecho, me acuerdo de una novela de Gogol, El capote o El abrigo, en la que al protagonista, un pobre y explotado individuo, le roban el abrigo y, a consecuencia de ello, se alza contra el mundo. En este bodrio, a una mujer un tanto pánfila e insulsa le roban una sortija y, a raíz de ello, la mujer se preocupa. Seguramente pueda valer este ejemplo para establecer la diferencia (sutil pero enorme) entre la Literatura y la nada.
Y lo malo es que el asunto tiene pinta de ir para largo... y para malo. Ya la protagonista nos los advierte en esta misma página 107: "no sabía las noches de zozobra y descalabro que me esperaban". Si miraras, mujer, por dónde vas, y dejaras de escribir, igual no te descalabrarías.
En la página siguiente (108) la mujer está en un restaurante. Allí se encuentra, cómo no, con el hombre del sombrero. Por la noche, luego, antes de dormir, rememorará ese encuentro. ¿Así de simple? No, pardiez. "Cuando en la duermevela que anticipa el sueño recurrí a la sonoridad que ratificara la memoria del encuentro...". Este hombre se acercó a su mesa y "se dedicó, si la memoria no me falla, y creo que no me falla en absoluto (vamos, que se acuerda bien), a hacer bolitas con las migas de pan". Podrá el lector encontrar todas estas joyas en la página 109.
El encuentro con este tontaina deja a la mujer turulata. "El hambre y las ganas de comer estofado habían desaparecido". Bien está puntualizar esto porque hay gente que tiene hambre pero no tiene ganas de comer.
El del sombrero hace unas cuantas giliporteces durante toda la página 110, como pisarle un pie a la protagonista, resollar, y cosas así, hasta que una voz dice ¡Jerónimo! y entonces sale pitando del local. La clásica despedida a lo sioux.
"Me dejó tan desamparada que no supe cómo acabar la carne". Vamos, que la dejo tan obnubilada que se le olvidó el uso del cuchillo y el tenedor. O la función fisiológica de deglutir.
Dejamos esta ridícula escena y pasamos a otro capítulo (página 113), que comienza (horror) con una descripción de la naturaleza. Y, como podía esperarse, es tan mugrienta y sopladerne como las descripciones anteriores, ya fueran personas, ciudades o cosas. En ésta: "El cielo estaba movido a todas horas" (a ver si iba a ser un problema más bien de vista, Rosa, cuídate); "no sabía que hacer con ella (ella es belleza del campo) para absorber tanto aroma"; "después, sin saber qué más hacer, dejaba de contemplarla". ¿Cabe mayor falta de inspiración, impotencia y prosa de ascensorista ante un paisaje?
"Además, estaba toda la cuestión de la recuperación de la joya y de la actuación de la policía que no se aclaraba". Llevamos, además de muchas cacofonías y desmayos de este estilo, más de 77 páginas con el asunto de la sortija. Y ella todavía está impactada por este asunto: "Para desvelar la bruma que envolvía mis suposiciones", dice en la página 115. Iba a decir que si será redicha, pero es que al final de la página hay otra peor, hay "una sospecha que amenazaba con convertirse en calamidad en cuanto aparecieran los elementos oscuros y turbios que envolvían la historia de este robo" (las sospechas, Rosa, todo lo más pasan a ser certezas, pero no calamidades). Lo cierto es que si a este libro le quitamos todas las expresiones como ésta, grandílocuas y horras, nos quedamos con 25 páginas de redacción escolar sobre una señora a que le han quitado una sortija y se ha puesto histérica, inexplicablemente histérica, o, como dice ella, "torturada por tanta incertidumbre" (pero qué incertidumbre, si ya se ha visto que ha sido Adelita).

Página 118: Descubrimos ahora el nombre de la protagonista. "Soy Aurelia Fontana", dice en una conversación telefónica. La prima de Palmira Gadea.
Página 120: "El sobre era blanco, sin tampones ni etiquetas". Quien dice "etiquetas" en lugar del más común y sencillo "sellos" es que es una hortera irredimible; quien espera encontrar "tampones" en la superficie de un sobre, en lugar de marcas, impresiones o huellas de tampón, es que es una juntapalabras del peor porte.
Salto páginas dedicadas a las trolas de Adelita y vengo a darme de bruces en la página 127 contra otra descripción. Esta vez del abogado Rius. Lo más destacado de él es que le brillaba la cara; "si estuviera en la televisión", pensó la protagonista, "le pondrían polvo transparente para los brillos"; también dice que "tenía las pupilas pequeñas, por la luz quizás (o porque sufría de conjuntivitis, o porque se había tomado un bustai, o porque era de natural así), y que el aro que las rodeaba (eso se llama iris, Rosa) era del color de las castañas" Este tipo de comparaciones, o se acompañan de un adjetivo (era del color meloso, por ejemplo, o ambarino de las castañas) que les dé suavidad, sentido y belleza, o se usan para describir algo que está en la naturaleza pero que no se corresponde exactamente con una palabra (era del color de los hojas caídas en otoño, por ejemplo también). Pero decir bruscamente, "era del color de las castañas", como se puede decir "era más alto que una casa" sólo es una muestra (más) de incapacidad expresiva.
Invito al lector a que se detenga en las recapacitaciones de la protagonista sobre... no sabría decirle qué. Comienzan en: "A veces, cuando se complica la consecución de un proceso que ha de llevarnos, pensamos, a la solución de un problema...." y acaban en "así, desconectado de su causa primera y de la estrategia de conjunto, nos parece irreal". Además de que no se logra saber de qué está hablando, parece tomado del libro de instrucciones de una Black Decker. Esto está en la página 128.
En la página 137 (notará el lector que voy más ligero, pero es que he decido, en aras de mi salud mental, pasar de largo ante tan absurdos ejercicios de pensamiento) tenemos una muestra flagrante de las reacciones sin sentido, palabreras, cursis, y literarias en el peor sentido del termino, de la protagonista-narradora: "Habría dado la vida para que acabara aquella escena, pero también la habría dado para que durara toda la eternidad". Pues sí que eres indecisa y dadivosa.
La protagonista se ha quedado más que prendada del hombre del sombrero. Será por el arte con que fabricaba bolitas de pan, porque, en realidad, no hemos visto en el hombre ningún comportamiento ni belleza extraordinarias, ni en la mujer ha podido advertirse nada que hiciera presuponer un enamoramiento tan visceral. Pareciera, en fin, que todo esta hecho conforme a un rígido (y endeble) guión, tan escasa es la vida que transmiten los personajes y tan novelescas ergo falsas sus reacciones. ¿Prueba de ello? Sin saber del hombre más que debía llamarse Jerónimo y que usaba sombrero, la protagonista aprovecha toda la página 139 para largarnos un discurso bien poco original sobre el "amour fou". Un discurso parlivano, en realidad, porque la protagonista carece de medios para saber si el desconocido del sombrero no es, por ejemplo, un vendedor de biblias, un funcionario del registro, un numismático, o cualquier otro tipo sosegado, formal y serio.
Pero lo que importa es llegar, en esta misma página 139, a la postura en la que Rosa coloca a su protagonista, asaltada por el incontinente amor: "Permanecía con la cabeza apoyada en la pared, dando sorbos a una taza que llevaba vacía mucho tiempo". Se nota que a Rosa le gusta, como figura literaria, la del sufriente enamorado que se entrega a la bebida hasta que cierra el bar; ella ha optado por recrear este tipo en su protagonista, sólo que como ella, la Regás, es de natural literario cutre y roñoso, allí la ha dejado apurando un cortado, por no gastar mucho, hasta el siguiente capítulo.
Ya en otros "Cuadernos de Crítica" del Círculo de Fuencarral se ha denunciado el abuso que de la frase hecha y el lugar común hacen los escritores hodiernos, betsellerados y planetarios, un ejercicio de vulgaridad estilística en el que Antonio Gala se destaca como campeón. Rosa Regás se inscribe en esta línea, y así, sólo en la página 146: "enturbiar el panorama", "me dejó sin palabras", "le di algunas indicaciones", "cumplí mi papel", "lo tenía todo presente".... Pero, además de esto, la Regás no se coarta a la hora de presentarnos como originales una serie de comparaciones resobadas y metáforas harto tópicas, como en esta misma página 146: "el tiempo se había esfumado, resbalándome entre los dedos de las manos como el agua", o tres páginas atrás, en la 143: "los celos son serpientes que se escurren por todos los entresijos de la imaginación y la conciencia". Símiles literarios, como apreciará el lector, de primero de básica, destrozados por quien los emplea como mero recurso para salir del compromiso; comparaciones reventadas, para colmo, por la torpeza y la falta de gracia con que están dichas. Pues, ¿a qué viene puntualizar que los dedos eran de las manos, Rosa? ¡Ya nos imaginamos que no se va a escapar el tiempo entre los dedos de los pies! ¿El agua se esfuma, como pareces decir? ¿A qué equivale exactamente la expresión "entresijo de la conciencia"? ¿No había otro término, por cierto, menos bruto que "entresijo"? Lo malo de todo esto es que, de los 230.000 lectores (o compradores) de este bolodro, seguramente muchísimos de ellos tendrán estos balbucientes remedos de metáforas ya dichas (e infinitamente mejor) por otros autores como el sumo de la originalidad y el arte literarios; no en vano, pensarán, están premiadas con 100 millones. A tanto se ha hecho descender, en beneficio del número, el nivel medio del lector en nuestro país, tanto se ha subvertido su criterio y anulado su sentido crítico.

De pasada constatar que, en la página 144, la protagonista-narradora dice que "yo apenas tenía más oídos que para mis propias preguntas", y en la 146 que "de todos modos, fuera cual fuere lo que yo esperaba..."
En un descanso de estas peleas con el idioma (página 147), la protagonista se da cuenta, de pronto, de que Adelita lleva mucho tiempo en libertad provisional, y le pregunta que, por cierto, cuándo va a ser el juicio por el robo de la sortija. Adelita le responde que el juicio ya se ha sobreseído y la otra se extraña, pero no por mucho tiempo, porque en la página 149 "algo más profundo, más inconfesable, me impidió seguir recapacitando". Tan inconfesable era, de hecho, que no nos dice en qué consiste; es de suponer que se le cayó una teja en la cabeza o algo así, porque en la siguiente frase nos dice que se alejó de la mansión "envuelta aún en el asombro y el descalabro".
"¿Qué significaba esa nueva serie de imbricados y secretos acontecimientos?", se pregunta la protagonista nada más iniciarse el capítulo siguiente, página 151, una vez que le han puesto unas lañas en la más cercana Casa de Socorro. Igual que, como en otros "Cuadernos de Crítica" y boletines de "La Fiera" se ha dicho, la mayoría de los modernos novelistas de las diversas cuadras confunden novelar con ponerse a contar cosas, habría que señalar también como, para la mayoría de estos cuadrúpedos, fabricar una intriga significa embrollar las cosas hasta la mitad del libro y desembrollarlas luego. Con el agravante de que, a la hora de liar, tienen tan poco escrúpulo para acumular situaciones extrañas, para hacer nudo sobre nudo con tal de "enganchar" al lector; y a la hora de desliar tienen tan poco tino y están tan confundidos ellos mismos por lo embarullado del asunto, que al fin, incapaces de deshacer lógicamente la trama, acaban cortando por donde sea y convirtiendo la resolución en una auténtica chapuza.
Página 152: Pues, efectivamente, parece ser que el caso del robo de la sortija ha sido sobreseído por el juez. Y la protagonista, que al fin y al cabo es la denunciante, no ha tenido noticia de esta resolución sino tres meses después, y de casualidad. Para mí tengo que hasta Idi Amín, el presidente caníbal del Congo, estaba más enterado del funcionamiento de la justicia que Rosa Regás.
Dejo atrás veinte páginas, veinte, dedicadas a relatarnos, con profusión de detalles (y abundancia de descripciones, con lo que ello significa en la Regás), el despido de Adelita. En la página 174, y después de habernos descargado semejante rollo, ya la protagonista-narradora se encuentra más tranquila... hasta que suena el teléfono. Entonces "en un instante, con el poder automático de la tecla del ordenador que recupera el texto perdido, reapareció aquella maraña de la que había creído desprenderme". Eso del poder automático, Rosa, la verdad, suena a anuncio de Vim antibacterias. Pero, en fin, lo importante es el momento de emoción que nos has hecho pasar, compartiendo contigo los esfuerzos denodados, ímprobos, que hacías por vencer tu estreñimiento expresivo y crear una metáfora nueva. Aunque, finalmente, te haya salido esa cagadita.
Seguida, eso sí, por una gran ventosidad. Pásmese el lector ante ella, aquí se la transcribo entera: "¿Fue esta coincidencia la que convocó la vaga sospecha que pugnaba por brotar y manifestarse, un pensamiento informe aún pero con un significado preciso aunque definido en un código sin descifrar? Como la inquietud que origina la palabra que estamos viendo con la imaginación y que, sin embargo, somos incapaces de traducir al lenguaje convencional de los signos y los sonidos, la suspicacia y la impotencia crecían ciegas dentro de mí y, tal vez obedeciendo las leyes de su despertar o insuflando en mi inteligencia al hacerlo una perspicacia policial nueva, oí la voz de mi respuesta". ¿Verdad, lector, que en tu vida has oído pedo literario más estruendoso?, ¿ventosidad más larga y sostenida? Y no, no intentes encontrarle significado alguno, porque ya lo he intentado yo y no lo tiene. Es pura flatulencia.
Rosa debía tener, por cierto, cuando escribió estas páginas, un gran problema de gases. Al asombroso cuesco anterior, y a otros subsidiarios que le han acompañado, viene a rematar lo siguiente, en la página 177: "La palabra Jerónimo en mis labios, aunque fuera en un susurro, cobraba una sonoridad que, sin respetar las fronteras de la distancia, atravesaba las paredes y se extendía por el mundo vibrando". Hombre, Rosa, por favor, ten un poco de modales. Yo no sé de qué te asombras si a tu protagonista, en esta misma página, la deja el novio.

En la página 179 la protagonista descubre que Adelita era prostituta. "Dorotea era su nombre de guerra". Puestos a usar frases hechas, dime, Rosa, ¿qué fue lo que te impulsó a utilizar esta expresión de "nombre de guerra", y no la otra igual de común de "nombre artístico"?
El hecho de que Adelita fuera meretriz causa en la protagonista "una sensación de envidia" en la página 181. "Y no es que yo le envidiara las citas con hombres desconocidos" (se apresura a decir). Lo que la envidiaba era: "que se movía como una anguila entre todos los laberintos que conformaban su vida y, con toda certeza, sus sueños y sus deseos que para ella serían tan ciertos como los atributos que arrastraba desde la cuna". Bueno es dejar las cosas claras.
"¿Dónde estaba (se pregunta nada más desembocar en la página 182) el motor que la empujaba y la llevaba cada vez más lejos en una carrera imparable a la que no se le veía el fin?" Si mal no entiendo lo que se pregunta es qué habrá pasado con la mobilette.
Viene a partir de aquí y hasta la página 186 la escena de una cita de la protagonista con un posible cliente de Adelita: Ernesto. Aunque "no debía de llamarse Ernesto, Ernesto era su nombre de guerra". Se encuentran en un bar y la conversación que se sigue entre ellos es absolutamente ridícula. Baste decir que ya a la segunda intervención el hombre proclama: "quiero mucho a mi mujer, no crea, lo que pasa es que un rato de distracción se agradece"; y sobre decir que una de las preguntas de la protagonista es "para quién prestaba Adelita sus servicios".
Al ejercicio de la prostitución por parte de su criada le llama Rosa "menesteres extralaborales" (página 187)
Estas revelaciones, sin embargo, no dejan atrás el apasionante asunto del robo de la sortija. Hasta la página 195 está la protagonista hablando con su abogado sobre ciertos pormenores de la recuperación y analizando detalladamente la actuación del joyero. Cuánta será la pesadez que el mismo personaje del abogado le advierte a la mujer que es un poco latosa. ¿La reacción de la protagonista? Agárrate, lector, al asiento porque aquí va: "¿No estamos (pregunta) en un liberalismo económico según el cual lo más importante es la propiedad privada, precisamente? Me está usted hablando como si estuviéramos en Cuba, señor Prats". A esta brutal gilipollez y trabucada a deshora le llama Rosa: "iniciar una discusión sobre los valores de la civilización occidental que yo (la protagonista) había puesto en entredicho". Pero tú, Rosa, ni tus personajes, ¿qué coño vais a poner en entredicho, salvo la lógica y el sentido común? ¿Tú te crees, de verdad, que esta chorrada es reflexión?, ¿que esto es agudeza?, ¿que esto es serio?
Lo que sigue ahora es catastrófico. Absolutamente catastrófico. Mientras la novela era una simple memez sobre una señora a la que roban una sortija y su criada puta la cosa movía al pitorreo y, cuando las tonterías se sucedían demasiado, al cabreo y la mesadura de cabellos. A partir de la página 196 la cosa es indignante. Porque, al hilo de esa observación oligofrénica sobre Cuba y la propiedad privada que Rosa ha llamado, sin pudor alguno, sin la más mínima vergüenza "poner en entredicho los valores de la civilización occidental", sigue un retrato político de la protagonista que ya no sólo es que no venga a caso alguno, sino que está hecho desde la más injustificable tontería, banalidad, frivolidad y desfachatez. Y que es tanto más impresentable cuanto, encima, Rosa lo quiere hacer pasar por el retrato político de una generación. Absolutamente demencial. Hago constar las siguientes frases para vergüenza de esta señora licenciada en Filosofía y Letras: "la evolución del país en la última década ya no me afectaba; el cambio de partido en el gobierno, menos aún"; "la transición había barrido de un plumazo la lucha contra la dictadura"; "sí, yo también había luchado cuando estaba en la universidad durante la dictadura franquista, e incluso después, también fui a manifestaciones y corrí ante la policía" (ante la policía y, por lo visto, Rosa, también ante los maestros que pretendían enseñarte algo); "ni sé siquiera por qué precisamente nosotros, tan socialmente ácratas como habíamos sido, fuimos al altar. Todo está confuso en mi mente". Y así, con tan poca vergüenza novelística, emplea la Regás cuatro páginas para darse, por boca de su personaje, pote de luchadora, y rellenar el preceptivo expediente filoizquierdista. Cualquiera pensaría, al leerla, que cumplir este trámite es, hoy en día, obligatorio en un escritor.
Después de su confesión política, y ya puestos a destrozar todo lo que sea coherencia narrativa, la Regás dedica otras cuantas páginas a informarnos sobre la vida profesional de su protagonista, como si en ello tuviéramos algún interés. Porque, además, es una vida aburrida por extenso (aunque muy chic, eso sí, que es lo que a Rosa se nota que le priva). Es bióloga, o no sé qué, y hace trabajos para el suplemento de salud de un periódico (como Rosa para El País Semanal, o dondequiera que haya metido la cabeza) y además estaba terminando "un libro que me había pedido la misma editorial que había publicado mi libro anterior, también de divulgación, también sobre infecciones virales".

Otra característica de los novelistas hodiernos es que los protagonistas de sus novelas son, casi sin excepción, escritores como ellos, tan poca imaginación tienen para imaginar la vida de otras personas. O tan pagados y envanecidos están de sí mismos. A veces, en un último arranque de pudor, los disfrazan y, en lugar de escritores, los presentan como directores de cine o músicos; otros, por el contrario, como Marías, salen sin el menor recato, con su propio nombre, a mostrarle al mundo entero sus monerías. Pero, en todo caso, ellos mismos son y sus pequeñas circunstancias. En el caso presente, la Regás ha querido darle seriedad a su personaje y la ha hecho igual que ella, claro, pero experta en infecciones virales. No se le ocurría nada más rimbombante. De verdad, son tan ridículos...
En la página 209 la protagonista confiesa: "No estoy hecha para la fiesta, no estoy hecha para el ocio, no sé qué hacer con él". Pues no se lo fastidies a los demás, mujer.
No sé cómo calificar esto de la página 210. Ya hemos visto las descripciones regasianas y lo atroces que pueden llegar a ser. Pues imagínese el lector zarandeado y puñonrostro cómo será la descripción de un sueño. No hablo más, aquí se la transcribo: "un terrorífico ensueño donde se mezclaban rostros dulces y cuerpos deformes, gritos de policías y camionetas grises, ladrones bizcos de rasgos conocidos y personajes de mi pasado convertidos en degenerados y viciosos seres que se lamentaban gimiendo en su viscosa transformación, me perseguían y me ultrajaban".
La protagonista cae en una depresión. Ya sabemos que, en la vida real, muchas veces las depresiones sobrevienen de forma repentina y a veces sin motivo, pero eso no significa que en la literatura esté permitido entristecer a un personaje súbitamente, sin causa ni razón. Y mucho menos para no ir a ninguna parte, porque en esta novelucha la protagonista se deprime, está durante varias páginas contándonos pesadillas como la descrita y diciendo "que había perdido por completo la fe en la legitimidad de mis (sus) emociones y sentimientos", y luego ya en la página 215 se recupera y a otra cosa. ¿Para qué ha servido, literariamente hablando, ese intervalo depresivo? Absolutamente para nada. O bueno, sí, para asistir abochornados a cómo la Regás hacia vanos esfuerzos por lucirse.
Página 216: Recuperada ya de su enfermedad y mientras piensa "en la incongruencia de una casa de campo que, sin embargo, exigía jardines británicos", ve llegar un coche y dos personas bajan de él. "Eran evidentemente amigos o conocidos o colegas". Pues menos mal que era una cosa evidente. De todas maneras, Rosa, que ganas tontas de puntualizar y darle vueltas a lo obvio: dos personas en un coche algo tienen que ser, mujer, no te preocupes.
"Somos los dos representantes de las Máquinas de Coser La Puntual". ¿Lo ves? Desvelado el gran enigma.
Como caídos del cielo, dichos dos representantes comienzan, a partir de la página 219, a resolver todos los misterios que se escondían a lo largo de la narración y que, dada la impotencia narradora de la Regás, era imposible que se hubieran solucionado por sí mismos, Se sientan, se sirven un whisky y se ponen a largar, a resolver y a zanjar. Recurso más barato y malo, sinceramente, no he visto nunca. De vez en cuando se paran en el curso de las revelaciones (los tíos lo saben absolutamente todo) para hacer una reflexión sobre algún tema tangencial, con un marcado tono de presunción más propio de contertulio del programa de Luís del Olmo que de ser humano normal y representante. Así, en la página 222, ¡descubren! la corrupción policial. "Hay toda clase de policías, claro, pero no tienes más que leer los periódicos para enterarte de los chanchullos que se llevan con los robos, con las joyas, con las mafias, sean de tabaco, de drogas o de inmigrantes ¿No te parece raro que sólo se detenga a los camioneros que entran marroquíes y nunca, por ejemplo, a los que entran a gentes del este de Europa? Y los que llegan por el aeropuerto, que son la mayoría y todos organizados por mafias, ¿por qué pasan sin dificultad?..." Razonamientos regasianos y espongiformes a micrófono abierto.
Siguen los dos representantes revelando cosas y bebiendo whisky. Bebían, dice la Regás en la pag. 232, "al estilo del oeste. Levantaban el vasito lleno, decían "yo en tu lugar no lo haría, forastero" y se echaban el whisky al gollete de una vez, con la cabeza hacia atrás". Esta mujer es más pija, más moña, más pánfila, más cursi, y tiene menos mundo que un boy-scout con varicela.

Las revelaciones de los dos enterados van alcanzando su punto culminante. Resulta que Adelita tenía montado un putiferio en casa de la protagonista. Por lo visto, la mujer geométrica, aunque ya hemos visto en la primera página que sufría de "coincidencia de medidas entre la longitud y la anchura", era muy apreciada en el tema sexual y podía, incluso, "ser tan deseable como una mujer de una pintura de Rubens", dice uno de los representantes en la página 238. Y a renglón seguido la protagonista le pregunta: "Y tú, ¿cómo sabes tanto de Rubens". Quien, como Rosa, considera "tanto" saber que Rubens pintaba mujeres orondas es que anda con una culturita muy de Trivial y, lo que es peor, la luce orgullosa.
Lo que sigue, en esta misma página, está dicho en tono serio. Los representantes hablan de Adelita y de "lo mucho que su cuerpo exaltaba al concejal de urbanismo".
El caso es que, entre whiskys y brindis tontos, los dos sabelotodos van informando a la mujer de cómo, en su masía, durante sus ausencias, se celebraban orgías y en ellas participaban miembros de la ley. La protagonista, en cuanto oye esto (pag. 239), como buena progresista de pastel se escandaliza y a punto es del desmayo. "¡Policías en mi cama!", exclama ofendida. Y una vez recuperada del sofoco se hace esta serie de preguntas de gran calado y trascendencia (pag. 241): "¿Estarían desnudos ya? ¿Dónde se deja la pistola cuando uno se desnuda? ¿Cómo en las películas del oeste? Salen corriendo siempre abrochándose el cinturón de la pistola. ¿Se llama cartuchera?" Hace falta ser muy simple de mente, además de no tener el menor respeto por los lectores, para escribir esto. Y hace falta ser muy cínico o muy inepto para premiarlo, editarlo, ensalzarlo, y para, en general, presentar a la gente esta patochada como un producto artístico. Porque, en cuanto uno recapacita un poco, no puede por menos de echarse a reír con la más despectiva risa que le permiten sus ijares. Nos está contando Rosa que, en casa de la protagonista, y aprovechando sus ausencias, se celebraban bacanales en las que participaban policías, jueces, alcaldes y hasta miembros de la Generalitat. "Traficantes o negociantes o políticos (...) que se habían apropiado de mi casa para montar orgías en sus horas libres". Pero, alma de cántaro, ¿de verdad quieres hacernos creer que esa gente, podrida de dinero, va a estar pendiente de cuándo una mujer deja su casa para colarse en ella a hacer guarreridas, tal que si fueran los Albóndigas en remojo o cualquier otra banda de adolescentes en celo? ¿Que van a conchabarse con la criada para que ésta les avise si su señora no está, para entonces entrar de rondón a montarse una juerga? ¿Que van a tener a alguien vigilando, no vaya a ser que acaso vuelva la dueña de la casa y les sorprenda? ¿Que, siendo redes de prostitución y gente de altas esferas, no van a poder alquilar una mansión donde les salga del níspero y juntarse en ella tranquilamente cuando les plazca, sin tener que estar pendientes de las idas y tornadas de una pobre infeliz? Verdaderamente me sorprendes, Rosa. Nunca te hubiera creído tan ingenua, tan cándida y tan infantil.
Página 242: "El sexo reinaba durante el día y durante la noche, y yo entretanto en Madrid, trabajando". Una razón más para luchar por la jornada de 35 horas.
¡Y la película que se ha montado esta pazguata con lo de su casa como escenario de orgías! Dice en esta misma página que formaba parte "de una trama de organizaciones que engloba la orgía, el tráfico de drogas, el de armas", y se pregunta si "no sería sólo una entre las miles que se extienden por todo el país, por la tierra entera". Tú sí que estás puesta en el mundo, Rosa Regás.
Los representantes al fin (página 243), después de haber desvelado esta soplapollez sobre la casa que la Regás, en el colmo de la bobaliconería, nos quiere presentar como una revelación impactante, se marchan un tanto soplados. Entonces la protagonista toma una decisión a lo Escarlata O´Hara: "Mañana compraré otro colchón".
Dos páginas para describirnos la resaca con que se levantó al día siguiente.
Sigue dándole vueltas a lo de la casa y figurándose las "actividades" que allí se ejercitaban, y que "escondían robos, extorsiones, fraudes, sobornos, prostitución" (página 251). Ah, triste país España, en el que se premia con cien millones a esta bazofia y se proclama, orgullosamente, que van para 230.000 los ejemplares vendidos. Triste país en el que, lo más seguro, la mayoría de esos 230.000 considerarán a la Regás como un dechado de perspicacia, profundidad y agudeza.
Tres páginas para limpiar la casa, para hacer desaparecer de ella (pag. 255) "los ocultos vestigios de los descalabros que allí se habían cometido" Pero y dale con los descalabros. A ver si es que también nos vas a desvelar que en el mundo existe una red de descalabradores.
La revelación que se nos hace en la página 257 ya es el colmo de la memez y la mamarrachez. Resulta que, en su momento, cuando le robaron la sortija y ella fue a comisaría, la atendió un policía un tanto extraño. Ahora vuelve y resulta que ese policía no está. ¿Explicación? La banda de pillos aprovechó que la comisaría estaba en obras para montar un decorado y embaucar a la protagonista. Pero, en realidad, eran policías falsos. Patético.

Ante este nuevo descubrimiento la protagonista se sulfura y así le dice al comisario verdadero: "le aseguro que investigaré hasta la última célula toda esta corrupción que me envuelve, que ha tenido lugar aquí (...), y que todos los que están mezclados en éste, y otros asuntos, serán descubiertos y denunciados". Ante esta furibunda reacción al comisario "debió de despertársele un sentimiento de compasión y simpatía por la víctima, es decir, yo". ¡No, Regás! La víctima, es decir, nosotros: los lectores, los indefensos timados que llevamos aguantando toda esta sarta de sandeces durante 260 páginas, y que ya estamos pensando en fundar una asociación de afectados.
Página 261: "Derrotada, vencida, humillada, me juraba a mí misma en la profundidad de mi amargura que este contubernio no quedaría impune. Entré en un café que resultó ser una librería (¿?), me senté a una mesa y pedí un gin-tonic". Una vez que se lo traen, no antes ni mientras, se pone a reflexionar sobre los integrantes de la red delictiva internacional que le han robado su sortija y acostado en su cama, a quienes "tal vez en mi interior más profundo, en el núcleo más oscuro de mi conciencia, no sólo los consideraba culpables de todos los descalabros..." Pero joder ya con los descalabros, Rosa, vas a hacer que pierda mi natural flema.
En la página 267 la protagonista habla de "la buena acogida de mis triviales libros". Pues si son triviales los libros sobre infecciones víricas que escribe tu protagonista, cómo habría de calificarse este garrafucio. Sorpresivamente, es la misma Rosa, por boca de su protagonista, quien otra vez me sugiere una calificación aproximada, cuando habla de "mi insípida e insustancial canción". Y mema, y mal escrita, y chapucera, habría que añadir para componer siquiera un juicio generoso.
Página 274: La Regás, a veces, y no he logrado establecer por qué, cambia la lógica y el orden de la buena y vieja gramática castellana y se pone a hablar al modo tarzanesco. En esta página dice: "Dolor físico sentía en las sienes". Y cuando uno, ahora sí, espera hallarse con un descalabro en buena ley que hiciera justicia al lector, lo que encuentra es que ese dolor viene provocado porque "lo que acababa de oír pugnaba por entrar en mi entendimiento, que se resistía a abrirse y aceptar la noticia". Lástima.
Rosa no podía despedir el libro sin ofrecernos otro último truco literario de lo más cutre (pag. 275), seguro que con la esperanza (pobre) de que apreciemos su depurada técnica. A la protagonista le llega el rumor de que Adelita ha muerto y va a preguntarle a su madre (la de la criada). Entre ellas se produce una conversación extraña, enigmática, misteriosa... Al final lo que ocurre es que la anciana está gagá y entonces viene una vecina y se lo explica mejor.
Adelita ha muerto, efectivamente, pero nadie sabe cómo con exactitud. Y no es porque se trate de un gran enigma, sino más bien porque, a estas alturas, todos los personajes de la novela están ya completamente atolondrados, y sobre todo la protagonista, que se imagina a Adelita colgada de la rama de una higuera (pag. 283). "La veo así porque necesito un final para la historia".
Pero ella misma se extraña de que haya elegido la rama de una higuera para ahorcarse, "siendo como es tan endeble y quebradiza su madera. Ella (Adelita) tendría que saberlo, que es del campo de Albacete y en el sur también habrá higueras". Pues imagínate otra cosa, mujer. Imagínate que se cuelga de un tamarindo, o que a la higuera le habían echado mucho fertilizante, o que en su pueblo no hay higueras, o que es del Valle del Roncal, o que... Joder, Rosa, como se nota que no estás habituada a esto de imaginar, que tan extraño te parece y a todo le pones pegas.
Finalmente, será el sargento de la Guardia Civil quien, en la página 290, la saque de dudas. Adelita ha muerto atropellada, pero no se sabe si ella con la moto embistió al coche o el coche embistió a la moto. Como iba ocupando todo el ancho de la calzada... "todo puede suponerse", opina el sargento. Lo que está claro, siempre en opinión del benemérito, es que "el conductor, y los ocupantes, si es que lo había, se dieron a la fuga". Y si no los había también, señor sargento, que es usted un lince.
Y el último enigma que quedaba por resolver también, de pronto, queda solucionado. Resulta que, cierta noche, el marido de Adelita atacó a la protagonista con un cuchillo. ¿Por qué hizo tal el hombre? En la página 291 se nos da la explicación: porque tenía muchos cambios de humor.
Y con esto y una escena ridícula de despedida en torno a una pistola, y con una horrenda consideración final sólo apta para lectores totalmente desprovistos de paladar, acaba esta inmensa cenutriada, el quincuagésimo premio Planeta de los cien millones, uno de los peores libros, sinceramente, que he leído en mi vida. Su autora, Rosa Regás, el día que recibió el premio, declaró que, con el dinero de él, iba a dedicarse a llevar una vida reposada y a la contemplación del mar. Es una decisión de la cual nos alegramos mucho y a la que le animamos con todas nuestras fuerzas:

Atolondrado señor: Tenga usted cuidado con sus sugerencias y críticas. Cada vez que Rosa Regas intenta pensar, imaginar o menear siquiera la cabecita como ejercicio de cervicales, hunde una editorial o convierte la Biblioteca Nacional en el "Chichette de la Bernarde" que diría aquél. Y mejor que no se vaya al mar, si no es para emular a Alfonsina Storni

El otro día escuché decir a Juan Pedro Aparicio que la Editorial Planeta había conseguido el mayor de los despropósitos, por el cual debía de ser digna de alabanza, y este era vender libros a quienes no los leen, que son la gran mayoría, en vez de a quien puede leerlos que son una ínfima minoría. Y yo, como publicista que soy, me quito el sombrero…
…y luego me lo pongo.

Cuando empecé a leer esto, no veía claro para qué podía servir hacer una crítica literaria de un libro mediático. Me pasa con las amigas que me dicen que las películas porno no tienen argumento ("ya... ¿y qué?") y con los colegas que dicen que los libros de autoayuda no tienen base científica. Puestos a mear fuera del tiesto, habría que quejarse de que el pulpo a feira no tiene una buena combinación de colores. Nadie lo hace porque todos entendemos que al pan pan, al vino vino...y a al mundo mediático no hay que pedirle calidad literaria.
Pero luego, descubrí que sí, mi dama, que tiene usted razón. Una crítica literaria de un libro mediático puede tener un fin: hacer literatura. Esto ya lo decía Borges, pero se me había olvidado. Me ha encantado.

No puedo imaginarme a Don Clandestino pagando 12'50 € por semejante novelita.
¿No hay mejores sistemas para que un crítico pueda leer una novela?
¿Siempre debe adquirirla?
Es posible que mi ignorancia sobre el tema haga que me sorprenda sin razón.
El asunto es que, gracias a gente como él, otros podamos, no solo ahorrarnos el dinero, sino también, el leer cosas tan mal escritas y relatadas.
Pues sí, amiga Tautina, hemos de reconocer su pericia publicitaria.

Me he divertido de veras. Hace poco tiempo, en un fructífero club de lectura en el que participo, resbalamos y perdimos cuatro semanas con "La cancìon de Dorotea" y el maldito hombre del sombrero negro. No quieran imaginar lo bien que lo pasamos comentando lo mal que lo pasábamos leyendo.

Hay que tener un mínimo de honestidad con uno mismo si pretende llamarse escritor, claro que una cosa es la literatura y otra, muy distinta, el negocio de vender libros. Personalmente no le deseo a Rosa Regás, que no me parece mala gente por otro lado, ningún final al estilo Woolf (vital, porque literario sería incapaz). Pero no tiene sentido quejarnos. Todos sabemos que la literatura está en otra parte. Lo malo es que en las librerías las torres mediáticas la ocultan para los no iniciados. Me pregunto qué demonios podríamos hacer para acercar la buena literatura a los lectores menos avezados. Los otros ya la saben buscar solitos.

La jurado Rosa Regás, directora de la Biblioteca Nacional, y tan crítica con los galardonados de este año, también había ganado el Planeta en 2001 con una novela abominable.
Octavio Paz la consideraba “la peor novelista del planeta”, pero repetía el grito de la gauche divine que la hizo famosa, y no por su literatura, en el divertido Bocaccio, Barcelona, años 1960: “¡Rosa Regás, Rosa Regás, qué buena estás!”.

MATERIAL NO INVENTARIABLE

Mario, el hombre de confianza de Don Laureano, entró en la sala cuando Palmira estaba recogiendo los ceniceros...
-Vaya, a estas horas y no has acabado tu trabajo... son cerca de las once... ¿A qué hora terminas?
-Depende, no hay un horario fijo...
-Es lo que tienen los millonarios: son filántropos inconcretos: pueden amar a toda la humanidad, pero a las personas tomadas de una en una, sobre todo si están a su servicio...
-Luego por la mañana empiezo más tarde... no me ocupo del desayuno.
-Yo tampoco tengo horario, ni unas obligaciones determinadas, así es que al final me ocupo de todo...
-Claro, su trabajo es de más responsabilidad...
-Sí, he de dar las consignas a los periodistas para crear opinión, me ocupo de las reuniones para negocios privados, atiendo el correo... y en general, me hago cargo de todo lo que le desborda. ¿Qué ha pasado con la sirvienta que había antes?
-Se ha ido a dormir, no es necesario que nos quedemos las dos...
-¿Desde cuándo estás tú?
-Oh, hace quince años...
-No te había visto nunca, y eso que suelo venir a menudo, porque hacer fotocopias o una carta, para el jefe es como hacer arte de vanguardia o primores de filtiré. Es un inútil. Tú te habrás dado cuenta tanto como yo...
-Yo hago mi trabajo...
-De acuerdo, el jefe paga bien, pero supongo que es capaz de llamarte a las once de la noche para pedir un vaso de leche fría, no se le ocurre que puede ir a la cocina y servirse de la botella que hay en el frigorífico...¿verdad que no? A mí me ha hecho venir a veces a las diez de la noche para dictarme una carta que ni siquiera era urgente o para encontrarle un informe que estaba sobre su mesa, debajo del periódico del que sólo lee las necrológicas...
-Cada uno sirve para lo que sirve...
-Lo único que sabe esta gente es hacer dinero y gastar con tacañería. Imagínate: las facturas de las orquídeas que envía a su amante, las apunta en la cuenta de "Material no inventariable", como si fuera papel higiénico...hay que ser miserable...

-¿Usted no tiene que estar en esa reunión?
-Los he dejado mientras discuten entre ellos y deciden... Me llamarán para levantar acta cuando lleguen a un acuerdo.
-¿Le apetece un café?
-Si, me vendrá bien... luego no dormiré, pero a estas horas... estoy agotado.
-¿Le ha dado tiempo a cenar algo antes de recoger en el aeropuerto a los belgas?
-No.
-Entonces le traigo un tentempié antes del café..
-Bueno... lo tomare en la cocina mientras preparas la cafetera...
-Se lo traigo aquí con una bandeja, en la cocina no hay calefacción, y hace frío.
-¿No hay calefacción allí?
-No, señor, no pusieron radiadores al construir la casa...
-¡Vaya con el dichoso espíritu ahorrativo! ¿Y dónde más faltan los radiadores?
-Perdone, creo que le llaman...
-¡Uf, alguna tontería será!
Una hora después salen del estudio y se encaminan a la salida. Mario los ha de conducir al hotel en su coche, y la bandeja que le ha traído Palmira ha quedado intacta en el salón.
Don Laureano entra y se sienta ante la bandeja, despliega la servilleta y empieza a comer. Palmira está haciendo el crucigrama del periódico.
-Vaya, ni me daba cuenta del hambre que tenía... Palmira, estás en todo...
-Habéis llegado a un acuerdo muy pronto.
-Sí, sólo quedaban por atar dos o tres detalles menores... No te has quitado el delantal...
-Y parezco una criada... no sé cómo te casaste conmigo...
Palmira le tiende la mano y él se la besa sonriendo.
-Podemos hacer una locura y marcharnos mañana a París para celebrar el fin de año ¿qué te parece?
-Mejor lo dejamos para principios de enero, antes ya sabes que me gusta revisar la contabilidad personalmente... cuando puedas, pásame la de este año y el anterior.
-De acuerdo, te traeré los libros mañana... ¿La del año anterior también? ¿Te interesa algo en especial?
-Todo, ya sabes...
-Sí, ya sé, es lo que tiene casarse con quien tiene dinero... Sigues sin confiar en mí al cabo de quince años de matrimonio...
-Siempre confiaré en ti mientras las cuentas cuadren, pero últimamente tengo la sensación de que se ha disparado el gasto en "material no inventariable"... Vamos, acuéstate ya...Te llevaré tu tisana a la cama, se te ve agotado. Me remuerde la conciencia explotarte así... Voy a contratar a un gerente, y tú vas a volver a tu puesto de funcionario, de ocho a tres, aunque ganes menos... y tendremos más tiempo para estar juntos... ¿verdad?

CADÁVERES SANOS

Ahora que la lucha contra el tabaco entra en su recta final, me pregunto cuanto tiempo pasará antes de que los políticos prohíban las películas con humo por si pudiesen ser inductoras del vicio de fumar. A lo mejor hay que conectar a lo televisores un deshumidificador que convierta a Bogart en un pulcro detective libre de vicios, una especie de investigador del Insalud, privando a Sam Spade y a Philip Marlow del encanto de sus flaquezas, sobre todo el encanto de la flaqueza del tabaco, que en algunas de aquellas películas del cine negro ocupaba en la pantalla más espacio que las flores, la ducha y las sales de baño. A los gobernantes se les ha metido en la cabeza privarnos del derecho al error y de la tentación de los vicios, que fueron siempre el recurso de lo pobres y de los parias para olvidar su ignominia envolviéndola en humo o metiéndola en alcohol. Por lo visto se trata de que vivamos más tiempo y con mejor salud, por nuestro propio bien, dicen, pero sobre todo porque un hombre saludable sale más barato que un hombre enfermo. Es tradicional que los políticos traten de demostrar su autoridad imponiendo decisiones a menudo impopulares, como la decisión de abaratar la vida no precisamente bajando los precios de las cosas, sino suprimiendo los placeres, cuando no las cosas mismas. Hitler sintió siempre el delirio de una raza superior y saludable a la que se llegaría mediante una selección genética, que es algo que por ahora no se les ocurre a nuestros políticos, satisfechos momentáneamente con la posibilidad de crear una raza de la salud a la que en vez de llegarse por el análisis de sangre, se llega por la depuración del aire, aunque el día menos pensado surgirá alguien que proponga la prohibición de las caries, con lo cual habremos alcanzado esa saludable jovialidad de los jesuitas, que sonríen todos del mismo modo, con la misma profiláctica blancura, con esa sonrisa colectiva que es como si compartiesen la dentadura postiza. Antes quien se metía en la depuración del hombre eran los curas, que te andaban en la conciencia y en el alma, te reprochaban los vicios pero en vez de una multa te ponían una de aquellas penitencias que de niños recitábamos alegremente de corrido como si fuesen la pedrea de la Lotería de Navidad. El riesgo de ir al infierno era menos inquietante que la posibilidad de acabar en la cárcel, que es lo que te espera ahora si no pagas una de esas millonarias multas con las que se va a castigar la odiosa infracción del fumador, ese tipo perverso, insalubre y criminal, gente como yo, todos cuantos nos preguntamos si en caso de guerra nuestros muchachos podrán llevarse el tabaco en el petate o va a resultar que también el frente de batalla es un centro de trabajo en el que los únicos vicios permitidos sean el gas mostaza y la conversión de los vómitos en paté de cerdo. ..

Habremos de andarnos con cuidado, no sea que enfermemos de cosas que están mal vistas por esta asfixiante modalidad de Poder farmacéutico y policial. El día menos pensado se cuela en nuestras casas el inspector de vicios y nos decide las tentaciones y la dieta. Después comprobarán si caminamos cada día lo que conviene caminar para ser un tipo agotado pero sano. A continuación nos escogerán el pijama con el que habremos de ir puntualmente a cama. Y cuando queramos darnos cuenta, muchacho, esos viciosos de la salud nos habrán escogido también los sueños. Estamos perdidos, amigo mío. Al paso que vamos, sólo nos podremos morir por prescripción facultativa. Cuando parecía que ya todo estaba descubierto, ahora resulta que acabamos de inventar el cadáver sano, con lo cual la gente en vez de morirse de cáncer de pulmón, se morirá rebosante de salud. Dentro de un par de siglos, incluso el Holocausto será recordado como un lejano problema de humos...

Fabuloso comentario, pero yo me preguntaría:
-¿Fumarse el marisco está prohibido en los cines?
Digo yo que si de eso se tuviese que legislar, pobres políticos ricos. Pero hay más preguntas como esa de qué pondrán los del tercer mundo en sus ollas mientras en algunos países siga sacando humo el dólar.
No debemos morir fumando, pero, entremos por nuestro propio pie en el 1984 Orwelliano y que nos maten los pocos humos personales que nos quedan.
¿Han advertido, acaso, las autoridades sanitarias que internet es un arma de múltiple filo?

El día en que lo ocurrido en Mathaussen y demás campos de exterminio, sea sólo memoria del humo, estaremos irremediablemente podridos y no hará falta avisarlo en las cajetillas ni en los puentes de autopistas.

UN CANTO A MUCHAS VOCES

Nada mejor para hablar de creación y traducción que las palabras, los versos –evidentemente traducidos- de Georgette Blanchard:

Para traducir poemas
es preciso hacer mentir a las palabras y no al poeta respetar su poema
y no sus palabras.

Estos versos los acompañaría yo con otros de la gran Alejandra Pizarnik que cantan así:

cuidado con las palabras (dijo) tienen filo
te cortarán la lengua
.....
no tientes a los ángeles de las vocales no atraigas frases poemas
versos

Con estas dos verdades, se ha dicho todo sobre qué es creación y qué es traducción, claro que a la inversa, sencillamente porque el poeta es un ser contradictorio, ve lo que no sabe que ha escrito y escribe lo que no sabe que ha visto. Un dios con ojos ciegos y sin embargo plenamente videntes, con una lengua muda que muestra la palabra y sus silencios. Y el traductor, qué hace el traductor, compone otra obra, tal si un pájaro se pegara a otro pájaro y trinaran al par contra la luz, pero jamás el canto sería uno, jamás la traducción será el poema. La palabra sólo es una vez y la nueva palabra ya no es el viejo árbol sino una nueva simiente, otra palabra sucedida, un delgado ramaje que se adapta al extraño ramaje, que vibra bajo una nueva corriente, que parece la voz y no es sino otra voz, tal vez otro trabajo lento de orfebrería. Dos únicas joyas en una ciudad que abre sus oídos para escuchar la queja del que sabe que no debe callar, que debe arder la zarza, debe moverse el mundo, debe levantar un caos y ordenarlo a su modo.

Sergio Viaggio lo expresa de esta forma: Y ahí arde la traductoril Troya, porque lo dicho se puede volver a decir de mil maneras, salvo de la manera como está dicho en el original. La forma -incluida en la forma semántica, que es, precisamente eso: forma- no se puede reproducir. Se puede, en el mejor de los casos imitar, y a veces ni eso (¿cómo imitar un acróstico en chino, que no tiene letras o el soneto a las vocales de Rimbaud en japonés, cuyos signos son silábicos, o en árabe que solo tiene tres vocales?). El gran problema no es que la poesía es intraducible sino que es difícil traducirla para que sirva al lector de poesía, o sea pertinentemente.
Un buen poema se lee una y otra vez. Apetece escarbar en sus signos y en sus vacíos por ver si el universo allí creado se mueve nuevamente y nos abre más puertas. Tantas puertas y ojos como lectores y lecturas. Una buena traducción es como una espléndida función de teatro, cada vez que el poema es traducido, se repite esa función que jamás es idéntica. Siempre los personajes sueltan algo de sí, siempre improvisan parte del diálogo o la forma de decir; las emociones, los juegos de palabras nunca son los mismos y nunca el espectador se cansa de visitar el libro y abrirle su telón. Así la obra traducida, al menos a mí me sucede, debe tener esas pequeñas variantes, esas diminutas sorpresas donde el autor se ve dueño de algo que le es regalado. Por ejemplo una aliteración que, lo mismo que una rosa negra, asombra a quien se pincha al contemplarla, hace sangrar la voz de otro modo, altera lo ya dicho, porque de qué serviría ese decir idéntico. El traductor también ha de ser una especie de oráculo y entrar en el no dicho del autor, entrar en el hálito que provocó el verso, entrar en la desmemoria que adquirió medida y forma, caminar en la pluma del traducido, al menos un instante, el de captar su universo de signos y materia.
Muchas veces se ha dicho que la poesía sólo se debe traducir por poetas, mientras otros opinan que estos no son buenos traductores. El motivo que esgrimen los últimos es que el poeta partiría del poema ajeno para escribir uno suyo, mientras que el traductor llegaría desde el poema original a otro análogo. Cosa que, personalmente he visto en muchísimas ocasiones, no siempre sucede, es más, no suele suceder nunca. Con respecto a este tema, Octavio Paz dice así:
La traducción poética es una operación análoga a la creación poética, sólo que se despliega en sentido inverso. Cada palabra encierra cierta pluralidad de significados virtuales; en el momento en que la palabra se asocia a otras para constituir una frase, uno de estos sentidos se actualiza y se vuelve predominante. En la prosa la significación tiende a ser unívoca mientras que, según se ha dicho con frecuencia, una de las características de la poesía, tal vez la cardinal, es preservar la pluralidad de sentidos. En verdad se trata de una propiedad general del lenguaje; la poesía la acentúa, pero, atenuada, se manifiesta también en el habla corriente y aun en la prosa...Los críticos se han detenido en esta turbadora particularidad de la poesía, sin reparar que a esta suerte de movilidad e indeterminación de los significados corresponde otra particularidad igualmente fascinante: la inmovilidad de los signos. La poesía transforma radicalmente el lenguaje y en dirección contraria al de la prosa. En un caso, a la movilidad de los signos corresponde la tendencia a fijar un solo significado; en el otro, a la pluralidad de significados corresponde la fijeza de los signos. Ahora bien, el lenguaje es un sistema de signos móviles que, hasta cierto punto, pueden ser intercanjeables: una palabra puede ser sustituida por otra y cada frase puede ser dicha (traducida) por otra. Podría afirmarse que el significado de una palabra es siempre otra palabra. Para comprobarlos basta recordar que cada vez que preguntamos: ¿Qué quiere decir esta frase?, se nos responde con otra frase. Pues bien, apenas nos internamos en los dominios de la poesía, las palabras pierden su movilidad y su intecanjeabilidad. Los sentidos del poema son múltiples y cambiantes; las palabras del mismo poema son únicas e insustituibles. Cambiarlas sería destruir el poema. La poesía, sin dejar de ser lenguaje, es un más allá del lenguaje. El punto de partida del traductor no es el lenguaje en movimiento , materia prima del poeta, sino el lenguaje fijo del poema. Lenguaje congelado y, no obstante, perfectamente vivo. Su operación es inversa a la del poeta: no se trata de construir con signos móviles un texto inamovible, sino de desmontar los elementos de este texto, poner de nuevo en circulación los signos y devolverlos al lenguaje.
Más adelante, en su magnífica exposición, añadirá: la actividad del traductor es paralela a la del poeta, con esta diferencia capital: al escribir, el poeta no sabe cómo será su poema; al traducir, el traductor sabe que su poema deberá reproducir el poema que tiene delante de los ojos. Así pues yo veo que con una dosis de sensibilidad suficiente, con un saber vagar en el universo de los signos, con un poder desmaterializar verbalmente el yo propio e intercambiarlo por el yo ajeno, cualquier persona preparada, poeta o no, puede abrazar el terrible leño de la traducción.

Yo he disfrutado mucho leyéndome en los otros. Originariamente, disfruté leyendo lo que no tenía claro que había escrito; luego, disfruté cuando, al pasar el tiempo, recordé que olvidaba mis textos, que no sabía quién los había transcrito con mis dedos, quién empujó la luz hacia un teclado oscuro, quién dijo lo que yo decía y por qué exactísimamente me lo dijo a mí, que no podía escucharle porque mi mano iba trazando otros caminos y las letras formaban sus mundos paralelos. Luego, disfruté, viendo qué dijo él, el que me levantó el poema en una lengua nueva. Me miré en sus ojos, me vi en su forma de verme, me adiviné en su mano, en su lengua –la que no domino-, en sus detalles mínimos, en su voz, que no era robada y sin embargo reconocía como mía y ajena.

Me salí de mí misma, me fui otra.
Un poema, que realmente sea poema y una traducción bien hecha, no tienen más historia, porque bien dijo Alejandra:

"Coger y morir
no tienen adjetivos"

Acabo esta exposición, insinuándoles que busquen en el argot de la lengua madre de Alejandra, el significado más turbador de la palabra coger, ese tremendo verbo que nos induce, a veces, a tomar el deseo en su plena extensión y parecer morir una muerte que, por suerte, es intensa, pero no definitiva. He dicho.

Hay quien defiende las traducciones como mal menor ... puede que en algunos casos sea conveniente, en otros casos las traducciones son simplemente un mal inútil, porque por mucho que se intente no podrán ni acercarse al original. Yo creo que hay que asumirlo y, en mi caso, celebrar que se habla un idioma con una riquísima y extensa literatura.

Cuando le dieron el premio Nobel a Vicente Aleixandre, leí en una revista literaria francesa la opinión de uno de sus máximos admiradores franceses, diciendo que Aleixandre era un surrealista desatado, porque un día le había dicho: "...j'étais dedans une bouteille avec mes pensées" (estaba dentro de una botella con mis pensamientos). Tardé dos días en darme cuenta de que lo que había dicho el poeta era "Estaba enfrascado en mis pensamientos". Ahora a ver cómo se lo explicas eso al pobrecito admirador, fascinado por el surrealismo de su ídolo.
Y gracias, Dolors por este hermoso texto, que está lleno de sugerentes preguntas y deducciones.

Señora mía: Su prosa es más recargada que el traje de una fallera de "Todo a Cien". Cuando tenga un ratito de descanso en bordar metaforas primorosas sobre el principio de sensación de la formas estética, le rogaría humildemente que me explique los términos "traductoril" e "intecanjeble" (o "intercanjeable"), así como la frase "escarbar en sus signos y en sus vacios".
A mí me suena a actividad gallinacea. Atentamente

Mi querido Pendón: Dese usted la vuelta, ya que se autodenomina Volteriano y lea. Si lo hace con corrección, verá que lo que usted pregunta, una servidora, vestida de fallera o de lagarterana, no se lo puede responder. No porque no sepa, sino porque no siendo míos los términos, se lo pregunte usted mismo, que para eso tiene pendón y mástil, al propio autor de esa cita: Sergio Viaggio.

Aparte de esto, siga "escarbando" en su propia nota de repulsa y ajuste géneros y número.
Ha sido un verdadero placer. Si no le importa, no me toque himnos a la salida del escenario, no los suelo soportar si no los interpreta Mozart.

Señor Pendón Volteriano: son muchos los que le propinarían una patada en el trasero con gusto, no sólo Julián Marías, pero creo que eso no debería impedirle hacer caso a lo que la dama le ha pedido y revisar su propio comentario. Estaré encantada de admitir su rectificación.
Respecto a las flores que ha dejado caer a los pies de doña Dolors, las recojo y las pondré en un búcaro rojo de cristal veneciano para alegrar mi limitado horizonte.

NO CELEBRO LA NAVIDAD, NI CUMPLO CON EL RAMADÁN, NI CONMEMORO EL YOM KIPPUR

Queridos mios: Es imperdonable ser cursi aunque sea Navidad. Y si sentís un gozo tan pleno y rebosante porque en el siglo IV se señaló el 25 de Diciembre como aniversario del nacimiento de Jesús, al menos, tened memoria también para acordaros de que soy atea y no celebro la Navidad con los cristianos, ni el Ramadán con los musulmanes, ni el Yom kippur con los judíos.
Y sobre todo, escribidme lo que os apetezca, pero no me mandéis ñoñeces místicas navideñas. Os lo ruego.
Gracias.

Y la señora esa que se hace la que no sabe, digo yo, que si sabe tan poco, que la remuevan del cargo, porque esa es la primera obligación de alguien que debe desempeñar un cargo y por ende tener una responsabilidad: la de saber que ocurre. ¡Vergonzoso!

Si como dice Hannah es vergonzoso, parece un político cualquiera. Están fuera de la realidad escondidos en sus despachos sin querer saber o si saben lo ignoran. Al menos que se callen y no digan sapos por la boca. La Navidad es un invento de las tiendas, y bien sabido es que todo es un cuento. Se sustituyó la fiesta pagana del nacimiento del sol. Yo prefiero celebrar esto, como buena atea. Un abrazo que esta mañana ni me he despedido.

Por supuesto que si abuela estoy contigo al 99%, no voy a decir que la navidad es un invento de las tiendas como apuntó alguien por aquí, pero sí me parece que es la festividad mas alejada de la idea de festividad de Dios que pueda existir, no quiero aqui hacer una defensa ni una crítica sino mas una cuestión y ya que has comentado que fué en el siglo cuarto cuando surgió esta fiesta y después de oir a d. Antonio Roucco hablar en la cope afirmando que el "triunfo" del cristianismo se remonta al siglo segundo d.c. cuando se sentaron las bases del renacimiento en Bizancio, hecho que casualmente coincidió con el surgimiento del islamismo y... después de escuchar a d. federico alabar a la persona de Dña. Isabel la católica como la reina mas importante de nuestra historia y probablemente de la historia de Europa, si no del mundo entero...
Y aquí viene sunseñor Roucco Varella a levantar aun mas a don federico argumentando que esta mujer fué una Gran mujer y que además define lo que está en la entraña de europa: que es según sus propias palabras: esa fe en dios proveniente de jc su hijo, que lleva a la afirmación del hombre. Todo ello dicho con unas eses, unas incongruencias y unas ausencias que llaman mi atención…. (la falta de mujer y el exceso de eses entre otras muchas verdades, me atrevo a decir la evidencia)
Y termina diciendo :
Isabel la católica no hubiese sido lo que fue sino es por su fe en j.c.
… hay muchas mas incongruencias .. pero no tengo tiempo (o como diría FJLS) hay tantos textos…
Pero le faltó decir hay tantos mas textos quemados…

Y sigue:
fijate si era buena Doña Isabel que tenía razón en esa teoría de la libertad y de la dignidad de cada ser humano por el hecho de ser humano, aunque fuese indio…
que estuvo a punto de suspender toda “la aventura de america” al conocer que se estaban cometiendo excesos contra individuos Urbie Torbis… en América.
Pero le faltó por decir que no lo hizo.
Que permitió arrasar pueblos y arrancar páginas de la historia con una impunidad regida en letras sobre papel…

y yo me planteo dos cuestiones, la primera, como fué la vida en esos dos primeros siglos? desde el siglo 0 al siglo 2 tras el supuesto impacto del supuesto hijo supuestamente enviado a la Cruz sin miramientos.. (hay tan poco escrito) y la segunda: ¿es casualidad que al mismo tiempo que surgió el cimiento de la actual iglesia (putrefacta en mi opinión) surgiese el islam ?

porqué el mundo quedó tan dramáticamente dividido entre los que dicen que creen y dicen seguir a Dios pero hacen todo lo contrario y los que no saben que hacer, pero se arrodillan puntualmente cada día, no vaya a ser que si no lo hacen un ladrillo caerá sobre su cabeza....?

Hannah y Zuriñe: vivimos en una época en la que a los políticos les basta aparentar buenas intenciones, aunque con sus hechos remachen la impunidad de los funcionarios sin conciencia. La indignación y el miedo es que la policía tiene las manos libres para presentar casos "cogidos con alfileres", que los jueces sobrecargados de trabajo y de falta de medios no pueden supervisar, y cualquiera podemos ser víctima del engranaje de la justicia, y encontrarnos en la carcel, donde se ha instituido la privación de los derechos mas elementales bajo la arbitrariedad de los funcionarios, que pueden dar destinos de privilegio o imponer sanciones sin rendir cuentas ante nadie.
Eso es lo grave: los derechos constitucionales son ignorados por quienes deberían velar por ellos.
Chey: me parece lógico que Rouco y Jiménez Losantos reivindique y afirmen eso: están en su derecho, como tú lo estás de escandalizarte y decir lo contrario. Ya sabes que a mí me parecen tan surrealistas como ajenos.

UN CARÁCTER DE PASTA FLORA

Para Alimaña (redactor-jefe de Alimaña News)

Habíamos conseguido coincidir a la hora del café un grupo que nos relacionábamos a base de bromas, pullas, frases equívocas, y la ironía era el envoltorio obligado cuando rozábamos lo personal. Nadie podía evitar las carcajadas, salvo Gloria, la dueña del bar, con su cara fofa y anodina, que, sin sonreír jamás, nos miraba como si fuéramos transparentes y viera la pared.

— Gloria, cóbrame, que estos vagos no tienen que trabajar, pero yo sí— era mi modo de despedirme a diario, y jamás me dirigía la palabra, pero aquella tarde, quizás porque su marido no estaba, se atrevió a decirme en susurros:

— Tú trabajas en el bufete con tu padre... quiero localizar a mi madre... ella me dijo que él sabría dónde...

—Gloria, eso lo tendrás que hablar con él...

—No me lo quiere decir...

—Lo siento, yo tampoco estoy al corriente...

Los ojos se le llenaron de lágrimas sin un sollozo y sin cambiar su gesto neutro.

—Haz lo que puedas, por favor, necesito hablar con mi madre.

—Ya sabes cómo es mi padre, Gloria. Es una tumba con los asuntos del bufete. Yo tengo mis clientes y él los suyos, y no me cuenta nada.

—Haz lo que puedas...

No llegaba a los treinta años, y, sin embargo, parecía mayor que su marido, que tenía más de cincuenta. Éste solía jugar la partida, bromeaba con los clientes, y sólo pasaba detrás de la barra para abrir la caja y guardarse el dinero. Era un tío simpático, piropeador y bromista, que había tenido innumerables novias y líos de faldas, pero al final fue a casarse cerca de los cuarenta años, cuando Gloria acababa de cumplir dieciocho. Fue un bombazo, pero como yo estudiaba en Barcelona por aquella época, no me interesó mucho y si algo me contaron lo había olvidado. Pero me impresionaron aquellas lágrimas sin aspavientos, y a la primera ocasión que tuve le pregunté a mi padre.

—Hay un sobre lacrado para que, si yo muero repentinamente, puedas cumplir las disposiciones que me han dejado mis clientes.

—Sí, papá, ya lo sé. ¿Por qué se enfadó su madre tanto como para no dejarle saber su paradero?

—Todo lo que te pudiera decir lo sé por mi cliente, y es confidencial. Pregúntale a tu madre o a sus amigas, que está al corriente de todos los chismes del pueblo.

—Muy bien, papá. Y perdona si te he molestado.

Así es que fue mi madre quien me contó lo que se sabía:

—Luisa, la madre de Gloria se quedó viuda muy joven. Su marido fue a buscar setas, y cayó por un barranco. Debía de estar borracho, como solía. Luisa, pareció volverse loca y durante un tiempo tuvo que estar su madre con ella para que no hiciera una locura. Poco a poco se recuperó, pero no ha vuelto a querer a otro, y eso que ha tenido enamorados y propuestas de matrimonio. Dijo que tenía que ganarse su vida y, en vez de comerse los ahorros, los invirtió en arreglar el local dónde su marido había tenido la guarnicionería. Empezó dando desayunos y comidas, y cerraba a las cuatro de la tarde para ir a buscar a su hija al colegio.

Ahora a nadie le extrañaría, pero fue un escándalo en aquella época, porque las únicas mujeres que atendían a los clientes eran las de los bares de mala nota. Pero Luisa se hacía de querer por su buen carácter y los parroquianos hicieron causa común con ella, y jamás consintieron que la molestaran... A su niña la llevó al colegio de las monjas, y luego, la mandó interna a un colegio carísimo en Barcelona. Para poderlo costear, abría desde las siete de la mañana hasta las doce de la noche, y tuvo que contratar un camarero y una mujer para ayudarle en la cocina. Pero cuando hablaba de los estudios de su hija su rostro irradiaba alegría:

—Mi hija podrá estudiar y ser lo que quiera, eso lo juro por lo más sagrado.

En verano, Gloria pasaba las vacaciones en el pueblo, pero su madre no le permitía que le echara una mano en el bar. Y si alguien se lo sugería, Luisa contestaba tajante:

—No. Lo que tiene que hacer es descansar y divertirse, que bastante hace con estudiar. Este año también ha sacado las mejores notas de su curso. Podrá llegar adónde quiera...

—Se le ve mucho con Pablo...

—¿Pablo? ¡Pero si le dobla la edad! ¡Qué cosas se os ocurren!

Sin embargo, cuando Gloria cumplió dieciocho años, volvió al pueblo sin pedir permiso en el internado, y apareció a la hora de los aperitivos con Pablo de la mano. Luisa estaba fregando la vajilla, y se quedó lívida, pero siguió con lo suyo como si no los hubiera visto. Gloria habló como si quisiera que todos los clientes escucharan nítidamente.

—Pablo y yo nos vamos a casar la semana que viene.

Luisa ni se dignó mirar a Pablo.

—¿Estás embarazada?

—Soy mayor de edad.

—¿De qué vas a vivir? A Pablo lo conozco desde que echó los dientes... no...

Pablo con una sonrisa de suficiencia, dijo:

—Gloria está al corriente de que tú y yo hemos sido amantes... no le he ocultado nada... Lo sabe todo el pueblo, Luisa, así es que no te molestes en disimular: saben por qué dejaste a tu hija en un internado para que no te molestara...

Luisa siguió sin mirarlo, pero sus ojos chispeaban de ira, y le preguntó a su hija:

—¿De qué vas a vivir?

—Quiero la parte de la herencia de mi padre.

—La herencia de tu padre es este local, dónde yo puse el bar... dónde he trabajado como una bestia...

—Entonces este bar es mío. No hay más que hablar.

Luisa apretó los dientes, se quitó el delantal, fue a buscar las llaves y se las entregó.

—Si tú trabajas aquí no te faltará el pan.

—Trabajaremos los dos...

—No creo, hija mía, no creo... pero como tú misma has dicho, eres mayor de edad

Luisa puso en venta su casa y las tierras, dejó poderes firmados para no tener que volver, y se marchó del pueblo antes de la boda de Gloria y Pablo.

Estaba a punto de subir al tren cuando Gloria llegó corriendo a la estación y quiso darle un abrazo, despedirse de ella o convencerla para que se quedara... Luisa la apartó sin miramientos:

—Ya sabes mis condiciones, cuando cumplas, dile a mi abogado que me llame, él sabrá como localizarme. Pero no me llames por ningún otro motivo, porque no vendré.

Y mi madre me aseguró lo que yo había sospechado:

—Pablo es un canalla que la humilla, la explota, y la maltrata... Esas caídas y esos accidentes domésticos que ella cuenta sólo son palizas...

—Quizás si se le pediera ayuda a Luisa...

—A tu padre le ha avisado una docena de veces que necesita hablar con ella, pero él no le hace ni caso... ¡Tu padre tiene el corazón como una piedra! Dice que él ha de seguir las instrucciones de su cliente...

Seguí yendo al bar cada día, pero Gloria no volvió a comentarme nada y yo borré de mi cabeza aquel drama sórdido y vulgar.

Al cabo de unos meses, la Guardia Civil despertó a mi padre a las seis de la mañana y mi madre, volvió a ser mi fuente de información.

—Por lo visto, Pablo volvió demasiado borracho anoche... Lo encontró un vecino en el hueco de la escalera. Cayó desde el cuarto piso...

—¿Y su mujer?

—La tuvo que despertar la Guardia Civil porque toma pastillas para dormir y... quiso tirarse por la ventana cuando se enteró... La han tenido que sedar y está ingresada, dice que se matará, que no quiere seguir viviendo sin él...
—Lo siento, mamá, nunca entenderé a las mujeres... ¿Cómo puede reaccionar así cuando ha muerto su torturador?
—No sé, hijo, no se sabe nunca lo que ocurre en un matrimonio... y una cosa es lo que creemos que pasa y otra... ¡En fin! Tu padre se ha decidido a llamar a Luisa, y está de camino... estará a punto de llegar.

Al cabo de un tiempo volvió a abrir el bar, y Luisa ayudaba en la barra, y cuidaba a su hija con ternura. Se les veía muy unidas, y los parroquianos fuimos viendo la transformación paulatina de Gloria, que respondía a los cuidados de su madre hasta convertirse en una mujer de belleza serena y con una sonrisa casi perenne, y recuperó el aspecto juvenil de antes de casarse.

A finales del verano se marcharon de vacaciones, y sólo volvió Luisa:
—Gloria se ha vuelto a matricular en la Universidad. Así es que ya podéis espabilar y poneros al corriente de pago, que tenéis muchas cuentas atrasadas y como tenemos un carácter de pasta flora, nos tomáis el pelo...

Mi padre tuvo un infarto cerebral al poco de volver Gloria a la Universidad, y nunca llegó a recuperarse, aunque nos empeñamos en hablar con él como cuando estaba sano, y actuamos como si fuera a recuperarse y volver al bufete.

Todo esto ocurrió hace más de quince años.

Gloria terminó sus estudios de Bioquímica, y se fue a trabajar a Estados Unidos. Supimos del éxito de sus investigaciones en Genética por las revistas científicas en inglés que Luisa mostraba orgullosa.
—Está investigando las leyes de la herencia por línea materna.
En las fotos se le veía cada vez más joven y siempre sonriente.

Luisa acabó vendiendo el bar y se marchó a vivir a Norteamérica con su hija. No hemos vuelto a saber de ellas.

Mi padre murió hace una semana y he tenido que abrir los sobres sellados con lacre que no quise consultar mientras vivió. Al fín he sabido la única condición que Luisa puso para perdonar a su hija y acudir a su lado: "Cuando mi hija haga con su marido lo que yo tuve que hacer con su padre, avíseme. Bajo ninguna otra circunstancia está autorizado a llamarme."

Gracias, gracias, Gatopardo. Yo vivo en un primero, pero siempre bajo en ascensor y cierro la puerta tras de mí. Y jamás permito a mi amada Alimañeja que vea mis anchas espaldas...
Por cierto, no te voy a perdonar la paga extra ni la cesta de navidad.

EL CASERÓN

A Gatopardo

Abro la puerta, sombras comienzan a moverse en la quietud amplísima del vacío.
Al sonido tangente del metal, todas se han congregado. Tras el zaguán, el patio exhala un blanco níveo que no borra las lianas ausentes de los potos ni el ágil griterío de los niños que trepaba, sin alas, las paredes.

Todo está fijo, entro en la antigua cocina y en la mesa unos cirios azules parecen consumirse en la llama imposible de tanta soledad.
No abriré la despensa donde guardaba loza por no ver esos vasos que rozaron, igual que mis mejillas, cada labio,
no comprobar el sueño, ya de muerte, de cucharas y platos ateridos, más fríos todavía que el metal y la piedra, entre tanto mutismo, el de esta casa enorme.

En el salón de al lado, el viejo arcón de madera, cruzando tiempo y duelo a la vez, tiempo y más tiempo de guardar en su vientre cosas que nadie busca, ropa ajándose y un terrible abandono que ya se le desborda.
La lámpara, en cambio, entera, una ciudad de diminutas casas en el polvo, sus largas telarañas como péndulos de un gran reloj sin horas ni saetas.
Tras la puerta del fondo duerme la cama inmensa en un vasto vacío, es una tumba donde cuerpos antiguos miran, abren los ojos ya calmados del amor, se giran, de repente, y suena algo como un beso furtivo en la incerteza.

He recorrido todo el viejo caserón
y, ni siquiera, el perro que hubo en otro tiempo ha salido a ladrar, me reconoce
y mueve alegremente la memoria envolvente de su cola.
Mi sollozante mano le recorre el lomo, ahora de viento. Cinco rosas siguen abriendo al hoy delgados pétalos.
La tierra, en los parterres, es un río ya seco. Nada queda sino un todo que acude a devolverme nombres y la certeza de ser yo ya una parte del abismo.
De ser tú ya otra voz confundida, tal vez, con esas voces que me llaman sin ser, sin estar, recobrándose para esa eternidad que llamamos recuerdo; para esa soledad que llamamos pasado

y para el hondo frío, el jardín familiar que llamamos la muerte.

Al sonido tangente de la luz acude toda sombra hacia mi sombra.

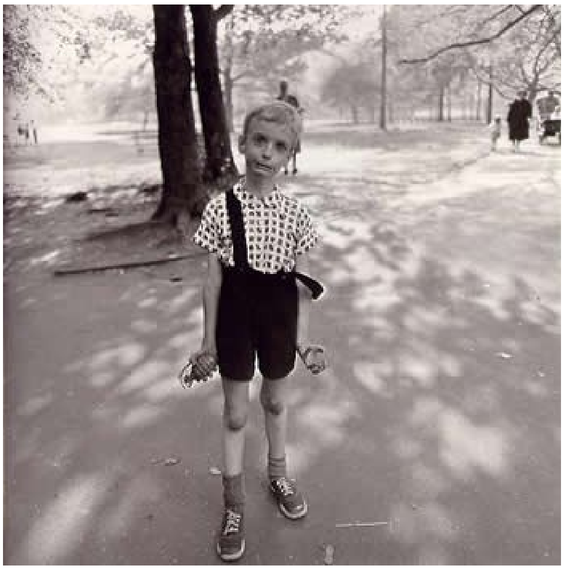
DEPRESIÓN, PROZAC Y PUBLICIDAD ENGAÑOSA



La manipulación en el desarrollo y validación científica de fármacos confunde a médicos, perjudica a pacientes y prostituye el proceso de creación científica

En el frívolo y apresurado mundo actual en que vivimos existe una preocupante distorsión entre la información que ofrecen las compañías farmacéuticas sobre sus productos y los efectos reales de éstos. Se trata de vender a toda costa, incluso a costa de nuestra salud, escondiendo en algunos casos tanto los resultados de estudios que no son favorables al fármaco como la escasa –o nula– validez científica de las investigaciones realizadas para su desarrollo y comercialización. Acaba de publicarse en PLoS Medicine un revelador artículo sobre la desconexión que existe entre los anuncios de medicamentos antidepresivos y la realidad científica que los ampara.

La investigación científica da pie a la fabricación y venta de muchos medicamentos que son útiles, e incluso esenciales, para la salud de todos. Las vacunas, por ejemplo, son prácticamente indispensables para mantener la esperanza de vida actual. Pero hay algunos casos en que los productos que se venden no están apoyados por el rigor de la ciencia, sino más bien por la información engañosa y la voracidad capitalista.

Desde hace tiempo se sabe que algunos de los medicamentos que nos recetan los discípulos de Hipócrates no hacen el efecto deseado o, al menos, con la eficacia que proclaman los poseedores de las patentes. Esta poco saludable noticia puede extraerse, por ejemplo, de un trabajo publicado en 2003 en el British Medical Journal (BMJ) por un equipo de investigación de la Universidad de Toronto.

La principal conclusión de este trabajo es que si un estudio científico para el desarrollo de un fármaco está financiado por una compañía farmacéutica, el resultado tiende a favorecer al producto fabricado por esa misma compañía (con una probabilidad de 4 a 1). Este desequilibrio no existe en los estudios financiados por otras fuentes. O sea, existe una presión económica, una mano fantasma, que puede dirigir experimentos en principio puramente científicos, y por lo tanto objetivos, y convertirlos en ciencia mal hecha para favorecer los intereses de unos pocos.

Un proceso bajo sospecha

La manipulación es sutil y supera alegremente los severos filtros que tiene la ciencia para la investigación y publicación de resultados. Según los autores del estudio publicado en el BMJ, el sesgo puede producirse en la raíz misma del proceso de desarrollo del fármaco, en el que existen dos etapas importantes: por un lado está la investigación en el laboratorio y por otro el proceso de validación de los resultados.

Los experimentos de laboratorio financiados por empresas farmacéuticas son de igual o mejor calidad que el resto, pero puede ocurrir que el diseño experimental sea erróneo, lo cual lleva a una interpretación errónea de los resultados (en este caso erróneo quiere decir favorable a los intereses de la compañía).

Todos los científicos sabemos, o deberíamos saber, que tan importante como un experimento en sí es el diseño teórico de éste. A la hora de comprobar si un nuevo fármaco es potente y eficaz, lo correcto es cotejar sus efectos con las mejores drogas ya existentes en el mercado. Sin embargo, lo que se hace en muchos casos es comparar al candidato simplemente con un placebo, o utilizar dosis no apropiadas del producto en investigación.

A pesar de que la realización física de los experimentos puede ser inmaculada, la interpretación de los resultados no lo es. El paso siguiente, una vez que se tienen los resultados experimentales, es la validación de éstos por la comunidad científica. Un descubrimiento o avance científico no se considera tal hasta que no se publica en una revista que posea un proceso de selección por revisión por pares (la aceptación o rechazo de los trabajos se hace sobre la base de informes realizados por evaluadores externos, imparciales y anónimos).

Ningún científico serio puede fiarse de resultados no publicados de esta forma. Sin embargo, muchos de los resultados de los experimentos financiados por compañías farmaceuticas no se publican nunca en este tipo de revistas, sino que lo hacen en congresos o simposios. A pesar de esto, los medicamentos son finalmente aceptados por las agencias oficiales correspondientes y puestos a la venta.

Soluciones difíciles

En este juego los médicos pueden hacer poco o nada. A pesar de que, con su mejor voluntad, receten los fármacos que crean realmente ser los mejores, pueden estar confundidos. Pero no confundidos por los visitadores médicos, sino por la letra pequeña de los informes científicos.

Según lo anterior, la única manera que tendría un médico para estar seguro de que una medicina es más efectiva que otra, o por lo menos para tener una opinión crítica independiente, sería acercarse a la biblioteca de una universidad próxima y revisar todas las publicaciones científicas relacionadas con el descubrimiento y desarrollo de una determinada sustancia, algo que es muy difícil de llevar a la práctica.

Pero es que, además, otro estudio publicado en el mismo número del BMJ analiza la fiabilidad de la bibliografía cuando se trata de trabajos financiados por la industria farmacéutica, e indica que es virtualmente imposible elegir un fármaco adecuado sumergiéndose en la biblioteca, ya que incluso las publicaciones en revistas con evaluadores externos están sesgadas por factores diversos.

Por ejemplo, existe una tendencia de las compañías privadas para publicar sólo los resultados que les resultan favorables, escondiendo otros resultados que pueden ser científicamente correctos, y muy interesantes, pero que no les conviene airear. Esto no ocurre, sin embargo, con la investigación financiada por otras fuentes.

El ejemplo de la publicidad de antidepresivos

La tergiversación o el ocultamiento de información alcanza de manera escandalosa a muchos ciudadanos a través de las campañas de publicidad de algo tan delicado como los fármacos para tratar la depresión. Esta dolencia afecta a millones de personas en todo el mundo y su tratamiento habitual es el farmacológico, principalmente con sustancias que actúan sobre los niveles de serotonina, una molécula muy común en el sistema nervioso.

Aunque funcionan, no está demostrado científicamente que la serotonina tenga algo que ver con la/s causa/s de la enfermedad. Este hecho, ignorado por muchos médicos, es hábilmente tapado por las todopoderosas industrias farmacéuticas, que venden millones de esos medicamentos cada año.

En la página web española de Lilly, fabricante del Prozac, puedo leer esto sobre la depresión: se ha comprobado que existen alteraciones de unas sustancias químicas presentes en el cerebro. (…) En los pacientes depresivos, los niveles de estas sustancias están disminuidos. Los medicamentos antidepresivos se encargan de regularlas y de que vuelvan a sus niveles normales. Según parece son todas afirmaciones incorrectas (ver más abajo). Frases similares pueden encontrarse en la publicidad de otras compañías.

En un artículo recién publicado en PLoS Medicine, se revela el uso despiadado que hacen las empresas farmacéuticas de los preparados antidepresivos de tipo ISRS (Inhibidores Selectivos de la Recaptación de Serotonina). A este grupo pertenecen medicamentos como la fluoxetina (Prozac), sertralina (Vestiran, Aremis), paroxetina (Seroxat, Motivan) y otros.

Esos medicamentos alivian la depresión pero, curiosamente, no se sabe cómo. El éxito que tienen en todo el mundo se debe en gran medida a la publicidad engañosa de las compañías que los venden, con la complicidad de las agencias estatales de turno y también del desconocimiento y/o frivolidad de algunos médicos.

Serotonina y depresión

El funcionamiento de los ISRS es, en principio, sencillo. La mayoría de las neuronas (células principales del sistema nervioso) se comunican entre sí mediante una sustancia química o neurotransmisor: en los lugares llamados sinapsis estas sustancias son liberadas por una neurona –la que envía información– y captadas por la superficie de otra –la que recibe la información.

La liberación del neurotransmisor está siempre acompañada de la casi inmediata eliminación del mismo, de tal manera que tiene muy poco tiempo para actuar sobre la célula receptora. Si esta eliminación falla o se bloquea, el neurotransmisor tiene más tiempo para actuar, por lo que aumentan sus efectos.

La serotonina es una de estas sustancias transmisoras de información. Actúa en muchísimas sinapsis del sistema nervisoso y está siendo eliminada continuamente por un proceso de re-captación: es absorbida, captada de nuevo por la neurona que la liberó. Los fármacos ISRS impiden esta recaptación, de tal manera que la serotonina permanece más tiempo de lo normal en las sinapsis, aumentando su efecto sobre las células receptoras.

La teoría inexistente

Por razones todavía desconocidas, esta estrategia de aumentar los niveles de serotonina en las sinapsis ayuda a mejorar los síntomas en la mayoría de las depresiones. Este hecho dio lugar hace años a la teoría de que la depresión es un desequilibrio químico en el cerebro consistente en una disminución en los niveles de algunos neurotransmisores.

En la actualidad, instituciones, médicos y el gran público tienen asimilado que esa relación (menos serotonina = depresión) es una teoría científicamete válida, pero no es así: no hay absolutamente ninguna evidencia científica seria que demuestre la existencia de una deficiencia de serotonina en la depresión, ni en ningún otro desorden psiquiátrico.

Esta es al menos la tajante conclusión de Jeffrey R. Lacasse y Jonathan Leo, los dos autores del artículo de PLoS Medicine (del Florida State University College of Social Work y el Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine repectivamente). El hecho de que los fármacos ISRS funcionen relativamente bien –el Prozac es el antidepresivo más recetado de la historia– dio lugar a la citada teoría, pero esto de buscar la causa de una enfermedad sobre la base de la respuesta a un tratamiento es un mal argumento; es algo así como decir que, ya que el Frenadol o la Couldina alivian los síntomas del catarro, éste se debe a la existencia de niveles bajos de esos compuestos en el cuerpo.

La confusión está en todos los niveles: en el portal tecnociencia, gestionado por el Ministerio de Educación y Ciencia español, y con el apoyo técnico del CSIC (Centro Superior de Investigaciones Científicas), puede leerse algo similar a lo que aparece en la publicidad de las campañas farmacéuticas se ha demostrado que la bioquímica del cerebro juega un papel significativo en los trastornos depresivos. Se sabe que las personas con depresión grave tienen desequilibrios de ciertas sustancias químicas en el cerebro, conocidas como neurotransmisores . Pues no, no hay nada demostrado en la literatura científica.

Hay instituciones –como la británica National Institute for Clinical Excellence– que, tomando los datos científicos con rigor, aconsejan tratar la depresión moderada con métodos no farmacológicos (por ejemplo la psicoterapia).

¿De dónde viene la confusión? Los autores del artículo comentado creen que de la publicidad de las empresas farmacéuticas, que no dudan en utilizar frases científicamente inexactas para distribuir sus productos por el mundo. Esto –aseguran Lacasse y Leo– lleva a una sociedad hiper-medicalizada, con pacientes que acuden a las consultas influídos por lo que escuchan en los medios de comunicación y que pueden ser escépticos con los médicos que les dicen que es mejor una terapia alternativa a la farmacológica.

Además de la intoxicación mediática, también entra en juego muchas veces el interés por la no-información, ya que estas compañías no sacan a la luz los datos de los estudios que no le son favorables –hay por ejemplo estudios que demuestran que sustancias placebo u otras como el extracto de hipérico (Hipericum perforatum) son tan eficaces en el tratamiento de la depresión como los ISRS–.

Todos, o casi todos, perdemos

Con esta prostitución del proceso de creación científica todos perdemos, empezando por los pacientes. Estas medias verdades son financiadas por las grandes compañías, distribuídas por los visitadores médicos y dispensadas por los médicos a todos nosotros. Unos pierden credibilidad y otros la salud.

Muchos laboratorios universitarios no tienen más remedio que aceptar suculentas ofertas de las grandes compañías para seguir investigando, ya que los gobiernos son extremadamente inútiles para comprender que la investigación científica es algo que beneficia a toda la sociedad. La mejor solución sería convencer a los políticos de la necesidad de invertir en el desarrollo científico y tecnológico. El problema es que las ciencias funcionan a largo plazo, pero los políticos no.

Este artículo es maravilloso. Aunque no tenga ni idea de neurología, o psiquiatría ni de medicina o farmacología, lo que veo al leerlo es un retrato de nuestra sociedad. No queremos tomarnos el tiempo de estar bien, simplemente doparnos para no darnos cuenta de lo mal que estamos. Y no hablo aquí solamente de antidepresivos. Nos dopamos con muchísimas otras cosas (programas de tv incluídos). Los psicólogos han perdido su momentum, es la era de los psiquiatras (si no puedes medicar estás "out"). En la vida, como en la ciencia, hemos perdido la noción de lo que requiere un proceso: paciencia y dedicación. Pues todo eso es muy costoso. Todo debe tenerse rápidamente, ahora, ¡ya! Y que no cueste mucho, pues sino no hay negocio. La economía, donde impera un capitalismo inhumano, rige nuestro mundo. No se trata de la falta de valores, sí que los hay, los valores son los del capitalismo. Y el valor de la vida humana, el primero y más importante, ya no corre, porque con él se pierden muchos negocios.
Lo peor de todo es que estamos destruyendo nuestra humanidad, convencidos de que es por nuestro bien.

Muy acertado el tema. Realmente los médicos tienen muchos problemas a la hora de recetar medicamentos en los que no tienen una seguridad absoluta.
Cheli y sus amigos, en algunas reuniones, se cansaban de repetirlo y, para paliar el problema, utilizaban la información que podían disponer entre ellos. De esta manera suplían la desconfianza con su propia investigación. Siempre había uno de ellos enterado de algo, fuera sevillano o de Nantes. Cuando a un paciente se le habían administrado todos los fármacos de confianza sin resultado alguno, entonces, solo entonces le administran uno de nueva generación. Y, evidentemente, se le hace un seguimiento especial y exaustivo. Si el resultado es positivo, se pasan la información de inmediato entre ellos.
Es curioso la calidad médica que disponemos en Europa. Sobre todo, la hospitalaria, sea privada o no. Especialmente en la especialidad de los internistas que son los que ven más, experimentan más y sufren más con el enfermo.

Hace poco más de un mes se prohibió un medicamento ampliamente utilizado para los problemas menopáusicos, porque desencadenaban episodios depresivos, sicóticos y suicidas. El principio activo era el VERALIPRIDE, fármaco antidopaminérgico sintetizado a partir de la observación de la eficacia del Sulpiride, buscando mantener su efecto sobre los sofocos y evitar el resto de sus acciones. Su eficacia contra los sofocos fue ampliament demostrada por diferentes autores. Resulta curiosa la gran cantidad de bibliografía francesa al respecto, siendo frecuentemente ignorado en la literatura anglosajona. A una dosis de 100 - 200 mg/día se ha encontrado una reducción de los sofocos entre el 64 y el 91%. El Veralipride aumenta la prolactina y disminuye la LH. Aunque su efecto sobre la prolactina es menor que el del sulpiride, produce ocasionalmente galactorrea y mastodinia. También se ha descrito somnolencia, trastornos del sueño, trastornos digestivos y vértigos. Sin embargo los que lo recomendaron decían que se había observado un efecto beneficioso sobre los síntomas psíquicos del síndrome climatérico.

Otros fármacos antidopaminérgicos, como la metoclopramida o la domperidona a unas dosis de los 10 - 20 mg/día, se vienen utilizando contra los sofocos, como a
BROMOCRIPTINA
Es un derivado del cornezuelo del centeno, estimulante dopaminérgico, cuya utilización más frecuente es en las hiperprolactinemias. Estimula el 23 sistema dopaminérgico reduciendo las tasas de prolactina, pero sin aumentar las de LH. y se usa contra los sofocos.

"En definitiva, el déficit estrogénico por derivación en el Climaterio, podría alterar el equilibrio en las neurotransmisiones hipotalámicas" (cosa sin demostrar)y atribuyen a este desequilibrio, la alteración el Centro Termo-regulador del área pre-óptica del Hipotálamo iniciándose el sofoco. Los autores se interrogan, ya que las dudas persisten, ¿cuál en realidad es o son las causas del sofoco?."
Pues bien, lo único que está empíricamente demostrado es que las mujeres que trabajan en la agricultura o tienen una actividad similar no padecen sofocos ni problemas de osteoporosis ni todos los síntomas menopáusicos que tienen las mujeres con una actividad profesional sedentaria.
De la misma manera,las mujeres que asumen el proceso de envejecimiento como algo natural, y no desean ignorarlo y posponerlo neuróticamente, tienen menos probabilidades de tener sofocos, palpitaciones, y todos los síntomas descritos.
Pero quizás eso no sea rentable para la industria farmacéutica y las industrias que se benefician del grotesco deseo de ser jóvenes hasta la tumba.

Medicamentos y Productos Sanitarios envió una circular en la que alertaba de las "reacciones adversas psiquiátricas y de tipo neurológico, algunas de ellas graves" y avisaba también que estos efectos secundarios podían aparecer también al suspender el tratamiento.
De hecho, esta misma agencia volvió a enviar una nueva circular a comienzos de junio para aconsejar a los facultativos la reducción paulatina de las dosis de Agreal y recomendar la "especial vigilancia" de pacientes con depresión, ansiedad o ataques de pánico.

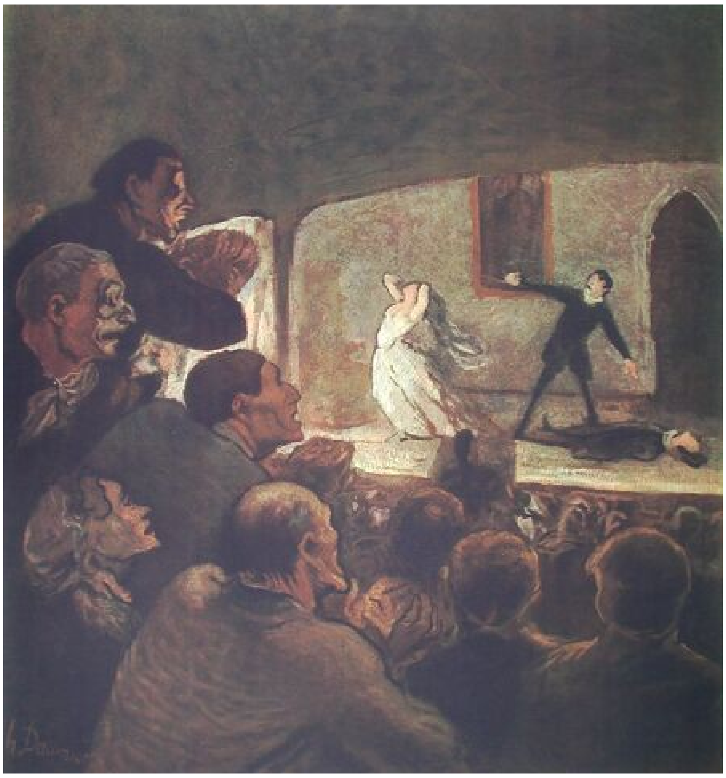
TEORÍA DE LA LITERATURA



Entre las publicaciones digitales y los estudios que suelo consultar, me parecen excelentes las de la Universidad Complutense de Madrid, y muy esclarecedores los artículos y análisis del profesor de Teoría de la Literatura, Ángel García Galiano.
Como muestra os traigo la reseña crítica que escribió sobre dos ensayos de Manuel García Viñó, publicados en 1995: "La novela relativista y quántica", "Heterodoxia", cuaderno, n.' 22, y "El soborno de Caronte" (El Toro de Barro):

"Dentro de su ya vasta obra, tanto narrativa como crítica y teorética, nos ofrece ahora García Viñó, un pensador heterodoxo y saludablemente atípico en el yerto panorama contemporáneo, dos ensayos publicados casi a la par, complementarios entre si y que acaso convendría leerlos como uno solo. Se trata en ambos casos de textos construidos a base de la acumulación paragráfica de materiales, ideas, intuiciones, demandas,avisos, que apuntan a dos fines fundamentales, uno de denuncia, el otro de construcción. El primero, que nace de la decepción y el hastío ante la vacua retórica postmoderna, consiste en denunciar la impostura que alimenta y de que se nutre la actual estética literaria y artística, basada no tanto en el valor estético de los productos que ofrece, como en la regulación (artificial) de un mercado y la posterior satisfacción del mismo con manufacturas ad hoc, casi de usar y tirar, absolutamente perecederas, prescindibles, falsas, hojarascas hinchada por los voceros del Sistema, que alientan con su necia conjura la increíble y paralizante idiocia del actual «consumidor» teledirigido de arte y literatura, al que se le da el gato de la «i*nformación*», y se le escamotea la secular liebre de la sabiduría, del conocimiento; al que se asaetea con reclamos comerciales, nombres, valores del momento que, desde la programación del marketing, se asimilan a lo que se lleva, a lo que ahora es cultura, etc., con una tendencia monstruosa a confundir (interesadísimamente) valor y precio, sobre todo en pintura. Curiosamente, tales productos tan brillantemente manufacturados y biodegradables como vacuos, apuntan siempre a apuntalar el Sistema, mantener el estado de apatía y grisura actual, evitan la profundización en los grandes temas que siempre han preocupado al ser humano, aquellos, precisamente, cuya reflexión lo capacitan y constituyen como persona. A cambio, se prefiere un pseudoculturalismo de opereta y una frivolidad evanescente alentada, no sé si culpablemente, por buena parte de los críticos, acaso impelidos a ello por presiones desde dentro o por un ataque irreprimible de adocenamiento anihilante.
Una vez denunciada, y contundentemente, la impostura (ese famoso «vale todo», peligrosamente equiparable a «nada vale»), el segundo propósito suyo es proponer al debate público una serie de materiales que apuntan a la cada vez más necesaria construcción de una teoría literaria capaz de dar cuenta, sistemáticamente, de la que García Viñó, apelando a la terminología de la física, llama la novela quántica y relativista. Se trata en fin de la constitución de lo que podríamos llamar una «teoría unificada» de la poética de la ficción postcervantina, empleando este término en el sentido de aludir a aquellas novelas que ya no siguen (¡y desde hace un siglo¡) el cauce decimonónico-realista fundado a partir del Quijote y que culmina en Tolstoi; lo que García Viñó ha dado en llamar «novela mecanicista» o newtoniana, por transcribir temática y estructuralmente la cosmovisión de la física y la astronomía que revolucionó la Edad Moderna.

Se trataría de continuar una labor absolutamente necesaria en la que ya tenemos antecedentes ilustres, sin ir más lejos los trabajos de personalidades como Baquero Goyanes o Darío Villanueva, quienes ya apuntaban a este mismo esfuerzo en sus bien conocidos ensayos sobre la estructura de la novela actual o el tiempo reducido, respectivamente.
A fin de remover el abotagado ámbito de la moderna Preceptiva, a veces, y con honrosas excepciones, más preocupada por la mera acumulación erudita, el acarreo de teorías de teorías y las discusiones bizantinas y deconstructivas, que por la explicación de los fenómenos literarios que dan cuenta del mundo en que vivimos, García Viñó parte de una evidencia: la Filosofía y el Arte han corrido siempre parejas a la Ciencia. Son tres ámbitos o modos para conocer una y la misma Realidad. Pues bien, tras los descubrimientos de la física quántica y la teoría general de la relatividad, la desaparición, por resumir mucho, del sistema cosmovisionario y mecanicista de Newton, es obvio que también la novela (el arte en general) debía dar cuenta de esta nueva forma de instalación en el Universo, y que genera, obviamente, nuevos modos estructurales y nuevas técnicas narrativas por medio de las que transcribir, convincentemente, la nueva situación. De cómo enfocar, en fin, adecuadamente, los temas de siempre, el vino viejo, en los nuevos odres: así, por ejemplo, valga como botón de muestra de su análisis, no es casual que en este siglo la novela, el arte, se convierta en un mosaico discontinuo que no termina en sí mismo, sino en el lector; o la relevancia creciente del hecho pragmático en la comunicación literaria; la desaparición del decimonónico y seguro universo estable, cerrado, omnisciente. Ahora, en cambio, habrá tantas novelas como lecturas.
Tres son las características fundacionales de la Novela postmecanicista: el lenguaje, fin en sí mismo, no sólo medio para «relatar»: la intuición de Joyce, en definitiva (con un claro precedente en Flaubert); la estructura, que ya no puede ser lineal, sino laberíntica; y, por último, la forma insólita de presentar la realidad, como un sistema cerrado, autosuficiente, en que cada parte refleja el todo.
Pero en fin, no se trata ahora de resumir aquí las principales aportaciones del siempre polémico García Viñó, sino de invitar al lector universitario interesado en estos fundamentales aspectos de la Estética contemporánea a entrar en el debate que nos propone en estos dos trabajos. Digamos sólo, para terminar, que junto a los apuntes para una teoría o poética general, se ofrece, además, las características que habrá de tener el artista, el escritor, que dé cuenta de esta nueva realidad y que se resumen en un solo adjetivo: habrá de ser un heterodoxo, un no incardinado en el Sistema, habrá de ser un desplazado, un periférico. Pero, ¿cuándo el verdadero artista no lo ha sido?
Al margen de los aciertos o errores que presenten estas dos primeras aproximaciones,estos apuntes, adelantos, y a falta de la Teoría Unificada, lo cierto es que conviene darse cuenta lo antes posible del cambio de paradigma estético (y científico) que se ha producido, y ello por dos razones, para apuntar cuanto antes a la gran obra maestra que lo identifique como tal (el nuevo «Quijote»), y para denunciar a los que, remedando fórmulas trasnochadas, caricaturas mínimas de las grandes construcciones decimonónicas, quieren seguir sentando sus reales como depositarios y únicos garantes del valor estético de nuestros días: denunciar a los que alimentan la impostura y viven de ella."

Acabo de percatarme de algo profundamente turbador:
últimamente en Gatopardo todos se llaman García.

Efectivamente no es lo mismo hablar de una simple lectura que hablar de literatura. También es cierto que la cantidad (aspecto que determina muchas veces la preferencia del consumidor) y la calidad no siempre van de la mano, especialmente en la literatura contemporánea, como se suele decir. Como vemos, los valores del mercado, ligados siempre a la "cantidad", centran la mayor parte de su atención en lo superficial, ya que resulta ser más fácil de consumir y, por tanto, de vender.

Muy interesante el texto de García Galiano, que parte de las tres principales perspectivas que nos hacen comprender nuestras vidas y la vida. Me pregunto qué libro sería "EL Quijote" del siglo XX, muy al estilo de esos tiempos por supuesto.

Saludos Gatopardo.

Gatopardo, parece que cuando conviene una cosa son FILOLOGUILLOS y cuando conviene otra se utilizan como argumento de autoridad.

Pero hagamos un poquito de crítica viñeana.

"[...] la Filosofía y el Arte han corrido siempre parejas a la Ciencia. Son tres ámbitos o modos para conocer una y la misma Realidad."

Deja que me carcajee a pierna suelta con esta joyita del pensamiento humano. Por supuesto que la Filosofía y el Arte han corrido parejos (¿"parejas"?, pensaba que cuando uno de los términos era masculino la concordancia del adjetivo se hacía en masculino porque es el término no marcado) a la Ciencia. Y también han corrido parejos a la Historia, a la Economía, a la Política. ¿Alguien puede concebir un mundo donde se haga una Ciencia del siglo XX y un Arte del siglo XV? Efectivamente, la Realidad es una y la misma; por eso todos los ámbitos de esa Realidad se relacionan entre sí, y relacionar el Arte con la Ciencia dice tanto y tan poco como relacionarla con la Historia o con la Economía.

"Pues bien, tras los descubrimientos de la física quántica y la teoría general de la relatividad, la desaparición, por resumir mucho, del sistema cosmovisionario y mecanicista de Newton, es obvio que también la novela (el arte en general) debía dar cuenta de esta nueva forma de instalación en el Universo, y que genera, obviamente, nuevos modos estructurales y nuevas técnicas narrativas por medio de las que transcribir, convincentemente, la nueva situación."

Es obvio que obviamente ha resumido mucho, porque en una escasa frase consigue poner en relación a Newton y a la teoría de la relatividad con el Quijote y el Ulises. La frase, por otra parte, es una auténtica perla.

O pone una conjunción "y" delante de "la desaparición" o el sintagma queda fuera de la subordinada temporal de la siguiente forma: "[...]la desaparición del sistema cosmovisionario y mecanicista de Newton, es obvio que también la novela debía dar [...]".
¿Con quién se supone que se coordina "y que genera"? ¿Con "es obvio"? Obviamente que no lo tengo claro.¿Quién genera?, ¿la nueva forma de instalación en el Universo o la novela?

Pobre Viñó. Con defendores de como estos no necesitará enemigos ni tampoco que lo critiquemos. ¿O será que aplicar el método Viñó es más fácil de lo que parece?

Sinceramente, Gatopardo, el artículo me aclara más bien poco. Habla de generalidades, de renovación en plan abstracto, sin aterrizar en ningún momento. ¿De verdad te parece tan esclarecedor? ¿Podrías explicarme a partir del texto conceptos como "novela quántica y relativista", la "teoría unificada" de la poética de la ficción postcervantista o la novela "mecanicista" o newtoniana? La relación entre literatura y ciencia está traída por los pelos, porque el arte es una manifestación más del pensamiento humano, y tiene tanto que ver con la ciencia como otras formas de pensamiento.

Sinceramente, y te aseguro que sin ánimo de ofender (pero este tipo de cosas me encoleriza), este texto apesta a vaciedad posmodernista.

Seguramente soy tonto, pero del texto me entero de pocas cosas (por favor, está tan mal escrito que me da ganas de llorar: ¿¿¿estos apuntes, adelantos???). Por lo que intuyo Viñó habla de una revolución en la novela alejada de los esquemas decimonónicos.

¿Alguien puede traducirme cuál es la innovación que Viñó propone después de Joice, Faulkner, Proust, Kafka, Virgina Woolf o Cortázar? ¿Es que se puede innovar más en estructuras novelescas después de estos autores (y muchos más)? La innovación en el arte tiene un límite, y es el límite de la comprensión. Más allá de la comprensión cualquier innovación es baldía. Y pretender innovar más que estos autores supone dar este paso.

¿Y por qué la novela ha de ser cuántica y no espacial, después de lo de Yuri Gagarin? Vamos, que vemos hablando a un personaje, y de pronto hace pum... y se eleva al cielo y se pone a orbitar alrededor de la Tierra. Lo de la novela cuántica me parece una gilipollez desesperada de unos que querían destacar frente a otros, que han llegado incluso al nobel, como Cela, mientras a estos cuánticos no los conoce ni Dios. ARIES
Si toda la energía que pones en defender tus errores la pusieras en comprender lo más básico, serías un buen cocinero, si no fuera porque no existe mucha gente dispuesta a dejarse indigestar.
Hazte budista.
TAURO
La naturaleza no ha sido buena contigo: tienes vocación de patriarca y el encanto de un vendedor de cupones de la ONCE. Si consigues que alguien te dé los buenos días, dáte con un canto en los dientes.
Hazte de la Iglesia de la Cienciología.
GEMINIS
Eres muy capaz de creerte el compendio de dos seres que conviven en ti, ambos excelentes, lo que haría de ti un buen político centrista; sin embargo no hay tratamiento psiquiátrico que logre que llegues a presidente de la comunidad de vecinos.
Apúntate a los Testigos de Jehová.
CANCER
En tu estado de ánimo influye la luna, las mareas, el sol, las estaciones, la hora del día, viajar en coche, en metro, en autobús, quedarte en casa, salir… Visita a un buen psiquiatra que no sea partidario de la terapia de grupo.
Haz mucho "puenting"
LEO
Nadie, nada, nunca, siempre, son las palabras que más repites y que tus actos se encargan de desmentir con mayor frecuencia. El culpable de que ligues menos que los gases nobles es tu superego.
Hazte budista.
VIRGO
Crees que Dios debería de haberte consultado para arreglar el mundo, y por eso no eres religioso, pero tu manía de ordenar, distribuir sistematizar sólo se debe a una psicosis mal diagnosticada.
Colecciona sellos.
LIBRA
Como todos los locos, eres ceremonioso, encorsetado y cuando ves venir de frente a todos los coches en la autopista temes que haya una multitud en contra dirección. Lo que te salva es que vas a buscar a los de tráfico enseguida.
Hazte anacoreta.
ESCORPIO
Si no fuera porque te falta rigor para diferenciar circunferencia de círculo, los culos y las témporas, podrías haber resuelto las grandes incógnitas que te planteas.
Hazte socio del Atlético de Madrid.
SAGITARIO: Habrá Quien crea que te mimaron demasiado de pequeño o que vienes de casa rica,

CAMPAÑA DE ENVÍO DE CARTAS A LOS EUROPARLAMENTARIOS

Mientras nosotros hablamos de la Navidad, de nuestros delicados sentimientos, del conflcto entre el fondo y la forma en la literatura, y otras exquisiteces, los del Parlamento Europeo nos están preparando una Ley para hacer retroceder las libertades cívicas cien años.
Menos mal que Atlante está ojo avizor, y ha avisado en su blog: Sobre Atlantis

El enunciado empieza así: La futura firma de la directiva de la retención de datos y el intento de abuso de las discográficas, que pretenden usar los datos retenidos para perseguir a los ciudadanos que libremente quieran compartir sus bienes, parecen haber encendido la mecha de la oposición en internet. Se ha preparado este documento para que pueda ser enviado a todos nuestros europarlamentarios y en el que se les pide que detengan este claro abuso.

Algunas anotaciones: La ley sobre la retención de datos se vota este día 12 y todo apunta a que se aplicará, lo que permitirá obtener una información exhaustiva sobre las páginas webs que visitamos, las llamadas que realizamos, los mails que enviamos, etc.

Por otra parte, en Francia parece estar cociéndose algo mucho peor, se pretende prohibir todos los programas que permitan compartir archivos no protegidos por el nuevo sistema anticopa DRM, se establecerán sistemas de exploración de las comunicaciones y por lo visto, se quiere prohibir el software libre, es decir, los programas creados por ciudadanos que se permiten distribuir gratuitamente y modificar con total libertad.

Mucha gente está realmente sorprendida.

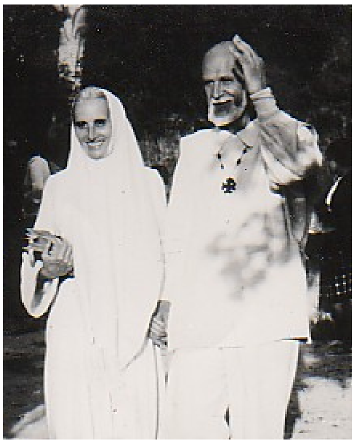
HOY HACE VEINTICINCO AÑOS



Sara llevaba un corte de pelo que parecía perpetrado por algún enemigo para resaltar su cara algo caballuna: era el mismo peinado que había despertado los instintos maternales por Mireille Mathieu en Francia, y que afeaba sin distinción a todas las niñas del hospicio.

A sus diecinueve años, Sara vivía en una comuna de seguidores de Lanza del Vasto, que abominaban de los excitantes como el té y el café, el tabaco, el chocolate, la carne, las ropas ceñidas, las afirmaciones del ego, del sexo sin tantra, sea lo que sea que quiera decir esto, de los derechos individuales, de los adelantos modernos como la luz eléctrica o los antibióticos, considerándolos enemigos de la armonía personal. En su vida comunitaria, abogaban por la meditación en grupo, por lo insípido, por el trato melifluo y la beatitud de la ataraxia.

Yo la conocí en un alto en el camino entre su comunidad en Granada y la de Elche de la Sierra, fumando tabaco como una principiante, sin tragarse el humo, y fumando hachich como una experta, ya en los últimos coletazos de una borrachera inconmensurable que la dejó bajo mi cuidado. Vomitó, lloró, gimió, se negó a transgredir la norma que le prohibía tomar café, pero me dejó que le sujetara la frente mientras vomitaba, la limpiara con una toalla húmeda, y le sujetara la mano mientras la habitación daba vueltas alrededor de su lecho bamboleante. Con los ojos cerrados, entre arcadas, hasta que se durmió, me lanzó un sermón por tomar café, fumar Celtas y reírme sin disimulo de la mística pacifista, porque a mí siempre me ha parecido altamente útil atizar una buena paliza a quien ande buscándosela. Al día siguiente quedó varada en mi órbita de abstemia, y siguió dándome la lata con sus ideas, y entre mis guisos y mis sarcasmos, llegó a la conclusión de que una temporada bajo la benéfica influencia de la gente de su comunidad, me convertiría en una adepta a sus tesis.

-Yo he acogido como anfitriona a un montón de colegas tuyos, místicos de la no-violencia y del amor universal; pero estoy segura de que si tuvieran que acogerme ellos a mí en su territorio, a los tres días me echarían.

-Ha habido, incluso, expresidiarios que han venido a nuestra comunidad y los hemos aceptado muy bien.

-No habréis tenido dificultad en aceptar a quien estuviera familiarizado con la falta de libertad.

Siempre me han interesado las situaciones paradójicas, y no he rehuido un conflicto en mi vida, y acepté su invitación.

Llegamos a Granada a las cinco de la mañana, En el dormitorio común no había camas ni muebles, sino sacos de dormir que jamás habían pasado por la lavadora, ni conocido el jabón, esos artilugios diabólicos. Me tocó el espacio que había bajo una repisa de madera sin desbastar, en la que estaba apoyada una especie de teja de tamaño descomunal, dónde alguien, que no había sido llamado por la senda del arte, había pintado un Pantocrátor. Me supuse que sería una prueba para conocer los designios del Altísimo eso de ponerme a dormir con semejante amenaza sobre mi cabeza, y cambié de sitio. El gurú, un tal Xavier, objetor de conciencia y de la higiene corporal, frunció el ceño cuando demostré mi prudencia.

Acababa de dormirme, cuando me despertó un tal Ernesto con unas untuosas maneras de cura, que a esas horas y en esas circunstancias no me entusiasmaron, pero son las mismas que luego le abrirían las puertas de un cargo subvencionado por la Junta de Andalucía:

-Son las seis, es la meditación.

-Ya estoy meditando. Pero ni te imaginas en qué...

-Venga, levántate, vamos a la sala común, es la primera hora...

-Chato, acabo de llegar de un viaje de mil diablos en autostop, me acabo de acostar, y si no te importa, meditad todo lo que os apetezca sin mí. Yo soy muy respetuosa y no os lo impediré.

Y seguí durmiendo.

A una hora prudente me encaminé a la ducha, con mi toalla, el gel y una muda de ropa limpia. Tuve que eliminar primero los hermanos hongos y la hermana mugre del plato de la ducha y de los aledaños, porque al parecer tenían vetada también la lucha contra la suciedad. Salí limpísima, con el pelo mojado y dispuesta a desayunar. Roser, una especie de monja seglar con el rostro tenso, me lanzó una gran sonrisa sin cordialidad alguna.

-Tenemos agua fría en la ducha, porque el agua caliente es artificial...

-No hay problema, estoy acostumbrada a ducharme con agua fría; yo tampoco tengo calentador. ¿Se puede desayunar?

-Bueno, tenemos una caja para los gastos y todos... todo lo ponemos en común...

-Ah, sí, dime cuánto quieres que ponga...

-Lo que tú quieras... depende de tu voluntad...

-Yo antes de tomarme un par de cafés no sé cuál es mi voluntad, vamos, que no me voy a poner a buscarla ahora, dime cuánto quieres que ponga para poder desayunar o me voy al bar y luego vuelvo...

-No tomamos café...

-Ay, claro, es verdad... Me largo a desayunar al bar, no pasa nada.

-Es que nosotros no vamos a los bares...

-Pues es una costumbre muy digna de encomio: seguid sin ir. ¡Hasta luego!

Me compré el periódico y desayuné frugalmente, un par de cafés con leche y un bocadillo XL, mientras me enteraba de las noticias del día anterior.

Cuando volví con el periódico en la mano, me encontré en el recibidor a Xavier, el gurú, con un espasmo en el músculo risorio. Con voz meliflua me dijo que no se podían entrar periódicos a la casa, y me convocó a una asamblea fraternal en la sala de meditación. Nos sentamos a estilo moro en el suelo, y todos tenían una expresión grave muy poco acogedora. Sara estaba roja y no me miraba. Detallaron todas las normas que había pisoteado con mi actitud hostil. Había dormido cuando los demás meditaban; había usado un gel contraviniendo la norma que excluía los cosméticos, había acudido a un bar para desayunar, cosa que me habían comunicado que no era tolerable, y había dicho que iba a tomar café cuando era evidente que ese producto interfería en la armonía del cuerpo y el espíritu. y había vuelto con un periódico...

-Vamos a ver: no soy miembro de esta secta, he sido invitada por Sara para conocer vuestra filosofía vital y llegar a comprender las cimas de perfección en el amor por vuestros semejantes que vuestro pacifismo os posibilita: hasta ahora vuestras normas de convivencia sólo me han hecho recordar aquella temporada que estuve becada como interna en un centro de Instituciones Penitenciarias. Aún no he degustado la mirífica influencia de vuestro amor universal, hace sólo siete horas que me beneficio de vuestra cordialidad...

-Mira, todas las decisiones se toman en común, yo pido a la asamblea que no te deje quedarte con nosotros, y para discutirlo, como tú no formas parte de ella, mejor esperas fuera...

-Xavier: has convertido a tus acólitos, que podrían ser naturales, espontáneos, afectuosos y limpios en gente que enseña los dientes en vez de sonreir sinceramente, sois paramilitares que apeláis a la disciplina, y vuestra comunidad laica parece una secta civil. Habéis conseguido interiorizar y encarnar le peor del espíritu castrense y lo peor de la orden religiosa. Así es que no os molestéis en deliberar, que yo no me quiero quedar.

-Muy bien, porque desde luego no iba a tolerar que te quedaras. ¡Fuera de aquí!

Sara se levantó y dijo con los ojos llenos de lágrimas:

-Yo también me voy.

-Sara, ¿tú estás segura de que puedes tirar por la borda todo lo que habías conseguido hasta ahora contra tu individualismo? - dijo Xavier con la vena de la ira inflamada y un tono de voz un poco más bajo que las sirenas de la policía.

- ¿Con lo que te ha costado acostumbrarte a vivir en armonía con tu espiritualidad? -remachó, transido de pena, Ernesto Yo salí de la sala, recogí mi mochila, y ya en la puerta, volví para escribir en el cuaderno donde se suponía que los visitantes alabábamos la hospitalidad recibida: "Que Dios nos libre de lo que uno termina por acostumbrase."

Sara me alcanzó corriendo antes de llegar a la esquina.
-Yo creía que me echarían a los tres días, pero eso de poner en pie de guerra a los pacifistas en siete horas es un record genial...
Y rompimos a reir a carcajadas.
-Voy a llamar a unos amigos de Granada a ver si tienen sitio para quedarnos... Es un piso de estudiantes...
-A ser posible, que no sean místicos y partidarios del amor universal... si no, prefiero irme a una pensión...
Y así fue como recalé en aquella casa de estudiantes el 8 de diciembre de 1980, y mientras el mundo se estremecía con la noticia del asesinato de Lennon, yo conocí a Chey, el hombre que encarna para mí la belleza de alma, la serenidad, la ternura y la amistad sin condiciones.
Hoy hace veinticinco años.
Nunca pensé que a estas alturas de mi vida pudiera estar agradecida a los malditos pacifistas de Lanza del Vasto por ser tan cerriles.

Voy por partes:
Hace 25 años yo tenía 31 y ya estaba de vuelta de muchas cosas, hacía dos años que había regresado de África y el movimiento Hippy me quedaba "siglos" atrás.

Siempre he rechazado las sectas. Todas sin excepción. Pero sí soy pacifista y si rechazo la violencia con todas mis fuerzas. También creo que el amor universal, la paz y la espiritualidad son valores, para mí, irrenunciables. Y son valores de la humanidad que nadie puede apropiarse cómo suyos, ningún gurú y ninguna secta.

En cuanto a la "casualidad" a la que apuntas en el comentario dejado en mi post sobre Cindy Sheehan, pues debo decir que no la veo. Yo publiqué mi post a las 00.48 del día 8. Tú publicas este a las 17.47 del mismo día. Yo doy a conocer en mi post la llegada de una mujer pacifista y la convocatoria de unos actos contra la guerra de Irak. Tu relatas en tu post -muy bien relatado, eso sí-, una experiencia personal vivida hace 25 años que más que de pacifismo, se me antoja cómo una denuncia a las sectas. Así que no veo que tengan que ver nada tu post y el mío, y la casualidad, francamente, no la encuentro.

Un abrazo.

Precioso e ilustrador relato que creo que ha sido real.

A mi me ha trasprotdoa los tiepos qen los que yo trabajaba en una multinacional. La pequeña diferencia estriba en que yo, no sólo me quedé, sino que me sentí orgulloso de haber sido aceptado. Reconozco aquí mi antaña inmadurez y falta de carácter.

En estos últimos meses, hay quien se empeña en convencerme de que mi felicidad estriba en que yo haga todo lo posible para ser aceptado en una cierta iglesia. Os aseguro que los miembros de la nombrado iglesia se comportan conmigo tal y como la autora relata en su artículo y también que yo, más maduro y con un poquito más de personalidad, me comporto tal y como ella hacía.
Normalmente fumo tabaco rubio, pero cuando aparece uno de los santones (que, partiocculoarmente son buenas personas) enciendo un "farias" y me atizo un buenos latigazos de "Fierabrás" que tengo siempre preparado en una bota de 2 litros.

Os recomiendo la experiencia, pero sólo si sois maduros y tenéis personalidad.

LA GRAN ESTAFA. ALFAGUARA, PLANETA Y LA NOVELA BASURA

El respeto por la palabra sólo se da en quienes crecimos sabiendo que tenía el mismo valor que un contrato ante notario: de palabra se compraba, se vendía y se establecía el pago, y nadie de mi entorno dudaba entre la ruina económica o la pérdida de su credibilidad a la hora de cumplir un compromiso verbal. Poco a poco, los usos comerciales cambiaron, se sustituyeron esas prácticas por la firma de contratos, letras y pagarés. El respeto que testimoniábamos por el contrato verbal lo extendimos a la palabra escrita, hasta que comprendimos que una casta emergente, hijos de la burguesía cultiparla, se había especializado en interpretar y devaluar los compromisos escritos, porque sabían redactar contratos donde una coma cambiaba el sentido de las frases que creíamos nítidas.

Y tuvimos que aprender a leer aguzando la comprensión, porque ese conocimiento gramatical hizo rico al abogado y al comprador que arruinaron a nuestros ancestros. Luego, cuando los profesores y los programas de estudios dejaron creer que las reglas sintácticas y gramaticales son opinables, modas que pueden cambiar y variar sin menoscabo, supimos que nos estaban preparando para ser engañados y manipulados, para ser incapaces de comprender el valor y el significado de las frases, e incapaces de diferenciar al estafador de quien merece credibilidad. Una parva de botarates de una verborrea sin fuste ni base, escribió libros de Filología, de Semántica y de ficción con la misma falta de rigor, instituyeron el desbarajuste, y dan hoy fuerza normativa a la ignorancia.

Hemos llegado a ese momento fatídico en el que la denuncia pormenorizada de la estafa que cometen los que deberían ser máxima garantía, tribunal de última instancia del lenguaje, exige un grado de pundonor y heroicidad quijotesco, porque el común de los estudiosos con diploma universitario fueron adiestrados para valorar qué cargo, titulación y aplauso ostenta quien expone sus conclusiones. Y son incapaces, por lo tanto, de analizar con rigor, honestidad intelectual y criterio propio, las ideas.

Los escritores y los filólogos, alabados por la crítica y honrados con un sillón en la Real Academia Española, confunden el uso de las proposiciones en, desde y con, y el significado de entender y comprender, de oír y escuchar, de mirar, ver y percibir, y desconocen la función del modo y el tiempo verbales. Los estudiosos que medran cerrando los ojos y el entendimiento para recibir la aprobación de quien paga su complicidad en el fraude, nos explican que eso no es lo que importa a la hora de valorar un texto.

Manuel García Viñó, hombre de letras a la antigua usanza, creador y teórico que se ha ganado el respeto y el prestigio desde hace décadas, ha aceptado ser quien se dedique en su mejor momento creativo e intelectual, a analizar y demostrar exahustivamente el fraude cometido por los escritores, la crítica, las editoriales, los Ministerios incompetentes contra un público falto de criterio, que es estafado porque ha aprendido a acatar la autoridad sin preguntarse por su legitimidad moral e intelectual.

El libro de Manuel García Viñó, "La gran estafa" , subtitulado "Alfaguara, Planeta y la novela basura" de Ediciones Vosa, SL, no será reseñado por los críticos literarios de los diarios de tirada nacional, no lo promocionarán las grandes distribuidoras, no obtendrá un puesto en los escaparates de las grandes librerías, ni lo publicitarán los grandes medios de comunicación; y, de antemano, os digo que demuestro más valor al recomendarlo aquí que cuando escribo diatribas contra los políticos instalados pasajeramente en el poder, porque me alineo contra unos enemigos que tienen infinitamente más fuerza para hundir y perjudicar, y son peligrosos.

Espero que haya un público que tenga el valor y la decencia de leerlo con la misma atención, el mismo discernimiento y la misma capacidad de análisis con que ha sido escrito, porque el autor sólo puede contar con sus lectores, y, a estas alturas, todos somos conscientes de que atreverse a transgredir el silencio cómplice, le va a acarrear la venganza de quienes tienen el poder de aniquilarlo.

Preguntas para don Manuel García Viñó, ínclito novelista y sumo crítico de la new wave:

¿Cuántas personas elaboran la Fiera Literaria? ¿Cuántas integran el Centro de Documentación de la Novela Española? ¿Y el Círculo Crítico de Fuencarral? ¿Es usted Emmanuel G. Vigneau? ¿Y Manuel Asensio Moreno? ¿Y Mary Luz Bodineau? ¿E Isidoro Moreno? ¿Por qué ha concedido entrevistas y publicado críticas bajo estas identidades? ¿Trabaja alguien más, aparte de estos heterónimos suyos, en las instituciones antes citadas? ¿Es usted el autor de Cómo conocer a los demás, Cómo interpretar usted mismo su propio horóscopo, Cómo leer las líneas de las manos, Cómo y cuándo será el fin del mundo y Cómo mantener unas relaciones amorosas verdaderas y gratificantes : (yoga sexual para occidentales)? ¿Y de El profeta en la era de Acuario : quién será el nuevo profeta y qué aportará a la humanidad (1986)? ¿Realmente se le ha aparecido a usted la Virgen? ¿Realmente contactó usted con los ummitas? ¿Se encuentra usted bien?

Vuestro (?) uso de seudónimos no tiene nada que ver con la humildad, querida. Tiene más bien que ver con que son tan vergonzosos vuestros textos que no os atrevéis a dar la cara. Eso da idea de la calidad de los mismos y de vuestra preparación como críticos (?) o literatos. Es como el amigo José Miguel García Martín, que tan pronto publica cosas bajo el seudónimo de Miguel Baquero como bajo el de Clandestino Menéndez, y tiene la cara de recomendar obras del segundo cuando habla con la identidad del primero. Acabaréis esquizofrénicos.

En cuanto a la magna obra de Manuel García Viñó, una simple consulta al catálogo del ISBN o al de la BNE muestra que, bajo los seudónimos de Manuel Asensio o Emmanuel G. Vigneau, nuestro querido amigo ha publicado libros como los que antes mencionaba, y aún otros más vergonzosos si cabe. Al fin y al cabo estamos hablando de un galeote de las letras capaz de escribir obras de encargo para el servicio de publicaciones de un ministerio franquista, de una editorial anarquista y de una católica a machamartillo casi sin solución de continuidad. Todo un prodigio de principios y ética literaria. Leí en una de sus obras que consideraba que el escritor debía cumplir con una suerte de misión. ¿Cuál? ¿Venderse al mejor postor? ¿Escribir basura para poder comer? Me parece perfecto, pero su intransigencia y su chulería como crítico e historiador de la novela son tan despreciables como la de un chapero que se dedicase a sermonear sobre la castidad, o la de un chorizo que despotricase de la delincuencia. Cuando menos es inconsecuente. Inconsecuente y cínico. De un cinismo atroz, caramba.

Y mientras sigues volcando aquí el catálogo ISBN purgado, dejaré finalmente una cita que habla de la salud mental de nuestro común amigo. En una entrevista que hace Miguel Baquero (alias de JMGM) a Mary Luz Bodineau para Literaturas.com, encuentro el siguiente párrafo, acerca del nacimiento de la Fiera Literaria: "Una tarde clara de primavera, Manuel Asensio Moreno, el último llegado al todavía non-nato Centro de Documentación de la Novela Española, extendió el índice implacable hacia una página de “El País”, el diario independiente de la mañana, [...] Pues tres titulares relativos a otros tantos libros recién aparecidos. Los siguientes: “Moncho Alpuente escribe sobre la España de Gil y Gil”; “Antonio Muñoz Molina publica sus memorias del servicio militar”; “Diario de un jubilado, la nueva novela de Miguel Delibes”... Era algo portentoso. Arrebatada por súbita inspiración, me llevé aquel recorte a mi casa, distribuí los titulares sobre un folio en torno a una foto de Muñoz Molina, al que vestí de quinto, y lo encabecé con unas frases que decían: “¡Estalla la fantasía española! ¡Tiembla, Bradbury!”. “¡Ja, ja, ja!”, yo misma me río. Hice treinta y tantas fotocopias de aquella especie de collage y las mandé a otros tantos amigos. Esto ocurría el mes de abril de 1995, una fecha memorable. Aquello que nació como un desahogo fue, poco a poco, tomando forma hasta convertirse en un panfleto y hasta a incluirse, como suplemento, en un periódico de tirada nacional, La Razón. "

No está mal, considerando que Manuel Asensio Moreno y Mary Luz Bodineau son seudónimos de Manuel García Viñó. Lo dicho: este señor acabará esquizofrénico.

Perdóname, querido, creo que me paso con el humor inglés cuando hablo de nuestra modestia y de nuestra seguridad, y veo que los de Foromix no habéis recibido el barniz de Oxbridge, así pues rectifico, y te lo explico: dime cuáles son las obras que has publicado con el nombre de Nashe, porque en el ISBN no hay nada tuyo ni lo va a haber si sigues utilizando así ese hemisferio cerebral: ¿o quizás sólo lo usas para insultar con impunidad, mientras reivindicas la libre expresion de homofobia en los diccionarios?
Respecto a la producción literaria y ensayística de García Viñó, que no he termindo de enumerar, la verdad es que esa falta de esterilidad y de impotencia creativa resulta irritante, y comprendo tu enfado y el de los tuyos.

Fecha: 06/12/2005 02:47.

No soy usuario de foromix. Creo que lo confundes con Usenet. No te voy a explicar cómo funciona el asunto, porque no es el caso. Al igual que viene a cuento traer a colación cierto mensaje que envié a otro foro acerca del escándalo ocasionado por cierto diccionario, y en el que no defiendo en modo alguno la homofobia. Pero tampoco te lo explicaré, porque no es, insisto, el caso.

A lo que voy es que aquí el que mejor sabe insultar es don Manuel García Viñó. En eso es el maestro, no lo niegues. Y entiendo que alguna de mis referencias a su salud mental puedan resultaros ofensivas: si es así las retiro. Lo que no retiro son las evidencias que pongo sobre la mesa en relación a su obra. A TODA su obra, no sólo a la que a él le interesa reivindicar. Y tampoco retiro mi rechazo a que con semejante historial este señor lleve ya tantos años dandonos a todos la tabarra con su ideal de novela y con sus críticas a la novela española contemporánea, críticas que lleva a cabo con métodos tan pueriles como la mal llamada "crítica acompasada" y mediante los insultos y descalificaciones más toscos, gratuitos e inaceptables.

Y tampoco retiro mi consejo de que dejéis de jugar a ser "enfants terribles" de la literatura y paséis a ejercer la crítica literaria como las personas serias. Si es que estáis capacitados. Y si no lo estáis, a callar y a leer. Ya escribiréis cuando sepáis hacerlo. Paciencia. Tranquilidad y paciencia.

Vamos por partes:acusas a García Viñó en mi bitácora, en la que he recomendado su último libro, anunciando de pe a pá lo que tú estás poniendo en práctica, cuando debes de saber que La Fiera Literaria tiene un e.mail y una dirección postal para que te pongas en contacto con él y lo insultes, si te atreves; me parece poco correcto que te dirijas a mí para hacerlo, porque entre mi gente, que suele ser de ley, y no quiero decir gente de leyes, eso no se hace; le reprochas los seudónimos, y tú firmas con seudónimos; preguntas si es cierto que ha escrito unas obras que no has leído; y cuando paso a detallarte algunas de las que ha escrito, copias una escena jocosa, y la interpretas como esquizofrenia, y, o bien eres psiquiatra, y en ese caso te podrían abrir un expediente en el Colegio de Médicos por hacer diagnosticos mediante recortes de prensa, o bien no eres psiquiatra y estás hablando con la falta de rigor que nos achacas. Respecto a la crítica literaria, ocurre otro tanto: o bien has leído el más de un centenar de libros que ha escrito, y tienes una opinión que puedes detallar sin utlizar meras descalificaciones de borrachos o no has leído su obra ni piensas leerla, y pretendes que apliquemos tu escuela crítica y sigamos tus enseñanzas no leyendo a García Viñó, no haciendo crítica hasta que no leamos mucho. Como no soy psiquiatra, mi diagnóstico no es vinculante, sino una mera indicación: tu lógica es delirante, y es posible que sea el primer indicio de un desajuste neurológico previo a un Alzheimer o demencia precoz; pero quizás es que siimple y llanamente has sufrido la educación que auspicia la universidad y los que han vaciado de contenido y rigor los programas de estudios. Uno de dos.

No, no, no... Vamos a ver, lo estás liando todo. Hablo de los seudónimos de Viñó y me acusas de usar uno, hablo del modo que tiene de hablar desde uno de sus personajes para citar a los otros y me sales con no se qué del Alzheimer, hablo de lo insensato de su método crítico "acompasado" (lo conozco; e incluso he leído -sí, soy su lector- alguno de sus libros sobre la novela española del siglo XX; él, por cierto, es quien admite no haber leído a más de uno de los autores que critica) y me sales con que no sé de lo que hablo... Y me reprochas la mala educación que demuestro viniendo aquí a soltar toda mi metralla. Es posible. Quizá tendría que haber escrito esto en otro lugar, si es que interesa a alguien, que lo dudo. Pero es que, ¿sabes que pasa? Que me indigna que desde los satélites internáuticos de La Fiera Literaria se canten las alabanzas de ese señor y se divulguen sus devastadoras y poco fundadas críticas, y se acuse a tirios y troyanos de tomar parte en una supuesta estafa (ojo, que son palabras mayores), cuando el tufillo a estafa procede precisamente de quien formula esa acusación.

Me quedo con que de las evidencias que pongo sobre la mesa no me has rebatido ninguna (porque no se puede), y con el negro futuro que le espera al pobre señor Viñó.

Porque se puede engañar a algunos durante todo el tiempo (aquí entráis sus acólitos) o a todos durante algún tiempo (como hizo allá por los sesenta, cuando tenía francas las puertas de la tele y de los medios), pero no se puede engañar a todos durante todo el tiempo.

A lo mejor no estoy tan en desacuerdo con el señor García Viñó. A lo mejor lo que ocurre es que pienso que él forma parte de ese engaño que denuncia...

Que le reproche al autor que no haya publicado siguiendo el criterio de escoger las editoriales sin tener en cuenta su tendencia ideológica es tan burdo como acusarle de ser "un galeote de la pluma", pudiendo vivir del cuento al amparo de los que fabrican autores y los premian.

"pero te indignas si se critica a los memos como Molina Foix, Julián Marías, Almudena Grandes y Maruja Torres, García de la Concha y otros cuantos fraudes por el estilo."

¿He dicho yo eso? No he mencionado a ninguna de esas personas. De hecho abomino de las cosas que escriben casi todos ellos. Vuestro problema es que rechazáis a cualquiera que se atreva a poner en evidencia la miseria intelectual de vuestro santón, tachando al incauto de colaboracionista de ese misterioso complot judeomasónico que, según vuestras mentes enfermizas, pretende adueñarse del mundillo literario nacional.

No, Aurora, no tengo ningún "dossier" sobre Viñó, no seas paranoica. Lo que tengo son cuatro datos que recopilé al buscar información sobre ese peculiar crítico que hace unos años me sorprendió con sus críticas desquiciadas y con su lamentable participación en aquel programa de televisión de infausta memoria. No lo hice para desacreditarlo, ni porque nadie me lo haya ordenado, sino porque me parece fascinante el personaje en cuestión. Es un tipo digno de una de aquellas biografías fantásticas que imaginó Roberto Bolaño en su "La literatura nazi en América". La vida y obra de Viñó serían dignas de un capítulo de una posible "La crítica idiota en España".

Pero bueno, seguid imaginando complots y difundiendo sandeces por la red. Seguid perdiendo el tiempo.

Lo más triste de que no haya hombres en este país es que hay que dirimir los pleitos verbalmente.
Vamos a ver, caballerete Nashe:
¿No le da vergüenza andar leyendo, a su edad, cochinadas sobre posturitas, follicandas y extraterrestres?
¿A usted qué le importa quién es el autor?
¿A mí qué me importa lo que usted piensa sobre García Viñó?
Escribiendo tan mal como lo hace usted, ¿cómo se atreve a pontificar sobre lo que otro escribe?
La Virgen se fue en el mismo estado en el que se presentó a don Manuel García Viñó, y entonces ¿qué tiene usted que objetar, miserable cotilla?

Tras el segundo repaso del artículo (tengo por sana costumbre leer dos veces todo lo que Gatopardo escribe, pues es criatura de dos lecturas) me he deleitado examinando los cuarentaynosecuantos comentarios al hilo de sus palabras, y he de decir, sin entrar en polémicas (Dios me libre de medir mi labia con la de los ilustres) que he aprendido mucho de la encolerizada batalla dialéctica, del buen discutir entre argumentos, y de la forma en que tan exaltadas palabras acaban diluyéndose en el mar de los buenos modos y aquí paz y después gloria.
Destacaría, porque me hizo reír con ganas, la última burla del ente apodado Nashe: “Me dejas la duda de si no seré Viñó, enfrascado en una retorcida campaña publicitaria. Cielo santo, espero que no”. Y la templanza de Rubén A C ante la excesiva e irritante repetición de su comentario.

Investigadlas friamente, y a ver si después me podéis negar que si se asociara a cualquier otro crítico con episodios semejantes perdería "ipso facto" (qué demonios querrá decir "ipso facto") todo su prestigio, todas sus prebendas y todas sus amistades.

Y no mezcles churras con merinas (son ovejas, joven aprendiz), que mi mensajito no era ni pretendía ser una crítica literaria. Las que publica la Fiera tampoco lo son, pero lo pretenden, aunque no pasan de llamar pichacorta a Muñoz Molina, o fulana a la Etxeberría (dios los confunda a ambos también). Y para que veáis que a lo mejor en lo esencial no estamos tan en desacuerdo, os propongo cambiar el serrucho por el bisturí, y probar a matizar un poco en lugar de pensar a garrotazos. Creo que:

-Don Manuel podría ser un escritor con un cierto prestigio si se hubiera mantenido en la línea que siguió, como escritor, hasta 1975. A Fedra se le pueden poner muchas pegas, pero no que está mal escrita. (Me juego un güebo a que soy el único que la ha leído.)

-Si se atacase con un mínimo de rigor crítico e intelectual al stablishment literario actual no quedarían del mismo ni las raspas.

-Si el gurú no hubiese optado por ocupar el puesto de gamberro-bufón oficial no habría terminado por ser un engranaje más del sistema, teniendo por toda compañía a una corte de los milagros que más que a la risa mueve al llanto.

El mundo literario español es un enorme saco de mierda, y La Fiera Literaria no es más que el estéril moscardón.

Nashe: tú has dicho un poco más arriba: "con semejante historial este señor lleve ya tantos años dandonos a todos la tabarra con su ideal de novela y con sus críticas a la novela española contemporánea, críticas que lleva a cabo con métodos tan pueriles como la mal llamada "crítica acompasada" y mediante los insultos y descalificaciones más toscos, gratuitos e inaceptables."
Yo, que suelo leer con poca candidez y menor ingenuidad de lo que sería conveniente, he encontrado en las críticas de García Viñó sarcasmos, jocundia, ironía, pero aún no he logrado encontrar en ninguno de sus textos que diga "es un enorme saco de mierda"; que lo dé a entender meridianamente, sí; pero que use esa falta de finura dialectica, no.
Aclárate: ¿qué es lo que te molesta? ¿Que se haga una crítica pormenorizada de los engendros literarios que tú calificas de "sacos de mierda" o que no se haga en los términos que tú la haces? ¿Te molesta que García Viñó no haya seguido por la senda de la creación literaria, del género "Fedra", siendo un buen escritor? ¿Pero no era un galeote de las letras que no se dedicaba a escribir de encargo, carecía de talla intelectual y era un demente, anoche mismo?
Nashe: yo, sin duda creo que se puede poner de hoja perejil a un autor explicando porque es malo hasta decir basta; pero siempre he atacado su obra, he diseccionado su modo de escribir, he puesto como ejemplo fragmentos suyos para señalar lo erróneo de su estilo: jamás se me ocurriría, ni borracha, usar los calificativos que tú has utilizado contra la "persona" que escribe. Y algunos ni me han pagado los libros que les he escrito haciendo de negra, imagínate si se me podría calentar la lengua. Ni por esas me parece excusable el insulto personal. Y hasta el momento no he visto en tí un ápice del rigor, la ponderación, la capacidad analítica, ni la honestidad intelectual que me permita creer que seas siquiera capaz de hacer lo que te ha pedido Aurora: leerte a tí mismo cuidadosamente y tratar de extraer conclusiones de tu propio razonamiento, mucho menos creo que seas capaz de extraerlo de lo que te digamos los demás.
Nashe: has dicho ". Ya escribiréis cuando sepáis hacerlo. Paciencia. Tranquilidad y paciencia."

Pero antes un par de cosas: me humillo y me someto, y me voy cantando vuestras alabanzas y las del gurú si es menester, pero por el amor de Dios, por lo que más quieras, no insultes a la razón, al sentido común y a la memoria de aquel mono que hizo uso del primer destello de inteligencia para ponerse en pie, elogiando la elegancia de los fieros literatos, cuando uno de sus textos de referencia reza:

"En este trabajo me propongo mostrar que los escritores españoles promocionados por el sistema de la industria cultural, del que es portavoz el diario El País, no sólo escriben de manera pedestre y apoyados en una estética –por llamarla de algún modo- obsoleta, no ya decimonónica, sino pregaldosiana y carecen por completo de un concepto del género novelístico y de una concepción del mundo, como todo verdadero escritor debe tener, sino que, en su incapacidad expresiva y su dificultad para pensar con madurez, se muestran ridículos y hasta risibles, rozando a veces la expresión propia de un retrasado mental."

Yo para lograr aprenderlo y que no me cateasen, leía los textos de los Beatles, Doors, Fleetwood Mac, y muchísima gente más. De paso también me aficioné a todas las músicas y todas las letras, y fui eligiendo por sonidos (de las gargantas también). Llegué a sacar notas buenísimas en Inglés y en Lengua y Literatura (española).
Hoy es el 25 aniversario del asesinato de Lennon.

Recordad que siempre hay p.... c...... que sí que tienen mala sangre y no se conforman con criticar, directamente matan a los que tienen ideas propias. Bueno, hay veces que no saben ni qué ideas tienen ni les importa. Sólo ven los cuerpos, apuntan, aprietan, y luego hay masas calcinadas, o ensangrentadas, o extendidas por los suelos, ya sin vida. En algunos casos, si hay supervivientes, sólo se oyen los gritos de dolor y el llanto.
Pero para volver a oir música hay que esperar a los funerales....de cualquier creencia.

Lamento enormemente llegar tarde a esta interesante discusión, porque entiendo lo que se siente cuando alguien defiende su propio criterio y es atacado por todos los demás.

Después de haber leído atentamente todo el diálogo me surgen algunas dudas que planteo a Gatopardo: ¿cómo es posible que te parezca mal que esta persona critique a Viñó cuando es eso a lo que Viñó nos tiene acostumbrados?, ¿acaso no se pueden criticar a aquellos que critican?, ¿alguna vez has estado en desacuerdo con algo que dijera Viñó? Por alguna extraña razón, Gatopardo, tus cristerios y tus gustos son sospechosamente parecidos a los de Viñó (no insinúo que seas Viñó, ¿eh?). Quiero decir: a mí no me verás cantando alabanzas a García de la Concha. Desde luego lo respeto más que a Viñó, porque me parece que su trabajo es más serio, pero no creo que todo lo que haga de la Concha sea maravilloso, como a ti sí parece ocurrirte con Viñó.

Bienvenidas sean las críticas a Viñó. Este hombre, que parece que aprendió todo lo que sabe sobre crítica literaria en programas de prensa rosa, al criticar se expone a ser criticado. La libertad de expresión que tan generosamente es abanderada hacia este gurú (me encantó el término), debe ser igualitaria para aquellos que se oponen a él.

Fecha: 12/12/2005 20:45.

Gatopardo, con esa bibliografía lo único que demuestras es que el señor García Viñó escribe más que don Manuel Fernández y González. ¿Será pareja la calidad de ambos?

Quizá no deberías apabullar tanto con la información bibliográfica y referirte únicamente a los libros que has leído. A lo mejor resulta que no has leído mucho más que Nashe o que yo, es decir, sus artículos. Y todos estamos haciendo críticas con el mismo material.

Te digo lo mismo de siempre: las críticas de Viñó destilan suciedad y rencor; su método crítico es poco riguroso, más basado en lo que tú llamas ironía (y yo llamo insulto) que en valores artísticos. Y basado, por supuesto, en la gramática del señor Viñó, contra la que atentamos todos los seres humanos del mundo, excepto Viñó, y aquellos que están en gracia con él, por supuesto.

Los razonamientos de Nashe han sido muy acertados. Y esta vez has sido menos hábil que de costumbre en intentar esquivarlos. Personalmente me he sorprendido mucho al conocer la faceta "astrológica" de Viñó. ¿Por qué nunca se incluyen estos libros en las listas?, ¿son acaso dignos de vergüenza?, ¿por qué no recomiendas estos libros? Por supuesto que cada uno es libre de escribir lo que le plazca, pero entonces que no acuse de mercenarios a otros escritores, cuando él mismo participa en el negocio.

Puede que ya nadie lea esto que escribo, pero después de tanto tiempo, también es posible que alguien llegue casualmente a esta página (como es mi caso) y se encuentre con esta discusión bastante falsa y acabe por creer que existen dos bandos que tienen una manera diferente de entender la literatura. Y no es cierto, porque la literatura no es lo importante en este asunto sino el grado de poder y relevancia social que cierto grupo quiere conseguir a costa de los que, por variadas razones, han logrado hacerse un nombre en el panorama literario actual.

Y empezaré denunciando el inmenso "timo" que representa lo que algunos llaman "crítica acompasada", que no pasa de ser un vulgar comenario de texto como el que nos obligaban a hacer de vez en cuando en el colegio. En ningún momento se analiza la obra en su conjunto ni se entra en la estructura ni en la organización narrativa de las obras. Se sacan continuamente frases y situaciones de contexto, y se olvida que la obra literaria es un todo cuyas partes merecen ser observadas en función del conjunto. Lo de la "crítica acompasada" es la tontería más grande que una a visto en años. Y, para finalizar, diré que la calidad literaria del tal García Viñó (que tiene la cara dura de poner una de sus obras entre las mejores del siglo XX en su página propagandística "La Fiera literaria") es lamentable se mire como se mire. Un fiasco de escritor.

He leído cosas deleznables en internet, pero las páginas de esta gente (García Viñó y García Martín, en sus variados y variables motes) son infumables.

ASÍ SE HABLA EN CASPE (A-D)

Hoy se habla un idioma homogéneo y paupérrimo en toda España. Un guionista de televisión me contaba, hace años, que tenía estrictamente prohibido usar un léxico superior a los quinientos vocablos, que es lo que se estima imprescindible para un niño de siete años no muy aventajado, porque los responsables de programación no quieren que los ciudadanos se irriten si los tratan como a seres capaces de comprender un idioma rico y sutil.

¿Por qué no utilizas un lenguaje que todos puedan comprender?— me preguntaron ayer mismo. Porque no todas las palabras que significan algo parecido tiene las misma resonancia en nuestro espíritu. Por poner un ejemplo, gracias al tesoro del lenguaje caspolino puedo decir de alguien que es un milorcho, aule, badulaque, badaje, barrenenco, boque, apatusco, carnuzo, balaga, celumbre, chafaoficios, corrucao, desucado, desustanciado, esbafado, edil, estantizo, tío falorias, fato, figorcho, focín, fuiño, furo, furtañero, gauche, guarán, lurio, monchón, panollo, rebordenco, rispe, sirrio, zancochero, zurrupio, y para que me entendiesen todos, tendría que decir que "no me resulta agradable"... ¡Y no se me queda el cuerpo igual!

He de agradecer a mis amigos caspolinos que se negaran a empobrecer su idioma para que los entendiera, cuando llegué, y que me explicaran con paciencia y toda la guasa del mundo, los significados. Y me refiero especialmente a María Abián, Pilarín Lasheras, al añorado José García Cortes, " Nevada", y a Luisa, su ángel de la guarda, a mi amigo Casimiro Cubeles, al que he saqueado dichos, coplas y anécdotas impagables; a José Miguel Rafales, Pilar Costan y Manolo Rufau, que para ayudarme en la búsqueda de modismos caspolinos movilizaron a sus clientes de "Aro Rojo"; y a José Díez López, que generosamente me dejó incluir los que él había recopilado a lo largo de los años; a Pilar Ros, que ayudó a desasnarme, y, también, a quienes cogiendo capacicos conmigo, que es decir casi toda la buena gente de Caspe, me familiarizaron con el léxico caspolino.

Los cimientos de esta obra los puso Jesús Molinos Fontoba (1) y yo he sido su aprendiz para rematar la faena, por lo tanto, advierto que si hay goteras es por mi culpa y prometo repararlas si me las señalan.

Gabriel Veraldi-Pasquale, Caspe, junio de 2004.

Me ha encantado leer y recordar muchas de las palabras de mi niñez... mi único comentario es que no son exclusivas de Caspe. Yo las aprendí en Abiego, un pueblecito del Somontano, pero creo que son comunes a la fabla del Altoaragón...
Gracias por su recopilación!

Muchas gracias por tu enlace... Mi prima me dio la versión impresa, pero la verdad es que no se donde anda. Tantos años fuera de Caspe han hecho desconozca el significado de algunas de las palabras. Un saludo Normal hoy dia en toda españa se habla castellano, todas las palabras que pones arriba son aragonés, ese caspolino que dices es aragones puro y duro, vete al pirineo, a los somosntamos o a zonas de teruel y di esas palabras, te entendera todo el mundo yo mismo charro aragones y desde crio las he usado y soy de la capital. Es decir igual que dentro del castellano hay dialectos: andaluz, canario, argentino, mexicano... Dentro del aragones los hay tambien. Idioma aragones, dialectos por ej: cheso, ansotano, pandicuto, chistabin, patues, caspolino (por ejemplo). Demuestra la riqueza de nuestra lengua aragonesa tan desconocida por la gente, tan machacada durante siglos y a punto de extinguirse por no tener los propios aragoneses conciencia de ella y el valor para luchar por ella como han hecho en euskadi o cataluña o galicia con sus lenguas que han podido sobrevivir al ataque expansionista del castellano. A todo esto muy buena recopilacion de palabras o como se diria en aragones parolas, un saludo y a plantar cerenyo!

TERTULIA LITERARIA

Aquel verano mi hermano Adolfo acababa de publicar sus primeros artículos como periodista, y yo arrastraba Historia del Derecho, Derecho Romano, y un libro de poesía en ciernes, cuando conocimos a algunos escritores a través de nuestro paisano Lucrecio, y no sé por qué, estuvimos reuniéndonos después de cenar en una tertulia literaria, adonde se hablaba de todo, y trasegaban alcohol hasta altas horas de la madrugada.

Aurelio era un crítico literario de voz susurrante y retorcida sintaxis, que nos trataba de usted y con toda la prosopopeya para hacer más patente su desprecio:

—A ver, Don Andrés, ilustre vate –me decía- ¿en qué modalidad tomará usted su infusión torrefactada?

Y yo, tratando de sonreír, le decía que tomaría café solo.

—¿No lo tomará usted en nuestra humilde compañía?

En fin, ese tipo de gracia de profesor de instituto con halitosis, que casi todos tolerábamos a la espera de una crítica suya que nos aupara como jóvenes revelaciones del Parnaso literario. Lucrecio, un sanguíneo ejemplar de manchego, fogoso, enfático y poco sutil, que sólo tenía una prosa lánguida y amanerada de novicia cuando escribía, lo increpaba:

—Aurelio, no seas majadero, deja en paz a mis paisanos —y dirigiéndose a nosotros— Está celoso porque la cariátide os mira con buenos ojos…

—La cariátide bizquea y, en realidad, me está mirando a mí— decía Eduardo, un audaz escritor que había publicado varias novelas sin puntos ni comas, y con las páginas en orden aleatorio y otra adonde no había ninguna palabra que tuviera la letra hache, y la que llamaban la cariátide era una mujer muy joven, altísima y escultural, de ojos verdes y melena oscura, que se sentaba sola. Hubo varios intentos para saber su identidad e, incluso, hubo quien trató de seguirla, pero dio esquinazo, y su leyenda aumentó.

—Es una viuda, que viene aquí porque fue donde conoció a su marido —decía Aurelio.

—Es la limpiadora, y está vigilando a los guarros que tiran las colillas al suelo, para hacerles un asalto con técnicas de karate —decía Eduardo taxativamente.

—A veces se va y vuelve al rato. Es la portera de algún edificio con inquilinos olvidadizos, y les tiene que abrir el portal… —dijo Lucrecio.

Adolfo y yo tuvimos más suerte y una noche pudimos comprobar que se alojaba en el Hotel Roma, a dos bocacalles de distancia, y a la mañana siguiente decidimos indagar en recepción para saber su nombre y anonadar con nuestra astucia a nuestros contertulios.

A las diez entramos a la cafetería del hotel Roma y, desde allí, Adolfo se acercó a la Recepción para preguntar por la misteriosa huésped, como si hubiera quedado con ella y hubiera olvidado su nombre. Volvió a los dos minutos completamente arrebolado:

—Es la recepcionista del Hotel.
—¿La cariátide es la recepcionista del Hotel? ¿Te ha reconocido?
—Está en el mostrador y no sé si me ha visto, no me he atrevido a hablar con ella.
—Tendrá un horario… por la tarde habrá otra persona… podemos preguntarle al otro recepcionista…
—Esta noche, antes de ir a la tertulia podemos pasarnos… Pero esta vez te toca a ti…
Antes de irnos, saqué mi libro de Derecho Romano, inscribí mi nombre en la primera página y lo dejé ostentosamente encima de la mesa.
Por la noche llegué a la Recepción, adonde había un joven lleno de granos, y empecé mis pesquisas.
—Perdona, ¿no está la chica de esta mañana… cómo se llama…?
—Virginia se va a las seis de la tarde…
—Eso, sí, Virginia, la recepcionista… Esta mañana he estado aquí y me he dejado un libro… ¿No te lo ha dejado a ti?
—Virginia es la dueña del Hotel, está en la recepción a veces…y a mí no me ha dado ningún libro que hayan olvidado… Ella estará en el Café Conde a estas horas…

Cuando llegué a la tertulia, la cariátide no estaba, y lo primero que hice fue explicarles cómo se llamaba, que era dueña del Hotel Roma… Eduardo decidió que merecía una invitación regia por mi labor detectivesca.
—¡Un café doble para este eminente ciudadano!
Aurelio le preguntó al viejo camarero que fue campeón de boxeo:
—Esa joven que se sienta en el rincón, Virginia creo que se llama… ¿no ha venido aún?
—Estará en el despacho revisando las cuentas…
—¿En qué despacho dice usted, amable camarero?
—En su despacho… es la directora.

Aurelio se quedó con una sonrisita de conejo y sólo dijo: "¡Vaya, vaya!" varias veces. Nosotros nos enzarzamos discutiendo sobre los merecimientos de un autor teatral y, como siempre, hubo división de opiniones. No nos dimos cuenta de que, entre tanto, la cariátide había llegado y se encaminaba a su asiento de costumbre. Aurelio, sin levantarse de su silla, se giró hasta darnos la espalda e interpeló con voz tronante:

—Dígame, Virginia, noble dama, ¿a cuántos ancianos decrépitos ha arruinado usted para llegar a ser la dueña de una buena parte de los negocios hosteleros del barrio?

Hubo un silencio, los ojos verdes de aquella mujer se hicieron casi negros, y con una voz suave, ligeramente enronquecida, dijo:
—¡Eso no me lo diría usted a mí en la cama!… —y luego, dirigiéndose al camarero— ¡Papá, pregúntale al señor qué va a tomar y por dónde! -y mantuvo su gesto hierático, mientras nosotros increpábamos al ofensor, que boqueaba, pálido, sin réplica.

Aquel camarero casi anciano, ex campeón de boxeo, lo llevó hasta la calle como si fuera un pelele, y lo derrumbó de un puñetazo.
—¡Ya está, Virginia, servido el señor!" —y luego se dirigió a nosotros:
—¡Y la próxima vez que vea un escritor en este local, lo capo!

Virginia, la que ahora es mi mujer, aclaró:
—Bueno, papá, nuestros clientes pueden dedicarse a la literatura o a la coprofagia, que viene a ser lo mismo, pero en secreto, sin ostentación...

Y ahora ya sabrán porqué escribo en secreto y no digo quien soy: mi mujer usa el lenguaje cuartelero con tanta propiedad como mi suegro, los puños, y yo no soy un héroe de novela.

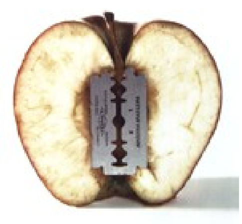
MANIFIESTO MI SOLIDARIDAD CON LA COPE Y JIMÉNEZ LOSANTOS



A estas alturas, cualquiera puede comprender que no soy de la cofradía de Jiménez Losantos ni entusiasta de la línea ideológica de la Conferencia Episcopal, ni de la COPE, que es su órgano de expresión, y que tampoco votaría al PP si sigo lúcida.
Y no obstante, me parece muy peligroso para la salud de esta democracia, las recogidas de firmas pidiendo que se le quite a Jiménez Losantos, director del programa de la mañana, la posibilidad de expresarse como crea conveniente, y las manifestaciones de unos imbéciles morales pidiendo el cierre de la emisora COPE.
En la sociedad que quiero vivir, exijo para mis adversarios políticos y mis oponentes ideológicos, la misma tolerancia y el mismo derecho a manifestar sus ideas que reivindico para mí.

Me produjo en su día vergüenza ajena la campaña de recogida de firmas para que la Conferencia Episcopal le quite su puesto de trabajo a Jiménez Losantos, y me da vergüenza ajena que haya miembros de un partido, que se autodenomina republicano, pidiendo el cierre de la emisora COPE.
Como republicana y libertaria, manifiesto clara y nitidamente mi solidaridad con Federico Jiménez Losantos y la emisora COPE, y mi repugnancia por esa parte de la izquierda, que se llama progresista y, sin embargo, ataca la libre expresión de sus oponentes.

La libertad carece de cuentagotas: muchas gotas para los que piensan cómo yo y pocas o ninguna para los que piensan distinto. Pues no, o todos son y somos libres para pensar y decir lo que estimemos oportuno, o nadie lo es.
No sé si fue Voltaire o quien, que le dijo a tampoco sé quién: "No comparto nada de lo que piensa, pero moriré para lograr que lo pueda expresar" (Y tampoco sé si lo dijo con estas palabras, pero sí con este sentido).
Buen artículo, Gatopardo.lo adhiero y secundo en su totalidad.

Ya sabes que yo no soy libertario, que soy fachilla (neoliberal me dicen cuando me quieren insultar) pero sí que soy republicano y ateo. Y me repugna la campañita.
Oigo a Jiménez Losantos y muchas veces, me enerva y otras me aburre. Pero esta campaña no tiene nombre. Más propia de liberticidas que de libertarios, como muy bien dices.
Cada día tu figura se agiganta más en mi menguante cerebro, jovenzuela.

Absolutamente de acuerdo contigo. La libertad de expresión no es, no puede ser, patrimonio de nadie. Y sólo puede defenderse ejerciéndola. Me adhiero a tu proclama de solidaridad, precisamente, porque soy republicano y de izquierdas: creo firmemente en los principios democráticos del republicanismo cívico. Los imbéciles morales de ERC, no han llegado ni al catón. Dicho todo lo cual, deseo añadir que Jiménez Losantos es una fábrica de odio indecente. Allá él (y su úlcera) y, sobre todo, allá sus voluntarios oyentes. Intervéngase, aplicando la ley, en caso de que delinca y, si no, déjesele en paz (es un decir, porque de "paz" no va sobrado este señor).

No suelo felicitar a nadie, tu lo sabes gata.
No queda más remedio que hacerlo contigo. Yo no sería tan valiente para defender una cosa así.
Es como si defendiera una revista nazi ante su cierre sabes?
Es demasiado para mí.
Yo no estoy a favor de su cierre, ni mucho menos.
No hace daño el que quiere, sino, el que puede. Y, yo, no les temo.
Pero, gata... También comprendo la gente que la quiere cerrar. Esa gente piensa, con razón, que la Cope está destruyendo la convivencia.
Ocurre que siempre habrán obsesos y nazis, siempre hay un porcentaje del cual no hay manera de salvarse. Ocurre, también, que ese grupo, generalmente no tiene líder, está aislado. Con la COPE tienen un líder y eso los hace peligrosos. Hoy no, hoy solo los excita, se hace el bueno, el sabio. Mañana puede ser distinto.

Un abrazo.

Zuriñe, Hannah, Tamargo, Wolffo, Ernesto, gracias por entenderlo así. Pau, yo leo a veces Libertad Digital, la página de Jiménez Losantos que he enlazado en el artículo, y a veces escucho la COPE. Aún no he observado que destruya la convivencia el que opine, apasionadamente, porque el énfasis es natural a los enfáticos como la sífilis a los sifilíticos, y yo lo conocí siendo pro-chino, y la Banda de los Cuatro eran unos ingenuos al lado de su rigor maoista; ahora es de derechas, y no ha cambiado nada ni su lógica ni su visión maniquea del mundo. ¿Y qué pasa? Nada. Que para que España me guste necesito que la gente como él tenga derecho a existir, decir lo que le parezca y como le salga, porque para eso quería yo la democracia, para que todos podamos decir y defender nuestras ideas. Y esa gente que pide su cabeza, también hace peligrar la mía. Ellos son los peligrosos, los que no saben vivir en democracia.

En cualquier caso no dejamos de ser personas, y de todo habrá de haber en este mundo. Si no existiera la iglesia, los radicales liberales o no, etc.; si no existieran los extremos, nosotros no podríamos vivir cercanos a ningún centro. Y lo más importante, no tendríamos qué criticar.
Cierto es, que lamentable me parece todo lo ya relatado por ti, pero son de las veces en las que pienso que difícilmente puede cambiar en algo el rumbo del resto del mundo, así que me esfuerzo por mantener tenaz el mío. Me parece más lógico, productivo y real. Cuídate mucho.

Yo también lo escucho a veces, supongo que para reir y alucinar de que haya gente así.
Ninguna de las veces que lo he escuchado, he dejado de oir mentiras, mentiras que luego son utilizadas por otros como arma. No es el único que lo hace en su tertulia.

No apruebo su cierre por los mismos motivos que tu.
Lo que ocurre es que entiendo perfectamente a la gente que aspira su cierre.
Mentir en un medio público para conseguir un beneficio político, debería estar penado.
Ahora imagínate como debería estarlo, cuando este medio insulta y pone en boca de un colectivo, cosas que no son ciertas y, todo esto, para enfrentarlo al resto del país.

La única campaña que conozco eferente a ellos y a Rajoy fue la que recibí por teléfono referente a su secuestro.
Y, claro, siempre hay que recordar que en elecciones libres (como Alemania en 1932, o USA en las dos últimas convocatorias y ¿España?, p. ej.) los que salen son los que votan L@S CIUDADANOS, y L@S QUE LOS SOSTIENEN Y SON SU CORREA DE TRANSMISIÓN.

Yo, como vivo muy desconectado, no sabía nada de la campaña de marras. ¿Qué gente de qué partido recoge esas firmas, gente del psoe? No escucho la cope, ni la ser, ni ninguna emisora, excepto radio 3 y radio clásica. Tampoco leo periódicos. Entre otras razones, por el bajísimo nivel intelectual y ético de todos esos medios.

Evidentemente lo que pueda decir la COPE o la SER me trae sin cuidado, me parece una forma de hacer radio prehistórica. ¿ Qué medio de comunicación puede pretender monopolizar la audencia ?

Aun así hay un elemento grave. Tienen licencias y ellas les obligan a funcionar dentro de unas normas de servicio público. Directriz que evidentemente no cumplen, igual podriamos decir de la televisión y ¿ internet ?.

Ahí si que estan solos, mas solos que la una. Con todos los medios económicos que tienen y todos los intentos de plataformas que se han realizado por grandes empresas, han sido fracaso tras fracaso. Son tan inútiles que creen que la interactividad es mandar sms o que les mandemos material para elaborar sus WEBS...jajajaj, no saben que hacer, ni talento, ni profesionalidad.

No esperaba menos de ti querida Gato. aquello que engrandece a las personas es intentar al menos ser consecuente con sus principios y si estos se basan en la libertad individual y social deben defender la libertad de opnión también de aquellos con que piensan de manera diferente. No obstante (a ver si lo explico bien) no puedo dejar de plantearme una iniciativa civil (cual no está impulsada por intereses políticos?) puede deslegimitarse. No entraríamos en el mismo rol que aquellos que piden la dimisión de este señor, no estan ellos también en su derecho "democrático" de pedir explicaciones y en su caso el cese de un personage público y no anónimo que representa a una estructura política y social del conjunto de la sociedad? Creo que cuando tus opiniones són públicas estás expuesto a ello, a que te defiendan y también a que seas objeto de las críticas. por qué se puede pedir el cierre de un medio de expresión y se prohibe el diari Eguin por ejemplo y no se puede pedir el cierre de la cadena Cope? Por qué prohiben ciertos partidos que segun algunos són antidemocráticos por sus supuestas relaciones con grupos terroristas y se aliemntan y promueven otros con total impudidad vinculados claramente a la extrema derecha y a gruppos neonazis? No sé gatopardo...comparto y respaldo tu firmeza pero és dificil matenarla cuando la bara de medir no es igual ni para todos. un abrazo

No repetiré lo dicho, pero añado que la COPE es una empresa privada, como la SER u Onda Cero, y, por desgracia, cuando cerraron Egin yo sólo tenía spray y folios para expresar hasta qué punto era un atropello vincular su cierre a los actos delictivos por los que se procesara a los propietarios;sin una sentencia firme que determinara el embargo de sus bienes. Considero que la mejor forma de luchar contra quien expresa sus ideas por escrito o hablando, nos gusten o no, es mediante argumentos en contra, hablados o escritos. "Vinculados claramente a la extrema derecha y a grupos neonazis" es una afirmación de índole tan gaseosa como la de los que me acusan de estar financiada por Vocento o la CIA: sólo puedo decir que quien tenga los documentos que atestiguan que yo cobro y la cuenta donde me ingresan ese dinero, deberían hacerla pública, porque estoy mal de dinero y me gustaría saber adónde acudir. En una democracia el delito de opinión no debería de existir, y me niego a amparar con mi silencio y mi complicidad el ataque a quien piensa todo lo contrario que yo.

VA POR VOSOTROS: Quisiera responder a algunas de las barbaridades que he podido leer por parte de alguno de vosotros. Es increíble lo que decís. Alucino con vosotros.
En primer lugar, PAU: Quisira que me dijeras alguna de las supuestas mentiras que has escuchado en la COPE. Yo si que podría decirte alguna de tus amigos "progres" de la SER. Sin ir más lejos recuerdo cuando el día 12 de Marzo, el día después del atentado de los trenes en Madrid, tus amigos se encargaron de promulgar que se habían encontrado terroristas suicidas en los trenes. Pero no contentos con eso al día siguiente no se cortaron a la hora de animar a toda la gente a que fueran a las sedes del PP a llamarnos asesinos (digo "llamarnos" porque soy afiliado al Partido Popular, espero que me perdoneis por ello algún día y me sentí insultado y humillado aquella noche), aunque esto no es de extrañar en una emisora que esta al servicio de un partido que es capaz de utilizar la sangre y el dolor de 200 muertos y de sus 200 familias para ganar unas elecciones.

En segundo lugar, para ti GAT0 PARDO: Me resulta increíble que critiques el cierre de Egin. Te recuerdo que ese "periódico" (por llamarle de alguna manera) se encargaba de dar cobertura mediática a un partido político ilegalizado por colaboración con banda armada y a la propia banda en cuestión. En segundo lugar, dice vd. que yo he lanzado acusaciones contra su persona. Lamento comunicarle que cae vd. en un nuevo error, ya que (si como vd. dice lee despacio mi frase), yo no he lanzado directamente ninguna acusación directa sobre vd.
Su columna dice vd. textualmente que considera un "atropello" el cierre del citado periódico. Dicha afirmación me parece tremendamende peligrosa tratándose de un tema como ese y considero que esconde una gran ambiguedad.

Diego: hace muchos años, El Alcazar jaleaba a los golpistas, y día sí y día también, los más señalados d la extrema derecha hacían artículos contra la Constitución.Militantes de la extrema derecha torturaron y asesinaron a varios ciudadanos de izquierdas, entre otros a Yolanda, de 19 años: tenía los ojos verdes, y era una buena estudiante. Desgraciadamente no será fácil que la olvide ni que usted pueda recordarla. Cuando se habló de cerrar El Alcazar, dije lo mismo que dije con Egin: las ideas y las palabras se combaten con ideas y con palabras: si los propietarios y los accionistas de un diario delinquen, tendrán que responder ante la justicia; pero cerrar un medio de expresión es un atropello y un error. Y la deducción de que estar en contra de cercenar y callar las ideas que combato y no comparto sea una "ambiguëdad" me parece una solemne incapacidad para comprobar en el diccionario el significado de las palabras: soy muy clara: quiero que los que no piensan como yo puedan decirlo tan libremente como yo. Porque hablar y expresarse es un derecho inalienable que reivindico para todos. Hasta para la extrema derecha.

Con lo que voy a decirle a continuación no pretendo acusarle a vd. de nada. Le planteo la siguiente pregunta: ¿esta vd. de acuerdo con el terrorismo etarra? Si su respuesta es "no" entonces tampoco debería estar en contra del cierre de Egin. Porque a estas alturas de la película no puede negarme vd. que el citado periódico forma parte del entramado etarra. Mire usted, señora o señorita, la palabra "terrorismo" (y cuando digo terrorismo me refiero a toda clase de terrorimo, de derechas o de izquierdas) no es aplicable únicamente al que aprieta el gatillo para asesinar a otra persona, sino que también es aplicable a todos aquellos que con su entramado político o periodístico dan cobertura o apoyo de algún tipo a los que aprietan el gatillo. Ellos también son terroristas. Contra el terrorismo no caben "medias tintas". O se está con ellos o se está contra ellos. Supongo que dada su mentalidad vd. encontrará está reflexión muy extremista pero yo también encuentro extremista su postura en contra del cierre del periódico.
Analizando sus palabras, me da la impresión de que para vd. todo (absolutamente todo) es respetable. Pues no todas las posturas son respetables. Para mi la extrema derecha no es respetable y la extrema izquierda (ETA,BATAUNA,Egin,etc...)
tampoco. Y los que apoyan a estos, ya sea desde partidos políticos o desde las páginas de sus periódicos tampoco.

No, señor, no he dicho jamás que respete todo, y como muestra le voy a dar un botón: no respeto su profunda imbecilidad, su incapacidad para comprender cosas muy simples. Y ya le he dicho sutilmente que me aburre: ahora ya se lo digo sin adornos: es usted el tipo de memo que me hace apiadarme profundamente de sus compañeros, amigos, vecinos, familia, comilitantes y de cualquiera que tenga que soportar su insensatez. Y no está autorizado para hacerme pregunta alguna: cualquier duda que tenga, consulte a google.

Espero que haya quedado claro.

Me alegra ver que gente de izquierdas manifiesta el apoyo a la libertad de expresión en contra de lo que hicieron sus antepasados ideológicos Stalin, Mussolini(secretario general del socialismo italiano), Hitler(lider del partido nacional socialista de los trabajadores alemanes), Pol Poth, Mao, Largo Caballero, Indalecio Prieto, Azaña etc... Espero sinceramente que esta nueva izquierda que empieza a defender derechos y libertades se imponga a la que defiende un sólo resquicio de latrocinio, indecencia, pactos con terroristas, poderes de minorías que no se reflejan en las urnas o cualquier otra postura antidemocrática como las que no deja de llevar a cabo Zapatero.

Hombre... El garbo se demuestra andando. La COPE no se ha cerrado y Losantos no se ha ido. Pero sí tenemos un boicot contra los medios de PRISA por parte de los palmeros de Federico. ¿Escribirás algo? ¿Te parece igual de malo? ¿Son imbéciles morales? A lo mejor es que la salud de la democracia reside en quien boicotee a quién. ¡¡¡Cuanta cutrez!!! Cuanta doble moral soportamos estoicamente quienes no vivimos del insulto, la conspiranoia y la demagogia. Y un apuntito para el amigo Azrael... Chiquillo, confundir el fascismo con el socialismo sólo porque al enano mental de turno se le ocurrió ponerle al partido la etiqueta de "socialista" es como para hacérselo mirar. Un poquito de culturilla, please.

Amigo Francisco: como escribo para gente inteligente, y he dicho perfectamente claro que "En la sociedad que quiero vivir, exijo para mis adversarios políticos y mis oponentes ideológicos, la misma tolerancia y el mismo derecho a manifestar sus ideas que reivindico para mí." me excusará que no me repita como si me dirigiera a idiotas. Y más, cuando he abundado ya en comentarios.
En cuanto pidan el cierre de la SER y la expulsión del presentador del magazine de la mañana, escribiré este mismo artículo cambiándole los nombres.
Mientras sólo se nieguen a darles entrevistas y a contratarles publicidad, no diré nada, porque sin ir más lejos, es lo que el PP y el PSOE hacen con Gatopardo: no me dan entrevistas, ni me pagan para que hable mal de ellos. ¡Y mire que me vendría bien ese dinero para llegar a fin de mes!

LAS CONFESIONES DEL MONSTRUO DE FLORENCIA

A Manuela Garrido, que ha sido una madre para mí.

ANÓNIMO FLORENTINO

Desde Granada, mora y enamorada, mecido en el perfume de los jazmines nocherniegos de un carmen del Albayzín, he leído las confesiones de un asesino y me he sumido en "esa tristeza que tú me conoces", triste a pesar de la noche azul cobalto y la luna de cadmio. Ahora querría que te llegases hasta mí con tu sonrisa desarbolada, y borraras esta penosa sensación de extranjería conmigo mismo al descubrir en un ser tan supuestamente ajeno, una fraternidad tan sofocante como la mirada de algunos días desde el espejo. Dama, he dejado que mi corazón se abra a un asesino y he perdido pie, asomado a su abismo.

Hace unos meses llegué a Milán, roto, enfermo de desamor y mi anfitrión, preocupado y discreto, recurrió a su coche destartalado y cómplice para recuperarme de mi desdicha: "Te enseñaré Florencia". En plena autopista sacó el viejo automóvil sus achaques, y hubimos de apartarlo, humeante y quejumbroso, al arcén. Minutos después estábamos rodeados de hospitalarios italianos, mecánicos improvisados que se llenaron las uñas de tizne, huella de su solidaridad y de nuestra impericia, y pudimos continuar viaje. La Toscana nos acogió con esas brumas irreales que sólo Leonardo me había anunciado y, ganado por la belleza de Florencia, no deshice el equipaje a mi arribada, huésped de un Farlatti di Caporiacco con corona ducal en la puerta de su vieja casona del siglo XVII, y no reparé entonces en un sobre abultado, que a la mañana siguiente descubrí entre mis pertenencias. Por culpa de mi deficiente italiano, debí esperar hasta que la servicial curiosidad de Gabriel Veraldi-Pasquale, que se llama a sí mismo "descendiente de los civilizados etruscos y enamorado de Italia", puso a mi alcance en este idioma nuestro, que tantas veces nos duele y nos sana, la traducción sin título que podría llamarse "Las confesiones del monstruo de Florencia", y que nunca sabré si fue un obsequio de alguno de nuestros samaritanos de la autopista o de aquellos misteriosos ocupantes del hotel, que apenas llegué a ver.

Dama, recurro a ti porque eres sabia, y tantas veces he tenido en una frase tuya consuelo y sosiego, que espero el ungüento de tu ternura sin preguntarme qué derecho me asiste y hasta dónde llevaré mi deuda de gratitud contigo. Escríbeme o llámame antes de mi viaje a Grecia, patria de Príamo y Panagulis, amiga políglota y cosmopolita, y háblame en nuestro viejo lenguaje interparroquial, como si estuvieras aquí, a mi lado.

LAS CONFESIONES DEL MONSTRUO DE FLORENCIA

Un "asesino". Con esta palabra creen poder exorcizar la similitud entre ellos, que no han matado jamás, y yo, "el monstruo de Florencia". La sinceridad, que es el artificio de los simples, da carta de naturaleza, no obstante, a sentimientos completamente antagónicos, alternativamente tiernos y feroces, y con una encantadora naturalidad pontifican sobre lo "normal" y lo "anormal" sin dejar por ello de ser sujetos pasivos de emociones incontrolables. Pero todo está inserto en la naturaleza del alma humana y por mucho que un hombre transgreda la ley y la lógica imperantes, jamás llegará a ser otra cosa que un ser humano actuando dentro de sus propios límites y sus propias prerrogativas.

Cuando oigo los comentarios de los parroquianos del bar, donde todas las tardes tomo un chianti, siento que las carcajadas podrían desbaratar este continente serio, que acompaña sus excitadas hipótesis sobre el asesino: "un psicópata, un hombre que siente un extraño placer sexual al asesinar y mutilar a sus víctimas". Y me admiro de ser tan diferente de la imagen que dan del asesino.

Jamás he sentido placer viendo agonizar a un ser humano y cualquiera que haya contemplado de cerca los estertores de la muerte estará de acuerdo conmigo: no hay nada exaltante, ni siquiera respetable, en esa repulsiva rebeldía zoológica, cuando el instinto de conservación prima sobre la más mínima dignidad. Las muertes ejemplares no existen y se llaman así a los preámbulos declamatorios antes de recibir el impacto letal y, en efecto, hay frases realmente hermosas, llenas de una sombría tristeza estupefacta, que me han hecho parpadear antes de apretar el gatillo. Pero la agonía, por muy breve que sea, siempre es penosa de contemplar, siempre es antiestética, por eso jamás opero sobre los cuerpos vivos y sólo actúo cuando ya cadáveres me ofrecen su complicidad.

Antes de matar, recuerdo haber oído comentar que mi tío había formado parte de un pelotón de fusilamiento en la guerra, y me extrañaba que jamás se refiriera a aquellos hombres ni a sus sentimientos como copartícipe de su suerte. Un día —tenía yo dieciséis años—, le pregunté a bocajarro sobre aquello. No sé si enrojecí por su silencio o por aquella mirada dura y vacía que me dirigió, pero alguien entró en aquel momento y pude marcharme sin esperar respuesta.

Durante varios días no lo miré de frente y percibí una zozobra nueva, un malestar que creí ajeno. "Escúchame —dijo—, antes de que sigas con esas fantasías, prefiero decírtelo claramente: cuando se mata a un hombre sólo se siente extrañeza al comprobar lo fácil que es. Lo que siento por los hombres que he matado es una tranquila indiferencia y no puedo decir lo mismo de los vivos, que por muy semejantes que sean o por muy lejanos que se encuentren, siempre pueden llegar a irritarme. A veces, cuando tardaban en morir y había que darles el tiro de gracia les tuve rencor por su testarudez en agarrarse a la vida, sabiendo que era inútil, que estaban condenados, pero se me pasaba enseguida." Y no sé por qué entonces, a los dieciséis años, supe que mi tío decía la verdad y mentían quienes hablaron de remordimientos eternos, que nadie está preparado para sufrir siempre por la misma causa y un estímulo, repetido hasta la saciedad acaba por abotagar la sensación que produjo. La primera vez que ayudé al médico forense en una autopsia, me avisó: "Tendrá náuseas por la fetidez del cadáver en descomposición. Luego uno se acostumbra." Durante varios días tuve en la nariz el hedor de aquel cadáver como un recuerdo demasiado vívido, que me asaltaba en cualquier momento sin que mediara un estímulo similar, pero al cabo de un tiempo en anatomía patológica me inmunicé y una ducha enérgica, un lavado de las fosas nasales con agua, sal marina y tomillo, me desprende ahora, en unos minutos, de una sensación que yo creí imborrable el primer día.

Siento, al contrario, una infinita conmiseración por quienes tienen que bregar con enfermos, que gimen, se agitan, lloran, fingen desear la muerte y tienen ese pesado olor glandular que no permite olvidar que detrás de su mascarada, a pesar de todo, estarían dispuestos a imponer su pestilencia, sus llagas, su enfermedad, su vida atroz, si fuera posible eternamente, reculando ante la muerte en un grotesco deseo de vivir a cualquier precio. Luego, cuando veo a los trabajadores del hospital, que charlan, ríen, se casan, juegan a las cartas o se apasionan con la política, sin que aparentemente nada se haya resquebrajado en su interior, sin que muestren un asco profundo y descarnado por todo lo humano, me digo que es absolutamente necesario que se apeguen a la rutina muelle de los sentidos y de las relaciones humanas convencionales, porque sin esos asideros nadie que haya visto de cerca al hombre en su más desnuda inanidad podría ser ya uno más.

Quizás he dado a entender que odio a la humanidad, y no es verdad. El ser humano me parece digno de piedad, siento por mis semejantes una compasión cada vez más aguda y aunque su sufrimiento fuera merecido, siempre es desmesurado hasta para el más culpable, porque nunca tendrá un hombre la talla moral del dolor que pueda sobrevenirle, siempre se encontrará sobrepasado y vencido ante él y es tan habitual en la vida, estamos tan inermes...

Pero yo no mato para evitarles sufrir a mis victimas, yo no soy quién para tratar de enmendarle la plana a Dios y en Él confío hasta cerrar mi entendimiento a las preguntas que nadie, sino Dios podría responderme. Sé que todo está en su divina voluntad, hasta lo incomprensible, hasta lo inaceptable y ¡ay de quien le pida cuentas, porque llegará a la locura de negarlo!. Y si Dios se borra de nuestra existencia, si ya no hay un plan supremo que cumplimos, aun ignorando cuál será la finalidad y su alcance, ¿qué nos queda sino un desierto helado donde nada tiene valor, cada acto nos remite a su iniquidad y cada límite subjetivo es un espejismo esterilizante?

Yo sé que al matar me sitúo en esa frontera que la mayoría no traspasará jamás, pero mis actos no son contra natura porque en la naturaleza de las cosas está la muerte y yo bien pudiera ser el administrador de una suerte que al nacer ya está echada. Matar no provoca consecuencias tan graves como engendrar un hijo, que puede ser un santo o poner a punto la bomba que, al fin, hará saltar el planeta.

Cualquier acto, si tuviéramos cabal conciencia de su repercusión podría ser de mayor trascendencia que la interrupción prematura de una vida. Todo lo más, una muerte significa que ya no se realizará un ciclo temporal con sus consiguientes actos específicos, y nadie tiene derecho a echar en falta lo que no ha sucedido, aunque ésta sea la nostalgia más arraigada, incapaces de eternizarnos en el recuerdo de lo que aconteció.

Se ha hablado mucho de la edad de mis víctimas, y se ha buscado oscuras explicaciones al hecho de que los haya sorprendido al final de juegos amorosos, creyendo detectar mi repulsión sexual. No es cuestión de dar nombres y ninguna de las mujeres que he amado podrá atestiguar, pero soy perfectamente capaz de gozar, aunque por pudor y caballerosidad no les haya dicho nunca hasta qué punto el placer sexual es uno y el mismo después de la primera vez, ni lo poco individuales que somos cuando querríamos ser irrepetibles, que lo que se llama la intimidad de la pareja es, de hecho, lo más genérico e intercambiable de la especie y no creo que nadie medianamente lúcido pueda negarlo.

Al igual que no me creo extraordinario cuando me baño y aún mojado siento el sol con gratitud y degusto ese momento y tantos otros que me procuran placer, conmovido y feliz, descubro en el abrazo sexual toda su gratificante realidad sin por ello considerarlo sublime. Pero fue precisamente después de amar a una mujer muy bella y sentir que me gustaría morir en ese momento, cuando vi claramente que el mejor regalo a un condenado a muerte —todos lo somos— sería permitirle hacer el amor ignorando que fuera a ser ejecutado.

Curiosamente todos ven crueldad donde yo creo demostrar una profunda piedad: sería tan hermoso que hubieran muerto mientras aún se amaban todos esos hombre y mujeres que reestrenan, cada día, la lacerante historia de sus ofensas y resentimientos, como una condena y una factura que jamás podrán pagar, que una vez fueron jóvenes y sintieron indisciplinadamente y cada destello de luz encontró la avidez de su mirada, capaces de amar desde una integridad imperiosa, risueña, ilimitada, con un nudo en la garganta y minúsculas descargas eléctricas en la piel, absortos e inermes ante la vida cuando aún era la primera vez de todas las cosas y el hábito no había desgastado su receptividad.

Se ama por un desajuste entre el raciocinio y las hormonas que nos incapacita para detectar lo que de verdadero existe en el otro, idealizado por mor de imponderables psíquicos, pero sería imposible sin estas recíprocas inferencias anular al individuo lúdico y amoral hasta encontrar, como fenómeno general, que los seres humanos se reproducen en cautividad, presos en relaciones simbióticas donde se anulan.

Hay un punto en el que no malgasto mi piedad y es con la gente del sur, el cáncer de Italia. La debilidad que se demuestra con esa gente no tiene disculpa; y, como tantas veces, esa benevolencia indiferenciada es profundamente injusta con el resto. Habría que poner una muralla en Roma para que no llegaran hasta nosotros esos mestizos de la peor raza, delincuentes todos, porque es mentira que la mafia o la camorra sean cotos cerrados: todos pertenecen y sirven a la mafia desde hace varias generaciones, como antes sirvieron a los árabes y a los españoles. Sólo quien los domina puede contar con su lealtad, pero no porque sean capaces de sentir algo parecido, sino por miedo. Esa gentuza sólo se merece el látigo y ése es el único lenguaje que entienden. Si cada terroni que delinquiera se encontrara a toda su familia degollada, hasta el último miembro, se podría sanear Italia; pero nuestros gobernantes son los primeros que se benefician del tráfico de influencias, y no hay político, juez o policía que sea incorruptible o siéndolo esté a salvo.

Sé que soy arbitrario y apasionado cuando se trata de ellos y sé también que quizás mis motivos son pueriles: aborrezco esa desidia con la que aceptan el destino, me crispa su pronunciación y cuando se expresan entre ellos en su jerga incomprensible, semiárabe y semiespañol. Sus valores, sus convicciones, sus costumbres, su atavismo tribal, todo me hace despreciarlos y confieso que los exterminaría como a una plaga de cucarachas, con tanto asco por sus cadáveres como por su existencia.

Por otro lado establezco un baremo perfectamente lógico y en mi índice de valores no son los más dañinos ni los que promueven, en último término, este ambiente deteriorado, final de milenio, que nuestra decadente Italia evidencia. Las raíces hay que encontrarlas en aquellos zafios guerreros, dispuestos a alquilar sus tropas al mejor postor, mecenas por soberbia e inmortales sin merecimientos que configuraron la historia de Italia y determinaron sus lacras. El colmo es que estoy seguro de que los terroni serán los únicos que sobrevivirán, porque están preparados desde la noche de los tiempos para salvarse de todas las decadencias y de todos los imperios: no tienen más religión que su propia sensualidad y en ellos no es esta tenue y movediza sensación que degustamos quienes estamos en la pendiente de una cultura agonizante; ellos tienen el vigor de quienes no fueron nunca mimados por la historia, y la adversidad los ha fortalecido, como el veneno que una vez fue efectivo contra las ratas, alimenta a sus crías. Si, como dice Giraudoux, "la inocencia de un ser es su adaptación absoluta al universo en que vive", hay que reconocer que los terroni se han adaptado admirablemente a la putrefacción reinante y se han servido de ella como caldo de cultivo para medrar.

Pero yo no tengo un culto exacerbado por la inocencia ni por los ganadores. Los únicos personajes que admiro han degustado el poder como insomnes maníacos, observando con total lucidez los síntomas de su futura derrota, y, si han sido arrogantes, lo fueron por elegancia, porque no se mendiga simpatía cuando se es poderoso, basta con inspirar temor, pero han sabido perder sin sorpresa sus privilegios. Los patanes recién llegados al poder, embriagados aún por su triunfo o por su suerte, son ininteresantes y despreciables, por mucho vigor que les acompañe.

Se ha supuesto que mi astucia es atípica, ya que jamás me he dejado tentar por la controversia, no me he comunicado con la prensa ni he intentado establecer un duelo con la policía desde los primeros crímenes conocidos, hace muchos años, pero no es sólo mi perspicacia la que me ha hecho invulnerable. Está tan arraigado el prejuicio de que he de ser un monstruo que buscan a un enfermo mental, que haya padecido trastornos paranoicos graves, olvidando que el loco no puede hacer sufrir mucho tiempo, sufre él hasta el punto de quedar a la merced de la institución psiquiátrica, y, si alguna de las personas que me conoce, pudiera identificarme por indicios objetivos, descartaría inmediatamente la idea al no corresponder mi personalidad con los diferentes retratos-robot psicológicos que han publicado los periódicos, fruto de la experimentada cohorte de policías de varios países y que no revela ser producto de un estudio desapasionado del caso, teniendo en cuenta casos precedentes, sino del miedo a percibir que cualquier asesino, desde Landru hasta Jack, el destripador, tienen como nadie las características de buen ciudadano y afectuoso hombre de costumbres familiares, pero eso les produce tal desasosiego, que prefieren ignorar la testaruda realidad de las estadísticas, angustiados al no poder señalar y discernir la tara que salvará al resto con su bondad.

Pero esa puerilidad bonancible de la mayoría que se llama "bondad", suele revelar una falla del carácter más que una virtud. La bondad, la inocencia no es un estado de partida, sino una larga conquista que jamás se basa en esa tibia negativa a actuar para no errar. Un hombre bueno jamás será aquel que ha obviado, por falta de estímulos, por escrúpulos o por acidia, la asunción del mal como adversario, en cualquiera de sus manifestaciones. Sin establecer un combate con él no se le puede vencer, pero sólo se puede ganar al enemigo trasunto de uno mismo, del que se conocen sus reacciones y sus pensamientos más secretos: nuestro sistema lógico es biunívoco y sólo sabemos responder en la misma dialéctica que se nos plantea. Llegar a percibir la ofensa como defectuosa manifestación mental del que nos agrede es un derivativo que nos exime de responder, desautorizando al interlocutor, pero no trasgrede fundamentalmente la lógica monolítica en la que estamos presos y que es excluyente para los antagonistas. Sólo desde una percepción radial y global de la existencia se puede evitar la eterna simplicidad que obliga a responder con violencia al mal, tiernos corderillos si se nos muestra interés, y para saberlo es preciso caer en todas las provocaciones, sucumbir a todas las tentaciones.

Y no obstante eso no me impide ser víctima de las expectativas que despierto y hoy, precisamente, escribo motivado por el interés que me ha testimoniado una autostopista sin demasiadas luces, que me ha hecho vislumbrar la posibilidad de llevar el riesgo hasta la temeridad. En este escrito doy pistas reales pero cualquiera de mis afirmaciones tendentes a identificarme es también una cortina de humo que impedirá a los sabuesos cazarme. La idea es enjundiosa y sencilla: dejaré este escrito en la autopista Milán-Florencia o bien lo traduciré al único idioma que conozco, aparte del italiano, y lo enviaré a cualquier editor de tres al cuarto como relato-ficción, basado en la idea de que el autor finge haberlo encontrado en la autopista y lo ha traducido, juego de los heterónimos que ha sido usado una y otra vez por numerosos escritores, faltos de una idea más sustanciosa y más elaborada, que si bien no les permitirá salir de los límites de su propia pelleja existencial, les da la sensación de haber hallado otra voz y otro tono, pero suelen ser perfectamente reconocibles porque la lógica y el armazón conceptual son los mismos. Nadie puede seguir una lógica ajena a sus presupuestos y aunque pudiera percibirla por la narración de otro, enseguida descodificaría y simplificaría el mensaje hasta hacerlo homologable con su propia falta de horizontes. Así, cuanto más extraordinario e individual es el testimonio de un hombre, menos comprendido será en profundidad y más apreciado por las sugerencias imprecisas que desencadena en los receptores. Cuanto más anodino es el lector, más tendrá la imperiosa necesidad de identificarse con lo extraordinario y eso le permite creerse apto para confraternizar con el autor y su obra aunque jamás sea su émulo. De ahí se deriva el fenómeno del best-seller que periódicamente catapulta a la fama a un escritor, a ser posible abstruso, ilegible o simplemente épico-moral, y da un lugar de privilegio en las bibliotecas a Nietszche, Kafka, Hermann Hesse, Borges o esas traducciones occidentales de cualquiera de las ramas del budismo.

Jamás un solo lector se ha sentido llamado a consagrar con su admiración a quien le habla en su mismo tono de sus mismas garbanceras certezas, porque el espejo de sí mismo suele ser relegado al cuarto de baño o al techo del lupanar de tercera categoría.

Cabe la posibilidad de que crean que éstas son las confesiones del "monstruo de Florencia" y todo lo que diga será juzgado en consecuencia. Pero si en verdad soy el asesino, nadie en su sano juicio pensará que voy a darles la soga para ahorcarme; antes bien habré dirigido las sospechas hacia quien pueda ser blanco de la acusación —como en ocasiones anteriores—, pero no es menos cierto que no me he permitido ni la más mínima inexactitud para salvaguardarme. Leído lo que antecede sin prejuicios es un testimonio que da la clave de mi identidad sin lugar a dudas, pero el primer prejuicio consistirá en optar por creer que soy el asesino.

O bien creerán que esto es un relato basado en el personaje que ocupa periódicamente las primeras planas de las publicaciones italianas, y que alguien escribió, jugando con el equívoco, una historia en primera persona, fingiendo ser un asesino que se confiesa. El juicio literario será en consonancia con la ficción y el estilo que le identifica y en la medida en que se le reconozca "otro" en su heterónimo, si bien será un obstáculo la longitud —excesiva para un cuento e insuficiente para una novela— y puede quedar relegado en el montón de los impublicables que reciben los editores, con lo que no se sabrá nunca por qué vericuetos el autor se ha visto inducido a escribir sobre un tema que no cuenta con grandes tiradas y quienes lo trataron tuvieron la más vil condición que puede tener un literato, que es ser atípico y maldito al estilo de Lautreamont, Quincey o Sade, que apenas cuentan con el aliciente de un buen titulo y el contenido es pura escatología sanguinolenta, digna de carniceros con pretensiones literarias. Y llegar a la conclusión de que yo soy un inventor de ficciones también es un prejuicio.

A estas alturas pienso que nadie más que uno de mis semejantes —¿y quién lo es?—, podrá extraer de la lectura de estas páginas la solución, al margen de que pueda señalarme con el dedo y reconocerme en la multitud y, sin embargo, sé que al leerme sabría encontrarme similar, pero me reprochará que no sea tan sincero que descarte dirigirme a quienes jamás me comprenderán y haber dado un tono demasiado plano a mi confesión; pero cada palabra que se dirige a ese auditorio fantasmatizado que son mis semejantes, mis pares, se evapora inexpresable porque sólo conozco a quienes me rodean, seres de una pieza, que rezuman vulgaridad, y son sus preguntas y sus dudas las que han llegado hasta mi. No conozco a nadie como yo, y yo soy un interlocutor que me canso a mi mismo, preso de mi propia limitación inquisitiva.

Los demás me han acostumbrado a esa necesidad de justificaciones y porqués cuando en mí jamás he buscado la disculpa que dé sentido a mis actos y ni siquiera respondo de ellos. La íntima necesidad de perfección, de no ignorar nada que este latente en mi naturaleza ha sido, quizás, la motivación más fuerte para explorar los tabúes que se han institucionalizado, recientemente, con el humanismo. Pero el hombre es un animal superdepredador y en lo más radical de si, en su memoria de especie, está incorporado el asesinato junto al reflejo de succión o la actividad retiniana que dosifica la luz. La visión del otro como un asociado benéfico es totalmente utilitaria y ha sido una adquisición tardía que todavía no se ha incorporado a nuestras circunvoluciones cerebrales; sólo es una premisa teórica que se inculca al niño a través de la domesticación superficial de sus instintos, junto con las reservas ancestrales contra los desconocidos, que neutralizan su adscripción o la distorsionan.

Nadie tiene sentimientos generosos hasta que no ha recibido el bombardeo sistemático de los castigos y de los premios en función de su disponibilidad afectiva y su docilidad, con las que se compra amor y aceptación desde la cuna. Un hombre no es muy diferente de perro que adiestró Pavlov y sus reflejos sociales son condicionados por el mismo sistema. Sólo quien no necesitase aprobación, o la circunscribiese a una zona perfectamente delimitada que le bastase como gratificación, podrá traspasar la moral que nos limita. Nadie en su sano juicio puede creerse que Dios se ocupe de estas minucias, que se ponen de moda a través de filósofos y moralistas, cuando unos siglos antes lo que se ha valorado es justamente lo contrario, pero es normal que un Dios no antropomórfico angustie a los humanos y así, necesitan hacerlo coautor y árbitro de lo que sólo son convenios temporales: el amor materno, que ahora se considera biológico, ha sido una moda tan reciente y masiva como fue elitista y depravada su expresión primera en los albores del Renacimiento; el amor, como pasión absorbente y privilegiada, no es sino la adopción como norma de lo que fueron juegos y justas literarias y corteses de los ociosos de la baja Edad Media, que los plebeyos creyeron altamente elegantes y lo sumaron a sus usos y costumbres, hasta autosugestionarse en masa, del mismo modo que hoy nos sirve la cultura para desclasarnos, porque siempre será más fácil leer todos los libros de la biblioteca pública más cercana que tener una cuenta corriente multimillonaria para salvarnos de ser un don nadie.

Pero lo único que nos salva de ser nadie ontológicamente es la relación privilegiada —aun injusta— es la mirada inquisitiva de quien nos ama sin porqués la que nos individualiza.

Al hombre, enfermo de inseguridad ontologica, le asusta el hombre y sólo decretándola inocua puede confiar en la mujer, en la que deposita su tensión, su debilidad, su fuerza y su ternura, dispuesto a creer que será amado y aceptado en toda su integridad. Pero la mujer es un guerrero que prescinde de reglas bélicas y sólo tiene una norma: vencer, encadenar a ese extraño asaltante que la coloniza desde la prepotencia, pero quiere permanecer como dueño por amor. La mujer entabla cada combate apelando a la debilidad, pero su triunfo es saber ceder, y su victoria está inscrita en la insatisfacción que le empuja a encontrar un nuevo terreno de batalla cada día si ayer se rindió su contrincante.

La madre nos inculca desde la cuna lo que la mujer nos confirmará en el lecho: el hombre es un ser repulsivo y mezquino del que le viene todo el mal y todo el sufrimiento, y cada uno es, no obstante, amado a pesar de ello. Muy pocos dejan de sentirse culpables y privilegiados y su necedad los ciega para darse cuenta de que ningún hombre permanece igual a sí mismo al lado de una mujer —¿poseído o devastado?—, y tanto da los merecimientos individuales de su compañera, porque su victoria no se basa en sus propias características, sino en las debilidades del adversario y en un entrenamiento tan ancestral como desprovisto de riesgos. A fuerza de oír hablar de ella como de un ser donde convergen virtudes y vicios casi teologales, la mujer adquiere distancia de si misma, se nos hace inaccesible, prescinde de cualquier ética ajena, puesto que no se reconoce en las características descritas como suyas. El hecho de que sus cualidades más aplaudidas —la virginidad, la sumisión, la docilidad—, no se basen en conquistas personales, sino en renuncias e inhibiciones, la obligó a crecer y a fortalecerse en secreto —a pesar de la vigilancia o quizás porque se sabe vigilada— y ha desarrollado una personalidad que desconocemos y en la que nos desconoce, siendo el único animal que prescinde de amedrentar o persuadir al enemigo para alejarlo, porque su efecto letal es inversamente proporcional a la distancia, su barricada es el amor y su guarida nuestra tumba, moralmente justificada porque arrasa con quien la excluye. ¿Qué remordimientos podemos presuponerle?

Sin embargo estoy casado y adoro a mi mujer: es un ser poco inteligente, necia respecto a cualquier parámetro de inteligencia humana, falta de recursos ante el día a día, que no me odia porque no me debe nada, pero he aprendido de ella casi todo lo que me hace invulnerable, quizás porque, afortunadamente, los hombres y las mujeres no somos completamente viriles o femeninos y sólo los muy simples tratan de mutilar sus componentes bisexuales, la convivencia me resulta provechosa. Yo me enorgullezco de tener una inteligencia muy femenina y un absoluto desprecio por las características viriles que consideran que más vale romperse que doblarse y sólo producen héroes muertos. Pero esa imbecilidad ha de ser patrimonio de la mayoría para que no haya lugar a estériles componendas con ella.

La mujer no es pasiva en el amor por carácter o educación, sino por indiferencia hacia el placer del hombre; no nos agrede por nuestra infamia, sino cuando se descubre deudora de nuestra benevolencia; no nos traiciona cuando ya no nos necesita —porque no nos necesita: nos utiliza—, sino cuando descubre que no ha comprado nuestro amor con sus disponibilidad zalamera. Y jamás una mujer ama sin condiciones: la menor quizás sea nuestro aniquilamiento; la mayor es descubrirnos nuestra sordidez y erigirse en testigo de cargo. Pero es fascinante como amiga y como enemiga porque nos estimula para sobrepasar la lógica aristotélica del sí o el no, y siempre se pueden perder las referencias cognoscitivas en nuestra confrontación, ya sea amatoria o excluyente: un cazador de tigres no tendrá ni una idea aproximada del peligro que representa medirse con una mujer indefensa. He conocido a mercenarios despiadados o insolentes, desarmados con argucias femeninas, hasta hacer de ellos esclavos; he visto a eruditos en filosofía pura caer en desvaríos inconfesables por una mujer completamente falta de criterio; he visto a hombres anulados por la enfermedad y el trabajo por no desmerecer a una mujer completamente vulgar. Y los errores, cuando son tan comunes, ilustran sobre las verdades subyacentes.

Lo he leído un par de veces.

Conocí un hombre, que mató a varios. Me dijo, el primero fue durante la noche, en un puente. Pasé una mala noche, apesadumbrado. El segundo, tambien en la noche y fuí luego a beber; el tercero, enfunde mi arma y seguí mi ruta..,. después no recuerdo como ni cuantos...

LA REAL ACADEMIA ESPAÑOLA DE LA LENGUA TIENE UNA ORTOGRAFÍA DE PENA

Gustavo Alfredo Jácome, Miembro de Número de la Academia Ecuatoriana de la Lengua, correspondiente de la española, no ha tenido más remedio que señalar en 169 páginas, los errores propagados por una publicación de la Real Academia Española de julio de 1999, titulada "Ortografía de la Lengua Española".
Jácome detalla, uno a uno, todos los errores que encontró en una obra que, se supone, debía contener las normas precisas para tener una buena ortografía. El autor advierte en una nota previa, que en abril de 1994, ante el X Congreso de Academias de la Lengua Española que se realizó en Madrid, presentó de viva voz y luego entregó en Secretaría, un documento que detallaba los "inesperados errores gramaticales" encontrados en el "Esbozo de la nueva Gramática de la Lengua Española", fechada en 1973, y nunca recibió respuesta.
No es de extrañar, viendo a quien le dan un sillón en la Real Academia Española en vez de darle una Gramática de Miranda Podadera.

Sólo hay que echarle un vistazo a la Gramática Descriptiva de Ignacio Bosque y Violeta Demonte para darse cuenta de que los gramáticos a veces hilan tan fino que es cuestión de interpretaciones. También depende de si el punto de partida del gramático es semasiológico u onomasiológico. No me sorprende que haya disparidad de pareceres. Pero una cosa son diferentes interpretaciones y otra incorrecciones gramaticales.
En fin, tendría que leer el libro que propones, pero déjame dudar que se pueda escribir un libro de 169 páginas de errores del Esbozo, que algo lo he trabajado.

Pero, vamos a ver, amiguito García de la Concha apócrifo: ¿tú eres capaz de prescindir del deslumbramiento que te producen los miembros de la RAE, electos a la buena de Dios, por motivos espúreos, y analizar con rigor y honestidad? Y dices que algo has trabajado el Esbozo ¿y no te has dado cuenta de lo que ha saltado a la vista y es el choteo de los hispanistas de medio mundo? ¿No será que tu gurú de cabecera es Babelia, que, como su nombre indica, os deja en Babia?

En respuesta a tu comentario (y también al de alimaña), me gustaría hacer una reflexión con todo el rigor y la honestidad que me son posibles utilizar, aunque corra el riesgo de parecerte necio. De todas formas, el espacio de comentarios me resulta algo pequeño pero trataré de sintetizar.

Me parece que tú y yo tenemos concepciones del Esbozo muy diferente. Esta gramática no son un conjunto de reglas que hay que cumplir de forma obligatoria para hablar correctamente. El Esbozo es la descripción de una determinada modalidad de uso, en este caso escrita. El Esbozo se limita a reflejar algo que existe previamente.

¿Quién ha definido esta modalidad? No tú, ni yo, ni el señor Viñó, puesto que ya existía cuando nacimos y poco podremos hacer para cambiarla. La lengua escrita no tiene la flexibilidad de la lengua oral, que sí se puede decir que se construye a través de todos los hablantes.

Fecha: 02/12/2005 20:47.

Autor: El hombre sin nombre

La lengua escrita fue elaborada por personas como Garcilaso de la Vega, Cervantes, Larra, Pío Baroja, Antonio Machado, Unamuno, etc. Lo que refleja el Esbozo es la lengua de estos autores.

Aunque los cambios morfosintácticos son los más lentos, también se producen con el paso del tiempo. De no ser así estaríamos hablando latín. De hecho, el Esbozo ya no puede reflejar plenamente la modalidad de Cervantes, porque ciertas estructuras y sobre todo el léxico ha cambiado.

No quiero ser catastrofista, pero con el tiempo las modalidades de Pío Baroja u Ortega se quedarán desfasadas. ¿Quién sabe si entonces los modelos serán los autores que critica Viñó?

Fecha: 02/12/2005 20:52.

Autor: El hombre sin nombre

No voy a entrar en predicciones tontas, pero lo que te quiero decir es que da la sensación de que Viñó está en poder de la esencia de la gramática, cuando esta modalidad es reflejo de la forma de escribir de los escritores.

Por ejemplo, si de aquí a unos diez años aparecen unas cien novelas con un rasgo sintáctico diferente, la Academia seguramente no tendrá más remedio que recogerlo. Pero este tipo de cuestiones siempre plantean discusión.

Yo, por mi parte, envidio la claridad con la que Viñó ve la gramática. Si todo estuviera tan claro Andrés Bello, Amado Alonso y Henríquez Ureña, Alarcos, Lázaro Carreter, Lamíquiz etc. dirían lo mismo.

Amigo sin nombre: Ya te lo dije anteriormente, el Gatopardo es una bitácora abierta a quien opina como yo y a quien opina en contra. No hay nada que agradezca tanto en la vida como encontrar quien disiente y se molesta en explicar sus argumentos, porque demuestra su generosidad al hacerlo. Me parece que en tus comentarios de hoy existe una línea de argumentación consistente y fundada, que el espacio de comentarios coarta. El espacio de portada no tiene límite, y está a tu disposición cuando quieras. Con el seudónimo que quieras.
De todas formas, espero que te equivoques y que esta parva de botarates que hoy publican, se olvide, como olvidamos a los "grandes escritores universales" de mi juventud, allá por los años 40 y 50. Podría decirte tres docenas ´de "famosos en todo el mundo", que nadie recuerda. Es lo bueno que tiene ser vieja: una desconfía con razón de las modas.
Gracias por tu aportación.

GERALD DURRELL CUENTA SUS AMORES CON JUANITA

Afuera —dijo Luna limpiándose la cara todavía—, hay un indio con un bicho Lo encontré con él en el pueblo.
-¿Qué clase de bicho? —pregunte mientras salíamos del garaje al jardín.
—Creo que es un cerdo—dijo Luna—, pero está en un cajón y no lo veo muy bien.
— El indio estaba en cuclillas en el césped, y delante de él había una caja de la que salían una serie de chillidos en falsete y de gruñidos apagados. Sólo un individuo de la familia porcina sería capaz de producir esos extraordinarios sonidos. El indio sonrió, se quitó el gran sombrero de paja, inclinó la cabeza, y luego, quitando la tapa de la caja sacó a la criatura más adorable del mundo. Era un pécari con collar, muy joven; el pécari es la especie común de cerdo salvaje que habita en las regiones tropicales de Sudamérica.
— Ésta es Juanita —dijo el indio, sonriendo mientras colocaba al diminuto animal sobre el césped, donde lanzó un agudo grito de alegría y empezó a olfatear muy optimista.
Tengo que decir que siempre he tenido debilidad por la familia porcina y a los cerditos pequeños los encuentro irresistibles, así que a los cinco minutos Juanita era mía a un precio doble de lo que valía, hablando en términos económicos, pero sólo a una centésima parte de su valor en cuanto a encanto y personalidad. Medía unas dieciocho pulgadas de longitud y unas doce de altura, estaba cubierta con una piel grisácea de pelo largo y bastante áspero, y tenía una bonita franja blanca que partiendo del ángulo de la mandíbula le rodeaba el cuello, de forma que daba la impresión de que llevaba un cuello de Eton. Tenía el cuerpo delgado, el hocico delicadamente afilado terminado en una deliciosa nariz respingona (algo así como un desatascador), y patas esbeltas y frágiles terminadas en unas pezuñas, cuidadosamente abrillantadas, del tamaño de una moneda de seis peniques. Andaba de un modo muy delicado y femenino, moviendo las piernas con mucha rapidez, mientras sus pezuñas producían un golpeteo como el de la lluvia.
Era enormemente mansa y tenía la cautivadora costumbre de saludarte —después de una ausencia de sólo cinco minutos— como si hubieras estado fuera durante años y como si, para ella, esos años hubieran sido grises y aburridos. Profería chillidos ahogados de satisfacción y se abalanzaba sobre ti a probarse la nariz y el trasero contra tus piernas en una orgía de alegría por tu regreso, gruñendo y suspirando seductoramente. Su idea del paraíso era que la cogieran en brazos de espaldas, como se coge a un bebé, y que se le rascara la tripita. Se quedaba así, con los ojos cerrados, haciendo rechinar los dientes de leche, como castañuelas en miniatura, en éxtasis. Yo tenía todavía a los animales más mansos y menos destructivos sueltos por el garaje, y como Juanita se portaba como una señorita, le dejé correr por allí también, encerrándola en una jaula sólo para dormir. A la hora de comer era un espectáculo curioso ver a Juanita con la nariz enterrada en un gran plato de comida, rodeada por una variedad de animales —chuñas, loros, conejos, enanos, charatas— todos intentando comer del mismo plato. Se portaba siempre de maravilla, dejando a los otros mucho sitio para comer y no mostrando nunca animosidad, ni siquiera cuando un taimado chuña picoteaba bocaditos bajo su nariz rosa. La única vez que le vi perder la paciencia fue cuando uno de los loros más simplones, que se había excitado mucho a la vista del plato de comida, bajó volando, graznando alegremente, y aterrizó en el hocico de Juanita. Ella se sacudió de encima con un gruñido de indignación al loro, que revoloteaba y graznaba, y le persiguió hasta un rincón donde se quedó vigilándole un momento, tascando los dientes a modo de advertencia antes de volver a su interrumpida comida.

Los animales, como ya he dicho, estaban en aquel momento en un enorme cobertizo propiedad del Museo, que no tenía calefacción. Aunque esto no parece preocupar excesivamente al resto de los animales (aunque era el principio del invierno argentino y estaba empezando a hacer cada vez más frío), Juanita decidió ser diferente. Sin siquiera una tos preliminar para prevenirnos, Juanita sucumbió. Por la mañana estaba llena de vitalidad y se zampó la comida con avidez y por la tarde, cuando fuimos a tapar a los animales para la noche, tenía un aspecto decididamente raro. Por de pronto, estaba inclinada contra el lado de su caja, como si necesitara apoyarse, tenía los ojos medio cerrados, y la respiración rápida, y hacía un ruido raro con la garganta. Abrí la puerta de la jaula apresuradamente y la llamé. Hizo un esfuerzo tremendo, se puso de pie temblorosa, vino tambaleándose hacia la salida de la jaula y se derrumbó en mis brazos. Lo hizo de acuerdo con la mejor tradición cinematográfica, pero fue bastante aterrador. Mientras la sostenía, oía su respiración silbando y burbujeando en su diminuto pecho, y su cuerpo estaba fláccido y frío en mis brazos.
Para ayudarnos a economizar fondos, dos amigos de Buenos Aires nos habían invitado a Sophie y a mí a alojarnos en sus respectivos pisos para poder ahorrarnos el hotel. Sophie estaba instalada en casa de Blondie Maitland-Harriot y yo ocupaba una cama de campaña en el piso de un tal David Jones. En el momento en que des-cubrí el estado de Juanita, David estaba conmigo. Mientras la envolvía en mi abrigo, pensé con rapidez: El animal necesitaba calor, y mucho. Pero yo sabía que no podíamos dárselo en aquel cobertizo de lata, aunque encendiéramos una hoguera como el Gran Fuego de Londres. Blondie ya tenía uno de mis loros, que estaba enfermo, mordiendo meditabundo el papel de la pared del cuarto de baño de su casa y pensé que era abusar de su amistad preguntarle si podía meter también un pécari en su bien decorado piso. David acababa de volver a paso ligero del Land-Rover, donde había ido a buscar una manta para envolver al cerdo. En una mano llevaba una media botella de coñac.
— ¿Sirve esto de algo? —preguntó mientras yo envolvía a Juanita en la manta.
—Sí, estupendo. Mira, calienta un poco de leche en el calentador de alcohol y mezcla una cucharadita de coñac con ella, ¿quieres?
Mientras David hacía esto, Juanita, casi invisible en su capullo hecho a base de manta y abrigo, tosió alarmantemente. Por fin estuvo a punto la leche con coñac, y conseguí meterle en el cuerpo dos cucharadas, aunque fue difícil porque estaba casi inconsciente.
— ¿Podemos hacer algo más? —preguntó David, lleno de esperanza, porque, como yo, había tomado mucho cariño a la cerdita.
— Sí, tenemos que ponerle una inyección colosal de penicilina y necesita todo el calor y toda la ventilación posible.
Le miré esperanzado.
— Vamos a llevarla al departamento —dijo David, como yo esperaba. No perdimos más tiempo. El Land-Rover voló por las calles brillantes de lluvia, a una velocidad peligrosa y fue un milagro que llegásemos intactos. Mientras yo corría escaleras arriba con Juanita en brazos, David fue corriendo al piso de Blondie, porque allí es donde Sophie tenía nuestro botiquín con la penicilina y las jeringuillas hipodérmicas.
Tumbé a Juanita, ya totalmente inconsciente, en el sofá de David, y, aunque el piso tenía calefacción central, encendí también la estufa eléctrica, y luego abrí todas las ventanas que no creasen corrientes.
David volvió en un tiempo increíblemente corto y, rápidamente, hervimos la jeringuilla y puse a Juanita la dosis de penicilina más grande que consideré que podría aguantar. Casi fue a curar o a matar, porque nunca había usado penicilina con un pécari, y no sabía si no serían alérgicos a ella. Luego, durante una hora, nos sentamos a vigilarla. Al cabo de ese tiempo, me convencí de que su respiración era algo más tranquila, pero estaba todavía inconsciente y yo sabía que estaba aún lejos de recuperarse.
— Dime —dijo David cuando yo había escuchado el pecho de Juanita por enésima vez—, ¿sirve de algo que estemos aquí sentados mirándola?

— No —dije de mala gana—, no creo que haya ningún cambio hasta dentro de tres o cuatro horas, si lo hay. De momento está bien, pero debe ser efecto del coñac.
— Bueno —dijo David con mucho sentido práctico—, vamos a comer algo a Olly. No sé si tendrás hambre, pero yo sí. No vamos a tardar más de tres cuartos de hora.
— Bueno —dije desganado—, supongo que tienes razón.
De modo que, después de asegurarnos de que Juanita estaba cómoda y de que la estufa eléctrica no podía prender fuego a sus mantas, nos fuimos al Bar Musical de Olly, en la calle 25 de mayo, que es la que corre paralela a lo que era antes la zona portuaria de Buenos Aires. Es una calle bordeada de pequeños clubes, algunos con nombres deliciosos, como «Mi Deseo», «Sala de Bellezas La Luna Azul» y, quizá algo más misteriosamente, «La Tremenda Exhibición de Joe».
No era el tipo de calle en la que podría verse a un hombre respetable, pero hacía mucho que había deja-do de preocuparme por la respetabilidad. Con varios de mis amigos, había visitado ya la mayoría de aquellos bares diminutos, oscuros y llenos de humo, había tomado copas de tamaño microscópico a un precio colosal, y había observado a las chicas de la barra ejerciendo su antiquísimo oficio. Pero de todos los bares, el que preferíamos era el Bar Musical de Olly, y siempre hacíamos una escala obligada en él. Nos gustaba por muchas razones. Primero, por el propio Olly, semejante a un nogal arrugado, y su encantadora mujer. Segundo, porque Olly, no sólo te daba una buena cantidad en el vaso, sino que frecuentemente te invitaba él mismo a una copa. Tercero, porque el bar estaba bien iluminado, de forma que podías ver a tus acompañantes; en otros bares tenías que ser un búho o un murciélago para ver con claridad. Cuarto, porque a sus chicas no les estaba permitido fastidiarte sugiriéndote constantemente que las invitaras a una copa, y quinto, porque había dos hermanos, un hombre y una mujer, que cantaban y tocaban la guitarra deliciosamente. Y finalmente, y quizá esto fuera lo más importante, he visto a las chicas del bar de Olly, una vez acabado su trabajo nocturno, besar a Olly y a su mujer con tanto cariño como si fuesen sus padres.
Así que David y yo bajamos las escaleras del bar y fuimos recibidos con alegría por Olly y su mujer. Una vez que explicamos la causa de nuestra depresión, todo el bar se llenó de compasión. Olly nos invitó a un gran vaso de vodka y las chicas de la barra se reunieron a nuestro alrededor diciéndonos que estaban seguras de que Juanita se curaría, y, en general, tratando de animarnos. Pero mientras nos tomábamos los bocadillos y las salchichas calientes y bebíamos vodka allí de pie, ni siquiera los alegres carnavalitos* que los hermanos tocaron y cantaron especialmente para nosotros, consiguieron aliviar mi depresión. Estaba seguro de que Juanita se iba a morir y me había encariñado de una forma absurda con ese animalito. Finalmente, cuando hubimos comido y bebido, nos despedimos y subimos las escaleras que llevaban a la calle.
— Vengan mañana a decirnos como está el animal —gritó Olly.
— Sí, sí —dijeron las chicas como un coro griego—, vengan mañana a decirnos como está la pobrecita .
Cuando llegamos al piso, yo estaba convencido de que encontraríamos a Juanita muerta. Al entrar en el cuarto de estar, miré el montón de mantas que había sobre el sofá y tuve que forzarme a mí mismo para acercarme a mirar. Levanté un pico de la manta suavemente y un ojo oscuro centelleante me miró cariñosamente, mientras que un hocico rosa en forma de desatascador se arrugaba y un gruñido débil, muy débil, de placer, salía de la enferma.
— ¡Dios mío! está mejor dijo David incrédulo.
— Un poco —dije cautelosamente—. Todavía no está fuera de peligro, pero yo creo que hay esperanza.
Como para darme la razón, Juanita volvió a gruñir.
Para asegurarme de que no se destaparía por la noche y se pondría peor, la acosté conmigo en el sofá. Se tumbó muy tranquila cruzada sobre mi pecho y durmió profundamente. Aunque su respiración todavía era sibilante, había perdido el sonido raspante que acompañaba al principio a cada inspiración. A la mañana siguiente me despertó una nariz fría y como de goma que se me metía en el ojo y oí los sibilantes gruñidos de saludo de Juanita. La destapé y vi que era un bicho diferente. Tenía los ojos brillantes, la temperatura normal y, aunque todavía le silbaba la respiración, la tenía mucho más regular, y, esto fue lo mejor de todo, incluso se mantuvo de pie un instante, tambaleándose. A partir de entonces, no dio marcha atrás. Mejoró a pasos agigantados, pero cuando mejor se encontraba, peor paciente resultaba. Tan pronto como pudo andar sin caerse cada dos pasos, se empeñó en pasar el día trotando por la habitación y estaba de lo más indignada porque la obligaba a llevar una manta pequeña atada con un imperdible bajo la barbilla, como una capa. Comía como un caballo, y la colmábamos de golosinas. Pero era por las noches cuando la encontraba particularmente difícil. Consideraba que lo de dormir conmigo era una idea estupenda y, aunque eso era muy halagador, yo opinaba de forma distinta. Parecíamos tener ideas diferentes sobre las razones por las que uno se va a la cama. Yo iba a dormir, pero Juanita pensaba que era el mejor momento del día para un retozo glorioso. Los colmillos y las pezuñas de un cachorro de pécari son extremadamente afilados y su hocico es duro, elástico y húmedo, tener esas tres armas aplicadas a la anatomía de uno mientras intenta dormirse pacíficamente, es, como poco, molesto. A veces bailaba una especie de tango porcino, con sus afiladas pezuñas sobre mi pecho y mi estómago, y otras se perseguía la cola en redondo hasta que yo empezaba a sentirme como la infortunada víctima de El pozo y el péndulo1. De vez en cuando interrumpía su danza para venir a meterme la nariz húmeda en el ojo y ver si estaba disfrutando. En ocasiones parecía obsesionada con la idea de que yo tenía oculta sobre mi persona, en algún sitio, una rara golosina. Podrían haber sido trufas, no sé, pero fuera lo que fuera, ella buscaba concienzudamente con la nariz, los colmillos y las pezuñas, gruñendo estridente y malhumoradamente al ver que no encontraba nada. Sobre las tres de la madrugada se sumía en un tranquilo profundo sueño. Luego, a las cinco y media daba un rápido galope, de arriba abajo, sobre mi cuerpo para asegurarse de que me despertaba en forma. Esto duró cuatro noches agónicas, hasta que pensé que Juanita estaba suficientemente recuperada, y la desterré a dormir a una caja, con profunda y clamorosa indignación por parte de ella.

Había sacado a flote a Juanita justo a tiempo, porque tan pronto como se sintió mejor, recibimos recado de que el barco estaba listo para zarpar. Por nada del mundo habría querido yo emprender un viaje con Juanita tan enferma como había estado, porque estoy seguro de que hubiese muerto.

Gerald Durrell nació e 1925 en Jamshedpur en la India. Era un bebé cuando su padre murió, mientras su madre se hacía cargo de cuatro niños. En 1928, la familia se trasladó a la Isla de Corfú, en donde vivió hasta 1939. Lo contó en los libros "Mi familia y otros animales", Bichos y demás parientes", y "El jardín de los dioses"
Durante la II Guerra Mundial trabajó en una tienda de animales y pasaba su tiempo libre en el zoo de Londres. Para recuperar animales en peligro de extinción, organizó y financió en 1947 un primer viaje al Camerún.Los dos años siguientes viajó porlos territorios salvajes de la Guayana británica. Estas tres expediciones le llevaron a la ruina,agotando la herencia de su padre que recibió a los 21 años. Para financiar futuros viajes, empezó una carrera de escritor llena de éxitos como "El arca inmóvil" o "Tres billetes para la aventura". A partir de aquí, el escritor y zoólogo, inició una larga serie de expediciones por el Paraguay, Argentina, Méjico, Rusia, Sierra Leone y Mauricio, y fundó el Jersey Wildlife Preservation Trust en 1964.
Ha sido uno de los hombres que no conocí y que no cayeron en mis brazos.

Bueno, no sabes cómo he disfrutado leyendo este texto de Gerard Durrell. Soy una entusista de sus libros y los he regalado montones de veces. Cuando voy a visitar a alguien ingresado en un centro hospitalario y puede leer, escojo algo de este autor. El paciente(nadie me ha fallado)siempre me cuenta sus impresiones y me dice que se ha divertidomucho y que ha olvidado, por un tiempo, su situación. Sólo en un caso el libro fue contraproducente: el afectado había sido operado de apendicitis y la risa le sentaba muy mal. Me dijo que había tenido que interrumpir la lectura de "Mi familia y otros animales" cuando llegó al episodio en el que la familia Durrell contempla a aquel palomo que desfilaba con arrogancia cuando sonaba una marcha militar. Sigue, Gatopardo.

En cuanto al post de Gerard Durell, solo decir que sus aventuras adolescentes en Corfu estan entre los pocos libros que me han hecho reir a carcajadas. Aun hoy recordando la historia de los cuervos y su engolado hermano Lawrence y no puedo dejar de sonreir.
